DEVELOPMENT GRANTS AWARDED---Grants that will go toward the purchase of medical equipment and a telescope, and to the strengthening of a variety of scholarship and loan funds have been awarded to the LCC staff by the Development Fund. The grants, totalling $4,000, are awarded annually by the trustees of the Fund.

Receiving awards are the financial aids office ($750 for use by high school completion students), the student health service (two $500 grants for a new incubator used in taking throat cultures and for support of a program of vision and hearing tests for students), the science department ($750 for a telescope), the adult basic education program ($400 for GED scholarships), the counseling department ($500 to organize a job-getting skills lab), the performing arts department ($300 for travel money for the stage band), and the mass communication department ($300 for orientation materials for a TV broadcasting system of individualized instruction).

LCC WINS ACCREDITATION APPROVAL---The Commission on Higher Schools, which sent an accreditation team to LCC last fall, has informed the college that it is doing a good job and will be accredited for the next 10 years. In a pre-Christmas letter, executive director of the Commission James F. Bemis said that LCC's accreditation had been reaffirmed by the team and that unless LCC has drastic problems another visit should not be necessary until about 1985. The college will be expected to turn in an interim report and will be visited by a Commission representative in five years. A copy of the report is available for loan at the library.

ART SHOW OPENS---Sculptures and drawings by five LCC artists will go on display for two weeks beginning Wednesday in the gallery. A total of 10 sculptures, all for sale, will be in the exhibit, scheduled to remain until Jan. 24. No reception is planned. The artists are instructors Bill Blix and Bruce Dean and students Jeremy Donley, Dan Dykes and Geoff Hughes. All but Dean are sculptors.

BUTTONS STILL AVAILABLE---Tenth anniversary buttons, just like the example shown above, are still available at the office of Information and Publications.

GRANT OFFICER HERE---Nathan Cogan, program director for the Oregon Program for the Improvement of Undergraduate Instruction, will be on campus Thursday to meet with staff members for a final review of grant proposals before the January 15 deadline. For an appointment between 9:30 a.m. and 4 p.m. call ext. 334.

INFORMATION RETRIEVAL---Closed today for maintenance.

WATS USE CURTAILED---Because of the demand for the WATS line, causing some users to wait 2-3 hours for an open line, a new time policy for the WATS will be instituted beginning today. At the five-minute point during a call a buzzer will sound; for those continuing to talk, an operator will break into the conversation at the 8-minute mark and every two minutes after that to give the time of the conversation. College facilities hopes the new procedure will cut down on the length of the calls.

ASCENT OF MAN SERIES BEGINS, CREDITS TRANSFERABLE TO LCC---The highly-acclaimed television series The Ascent of Man begins tomorrow on KOAC (Cable 5) and will continue for the next 13 weeks. Through a special arrangement with the Division of Continuing Education, Portland Community College, and KOAC/KOAP, the three social science credits that can be earned by watching the series can be transferred to LCC. Instructors should tell their students interested in taking the course and transferring the credits to write Campus of the Air, P.O. Box 1097, Portland, Oregon 97207 for registration materials. Tuition is $45. Credit is granted by DCE, but the course is graded by two PCC instructors. Students who wish to transfer the DCE credits to LCC should call Gerald Rasmussen, dean of instructional operations, to make arrangements. The series is broadcast weekly at 8:30 p.m. Tuesdays and repeated at 11:30 a.m. Wednesdays.

BILL OF RIGHTS SUGGESTIONS WANTED---Anyone with suggestions or concerns about the Institutional Bill of Rights should call a member of the Bill of Rights Review Committee: Jon Brennard, Peter Hale, Robert Swanson, at ext. 221, or Gladys Belden, ext. 208, Elsie Long, ext. 355, and Dorothy Kellogg, ext. 320. The Institutional Bill of Rights can be found in either the staff handbook or the student handbook.

All meetings will be in Adm. 202

OSU INTERNS ON CAMPUS---Two administrative interns, both Oregon State University doctoral candidates in vocational administration, will be working at LCC during winter and spring terms in the office of academic and college planning. They are James W. Kononen and Jeane L. Dille, and both will be working on a variety of projects, at no cost to LCC.

TICKETS ON SALE---Tickets for "Hotel Paradiso", a comedy-farce presented by the performing arts department, are now on sale at the information desk in the administration building. Tickets are $2 and all seats are reserved. "Hotel Paradiso" opens in the new theatre Jan. 17 and plays Jan. 18, 22, 23, 24, and 25. The comedy is directed by George Lauris, designed by David Sherman, and costumed by Woody Crocker.

PETITION CARRIERS SOUGHT---Anyone interested in joining students working for the repeal of Ballot Measure #13 (the censorship law) may pick up petitions in the veterans' affairs office on the second floor of the Center Building. For further information call Jon Haterius at 688-0636.

FELLOWSHIPS AVAILABLE---Twelve fellowships for college instructors who want to attend a seminar sponsored by the National Endowment for the Humanities should apply for one of 12 fellowships by Feb. 15. See Lisl Fenner in the administration building for details.

KVDO ACQUISITION, SENIOR POLICY ON BOARD AGENDA---The Board of Education will be asked to take action on the transfer of KVDO-TV from Liberty Communications to LCC tonight when the Board meets in its first session of the new year. The proposed transfer has been discussed for several months and, if approved by the Board, could lead to the formation of a consortium of community colleges to operate the station as a training ground and as a public TV outlet.

