TUESDAY

September 2, 1980

Published for the staff of Lane Community College.
Deadline for contributions is 2 p.m. on the day before publication.
Editor/Coordinator: Jeannine Ferguson, ext. 2201

BE PREPARED - We will all be getting questions about LCC's class schedule. Please clip and post this so that you'll have the answers at hand.

Copies of the fall term class schedule are now available on campus (Admissions, Counseling, Information Window), at the Siuslaw Center (3149 Oak, Florence), at LCC's center in Cottage Grove (216 S. 6th), and at the Eugene, Springfield, and Junction City public libraries, and at the Eugene Downtown Center.

The college is unable to honor requests to mail individual schedules to people.

DONATIONS STILL WELCOME - LCC Advocates--the citizen committee working for passage of the September 16 LCC levies--advises The Daily that an additional $150 in donations was received last week from the faculty. Donations are still sought, since the committee still hasn't quite enough to finance two mailings to the 35 precincts that voted for both the "A" and "B" levies on the June 24 ballot. In addition to the mailings, the committee plans a precinct walk and get-out-the-vote telephoning. It amounts to more activity than has ever before been undertaken for an LCC election. Those who want to be part of it should contact their union officers.

READY TO CAST YOURS? - Voter registration cards, absentee ballot applications, and sample ballots for the September 16 election are available at the Information Window in the Administration building, the Student Activities Office, and the Admissions Office.

ENDORSEMENT - The Lane County Central Labor Council has unanimously endorsed passage of LCC's $2 million in levies on the September 16 ballot. The Council vote followed a "grilling" of Deans Gerry Rasmussen and Bill Berry on levy details last Thursday.

ANOTHER ENDORSEMENT - The Eugene Education Association, after hearing a presentation by Language Arts Prof. Ted Romoser, endorsed the College's September 16 ballot proposals and agreed to work on their behalf.

FACE CHANGE TOGETHER - Attend the Management Retreat at Sky Camp on September 9 from 8 to 5. Workshop presentors include: Betty Vail on Confrontive Communication; Fred Sachett demonstrating relaxation; Steve Mayer on decision-making models; and Don Murray doing an overall assessment of management needs.

A SEMANTIC SOLUTION? - Meet with the Deans for budget information and clarifications on the September 16 levy. This session is designed for classified and management personnel who may not have time later to meet with the Deans. Bring your lunch to the northeast corner of the cafeteria today at noon.

SCHOLARS PROGRAM - The Fund for the Improvement of Postsecondary Education announces the Mina Shaughnessy Scholars Program. This program will provide support to individuals to produce a document or engage in an activity which will significantly advance our knowledge of practical solutions to problems in postsecondary education. For program information, candidate requirements, etc., contact Lisl Fenner, Resource Development, in the Library (room 238), ext. 2364. Application deadline is October 17.

IN THE NEWS - A story about LCC's Small Business Management program is featured in the September issue of the Ova Voice, the newspaper of the Oregon Vocational Association. The article, written by SBM instructor Bill Dotson with photos by C/CR's Larry Romine, describes the organization and effectiveness of the SBM program.

CONFUSED ABOUT VACATION ACCRUAL? - Just remember that you don't earn your monthly vacation credits until the end of the month. In other words, vacation hours earned for hours worked in August cannot be used until September 1. Please contact Germaine Mock in Personnel, ext. 2588, if you have questions about your leave balance.

ON KLCC - Wednesday at 7:30 p.m., KLCC-FM presents "U.S. History: A Second Look," a 30-minute public affairs program which examines the Hispanic presence in U.S. history and the effects of omissions and misinterpretations of Latinos in our history. Featured are interviews with noted Hispanic educators and scholars. The program is one of several scheduled this month in observance of National Hispanic Heritage Week, September 15-21.

COME AND GET IT - Any department needing a double desk, 54x66, contact Teresa in Foodservice, ext. 2670.

FOR THOSE WHO ASKED - If both LCC levies on the September 16 ballot are approved, the College can serve 9,000 full-time equivalent students this year (300+ below last year's total). If only the "A" measure is approved, the College can serve 8,500 FTE. If neither the "A" nor the "B" were approved, the FTE would drop to 6,600. The A ballot, if passed, will cost the owner of a $55,000 home an additional $9.24 a year. The B ballot would cost that homeowner $2.75 more.

