Sixth Week of Fall Term
THURSDAY
November 1, 1979

ENROLLMENT CEILING MAY CAUSE PROBLEMS - The enrollment ceiling placed on LCC this year by the state legislature may result in the college having to turn away new students by spring term, according to Dean of Students Jack Carter. In dollar terms, the college stands to lose some $500,000. The state bases its calculations on full-time equivalency. LCC's limit this year is 8,230 FTE; actual FTE could be as high as 9,000. Carter says the college has faced similar problems in past years, but the discrepancy between the ceiling and anticipated enrollments has never been this great.

FIRE ALARMS - The Goshen Fire Dept., which serves the LCC campus, will be conducting fire alarm tests tomorrow from 5 to 7 p.m. in the Administration, Center, and Business buildings. If you're working late--don't be alarmed.

ART EXHIBIT - The oil paintings of Richard Quigley and the ceramic sculpture of Keith Kuhnau will be exhibited in the Art Department Gallery beginning tomorrow and continuing through Nov. 21. A reception will be held tomorrow evening from 8 to 10 p.m. Gallery hours are: Monday through Thursday, 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. and Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

POLKA PIPERS - John Klobas and the Polka Pipers will play a benefit Saturday night for the LCC Campus Ministry. It will be held from 8 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. at the Vet's Club, upstairs at 16th and Willamette. Tickets are available from Fr. Jim Dieringer, who often can be found at a table near the Renaissance Room in the cafeteria, and from Prof. John Klobas in Social Science. Cost is $2.50 per person in advance, or $3 at the door. Sorry, no minors.

KLCC COMMUNITY ACCESS - Broadcast weekdays on KLCC 89.7 FM at 12:40 p.m. Today's topic: Child awareness, with Joanne Soloman of the Lane County Child Abuse Council.

ALSO ON KLCC - Tonight on "Earscape," from 8:30-10 p.m. on KLCC, Jerry Urhammer of the Eugene Register-Guard and Bob Zagorin of KZEL will discuss investigative reporting. Also tonight, from 7:30-8:30, "Work, Struggle, and Change" will feature Will Doolittle addressing the question "Planetary Suicide?"--with songs of our environment.

ANY NEWS? - This space could be yours. If you have news of interest to the campus community, call it in to The Daily, College/Community Relations, ext. 2201.

PARTY - A great time is in store for you on Dec. 8, 8 p.m. to midnight, at the Eugene Hotel. Big band sounds, with The Starlighters, door prizes, special entertainment, good times! Tickets available soon. Watch for further details.

Sixth Week of Fall Term
FRIDAY
November 2, 1979

WINS AWARD - President Schafer has won the "Leadership in Public Relations Award" of Region VII of the National Council for Community Relations. He was presented a plaque last night at Vancouver, Wash., at the group's annual conference. He was selected on the basis of support in the group's formation in the mid-70s and since, and for his understanding and support of the PR role in the community college. It's the only such award the organization has given. Also at the 2-day meeting is Larry Romine, C/CR, who spoke yesterday on public relations management.

SHAKESPEARE - Tomorrow at 2 p.m., in the Performing Arts Theater, the Performing Arts Dept. is presenting a performance by Patrick Stewart of the Royal Shakespeare Company of England. The performance is entitled "One Actor's Shakespeare." Stewart is one of four actors from the Royal Shakespeare Company in town this week as part of a nationwide tour. Members of the Company are also appearing at the University of Oregon and at local public schools. Tickets for the LCC performance are available in the theater box office today and at the door tomorrow. A $2.00 donation will be gratefully accepted.

ALARMING REMINDER - The Goshen Fire Dept. will be testing fire alarms in the Center, Administration and Business buildings this evening from 5 to 7 p.m. Staff working late in those buildings are forewarned.

PARTY REMINDER - A great time is in store for you on Dec. 8 from 8 p.m. to midnight at the Eugene Hotel. Big band sounds (The Starlighters), door prizes, special entertainment, good times! Tickets available soon. Watch for further details.

POLKA PIPERS - Last chance to get advance tickets for tomorrow night's benefit performance by John Klobas and the Polka Pipers for the LCC Campus Ministry. The performance is at the Vet's Club, upstairs at 16th and Willamette, from 8 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. Tickets are available for $2.50 from Fr. Jim Dieringer, in his "cafeteria office," or from John Klobas in Social Studies. Ticket price will be $3 at the door. No minors.

NUCLEAR POWER AWARENESS WEEK - Next week, the ASLCC and ASUO are co-sponsoring a Nuclear Power Awareness Week on both the LCC and U of O campuses. Among the activities scheduled are a Nuclear Power Information Table, films, and a discussion/question & answer session. Watch the Daily for details, and plan to increase your awareness of this timely topic.

KLCC COMMUNITY ACCESS - Broadcast weekdays at 12:40 p.m. on KLCC 89.7 FM. Today, watercolor artist Pauline Cox will discuss "What to look for in visual art."

the Daily

Seventh Week of Fall Term
WEDNESDAY
November 7, 1979

LEADER - LCC's projected enrollment growth this year of 8 to 9 percent or more leads the college members in the League for Innovation in the Community College. Assistant to the President Bert Dotson is just back from a League meeting and reports that most member institutions are just holding their own in enrollment. A number of Oregon community colleges are projected to exceed the enrollment lids imposed by the Legislature. The community college presidents are expected to take the matter to the Legislative Emergency Board for possible additional funding next spring when enrollment figures are firmer.

SELECTED - Dean of Instruction Gerry Rasmussen is the only community college administrator in the nation selected to be part of the 1980 Visiting Administrators Program of the American Council on Education (ACE). He'll be one of 10 higher education people to go to Washington, D.C., during January-February-March to work in an administrative role in an as-yet unnamed federal agency. The federal government will in turn send 10 of its administrators to participating colleges and universities as part of an effort to acquaint its people with higher education and its management procedures. The Dean is to go to Washington next week to find out which agency will be his host. LCC also should be learning soon which federal administrator will be coming here.

UNITED WAY - As of Tuesday, the LCC United Way campaign had reached 42 percent of the final goal, with 25 percent of LCC staff contributing so far. Today, volunteers from Language Arts will be visiting departments to pick up pledges and donations. Target date for reaching the $10,000 goal is November 15.

FULBRIGHTERS - Willamette University is canvassing all schools of higher education in Oregon in order to locate former Fulbrighters. Any staff members who are former Fulbrighters should contact the Office of Instruction, ext. 2306.

APPOINTED - Vern Ho, Study Skills instructor, has been selected to fill a half-time Staff Development Coordinator position. Vern will be job-sharing with Anne Stewart. They are located in the Division of Instructional Services Office.

PERSONNEL REMINDER - Archie Zarewski, insurance agent, will be here today at 2 p.m. Call Personnel or come by if you want to see him.

BOOKSTORE - The Bookstore has ChemShield, a non-lethal device that repels attackers instantly and completely incapacitates them! ChemShield is stronger than mace, more effective than tear gas, and is easily carried in the hand.

