Eleventh Week of Fall Term
MONDAY
December 3, 1979

CALL SUE - Managers are asked to call Sue Bayliss at ext. 2614 to report the number of classified people in their departments who will attend the December 14 Appreciation Breakfast. Deadline is Friday. Foodservices needs the numbers for planning how many eggs to crack.

THANKS - At last count, some 42 managers had signed up to cook and serve and do other chores at the Appreciation Breakfast for classified employees. A big thank you to all the volunteers.

WHY HASN'T SOMEONE WRITTEN A REALLY GOOD SURVEY OF ELECTRONICS TEXT? - Someone has--Roger Houglum, Electronics instructor, has written a 423-page text called Electronics: Concepts, Applications, and History. The book will be published this month by Breton Publishers. The publishers, in a nationally-distributed promotional brochure, call the book "...the most comprehensive discussion of applications of electronics available in a survey text today." Houglum has dedicated the book to "the staff of the Electronics Department of Lane Community College for their continuing support and encouragement during the 26 months required to research and write the book."

CHRISTMAS CONCERT - The Department of Performing Arts at Lane Community College will present its annual Christmas Concert this Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Performing Arts Theatre. First on the program is the LCC Baroque Orchestra, directed by Nathan Cammack, which will perform the "Kanon" of Johann Pachelbel. The orchestra will then join the LCC Concert Choir, directed by Wayte Kirchner, in a performance of Antonio Vivaldi's "Chamber Mass," a setting of the Kyrie and Gloria. The program will conclude with an original mime for Christmas, narrated by Ed Ragozzino. The program is open to the public without charge.

APPLICATION PACKETS READY - Applications for Health Occupations classes are now available in the Admissions Office and the Downtown Center. Programs and their application deadlines are: Respiratory Therapy, June 25, 1980; Dental Assisting, May 9, 1980; Medical Office Assistant, July 11, 1980; Dental Hygiene, March 4, 1980; Practical Nursing, March 28, 1980; and Associate Degree Nursing, March 28, 1980. Any questions regarding these programs may be directed to Marlene Makie, Health Occupations, ext. 2617. Persons interested in nursing programs are invited to attend nursing orientation sessions Wednesday afternoons at 2 p.m. in the Counseling Department. Call Betty Vail at ext. 2204 to verify attendance.

PILOT SAFETY - The Flight Technology Department will be sponsoring an FAA Pilot's Safety Seminar Wednesday at 7 p.m. in Forum 308-809. The program will include information on Radar Approach control for Eugene, avoidance of low level military air traffic and spin training. The seminar will be conducted by the FAA. All pilots and other interested persons are invited.

LIBRARY REMINDER - The library will be open on Sunday, December 9, from 1 to 9 p.m. Instructors, please let your students know.

CHRISTMAS BAZAAR AND CRAFTS SALE - The Downtown Center is going to be THE PLACE to buy Christmas presents on Tuesday, the 4th and Wednesday, the 5th. The Work Activity Center and GED are offering hand-crafted items at spectacular prices. If nothing else, you can stop in and have a homemade cinnamon role and cup of coffee for the best price in town. For additional information, call Jean Bell, WAC, Downtown Center ext. 590.

FROM THE BOOKSTORE - Get your smurfs for stocking stuffers at the LCC Bookstore. (If you don't know what smurfs are, you'd better go to the Bookstore to find out.) They're regularly $1.25, now just 99¢. Many other items have been reduced, too. And just arrived for holiday gift giving: mugs, small vases, ash trays, velcro locking wallets. Perfect gift ideas--at the LCC Bookstore.

CAMPUS TOUR - Are you interested in learning the ins and outs and roundabouts of LCC? A campus tour for new staff members or anyone needing a refresher is being offered. Contact Aleica Ayers in Admissions, ext. 2688, for further information. Aleica is a new tour guide.

TURKEY RUN - The First Annual LCC Christmas Turkey Run is this Sunday beginning at 1 p.m. And you'll be glad to know it's now non-discriminatory! Men and women both can compete in the 5,000 and 10,000 meter races. Prizes are--what else--turkeys. For a complete list of divisions, see tomorrow's Daily. Registration opens at 11:30; cost is $3.

MORE NEWS....

DINNER MEETING - The Lane County chapter of Oregon Women in Educational Administration will have a dinner meeting Wednesday at 6 p.m. at the home of Sue Leabo, 2277 Birchwood, Eugene. Guest speaker will be Julie Carson, Assistant Athletic Director for the U of O. Since dinner is planned, R.S.V.P. before the end of the day today. Call Sue Leabo at 687-8816 (home) or 687-3421 (work).

