CASH NEEDS HELP

In an effort to find a solution to next year's space shortage, CASH (the Committee to Accommodate Six Hundred) will conduct a survey Monday, March 6. Students will be asked to indicate their preferences for alternate solutions to this problem.

A vital element in the success of the survey will be the volunteer cooperation of Instructors to make it possible for students to vote in classes. In order to create as little inconvenience as possible, ballots will be placed in Instructors' mail boxes for pick up before class time Monday morning. Ballots will be picked up by a CASH Committee member; or they may be placed in the mail boxes of Gordon Wehner, Springfield Campus; Ron Mitchell, Bethel Campus; or German Ellsworth, Eugene Campus.

President Dale Parnell has indicated he will use the results of this survey as a guide in formulating next year's scheduling.

Thanks for your cooperation.

BOARD AND BUDGET SESSIONS

The Lane Community College Board of Education is scheduled to meet at 7:00 pm Monday, March 6. Main topic of business will be review of personnel for the coming year.

The short meeting will be followed by a Budget Committee Meeting at 8:00 pm, which will be devoted primarily to a discussion of the General Fund for operation of the College.

It is planned to hold the public hearing on the Budget on April 5. Interested staff members are invited to attend these meetings.

The LCC election for the amount of money necessary to balance the budget will be held May 1. Staff members who are not registered to vote are reminded that voter registration must be made by April 1 in order to vote in the May 1 election.

YEARBOOK PICS

Staff members are urged to have pictures taken during the two remaining days the photographer is on campus taking yearbook pictures. Plans are underway to establish a complete photo file of staff members for use throughout the year.

Alex Ziel, photographer, will be on the Springfield Campus Wednesday, March 8, and Friday, March 10. You are urged to drop by and have your picture taken if you have not already done so. There is no charge, and proofs will be sent on request if you are interested in buying pictures. Staff members are welcome to drop by the Springfield Campus while pictures are being taken.

STUDENTS PLAN TRIP

LCC Student Body Association officers are planning to attend the Governor's Prayer Breakfast meeting at the Marion Hotel in Salem Saturday, the 4th of March. Making the trip will be President Bob Winberly, Treasurer Gary Keene, and Secretaries Phyllis Booth and Pat Norris.

MORE STUDY SKILLS MATERIAL

Howard Bird, Director of the Study Skills Center at 662 Cheshire Street, reports the Center is building up a tape library for use at the SSC by interested staff and students.

Latest addition is 12 musical tapes, including such popular artists as Caterina Valente, Sarah Vaughn, and the Don Cossack Choir; and the works of classical composers such as Liszt, Haydn, and Prokofiev.

Foreign language tapes are also available, Mr. Bird reports.

CRAM TIME HERE

REMINDER: March 6-10 is Winter Term Dead Week at LCC. No student activities will be held, in order to give students time to study for final exams, which will be held the week of March 13-18.

NEW CLUB FORMED

A special welcome to LCC's newest student club, the Syntopikans. Don Dickinson and Paul Patrick are advisors to the new service group.

REHIRING NOTICES

By law, contracted staff members must be notified of Board intent to rehire by March 15 of each year. However, the LCC Board of Education will not be setting individual salaries until after the Budget Hearing on April 5. As soon as the Board has determined individual salaries, contracts will be prepared as rapidly as possible.

The budget provides for an average salary increase step for instructors of $325; in addition, a provision has been made for $108 for yearly health insurance coverage for each full-time staff member.

The proposed average salary increase for full-time classified staff members is $240 in addition to the $108 health insurance provision for the year. Dean Cox will be notifying classified staff within the next few days of proposed individual classifications and salaries for the coming year.

POSITIONS OPEN FOR 1967-68

To let staff members be aware of the positions open next year, this summary has been compiled. Staff members interested in applying for any of these positions should contact Edna Kennel, Personnel Secretary, on the Eugene Campus, for further information about these positions.

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

3/17/67

PROJECT DIRECTOR

Community Action Program Director

1. Nature of the Position

This position involves administration of experimental, demonstration, and service programs in education, employment, social welfare, and community development directed toward the reduction or elimination of poverty and related social problems in Lane County, Oregon.

The position includes direction and coordination of program design, resource development, and program administration. This requires direction of staff from various professional disciplines operating program components and staff services of training, business and central services, and evaluation.

The Project Director has responsibility and authority for selection and retention of staff within general policies set by the Board. He establishes program and administrative policies for program operation. He is responsible for program conformity and fiscal control and is accountable to the Board and the various sources funding Board programs. This includes certification of payrolls, invoices, and other Project expenditures.