NUCLEAR POWER AWARENESS WEEK - A debate on nuclear energy will take place today, noon to 2 p.m., in 308 Forum. Following the debate, a film will be shown entitled "Paul Jacobs and the Nuclear Power Game."

KLCC COMMUNITY ACCESS - Broadcast weekdays at 12:40 p.m. on KLCC 89.7 FM. Today, wheelchair athletics will be discussed by Larry Craig and Chester Fowler of the Low Riders basketball team.

Seventh Week of Fall Term
November 8, 1979

FLU SHOTS - Starting Tuesday, Nov. 13, flu shots will be available at Student Health Services for eligible staff and students. The vaccine is supplied by the Oregon State Health Dept., so we must follow their definition of "eligible," which is: persons 55 years of age or older, or persons with chronic medical conditions. Flu shots will be available from 8 to 10 a.m. and from 2 to 4 p.m. There will be a $2 charge for administering the vaccine. Persons who do not meet the criteria and who wish a flu shot will need to check with their private physicians.

BLOOD DRIVE - A big THANK YOU to everyone who volunteered to donate blood at the Bloodmobile October 29. Remember, if you or a member of your family requires a blood transfusion, you are eligible for blood replacement credits through the LCC Blood Donors' Club. These credits will save you having to pay a blood replacement fee.

VETERANS ENROLLMENT REPORT - The Veterans' Office wishes to thank the Data Processing Department and the many instructors and department secretaries who participated in the first Veterans' Enrollment Report. For those of you who were not involved or did not return the enrollment report form, the Veterans' Administration now requires all institutions to report within 30 days rather than at the end of the term when a veteran is no longer in attendance in class. These forms will be distributed during the fifth and eighth weeks of each term and should be completed by instructors and returned to department secretaries.

YES, WE HAVE NO WORK - The campus will be closed Monday, November 12, in observance of Veteran's Day. EVERYBODY gets the day off.

STUDENT SEGUE CONCERT - A short Student Segue Concert is scheduled for next Wednesday at 4 p.m. in the Performing Arts Theatre. The concert will feature six students enrolled in Performance Studies classes in piano and voice. All are invited!

CHRISTMAS PARTY - Who will be our dashing M.C.? Come and see--December 8, 8 p.m. to midnight, at the Eugene Hotel's King Cole Room. Tickets available soon.

MESSAGE FROM FOOD SERVICES - They want their dishes back. Please return!

KLCC COMMUNITY ACCESS - Broadcast weekdays at 12:40 p.m. on KLCC 89.7 FM. Today, Naneen Karrker of the Weston Moratorium on Prison Reform.

KLCC MUSIC - Tonight from 7:30 to 8:30, "Work, Struggle, and Change" will feature folk music about the roles of women and men in society, with host Will Doolittle.

NUCLEAR POWER AWARENESS - Don't forget the discussion today from 3 to 4 p.m. in 308 Forum. Featured will be Greg Minor, a former engineer for GE's Nuclear Power Program and technical advisor for the movie "China Syndrome," representing an anti-nuclear viewpoint.

Seventh Week of Fall Term
FRIDAY
November 9, 1979

RADIOTHON NEXT WEEK - "Make friends with your radio" is the theme for next week's programs and activities as KLCC holds a week-long open house and presents a number of special programs designed to get listeners excited enough to make contributions and become a member of the "Friends of KLCC." Volunteers are needed to answer phones during the campaign--please call KLCC if you can help.

THANKS - From the Campus Ministry, to the Polka Pipers and all who attended the dance at the Veteran's Club last Friday. The dance was a great success, and everyone had a really good time.

PARTY - Ask your staff party planner about Dec. 8 developments. Planners are Jolene Bowers, Nancy Cheffings, Casey Fast, Vern Ho, Hayden Hodges, Margie Holland, Peggy Marston, Nan Reid, David Sherman, Roy Sommers, Anne Stewart, Judy Strong, Ken Sweet, Linda Svovboda, Larry Warford, Marje Wynia. We meet again Tuesday, 12 noon, in Health 205.

PAYROLL - November payroll verification sheets will be available in Personnel at 1:30 p.m. Nov. 15. They are due back in Personnel on Nov. 16 by 5 p.m.

REMINDER - Management employees are invited to meet new Management Group Steering Committee members at noon today in the Boardroom. Box lunches will be provided.

UNITED WAY THREE-WEEK REPORT - Totals for the first three weeks ending Nov. 7 are:

Classified	$1435.00	87	27%
Faculty	2875.00	76	28%
Management	1596.00	32	33%
	$5906.00	195	88%

A very special thanks to those who have helped already. In particular we would like to thank classified employees who have given at this difficult time.

Now, we really need your help during the next few days to meet our goal. Without doubt, more volunteers have helped LCC thank the community this year than ever before. If you haven't given, won't you give now?

KLCC COMMUNITY ACCESS - Broadcast weekdays at 12:40 p.m. on KLCC 89.7 FM. Today, Lynn Nealy, Laurel Near, and Terry Yaffa of the Community Center for the Performing Arts talk about nontraditional dance forms.

IN RESPONSE TO "YOUR SIGNATURE IS NEEDED:" The Lane County Labor Council has requested that laborers not sign the petition limiting voter registration to 20 days prior to election. The Council feels it would limit the registration of voters from lower economic classes because they are a more transient part of the voting population. Therefore, the 20-day limitation on registration as put forth in the petition would only serve to hurt workers rather than protect the electoral process. LCCEF shares this opinion with the Labor Council and recommends against signing the petition. Heather McConnell, on behalf of LCCEF.

Eighth Week of Fall Term
TUESDAY
November 13, 1979

UNITED WAY - The percentage of LCC employees who have contributed to the UW campaign as of last Wednesday is 28%. The percentage was mistakenly given as 88% in last Friday's Daily (but wouldn't that be nice!).

KLCC FUND RAISING - KLCC's goal is to raise $12,000 during "Make friends with your radio" week--going on right now. Some special features are lined up for the week.... "Monterey Jazz Festival 1979" is being broadcast all week at 2 p.m. to take listeners behind the scenes of that popular jazz event. Conversations with Dizzy Gillespie, Dave Pell, Stan Getz, and Slide Hampton will be mixed with music by the Festival's artists....A special version of "A Word in Your Ear" at 9 a.m. Saturday and at various times throughout the week will feature John Ciardi, nationally known poet and word etomologist, who disapproves of the word "radiothon," but encourages KLCC listeners to pledge their financial support to KLCC as a "civic good"....KLCC is encouraging listeners to do their holiday gift shopping during the Radiothon by giving a gift membership to a friend, who will then receive a KLCC Program Guide each month.

LCCEF - The LCC Employees Federation is going back to the bargaining table today at 3:30 p.m. Watch the Daily for developments.

COPING - A course on "Coping With Depression" will be offered beginning in January by the University of Oregon psychology clinic and the Eugene YMCA. The 8-week course will be conducted in groups of 8 to 10 participants at various locations in the community. A fee will be charged based on family income. Interested persons should call 686-4966 as soon as possible.