WE'RE IN THE NEWS - A 5-person crew from Honeywell was on campus Tuesday, filming Electrician Darrell Allyn and the LCC energy management system. Honeywell manufactured the controls part of the operation. They are creating a 2-minute publicity film for sending to the nation's television news directors. While promoting Honeywell equipment, the film also will provide considerable exposure for LCC. Facilities Services provided backup help and the featured interviewee, Allyn; Media Services furnished color slides of the campus through Tito Balducci, and C/CR provided information and photos. And the Register-Guard may print a photo of the Honeywell crew at work in the next day or so.

Deadline for contributions is 2 p.m. on the day before publication.
Editor/Coordinator: Jeannine Ferguson, ext. 2201

WE NEED YOUR HELP - The Winter Term Class Schedule went into the mail last week and was received by most people last Friday and Saturday. We understand, however, that some people didn't receive them until this week. We need to know who these people are or more specifically where they live so that we can pursue this with the post office. If you can provide this information, please call the Office of College/Community Relations, ext. 2592.

FIRST COME, FIRST SERVED - A limited number of free tickets is available to staff members for the American Legion Benefit Talent Show, to be held December 18 at 7:30 p.m. The show will be at the Springfield Intermediate School, 1084 G St. The tickets are made available through a donation by the College Aid Fund, and can be picked up at the Information Window.

FOR LAST MINUTE SHOPPERS - If you find at the last minute Saturday night that you're free, tickets for the LCC party will be available at the door at the King Cole Room, Eugene Hotel. Still $4 a person. With activities for those who don't dance. Eight o'clock to midnight. Great decorations, 50 doorprizes, entertainment (in addition to the Starlighters), Santa in person (the committee is looking, according to rumor, for a volunteer shoveler to follow the reindeer around), and more. Come single, in couples, or in groups. Bring friends (taxpayers or others). Dress mandatory but type optional. A crowd of 200 to 225 is expected.

WELCOME - Juanita Foellinger recently joined the LCC staff as the Research Associate for the Office of Instruction. Juanita replaces Chris Sajewski who resigned to take a position with the State Department of Health Planning. Stop and say "Hi" to Juanita. Her office is on the second floor of the Administration Building.

APPROPRIATE TECHNOLOGY - The U.S. Department of Energy has announced its 1980 Appropriate Technology Small Grants Program for the Pacific Northwest and Alaska. The program is aimed at promoting small-scale energy technology projects which are appropriate to local cultural, economic and social conditions and which use available skills and energy resources. Concept development, project development and demonstration projects are eligible for grants. Individuals and groups may apply. Last year's awards ranged from $400 to $47,500 and averaged $10,000. Application forms will be available in January. Submission deadline is 60 days after the January opening date. For more information, call Shannon Jaeger, 1 to 5 Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, at ext. 2364.

WOMEN IN SCIENCE - The National Science Foundation is funding Science Career Workshops and Science Career Facilitation Projects through its Women in Science Project. They are for women undergraduate students majoring in science, women with degrees in science who are unemployed or underemployed in science, women graduates and postdoctoral students, and high school students. Awards for workshops will be up to $20,000 for periods up to two years. Facilitation projects will receive up to $100,000 for periods up to three years. Cut-off date for both projects is January 2. Call Shannon Jaeger, 1 to 5 Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, at ext. 2364.

PAYROLL - December payroll verification sheets will be available in Personnel at 1:30 p.m. December 11. They are due back in Personnel by 5 p.m. December 12. Payday is December 21.

ARCHIE - He'll be in Personnel today at 2 p.m. to answer your insurance questions.

MORE NEWS....

MAKE-UP SEMINAR - "Looking Your Holiday Best" will be the theme for a make-up seminar this Sunday at 2 p.m. in Forum 308. Suzanne Gibson, formerly a make-up artist for Playboy, will give instruction in make-up techniques. Cost is $2.50 for students, $5.00 for non-students, and $7.50 for families. For more information, call Alan Pierce at ext. 2332.

INSTRUCTORS - Please remind students that the Library will be open this Sunday from 1 to 9 p.m.

