

the UN-daily

Eleventh Week
MONDAY
December 4, 1978

Published for the staff of Lane Community College. Deadline for contributions is 2 p.m. on the day before publication day.
Editor/Coordinator: Kathy Dave, ext. 340.

TELEPHONES--Changeover to the new telephone system is scheduled to occur on the weekend of January 13-14, 1979. The delay is to avoid interruption of Winter Term registration.

SURPLUS SALE--Just a reminder that the Purchasing Department will have another sale of LCC surplus equipment. Please send Sales/Transfer form #761 for each item to Purchasing. Be sure to have dean's approval on all items, as all forms not having proper authorization will be returned with the item to the sender.

THIS IS FOR YOU--If you have new employees or employees who are working more than 15 hours a week and have not signed up for Public Retirement (PERS), please have them come to Personnel Services as soon as possible. This will avoid having to charge them additional PERS contributions when we do have to start deducting. For questions or information call Nancy Cheffings, ext. 258. Thanks.

CPR CLASSES RESCHEDULED--Classes in cardiopulmonary resuscitation meet today, Wednesday and Friday from 2-5 p.m. in HEA 105. These classes are for staff members who have already had a first aid course.

SPEAKER--State Representative David Frohnmayer will speak to the issues concerning health care legislation today at noon in HEA 104. The talk is open to everyone.

VidRA CONFERENCE--Several LCC staff and students participated in the fifth annual Northwest Video Resources Association Conference held in Portland recently. David Joyce, art and video instructor, was co-chairman. Others attending from Lane included Ken Sweet, Media Productions; Robert Prokop, photography instructor; and 10 Mass Communication students who acted as aides and guides for the two-day conference. Joyce was elected vice-president, president-elect for the coming year.

WINNERS--LCC's Downtown Center received the first place award in its division of a Christmas Window Display contest sponsored by the Eugene Downtown Association. The Work Activity Center, supervised by Jean Bell, put together the "old fashioned" Christmas scene. Also involved in the project was the Math annex at the Downtown Center.

VACANCIES--The Women's Awareness Center is now accepting applications for staff openings for winter and spring terms. The applications and job descriptions are available in the Women's Center, Room 217 CEN. Deadline for receiving applications is Dec. 14.

LAST DAY--Tomorrow will be the last day of operation for the Renaissance Room Restaurant for fall Term. The menu includes a Chinese combination plate of stir-fried pork and mushrooms, sub gum vegetables, steamed rice and Won Ton soup w/ egg roll; Won Ton soup w/ egg rolls; vegetarian omelette; and chef salad w/ choice of dressing. Hours are 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

FREE CONCERT--Wednesday, December 6, the Silverwood chamber players will hold an open rehearsal at 2 p.m. in room 122 in Performing Arts. And at 4 p.m. they will perform a free concert in the Lab Theatre. The group includes a wood quintet plus a piano.

BLISS--Honeymooning last week at Lake Tahoe were Dean of Students and Mrs. Jack (Ilene Krug) Carter. They were wed Saturday, November 25, at the Maxwell Road Methodist Church. Jack is due back in the office today.

ENROLLMENT--The top FTE producers among LCC's credit instructional departments remain about the same, according to the Fall Term enrollment report. Business as usual, leads the parade with 277 FTE and 2,171 headcount. In FTE, Social Science is second with 190, Mechanics is third with 177, Math is fourth with 167, and Language Arts is fifth with 155. These five departments produce more than half of the college's credit FTE. On a headcount basis, Health & P.E. is second to Business with 2,051 students, Math is third with 2,019, Social Science is fourth with 1,890, and Language Arts is fifth with 1,844. Mechanics drops to twelfth in headcount, with 441. Obviously, they have fewer students taking more credit hours in specialized programs. The college as a whole has 6,955 credit students this term.

TV STARS WANTED--Community Relations is talking to a local TV station about doing a program on the innovative ways that LCC faculty members teach. A list of teachers and how they make learning easier and a joy must be compiled as a first step. Call Larry Romine at ext. 340 to nominate yourself or others, or just talk it over. Thanks.

Finals Week
December 11, 1978

BOARD MEETING--The LCC Board of Education will tour the Study Skills Learning Center at 7 p.m. Wednesday, then convene at 8 p.m. in ADM 216 for what could be a short session devoted to staff reports and housekeeping matters. The reports will concern construction, the League for Innovation, the 1977-78 audit, and the President's annual report. The Board will sell some surplus property, consider a bid for telephone equipment, and set budget meeting dates.

CURRICULUM--The deadline for submitting new and revised courses and revised programs for spring term implementation is Jan. 2, 1979. For questions or assistance call Vickie Ugorek at ext. 201 or stop by her office on the library mezzanine.

ON DISPLAY--The library is currently featuring a display by Bill Hudson, a local artist who builds scale reproductions of buildings and equipment. This particular display has three aspects, logging equipment, early 1900's farm equipment and a detailed facade of the Masonic lodge that used to stand at 8th, where the park is currently. Hudson uses virtually no manufactured parts in his miniatures, casting his own metal parts and producing others on a metal lathe. He also uses the effect of aging in most of his designs although the creations are new. The display will be in the library through Jan. 31. Library hours are 7:30 a.m. to 10 p.m. Monday through Thursday and 7:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Fridays. The exhibit is open to the public at no charge.

