SPECIAL EVENTS FILL WEEK'S CALENDAR

TONIGHT:

Plans for organizing an LCC alumni association will be discussed at a dessert meeting tonight at 7:30 in the cafeteria.

All former LCC students, graduates and non-graduates, are invited to attend. Plans for the meeting were arranged by Development Director Lyle Swetland.

THE ACADEMIC COUNCIL will meet today at 4 p.m. in Dean Carter's office

WEDNESDAY

Recognition Exercises will be held at 8 p.m. in the Forum Theater for 317 persons who have completed at least 30 hours in Adult Basic Education classes. A reception will follow in the cafeteria.

LANE'S AAUP chapter will meet at 4 p.m. today in the faculty lounge.

THURSDAY:

The LCC Baroque Orchestra, directed by NATHAN CAMMACK, will present a concert at 8 p.m. in the Forum Theater. Admission is free and the public is invited. The concert will be followed by a harpsichord demonstration given by Chris Olson.

WANT YOUR HOUSEHOLD water analyzed for free? LCC sales and management student Don Howard will be testing water samples in Health 209 from noon to 1 p.m. today, Wednesday, and possibly Thursday.

ALSO

THURSDAY:

The first of several hearings on the proposed Institutional Bill of Rights will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the Board Room. Sections 1-15 will be reviewed in preparation for their presentation to the Board on June 9. On the back of today's Daily are reprinted the first three sections to be considered at the hearing. The remaining 12 will appear in tomorrow's and Thursday's issues.

He's offering the free service as part of his Cooperative Work Experience job with the Culligan Co.

Bring samples of water in quart jar.

Staff and students wishing to discuss these sections with members of the Bill of Rights Committee are encouraged to attend the hearing.

FRIDAY:

A "Pinning" ceremony for Associate Degree Nursing students will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the Forum Theater and followed by a reception in the cafeteria.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY WISHES today go to JOE SEARL, social science instructor, and LISL FENNER, Funding & Governmental Affairs secretary.

WELCOME BACK to PAUL COLVIN, research and programming coordinator in the Institutional Research and Planning office. He has spent the past two weeks on a "Good Will" flight through South America with a group of naval reservists.

CAPSULE SERMON: Blessed are the young for they shall inherit the national debt.

LANE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

INSTITUTIONAL BILL OF RIGHTS, RESPONSIBILITIES, AND CONDUCT

P R E A M B L E

Lane Community College serves society by providing programs of learning which enable students to pursue and achieve their educational and vocational goals. Free inquiry and free expression are indispensable to the pursuit of these objectives. The transmission of knowledge, the search for truth and the development of the student depends upon appropriate opportunities and conditions in the classroom, on the campus, and in the community. In order that the College can provide conditions which are conducive to the effective performance of its purposes, each member of the college community, administrators, faculty, students and others, acknowledges a commitment to those purposes and to the principles of democratic freedom for himself and others.

Short Title

Section 1: This document shall be known as the Institutional Bill of Rights for Lane Community College.

Terms

Section 2: When used in this document --

- A. The term "college" means Lane Community College.
- B. The term "administrator" means those responsible for the operation of the College.
- C. The term "student" includes all persons taking courses at the College both full-time and part-time, pursuing high school completion, technical-vocational, lower division collegiate, adult education, or extension studies.
- D. The term "instructor" means any person hired by the College to conduct classroom activities.
- E. The term "classified" encompasses all those employed by the College to conduct functions other than the above.
- F. The term "shall" is used in the mandatory sense.
- G. The term "may" is used in the permissive sense.
- H. All other terms have their natural meaning unless the context dictates otherwise.

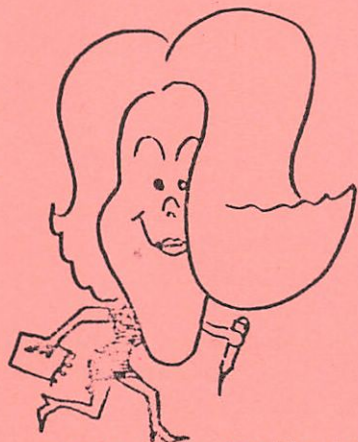

Access to Higher Education

Section 3: The College shall be open to all applicants who are qualified according to its admission requirements. Under no circumstances shall an applicant be denied admission because of race, religion, sex, national origin, political belief, age, or previous criminal record.

- A. Previous academic status shall not constitute criteria for denial of admission to this College.
- B. Preference for admission shall not be based on economic status.

Forum Theater

COPIES OF THE first 15 sections of the Bill of Rights along with comments
by Milt Madden, faculty representative on the drafting committee, may be obtained at the reserve desk in the library.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY WISHES today
go to HANK DOUDA, accounting specialist.

INSURANCE AGENT Archie Zarewski will be available in the business manager's office at 2 p.m. today.

AN LCC ALUMNI ASSOCIATION was formed last night by eight LCC graduates. Named temporary co-chairmen were Leon Lindsay, LCC student body president in 1968, and Dorothy Jackson, a Practical Nursing graduate now with the campus Health Service.

Glen Beal, a sales representative for Huling Buick and a LCC Development Fund trustee, was elected vice-president. Secretary will be Mary Michaud, a graduate of the Practical Nursing program.

The temporary officers decided to meet again June 16 to draft a constitution for the alumni group.

RECOGNITION EXERCISES: Some 317 school dropouts between the ages of 16 and 55 will be honored by LCC tonight.

The occasion is the annual recognition exercises for persons who have resumed their formal education through the Adult Basic Education program.

The ceremony will begin at 8 p.m. in the Forum Theater with the presentation of certificates to 90 persons who have earned high school equivalency degrees and diplomas or have entered regular LCC program. The rest will receive certificates for having completed at least 30 hours in ABE classes.