TURKEY RUN - The First Annual LCC Christmas Turkey Run is this Sunday. Registration begins at 11:30 and costs $3. Events are at 1:00, 1:30 and 2:00 p.m., and include 3,000 meter, 5,000 meter and 10,000 meter runs. Win a turkey! For more information, call Al Tarpennig, ext. 2215.

Published for the staff of Lane Community College.
Deadline for contributions is 2 p.m. on the day before publication.
Editor/Coordinator: Jeannine Ferguson, ext. 2201

NOTICE TO ALL DEPARTMENTS: Pat Grant, Purchasing Director, says they are having a rash of confirming purchase orders. Too many really, considering the ease and flexibility of obtaining a quick purchase order. Please help hold down the use of the emergency and confirming purchase order, he says, or perhaps some staff may be purchasing materials for Lane Community College.

HELP FREE THE HOSTAGES - Art Tegger, President of LCCEA, asks all faculty to support OEA's request for letters of support to President Carter during the current efforts to secure release of the American hostages in Iran. According to OEA, "There is evidence that the Iranian government does not believe Americans care about the hostages, and that the President is not representing the true opinion of our country." Since the concern of this campaign is to obtain immediate release of the hostages, unharmed, letters should avoid taking a position on the Shah issue, except insofar as they recognize it as a separate issue. Letters may be sent to: Iranian Mission to the United Nations, 622 Third Avenue, 34th Floor, New York, N.Y. 10017. Copies may be sent to: President Carter, The White House, 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20500.

SPEAK UP - The 1980 Speaker Service list is being assembled. Volunteers are sought to speak to community groups about instructional programs or hobbies or to perform. Contact Larry Romine, ext. 2593, or Jeannine Ferguson, ext. 2201, in Community Relations. Your name will be sent, along with some 4 dozen others, to several hundred organizations to announce your availability. Some volunteers get a half dozen invitations a year; some get none. Help the college serve the community. Call today.

ATTENTION INSTRUCTORS: The Human Awareness Council would like to announce Project Awareness for winter term to be held on February 13, 14 and 15. This 2½-day workshop examines ways sex bias and other forms of stereotyping--race, disabilities, age, etc.--can be barriers to human potential. Please try to palm your class syllabus around these dates and participate in this worthwhile workshop. For more information, call Cheryl Coleman, ext. 2357.

FELLOWSHIP AVAILABLE - The American Association of University Women announces their $2,000 fellowship for 1980-81. The recipient must be a woman resident of Oregon who has received her bachelor's degree and has had at least 2 years of paid or volunteer employment. The Fellowship must be used for graduate work at either the master's or doctoral level. The Award may be used abroad or in the U.S. and is unrestricted as to age and field of study. February application deadline. Call or stop by the Staff Development office for more information, ext. 2260.

GRANTS, TOO - Applications are now available for grants up to $2,500 from the S & H (as in green stamps) Foundation Lectureship Program. The program's purpose is to (1) enrich established classes by bringing scholars and public experts into direct contact with instructors and students, and (2) extend the sponsoring school's influence into the community by facilitating public lectures by the visiting expert. Cut-off date for applying is February 15. Contact Shannon Jaeger, 1 to 5 Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, at ext. 2364 for more information.

ON KLCC - Today on Community Access, at 12:40 p.m., Joe Kremmers of LCC's Social Science Department discusses "Self and Society." Tonight from midnight to 2 a.m., State of the Art host Jack Gabel explores avant-garde jazz, Twentieth Century classical and thirdstream music.

Twelfth Week of Fall Term
TUESDAY
December 11, 1979

Published for the staff of Lane Community College.
Deadline for contributions is 2 p.m. on the day before publication.
Editor/Coordinator: Jeannine Ferguson, ext. 2201

APPRECIATION - LCC staff members have been busy planning and participating in workshops this term, and many letters of thanks have been received by the college for its program and staff contributions. Marvin Clemons, Coordinator of Career and Vocational Education for the Lane Education Service District, thanks President Schafer and staff for hosting the workshop on "New Concepts in Building Construction" on November 15. The workshop was attended by high school construction teachers and career and vocational administrators. Jim Lawson, CWE Coordinator for Construction, co-hosted the workshop....Jim Lawson received commendation from Robert Leo, Associate Director of The League for Innovation in the Community College, for his contributions to a pilot project to train community college vocational/technical faculty members to teach the installation of solar energy systems....Arnie Heuchert, Director of Personnel Development Centers in Portland, wrote to thank Julie Aspinwall-Lamberts for her contributions to PDC's Evaluation Workshop in November....Thelma Shaffner, Program Secretary for Career and Vocational Education of the Lane ESD, thanks Bob Way for his presentation at the Program Planning and Proposal Writing Inservice sponsored by the ESD.