The Board will also consider a policy change that would make all classes free to persons over the age of 62, and will further discuss the possibility of seeking a serial levy in May. A decision on the serial levy must be made soon--if one is to be held the county must be notified by March 20. The meeting begins at 7:30 p.m. in Adm. 202.

RETURN THOSE QUESTIONNAIRES---Faculty members who have filled out the bargaining issue questionnaire currently being circulated should return it to their faculty council representatives by Tuesday.

INSURANCE HIKE TO BE DISCUSSED---The insurance rate increases announced by the Greater Oregon Health Service earlier this winter will be discussed at the Board meeting. AFT president Evelyn Tennis asked the Board last month to consider absorbing the GOHS increases; if it does not the hikes will be passed along to the classified staff.

GRANT ADMINISTRATOR HERE TOMORROW---Nathan Cogan, program director for the Oregon Program for the Improvement of Undergraduate Instruction will be on campus Thursday for a final review of the grant proposals that will be submitted Jan. 15. For an appointment between 9:30 a.m. and 4 p.m. call ext. 334.

INSURANCE REP---Archie Zarewski will be on campus at 3 p.m. today.

BOARD DELAYS TV DECISION, SCHEDULES PUBLIC DISCUSSION---After lengthy discussion last night, both pro and con, the Board of Education decided to postpone any decision on accepting or rejecting television KVDO for two weeks until another public hearing on the matter can be held. The hearing is scheduled for Jan. 22. Comment and questions about the transfer came from nearly every member of the Board and several members of the audience, centered mostly around a handful of issues, including the following three:

- * what the equipment at the KVDO studio is worth, and is it compatible with other systems including the closed circuit system at the state legislature, a proposed primary broadcast site? Liberty Communications, KVDO's owner, says the equipment is worth about a half million dollars; an assessment will be made in the near future. At present the closed circuit equipment is not compatible, but Liberty said two black and white cameras used for remote broadcasts would be included in the transfer, along with an RCA color camera for studio use.

- * would the station be a good training ground? Mass communication department chairman John Elliott, while having some reservations and realizing that logistics could be a problem, is enthusiastic about its educational use.

- * would LCC, if everything falls through, be left holding the bag? The agreement drawn up between LCC, Liberty, and Eugene Television (KVAL-TV, which has agreed to join the project) says that any contract would be void if the FCC doesn't go along with the transfer and the state legislature does not fund it. Further down the road, LCC would have pretty much of a free hand to sell the station to another non-profit educational system if things do not work out.

More discussion is scheduled in two weeks.

In other business, the Board discussed the proposed serial levy, referred to Board negotiator Lon Mills the question of insurance rate hikes for classified employees (a written recommendation will come from Mills at the next scheduled meeting), eliminated tuition for senior citizens, and made new appointments to LCC advisory committees.

PAYCHECK PROCEDURE TO CHANGE---As a paper-saving gesture, payroll checks will no longer be enclosed in separate envelopes. Instead, all checks for a department or administrative area will be enclosed in a single large envelope to be picked up and distributed by a department representative.

GRANT ADMINISTRATOR HERE TODAY---Nathan Cogan, program director for the Oregon Program for the Improvement of Undergraduate Instruction will be on campus today from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. He will be available to meet with staff members for a final review of proposals to be submitted by Jan. 15. Call ext. 334 for an appointment.

BITS AND PIECES ON TGIF...

...At the beginning of the new year, LCC's financial status was such that the college would be about $264,000 in the hole if budget cuts and other reductions weren't made. Round figure projections set anticipated requirements at $997,500, forcing the administrative council to come up with the following proposed spending curbs: reduction in capital outlay including match requirements, $43,000; assessment to enterprise accounts, $15,000; budget cuts from business operations, $16,000; budget cuts from student services, $20,000; Eliminate curriculum development funds, $30,000; budget cuts from college planning, $6,500; budget cuts from Board and president's complex, $10,000; reduction of transfers out, $6,000; budget cuts from instruction, $43,000; budget cuts from Continuing Ed./ABE, $69,000; payroll fixed cost savings on above, $6,000, for a net of $264,500. The cuts are just proposed and may alter as new information is received.

...Classified staff members can now charge to sick leave amounts not less than one hour. Previously non-teaching staff members were required to take a minimum of four hours (half-day) sick leave even if they took only an hour or two off.

...Tickets are still available to "Hotel Paradiso", which opens Jan. 17. See Wendy at the information desk. Tickets are $2 and all seats are reserved.

...The men's basketball team will be at home tonight against SWOCC. Gametime is 7:30. the wrestling team will compete in Coos Bay today; SWOCC is again the opponent.

...H.R. Haldeman, whose statements are being used as trick questions on English usage tests, once explained to a grand jury why the Watergate burglars were being paid money: "The other intrepertation is the question of the problem of the need for money for the purpose that was stated at the time, which was the purpose that was raised several times, as I have testified earlier that I was aware of, and apparently was raised other times, which I later found out, that I was not aware of."

Oh well, it could have been taken out of context...

MONDAY

January 13, 1975

SENIORS TO TAKE CLASSES FREE, IF THERE ARE CLASSES TO TAKE---Persons 62 years of age and over will now be entitled to take any class--credit or non-credit--free of charge at LCC. They can, that is, if they can find one. Dean of Students Jack Carter said Friday that practically all the credit classes are filled and that students are only being accepted if they are willing to sign up for one of the few courses where there is still room.