OREGON DEVELOPMENTAL EDUCATION DAY - Developmental Education professionals from across Oregon are gathering at LCC this Friday to share experiences and expertise in this expanding area of education. The conference will take place all day in Forum 308.

PARTY - Ask your staff party planner about Dec. 8 developments. Planners are Jolene Bowers, Nancy Cheffings, Casey Fast, Vern Ho, Hayden Hodges, Margie Holland, Peggy Marston, Nan Reid, David Sherman, Roy Sommers, Anne Stewart, Judy Strong, Ken Sweet, Linda Svovboda, Larry Warford, Marje Wynia. We meet again today, 12 noon, in Health 205.

FROM PERSONNEL - Archie, insurance agent, will be away on vacation until after Thanksgiving. For insurance problems, contact Cleo in Personnel, ext. 2211, and she will refer them to Archie's office in Portland. His office will be handling insurance problems in his absence.

HUNGER SYMPOSIUM - A symposium entitled "Hunger: Causes and Cures" will be held on the Southern Oregon State College campus this week, the 15th through the 17th. Featured speakers will be Frances Moore Lappé, lecturer and author of the best-selling book Diet for a Small Planet, and Dr. Glenn Olds, former Ambassador to the United Nations Economic and Social Council. The symposium will include workshops in nutrition, simplifying one's lifestyle, intensive gardening, and food wastes, as well as panel discussions of local and global issues related to hunger. All events are open to the public free of charge.

FROM THE RENAISSANCE ROOM - Take a look at today's special. A Citrus Collins, a reviving, healthful combination of citrus--a common cold stopper. The main dish will be Canadian and hickory-smoked bacon, fresh mushrooms, green pepper rings, and Swiss cheese broiled on an English muffin, accompanied by a crunchy calico coleslaw salad. Our dessert will be Brownies a la Mode--a chewy, nutty, fudge goodie highlighted with a scoop of homemade French vanilla ice cream. All for the low price of $3.00. Call now for reservations, Home Ec office, ext. 2519.

SECOND AND LAST CALL - For faculty unit level change requests. The deadline for consideration for the 1979-80 year is 5 p.m. November 26. All requests should be in to Personnel Services by that time. If an extenuating circumstance makes that deadline impossible, notify Hank Doua at ext. 2303. Late requests will be considered next year.

KLCC COMMUNITY ACCESS - Broadcast weekdays at 12:40 p.m. on KLCC 89.7 FM. Today, Frank Wilkinson, Opposition Leader to Senate Bill 1722, will discuss civil liberties under a new Federal Criminal Code.

From the U of O Faculty/Staff publication, Inside Oregon:

Autumn winds and rains are pushing the mercury toward a point when federally-mandated 65-degree maximum interior temperatures will begin to feel chilly.

The best way to stay warm in the office or classroom is "not to let yourself get cold or wet on the way to work in the morning, especially if you walk or ride a bike to campus," said Mel Jackson, who recently joined the Division of Continuing Education staff as a program coordinator.

Many of the same strategies for staying warm outdoors can be used to stay comfortable in cooler classrooms and offices, said Jackson, who studied outdoor survival training while he was with the Eugene Parks and Recreation Department. He has also taught survival classes at Lane Community College.

Even if you are just walking to the office from the parking lot, your feet and clothing below a raincoat can get wet. It is very important to have good protective footwear, he said, noting several commercial products which can be used to waterproof shoes.

An extra pair of dry shoes waiting at work can prevent a morning puddle disaster from causing an entire day of cold feet.

"Some people overdress for the weather. While they are biking or running to work, they begin to sweat and as soon as that dampness begins to evaporate, they begin to shiver and become very cold," Jackson said.

Even the new "breathable fabrics" can cause body overheating, he added. "Keeping part of the jacket or body covering open will avoid excessive overheating. Also, just walking or peddling a little slower will naturally regulate body heat."

The same overheating condition occurs when "students rush to class, sit down and continue to wear their outdoor clothing. They sit there for an hour, get overheated, begin perspiring and then return to the outdoors and become cold," Jackson said.

Learning to adapt to cooler interior temperatures will require new strategies for dressing, he continued.

"If you can keep your inner core area warm — the chest and abdomen — then the blood supply can keep the extremities warmer," he said. Vests, sweaters, and suit jackets help insulate this vital inner core area.

"Wool fabrics have a much higher insulation value because there are dead air cells in the fabric which reduce air movements the fabric," as well as providing additional protection against dampness, he said.

"The blood flows very near the skin surface in the head and neck region, so it is important to keep the skin covered to conserve body heat," Jackson observed. Turtle neck sweaters, dickies, scarves or a hat will greatly reduce loss of body heat.

Many people complain of cold feet while sitting, keeping the blood warm enroute to the feet can increase comfort, Jackson said. Wool pants, heavy socks and dancer's tights will keep the chill off of the skin as well as insulating the blood enroute to the feet.

Office chairs that are too high and leave feet dangling in the air, "may be cutting off circulation to the legs and causing cold feet," Jackson said.

Desks located near doors may be exposed to constant air drafts and constructing baffles of light plywood or cardboard around the desk could reduce heat loss from under the desk, he added.

"If your office is located on a basement level or on a concrete floor, the floor may be conducting heat away from the room, Jackson explained. Installation of a floor pad under the desk area will effectively reduce heat loss.

"We are going through a change in our lifestyle and we are all going to have to learn to live and dress much differently," he concluded. "We have to learn to build insulating, protective shells that contain our own body heat." As the clothing manufacturers and designers get more pressure from the public, they will begin to change the styles and fabrics, making clothing more effective in cooler interior environments, Jackson said.

Eighth Week of Fall Term
WEDNESDAY
November 14, 1979

WOMEN'S PROGRAM COORDINATOR CHOSEN - Beverly Behrman has been selected for the position of Associate Women's Program Coordinator. Beverly will work half-time and pick up half of Anne Stewart's duties while Anne is on release to the Staff Development Office. Anne can be reached at ext. 2360 for staff development information.

APPRECIATION - The college has received a number of letters praising people and programs. Robert Kort of the Los Angeles City College faculty has good words for LCC's student orientation program, calling it the best of 33 such college programs he has investigated. And he praises the concept of the Downtown Center....Ken Turner of the State Bureau of Labor thanks Carol Horstrup, Community Education, for apprenticeship services....Ruth K. Burns of the State Scholarship Commission appreciates Frances Howard's help in teaching financial aid fundamentals to University of Oregon graduate students....Shirley Michaelson and Betty Hammond of the Spokane Community Colleges have good words for the Joyce Duchesneau program for removing math anxiety and for Leslie Razor's non-traditional careers program for women.

