WEDNESDAY
MAY 1, 1974

AND BESIDES BEING MAY DAY -- It's the day when the minimum wage is raised by federal law to $2 per hour, and the last day students planning on graduating this spring can apply for degrees. Those applying should do so at the Student Records office.

ART SHOW OPENS -- Drawings and paintings by two former students in the LCC art department go on display tomorrow in the main gallery. The two artists are Phile Joe Krysl and Elise Fischer--both former LCC drawing students. Krysl's drawings and paintings are based on photographs and have been shown before at Maude Kerns Art Center in Eugene and last year's student show at the state capitol. Ms. Fischer is primarily a cartoonist, basing many of her drawings on people she knows. There will be a free reception in the gallery at 8 p.m. Friday.

GOLF SIGN-UP -- Sign up now for the annual staff golf tournament scheduled for 3 p.m., May 31, at the Emerald Valley Golf Course in Creswell. Call Sharon, ext. 277.

POETRY TODAY -- Chicano poets Rodrigo Guerrero and Taida Hernandez will read their own poetry, plus works by other Chicano poets, from noon to 1 p.m. today in the staff lounge. The readings are part of the Reader's Theatre series sponsored by the department of interdisciplinary studies.

FOODS, SHOP INSTRUCTORS SOUGHT -- Clark College in Vancouver is looking for a commercial foods and a machine shop technology instructor. For more information, call Dorothy Kellogg.

SPORTS TOMORROW -- Men's Tennis, at OSU. 3 p.m.

THURSDAY

SPECIAL OLYMPICS HERE SATURDAY -- Nearly 1,000 mentally handicapped children and adults will be competing at LCC Saturday in the annual Oregon Special Olympics track meet. The meet, sponsored by the Joseph P. Kennedy, Jr. Foundation, the Special Olympics committee and LCC, is scheduled to begin at 9 a.m. with opening ceremonies and a parade and will be followed by competition in the 50 yard dash, the 300 yard and mile runs, high jump, standing broadjump and softball throw.

LCC coordinator Sue Thompson said the state meet will resemble as closely as possible the regular Olympics, including awarding of Olympic medals and ribbons for winners in all four divisions (divisions are based on age, ability and sex). Competitors will be eight years old or older--with the oldest a 55-year old woman. Each competitor in the state meet had to qualify in a county meet. Admission is free.

LIBRARY DISPLAY -- Ten oil paintings utilizing unusual techniques are currently on display in the main reading area of the library. The paintings are by local artist Maxine Hogan (Mike Hogan's wife) and include a "Triptych" (three paintings-in-one) and several "limited palette's", paintings using only three colors. The triptych, which will remain on loan to the college for two years, is a panoramic scene of Winchester Bay. While the three paintings together make a single scene, each can also stand alone. Library hours are 7:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday.

ADMISSIONS OFFICIAL TO VISIT -- Robert Taylor of Portland State University will be available for students interested in attending PSU today from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the lobby of the Center Bldg., second floor.

INSURANCE REP -- Archie Zarewski will be on campus tomorrow at 2 p.m. Call Carol Beckley for an appointment.

ELECTIONS TODAY, TOMORROW -- ASLCC elections are scheduled today and Friday from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m.

POSITIONS OPEN -- The University of Oregon is seeking two half-time trainers and managers for "Follow Through" projects next September in Rhode Island and North Carolina; and Oregon State University is looking for a theatre arts director and teacher. Information on both positions is available from Dorothy Kellogg.

SPORTS TODAY -- Men's Tennis, at South Eugene High School. 3:15 p.m.

FRIDAY

EXAM TODAY, TOMORROW -- Approximately 25 secretaries from firms and institutions throughout the state will take the Certified Professional Secretary examination here today and Saturday. The six-part exam is held each year by the National Secretaries Assn. at about 150 locations in the U.S., Canada and Puerto Rico to certify more than 3,500 secretaries. Secretarial certification is similar to certification for accountants and usually is accompanied by job advancement.

Areas covered during the two-day test include environmental relationships in business, business and public policy, economics of management, financial analysis and the mathematics of business, communications and decision making, and office procedures.

INSURANCE REP -- Archie Zarewski will be on campus today at 2 p.m. Call Carol Beckley for an appointment.

ELECTIONS CONTINUE -- The polls close today at 8 p.m. for the ASLCC student government elections.