PRESENTATION - Larry Warford was co-chairperson for the Community College section at the National Adult Education Conference in Boston last month. He gave a presentation entitled, "The Lane Approach to Linkages."

APPOINTED - President Schafer was appointed this summer as the American Association of Community and Junior Colleges representative to the Board of the Council on Postsecondary Education. The national advisory board works with the federal government in supervising accreditation of all postsecondary institutions. The appointment is a recognition of exceptional leadership and service in higher education. Schafer's term is for 3 years.

RATIFICATION - Possible ratification of contracts with the Employees Federation (classified) and the Adult Basic Education/High School Completion unit are on the agenda for Wednesday night's Board of Education meeting. It is to begin at 7:30 in the Boardroom. Also on the agenda: appointment of KLCC Advisory Commission members, Advisory Committee appointments, review of College High Program, appointment of Budget Committee member, consideration of a project to improve the LTD bus station on campus, a report on evening security, and approval of more than 3 pages of course additions and revisions.

CASE CLOSED - The Civil Rights Division of the State Bureau of Labor has closed its case concerning a discrimination complaint against the college by Counselor Jan Brandstrom. "After thorough investigation and review, our office has not found substantial evidence at this time to support the complaint of discrimination," the Division representative writes. Brandstrom had alleged in 1978 that she was not appointed to the position of coordinator of counseling because of her sex and that a less qualified male was selected over her. She further alleged that she had not been appointed acting director of counseling because of her sex.

CAMBODIAN REFUGEES - The ASLCC is sponsoring a Cambodian Refugee Fund Raising table in the cafeteria this week through Thursday. Stop by the table anytime from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. if you want to help the refugees.

PAYROLL - December payroll verification sheets will be available in Personnel at 1:30 p.m. today. They are due back in Personnel by 5 p.m. tomorrow. Payday is December 21.

ASSERT YOURSELF - An assertiveness training class for staff will be offered winter term. It will meet in the Boardroom from noon to 1 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays. The course will focus on self-management skills within areas of consumerism and work settings, social and intimate.

BLACKOUT SCHEDULED - Facilities Services advises that they will be performing annual maintenance on the electrical distribution system over the weekend of December 22 and 23. All power will be off on Saturday, December 22, and each building will be shut down on a rotation basis on Sunday, December 23. Any staff planning on working this weekend are forewarned that heating and lighting will not be available--better bring your candles.

NOTICE TO ALL DEPARTMENTS - Pat Grant, Purchasing Director, says they are having a rash of confirming purchase orders. Too many really, considering the ease and flexibility of obtaining a quick purchase order. Please help hold down the use of the emergency and confirming purchase order, he says, or perhaps some staff may be purchasing materials for Lane Community College.

A CHANCE TO SHARE IN THE REAL MEANING OF CHRISTMAS - We are asking help from all people on campus who have any toys, can buy some toys, and who are willing to donate fruit and candy. Bring these things to Room 407 Center so we may give them to students' families. Donations will be accepted through December 19. Please help all of our students' children so they may have Christmas "goodies" too. Students who would like to have some of these things can bring their children (or just themselves) to Room 407 Center on December 20 or contact Pat Creal, Counseling, ext. 2235.

GET YOUR INFORMATION EARLY - The Information Retrieval System has new hours beginning today through December 28. They will be open 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. If programs need to be scheduled during the evening, the instructor should contact Dee Stevens, ext. 2319, A DAY in advance.

FREE CHRISTMAS CARDS - College/Community Relations has a few commercially printed Christmas cards to share with departments who want to send them on behalf of the college to people or vendors who ought to be remembered in this season. Departments supply their own postage. First come, first served. Apply at the Information Window, Administration.

CHRISTMAS PARTY UPDATE - The party was a smashing success, thanks to party planners and staff. The estimated 400 party-goers ate their way through 30 appetizer trays, drank 17 gallons of champagne punch, made off with 40 door prizes, danced to the rhythm of the Starlighters and were discoed by Bonnie Graham and Michael Walker. From the Party Committee and the Staff Development Office - Merry Christmas and thanks to all!

