

THE TITAN ROUNDUP

October 7, 1966

A NEWSLETTER

FOR THE STAFF AND STUDENTS OF LANE COMMUNITY COLLEGE, 200 NORTH MONROE, EUGENE, OREGON

PPC TO MEET

New members of the LCC Personnel Policies Committee will meet with the PPC for the first time on Tuesday, the 11th of October, Chairman Carrol deBroekert said today.

Elected Friday to the Committee were Karen Lansdowne and Jed Merrill, new members; Harry Roberts and Robert Marshall, re-elected members. Others on the Committee are Dena Malliris, Pat Grant, and Chairman deBroekert.

The Committee will consider three major areas of staff interest this year, Mr. deBroekert said. First order of business will be organization of a Staff Association as provided for in the Staff Organization Constitution. Plans are to hold elections of Association officers within the next two weeks. The Committee will also give extensive consideration to all LCC insurance programs, and to the Staff evaluation instrument and procedures.

The Personnel Policies Committee is elected by Staff members to act as a review board and recommending body to the President and the Board of Education on matters affecting LCC Staff members. The Committee has direct access to the Board of Education through the President, who serves as an advisor to the Committee.

STUDENT DIRECTORY

A Student Directory will be published this term at LCC for the first time as a project of the college Publications Committee with Pauline Dixon acting as editor. The Directory will be a mimeographed list and will include names and addresses of Fall Term students, administrators, and counselors; and will be distributed to LCC students free of charge.

DENTAL PROGRAM REVIEWED

Dr. Kermit Knudtson and Annabelle Rasmussen, field representatives of the Council on Dental Education of the American Dental Association visited the Eugene Campus Wednesday, October 5, to evaluate the LCC Dental Assistant Program for accreditation by the American Dental Association. Accreditation by the ADA will make Dental Assistant graduates of LCC eligible to take the National Dental Assistant Certification examinations.

The LCC Dental Assistant Program has been operating on provisional accreditation for the past two years.

Dr. Knudtson is Director of Continuing Education, Post Graduate Instruction, School of Dentistry, University of North Carolina; Mrs. Rasmussen is a member of the American Dental Assistant Association from Puyallup, Washington.

COUNSELOR HONORED

Irene Parent, LCC Counselor, was elected Vice-President of the Oregon Association of Women Deans and Counselors at a meeting held recently at Oceanlake, Oregon. Pauline Dixon, also of the LCC Counseling staff, accompanied Mrs. Parent.

MEETINGS

President's	Rm. 6-b, 9:00 am
Cabinet	Tues., October 11
Division	Rm. 12-b,
Council	Tues., October 11

FACTS ARE STUBBORN THINGS
Le Sage

CAMPUS MODEL

The model of the new Lane Community College campus will be on display at various cities throughout the District during the next few months. It will be on view in the lobby of the US National Bank in Junction City through the 14th of October. On October 17 the model will go on display in the First National Bank in Cottage Grove; and will be shown at the US National Bank, also in Cottage Grove, October 24-28.

Other scheduled dates include Florence, November 28-December 9; Springfield, October 31-November 25; Eugene, December 12-January 6.

Dates still to be scheduled include Creswell, Harrisburg, Lowell, McKenzie, Mapleton, Monroe, Oakridge, and Veneta.

MUSICAL FEATURE

The Salvation Army San Francisco Citadel Band will present a concert, "101 Years of Music", the evening of Saturday, October 15, at South Eugene High School. Arthur Bailey, Eugene vocalist, and the First Christian Church Choir of Eugene, will appear with the band. This is an all-brass band which offers unique arrangements of instrumental music.

Tickets are available at $1.00 each at the Eugene Music Company, Lights for Music in Springfield, and the Salvation Army Office.

WOMENS' ACTIVITIES

Faculty wives and women Staff members are invited to play volleyball the evening of October 13 in the Bethel Campus gym. Play will begin at 7:30. Interested women are asked to contact Delpha Daggett on the Bethel Campus.