CLOSE TO GOAL - LCC Advocates advise that they are within a couple hundred dollars of having sufficient funds to send 26,000 post cards to voters in the 35 precincts which supported both the "A" and "B" measures at the June 24 election. The Advocates ask that those willing to help them reach their goal contact their union officers. The mailings have to go out this week.

MORE ENDORSEMENTS - Language Arts Prof. Ted Romoser went to a Labor Day picnic and asked and got the endorsement of LCC's Sept. 16 election levies by the Lane County Democratic Central Committee. Earlier, he also won endorsement from the Lane County Uniserve Council, which represents most Lane County K-12 teachers.

BACK PATTING SESSION - An all-staff coffee break is planned for next Tuesday, Sept. 16, from 10 to 10:30 in the cafeteria. You're all invited to come as we congratulate ourselves on the fine job done by all in working together to pass the LCC budget. This mutual appreciation is co-sponsored by the LCC Education Association, the Employees Federation, the Management Group, and Dr. Schafer.

STAFF DEVELOPMENT - Each employee should receive one of the Staff Development Program Guides sent to departments last week. Call SD at ext. 2260 if your department needs more copies. Attendance will be limited to those numbers indicated in the schedule, so call to reserve your space in workshops and tours which you wish to attend. Some notes on upcoming workshops:

CPR: A CPR training series starts this afternoon from 1 to 4 and will include labs on Wednesday and Friday of this week. Call Sandy Ing, ext. 2666, if you can start today.

Management Retreat: All managers who want to ride the bus to Sky Camp (25 miles one way) meet at the flag pole, front parking lot, at 8 a.m. tomorrow. Instructions for those who must drive can be picked up at the President's Office and SD Office.

Stress on the Job: For managers and classified personnel. Give yourself this opportunity to collect ideas on how we can work together for positive stress management as we move through a budget election, faculty and students returning to school, registration, and other stresses and strains of the next few weeks.

Employee Assistance Seminar: This workshop is designed to inform and assist managers in implementing LCC's new employee assistance policy. This workshop will be repeated once during winter and once during spring term. Each manager should plan to have attended one of these workshops by the end of the school year.

THINGS NOT GOING YOUR WAY? - A representative from Koyen and Associates will be here Thursday to answer questions about a Sept. 15 workshop on Personal Power. The question and answer session on Thursday is from 2 to 2:30 p.m. in HEA 205. The one-day workshop on Sept. 15 costs $35 in advance. The Staff Development Office, ext. 2260, has more information.

PLEASE HELP - Joan Campillo, Financial Aid Officer in charge of the Work-Study Program, experienced a tragedy Labor Day weekend: her home burned; nothing was saved. If anyone would like to contribute household goods, clothing, etc., they may call Lori Bell, Financial Aid, at ext. 2205.

SOLAR WORKSHOP BEGINS - A workshop to teach community college teachers how to teach solar installation begins today and runs through Friday. LCC was selected to host the first of 8 such workshops to be held across the country this year. Teachers from 5 northwest states are being brought to LCC for the training. The workshop is funded by the U.S. Department of Energy and coordinated by the League for Innovation in the Community College. Training sessions are being held in the basement of the Center Building.

LCC CHOSEN - LCC has been selected as stateside consultant to the Hawaii community college system in improving that system's services to non-traditional and disadvantaged students. A consulting team of up to 5 members will be chosen to offer assistance in the development and evaluation of programs for nontraditional students during two week-long visits to Hawaii over the coming school year. All costs will be covered by U.S. Office of Education Title III grant monies. Clyde Yoshioka, Provost of Honolulu CC, will visit LCC Sept. 23 and 24 to tour our facilities and meet with potential team members.

PAYROLL - September payroll verification sheets will be available in Personnel at 1:30 p.m. on September 17. Completed and signed sheets are due back in Personnel by 5 p.m. on the 18th.

WIL MOON ELECTED - Wil Moon, Business instructor, has been elected secretary of the Eugene Chapter of Sales & Marketing Executives International for 1980-81. The organization is a professional association for business owners, managers in marketing and sales, and marketing educators.

BABY SHOWER - Everyone is welcome to attend a shower for Carmon Baraoidan of Financial Aid on Friday from noon to 2 p.m. in CEN 220.

Party clothes — R.S.V.P. Ext. 2201 (Jeannine Ferguson)
By Friday, September 12

THE DAILY IS DAILY AGAIN - In response to popular demand, daily publication of The Daily resumes today. The Daily is for all LCC staff; if you have something to share with the campus community, call it in to The Daily at ext. 2201. Deadline is 2 p.m. the day before you want your news published.

