SPECIAL BOARD MEETING--After 2 p.m. Friday Board Chairman Jim Martin called a special Board of Education meeting for 6:30 p.m. Sunday to discuss the work study program. After two hours of discussion, the Board unanimously approved a motion to allow work study students to whom commitments were made to work the hours they were scheduled to work. Up to $15,000 may be transferred from the Contingency Fund to fund their pay. As a result, work study students may work the rest of this week and finals week as they were scheduled to do.

FROM OREGON NEWSPAPERS--Central Oregon CC is seeking a several-acre land donation at Prineville on which to build a community education center....The Daily Astorian, commenting about the U of O people who want to eliminate ROTC, says: "We deplore arrogance of students and faculty who take it upon themselves to determine the availability of any program at the university."

RECOGNITION--Employees retiring from the college staff this year and those completing 10 years of employment will be honored at a public observance in the Board Room on Thursday, June 9, at 3 p.m. Arrangements are being handled by Assistant to the President Bert Dotson.

UNION VOTE FORTHCOMING--The LCC Board of Education agreed Wednesday night to accept an Employment Relations Board agent's ruling that part-time teachers in adult basic education and high school completion may, if they wish, form a collective bargaining unit. The Board's decision not to appeal the ruling means that the 42 employees involved will vote on the issue, probably within a month. In other business, the Board reaffirmed a desire that collective bargaining sessions be videotaped if details can be worked out; allocated $4,500 more for building women's rest rooms in vocational areas; appointed Archie Zarewski insurance agent of record for the ninth year in a row; and agreed to tour the Christensen resort near Florence on July 27. A Florence delegation requested that the store on the property be restored and made an historical landmark.

TODAY IN THE CAFETERIA--A 3 p.m. reception will honor 11 retirees from the staff and 31 persons who have reached the tenth anniversary of their employment. You're invited to attend.

TONIGHT AT 10:30----Swing and graveyard shift members of the classified union will meet in the cafeteria to talk about contract negotiations and the status of the union. ONE MORE TIME--Tomorrow is the last daily Daily until September. Starting next week, the Daily becomes a weekly, with a Monday distribution schedule.

OSCULATION--Kissing your spouse at least once every morning leads to fewer accidents and improved emotional health. That's the word from the medical director at Western Electric's Kansas City plant. That plant has had a campaign with bumper stickers, etc., to encourage smooching, according to a story in the WE house organ, Echo. The story doesn't report if there has been an increase in tardiness since the campaign began.

It would be for 10 minutes or so, mid-morning and afternoon on a rotating schedule. Please call Sylvia Pinkerton, ext. 291, and leave a message, or 686-1150 evenings and weekends.

Now they hear the bell and come running from all directions.' "

BOARD REPORT--The LCC Board of Education unanimously approved the 1977-78 budget last Wednesday after a brief public hearing. No levy outside the six percent limitation will be needed, however, as the tax base and other revenue sources are adequate to support the $24 million total budget. In other business, the Board received a report from the Corporation for Public Broadcasting indicating that KLCC-FM didn't receive some $28,000 in funds for which it was eligible and must pay back about $6,000 in already received funds. Those adjustments came as a result of KLCC not meeting CPB requirement during a portion of the year. The Board also tabled a motion to voluntarily recognize the high school completion and adult basic education teachers as members of the LCC Education Association, approved the establishment of the on line computer registration procedure for use next year, and approved the appointment of Jack Powell as the new Language Arts Department Head.