BOARD MEETING

The LCC Board of Education met the evening of Wednesday, October 6. Items of business considered included:

1. Authorized a Bond Issue sale, to be called December 7, in the amount of $6.6 million for 20 years.
2. Extended the trial bus service to run through October 21, with final decision on permanent bus service to be made at the Board meeting October 19.
3. Decided to eliminate the Instructor Mileage charge for Adult Education courses.
4. Authorized tuition-free programs for Volunteer Firemen.
5. Heard a report that site grading was 60% complete and ahead of schedule.
6. Approved proceeding with working drawings for the Electronics building. The Architects hope to have the 3 Mechanics buildings up for bid by early in December.

BETHEL LAUNCHES LUNCHES

The cafeteria on the Bethel Campus is now open under the direction of Merlin Ames, LCC Food Service Director. The menu will feature sandwiches and salads, plus a hot lunch special each day. Hours are from 10:00 am to 2:00 pm.

TORCH LIT

First issue of the Torch, student newspaper at LCC, is off the press, with a circulation of 2500 copies.

The last temptation is the greatest treason:
To do the right deed for the wrong reason.
T. S. Elliot

THE TITAN ROUNDUP

October 21, 1966

A NEWSLETTER

FOR THE STAFF AND STUDENTS OF LANE COMMUNITY COLLEGE, 200 NORTH MONROE, EUGENE, OREGON

IN THIS ISSUE

- * Personnel Policies Committee
- * All Staff Meeting
- * Testing Program Scheduled

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE

Q. HAS THE NEW CLASS SCHEDULE (1-1/2 HOURS - 2 DAYS A WEEK) BEEN ADOPTED FOR WINTER TERM? HOW MAY STAFF MEMBERS EXPRESS REACTIONS?

A. The new type class schedule has not been adopted definitely for winter term. The cycle of an idea in this instance is as follows: President's Cabinet--Division Council--Staff--Division Council--and President's Cabinet. Anyone with suggestions with regard to the new time schedule should express them to his Division Chairman, or feel free to make an appointment to see Mr. William Hein, Dean of Instruction.

President Parnell has set up open office hours this year from 3:00 to 5:00 pm on Mondays when any staff member may see him without an appointment.

Suggestion boxes have been set up on all campuses near the main offices. The boxes are checked weekly, and suggestions are carefully reviewed.

We desire your suggestions and reactions to any LCC procedures and policies.

Q. WHAT CAN STAFF MEMBERS DO IF THEY ARE DISSAISFIED WITH THE PRESENT GROUP INSURANCE PLAN?

A. A new LCC staff committee has been appointed jointly by the President and Carroll M. deBroekert, Chairman of the Personnel Policies Committee to review the matter of staff insurance. Mr. Robert Marshall has been named Chairman. Other members include Hazel Smith, Gordon Wehner, Joris Johnson, Ann Newton, William Cox, Cecil Hodges. Please contact any of these people if you have questions on the present insurance plan.

BULLETIN BOARD

President's Cabinet	Rm. 6-b, 9:00 am Tues., October 25
Division Council	Rm. 12-b, 2:30 pm Tues., October 25
Electronics Division	Rm. 12-b, 3:00 pm Wed., October 26
Adult Education Division Council	Rm. 6-b, 9:30 am Thu., October 27
Student Council	Rm. 12-b, 2:30 pm Thurs., October 27
All Staff Meeting	Bethel Gym, 4:00 pm Thurs., October 27
Student Activities Committee	Rm. 6-b, 4:00 pm Thurs., October 27

THERE CAN BE NO DEFENSE LIKE ELABORATE COURTESY.

Edward Lucas

PPC PLANS

The Staff Personnel Policies Committee has outlined an impressive program for the coming year as announced recently by Carroll deBroekert, Chairman. The Committee plans to explore the following areas of staff interest in the months ahead:

- * Staff Evaluation
- * Three-Year Extended Contracts
- * Staff Insurance Programs
- * Salary Schedule for Summer Session
- * Sabbatical Leaves

The LCC Board of Education will meet with the PPC this year as a committee-of-the whole.

The Committee would appreciate comments or questions concerning any of the proposed areas of study; or of any other program you feel the Committee should investigate this year. These can be given to any member of the Committee for consideration.