Anyway, the Board of Education has said that all LCC courses will be opened free to senior citizens on a space available basis, adding that any senior who wishes to continue paying tuition be allowed to do so. Senior citizens will still be charged any special fees that accompany a class. Previously they had also been charged $6 a term for credit classes and $6 for Adult Education courses.

The new ruling is retroactive to the first of the year. Any student 62 and over who enrolled in classes that began after Jan. 1 can apply for a refund.

AUDITIONS SCHEDULED---Auditions for "A Man for All Seasons", Robert Bolt's drama based on the life of Sir Thomas More, will begin Jan. 20 at 7:30 p.m. and continue for several days in the laboratory theatre of the performing arts building. "A Man for All Seasons", which shows More in his last years as Lord Chancellor of England during the reign of Henry VIII, is scheduled to play in the new theatre April 4, 5, 9, 10, 11, 12. Auditions are open to the public with the condition that those who are cast enroll in a performing arts rehearsal and performance class.

George Lauris has already been cast in the lead role of Sir Thomas More, but director Ed Ragozzino needs 13 additional actors, including 11 men aged 20-50 and two women, one in her late forties and the other in her mid-twenties. Scripts may be checked out from the performing arts office beginning Jan. 13.

BLOODMOBILE HERE TODAY---The Bloodmobile will be on campus today from 1-4 p.m. in front of the cafeteria. To make an appointment to donate blood call Steve John, ext. 381

WORKSHEETS AVAILABLE TOMORROW---Worksheets for classified employees who will be getting pay draws on the fifteenth are available in the business office tomorrow at 2 p.m., and must be returned when the checks are picked up on Wednesday. NO WORKSHEETS, NO CHECKS, says the business office.

CAUTION, TOURS CROSSING---The first of eight group tours this week will be inspecting the campus this morning, kicking off the Winter Term Tour Season. Students from Junction City Junior High School will be poking around classrooms and lab areas at about 10 a.m., so please be prepared to give directions if one of them looks lost. Other groups this week are from Jefferson Jr. High, Pleasant Hill Jr. High, Culp Creek Elementary, and Lincoln Jr. High. JCJHS and PHJHS make two visits. About 4,500 people a year tour LCC.

STAFF STUFFERS SEEK STAFF---The Staff Stuffers basketball team is looking for players. Anyone interested in joining the intramural team should call player/coach Al Gubrud, ext. 381, before Thursday. A complete roster must be submitted to the PE office by that date.

SUGGESTIONS NEEDED FOR LIGHT USE---LCC uses approximately a quarter million dollars of electricity a year, of which a good portion is burned up by electric lights. College Facilities is looking for a way to cut down on the use of lights. Anyone with suggestions should phone them or send them to Bill Cox.

PICK UP WORKSHEETS TODAY, PAYCHECKS TOMORROW---Classified employees who will be getting paychecks tomorrow should have their worksheets completed and returned to the business office when the checks are picked up. Worksheets will be available today at 2 p.m.

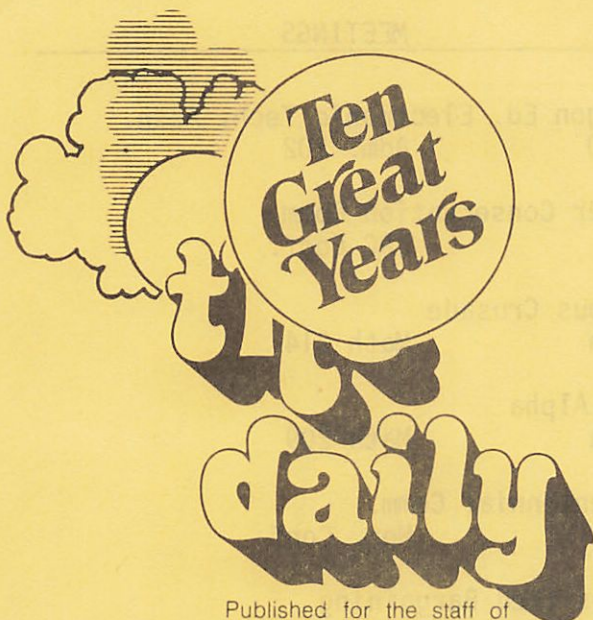

RETURN QUESTIONNAIRES---Faculty members who intend to fill out the negotiating questionnaires currently being circulated should return them as soon as they are completed to a faculty council representative.

PUBLIC EMPLOYEES MEETING SCHEDULED---The assistant director of the state Public Employee Retirement System, Jerry Liebertz, will speak tonight on the current status of the System. The meeting, open to all public employees, will be at 7:30 in the auditorium of Springfield High School, 875 N. 7th. Liebertz will also discuss projected fixed and variable investment returns for this year and changes that may be proposed during the 1975 legislative session. There will be a question and answer session if time permits.

THE COMPOSITE STUDENT---Larry Romine and the office of Academic and College Planning have drawn the composite LCC student: He is a Lane County resident, Caucasian, a freshman, single, 25 years old, and attends school full-time. That profile emerges from an analysis by the college of the 6,750 individuals who enrolled fall term for one or more credit courses. Those taking non-credit adult education courses were not included in the study.