FRIDAY
September 12, 1980

Published for the staff of Lane Community College.
Deadline for contributions is 2 p.m. on the day before publication.
Editor/Coordinator: Jeannine Ferguson, ext. 2201

TIME CHANGED - Monday's all-staff meeting regarding the college budget will start at 3 p.m., not an hour earlier as announced previously. It will be held in the Performing Arts Theatre. President Schafer will speak, then turn the program over to Language Arts Prof Ted Romoser on behalf of LCC Advocates. Ted asks that staff wear comfortable walking shoes to the meeting so that participation can be enhanced. All who can attend are urged to do so.

THIS NOON - A lunch hour work party to stuff packets for Monday's precinct walk held by LCC Advocates is being conducted this noon in the northeast corner of the cafeteria. Bring your lunch and eat while helping. The activity was organized by the faculty and classified unions.

ALSO THIS NOON - Deans Gerry Rasmussen and Bill Berry will answer questions about the college budget election at the Republican Roundtable Forum at the Asia Garden restaurant. Then, at 2 p.m., the dynamic duo will tape a radio show on the budget at KBDF-KZEL for airing this weekend.

STEERING COMMITTEE ELECTION - Managers are alerted to the fact that election of new representatives to the Management Group Steering Committee will be held later this month. John Bernham and Grace Cameron presently represent Student Services; Jack Kreitz and Roger McAlister represent Instructional Managers; Paul Colvin and Verne Whittaker represent Administrative Services; Larry Romine represents the President's Complex. Jim Dunne is Immediate Past Chairman and Bob Radcliff is Recorder.

MORE WANT IN - Dean of Students Jack Carter says applications for admission to LCC are running about 5 percent ahead of last year at this time. Even if voters approve both levies at Tuesday's election, the college will be able to serve about 5 percent fewer students than last year.

FACULTY APPOINTMENTS - The following faculty appointments were approved by the LCC Board of Education Wednesday night for the coming academic year: Sidney Appleman, Performing Arts; Carolyn Blanchard, Health Occupations; Richard Freund, Counseling; Francis X. Rossini, Study Skills; Susan Ulrich, Health Occupations; Roger Kirkpatrick, Mechanics; Douglas Partridge, Mechanics; and William Tweedie, STP. Resignations were accepted by the Board from Mary Curry, who is leaving her position as dance instructor for Health & P.E., from David Just, who resigns his position as coordinator of the Respiratory Therapy Program, from Dan Rothwell, Mass Communications instructor, and from Vern Ho, who is resigning his half-time teaching position with the Study Skills Center but remains at LCC as Staff Development Coordinator.

THANKS - ...From Verne Duncan, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, to Dr. Schafer, for his efforts this year as president of the President's Council of the Oregon Department of Ed.... From Don Lindly, Community School Supervisor for the Willamalane School District, to Dean Gerry Rasmussen and the Office of Instruction staff, for hosting a group of Willamalane coordinators who visited LCC with an eye to promoting a cooperative exchange between the two agencies....From Daniel Anderson, president of the Board of Trustees of Oregon Repertory Theatre to the LCC Board of Education, for the use of folding chairs during ORT's summer production of Our Town on the Eugene downtown mall....From Robert L. Johnson, Director of the Pacific NW Great Teachers Seminar, to Pres. Schafer, for sending Richard Romanek, Electronics instructor, as a contributor to the seminar.

TESTING - The Inservice session on "How to Write Good Test Items" is open to all staff. It will be held Tuesday morning, Sept. 16, in Health 105, from 9 to 12. Presented by Dan Hodges, LCC Testing Center.

COMMENDATION - From James E. West, Chairman of the Student Activities and Intercollegiate Athletic Commission, comes praise for the LCC administration's handling of the athletic program investigation last spring. West says "The thoroughness in which you reviewed the violations and the steps that you took to see that these violations will not occur again are to be complimented."

THEATRE - Watch your mail Monday for an ad and order form from Performing Arts....look it over, fill it out, and drop it off at the theatre box office to get your season tickets for three wonderful plays, and tickets for "Where's Charley?" which will have four extra performances this fall on Sept. 26 and 27 and Oct. 3 and 4. The three plays of the regular season are: "The Man Who Came to Dinner," "Grease," and "Twelfth Night." Details in Monday's mail!

KLCC - Tomorrow from 11 a.m. to noon, NEW DIMENSIONS presents Juan Johnson, author of Muddling Toward Frugality: A Blueprint for Survival in the 1980s, explaining why he thinks the energy crisis can be a blessing if it compels us to live more simply, soundly, and ecologically.