BOARD MEETING - The agenda for tonight's Board of Education meeting includes a quarterly financial report, a resolution on the Year of the Child, next year's academic calendar, KLCC Advisory Commission appointments, a reciprocal tuition agreement with Linn-Benton Community College, and bid awards for stacking chairs, folding tables, room dividers, a tractor for Plant Services, and typesetting equipment for The Torch.

ANTI-SMOKING CAMPAIGN - The American Cancer Society will have a table in the cafeteria tomorrow from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. as part of a non-smoking campaign. The table will be staffed by a dragon named Sue, who will encourage visitors at the table to "stamp out dragon breath." Those who sign a no-smoking pledge at the table will be given a "Great American Smoke-Out" button to commemorate their resolve.

PARTY - Festive, fantastic, friendly evening for you. Tickets will be on sale Monday, November 19, for the December 8 gala, 8 to 12 p.m., Eugene Hotel's King Cole Room.

BOOKSTORE - The Bookstore has some lovely imported cards. Also, the Post Cards of Oregon are on sale 5 for $1.00.

Eighth Week of Fall Term
THURSDAY
November 15, 1979

PRODUCTIVITY - The College's top managers will discuss productivity next Monday with Andy Smith of Seattle, president of Pacific Northwest Bell. Smith will respond to the Carnegie-sponsored community college productivity project, of which LCC is a member, and tie that to his company's efforts to increase productivity. The session is scheduled for 1:30 p.m. in the Boardroom.

RESTORATION AROUND THE CORNER - Heceta House near Florence will be spruced up next year as a result of a $48,000 appropriation from the Forest Service. The house, which LCC leases, has been placed on the National Register of Historic Places and as such qualifies for the restoration money. LCC Caretaker Harry Tammen had a lot to do with the designation. The house is getting new sidewalks, fence, porch and a partial reroofing. It's located 15 miles north of Florence off Highway 101 and overlooks Devil's Elbow State Park.

MOVING UP - Susan Shepard, former LCC information specialist who joined Pacific Northwest Bell a couple years ago, has been promoted and is moving next week to Seattle. She has been southern Oregon public relations chief for the phone company. Now she moves to Bell Plaza (32nd floor) in downtown Seattle to be part of the headquarters PR staff.

ARTICLE - Anne Stewart, Women's Awareness Center and Staff Development Office, is author of "Equity: Not for Women Only," which is part of New Directions for Community Colleges: Serving New Populations. The book is just off the press from Jossey-Bass, San Francisco.

CROSS COUNTRY - The LCC women's team came out the winners in Saturday's national junior college cross country championship. The three-year-old women's program sent its first team to the nationals this year, and finished with a winning score of 32. The LCC men's team, impeded by injuries and illness, finished in seventh place in their division.

PARTY - Would you like to win a portrait from Kennell-Ellis, a champagne brunch at the Village Green, a champagne dinner at the Eugene Hotel, five gallons of gas, or one of many other door prizes? Come to your all-staff gala on Dec. 8.

PAYROLL REMINDER - November payroll verification sheets will be available in Personnel at 1:30 p.m. today. They are due back in Personnel tomorrow by 5 p.m.

KLCC COMMUNITY ACCESS - Tune in to KLCC 89.7 FM at 12:40 p.m. today to hear a discussion of birthing alternatives and health care with Jude Hart of the Oregon Midwifery Council.

FROM THE RENAISSANCE ROOM - Senoritas, Senoras y Senors--come to the Renaissance Room today for a festive Mexican menu. Our "South of the Border" treats begin with a "Pina Coconutta Mocktail" (blended drink of cocunut cream and fruit juices). The main entree is "Zapata's Tostada," a vegetarian bean specialty. An added attraction will be a double dessert consisting of Flan and a Mexican Wedding Cake. Reasonably priced! Come and see for yourself. You will have your choice of two imported coffees or tea. Contact the Home Ec office, ext. 2519, for reservations. Join us--we're open from 11:30 to 1:30 Tuesdays and Thursdays. Hasta Manana!

Eighth Week of Fall Term
FRIDAY
November 16, 1979

TO STUDENTS AND STAFF USING HOT WATER FACILITIES - During last week and much of this week, a combination of a mechanical and chemical malfunction to our heating system and an unusual cold weather spell have disrupted the supply of hot water for showers, whirlpools, and other uses. We regret the discomforts that you've gone through and want to assure you that all efforts are being made to correct the malfunctions and give you hot water as quickly as possible. (We don't like cold showers either!) We have not turned down the thermostats as one source has suggested. This would simply not solve our problem and yours. Please give us a chance to correct the problem. We're confident that the system will be up and going very soon. Your patience with us--past and present--is appreciated. Thanks much. Bill Mansell, Acting Dean of Administrative Services.

FROM THE ADMISSIONS OFFICE - A limited number of bound copies of the LCC catalog were ordered this year for mailing purposes. Extra copies are now available in the Admissions Office to instructional and counseling staff. Contact Jean Shaffer at ext. 2685.

BOOKSTORE - We have some lovely imported cards. Also, the Post Cards of Oregon are on sale, 5 for $1. We also have LCC "Other" t-shirts available in all sizes. Hurry and get yours while they last. Just $5.00.

PARTY PLANNERS - We meet on Monday in Health 205 to continue with the gala design for the all-staff Dec. 8 party.

CHRISTMAS PAGEANT PREVIEW - The Eugene Downtown Association and Lane Regional Arts Council will present a special preview performance of a Eugene Ballet production, "In Search of Christmas," Tuesday, Nov. 20, at 7 p.m. on the Eugene mall's Central Plaza. The event, chaired by Leila Matheson of the LCC Downtown Center, will include a champagne and hors d'oeuvre reception in the Centre Court preceding the performance; following the ballet hot rum punch and fruit cake will be served as guests greet the cast. All catering and food preparation will be done by the LCC Culinary Club, those great folks responsible for the Renaissance Room. Tickets for the performance and reception are $25 per couple, and will help defray costs of the production. To purchase tickets, and for further information, contact Leila Matheson at the Downtown Center, 484-2126, ext. 638.

FRIDAY FILMS - Films for today, to be shown in Forum 307 at 12 noon, are: "Birds of the Sandy Beach," about the many differences among shorebirds which allow them to live together; "Water Pollution," a look at water cycles and pollution; "Columbia River: Economic Lifeline of the Northwest," some river history, but basically about how man has used the river; and "Birds of the City," concerning how birds have adapted to city life.

KLCC COMMUNITY ACCESS - Broadcast weekdays at 12:40 p.m. on KLCC 89.7 FM. Today, Jane Van Boskirk and Kitty Parks discuss "Act Out" Theater as a tool for alcohol rehabilitation.

PROMOTED - Richard Satre, part-time LCC landscape development instructor, has been named an associate of the Eugene architectural firm of Ruff Cameron Lacoss & Associates. He has been with the firm since 1977, with responsibility for preparing the company's construction project contracts.