Guest speaker will be Dean Case, with instructors Fern Mundell and Lucille Lamoreaux presenting certificates. A reception will follow in the cafeteria.

Adult Basic Education is offered tuition-free, mainly for persons with less than an eighth grade education. However, this year's enrollment, the largest in the program's five year history, includes for the first time a group of local young people who have left or were on the verge of dropping out of high school.

Their class, a joint project of LCC and School District 4J, is intended to provide the 22 enrolled an alternate way to complete their high school education.

The ABE classes are conducted in seven communities in the college district and have attracted over 2,000 persons since 1966. Over 10,000 Lane County residents are listed in the 1960 census as having less than a ninth grade education.

CAPSULE SERMON: The world is full of willing people--some willing to work, the rest willing to let them.

--Robert Frost

Classroom Expression

- Section 4: Freedom of discussion must be protected and expression of views must not be inhibited. The instructor has the responsibility of maintaining a classroom environment conducive to the learning of the subject, but his authority must not be used solely to suppress the expression of views contrary to his own. It is the responsibility of the student to support the instructor's efforts to assure freedom of expression and to maintain order.
- A. Students are responsible for learning the content of any course for which they are enrolled. Instructors shall provide for the student every available opportunity for the accomplishment of this goal.
 - B. Requirements of participation in classroom discussion and submission of written exercises are not inconsistent with this Section.
- Section 5: Academic evaluation of student performance by instructors shall be based upon objective academic achievement. Instructors will be expected to state course content and objectives at the beginning of each term and throughout the term as the need arises.
- Section 6: Information about a student's views, beliefs, and political associations acquired by professors, advisors, counselors, and administrators is confidential and is not to be disclosed unless required by state or federal law.

Campus Expression

- Section 7: Discussion and expression of all views within the College shall be limited only by civil and criminal law.
- Section 8: Members of the campus community shall have the right to freely and peaceably assemble and demonstrate in accordance with the exercise of constitutional rights so long as such activity does not impede the rights and freedom of others.
- Section 9: Lane Community College employees and students shall have the right to be interviewed on campus by any lawful organization desiring to recruit at the College. Lane Community College employees and students may protest against any such organization provided that protest does not interfere with any other individual's right to have such an interview, or does not interfere with the privilege of the recruiting personnel to hold said interview.
- Section 10: Lane Community College employees and students can invite to the campus and hear any person(s) of their choosing. When possible, a forty-eight (48) hour prior notification will be given to the College as to the name of the speaker(s) and the time of his engagement.

MEETINGS TODAY

Noon Public Relations
Advisory Committee
Forum 314

4 p.m. Media Commission
225 Center Bldg.
(changed from Rm.230)

Thursday

June 3, 1971

THE FIRST OF SEVERAL HEARINGS on the proposed Institutional Bill of Rights will be held tonight at 7:30 the Board Room.

The first 16 sections of the document, being drafted by a student-staff committee, will be reviewed. (See back for sections 11-16 and Tuesday and Wednesday issues for earlier sections).

In addition, copies with accompanying comments by Milt Madden, faculty representative on the committee, are available at the reserve desk in the library.

CONCERT TONIGHT: The college orchestra directed by Nathan Cammack will present a baroque concert tonight at 8 p.m. in the Forum Theater. There is no charge. The concert will feature soloists Nancy Possman, flute; Sharon Gordon, violin; and Chris Olson, harpsichord. A demonstration of the harpsichord will follow the concert.

CANNED HEAT REACTIONS: No more rock concerts on campus. That was the recommendation Student President Omar Barbarossa sent to Dr. Schafer following Sunday's Canned Heat appearance in the gymnasium.

Barbarossa's recommendation came while College Facilities personnel were still assessing the damages to facilities and grounds caused by those attending and participating in the concert. In a report to Dr. Schafer, Bill Cox estimated that the cleaning and repair bill would be $1,200. Cox said five custodian worked eight hours Monday cleaning up bottles, papers and vomit in the gym.

One costly item, he said, will be the repair or replacement of casing on a gym door broken by a group of gate crashers. In damage outside, 24 sprinkler heads were broken by a truck carrying the band's equipment to the gym.

Cox estimated the concert attendance at 2000-2500 and said the crowd seemed younger than that attending the Grateful Deal Concert in January, which caused similar damages to the facilities. He also estimated that less than five percent of those attending were LCC students.

The clean-up and repair bill will be sent to the Student Senate, sponsor of the concert. Student officials indicated that at least a portion of the amount may be covered by the band's insurance.

Barbarossa, in his memo to the president, said the "executive cabinet of the ASLCC regrets the damage to property, personnel, and reputation" resulting from the concert. He added, "We are going to tighten up our policy regarding the sponsorship of events using Lane's student body name."

BELATED CONGRATULATIONS to the new Faculty Section president, PAUL PATRICK, and vice-president, JAN BRANDSTROM. A secretary will be elected next fall.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY WISHES today

CAPSULE SERMON: If a person had half his wishes, he'd double his troubles.

Campus Organization

- Section 11: Organizations can be established by Lane Community College employees and students, within the College, for any lawful purpose.
- Section 12: Membership in any campus organization, including those affiliated with an extramural organization, shall not be denied because of his race, creed, sex, economic status, or national origin, except that religious qualifications may be required by organizations whose aims are primarily sectarian.
- Section 13: The College shall encourage the use of its facilities by members of the College community. College facilities may be assigned to Lane Community College employees and students for meetings, for social programs, and for programs open to the public.
- A. Conditions may be imposed to regulate the possibility of requests, to determine the appropriations of the space assigned, and to ensure proper maintenance. Allocation of space shall be made based on chronological priority of requests and the needs of the organization, individual or group.
 - B. Preference in assignments shall be given to Programs instituted by Lane Community College employees and students.
 - C. The College shall delegate the authority of the assignment of facilities.
 - D. Physical abuse of assigned facilities may, at the discretion of the College, result in restitution for damages from the offending parties.