Members include:

Carroll deBroekert
Patrick Grant
Karen Lansdowne
Dena Malliris
Robert Marshall
Jed Merrill
Harry Roberts

STUDENT COUNCIL CONTACT

Student Council mail boxes have been installed on each campus. Mail for student body officers, student council representatives, clubs, and organizations should also be placed here for distribution.

Please hand student council box mail to the office secretaries on all campuses.

GUEST SPEAKER

Cecil Hodges, Chairman of the LCC Health and PE Division spoke to instructors of the Beaverton School District on October 28th. His topic was "The Care and Prevention of Athletic Injuries."

ALL STAFF MEETING

An all staff meeting will be held Thursday, October 27, at 4:00 pm, in the Bethel Campus Auditorium. Some major items on the agenda will be:

1. Election of Staff Association Officers (This portion of the meeting will be conducted by Carroll deBroekert, the Chairman of the Staff Personnel Policies Committee.)
2. Discussion of the work of the PPC.
3. Review of the staff evaluation instrument and procedures.
4. Discussion of the Instructional Staff offices for the new campus.

Those wishing to place items on the meeting agenda are asked to contact Bert Dotson in the President's Office before October 24.

TESTING PROGRAM SCHEDULED

The American Testing Program is supplying free tests for LCC students as part of their program to establish norms for community college students on a nationwide basis. The tests are available to all LCC students, both technical-vocational and college transfer, and are designed to help the student become aware of his potential, and to help with the student's educational plans for the future. It also gives experience in taking tests.

The four-hour test will be given Saturday, October 29, in the Springfield High School Cafetorium from 8:00 to 12:00 am.

Instructors should encourage all students to take advantage of this testing program.

DESSERT SPECIAL

The Dental Assistant class at LCC will hold baked goods sales on a weekly basis again this year. Sales will begin next Friday and continue each Friday for several weeks.

Funds will be used to help pay expenses for class members who attend the State Dental Convention in Portland early next spring.

TO LAUGH AT MEN OF SENSE IS THE PRIVILEGE OF FOOLS.

Jean de la Bruyere

THE TITAN ROUNDUP

October 21, 1966

A NEWSLETTER

FOR THE STAFF AND STUDENTS OF LANE COMMUNITY COLLEGE, 200 NORTH MONROE, EUGENE, OREGON

IN THIS ISSUE

- * Personnel Policies Committee
- * All Staff Meeting
- * Testing Program Scheduled

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE

Q. HAS THE NEW CLASS SCHEDULE (1-1/2 HOURS - 2 DAYS A WEEK) BEEN ADOPTED FOR WINTER TERM? HOW MAY STAFF MEMBERS EXPRESS REACTIONS?

A. The new type class schedule has not been adopted definitely for winter term. The cycle of an idea in this instance is as follows: President's Cabinet--Division Council--Staff--Division Council--and President's Cabinet. Anyone with suggestions with regard to the new time schedule should express them to his Division Chairman, or feel free to make an appointment to see Mr. William Hein, Dean of Instruction.

President Parnell has set up open office hours this year from 3:00 to 5:00 pm on Mondays when any staff member may see him without an appointment.

Suggestion boxes have been set up on all campuses near the main offices. The boxes are checked weekly, and suggestions are carefully reviewed.

We desire your suggestions and reactions to any LCC procedures and policies

Q. WHAT CAN STAFF MEMBERS DO IF THEY ARE DISSATISFIED WITH THE PRESENT GROUP INSURANCE PLAN?

A. A new LCC staff committee has been appointed jointly by the President and Carroll M. deBroekert, Chairman of the Personnel Policies Committee to review the matter of staff insurance. Mr. Robert Marshall has been named Chairman. Other members include Hazel Smith, Gordon Wehner, Joris Johnson, Ann Newton, William Cox, Cecil Hodges. Please contact any of these people if you have questions on the present insurance plan.