Ninth Week of Fall Term

RADIOTHON - As of Friday afternoon, KLCC had received donations and pledges from 445 listeners, totaling $8,319. This represents over two-thirds of their goal, and they're still going strong. Fund raising continues through this evening, and staff members are invited to visit the radio station during the day today to see the radiothon in action, and to take a look at some of the premiums being offered. These premiums, donated by local businesses, include Christmas stockings, a cedar deck, and a performance by the Larry Natwick trio. Come see, and make your pledge.

FOUR-DAY WEEK? - The Four-Day Week Committee is placing two shortened work week proposals before IMAC (on December 6) and Administrative Council. The first calls for a four-day, 40-hour week with Fridays off. The second calls for a 4½-day week with Friday afternoons off. Staff would work four 9-hour days and a half day on Friday. The committee proposes that the 4½ day proposal be implemented for summer session next year. A savings in utility costs of some $18,000 for the summer is projected. If you have an opinion about the proposal(s), contact a committee member: Del Matheson, Jim Keizur, Jack Kreitz, Bob Radcliff, Ed Ragazzino, Bob Way or Doug White.

RECIPROCAL AGREEMENT - LCC and Linn-Benton Community College have agreed to a reciprocal tuition agreement, starting next summer, which would allow students from one district to enroll in some programs at the other district at in-district tuition rates. The LCC Board of Education approved the agreement Wednesday night. It pertains only to a dozen programs at each college which are not offered at both institutions. Lane students may go to LBCC to study animal science, crop management, turf management, civil and mechanical engineering, graphic design, printing technology, metallurgical technology, nurse assisting, science lab technology, secretarial education, secretarial legal or water/wastewater technology. Linn and Benton students can come to Lane to study agriculture and industrial equipment technology, aviation maintenance technology, community service, dental hygiene, early childhood education, environmental technology, flight technology, insurance adjusting, legal assistant, practical nursing, radio-tv broadcasting or respiratory therapy.

PEOPLE - The Board of Education has approved contracts for two faculty members and accepted the resignation of a third. Tom Birkenhead moves from part-time to contracted status in the Business Department; Duane Iversen, athletic trainer in the Athletics Department, moves from classified to faculty status. Lori Wurtz, instructor in Health Occupations, has resigned from her dental position to move to Nebraska with her husband.

RESOLUTION - Jeanne Armstrong, Home Economics, wondered why the LCC Board of Education hadn't adopted a resolution supporting the International Year of the Child (this year). It turned out that they hadn't been asked. She asked, the Administration agreed to put it before the Board, and last Wednesday night the Board unanimously passed Resolution No. 190. It supports the right of all children to such good things as affection, love and understanding, free education, adequate nutrition and medical care, full opportunity for play and recreation, a name and nationality, special care if handicapped, relief in times of disaster, help in developing special abilities, a spirit of peace and brotherhood, and to enjoy these rights regardless of race, color, sex, religion, national or social origin.

IDEAS SOUGHT - The Development Fund seeks idea papers for small grants up to $1,000. Any staff person or recognized student group may apply. Deadline for papers is Friday, Dec. 14. Development Fund trustees will consider the applications in late December and announce awards to a total of as much as $10,000 during the first week of January.

FOR SALE - Various departments are selling surplus equipment. Mechanics is peddling all that equipment that once was to be part of a heavy equipment program that didn't materialize. Need a dump truck, engines, crane, 4-ton truck, scoop loader tractor less motor, or a utility trailer? You can pick it all up for around $79,000. If your home ironing is getting you down, consider a complete shirt mangle. Only $3,150. Contact Purchasing.

GOOD SHAPE - The college financial report for July 1 through September 30 shows us in very sound shape. FTE student generation is estimated to be 8,800 (and maybe 9,000) for the year, with the state contributing toward 8,230 of that total.

MORE NEWS....

ARCHIE - Archie, insurance agent, will be away on vacation until after Thanksgiving. For insurance problems, contact Cleo in Personnel, ext. 2211, and she will refer them to Archie's office in Portland. His office will be handling insurance problems in his absence.

FROM THE RENAISSANCE ROOM - We're sure you are going to flip over this week's mocktail. TAX BASE - LCC may be required by the new state tax law to ask for an updated tax base at either next May's primary election or next November's general election. The Board of Education will meet next Wednesday, November 28, to discuss the options. The college may also put a ballot measure A before voters at some point. That budget measure would amount to this year's budget plus allowances for inflation and enrollment growth. A budget measure B is also possible, though the Board is not talking about that at this point. Measure B provides for budget requests beyond the measure A amount. If you're confused by the provisions of the new tax law, join the crowd. But, it should all clear up as taxing bodies seek agreement on what the new law requires. Stay tuned.

NEW LOOK - Television Broadcasting now has a new name and content. It's now Broadcasting/Visual Design and Production. Based on extensive changes in needs in the trade, the new program includes five new courses and deletes five old ones. It amounts to a recognition, in part, that graduates go into TV jobs with various public and private organizations as well as mass media TV. There will be less of an advertising-sales-promotion emphasis and more stress on scriptwriting, film, design, etc.

NEW TYPESETTER - The Torch is getting some $22,000 worth of new typesetting equipment for its own use and that of other publication-producing offices. Compugraphic Corporation will soon be delivering the gear. It's state-of-the-art stuff with 2 portable keyboards and simple enough that its operation can be easily learned, advises Torch advisor Pete Peterson.

CONTINUING - Negotiations between the College and the Classified and ABE/HCS bargaining units continued yesterday and last night in the presence of a state mediator. The Daily will try to keep readers posted on what occurs.

FIRST COME, FIRST SERVED - College/Community Relations has 15 free tickets to the Emerald Empire Championships of the Lane County Sheriffs Posse. The championships will be held at the Lane County Fairgrounds January 5 at 2 and 8 p.m., and January 6 at 2 p.m. If you'd like a ticket, come to College/Community Relations or call ext. 2201.

MULTI-CULTURAL - The Second Annual Open House of the Multi-Cultural Center is scheduled for tomorrow at 12 noon in 409 Center. The clubs participating will be the Black Student Union and Native Americans. A belly dancer and a reading of Black poetry will be featured entertainment. Free refreshments. For additional information, contact Pat Creal, ext. 2235.

FUN RUN - Don't forget the Turkey Trot Predicted Time Fun Run today at 4 p.m. and tomorrow at noon. The course is 2.1 miles on the trails around the athletic fields; maps are available at the Intramural Office in the gym lobby. Winners in each division (men and women staff and men and women students) will receive a turkey. Sign up on the track the day and hour you run.

ALL STAFF GALA - Tickets are on sale today in limited numbers. Get yours soon and get ready for a celebration on December 8, 8-12 p.m., at the Eugene Hotel. $4 per person. Get your tickets at the Information Window of the Administration Bldg. or from a party planner or staff development advisory member.

ARCHIE - He'll be on vacation until after Thanksgiving. For insurance problems, contact Cleo in Personnel, ext. 2211, and she'll refer them to Archie's office in Portland.