Campus Media

- Section 14: Anyone may publish and distribute extra-curricular leaflets, posters, and pamphlets on campus with prior authorization of the Student Director of Publicity, in accordance with existing guidelines.
- Section 15: The student press is to be free of censorship and advanced approval of copy. The editors and managers shall not be arbitrarily suspended, suppressed or intimidated because of student, student government, employee alumni or community disapproval of editorial policy or content. Similar freedom is assured oral statements of views on college-controlled and student-operated radio or television stations. This editorial freedom entails a corollary obligation under the canons of responsible journalism and applicable regulations of the Federal Communications Commission.
- Section 16: All College published and financed communications in which editorial comment is included, shall explicitly state on the editorial page or in broadcast that the opinions expressed are not necessarily those of the college, employees, the student government, or the student body.

RON MITCHELL, psychology instructor, is LCC's MASTER TEACHER for 1971.

The announcement was made yesterday by Paul Patrick, last year's choice and chairman of the student-faculty selection committee.

This is the third year the award has been given to a faculty member considered outstanding by his students and peers.

As the 1971 Master Teacher (formerly called Great Teacher), Mitchell will represent LCC at the Great Teacher Seminar at Westbrook Junior College in Portland, Maine this August. The seminar brings together outstanding community and junior college instructors to share ideas on curriculum and innovative teaching methods, Patrick said.

The selection committee named language arts instructor KAREN LANSLOWNE as the alternate delegate to the seminar.

COUNSELING DIRECTOR RESIGNS: John White, director of counseling, has submitted his resignation to return to Iowa and full-time counseling.

Although the Board of Education has not officially acted on his resignation, time considerations demand that the search for a new director begin immediately.

A screening committee from Student Personnel Services has been appointed.
It is hoped that a replacement can be found among members of the LCC staff or persons referred to the committee by the staff.

Persons interested in applying should contact Mrs. Gauderman, secretary to the dean of students, for application information. Applications will be accepted until June 14.

CONGRATULATIONS to LEE HALBERG, the new chairman of the Curriculum Committee

Classes begin July 19 for the second 4-week session, Aug. 2 for the second 6-week session, and Aug. 16 for the third 4-week session.

HEARING SPARCELY ATTENDED: The first hearing on the proposed Institutional Bill of Rights drew only seven staff and students last night. However, a number of minor revisions were suggested and one section added.

The first 17 sections, dealing with access to higher education, classroom expression, campus expression, campus organizations, and campus media, will be presented to the Board for review at its June 9 meeting.

The Bill of Rights Committee decided to continue meeting throughout the summer in hopes of completing the document before next fall. Current members are students Mark Parrish, Mel Wood, and Warren Coverdell; Milt Madden, faculty representative; Mark Rocchio, classified; and Dr. Schafer. Maryann Miller is the non-voting secretary. A replacement for Madden will be named next week as he will not be on campus this summer.

CELEBRATING BIRTHDAYS this weekend will be

CHERYL MATECKI, language arts secretary, and HAROLD MOLENCAMP, social science instructor--both on Saturday.

And on Sunday--JESSIE MCCORMICK, custodian, and JANA LASATER, bookstore secretary.

expected. Last summer, 1,289 individuals enrolled in 245 sections. Summer term classes begin June 21.

FLIGHT TRAINING: Although not listed in the schedule of classes, flight training will be offered during summer term for persons interested in earning a private pilot's license or improving their flying proficiency.

The 12-week course will begin June 21 at the LCC Operations Building at the Eugene Municipal Airport. Classes will meet from 8 a.m. - 5 p.m. weekdays. The total charge for district students is $522.50 (includes a $500 flight fee and tuition).

Enrollment is by permission of the instructor only.
Interested persons should contact Ron Kluth at the Operations Bldg., 689-2021, or the Flight Technology office, Ext. 395.

A NOTE FROM LIBRARIAN DEL MATHESON: The "maverick" book hunt is on again!

INSTRUCTORS--please check for library books left in your classrooms and return them to the circulation desk.

COUNSELOR JAN BRANDSTROM has been selected to attend the first U.S. Office of Education institute on women in higher education this summer.

The June 13-July 10 institute on the University of Pittsburg campus is an outgrowth of investigations of sex discrimination beginning this year on college and university campuses, according to the institute director. Focus will be on identifying areas of unequal educational opportunities and planning effective ways to initiate change.

The institute also will prepare faculty to develop curriculum and methods of teaching courses relating to women and to understand the women's movement in higher education.

Women from two-year and four-year institutions throughout the U.S. will be participating and will receive a stipend from the Office of Education.

CAPSULE SERMON: Man: the only animal that can be skinned more than once.

PERSPECTIVE ---- author unknown

Dear Mother and Dad,

Since I left for college I've been remiss in writing and I'm sorry for my thoughtlessness. I'll try and bring you up to date now, but before you read on, please sit down.

Well, then, I'm getting along pretty well now. The skull fracture and the concussion I got when I jumped out of the dorm window when it caught fire is pretty well healed now. I only spent two weeks in the hospital and now I can see almost normally and only get those sick headaches once a day. Fortunately, the fire and my jump were witnessed by an attendant at the gas station near the dorm, and he was the one who called the Fire Dept. and the ambulance. He also visited me in the hospital and since I had nowhere to live because of the burnt-out dorm, he was kind enough to invite me to share his apartment with him. It's really a basement room, but it's kind of cute. He is a very fine boy and we have fallen deeply in love and are planning to get married. We haven't got the exact date yet, but it will be before my pregnancy begins to show.

Yes, Mother and Dad, I'm pregnant. I know how much you are looking forward to being grandparents and I know you will welcome the baby and give it the same love and devotion you gave me as a child. The reason for the delay in our marriage is that my boy friend has a minor infection which prevents us from passing our pre-marital blood tests and I carelessly caught it from him.