HANDBOOK POPULAR -- The student health service handbook for last year is apparently a hot item around the country. To date, 85 requests from nearly every state in the Union have come in asking for copies of the book to be used as an example for other community college health service publications. The handbook, which was compiled and written by students, was plugged in an issue of the Community College Health Services Newsletter. Response to the article has even been international--a request came a few days ago from the Chinese University of Hong Kong.

OLYMPICS TOMORROW -- The state Special Olympics Track Meet begins tomorrow with opening ceremonies at 9 a.m. About 1,000 mentally handicapped persons--mostly youngsters--will be competing in six events, with winners being awarded Olympic medals and ribbons. Admission is free.

MONDAY

TORRES/RICHARD WIN---In the largest voter turnout in three years, more than 600 students went to the polls Thursday and Friday and elected a 28-year old pre-med student and her running mate as ASLCC president and first vice-president. The two new top executive cabinet officers are Sallie Torres, currently ASLCC publicity director, and her first vice president-elect, John L. Richard. The new president and VP will serve for the 1974-75 school year.

The Torres/Richard ticket, one of five on the ballot, received 216 votes, with the closest challengers being Craig Geary/Paul R. Frassetto (174) and Mike Rogers/Peter Hale (127). Other officers elected include Julie Elliott, second vice president; Gloria Wells, treasurer; Robin Tappan, publicity director; and senators David Gordon, Jerry Edin, Ginger Switzer, Michael Trevino, and Cindy White.

Students also defeated one and approved two ballot measures that proposed raising the $5 per term student body fees. Voters narrowly passed a measure to raise fees 50 cents per term to finance 15 cent bus tokens (295 yes, 269 no), and elected to recommend to the Board of Education that student fees should be increased to maintain the current level of services of the student health service, to expand dental and family planning services, and that the increase should not exceed 20 cents per credit hour (311 yes, 250 no). A measure to raise fees to a maximum of $6, with all lesser fees raised proportionately so bus tokens could be purchased for 10 cents each, failed 335 to 215.

SOC OFFICIALS HERE---A student visitation team from Southern Oregon College will be available for student interviews through Wednesday in the cafeteria. The SOC information table will be manned today and Tuesday until 9 p.m. each day, and from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. Wednesday. Please announce in your classes.

COUNSELING VACANCY---The University of Oregon is seeking a vocational/placement counselor to start work next month. See Dorothy Kellogg for details.

KOCHER TO TOUR EGYPT -- Law enforcement instructor John Kocher will join Paul Malm and 20 other U.S. community college teachers this summer in an eight-week tour of Egypt to help write two college-level courses on the country's culture and history. Kocher was notified this week that, as first alternate, he had been selected to join the group after one of the original 22 dropped out. No other community college will be represented by more than one faculty member on the visit, which is sponsored by the League for Innovation.

He has been teaching at LCC since 1970 after four years as a professor of air science at the University of Oregon, several years as a parole and classification officer, and a military police career in the U.S. Air Force. At one time, Kocher was in charge of all U.S. Forces police in England and Thailand.

He graduated with a bachelor of arts degree in criminology and political science from the University of California at Berkeley in 1947, then received a masters in criminology from Berkeley in 1951 and a masters in political science from the U of C in 1964.

He and Malm will be in Egypt from June 12 to Aug. 3, and will be based most of the time at American University in Cairo.

MORE POSITIONS OPEN -- Occidental College (Los Angeles) wants a P.E. teacher who can coach water polo and swimming; Pinal County Community College District (Coolidge Arizona) is looking for a dental lab technician instructor, an auto-diesel-auto body instructor, and an air conditioning-refrigeration instructor. Get details from Dorothy Kellogg.

SOC OFFICIALS STILL HERE -- and will continue their vigil in the cafeteria until 9 p.m. tonight and until 3 p.m. tomorrow. Please announce in your classes in case one of your students is interested in attending SOC.

PLEASE RETURN -- The heavy duty stapler to the president's office.

WEDNESDAY

AT TONIGHT'S BOARD MEETING -- Tuition--how it should be charged and whether and/or how it could or should be hiked--will be a major topic for discussion at tonight's meeting of the Board of Education. The tuition issue, first discussed at last month's meeting, has been researched by Dean of Students Jack Carter and has resulted in a recommendation by Carter that the college maintain its current tuition policies at least until after the May 28 tax base election. The Carter study compares several options concerning the way in which tuition can be charged (for instance, charging more for credit hours over ten and less for under ten, changing definition of full-time student from 10 to 12 hours, or charging a flat rate per credit hour with no maximum) and follows with proposed tuition targets and their options for next year.