CLASSIFIED INSURANCE - Vision coverage (added to health plan) and improved dental benefits will be in effect January 1. There will be no additional charge to the employee for his/her own coverage, but there will be a small additional charge for dependent coverage. The deduction for dependent coverage will be withheld from the December paychecks. If you have an insurance question, please contact Cleo Beswick, ext. 2590, in the Personnel Services Office.

FAREWELL - A reception will be held Friday in the Library at 3 p.m. for Vickie Ugorek, Curriculum Specialist. Vickie is moving to Washington, D.C., with her husband at the end of this month. All are invited to come and wish her farewell.

FROM THE CHILD DEVELOPMENT CENTER - They have openings for children of staff and faculty for winter term at the off-campus day care center. To apply, call Sheila at ext. 2524. The off-campus center is located in the Unitarian Church at 40th & Donald.

NOTICE TO ALL DEPARTMENTS - Pat Grant, Purchasing Director, says they are having a rash of confirming purchase orders. Too many really, considering the ease and flexibility of obtaining a quick purchase order. Please help hold down the use of the emergency and confirming purchase order, he says, or perhaps some staff may be purchasing materials for Lane Community College.

BASKETBALL - Both the men's and women's teams scored victories Monday night against Lower Columbia Community College. The women, under Head Coach Sue Thompson, delivered a final score of 53 to 47. The men's game was stopped by referees with 4:36 to go in the last half when Lower Columbia Coach Gary Earnest refused to leave the area with 3 technical calls against him. LCC was leading at that point 76 to 66.

FREE SPORTS - All staff, faculty and classified personnel who would like a free pass to all of LCC's home events can pick them up at the Athletic Office during any work day.

Panelists for the forum will be local law enforcement officials and rape counselors. After initial comment by the panelists, the forum will field questions and comments by the public. The forum, sponsored by the Willamette Valley Observer and the Eugene Women's Commission, begins at 7:30 p.m. in Harris Hall, downtown Eugene.

WORDS TO LIVE BY - People are unreasonable, illogical, and self-centered.
LOVE THEM ANYWAY
If you do good, some will accuse you of selfish motives.
DO GOOD ANYWAY
If you succeed, you win false friends and true enemies.
SUCCEED ANYWAY
The good you do today may be forgotten tomorrow.
DO GOOD ANYWAY
Honesty and frankness make you vulnerable.
BE HONEST ANYWAY
What takes years to build may be destroyed overnight.
BUILD WELL ANYWAY

INSURANCE QUESTIONS? - Archie will be in Personnel today at 10:30 a.m.

AT THE BOARD MEETING - At its Wednesday night meeting, the LCC Board of Education formally ratified contracts of the classified unit and the Adult Basic Education/High School Completion unit....The board heard a report from a representative of Lane Transit District proposing the creation of an improved bus facility on campus. The board must settle on a location before LTD can apply for a federal grant to help fund the facility. LCC riders presently account for 13 percent of all weekday trips made on LTD buses....Two KLCC Advisory Commission members were appointed by the board. They are Deanna M. Robinson, a speech professor at the University of Oregon, and Thomas H. Gentle, information representative for Oregon State University. Two more Advisory Commission members are yet to be named....LCC Advisory Committee appointments were approved....Dean VanLeuven, a Eugene attorney, was appointed to the Budget Committee for a 3-year term ending in June, 1980....An expenditure of $3300 from contingency funds was authorized for the hiring of an additional security person to improve evening security on campus.

"COLLEGE ISSUES" SYMPOSIUM - Two LCC faculty members will address a symposium of Oregon community college faculty, "Focus on College Issues," February 1 and 2 at the Valley River Inn. Joyce Hopps, Associate Dean, will give a presentation on "Women in College Management," covering prospects and stresses. Ed Ragozzino, Head of Performing Arts, will discuss "Teaching as a Performing Art," addressing acting techniques useful in preparing to teach and in presenting courses effectively. For further information on the symposium, contact Ted Romoser, Language Arts, ext. 2419.

FAREWELL RECEPTION - A reception will be held today at 3 p.m. in the Library for Vickie Ugorek, Curriculum Specialist. Vickie is moving to Washington, D.C., with her husband at the end of this month. All are invited to come and wish her farewell.

CLASSIFIED INSURANCE - Vision coverage (added to health plan) and improved dental benefits will be in effect January 1. There will be no additional charge to the employee for his/her own coverage, but there will be a small additional charge for dependent coverage. The deduction for dependent coverage will be withheld from the December paychecks. If you have an insurance question, please contact Cleo Beswick, ext. 2590, in the Personnel Services Office.