Some other highlights of the study show that 58 percent of the credit students were male and that 64 percent were attending full time. First year students comprised 83 percent of the student body and unmarried students were more likely to attend full time. Some 65 percent of the credit students were single, while about 58 percent of the married students went to school full time.

Caucasians made up 96 percent of the student body with about one percent each of Black, Chicano, Indian and Oriental. In-district residents totaled 94 percent, with the largest delegation from any single high school coming from South Eugene, which had about seven percent of the total. The youngest credit student was 12 and the oldest was 75. The average full-time study load was 14 credit hours, average part-time load was five credit hours. Only two percent took 20 or more hours.

COMPANY DONATES $600---A check for $600 was donated recently to the LCC agricultural and industrial technology program by the John Deere Co. Area Service Manager Ernest Aaberge made the donation to instructor Paul Patrick "to help promote higher education and farm equipment repair." John Deere is a major manufacturer of farm equipment. Paul said he will use the money for scholarships and to help lure students into the program. John Deere gave $450 to LCC last year.

EPAC TO MEET---On the agenda for tonight's meeting of the Evening Program Advisory Committee is discussion of a Purchasing Agent program similar to one at Mt. Hood Community College, further information on the Spring conference (a request has been made at the Greater Western Region meeting to change the date from May to July), and discussion on registration, blazers for the committee, and a membership drive. The meeting is at 9 p.m. in Adm. 202.

FOOD SERVICES TO CHANGE SALAD POLICY---Beginning Monday, the price of a salad in the cafeteria, restaurant or snack bar will vary depending on how much dressing you use. The new pricing system on tossed and chef salads represents an attempt at keeping prices down, says Merlin Ames, because dressing is going up in cost and right now accounts for about half the price of a tossed salad.

The new system will be as follows:

Tossed salad w/dressing.....	35 cents
Tossed salad w/one portion cup of dressing.....	30 cents
small chef salad w/dressing.....	70 cents
small chef salad w/one portion cup of dressing.....	60 cents
large chef salad w/dressing.....	1.05
large chef salad w/ one portion cup of dressing.....	85 cents
Extra portion cup of dressing.....	15 cents

PHONE CHANGE---CWE coordinator Bill Dotson can be reached at ext. 291, not ext. 362.

SUPPORT GROUP ORGANIZED---Women who find themselves alone after being divorced or widowed can now join an LCC sharing/support group organized by counselors Jan Brandstrom and Irene Parent. Interested women, or anyone knowing of a person who might benefit from the group, can get further information each Monday at 2 p.m. in Center 473, or by calling Jan or Irene.

WOMEN WIN---The women's basketball team beat Portland Community College Wednesday 51 to 24. Three LCC players scored in the double figures, with Ellen Downey leading all scorers with 16 points. The women play the OCE JV's tonight at 5 in the main gym.

WORKSHOPS SCHEDULED---One and two-day workshops sponsored by the Oregon Division of Continuing Education are scheduled this month and next in Tualatin, Portland and Salem. MONDAY

January 20, 1975

KVDO TOPIC WEDNESDAY---The possible purchase of television station KVDO in Salem will be discussed in detail Wednesday during a special meeting of the Board of Education. The Board delayed any decision on the matter at its last regular meeting because more questions were raised than there were answers. If it gets enough answers the Board may decide whether or not to purchase the station Wednesday. Liberty Communications of Eugene has offered KVDO for $200,000. All staff members who wish to speak on the issue are urged to attend. The meeting begins at 7:30 p.m. in Adm. 202.

MAGAZINE AVAILABLE---The student literary magazine The Concrete Statement is on sale now in the bookstore and in the cafeteria. Price: $1.25.

EDUCATORS TO MEET HERE---The Oregon Association of Accounting Educators will meet at LCC Friday. They are being hosted by the business department.

WORKSHEETS DUE WEDNESDAY---Payroll worksheets may be picked up in the business office tomorrow at 2 p.m., and must be returned by 5 p.m. Wednesday.

PROPOSALS SOUGHT---Paper proposals are being sought by the Washington Educational Research Association for the third annual Pacific Northwest Educational Research and Evaluation conference May 22-23 in Seattle. The program will include presentations by major researchers and will provide a chance for the presentation of research or evaluation studies and theoretical papers. Proposals must be received by the Association by Feb. 3. For details, see Florence Hedden in the office of academic and college planning.

INTRAMURAL OFFICIALS NEEDED---Anyone wishing to officiate or be a timer at intramural basketball games should see Cheryl Bates in the PE office. Officials get $3 a game; timers receive $2.50.

TUESDAY
January 21, 1975

ART SHOW SET---Sculptures and paintings by two Portland artists are scheduled to go on display for three weeks beginning Jan. 27 in the main gallery at LCC. In addition, each artist will give a free public lecture and seminar during the course of the exhibit, scheduled to last until Feb. 18. A reception is set for 2 p.m. Jan. 27.

The artists are William F. Moore, a sculptor at the Portland Art Museum, and Judy Cooke, a painting instructor at Mt. Hood Community College. Moore, who works with laminated wood, is a native of Virginia and a graduate of the University of Michigan with degrees in design and sculpture. His one-man shows include the Rackham Gallery at the University of Michigan and the Harry Wentz Gallery, the Museum Art School in Portland. Moore's seminar is scheduled at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. Monday.