I know that you will welcome him into our family with open arms. He is kind and, although not well-educated, he is ambitious. Although he is of a different race and religion than ours, I know your often-expressed tolerance will not permit you to be bothered by that.

Now that I have brought you up to date, I want to tell you that there was no dorm fire, I did not have a concussion or skull fracture, I was not in the hospital, I am not pregnant, I am not engaged, I am not infected, and there is no boy friend in my life. However, I am getting a D in History and an F in Science and I want you to see those marks in their proper perspective.

Your loving daughter,
Susie

DR. SCHAFER will be the guest speaker at the Eugene Soroptimist Club's installation dinner tonight.

Mrs. John Barber, wife of LCC's new Board member, will be installed president of the group for the second year.

THURSDAY EVENING, Dr. Schafer will be speaking to the graduating class at Churchill
High School.

BOARD MEETING: The amount of the June 29 budget request is expected to be finalized at tomorrow night's Board meeting. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Board room.

At last month's meeting, the administration outlined cuts that would reduce the $8.1 million operating budget by about $131,900. The administration is expected to recommend additional reductions tomorrow night totaling about $300,000.

Officials say the additional cuts are necessary in light of the legislature's failure to award LCC a deficiency appropriation and the fact that approximately $74,000 in anticipated tax collections have failed to materialize.

In other matters, the Board will be asked to approve the site proposed for the humanities building and remodeling plans which are also part of the next phase of the campus building program.

Also on the agenda are a review of the first 17 sections of the Institutional Bill of Rights, the first reading of proposed changes in the Board policy on copyrights and patents, and reports on the ad hoc evening college committee and a study of LCC's economic impact on the community.

WEBB TO RESIGN: Dean Webb, a charter member of the LCC Board, will resign July 1 and will move to Houston, Texas, where he has accepted a teaching post at the University of Texas Dental School.

Webb was one of the original seven members elected to the LCC Board in 1964. His second four-year term expires next year.

The Board will appoint a replacement to complete his term.

DENTAL HEAD RESIGNS: Dr. John Dickson, chairman of the paramedical-paradental department, will leave his post at the end of the current school year to open a children's dentistry practice in Eugene.

JOHN HOWARD IS STILL LCC'S GOLF CHAMP!

Winner of the fall staff golf tourney, the Language Arts Department chairman also took the spring staff tournament with a score of 171 for 36 holes. Runner-up was Gary Washburn with 189.

OTHER WINNING SCORES:

Low 9-hole score - Howard and Walt Van Orden tied with 42

Callaway low score - Van Orden 136

Most pars - Howard 11

THE COLLEGE CABINET will not meet this week.
Starting next week, the Cabinet will meet at a new time: 1-3 p.m.
Thursday.

TONIGHT'S BOARD MEETING will likely mark the last time two charter members--Dean Webb and Clifford Matson--vote on LCC matters as directors of the college.

Dr. Matson, a Junction City dentist, chose not to seek a third term and will be succeeded by attorney John Barber, also from that town, on July 1.

Dr. Webb, A Cottage Grove dentist, has resigned with one year of his term remaining, and will be leaving this area to teach at the University of Texas Dental School.

Both men have been strong supporters of vocational education and have been candid in their opinions about the college's operation.

Their voice on LCC affairs will be missed.

A LONG AGENDA will await the Board at tonight's meeting starting at 7:30 in the Board room.

MAJOR ITEMS INCLUDE:

- * Finalizing the amount of extra property taxes to be requested at the June 29 budget election
- * Reviewing the first 17 sections of the proposed Institutional Bill of Rights.
- * Reviewing architects recommendation for site location and hiring of special consultants for the humanities building.

The Board is also scheduled to discuss continuing support of an off-campus day care center, accept for future action proposed changes in the college policy on copyrights and patents, review the proposed student body budget totaling $54,400 and hear staff reports on the evening college and a study of LCC's economic impact on the county.

GRADUATION: Department chairmen are reminded that today is the deadline for submitting to Bert Dotson the name of the person who will officially represent their department at graduation. One representative from each department will be seated in a special section during the ceremony.

GRADUATION will be held Saturday, June 12, at 2 p.m. in the gymnasium.

The faculty and staff are invited. Attendance is not mandatory, however.
Academic robes will not be worn by students or faculty.

Addressing the graduates will be Fred V. Koehler, area representative of the U.S. Department of Labor Bureau of Apprenticeship and Training.

CAPSULE SERMON: Knowledge is, in every country, the surest basis of public happiness.

STUDY SHOWS LCC'S $$$ IMPACT ON COUNTY

LCC'S DAY-TO-DAY OPERATIONS ADD UP TO A $28 MILLION ANNUAL IMPACT ON THE COUNTY'S ECONOMY.

According to a study just completed by Paul Colvin and Marston Morgan, the college's operating expenditures stimulate an average annual income of $70 for each person in the county or an annual total of $200 per household. The study did not include the impact of the nearly $20 million spent on campus construction in the last four years.

The conclusions were based on intricate formulae suggested by the American Council on Education in its 1971 publication, "Estimating the Impact of a College or University on the Local Economy."

Lane and its staff and students will have jointly spent more than $14 million in the county during the fiscal year ending June 30, the report indicates. The money was used for general college expenses, plus food, housing and other services required by LCC people.

Business volume stimulated by the expenditure of college-generated income totaled an additional $14 million, the report states. Money was kept flowing through the local economy, much of it in purchases of goods and services by local businesses serving the institution.

OTHER CONCLUSIONS OF THE REPORT:

-  For every property tax dollar collected for LCC in the county, the college spent more than $5 in Lane County
-  The college's presence produces 2,196 jobs in the county, not including student employment.
-  The credit base of local banks (which affects their ability to loan) has been expanded by nearly $4 million because of savings accounts by the college, its staff and students.