NEWS OF THE LEAGUE--Bert Dotson, league representative, reports that Johnson County College in Overland Park, KA, will be invited to membership in the League as of Jan. 1, 1979. This will increase the number of League districts to 17 and the number of college campuses to 52. Johnson County is a single campus district. Coincidentally, through government surplus, LCC acquired a twin-engine aircraft formerly owned by JCC that is now being used by our aircraft maintenance program. Jack Kreitz and Jim Piercey flew it to the campus a couple of years ago.

STUDIO HOURS--The College/Community Relations office has scheduled photography studio hours this week for today and tomorrow morning between 9- 11:30 a.m. These will be open hours for staff who have not had their picture taken for the catalog. This is for new staff members who do not have a picture on file or staff who did not have their picture taken last year. Just stop by the Community Relations office, 1st floor Administration (Information Counter) during the morning.

IN SPORTS--The women's basketball team opened their season with a 52-43 victory over the U of O JVs last Thursday night. The men's team lost a close, exciting game to Lower Columbia 76-82. The next home game will be a doubleheader tomorrow night (Dec. 12) when the Titans host the Oregon College of Education JVs. Game time is 5:45 p.m. for the women and 8 p.m. for the men. Support the team and see some exciting basketball as the Titans begin the 1978-79 season.

ARCHIE COMING--Insurance Agent Archie Zarewski will be on campus Wednesday, Dec. 13 at 2 p.m. Call Jim Egan, Personnel Services, ext. 258 for an appointment.

ELECTED--Sharon Moore, cooperative work experience coordinator in the Business Department, was elected president of the Work Experience Coordinators of Oregon (WECO) at it's annual conference held at the Valley River Inn last week. Moore was selected from among 250 coordinators attending the conference.

TICKETS--The College/Community Relations office has a limited supply of free tickets to the Emerald Empire Sr. Boxing Championships Jan. 6 and 7. Tickets are available on a first come, first served basis.

REPRESENTATIVES NAMED--Representatives for the Mangement group have been announced in all three areas of membership. Larry Romine, director of C/CR, will represent those offices reporting directly to the president. Doug White, Health Occupations Head and Casey Fast, Mathematics Head, Instruction; Laura Gauderman, Student Services; and Sue Nieminen, Personnel director, and Verne Whittaker, Financial services director, Administrative Services.

WOMEN'S CENTER--Thursday is the deadline for turning in applications for vacancies on the Women's Center staff.

SEASONS GREETINGS--The editor and staff of the Un-Daily wish all of you a happy holiday season. And, speaking of holidays, here is the schedule for Christmas and New Year's for staff. Tomorrow, Dec. 15 is the last scheduled work day for faculty. Classified and management staff will be off the last working day before Christmas, Dec. 22; Christmas, Dec 25; the day after, Dec. 26; and New Year's Day, Jan. 1, 1979. The college will be closed on these days and all staff will return when winter term begins Jan. 2. This will be the last Un-Daily until Thursday, Jan. 4.

BOARD MEETING--In slightly less than two hours last night, the Board moved through a group of housekeeping matters and some home-made Christmas goodies from the Junction City dairy farm of Board member Jim Pitney. Some 2 dozen new and revised courses were approved, the Administration was directed to pursue a possible management compensation study, an audit was received indicating that college finances are in good order, Chairman Larry Perry was reappointed as LCC's representative on the L-COG Board, Annette Crawford was appointed to the college budget committee, and Larry Warford of the AACJC field staff was hired as assistant to the dean of instruction.

SO LONG--A farewell luncheon for Jonathan West, associate director of Personnel Services, will be held Friday January 5, at noon at the Rodeway. Marie Reid will have tickets available December 18 and will be selling through January 3. Everybody's welcome.

The college will be closed on these days.

PAYDAY--December payroll checks will be available on Thursday, Dec. 21 from 9 a.m. to noon at Financial Services. Only the department head or the designated representative may pick up the checks.

STAY AWAY--Electrician Darrell Allyn says it would be a good idea to stay away from campus on Friday, Dec. 22 and Saturday, Dec. 23. Crews will be doing the annual boiler and high voltage equipment maintenance work on those days. There will be no heat anywhere on campus on the 22nd and no electricity at all on some parts of campus both days.

VISITORS--Social Science Head Paul Malm hosted a campus visit Tuesday of four Republic of China newsmen. On a goodwill mission to visit major U.S. newspapers, the group was persuaded by Paul to expand its Eugene itinerary to include LCC.

APPOINTED--Pat John is the interim department head for the Study Skills Learning Center for the rest of the college year. Pat has been teaching basic skills at LCC for the past 6 years. She previously taught in Colorado.

DIFFERENT TITLE--Vic Favier's course under Sequence # 1215 in the winter schedule of classes should have read FOSSILS & EVOLUTION instead of General Biology. It's still Bi 102, 4 cr., MW, 7:30-10:30 p.m., SCI 110.

TRIP--Some 16 students and teacher Freeman Rowe are leaving this week for a trip and participation in a course called The Natural History of Baja, CA. They'll try to get within 5 or 6 feet of a whale, see some of the rarest plants in the world, visit the area where our turkey vultures spend the winter, etc. All costs are being paid by the students; even the teacher is paying his own way. The group will be back Jan. 1.

IN SPORTS--The men's basketball team was victorious over OCE's JVs 104-81. This brings their record to 3-4 as they travel to Mt. Hood CC for a tournament this weekend. The women evened their record Tuesday night at 1-1 in a narrow loss to OCE. The score was 39-42. They will be on the road over the holidays meeting Portland State JVs and Mt. Hood CC. The next home game for the men's team is Dec. 29 against Linfield College JVs at 8 p.m. Start the New Year's weekend by coming out for LCC basketball.--Athletic Department.