Judy Cooke is a Michigan native but received her art education in Boston and in Portland, graduating with a masters degree from Reed College in 1970. Her exhibits include shows in the East and several in Portland and Seattle. She is an abstract painter. Her seminar is scheduled for 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. Feb. 5.

TORCH NEEDS EDITOR---The student newspaper, The Torch, is seeking a new editor to replace John Loeber, who resigned last week. Interested students may pick up an application at the Torch office; applications must be returned by 8 a.m. Thursday. The Media Commission will interview candidates Friday.

OSU VISITATION MONDAY---Oregon State University representatives will interview prospective students Monday from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. in the food service area.

...AND ON FEB. 5---Nineteen private colleges and universities will have representatives at LCC Feb. 5 to talk with other prospective students. They will be in the concourse on the second floor of the Center Bldg. from 9-11 a.m. Institutions in Oregon, Washington and Idaho have said they will send representatives. Included are Lewis and Clark, Linfield, George Fox, Warner Pacific, Reed, Pacific, Willamette, University of Portland, Seattle Pacific, Whitworth, Whitman, Ft. Wright, St. Martin's Pacific Lutheran, Seattle, Gonzaga, University of Puget Sound, Northwest Nazarene, and College of Idaho.

BOARD SESSION TOMORROW---The Board of Education will meet in special session tomorrow to discuss the possible take-over of television KVDO in Salem. KVDO, currently a commercial station, is the property of Liberty Communications of Eugene, which has offered it to LCC. Although there is a $200,000 price tag on the station, the purchase price would not be borne by LCC but probably by the state legislature. The legislature is interested in televising many of its sessions on a public TV channel. Anyone with an opinion on the issue is urged to attend the special session, beginning at 7:30 p.m. in Adm. 202.

STILL ROOM ON THE BUS---Seats are still available on the LCC rooter bus that is scheduled to take fans to the SWOCC basketball game in Coos Bay Feb. 7. Price: $6, which includes admission to the game. For details, call the PE office.

STUDENTS SCHEDULE CONCERT---A concert featuring the Mother Davis Band is scheduled for Friday in the cafeteria, from 8 p.m. to midnight. Admission is $1.

WEDNESDAY
January 22, 1975

JAZZ/CHAMBER CONCERT SCHEDULED---Jazz and chamber music, often considered musical opposites, will be treated as cousins Jan. 31 in a jazz/chamber concert at LCC. The concert, called "A Meeting of the Minds", is free and begins at 8 p.m. in the performing arts theatre. Musicians will be performance studies instructors, with a prelude provided by student ensemble groups.

Piano teacher Barbara Myrick said the performance is designed to show how classical and jazz music relate to each other. The musicians will begin by playing alternating classical and jazz pieces, then will gradually combine the two musical forms until it becomes difficult to tell them apart. Some of the selections include "Syrinx" for flute duo, "Barnyard Blues" for Dixieland band, "Sonata in C" for bassoon and harpsichord, "Bye, Bye Blackbird" for jazz trio, "Quodlibet" for piano, bass and percussion, and "Eres Tu".

EDITOR DEADLINE TOMORROW---Tomorrow is the last day students can apply for the editorship of the Torch, which became vacant when John Loeber quit last week. Please announce in your classes that application forms may be picked up in the Torch office.

BOARD TO MEET TONIGHT---KVDO will be the topic of conversation tonight at a special meeting of the Board of Education. The Board, in fact, may decide whether to acquire the station or scrap it depending on the testimony it hears and the information it has received in the two weeks since its last meeting. Anyone with an opinion on the matter is urged to attend the 7:30 meeting in the Board Room.

TESTS OFFERED---Free hearing and vision tests will be available to LCC students at the Student Health Service beginning next week. Please announce to your classes.

INTRAMURALS BEGIN---Intramural five-person basketball begins today at 5 p.m. and will continue with a two-league, round robin tournament until the championship game between the two leagues later in the season. Naturally.

THURSDAY
January 23, 1975

TV PICTURE STILL FUZZY---LCC's Board of Education will vote next Tuesday at 7:30 in the Board Room on the question of whether to join a consortium in acquiring Salem television station KVDO. Chairman Steve Reid couldn't make last night's session and there were some indications that his might have been the swing vote. President Schafer explained that LCC would not have to budget any money for the station immediately. The legislature would have to acquire the station from Liberty Communications of Eugene, and others in the consortium would put up initial operating money. But, at least two or so Board members apparently feel that LCC's other needs ought to be put ahead of the TV project.

STUDENT RECORDS ARE PRIVATE---Grace Cameron, supervisor of student records reminds all staff members that "according to federal law enacted Aug. 21, 1974, no person or agency, except LCC staff for official college purposes, may be granted information contained in a student's records at a post-high school institution such as LCC without written permission or consent of the student. The student is guaranteed access to the student's own records, however. A student's address, phone number, and whereabouts on campus are included in private and protected information. Questions about this law may be directed to the supervisor of student records."

CASE RETURNS FROM JOB FOR, VISIT WITH HEW---Dean of Academic and College Planning Lewis Case returned this week from Washington D.C. where he spent two weeks working for, and conferring with officials of the department of Health, Education and Welfare. For one week he read proposals for HEW's Advanced Institutional Development Program that helps colleges on the verge of becoming "great" get that way, and for the second week he met with HEW representatives on the possibility of grants for LCC and attended a Federal Affairs Programs workshop sponsored by AACJC.