BULLETIN BOARD

President's Cabinet	Rm. 6-b, 9:00 am Tues., October 25
Division Council	Rm. 12-b, 2:30 pm Tues., October 25
Electronics Division	Rm. 12-b, 3:00 pm Wed., October 26
Adult Education Division Council	Rm. 6-b, 9:30 am Thu., October 27
Student Council	Rm. 12-b, 2:30 pm Thurs., October 27
All Staff Meeting	Bethel Gym, 4:00 pm Thurs., October 27
Student Activities Committee	Rm. 6-b, 4:00 pm Thurs., October 27

THERE CAN BE NO DEFENSE LIKE ELABORATE COURTESY.

Edward Lucas

PPC PLANS

The Staff Personnel Policies Committee has outlined an impressive program for the coming year as announced recently by Carroll deBroekert, Chairman. The Committee plans to explore the following areas of staff interest in the months ahead:

- * Staff Evaluation
- * Three-Year Extended Contracts
- * Staff Insurance Programs
- * Salary Schedule for Summer Session
- * Sabbatical Leaves

The LCC Board of Education will meet with the PPC this year as a committee-of-the whole.

The Committee would appreciate comments or questions concerning any of the proposed areas of study; or of any other program you feel the Committee should investigate this year. These can be given to any member of the Committee for consideration.

Members include:

Carroll deBroekert
Patrick Grant
Karen Lansdowne
Dena Malliris
Robert Marshall
Jed Merrill
Harry Roberts

STUDENT COUNCIL CONTACT

Student Council mail boxes have been installed on each campus. Mail for student body officers, student council representatives, clubs, and organizations should also be placed here for distribution.

Please hand student council box mail to the office secretaries on all campuses.

GUEST SPEAKER

Cecil Hodges, Chairman of the LCC Health and PE Division spoke to instructors of the Beaverton School District on October 28th. His topic was "The Care and Prevention of Athletic Injuries."

ALL STAFF MEETING

An all staff meeting will be held Thursday, October 27, at 4:00 pm, in the Bethel Campus Auditorium. Some major items on the agenda will be:

1. Election of Staff Association Officers (This portion of the meeting will be conducted by Carroll deBroekert, the Chairman of the Staff Personnel Policies Committee.)
2. Discussion of the work of the PPC.
3. Review of the staff evaluation instrument and procedures.
4. Discussion of the Instructional Staff offices for the new campus.

Those wishing to place items on the meeting agenda are asked to contact Bert Dotson in the President's Office before October 24.

TESTING PROGRAM SCHEDULED

The American Testing Program is supplying free tests for LCC students as part of their program to establish norms for community college students on a nationwide basis. The tests are available to all LCC students, both technical-vocational and college transfer, and are designed to help the student become aware of his potential, and to help with the student's educational plans for the future. It also gives experience in taking tests.

The four-hour test will be given Saturday, October 29, in the Springfield High School Cafetorium from 8:00 to 12:00 am.

Instructors should encourage all students to take advantage of this testing program.

DESSERT SPECIAL

The Dental Assistant class at LCC will hold baked goods sales on a weekly basis again this year. Sales will begin next Friday and continue each Friday for several weeks.

Funds will be used to help pay expenses for class members who attend the State Dental Convention in Portland early next spring.

TO LAUGH AT MEN OF SENSE IS THE PRIVILEGE OF FOOLS.

Jean de la Bruyere

THE TITAN ROUNDUP

October 28, 1966

A NEWSLETTER

FOR THE STAFF AND STUDENTS OF LANE COMMUNITY COLLEGE, 200 NORTH MONROE, EUGENE, OREGON

IN THIS ISSUE

- * Instructional Media Explored
- * New Staff Association Officers
- * Adult Education Classes

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE

Q. WHO IS ELIGIBLE TO USE THE STUDY SKILLS CENTER?

A. The Study Skills Center is designed primarily for students currently enrolled in Lane Community College, both full and part-time. Any staff member may also make use of the SSC.

Due to space and equipment limitations, community citizens do not have access to the Study Skills Center at this time.

During the first two weeks of Fall Term 91 persons participated in the Reading Lab; 27 in the Spelling Program; 16 in Study Skills; and 43 in supplementary programs such as English, vocabulary, etc. 103 persons made use of the Math Lab facilities during this same period.