BESIDES ITS EDUCATIONAL BENEFITS, LCC IS CLEARLY A SOLID ECONOMICAL BOON TO THE COMMUNITY, THE REPORT INDICATES.

"THANKS FOR A GOOD YEAR"

Before many of you head in different directions for the summer, I would like to express my sincere appreciation for your help and cooperation during my "freshman" year at LCC.

It's been a year of learning for me. But I think it has also been an "on the move" time for the college.

We've taken steps to open new channels of communication between segments of the campus. Likewise, we've moved ahead in experimenting with new instructional methods and in pioneering educational offerings--all contributing to an educational program that continues to earn LCC national acclaim.

None of this would have been possible without your dedication to providing top quality educational opportunities and your willingness to openly discuss problems and to seek workable solutions.

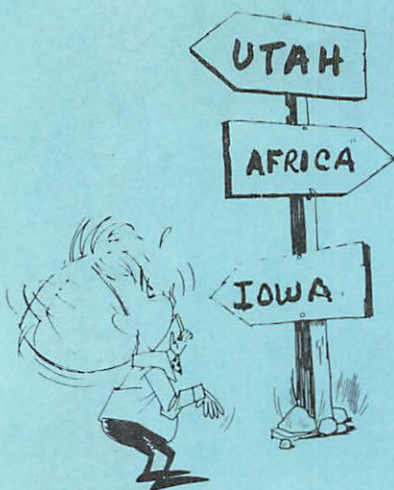

To those faculty and staff who will be leaving LCC, may I wish success in your new positions; to those we won't see again until September, a happy and safe summer.

And again--to each instructor, classified employee, and administrator--"Thanks" for a good year.

Sincerely,

Edson G. Hofer

SEVEN FULL-TIME STAFF MEMBERS are leaving LCC this year.

We appreciate the contribution they have made to LCC and wish them success in their new endeavors.

JOHN WHITE, director of counseling, will be returning to Iowa and full-time counseling

SHARON COCHRAN, P.E. instructor and women's tennis coach, is moving to Salt Lake City where her husband plans to resume his education and she will teach.

Dr. John Dickson, paramedical-paradental chairman, will open a children's dentistry practice in Eugene.

PAT GREEN, nursing, has joined the World Health Organization and in August will begin a three-month tour of duty as a mental health consultant in Georgetown Guyana, Africa.

JOHN HAUGSE, art and applied design, has joined the Mt. Angel College faculty.

MARVIN HOVLAND, flight technology, and ED KOCH, art and applied design, couldn't be reached to find out about their plans.

AWAY FOR A YEAR will be JERRY BERG, study skills instructor, who has been granted a leave of absence to work on a full-length juvenile novel. For the past 16 months, Berg has been working evenings and weekends writing a six-book series for poor readers at the high school and community college level. These books will be published this fall.

AFTERNOON CEREMONY TO HONOR GRADUATES

LCC's sixth graduation tomorrow will honor some 530 recipients of degrees, diplomas, and certificates.

The ceremony will begin at 2 p.m. in the gymnasium. Faculty and staff are cordially invited. A reception planned by the Ladies of LCC will follow in the cafeteria.

"What Is Education?" is the question graduation guest speaker Fred Koehler will consider. The area representative for the bureau of apprenticeship and training was invited to speak by the Student Senate graduation committee.

Also participating in the ceremony will be Dr. Schafer, Dean Carter, Board Chairman Robert Ackerman, and counselor Jonathan West, who will deliver the invocation.

Music will be provided by the LCC band.

THE GRADUATION COMMITTEE HAS SELECTED THIS ARETHA FRANKLIN POEM TO BE INCLUDED IN THE GRADUATION PROGRAM.

JUNE 9 BOARD MEETING--continued from Thursday

At Wednesday's Board meeting, individual members indicated concerns expressed to them by representatives of the classified, faculty and administrative staff during the informal Board-section meetings held this spring.

The Board requested the administration to respond during the summer to each of the concerns listed by Board members. They will also request a written statement of concerns from each of the participating groups, for consideration at the second Board meeting in September.

Among the concerns individual Board members felt should be reviewed were the following:

ACKERMAN:

-  Clarifying procedure for bringing issues to the Board from student government
-  Setting some minimum qualifications for holding student body offices
-  Insuring that the Board agenda analysis includes minority positions on matters scheduled for consideration if these positions exist among segments of the staff
-  Considering a procedure to restrict admission to students who repeatedly drop and add courses without making normal progress toward completing a program.

MENTION:

-  Investigating the need for a personnel department
-  Job security of classified employees
-  Lack of enforcement of existing college policies

BRAUER:

-  Solving the communication problem--getting matters from lower to higher administrative levels and receiving a response without a long delay
-  Discrepancies in how individual departments handle classified personnel

LAURIS:

-  The need for more release time or research pay for faculty to work on curriculum development
-  The need for classified job descriptions. (Dr. Schafer responded that a reclassification study will begin next week by an outside firm.)
-  The lack of uniform procedures for filling classified vacancies. She suggested a uniform qualifying test be developed and administered to all applicants for classified jobs.
-  Department chairmen expressed unhappiness with the use of part-time faculty as an economy measure.

WEBB:

-  Unequal treatment on department level of various staff members. Suggested a department policies manual be adopted.