For the proposal-reading work, which will eventually amount to about $2 million for each approved college, Case received all expenses and a salary of $100 a day, which allowed him to stay the second week for the workshop and grant study.

WOMEN WIN AGAIN---The women's basketball team pushed its record to 3-0 Tuesday when it edged Mt. Hood Community College 53-50 in overtime. Ellen Downey, with 31 points, was the leading LCC scorer.

PHONE CHANGES---Here are the phone changes this week in Community Education: Dick Earl, who has taken charge of Adult Basic Education along with his high school completion duties, can be reached at ext. 253, 323, 324, 325 instead of his old number of 233, and Carl Horstrup can be reached at ext. 362 or 359 instead of 323.

EQUIPMENT FOR HANDICAPPED AVAILABLE FOR LOAN---Crutches and other equipment that can be used by the physically handicapped are now available for loan at the student health service. Two pair of crutches, one pair of Canadian crutches, a walker, and a wheelchair were donated this week by the president of the LCC Handicapped Students' Association, B.M. "Tex" Estes.

SCREENING TESTS START---Vision and hearing screening tests are now being administered free to LCC students. Call ext. 268 or visit the health service for an appointment.

SCHAFER ASKS CETA PROCEDURE REVIEW---Questions raised concerning the hiring of the wife of the director of the Lane County Social Services Division for a federally-funded LCC position have led President Schafer to ask for an immediate review of procedures used in hiring Mrs. Marje Wynia last Oct. 14. Mrs. Wynia is the wife of Social Services director Bob Wynia, who also oversees the Comprehensive Education and Training Act program in Lane County. She was hired by LCC as a counselor/mental health liaison officer and her salary is paid with CETA funds. A citizens' group has questioned the hiring, claiming that LCC may have violated nepotism rules in hiring Mrs. Wynia.

At the request of Dean of Students Jack Carter, President Schafer will ask the Board of County Commissioners to request that the Department of Labor's Region X office send a representative immediately to review the events that led up to the selection of Mrs. Wynia and to provide an audit of the procedures used by the selection committee.

Lyle Swetland, whose Development Office has been in charge of processing applications for CETA funds for LCC, said "we're concerned that citizens of the college district know that LCC is doing its very best to apply the (CETA) regulations and guidelines as we understand them. If the process that we're using is not correct, not only in the case of Mrs. Wynia but in the case of all the people we hire with CETA funds, then we need to know if there are any changes that need to be made and what they are."

PARTIAL REORGANIZATION IN BUSINESS OPERATIONS---The creation of an office of personnel services, with Hank Douda assigned as its director, heads the list of reorganization moves in the office of business operations announced by President Schafer yesterday. In addition to the creation of personnel services, all budget functions presently performed by three different individuals will be transferred to the budget director, Verne Whittaker, and the director of financial services/controller (Bill Mansell) will become more involved in the direct administration of other activities performed by the current business office.

A complete outline of the reorganization, including a detailed explanation of who does what, is being circulated through the campus as a memo from the president. Interested staff members who do not have a copy of the memo can ask for one from their supervisor.

PHONE DIRECTORIES AVAILABLE---The new Eugene/Springfield telephone directories are available in the mail room. Department representatives who pick up the new books are asked to bring all old directories to the mail room for recycling.

AND SPEAKING OF RECYCLING---Bob Hoffman, an accounts analysis clerk in the business office, has been elected to the Board of Directors for BRING. He hopes to start organized recycling projects on the LCC campus and is seeking suggestions for such projects. If you have any ideas call him at ext. 311.

KMPS WILLING TO EXPAND---KMPS, the campus radio station, would like to expand its broadcasting area from the cafeteria to other areas of the school. Anyone who would like the programming piped into classrooms or shops, call Jeff Young at the mass communication department.

JAZZ MATERIALS BROWSING SESSION SET---Jazz instructional materials, including improvisational methods, duet books, programmed learning texts and records, will be on display in the instrumental room of the performing arts department tomorrow from noon to 5 p.m. All materials are provided by the Ted Brown Music Company in Tacoma; none will be for sale.

WHO SCHEDULED THIS MEETING?---Would the person who has reserved the President's Dining Room for a budget meeting at 11:30 a.m. Feb. 4 please call Bev at ext. 335?

MONDAY

ON SECOND THOUGHT---Tuesday's Board of Education meeting to vote on the KVDO acquisition has been postponed at the request of Don Tykeson of Liberty Communications, Inc. He said he wants to investigate alternatives to transferring the station to LCC directly. It may be that it could go to the State System of Higher Education and OEPBS, with LCC and others as partners, or to Chemeketa CC or to some other agency. Ways to strengthen the solvency of the proposed consortium are being sought. Board member and faculty concerns about LCC fiscal obligations to the consortium motivated the action.

AUDITIONS SCHEDULED---Auditions for nearly $300 in scholarship money, to be distributed among five symphonic band members, will be held Feb. 4 in the performing arts department band room. The auditions are open only to members of the symphonic band. Three scholarships of $100 and one of $90 will be awarded by Musicians Union Local #689, and one scholarship of $100 will be awarded by the University of Oregon Cultural Forum. The "audition audience" is open to the public.

ELLISON NAMED TO COMMITTEE---Study Skills director Jim Ellison has been appointed to the Basic Skills Committee of the Educational Coordinating Council to consider the problems Oregon's young people have in learning the Three R's. Jim is one of five committee members representing all phases of public and private education in the state; he is the community college representative.