The Board will discuss student government procedures, hear reports on ASHLane and the Siuslaw project, and act on a recommendation by the administration to revise Board Policy 8330, use of college facilities. The meeting begins at 7:30 in Adm. 202 and is open to the public.

FACULTY TO MEET -- On tomorrow's faculty council agenda are progress reports on the self-study and collective bargaining and information items on administrative hiring practices and faculty office space. The meeting is at 3 p.m. in Cen. 124.

TAPE AVAILABLE -- A 40-minute video tape called "Preparing Yourself for a Job Interview", produced by Patrick Fraleigh and Bob Beaupre, is available to students and staff through Information Retrieval. The tape shows the do's and don't's of presenting yourself to a prospective employer.

CAP, GOWN DEADLINE NEARS -- Friday is the last day students can order their caps and gowns for graduation. Please announce in your classes that orders can be made at the bookstore.

ABE TRIVIA -- The Adult Basic Education program now has 1,300 students enrolled.

SEATTLE POSITIONS OPEN -- Seattle Community College is seeking a bookstore manager and a social sciences instructor. For more information, see Dorothy Kellogg.

THURSDAY

VOTES IN---It was Freeman by a landslide and Martin by a hair in Tuesday's LCC Board of Education election. Precinct tallies showed that in the at-large race, Richard Freeman captured 11,350 votes (nearly 43 percent) compared to 7,195 for Irv Fletcher. In the Zone 3 contest it was closer: Charlene Curry lost by 202 votes to Jim Martin---6,248 to 6,450. Catherine Lauris, who ran unopposed, will also return to the Board.

It is significant that many of the 26,413 voters (only 20 percent of the 128,780 registered voters in the county) did not make a choice at all in the Board seat elections. Nearly 8,000 voters refused to vote for either Fletcher or Freeman in the at-large race, and nearly 9,000 didn't vote at all in the Curry/Martin/Sparks contest in Zone 3.

WILLIAMS ELECTED---In another election outcome of interest, dean of community education Nile Williams was elected to the Lane Intermediate Education District Board, representing Zone 1. Nile was unopposed.

AND NOW THERE ARE THREE---Nursing director Estelle Singleton has become the third LCC faculty member in as many weeks selected to study overseas this summer as part of a nationwide program to write college courses on specific areas of foreign cultures. Estelle will leave in June for New Delhi, India to study that country's health services and nursing education program. Afterward she will write a college course on the results of her visit.

Earlier, political science and law enforcement instructors Paul Malm and John Kocher learned they would spend the summer in Egypt on a similar program. Malm and Kocher are among 22 community college teachers in the country going to Egypt, while Mrs. Singleton is one of 20 assigned to India. She will spend four weeks at the University of Bangalore, then will spend the next four weeks until Aug. 12 touring the country with stops in Bombay, Calcutta, Agra, Madras, Hyderabad and Banaras. Areas of study include India's philosophies and religions, science and technology, and social and behavioral sciences.

HEARINGS ON KLCC -- Gavel-to-gavel live coverage of the House Judiciary Committee hearings on the impeachment of President Nixon will be broadcast beginning May 21 on KLCC. The hearings, carried by National Public Radio, will be broadcast locally each Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday until late June or possibly into July. Morning sessions are expected to begin about 7 a.m., with afternoon broadcasts scheduled about 11 a.m. PDT. KLCC is 90.3 megacycles.

DEADLINE TODAY -- Today is the last day students can order caps and gowns for graduation. Orders may be placed at the bookstore.

LCC INVOLVEMENT IN SYMPOSIUM GROWS -- The role of Lane Community College in this summer's international Sculpture Symposium, beginning June 15 in Eugene, continues to expand. The latest word from art department chairman Roger McAlister says that three of the sculptors--Bruce Beasley, Bernard Rosenthal and John Chamberlain--will probably do some or all of their work on this campus. In Beasley's case, there's another LCC tie-in: former welding and art student Dan Dykes will be his principle assistant in fabricating the large welded-steel sculpture.

GRANT WORKSHOP SET -- Staff members involved with grants will have a chance May 16 to study all facets of the business end of their programs in a special workshop conducted by the business office. Such topics as payroll, due dates and reporting dates will be covered during the one-day workshop, scheduled for the Board Room from 3-5 p.m. Call Zita Brevig or Howard Dull for more information.