MATSON:

-  Some classified personnel said they feel like second-class employees
-  Administrative salary schedule thought too high by some staff
-  One group concerned that Board isn't supporting president

The Board agreed that although a number of concerns were brought out by the different groups, the tone of all the meetings was very positive. They commended the administration for setting up the meetings and the participants for their open exchange of ideas and concerns. Dr. Matson seemed to express the Board's feeling that "both sides

IN OTHER MATTERS:

-  The Board directed the administration to work out a policy limiting activities with potential for damaging college property.
Dean Carter said that the college's policy on bringing off-campus entertainment to the campus is being reviewed to prevent a recurrence of the damage that resulted from the two rock concerts held at LCC this year.
- Suggestions from the Board on improving the policy ranged from an outright ban on such groups to requiring a bond of $5,000 or more against damages, to putting a legal hold on gate receipts from concerts in case repairs to college property are required.
-  The Board gave tentative approval to all but three of the first 17 sections of the Institutional Bill of Rights. They requested clarification of Section 3 on admissions requirement, to include some provision for denying re-admission to students who fail to make normal progress toward completing a program and continually drop and add courses.
The Board also suggested that Section 10 (on inviting speakers to campus) and Section 15 (allowing the publishing and distribution of leaflets on campus) be further reviewed to clarify their intent.
-  The Board commended a group of evening college students working with administrators to expand the evening program for their interest and efforts thus far. Tom Curtis, chairman of the group, said that questionnaires are being distributed in the community and a publicity program planned to determine how many students would be interested in attending evening credit classes and the type of courses that would be required.

SEVERAL STAFF MEMBERS have been guest speakers around town.

Last night, DR. SCHAFER addressed the graduating class at Churchill High. Earlier this week, BERT DOTSON, administrative assistant, spoke at the Springfield High School Completion class graduation...and fourth graders at Moffatt Elementary School had a "bang-up" time--literally-- watching a chemistry demonstration by Science professor CHARLIE BENTZ.

ED RAGOZZINO, Performing Arts chairman, is the subject of an in-depth profile in Sunday's Emerald Empire Magazine in the Eugene Register Guard. Reporter Dan Sellard probes the "Ragozzino mystique" in much the same manner as his look last year at U of O grid coach Jerry Frei.

Included in the story are arguments in favor of a performing arts program for LCC students.

THE STERLING REPUTATION of LCC's Aviation Technology program is once again in evidence. Representatives of two California and Washington community colleges will be on campus next week to talk with A&P profs about how their programs can be brought up to Lane's level.

NOTES AND NOTICES

JUNE PAYROLL CHECKS.. If you will not be on campus at the end of June and wish your check mailed to you, please provide the business office with a stamped and addressed envelope. Include a deposit slip and address envelope to your bank if you wish the check sent there.

For those on campus at the end of the month, checks will be distributed in the usual manner.

LONG RANGE PLANNING· Recommendations on the future use of the lower floor of the Center building and the site of the humanities complex will be formulated during a meeting of the Long-Range Planning Committee Tuesday at 2 p.m. in the Board Room.

The committee will also discuss planning for development off the main campus, a downtown center for the elderly and hear a status report on the sewage lagoon.

PRINT SHOP CLOSURE ·During summer term, the print shop will be closed during the noon hour.

ABSENTEE BALLOTS: Staff members who will be out of the district on June 29, the date of the budget election, are urged to vote by absentee ballot. Application forms for absentee balloting are available from Shirley Pearson in the business office.

STAFF ASSOCIATION BUDGET· Staff Association Vice-President Steve John said yesterday that the association's budget and dues structural proposals are being approved by a wide margin. A total of 95 staff members have voted "yes" for both, with 27 others indicating opposition to one or the other proposal.

WHEN

... TURN TO...

A number of staff members are planning special trips, among them...

...DORIS NORMAN, Torch secretary, leaves tomorrow to visit her mother in England. Also traveling to Europe will be science instructor GENE PARRO and his wife DORIS... Bound for Germany later this summer will be MARGARET KNUTSON, College Facilities secretary, who's anxious to see her new grandson. Sharpening her French in France will be VIRGINIA NELSON.

... The United States will provide adventure--three months worth-- for POLLY PLUMBER of the Registrar's Office. She and her husband Steve plan to drive across the county, camping along the way...until their bankroll runs out!

LCC's ol' prospector Industrial Tech prof CARL BLOOD says he'll be striking it rich in fun as much as in money. He has filed for mineral rights on a site up Sharps Creek in the Bohemia mining area of the Umpqua National Forest. The site is about 45 miles from Eugene. Carl says he knows there's placer gold there, though he isn't sure how much. "I'm just going to have fun," he says, "and get my shins bruised on rocks this summer

Chances are Administrative Intern DEE MARTIN will be content to stay off the road--for a while at least. Dee has been commuting to LCC weekdays from his home in Corvallis. This is his last day here. Dee will be continuing his doctoral studies in vocational education at OSU this summer and hopes to complete his dissertation by next June.

At Tuesday's Cabinet meeting, Dean LaGrandeur commended Dee for his contributions to LCC this year and especially for his work with advisory committees and the advisory committee study.

AFTER WORKING in the body and fender repair business for 20 years and teaching these skills at the college for the past three, LCC instructor JOHN HAURIGAN has decided it's time for him to go to college.

In between teaching classes, the 49 year-old prof has been a student at LCC himself. By next summer he hopes to be ready to transfer to a four-year college. His goal is a bachelor's degree in Trade and Industrial Education and eventually a job counseling vocational students.

He talks of his plans just as enthusiastically as younger students and says, "Finishing college is just something I've had in mind for a long time."

RECOMMENDATIONS on the location of the proposed Performing Arts and Social Science facilities are expected to result from today's Long-Range Planning Committee meeting.

The meeting, open to staff and students, will begin at 2 p.m. in the Board room.

In arriving at a recommendation to present to the Board, the committee will consider several alternatives for the $1.2 million building project planned for the next phase of campus construction.

They include:

-  Building a joint facility for Performing Arts and Social Science
-  Building separate facilities for the departments
-  Building a Performing Arts facility and housing the Social Science Department in the basement of the Center, currently occupied by Performing Arts.