TYPING ROOMS OPEN---The business department reminds that all the laboratory typewriters and calculators in Room 206 of the business building are open for anyone on campus to use. Please announce in your classes.

CABINET TO MEET TODAY---A review of last week's Faculty Council meeting and Monday's meeting of the Administrative Council will be on the agenda today when the College Cabinet meets at 3 p.m. in the Board Room. Also on the agenda is discussion of possible changes in Board policy, a review of the facility planning committee, and 1975-76 budget projections.

STEPS TAKEN TO REDUCE PAPER USE---Paychecks Friday will not come in individual envelopes, there will be fewer people receiving minutes and agendas of Board of Education meetings, and the practice of using covers and plastic combs on Board books has been stopped...all in the name of paper conservation. President Schafer ordered the actions after the Ad Hoc Committee on Paper Conservation made an interim report on paper use at LCC. Further reports, and further conservation measures, are promised.

COUNCIL MINUTES AVAILABLE NOW---The Daily jumped the gun yesterday in reporting that minutes were available of the Jan. 23 Faculty Council meeting at which the Goldmark proposal was discussed. Apologies to Terry Forster, who was caught unaware and who had to refuse several requests for the minutes. They are now available, however, and you may get a copy from Terry in the library.

WOMEN'S CAUCUS SCHEDULED---The 1975 convention of the Oregon Women's Political Caucus is scheduled Feb. 8 at Putnam Center, Willamette University. The program opens with remarks by State Sen. Betty Roberts at 10 a.m. and closes at 3:30 p.m. with an address by State Rep. Norma Paulus. For registration information write OWPC Convention, 2552 Alder St., Eugene, Ore.

FAST PASSES HERE---February Fast Passes will be on sale tomorrow from noon to 8 p.m. at the Student Resource Center. Price: $10.

HEALTH MEETING SET---The staff of the Student Health Service will hold an open public meeting Friday from 1-2:30 p.m. in the Board Room. Staff or students with suggestions or complaints about the health service are invited to attend.

W-2 FORMS AVAILABLE---Today, at 1 p.m., in the business office. Departmental representatives should pick them up for distribution.

NEWELL TO DISCUSS STATE RULING---Health and PE department chairman Dick Newell will appear on Channel Seven tomorrow morning to discuss the state's efforts at mainstreaming trainable mentally retarded persons into the public schools. Dick, who is the father of a 14-year old mentally retarded boy, opposes the state's efforts, and will appear on a panel comprised of representatives from several agencies involved in the maneuver. The discussion is scheduled for 7:30-9 a.m.

WEDNESDAY
January 29, 1975

TO COMMENCE OR NOT TO COMMENCE---The question of whether LCC should continue holding formal commencement exercises was raised yesterday at the Cabinet meeting, and will be raised again formally and informally throughout the college during the next few weeks. Commencement has been slipping in attendance during the past few years and has received criticism for everything from being held on the wrong day to high honorariums for speakers, leading college officials to question its existence and to seek the opinion of LCC staff and students. Anyone with suggestions about graduation should see his or her supervisor, or Jack Powell, or any Cabinet representative.

MORE CETA POSITIONS ON THEIR WAY TO LCC---Ten new CETA-funded clerk positions have been approved for LCC, with a possible 15 more on the way. The new positions will be funded until July 1, then will probably be extended to Dec. 1. Meanwhile 15 other applications for CETA jobs will be considered by the county at a later date.

"DRASTIC" CUTS MAY COME---Unless LCC receives some extra income, and receives it pretty soon, spring term classes may have to be cut "drastically" said President Schafer yesterday. Schafer noted that the college is being reimbursed for 6,150 FTE, but expects about 7,000 FTE by the end of the year, and the budget must be balanced during spring term. One group effort by all of Oregon's community colleges may bear fruit in a few weeks when the 13 schools find out if the legislature has approved their request for supplemental income for over-realized FTE. Meanwhile, Gov. Straub may also increase his recommended increase in community college funding (now at a mere 3 percent) for next year, but even if he does the legislature must still approve it.

W-2S FOR SOME IN BUSINESS OFFICE, OTHERS IN FINANCIAL AIDS---Withholding statements for all employees who drew December paychecks have been distributed, but W-2s for those who did not draw a check off the December payroll are available in the business office. And W-2s for work study students will be in the financial aids office until noon tomorrow, then they will be returned to the business office and mailed. Any questions? Call Ben Crawford in the business office.

BUSINESS OFFICE COUNTER HAS NEW HOURS---Starting Monday, the business office will have new hours for the front counter. During February, the counter will be open from 8:45 a.m. to 6 p.m., and beginning March 1, it will be open from 8:45 a.m. to 4 p.m. During registration and the first week of classes it will be in operation from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

INSURANCE REP---Archie Zarewski will be on campus at 2 p.m. today. For an appointment call Marge McGill.

MEETING CANCELED---The management employees' meeting scheduled for 4 p.m. today has been canceled.

LBCC BUDGET TRY FAILING---Although it was doing well in Benton County, the request by Linn-Benton CC for $2.3 million was losing in Linn County and appeared this morning to be on the way to defeat. Meanwhile a school bond issue in Harrisburg passed, as did a proposal that the Springfield Utility Board buy PP&L's area operations.