GET YOUR INFORMATION EARLY - The Information Retrieval System has new hours beginning today through December 28. They will be open 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. If you need to schedule a program during the evening, contact Dee Stevens, ext. 2319, A DAY in advance.

BLACKOUT REMINDER - Facilities Services will be performing annual maintenance on the electrical distribution system over the weekend of December 22 and 23. All power will be off on Saturday, December 22, and each building will be shut down on a rotation basis on Sunday, December 23. Any staff planning on working that weekend are forewarned that heating and lighting will not be available.

FREE SPORTS - All staff, faculty and classified personnel who would like a free pass to all of LCC's home events can pick one up at the Athletic Office during any work day.

UN-DAILY TIME - Next week the Daily will become the Semiweekly--temporarily. We will come out Tuesday and Thursday, December 18 and 20, of next week. There will be no Daily December 24 through 31. Daily Dailys will resume on January 2.

THANKS! - Since it's not possible, or feasible, for each classified employee at Lane Community College to personally thank each management employee for the "Appreciation Breakfast" enjoyed by all on Friday, December 14, the Lane Community College Employees Federation extends a truly heartfelt Thank You on their behalf. It was very generous of you, the management employees, to buy us breakfast from your dues donations and to devote your time and effort in cooking and serving it. We appreciate your appreciation; we thank you and we wish you all a Merry Christmas and a Prosperous, Happy New Year.

FROM PRESIDENT SCHAFER - Many thanks to the more than four dozen managers who voluntarily cooked, served and cleared tables, etc., for Friday's Appreciation Breakfast for classified employees. I'm told that more than 200 classified people attended. Thanks, too, to Santa Tegge.

COMMENTS - Managers and classified people who have comments, pro or con, about Friday's Appreciation Breakfast are invited to send them to Larry Romine in C/CR for placement in a reference file for future use. Suggestions for improvements or changes are especially invited.

FROM THE MAILROOM FOLKS - The mailroom anticipates receiving approximately 9,100 pieces of mail on December 27. The post-holiday procedure which was followed after Thanksgiving enabled us to distribute approximately 6,950 pieces of mail in one half-day period. In an attempt to ensure that you receive your mail as soon as possible after the Christmas holidays, we shall ask that you follow the same procedure as on November 26. If you have any questions, please call ext. 2575. Thank you for your cooperation in helping us better serve you.

GOODBYE - A farewell party was held for Fran Leavitt on Monday, December 10, at the home of Evelyn Tennis. Fran terminates December 31 and will be moving to Portland. Stop by Student Activities to wish her well or call ext. 2330-2336.

DIRECTORY CORRECTIONS - The following numbers are incorrectly listed in the LCC staff directory. Please make the changes in your copy: Mike Hopkinson, Mass Communications, is at ext. 2479. Robert Mitchell, ABE, is at ext. 2511.

TAKE NOTE - Word Processing will be closed December 27, 28 and 31. Financial Services will be closed tomorrow from 11:30 to 1:30.

TOY REMINDER - Please remember to bring your toy, fruit and candy donations to 407 Center by tomorrow for giving to students' families. Students who would like to have some of these things can bring their children (or just themselves) to 407 Center on Thursday, or contact Pat Creal, Counseling, ext. 2235.

LEAVES GRANTED - The Professional Development Committee has granted the following professional development leaves for spring term: Edna Jellesed, Business; Steve John, Thomas Wayne, and Richard Null, all from the Science Department.

OOPS! - Dean Van Leuven's 3-year term on the LCC Budget Committee ends in June, 1982--not in 1980 as incorrectly reported in last Friday's Daily.

LIBRARY "EXPANSION" - The LCC Board of Education has authorized the purchase of a computer terminal for the LCC library which will link it with the holdings of over 2000 other libraries nationwide. The computer system will provide catalog listings for more than 9000 titles in member libraries, and will give students and instructors at LCC access to these books through inter-library loan requests at no cost. The computer system will also facilitate the processing of new books acquired by the LCC library, since cataloging information can be accessed within seconds at the computer terminal. The system will cost $4,200 and will become operational in March.

KLCC - On Women's Night Out, tonight at 7:30, blues music will accompany reports on other blues: taxes, alcoholism, and destitution, followed by a discussion with LCC counselors Marje Wynia and Jan Brandstrom on "How to Pull Yourself Out of a Depression." On Community Access, at 12:40 p.m. today, members of the Iranian Student Association discuss "Fifteen Years Under the Shah."