INSURANCE REP -- Archie Zarewski will be on campus today at 11 a.m. Call Carol Beckley for an appointment.

PUBLIC HEARING SET -- Interested in what the state has in mind for its Program on Aging? You can find out more and/or let your feelings be known May 14 at a public hearing in Salem. The hearing concerns the state's plans on implementing or continuing programs under the Older Americans Act for fiscal year 1975 and begins at 1:15 p.m. in the Salem Civic Center, 585 Liberty St. South. Lane County, by the way, has more than 25,000 (8 percent of the state total) persons over 60 years of age.

TUESDAY

LANE TEAM CAPTURES CROWN -- A team of LCC student and staff members topped teams from the University of Oregon, Oregon State University and Washington State University Saturday in the first annual Northwest Intercollegiate Team Badminton championships held at the U of O. The Lane team of six men and five women received 25 points of a possible 33 to take the tournament, followed by the U of O with 18; OSU, 16; and WSU, 7. Competition was held in five events including mixed doubles, women's singles and doubles and men's singles and doubles.

Members of the Lane team are Dale Crawford, Bud Narayan, Mike McCarty, Paul Stoppel, Dick Newell, Gene Arvidson, Casey Janz, Elsie Spinning, Rene Oswald, Robin Rand, and Henna Jensen.

RECOGNITION DAY SET -- Approximately 1,000 Lane County adult basic education students will receive certificates of recognition May 30 at an ABE Recognition Day at LCC. Certificates, which will be awarded to students who have completed 48 classroom hours of work during the year, will be presented at 8 p.m. in the Forum following an address by George A. Swift, regional program officer of the U.S. Office of Education. The program is free and open to the public.

KEEP YOUR AMATEUR STANDING...WIN A WATERMELON -- The annual intramural Watermelon Run, in which students and staff members can win a watermelon by completing the cross country course closest to their predicted time, is scheduled for May 21-22. "Competitors" can sign up for the run in the IM or PE office or on lists tacked to the bulletin boards in the locker rooms.

MORE JOBS OPEN -- Pinal County Community College (Cooldige, Ariz.) needs a teacher aide for clerical cluster, a professor of administration of justice and a librarian/instructor. See Dorothy Kellogg for details.

REMINDER CORRECTED -- Department directors must return SIR Evaluation forms no later than May 24, not May 20 as was announced yesterday.

R-G STORY CLARIFIED -- An article in Friday's Register-Guard concerning a summer school program for Eugene high school students was incomplete. It stated that the classes would be taught by high school teachers. Period. What it should have said was that non-credit adult education high school classes would be given as first priority to high school teachers, while college-level credit courses would be given as first priority to the college staff. If that's still not clear, call Larry Murray (ext. 348). He knows all about it.

SEMINAR TODAY -- The special seminar on working with grants is scheduled to begin today at 3 p.m. in Adm. 202. If you are interested, call Zita Brevig or Howard Dull.

TRYOUTS FOR GODSPELL MONDAY -- Five male and five female actors/singers are needed for next fall's production of "Godspell", the first production scheduled for the new performing arts theatre. Tryouts for all roles will be held Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the Forum Theatre. Students planning to audition should prepare one song from the show (sheet music can be borrowed from the performing arts department). The tryouts are open to all LCC students, so please announce in your classes.

PORTLAND PAINTER TO EXHIBIT -- Paintings by Portland artist Hugh Webb will go on exhibit for two weeks beginning May 20 in the main gallery in the art department. The show will consist of about 20 abstract acrylics, all of which will be for sale. A free public reception is scheduled for 8 p.m. May 20.

Webb graduated from the University of Utah in 1967 with a bachelor of fine arts degree and from the UofO in 1969 with a masters in painting and drawing. His one-man shows include exhibits at the U of O, LCC, OSU, Eastern Washington State College, the Source Gallery in Portland, and Pacific University. He has been a teacher at Mt. Hood CC and at the U of O and is currently working at Odyssey Film Production in Portland.

TRANSPORTATION MEETING SET -- Anyone interested in helping develop a metropolitan transportation plan can attend a meeting on the subject tonight at 7:30 at Harris Hall. Howard Zink (ext. 386) had details.

IN-SERVICE TODAY -- Representatives from Moorpark College (Moorpark, Calif.) will present a slide show and discussion on Career Development Centers today during a special staff in-service sponsored by the Danforth Foundation. Instructors from both divisions will hear Jill Padick, a career resources specialist, and John Heydenreich, a counselor, discuss how career development is done at Moorpark. The program is from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in Adm. 202 and Cen. 223/24.