LECTURE SERIES STARTS

Neal Balanoff, the Director of Audio-Visual Services at Stephens College, Columbia, Missouri, will present a lecture entitled "Vitalizing Education Through the Use of Instructional Media" on Thursday evening, November 3, at 7:30 pm, in the Studio on The LCC Eugene Campus.

The program will be open to staff, students, and the public.

HISTORIC FIRST

Gerald Rasmussen was elected LCC's first Staff Association President at elections held Thursday, October 27. Mr. Rasmussen is Chairman of the Social Science Division.

As Staff Association President he will represent LCC at the American Association of Junior Colleges meeting in San Francisco in February. He will also be a permanent member of the President's Cabinet.

Other new Association officers are Pauline Dixon, Secretary; Mel Gaskill, Vice-President; and Gordon Wehner, Treasurer.

INSTRUCTIONAL MEDIA CONSULTANT

The LCC Board of Education has retained Neal Balanoff, the Director of Audio-Visual Services at Stephens College, as a consultant to work with faculty members and architects on master plan specifications for instructional media services for the new campus.

Mr. Balanoff will meet with the LCC staff Thursday and Friday, November 3 and 4, to explore philosophies for the use of instructional materials and to help the staff prepare instructional media educational specifications for the new campus.

Mr. Balanoff received his B.A. degree at Cleveland College and his M.A. degree at Western Reserve University. He has done graduate work at several universities; and has taught at Western Reserve University and the University of Akron. His background includes radio and TV experience. He has been Director of the radio-TV-film department and the audio-visual department for Stephens College since 1957.

Saying is one thing; the doing is another.

Montaigne

BULLETIN BOARD

Health, PE	Room 68, 4:30 pm
Div. Council	Mon., October 31
Personnel Policies
Committee and
Staff. Organ.	Room 6-b, 1:30 pm
Exec. Meeting . . .	Tues., November 1
Division	Room 12-b, 2:30 pm
Council	Tues., November 1
Nursing, Home Ec.	Room 24, 3:30 pm
Division Council . .	Wed., November 2
Student	Room 12-b, 2:30 pm
Council	Thurs., November 3

ADULT EDUCATION

New This Week:

A class in Business Machines will begin on October 31, and meet twice weekly, Monday and Wednesday, at the Eugene Labor Temple. Cost: $14.00/30 hours.

Welding will start at Harrisburg beginning Tuesday, November 1, and meet once a week. Cost: $25.00/30 hours.

Retail Selling starts Tuesday, November 1, at South Eugene High School, and will meet one day a week. Cost: $14.00/30 hours.

Bishop Sewing I will start November 3 at Walterville Elementary School. After the first meeting the class will meet regularly every Monday evening at the Walterville Community Hall. Cost: $14.00/30 hours.

All classes meet from 7:00 pm to 10:00 pm.

UNITED APPEAL

Dick Eymann, LCC representative for the 1966-67 United Appeal, announced today the contribution cards will be distributed within the next two weeks to give all staff members an opportunity to contribute to this year's UA fund.

Contributions can be made in cash or by payroll deduction, Mr. Eymann said. The Lane County fund goal is $474,215. To date almost $260,000 has been contributed.

Bert Dotson, Administrative Assistant to the President, is Education Chairman for this year's drive.

DEANS CONFERENCE

William Hein, LCC Dean of Instruction, and G. R. Bloomquist, Assistant Dean of Instruction, attended an all-day meeting at Treasure Valley Community College in Ontario, October 28. Attending were the Deans of all Oregon Community Colleges.

COUNSELORS CONFAB

Five LCC Counselors attended the Northwest College Personnel Association annual conference at Gearhart, October 23-25.

Representing LCC at the Conference were Wilbert Bailey, John Bernham, and Dr. Ken Hills, Counselors; Dean of Students I. S. Hakanson; and Registrar William Wright.

HOW IS THE TORCH?

Debbie Jo Briggs and Vicki Merrill, acting co-editors of The Torch, solicit staff comments, pro or con, about the paper. Send your comments, suggestions, story ideas, etc., to The Torch, Room 85, Bethel.

TROUBLE COMES FROM THINGS WE LET SLIP THROUGH OUR LIPS
RATHER THAN FROM THOSE WE LET SLIP THROUGH OUR FINGERS.