LIBRARY "EXPANSION" - The LCC Board of Education has authorized the purchase of a computer terminal for the LCC library which will link it with the holdings of over 2000 other libraries nationwide. The computer system will provide catalog listings for more than 9 MILLION titles in member libraries (not just 9000, as reported in Tuesday's Daily). It will give students and instructors at LCC access to these books through inter-library loan requests at no cost. The computer system will also facilitate the processing of new books acquired by the LCC library, since cataloging information can be obtained within seconds at the computer terminal. The system will cost $4,200 and will become operational in March.

ASSERT YOURSELF - An assertiveness training class for staff will be offered winter term. It will meet in the Boardroom from noon to 1 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays. The course will focus on self-management skills within areas of consumerism and work settings, social and intimate. For further information contact Betty Vail, Counseling, ext. 2237.

LCC AT THE FAIR - The LCC Lane County Fair booth received coverage in a recent issue of Linkages, a bi-monthly, national newsletter of the National Institute for Staff and Organizational Development. The article describes activities of the booth and quotes Jolene Bowers, coordinator of the booth, on its success. We're pleased that this worthwhile event has received national exposure.

FROM THE MAILROOM FOLKS - The mailroom anticipates receiving approximately 9,100 pieces of mail on December 27. The post-holiday procedure which was followed after Thanksgiving enabled us to distribute approximately 6,950 pieces of mail in one half-day period. HOLIDAY HOURS, DAYS, BLACKOUTS, ETC. -

- The Information Retrieval System will be open from 8 to 5 through December 28. If you need to schedule a program during the evening, contact Dee Stevens, ext. 2319, a day in advance.
- Student Health Services is closed until January 2.
- Word Processing will be closed December 24 through January 2.
- Data Processing will be closed tomorrow from noon to 1:30.
- Facilities Services will be performing annual maintenance on the electrical system this weekend. All power will be off on Saturday, and each building will be shut down on a rotation basis on Sunday. Any staff planning to work this weekend are forewarned that heating and lighting will not be available.
- Office hours over the Christmas holidays for the Mass Communications department will be: December 20 & 21 - 8 to noon; December 24-26 - closed; December 27 & 28 - 9 to 1; December 31 - closed. Happy Holidays!
- Foodservices will be closed next Monday through Wednesday. They will close at 3:30 the remainder of this week, and next Thursday and Friday, December 27 and 28.

KLCC HOLIDAY PROGRAMMING - Since this is the last Daily until after the holidays, here are some highlights of KLCC programming through New Year's Day: This Saturday from 1 to 3 p.m., "Folk Festival USA" features traditional carols and songs....Sunday from 3 to 6 p.m. "Sunday Afternoon Jazz" presents a Christmas celebration of jazz beginnings, with the works of well-known artists early in their careers....On "Women's Night Out," Tuesday from 7:30 to 10 p.m., local women talk about how the women's movement affected their lives during the 70s, with women's music to celebrate Christmas....Next Sunday, December 30, from noon to 1 p.m., "Big Band Bash" features a pre-New Year's Eve Dance Party with big band music, hosted by John Wilson....On New Year's Eve, KLCC will present a Jazz Alive! New Year's Eve Special produced by National Public Radio. The music of jazz greats will be broadcast live via satellites from Blues Alley in Washington, D.C., Jazz Showcase in Chicago, and Keystone Corner in San Francisco. The 7-hour special will be broadcast in its entirety from 6:30 p.m. to 1:30 a.m., New Year's Eve....On New Year's Day, from 7:30 to 10 p.m., "Women's Night Out" will feature a rebroadcast of Holly Near's Eugene concert; an interview with Susan Freunlich, the interpreter for the hard of hearing who mimes Near's concerts; and, on the threshold of the 80s, the program takes a look at where the issues of abortion, gay rights, and the ERA stand.

FROM THE LIBRARY - 'Twas the week before Christmas
when all through foodservice who should appear but the sleepy Management all in breakfast gear.

The eggs all a stir and the hash browns a-goin'
they popped in the toast
all their faces a-glowin'.

When who should arrive upon the scene
but all the Library staff with eyes a-gleam.
Breakfast was neat;
when done by Management, it was quite a feat.

To this little poem with its unmeasured meter
may we add our thanks to the Management ranks.