BE A SPORT THIS SUMMER -- Three separate sports programs for young people will be offered in the Eugene-Springfield area this summer by LCC. Three-week and four-week sessions for girls and boys will be held beginning June 10 and 17 on campus, and a two-week program for boys is schedule to begin June 10 at Thurston High School. Materials on the boys' program are being circulated today, while information on the girls' program will be published Monday.

Here are details on the boys' course: It is open to youngsters 10-17 and will include instruction in weight training, track and field, basketball and baseball. Cost is $50 ($85 for two from the same family) which covers instruction, equipment (except for shoes and gym clothes), locker, towel and insurance. Each student must also provide a release from his family doctor. Hours are 9 a.m. to noon, Monday-Thursday from June 17-July 12. A similar course offering more activities will be held for two weeks at Thurston High School (June 10-21) but is limited to boys 10-13 years of age.

SCHAFER ELECTED TO BOARD -- President Schafer has been elected to the four-member Executive Board of Directors of the League for Innovation. He was named to the post during a meeting of the League last week in California.

SIGNS AVAILABLE -- Window signs that say "LCC Yes" are available from the office of information and publications for this month's tax base election.

VETS REMINDER---All veterans planning on going to summer school are reminded that if they pre-enroll right now with the veterans' affairs office they can be assured of an early check this summer. Please announce in your classes.

TIPS ON GRANT WRITING---Some of the mysteries of grant writing and administration were de-mystified yesterday in the special grant writing workshop sponsored by the business office. Here are a few do's and don'ts for the prospective grant writer:

- * Just because the grant is on the way don't think you can start spending money. The business office cannot let you spend a single dime before the starting date specified on the grant proposal, nor can you spend after the closing date. If you only specify a school year, 1974-75 for example, the business office is going to assume you want to start on July 1 and end June 30, and there is no way you can start spending grant funds until July 1.

- * Overhead. You might as well get used to it, there's going to be an overhead figure amounting to slightly less than 19 percent.

- * Keep a diary, not for posterity but to help you figure out your in-kind contribution. Also keep records of materials purchased from the general fund (if that is permitted by the granting agency) for in-kind contributions.

- * If, in your proposal, you ask for a certain piece of equipment, buy that piece of equipment. Not something else. The granting agencies are very fussy about this.

- * If you hire a classified staff member (such as a secretary) who is already working a full 40-hour week, you have to pay him or her time-and-a-half when he or she works for you.

- * All full-time classified employees must have a job description. Period.

- * Employees must be put on the payroll in the business office.

- * If it looks like you are not going to spend all your money, write the granting agency about 60 days before the grant's expiration date and ask for an extension.

Both those who attended the workshop and those who presented it voice concern that the grant writer/administrator not get mired down in red tape. There was a general agreement that a routing procedure, clearly spelling out who has to see what, should be available to the writer when the grant proposal process begins. One of the best methods to avoid confusion is to see Zita Brevig or Verne Whittaker before starting anything.

GIRLS SUMMER PROGRAM SCHEDULED -- A three-week sports program for girls between 9-15 years of age is to be offered this summer on the LCC campus. The program, one of three such clinics to be sponsored this summer by the Health and P.E. department, will include instruction in archery, badminton, basketball, contemporary dance, gymnastics and tumbling, paddleball, softball, tennis, track and field and volleyball. Tuition, which is $35 ($60 for two girls from the same family), covers the cost of instruction, equipment (except for gym clothes and shoes), a locker, towel service and accident insurance. Each girl must also provide a release statement from a doctor. Hours are 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Monday-Thursday from June 10-27. Registration is now in progress at the Health & P.E. department.

BAND PARTICIPATES IN FESTIVAL -- The LCC Stage Band was one of eight northwest bands to participate in the Fifteenth Annual Collegiate Jazz Festival held Sunday in Bremerton, Wash. The band, directed by Gene Aitkin, played five selections including "Cottontail", "Blue in Green" (arranged by pianist Dave Peck, who won the Outstanding Musician Award in the piano division and played in solo by John Metcalf, who won the Outstanding Musician Award in the Alto sax division), "Straight--No Chaser", "The Hanging Garden" and "Doodle-oodle". The other seven bands in the festival came from Western Washington State College, Shoreline CC, Central Washington College, Eastern Washington College, Mt. Hood CC, Clackamas CC, and Green River CC (Seattle, Wash.). You can hear a repeat of LCC's performance Wednesday when it plays a 7:30 concert at North Eugene High School.