PROPOSAL - Chancellor Roy Lieuallen of the State System of Higher Education says the Legislature should stabilize the current proportion of students in each of the 3 segments of post-secondary education: public 4-year schools, private 4-year schools, and community colleges. He says that would avoid traumatic competition for students and ensure that each segment takes its share of retrenchment during the period 1986 to 1991 when the shortage of students is expected to be at its peak. Reaction to the proposal has been mixed.

DIRECTORIES READY - The latest edition of the LCC campus phone directory is printed and ready for departments to come and get 'em. Please determine how many you'll need for your entire department and send someone for them. They're in College/Community Relations, Administration Building.

OEA INFLUENCE GROWING - Faculty at Central Oregon CC and Treasure Valley CC have affiliated with the Oregon Education Association. OEA now represents faculty at 8 of the 13 community colleges. Two others are affiliated with the Oregon Federation of Teachers (OFT). Umpqua, Linn-Benton and Mt. Hood faculties are unaffiliated.

ALL IN THE... - Portland CC has 6 members of the same family on campus. Margaret White Johnson, 49, is studying business. Joining her at PCC are 3 sons, a daughter, and a daughter-in-law. Anybody know of a family at LCC with more members in class?

HAPPY THANKSGIVING - The college will be closed tomorrow and Friday for the Thanksgiving holiday. The cafeteria will close at 5:30 today instead of their regular closing time of 9:30.

TORCH HOLIDAY, TOO - The Torch will not be printed this week because their regular Thursday publication day falls on Thanksgiving. The final newspaper for the term will be November 29, when they will distribute the regular news section as well as a special Christmas supplement. Following Christmas vacation, the Torch will be back on the stands Jan. 3.

EINSTEIN - Tickets are now available for a performance of "Einstein the Man" by William A. Landry of the American Education Theatre. The one-man play, both written and performed by Landry, "highlights some of Dr. Einstein's major scientific ideas in the form of a biographical character study of Einstein." Performance times are 3 and 7:30 p.m. on Dec. 2; the place is Forum 308. Cost is $4 for the general public, $2 for students and senior citizens, and $2 for members of the Willamette Science & Technology Center, which is co-sponsoring the performance along with the LCC Community Education Division. Tickets are available at the front desk of the Downtown Center, at WISTEC (Autzen Stadium), or at the door. For more information, contact Dick Newell at the Downtown Center, 484-2126.

PARTY REMINDER - Tickets are on sale today in limited numbers for the all-staff gala. Get yours soon and get ready for a celebration on Dec. 8, 8-12 p.m. at the Eugene Hotel. $4 per person. Tickets are available at the Information Window in the Administration Bldg., or from a party planning member or staff development advisory member.

Tenth Week of Fall Term

CLASSIFIED CONTRACT RATIFIED - A three-year contract for LCC classified employees was ratified last Tuesday night. The new contract is retroactive to last July, and includes a $40 across-the-board increase for all classified employees, and repayment by the College of the $9.22 per month insurance rate increase. Beginning Nov. 1, the College will pick up the PERS contribution for all employees, and beginning Jan. 1, 1980, vision insurance and improved dental insurance will be included in the classified employee benefit package. December paychecks will include a one-time incentive bonus of $250 to employees who have been on step 8 for 3 years or more. Also included in the contract are step increments for each fiscal year through 1981, beginning July 1, 1979, as well as cost-of-living increases of 2% per year plus one-half the average of the Portland Consumer Price Index and the National Consumer Price Index.

NURSING - Six Associate Degree Nursing students were able to get some practical field experience on Nov. 2 when they assisted R.N. Molly Romine, school nurse at Roosevelt Junior High, with a health screening day for Roosevelt students. The helping day was part of their pediatric clinical experience. Also assisting was nursing instructor Marie Wiles.

WORKSHOPS - Interested in planning a workshop for your department? For your fellow workers? For a special interest group? The Staff Development Office will assist you in locating consultants, planning and facilitating your workshop, and arranging facilities. Call Anne Stewart or Vern Ho at ext. 2260.

FILM - The Social Science Department is showing a new film on Appropriate Technology tomorrow at noon in Center 419 (adjacent to the Social Science office). Everyone is welcome.

TUESDAY
November 27, 1979

WHAT PROSPECTIVE STUDENTS WANT FROM COLLEGES - The Public Relations Society of America did a survey on the subject and found these wants: faculty that gives extra time, sense that the institution has quality and prestige, opportunity to be listened to and play an active role in their education, and career-oriented programs. --From PR Reporter of November 26

CONTRACTS - The Board of Education will consider ratification of collective bargaining agreements with the LCCEF and ABE/HSC units at its meeting Wednesday night. The session is to begin at 7:30 in the Boardroom. Also on the short agenda is a discussion of a possible funding election next spring, appointment of a Budget Committee member, and discussion of a street improvement project near the Siuslaw Skills Center.

OPEN HOUSE - The Student Resource Center (SRC) will hold an Open House today from 11 am to 2 pm. Be sure to stop by and find out about the services provided by the SRC and how they can be beneficial to you. Free juice and cookies provided. The SRC is located next to the Financial Aid Office outside the Center Building.

BUSINESS CARDS - Printing/Graphics has a new form to be used when ordering business cards. The form will simplify your order for a business card, and will accompany the work order when you place your request. Ask for this form when you order your next business cards.

KEEPING WARM - Facilities Services reminds all staff and students that as the weather gets colder and as they continue to implement the federally imposed thermostat settings of 65 degrees, it will be necessary for all of us to dress more warmly. If you find your space is consistently colder than it should be, Facilities Services should be contacted. We are also reminded that the federal regulations prohibit the use of individual space heaters above 65° F.

LIBRARY HOURS - The library is offering Sunday hours on December 9, the day before finals begin. Hours that day will be from 1:00 to 9:00 pm.

WEIGHT LIFTING - Spectators and competitors are invited to an intramural "Power Weight Lifting Contest" tomorrow at 3 pm in the weight room, Health and PE building. Both men's and women's competitions will be held with weight class divisions in each category. Competition in three lifts will be contested: squats, power bench press, and dead lift. For more information contact the Intramural office in the gym lobby or at ext. 2599.

BASKETBALL - Treasure Valley Community College edged the LCC Titans, 80-79, in overtime Friday night in the opener of the Oregon Community College Athletic Association's men's basketball Tip-Off Tournament. In the consolation final Saturday night, the Titans lost 78-70 to Umpqua Community College after coming from 17 points behind to gain a tie in the second half.

PARTY - Door prizes are mounting (watch the Daily for a list of contributors). Tickets are selling...entertainment is rehearsing...get your tickets for the Dec. 8 gala.

DIRECTORIES - Departments, remember to pick up your new LCC Staff Directory in College/Community Relations. One per phone, please.

MORE NEWS....