Three building sites have been suggested: #1 North of the Center; #2 South of the Forum; and #3 West of Business Education building.

The architects have indicated that if the departments are to be housed in a single complex, site #1 appears adequate but site #3 does not. If separate buildings are decided on, they suggest site #1 or #3 for performing arts and site #1, or #2 for social science. Also being considered for social science is the basement of the Center.

Also on the agenda for today's meeting is discussion of planning for development off the present campus, a downtown center for the elderly, and a report on the Department of Environmental Quality's evaluation of the sewage lagoon.

CONGRATULATIONS go to four LCC staff members who completed advanced degrees in counseling at the U of O this spring:

MARY FIORENTINO, director of nursing, M.A. in counseling. She also holds a master's degree in nursing.

JOHN WINQUIST, counselor, received a master of science degree in that field.

SARALEE TAYLOR, a counselor-aide, M.A. in counseling

DAVE ROOF, counselor, added a second masters degree to his credentials. His other masters is in science.

PAUL PATRICK --last year's "Master Teacher" and next year's Faculty Section president--has been honored once more.

Friday, the farm mechanics instructor was named Teacher of the Year by the Oregon Vocational Agriculture Teachers' Association.

The announcement was made at the association's annual meeting in Central Point. Patrick also received a pin in recognition of his 30 years in education.

Patrick came to LCC in 1966 following 25 years as a high school vocational agriculture and mechanics teacher in McMinville, Ore.

SOME 1,226 students are expected to begin summer term classes at LCC today, according to Registrar Bob Marshall.

The three additional sessions starting in July and August should bring the total headcount considerably above last year's total of 1,289.

ELECTION ACTIVITIES: With the June 29 budget election only a week away, activities are underway to inform voters about the budget request and to urge them to vote.

A packet containing absentee ballot application forms for LCC and District 4J and 10 fact sheets about the LCC budget have been sent to all staff members. It is hoped that each person will distribute the fact sheets to friends and neighbors.

A TRIO OF STUDENTS--Omar Barbarossa, ASLCC president, Vice-President Dan Davis, and Nan Reed--will be appearing at meetings of local organizations and at radio and television stations to talk about LCC and the election.

Also providing local support is a citizens committee chaired by Eugene attorney Pierre VanRysselberghe. The group is working in behalf of both the LCC and School District 4J budgets.

TELEPHONING ON ELECTION DAY will again be a major part of the campaign and staff volunteers are needed to make this a successful effort.

If you can offer a half hour, hour, or more of your time on June 29 to call and remind people to vote, let Gina Ing know at Ext. 332. Calls will be made between 10 a.m.-7 p.m. and lists will be provided.

PRESIDENT, DOTSON ON TV: Dr. Schafer and Bert Dotson will be talking about the college and the budget election on a Teleprompter Cable 12 program tonight at 6:30. Sponsored by the League of Women Voters, the program will be moderated by Mrs. Lael Braymer, who served on the LCC Budget Committee. The 30-minute program was taped last week and will be repeated several times during the next two weeks.

THE LCC BOARD will hold a work session Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the Board room. Scheduled for discussion at the informal meeting are the Performing Arts-Social Science facilities, the athletics program, and a request from students to collect funds for the Oregon Student Public Interest Research Group (OSPIRG).

SUMMER ABE CLASSES: Free classes for adults wishing to brush up on reading, writing and arithmetic skills begin in downtown Eugene this week, sponsored by the Adult Basic Education program. The classes are open to anyone 16 years or older who is achieving below the ninth grade level.

Both day and evening sessions are planned. Starting today, the daytime class will meet Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 8 a.m.-12noon. The evening class is scheduled from 7-9:30p.m. starting Thursday. Both will be held in room 201 of the Empire Bldg., 1074 Willamette (above Burch's Shoes). Registration will be handled at the first class session.

ABE classes are designed to help non-readers and writers as well as persons working toward a high school diploma or equivalency degree. Instruction is on an individual basis and in small groups.

WHEN YOU ATTEND A MEETING, do you become confused--maybe even irritated--by points of order, motions, or other puzzles of parliamentary procedure?

If so, a five-week adult education course in parliamentary procedure may be the answer for you.

Starting tomorrow, the class will meet Tuesdays and Thursdays from 7-10 p.m. in Apprenticeship 222. Tuition is $12 and may be paid when registering at the first class session.

Discussion and practice in effective group operation through parliamentary procedure will be the focus of the course. Instructor is JOYCE HARMS of the Mass Communications Dept.

LCC's JED MERRILL is one of 12 Construction Technology program directors from throughout the country who recently formed a national association of two-year schools offering construction training.

The action took place at a national conference of construction technology instructors held in Pasco, Wash.

The new association, Merrill said, initially will be working to develop standards among the 150 U.S. schools offering construction training and to update construction education.

Charter members of the association, in addition to Lane, include: Everett Community College, Wash., Columbia Basin College, Wash., Big Bend Community College, Wash., South Utah State, Southern State College, S.D., Gavilan College, Calif., Riverside City College, Calif., Kauai Community College, Hawaii, College of Dupage, Ill., Triton Community College, Ill., and Ohio College of Applied Science.

MARIE PATZ, Development Office secretary, has been named "Teacher of the Year" at the Willamette Christian Center. She instructs an adult class at the church.

NANCY BELK is the new secretary in the Industrial Technology Department. Taking over her post in Audiovisual Services is DIANE ROSACKER, formerly an LRC clerk.

SORE--BUT ON THE MEND following an automobile accident last week is PATTY WILSON, machine operator in Instructional Materials. She was hospitalized for several days but now is at home and hopes to return to work soon.

ABSENTEE BALLOTS FOR THE June 29 Budget election have arrived in the business office. Staff members who will be out of the district on election day are encouraged to cast an absentee ballot before their departure.

A BOARD WORK SESSION preceded by a brief Board meeting to consider bids on the college health insurance policy will be held tonight at 8.