SUGGESTIONS WANTED -- Any faculty member with a suggestion about what should or should not be included in the faculty negotiations package can make his or her views known today and tomorrow. OEA negotiator John Danielson will be available for comment today from 9:30 a.m. to noon and 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. in the Staff Assn. office (north end of the fourth floor, Center Bldg.) and tomorrow at 4 p.m. in Health 102.

ANOTHER JOB -- Rogue Community College (Grants Pass) wants a horticulture instructor. Don't see Dorothy Kellogg; she's on vacation. Look through the bundle of papers on her desk. They're in a marked LCC folder next to the in-basket.

GODSPELL TRYOUTS -- Tonight at 7:30 p.m. in Forum 301.

ENVIRONMENTAL DESIGN WORKSHOP SET---A two-week environmental design workshop in which students will study shelter construction, ceramics, movement and drawing while camped on a 100-acre farm near Cottage Grove is scheduled this summer by the art and applied design department. The workshop carries six hours of credit and will be held Aug. 12-26 on Blok Farm, near London Springs in southern Lane County. A similar project was held at the farm last year.

Students will specialize in one of the four major study areas (structures, drawing, movement and ceramics) during the workshop but will also be given some exposure to other areas if they wish. Enrollment will be limited to 40 students. Instructors are Tom Blodgett, drawing, Terry Conrad, structures, Rosamond Blok, movement, and Sharon Margolin, ceramics.

STUDENT RECEIVES AWARD---An LCC air technology student's paper has won second place in a statewide contest sponsored by the Oregon Fluid Power Association. Richard Marshall, who is also president of Phi Theta Kappa, received the second place award and a check for $100 last week for his paper "Pneumatics in Industry and Automation".

CANDIDATE'S FAIRE THIS WEEK---Phi Theta Kappa is sponsoring a candidates' faire May 24 (Friday) in the Board Room. Candidates running for several local and state offices are expected to attend.

CABINET IS CANCELED---Today.

LANE WINS---The results were expected, but perhaps the magnitude of the results was not. In what turned out to be more of an exhibition than a track meet, LCC demolished all competition last weekend to win the Region 18 track and field title for the second year in a row. Lane ran up 221 points (second place SWOCC received 74), a full 36 points better than last year. Coach Al Tarpenning is saying this could be his best team ever.

SPECIAL BOARD MEETING TOMORROW---A special Board of Education meeting that essentially will serve as the kick-off meeting for the 1974-75 budget committee will be held tomorrow at 7 p.m. in the Board Room. After a review of the results of the May 7 Board member election and a discussion of the Board's section in the accreditation report, the meeting will adjourn until 8 p.m. when the budget committee meeting convenes. At that time committee officers will be elected and the budget message and document will be presented.

REGISTRATION CONTINUES---For the boys' and girls' summer sports programs sponsored by the health and PE department. Call them for details.

BOARD TO MEET---A first look at next year's budget document by the 1974-75 budget committee will be a major item on the agenda tonight during a special meeting of the Board of Education. The actual Board meeting will only last about an hour while Board members review the May 7 election and discuss the accreditation report, then will adjourn to kickoff the first budget committee meeting, scheduled to start about 8 p.m. The Board session will begin at 7 p.m. in Adm. 202.

FACULTY TO MEET --A discussion of school policies with President Schafer and a progress report on accreditation are on the agenda for tomorrow's faculty council meeting in Cen.124.

WOMEN'S PROGRAMS TO BE DISCUSSED---A one-day Woman's Awareness Conference aimed at discussing a variety of women's concerns and at development of an advisory committee on women's programs will be held May 30 at LCC. The conference is from 9:30 to 1 p.m. in Room 102/103 of the health building. Principal speaker is Claudeen Naffziger, a local psychological associate specializing in women and families. There will also be discussion on health and day care and vocational programs, plus an effort to form an advisory committee for LCC's women's programs.

1974-75 BUDGET UNVEILED -- Characterized by fluctuating and, in some places, disappearing state and federal funding sources, a still-unanswered question about local tax support, and some inflationary facts of life, the 1974-75 LCC Budget got its first inspection last night by the budget committee and the Board of Education. They got a good look at what President Schafer and Jerry Fischer call "a bare bones budget", a document that will ask for slightly over $10 million next year to support basically what the college is serving now on $8.5 million.