EINSTEIN - Tickets are now available for a performance of "Einstein the Man" by William A. Landry of the American Education Theatre. The one-man play, both written and performed by Landry, "highlights some of Dr. Einstein's major scientific ideas in the form of a biographical character study of Einstein." Performance times are 3 and 7:30 pm on Dec. 2; the place is Forum 308. Cost is $4 for the general public, $2 for students and senior citizens, and $2 for members of the Willamette Science & Technology Center, which is co-sponsoring the performance with the LCC Community Education Division. Tickets are available at the front desk of the Downtown Center, at WISTEC (Autzen Stadium), or at the door. For more information, contact Dick Newell at the Downtown Center, 484-2126.

SLIDE SHOW - The Social Science Department is showing a new slide presentation with narration on Appropriate Technology at noon today in Center 419 (adjacent to the Social Science office). Everyone is welcome.

PUN FOR THE ROAD - Expressing admiration for the Writer's Digest editor who once said "We can't have archaic and edit, too," Cincinnati columnist William Brohaugh says "the only archaic rule that we regularly use today is the Baroque rule. Because, as some say, rules are made to be Baroque." --From The Ragan Report of November 19.

Tenth Week of Fall Term
November 28, 1979

NSF TO AWARD PUBLIC SERVICE SCIENCE RESIDENCIES - The National Science Foundation announces that it will award 30 Public Service Science Residencies for fiscal year 1980-81. The objective is to support 30 science residencies that will (1) encourage scientists and engineers to participate in public activities resolving the scientific and technological problems of current issues, and (2) provide expertise to the public to increase their understanding and participation in deciding on these issues. Grants range from $18,000 to $25,000 a year. Application deadline is January 15, 1980. For more information call Shannon Jaeger, 1 to 5 pm, Monday, Wednesday or Friday, at ext. 2364.

ALSO FROM NSF - Research in Science Education: Preliminary Proposals are announced by the National Science Foundation for the coming year. RISE objectives include (1) research to improve the quality and effectiveness of science education and scientific disciplines, and (2) developing fundamental and generalizable knowledge applicable to national issues or science education. Focus is on science education for early adolescents; science for women, minorities, and physically handicapped; technology in science education; science literacy, and cognitive processes and the structure of knowledge. Grants range from $21,000 to $294,000 and are for 1 to 3 years. Preliminary proposals may be submitted at any time. Call Shannon Jaeger, 1 to 5 pm, Monday, Wednesday or Friday, at ext. 2364 for more information.

GRANT AWARDED - The LCC Apprenticeship Program has been awarded a $30,000 grant to develop and field test training materials and teacher training modules for some of its apprenticeship programs. The grant is aimed at low-enrollment apprenticeships, radio-TV apprenticeships, and manufacturing plant electrical apprenticeships. Carl Horstrup, Apprenticeship Coordinator, is the person primarily responsible for getting the award, which comes from the Career and Vocational Education Division of the Oregon State Department of Education.

READY FOR 1980? - A limited number of small office wall calendars for 1980 has been supplied by Purchasing. They're free for the asking in College/Community Relations while they last.

XEROX READINGS - Please call in your xerox key readings to Loreta in Printing/Graphics, ext. 2373.

SEE YOUR FACE ON NATIONAL TV - Stage III Productions needs your assistance in producing a TV commercial for Northwest Mutual Insurance. Hundreds of people are needed, and the pay is $1 per person, to be donated to the Winter Olympic Fund. If you'd like to help a worthy cause, call Stage III at 485-2920 to sign up or to get more information. Ask for Bob or Catherine. You can call until 9 pm.

Tenth Week of Fall Term
THURSDAY
November 29, 1979

IDEAS SOUGHT - The Development Fund seeks idea papers for small grants up to $1,000. Any staff person or recognized student group may apply. Deadline for papers is Friday, Dec. 14. Development Fund trustees will consider the applications in late December and announce awards to a total of as much as $10,000 during the first week of January.

A WAY OF SAYING 'THANK YOU' - Classified employees, both full and part-time, are invited to be the guests of the Management Group at an Appreciation Breakfast on Friday, December 14. It will be held from 7-8:30 a.m. in the Snack Bar. Managers will pay the bills and do the cooking and serving under direction of Foodservices Manager Bob Tegge. Featured chefs include Gerry Rasmussen on hotcakes, Bob Radcliff on scrambled eggs, and Roger McAlister on artistic sausage. Portion specialists (servers) include Eldon Schafer and Bill Mansell. Coffee refillers, dish stackers, and table wipers (all trained in Europe) include Doug White, Verne Whittaker, Diane Dann and Larry Romine. Early birds in charge of "set-up" are Walt Van Orden, Jim Dunne and Paul Colvin. Other names to be added as they volunteer.

XEROX READINGS - Please call them in to Loreta in Printing/Graphics, ext. 2373.

PARTY - What is a gala? Come December 8 and celebrate the season! Tickets on sale at the Information Window of the Administration Building--or from your party planners.

PARTY TICKET SELLERS - Turn your unsold tickets in by Monday, December 3.

SEVEN TIPS ON STUDENT RETENTION - Offered by the Staff Development Office: (1) Use class introductions to recognize students. Call students by name; encourage them to learn other students' names. (2) Plan small group projects to allow students to interact. (3) Reinforce the positive by encouraging students to believe in their potential success. (4) Make yourself available to students for personal conferences. Use the conference to determine why students are having problems. (5) Explain early how class will be handled and how students will be evaluated. (6) Initiate peer tutoring. (7) Counsel with students after testing and grading periods. --Adapted from: Linkages, August/September 1979, Vol.2, No.4.

POTTERY SALE - A Christmas Pottery Sale by students and staff of the Art & Applied Design Department will be held next Wednesday and Thursday, December 5 and 6, from 9 to 5 in the cafeteria. For information, call Sarah Nichols, Ceramics, ext. 2417.

EINSTEIN - You can still get tickets for the December 2 performance of "Einstein the Man" by William A. Landry of the American Education Theatre. Performances are 3 and 7:30 p.m. in Forum 308. Get tickets at the front desk of the Downtown Center, at the Willamette Science & Technology Center, or at the door. Cost is $4 for the general public, $2 for students and senior citizens, and $2 for members of WISTEC.

FRIDAY FILMS - The following films will be shown Friday from noon to 1 p.m. in Forum 307: "Pacific Coast," a 1946 film showing the beauty of the west coast states and the problems of industrial and population growth; "Hey, Follow Me!" a 1962 film about urban renewal, and "This Is Eugene, '66: Time for a New Awareness," a film about city planning in Eugene.

FROM FOODSERVICES - The cafeteria will be serving a new "Mexi-Fare" menu beginning today, featuring a new Mexican menu daily. Don't miss it!

WORKSHOPS - Interested in planning a workshop for your department? For your fellow workers? For a special interest group? The Staff Development Office will assist you in locating consultants, planning and facilitating your workshop, and arranging facilities. Call Anne Stewart or Vern Ho at ext. 2260.

ASKING FOR ANSWERS - New Jersey Bell's "Dialogue" in their weekly publication Outlook asks employees to complete an open-ended statement, such as "Here's a way I think the company could save more energy," or "If I could change one thing about my job, it would be....", and then prints the replies. Some of the replies pull no punches: "Treat us like people and morale will get better, and when morale gets better so will production, sales, quality and safety." See the other side of today's Daily for LCC's "Answer" to the question of employee moral....