The Project Director serves as the primary liaison person with various funding agencies. He is directly responsible to the Directors of the Lane County Youth Study Board (Lane Human Resources, Inc.)

2. Required Education and Experience

A Master's Degree in some branch of the social sciences or education, plus a minimum of six years of increasingly responsible and successful experience in program supervision, consultation or administration in social welfare, social science or education programs. Two of the six years of experience may be substituted by post-master's education. Prior experience in administration of programs involving multi-disciplinary approaches to human welfare problems will be given heavy weight.

3. Knowledge and Special Abilities

This individual must possess leadership and administrative skills necessary to implement complex programs involving direct service to individuals and those directed at bringing about community change. He must be able to translate program needs and accomplishments to the Board and the community through various means, including effective use of mass media.

4. Salary and Fringe Benefits

Salary up to $13,000, depending upon qualifications, plus a Board paid 6% retirement annuity; social security. Group medical plan and group life insurance available. Three weeks vacation, 12 days sick leave per year.

5. Applications received until March 27, 1967.

SPRING TERM ENROLLMENT

Spring Term enrollment figures show 1646 students registered as of March 23 Dean of Students I. S. Hakanson said today. Of these, 200 were new students; the rest were returning students.

Spring Term classes will begin March 27, with registration continuing through March 31.

Mr. Hakanson reports that a breakdown of Data Processing equipment makes it necessary to issue temporary report cards next week. Permanent report cards will be mailed around the middle of April.

NEW CONSTRUCTION ON THE WAY

The LCC Board of Education has called a special Board meeting for 7:30 pm Wednesday, March 29, for a discussion of the Board Policy Handbook and to award bids for four new campus buildings. These will include the Apprenticeship, Business Technology, Administration, and Industrial Technology buildings. Estimated cost of construction of these buildings is $1,929,000.

YEARBOOK ON SALE

Subscriptions to the TITAN, LCC yearbook, are on sale at the Bookstores on both the Eugene and Springfield campuses. Cost of the TITAN is $3.00. The yearbooks will be mailed to subscribers the middle of July.

You are encouraged to drop by one of the Bookstores as soon as possible and place your order.

COURSE COMPLETIONS

Certificates of completion will be presented to nine members of the Fry Cook class on Friday, March 24, by Robert Marshall, MDTA Director. The class has met for sixteen weeks under the supervision of Merlin Ames, Director of Food Services for LCC.

Graduation Ceremonies will be held Friday, March 31, at 7:30 pm, in the Studio on the Eugene Campus for seventeen Home Health Aides who have just completed the eight-week course of instruction. Instructors for the course are Sue Marshall and Kathleen Gavin.

STAFF MEETING APRIL 12

An All-Staff meeting for full-time staff members has been called for Wednesday, April 12, at 4 p.m. on the Bethel Campus. Instructional personnel are asked to cancel classes for this time if necessary in order to attend the meeting. Part-time staff members are always welcome at staff meetings, although their attendance is not required.

Planned for the same session will be a Staff Association meeting called by Association President Gerald Rasmussen.

TONGUE POINT TALK

Dr. Paul Jacobson, Dean of the School of Education, University of Oregon, will speak on the subject "The Great American Experiment" Wednesday evening, April 12, at 8 p.m., in Harris Hall. Dr. Jacobson's speech will be a discussion of the problems and triumphs of the Tongue Point Job Corps. This is a rare opportunity to get a true insight into one of the nation's controversial OEO experiments.

NEW CAMPUS GROWS

The LCC Board of Education, at their special meeting of March 29, awarded the bid for the second group of new campus buildings to Robert B. Morrow Company of Salem. The bid submitted by the Morrow Company was $2,040,000. The contractor has indicated construction will begin within the next four weeks. Completion date for this group of buildings, which includes Apprenticeship, Business Education, Industrial Technology, and Administration buildings, is estimated as June 1968. Seven buildings out of the fourteen in the first phase are now under way.

CAPPING CEREMONY

Twenty-nine members of the 1967 Practical Nurses class will receive their caps in a ceremony to be held Saturday, April 1, at 8 p.m. in the auditorium at Sacred Heart General Hospital. Speaker for the occasion will be Olga Freeman, LCC Board of Education member.

SUMMER TERM DIRECTOR TO VISIT

Mr. Robert L. Phillips, Oregon State University Summer Term Director, will be in the faculty room of the Eugene Campus on Wednesday, April 19, from 2:30 - 4 pm. Mr. Phillips is interested in showing community college personnel how students may use the OSU Summer Term to their educational advantage.

TORCH SCHEDULED

Next issue of the TORCH will be out April 6. The student newspaper has not been published during final exam week, Spring Vacation, and the first week of Spring Term.