In his message to the committee, Schafer noted that while enrollment continues to climb (both in Oregon and across the country) state and federal support is not keeping up. This year, for example, LCC will be reimbursed for approximately 6,254 FTE although the college's total reimbursable FTE will be closer to 6,669. Worse, said the President, our 1974-75 state operational funding figure is 6,150, more than 100 FTE less than this year.

The nation's economy isn't helping either. Inflation has progressed at such a rate that the college will have to lean more on local tax support and student tuition if it is to continue as an "open door" institution. Even a fairly bright prospect of $179,000 in federal support of the various vocational, handicapped and manpower programs will not be enough to prevent LCC from looking toward these two sources for more help. A tentative five percent hike in tuition that would keep the student's share of their education around 19 percent has been discussed, and a $3.5 million tax base will go to the voters next week.

On the need for more local and student help Schafer added, "the 1974-75 budget represents no growth projections but because of declining percentage of federal and state support, and unanticipated excessively high inflation, the local share of the costs of operating LCC will of necessity have to increase if we are to maintain current levels of service."

The budget reflects the times.

AND NOW THE GOOD NEWS -- Monday is a holiday. Stay home.

FRIDAY

TARPENNING SECOND---Kevin Tarpenning, the son of the coach, scored nearly 3,000 points in the second day of competition Wednesday to take second in the decathlon in the national community college track and field championships in Houston, Tex. Tarpenning's 6,005 points were 220 short of beating Mike Anderson of Brevard, N.C. for the title. In placing second he scored the most points in any one event (837, in the javelin), placed first in the pole vault, javelin and 100 meter dash, had a lifetime best in the high hurdles, discuss and 1,500 meters, and placed in the top three places in all events. He was the only freshman entered. The finals in the team competition conclude today.

COFFEE HONORS RETIREES---Mel Gaskill and Maurine Bayes will be honored at a coffee hour May 30 in the Board Room. Both Mel and Maurine will be retiring at the end of this year. Everyone is welcome to stop in and say goodbye.

TICKETS AVAILABLE---Tickets to the UofO Varsity vs. Alumni football game are on sale at LCC to benefit the Special Olympics. The tickets are $2 each, with half scheduled to go to the Special Olympics Fund. You can get tickets to this Saturday's game by calling Sue Thompson at ext. 277 or 283.

NO SCHOOL MONDAY---It's Memorial Day.

SCHOLARSHIPS AWARDED---Roger Wood and Lesa Carmean are the winners of the 1974-75 Oregon Association of Broadcasters scholarships, worth $200 each. The scholarships are awarded annually.

CANDIDATES TO APPEAR---The Candidates' Faire, sponsored by Phi Theta Kappa, is scheduled to begin today at 10 a.m. in the Board Room and will continue through the day.

TUESDAY

CONFERENCE THURSDAY---Discussion of a variety of women's concerns and an effort to form an advisory committee on women's programs will be featured during a one-day Women's Awareness Conference Thursday in Room 102/103 of the health building. Principal speaker is Claudeen Naffziger, a local psychological associate specializing in women and families. The conference is from 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

CONCERT TONIGHT---The LCC bands and Swing Choir will perform a free concert tonight at 8 in the cafeteria.

COFFEE REMINDER---Thursday, from 2-4 p.m., in the Board Room. Stop by and say goodbye to Mel Gaskill and Maurine Bayes, who are retiring this year.

WEST TO SPEAK---Equal Opportunities Advisor Jonathan West will be the commencement speaker at Elmira High School June 1.

RECOGNITION DAY---About 1,000 Adult Basic Education students who have completed 48 clock hours of classroom work will be honored Thursday at the annual ABE Recognition Day. The ceremony begins at 7:30 p.m. in Forum 301 with opening remarks by George A. Swift, regional program officer from the U.S. Office of Education. Following the presentation of certificates and GED recognition, there will be a reception in the cafeteria area. The reception should begin about 9 p.m.

LANE SLIPS, ENDS IN 34th--LCC's track team, which beat everyone in sight in state and regional competition, could only get five points against the best in the country last week and ended up thirty-fourth at the national championships in Houston. The Titans' points came from a fourth place finish by Tom Burrows in the javelin and Rod Cooper's sixth place in the three-mile.

LCC TAX BASE GOES DOWN---LCC's attempt at winning a new tax base went the way of almost every other money measure in the state yesterday: down. Less than 50,000 voters cast their ballot on the college measure, but it was enough to defeat Lane's proposal 28,166 to 21,337. The Board of Education will meet on June 5 to canvass the vote and decide what happens next, including discussion on the possibility of having a July election for an amount in excess of the 6 percent limitation.