Prior to the meeting-work session, a closed executive session will be held at 7 p.m. to consider a personnel matter.

Three items are scheduled for discussion at the work session:

OSPIRG-- The Board will consider several student recommendations for collecting voluntary funds during registration for OSPIRG (The Oregon Student Public Interest Research Group).

ARCHITECTURAL PLANNING-- The Board will discuss the Planning Committee's recommendations on the humanities complex building project. The project, to be financed through state funds, is intended to provide permanent facilities for the Performing Arts and Social Science departments.

The Planning Committee proposes that a Performing Arts building be constructed between the physical education and auto-diesel facilities. Also being proposed is remodeling the lower floor of the Center building for use by the Social Science Dept. The area is currently occupied by Performing Arts.

ATHLETICS-- Dr. Schafer has asked for a review of LCC's athletic program. In a memorandum to the Board, the president stated that "the program has been expanded, costs have increased, but financial support has failed to keep pace." LCC students compete in 14 sports activities through the intercollegiate and intramural programs.

The president acknowledged that the alternatives, in his view, are to "reduce the number of activities" or "to increase student financial support."

LCC's annual student body fee of $6 is the lowest among Oregon community colleges. The highest is Central Oregon which charges $99 a year.

LEGISLATORS BACK LEVY: Lane County's nine-member legislative delegation has unanimously endorsed a "yes" vote on the LCC property tax levy election.

In a formal resolution presented at a news conference yesterday, the legislators said LCC has been doing "an outstanding job of providing educational opportunities in vocational and other fields to students for whom such opportunities would not be available by other means."

The resolution says "individual members" of the 1971 State Legislature's Joint Ways & Means Committee "acclaim LCC programs as the best in the state," adding that the local legislators "plan singly to vote "yes" on June 29 in the special levy election, and jointly urge the voters of Lane County to add their support to keep the good thing, of which we can all be proud, going at LCC."

CHILD CARE AVAILABLE: The LCC Child Care Center has several openings for children of LCC summer students. The Center will be operating from 7:30 a.m. - 5 p.m. through Aug. 13 and accepts children ages 3-5. Application forms are available at the Home Economics Dept. office for all-day or part-time child care.

CLOSURES PLANNED: Printing/Graphics Services will be closed for inventory Wednesday, June 30.
The warehouse also will be closed for inventory on June 30 and July 1.

INSURANCE NOTES:

Following Board action last week, LCC's MEDICAL INSURANCE will be handled by Greater Oregon Health Service of Grants Pass.

They will take over from the Equitable Life Assurance Society.

However, the change in insurers will not affect the workings of the $50 deductible provision in the Equitable policy. Any amounts accrued thus far this year toward the $50 deductible will remain as credits with the new insurer.

This means if you accrued a $40 bill in April, the amount will still count toward satisfying the $50 deductible under the new coverage.

*REMINDER--supplies needed from the warehouse this week should be picked up before Wednesday. None will be issued during inventory on Wednesday and Thursday.

DENTAL COVERAGE: Staff are reminded that the college dental coverage policy year runs from July to July. This means that starting Thursday, you must build up a new $25 deductible amount.

VOTERS TOMORROW WILL DECIDE the fate of LCC's revised $1.1 million operating levy beyond the six percent limitation.

Polls will be open from 8 a.m. - 8 p.m. BE SURE TO VOTE!

There have been a number of close elections in the state--and particularly in this area--proving EACH VOTE DOES COUNT.

A list of polling places is posted on the bulletin board, second floor, Administration and was printed in Sunday's Register Guard, section A.

 152 absentee ballots have been returned thus far, Shirley Pearson reports.

LEVY GOES DOWN: "No" votes in outlying areas and Springfield spelled defeat for LCC's second budget election yesterday.

With all but one of the 76 precincts reporting, the budget went down 10,280 to 8,267.

The ballot measure came within 71 votes of passing in Eugene. The count was 5795 no, 5725 yes. In the April 13 election, Eugene voters defeated the measure 5762 to 3702, a margin of 2,060 votes.

Springfield residents gave the budget a heavy no vote--1892-1069. Large "no" vote margins were tallied at Springfield Junior High (175-69), Thurston High (207-101), Douglas Gardens School (151-53), and Maple School (166-45). Three of the seventeen Springfield precincts voted for the measure.

In the outlying areas, only Harrisburg gave approval to the budget, voting 41 yes, 26 no.

The budget went down in these outlying districts:

OAKRIDGE-- 177-102
JUNCTION CITY -- 256-183
FLORENCE-- 170-109
COTTAGE GROVE-- 487-253
PLEASANT HILL-- 195-121
FERN RIDGE--260-65
CRESWELL-- 195-85
BETHEL--584-289.

Voter turnout was about 19 percent, an increase of one percent over April 13.

As a result of yesterday's election, Lane and Clackamas Community College are the only Oregon community colleges yet to gain budget approval this year. Clackamas lost its third budget election this year on June 24. Of the remaining 11 community colleges in the state, seven have approved budgets and four have an adequate tax base.

ON THE BRIGHTER SIDE, Eugene School District 4J passed its budget on the second try, 6,164-5,559.

WHILE THE ELECTION results are none too pleasing, we must not forget to thank the over 125 staff and local citizens who volunteered to help with the election day calling. Special thanks should go to the six faculty wives who organized the calling--ANGELA DEAN, LUCY SCHAFER, BETTY MURRAY, JAN SEARL, SUE HANAMURA, and ALICE YOUNG.

CALENDAR NOTES:

- * A THREE-DAY WEEKEND is coming up for staff and students. Monday, July 5, is a legal holiday and the college will be closed.
- * A MEETING of all staff members who participated in the Board-section meetings earlier this year will be held Thursday, July 8, from 9-10 a.m. in the Board room.