BELLA NAMED EDITOR---Rick Bella, who began as a reporter for the Torch in December and was promoted to associate editor in early January, has now been named editor of the student newspaper to replace John Loeber. Loeber quit the post two weeks ago for financial reasons. Bella, 24, was born in Brooklyn, N.Y. but was raised in Teaneck, N.J. and has been living in Oregon since 1972. Earlier this winter he was named as one of 31 students in the western states to receive a $50 Western Newspaper Foundation scholarship.

As editor Bella plans to stick with a consistent eight-page format for the rest of the year (the Torch has been four pages during most of the year) and will concentrate on hard news, sports, and a special center spread feature every week. The feature will be on a single theme each week, said Bella, helping "give us a personality people can look for from issue to issue." Besides Bella, the Torch has a staff of about 10.

BITS AND PIECES ON TGIF EVE...

... Les Monroe, a representative of the State Department of Education, will appear at LCC Feb. 7 for a question-and-answer session on the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act. The Act, subtitled the Buckley Amendment, outlines who has access to student records and what they (the records) can be used for. Monroe has written guidelines on implementing the Act. Anyone interested in attending the 1-3 p.m. session (in the Board Room) can pick up a copy of the amendment in the admissions office.

... Staff members or students interested in joining a carpool can sign up for one at the Student Resource Center, located at the east entrance to the Center Bldg., second floor.

... There has been a change in the location where representatives from 19 private colleges and universities will meet with prospective students Feb. 5--they will be near the restaurant in the northeast corner of the food services area instead of the second floor of the Center Bldg. They will be available for interviews with students from 9-11 a.m.

... The phone number for Bob Allen, Bud Land and Carl Blood is ext. 372, not 295.

... Work study students have until noon today to pick up their W-2 forms in the financial aids office. Any not retrieved will be returned to the business office and mailed. Employees who did not get a December paycheck, but who have a W-2 form coming can pick it up in the business office.

... The social security rate will stay the same in 1975 (5.85 percent), but the base will be increased to $14,100 from $13,200. This means a maximum social security tax of $824.85 (up from $772.20) for employees and $1,113. 90 (up from $1,042.80) for self-employed.

EXHIBITS IN LIBRARY---Two exhibits--one of paintings of Indians and a collection of Indian artifacts and the other a "nature in miniature" scene--will be on display until the middle of February in the LCC library. Nez Perce and Modoc Indians are the subjects of a display loaned by LCC student Sherman Carter, who, in his boyhood, lived on the Klamath Indian Reservation.

Several watercolors and oils of notable Indians such as Chief Joseph and Captain Jack highlight the exhibit, which also features scenes of incidents taken from Carter's research of Indian history in Oregon. To accompany the paintings Carter has also provided his collection of Indian blankets, an 1873 lever-action rifle, and other artifacts.

Elsewhere in the library is a three-piece "nature in miniature" scene depicting a rural setting surrounding a miniature railroad. The scene was constructed by the Model Railroad Workshop, led by Wayne George and sponsored by the Willamalane Park and Recreation District. It is entirely hand-crafted in such detail that even the hinges on the door of the three-inch out-house are made of leather.

HEALTH SERVICE MEETS TODAY---A public meeting of the staff of the student health service is scheduled today from 1-2:30 p.m. in the Board Room. All staff members or students with suggestions or comments to make about the health service are invited to attend.

FACULTY SCHEDULES MEETING---An all-faculty meeting of the LCC Education Association is scheduled Tuesday at 3:15 p.m. in Forum 302. Progress reports on the state of the Association and reports on bargaining for next year, membership, finances, and Faculty Council activities will be included in the agenda. LCCEA Executive Committee officers are Rick Romanek, president; George Alvergue, president-elect; Charles Bentz, past president; Carol Easton, secretary; Karla Schultz, treasurer; and Jim Snow, Faculty Council.

COLLEGE DESIGNERS TO STUDY LCC---Representatives from the Ventura Community College District in California will be on campus today to study LCC's efforts at individualized instruction, the modular catalog, counseling and the LRC. Ventura CC District is in the process of designing a new college.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK---"In a free democracy we follow and do what lawful authority says. If (someone) doesn't like it here, he ought to get out."...from a letter in the Jan. 27 issue of Newsweek.

MANAGEMENT GROUP SELECTS STEERING COMMITTEE---New members of the steering committee of the management employees group are Laura Gauderman, confidential secretaries; Keith Harker, directors; Joyce Hops, administrators; Phil Robley, specialists; Jack Kreitz, department chairers; Bob Way, coordinators; Verne Whittaker, managers.

DANCE TO BENEFIT ASLCC, MARCH OF DIMES---A benefit dance for the March of Dimes and the student government is scheduled Feb. 7 in the cafeteria. Music will be provided by "Iguana Outside". The dance begins at 8 p.m. in the cafeteria and admission is $1.50. Twenty-five percent of the proceeds will go to the March of Dimes and the remainder will go to ASLCC.

KULONGOSKI TO DISCUSS EDUCATION ISSUES---State Rep. Ted Kulongoski will speak on education issues and answer questions tomorrow at a public breakfast at the Junction House in Junction City. The breakfast, sponsored by the Eugene Education Association and Lane County UNISERV, is from 9-10:30 a.m.

CONCERT TONIGHT---The concert "A Meeting of the Minds" combining jazz and chamber music, is scheduled tonight at 8 in the theatre. Admission is free.