Tenth Week of Fall Term
FRIDAY
November 30, 1979

NOTE FROM PRESIDENT SCHAFER - "Gratifying word from the Development Fund. Last month's stellar production of 'LCC Goes to the Movies' brought gifts in excess of $50,000 from friends of the College. Judging from the many favorable comments I've heard, it appears that participants found this 'evening in the grand tradition' a memorable way to contribute to a worthwhile cause. We think the community will welcome encores to this elegant approach to fund raising. 'LCC Goes to the Movies' will be a tough act to follow. The remarkable efforts of volunteers like Dottie Chase, Herb Person, Dick Chase and so many others have created a precedent that we hope will set the stage for even more unforgettable evenings in the years ahead."

NOT TRUE - A complaint that LCC facilities at Creswell Airport are being used for private gain is simply untrue, says Associate Dean Jim Piercey. Two aviation mechanics alleged that aviation maintenance equipment has been used by students and instructors in private businesses. Piercey says student projects on live aircraft are performed free except for parts. Projects are chosen on the basis of meeting instructional needs and then on a first come, first served basis. Piercey says his own airplane has been rejected as a possible student project on the grounds of not fitting into the instructional program. Faculty are encouraged to do freelance maintenance work in order to keep their skills honed. But, says Piercey, they do it on their own time and use their own tools in accord with Board policy. LCC shares hanger space at Creswell with 3 private businesses, he says, and that may confuse the public as to which activity belongs to each of the 4 "roommates."

IN FINAL STAGES - LCC's collective bargaining agreement with its 300+ classified employees is virtually completed. The Board of Education on Wednesday night voted unanimously to implement the economic aspects of the tentative agreement. Formal ratification was delayed until the Board's December 12 meeting to allow more time for working out contract language. The good news is that the PERS and insurance pickups will mean more take-home pay in the November checks which go out today. Personnel Services is trying to get the retroactive pay increase into the December checks, which traditionally are distributed just prior to Christmas vacation.

APPLICATIONS BEING RECEIVED - The KLCC Advisory Commission has 4 of its 7 positions vacant. Station Manager Jim Dunne is seeking applicants. The Board of Education is expected to make the appointments at its December 12 meeting.

CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS - If your yule season planning is underway, you'll want to know that Christmas holidays this year for most classified staff and managers include Monday, December 24; Tuesday, December 25; Wednesday, December 26, and Tuesday, January 1. Faculty wind up fall term on Friday, December 14. Winter term classes begin Wednesday, January 2.

ATTENTION INSTRUCTORS!! - The Human Awareness Council would like to announce Project Awareness for Winter Term to be held February 13, 14 and 15. This 2½-day workshop examines ways sex bias and other forms of stereotyping--race, disabilities, age, etc.--can be barriers to human potential. Please try to plan your class syllabus around these dates and participate in this worthwhile workshop. For more information call Cheryl Coleman, ext. 2357.

XEROX REMINDER - Don't forget to call your xerox readings in to Loreta, Printing/Graphics, ext. 2373.

CHRISTMAS TURKEY RUN - The First Annual LCC Christmas Turkey Run is scheduled for Sunday, December 9, at the LCC track. Times are 1:00 p.m. for 3,000 meters, 1:30 p.m. for 5,000 meters, and 2:00 p.m. for 10,000 meters. The 3,000 meter race is open to boys and girls, grades 1-6. The 5,000 meter race is open to boys and girls, grades 7-9; girls and women, open; sub-masters women, 30-35; masters women, 36-40, and grand masters women, 40 and over. The 10,000 meter race will include boys, grades 10-12; open men; sub-masters men, 30-35; masters men, 36-40, and grand masters men, 40 and over. Prizes of turkeys and ?? will be awarded in each grade and division. Registration is $3, and will take place at 11:30 on the day of the run. For additional information, call Al Tarpenning, Athletic Department, ext. 2215.

EXTENDED LIBRARY HOURS - Instructors, please announce to your students that the library will be open on Sunday, December 9, from 1:00 to 9:00. That's the day before finals begin.

WATCH FOR - Paul Malm on KATU-TV Channel 2 this Sunday at 6 p.m. Malm, a political science instructor in the Social Science Department, will appear on Gerry Pratt's "Town Hall," which this week will discuss the situation in Iran.

MORE NEWS....

THE CREW - The December 14 Appreciation Breakfast for classified employees will be cooked and served by these intrepid restaurateurs: Overseers - Bob Tegge and Horace Pendergrass; Set Up Crew - Walt Van Orden, Jim Dunne and Paul Colvin; Cooks - Bob Radcliff, Frances Howard, Gerry Rasmussen, Tito Balducci, Jack Carter and Roger McAlister; Servers - Eldon Schafer, Howard Dull, Carol Beckley, Lorraine Dillon, Doug White and Bill Mansell; Helpers - Verne Whittaker, Pat Grant, Jay Jones, Del Matheson, Joyce Hopps, Susan Nieminen, Bob Marshall, Vivian Frelix-Hart, Larry Warford, Diane Dann, Virginia Roles, Susan Watkins; Wrap-Up Crew - Bert Dotson, Ben Crawford and Barry Vaughn; Photos - Larry Romine; Christmas Music - Jim Brock; A Christmas Remembrance - Pat Williams.

PERKING UP - The Respiratory Therapy program in Health Occupations is picking up a little in enrollment this year after several years of declining numbers. Program Evaluator Julie Aspinwall-Lamberts contacted graduates as part of a major study and collected suggestions for strengthening what is already perceived as a good program. It's one of only two RT programs in the state and is taking on a regional emphasis.

PRODUCTIVITY - The Productivity Task Force held its first meeting on Wednesday afternoon, November 21, and made the following subcommittee assignments: Energy Conservation--Darrell Allyn, Buck Bailey, Paul Colvin (Chair), Howard Dull, Al Gubrud, Jim Lawson, Bill Mansell, Del Matheson, Larry Murray, and Dick Newell; Student Attrition - Julie A-Lamberts, Jan Brandstrom (Chair), Grace Cameron, Dick Earl, Dan Hodges, Pat John, Jack Kreitz, Ken Murdoff, Jack Powell, Mike Rose, and John Wilson; Staff Productivity - Mabel Armstrong, Judy Dresser, Casey Fast, Vern Ho, Wil Moon, Jim Piercey (Chair), Gerry Rasmussen, Rick Romanek, Joe Searl, Mitch Stepanovich, Roy Summers, Evelyn Tennis, and Verne Whittaker. Additional reports will be made as the study progresses.

PARTY - Save just $4 from your paycheck for an evening of entertainment, door prizes, music, libations, all in a festive spirit. Get your tickets for our special gala celebration at the Information Window of the Administration Building. (Note: The gala is not "black tie." Come as you feel most comfortable--wear your "good time" clothes.)