Other races of interest: there will be a runoff between Verne Duncan and Jesse Fasold for the state superintendent of public instruction post vacated by Dale Parnell. Fasold has served as interim superintendent since Parnell's departure, and Duncan, a former UofO instructor, is director of the Intermediate Education District in Clackamas County. The governor's race came up with a major upset when Senate Minority Leader Victor Atiyeh easily beat Clay Myers for the Republican nomination. Atiyeh will face Democratic winner Robert Straub in the general election next November. James Weaver won the Democratic nomination for Fourth District congressman; he will face John Dellenback in the fall, and Wayne Morse outpolled Jason Boe to win the right to run against Bob Packwood for the Senate in November.

INSURANCE REP--Archie Zarewski will be on campus at 2 p.m. tomorrow.

HELP--Purchasing has received a copy of "Communications Control: Reading in the Motives and Structures of Censorship" and doesn't know who it belongs to. If you have ordered an examination copy you can pick it up in the purchasing office or call ext. 304 and it will be mailed to you.

ART WINNERS---Lane had two winners at the statewide art exhibit and competition sponsored by the Oregon College of Art last week. Tim Hamilton won first prize for his oil painting of an abandoned wagon, and Laura Crosby won a $100 scholarship to the Oregon College of Art. Hamilton's painting is on display in the administration building.

BUS AREA CLOSED---The bus loading docks and parking area in the lower level of the Forum Bldg. will be closed until noon today to allow a crane to move building materials to the fourth floor of the Center Bldg. Buses will load and unload in the south parking lot.

GOODBYE COFFEE'S SCHEDULED---Tomorrow from 2-4 p.m. for Mel Gaskill and Maurine Bayes, in the Board Room. Friday, from 3-4 p.m., for Patty Wilson (printing and graphics), also in the Board Room. June 21, for Pat Tiller, in the Staff Lounge. Pat Tiller's coffee is also a baby shower; anyone wishing to give a gift but who won't be around on June 21 can leave it at the student records office.

CONCERT SUNDAY -- The LCC Baroque Orchestra and Brass Choir will perform in a free concert Sunday in the Forum theatre. The 2 p.m. concert will feature several works, including a Flute Concerto by Vivaldi (soloist Judy Houghton) and a double trumpet concerto by Cuzinger (soloists John Jensen and Mark Nyegaard), plus a brass and percussion piece from Leonard Bernstein's score for "On the Waterfront". The concert is open to the public.

HELLO, CENTRAL -- Phone company technicians are working on a new switching system that should help reduce the problems the college is having with its intracampus lines, and that includes the busy signals often heard on the 200 series and the long waits for dial tones. They should be finished by early next week.

CONFERENCE TODAY, GRADUATION TONIGHT -- The Women's Awareness Conference is scheduled today from about 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. in Hea. 102, and the Adult Basic Education students will be recognized for their year's work tonight at 7:30 in Forum 301.

PTK OFFICIAL TO ATTEND INSTITUTE -- Kent Palaniuk, the newly-elected West-Northwest Regional representative to Phi Theta Kappa, will attend the honor society's Honor Institute at Ferrum College, Ferrum, Va. June 6-14.

SCHAFER TO SPEAK -- President Eldon Schafer is scheduled to deliver the commencement address at Chemeketa Community College June 7.

WE'RE NOT THE ONLY ONES -- Rogue Community College (Grants Pass) also lost their hopes for more tax support in yesterday's primary election.

BUT THEY STILL HAVE JOBS -- Speaking of Rogue, there is an opening for an admissions counselor there. See Ken Hills for details.

RECEPTIONS TODAY, TOMORROW -- From 2-4 in the Board Room for Mel Gaskill and Maurine Bayes. And from 3-4 tomorrow (also in the Board Room) for Patty Wilson.

REMINDER -- Staff golf tournament, Friday, May 31 at 3 p.m., Emerald Valley in Creswell. Call the P.E. office before 3 on Friday to sign up. Pay your own green fees. Prizes to be given by Gary Washburn.

AND ANOTHER LOST BOOK -- "How to Form Your Own Corporation Without a Lawyer for Under $50" is at the Business Ed. Dept. and can be claimed, if it is yours. If not claimed, Mr. Kreitz says he wants it.