INSERVICE SCHEDULE - Welcome teachers! It's nice to have things livened up a bit with your return. By now, you should have a copy of the Staff Development Inservice Schedule. If not, pick one up at the Staff Development Office. As with all working documents, we already have some changes. They are: Page 5--the All-Staff Budget Meeting is now set for 3 p.m. today in the Performing Arts Theatre rather than the listed 2 p.m.; Page 6--a $3 registration fee will be collected at the Microteach Workshop. This covers the cost of materials and lunch.

VOTE TOMORROW! - Tomorrow's tax levy election is LCC's third and last chance to pass the 1980-81 budget. If the budget fails, enrollment may have to be cut by as much as 25 percent. Don't forget to vote--and remind others, too.

BARBECUE - Tickets for the Staff Barbecue are $3.75. You may buy them from Carol Clarke in Staff Development or at the Information Window in the Administration Bldg. Ticket sales end September 23, so plan ahead so we can plan ahead. See page 11 of your Inservice Schedule for more information.

SPECIAL HEARINGS - Although no immediate change is in the works, Sue Colvin offers two special hearings for staff on current personnel action forms and procedure. The first hearing is Friday, September 19, 2:30 to 3:30 in the Boardroom. The second is Thursday, October 9, 2:30 to 3:30 in Health 205. Both the person who works with the forms and the unit supervisor are encouraged to participate since problems with the forms often affect many people within a department. If you have suggestions or have experienced problems with the PA forms, drop in.

WOMEN'S CENTER NEWS - The Women's Center will be closed Sept. 15-19 in order to train new staff coming on board. The Center will reopen Sept. 22 with summer hours (Monday-Thursday, 8 to 1; closed Fridays) and resume full-time status when school begins. Open sessions for LCC staff members to hear speakers who will be part of the training are: Margie Hendrickson speaking on "Equal Rights for Women and Women and the Law," Wednesday, Sept. 17, 10:30 to 11:00; Loretta Daniel, "Resource and Referral," on the same day from 11:00 to noon; Anne Stewart, with a panel on feminism, Friday, Sept. 19, from 9:30 to 10:30.

PAYROLL - September payroll verification sheets will be available in Personnel at 1:30 Wednesday, Sept. 17. Completed and signed sheets are due back in Personnel by 5 p.m. Thursday.

LOOKS GOOD - Two Energy Conservation Measure (ECM) grant applications submitted by LCC for consideration of the Institutional Buildings Grants Program have been placed in the top 46 out of 109 ECM requests received by the Oregon Dept. of Energy. The ODOE has recommended funding of these top 46 requests; however, final grant approval rests with the Region X office of the U.S. Dept. of Energy. Notices of grant awards by that office will be issued by the end of the month, according to Lynn Frank, Director of ODOE.

SCHOLARS PROGRAM - The Fund for the Improvement of Postsecondary Education announces the Mina Shaughnessy Scholars Program. This program will provide support to individuals to produce a document or engage in an activity which will significantly advance our knowledge of practical solutions to problems in postsecondary education. For program information, candidate requirements, etc., contact Lisl Fenner, Resource Development, CEN 238 (rear of the Library), or call ext. 2364. Application deadline is October 17.

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM (formerly Work Experience Internship Program) - The National Endowment for the Arts announces three sessions of the National Endowment Fellowship Program for 1981: spring, summer and fall. The 13-week sessions are designed to acquaint participants with policies and operations of the Endowment and to give them an overview of arts activities around the country. Activities planned give fellows the opportunity to learn about policy development, grant-making procedures, and administration in Endowment programs. Fellowships will be awarded on a competitive basis. For details, contact Lisl Fenner, Resource Development, 238 CEN (rear of the Library), ext. 2364. Application deadline for next summer's program is January 9.

SCHOLARSHIP - Sixteen LCC graduates were named to the U of O Dean's List spring term. The Dean's List recognizes and honors undergraduates whose grades for the term place them in the top three percent of all undergraduates in their school or college, and requires a minimum of 15 credit hours with a GPA of 3.75 or higher.

BOARD MEETS WEDNESDAY - The possibility of placing a new tax base for LCC on the November 4 election ballot will be discussed by Board of Education members Wednesday night. The Board meets at 7:30 in ADM 213. Other agenda items: annual report of the Staff Development office, adoption of a resolution to levy taxes approved at today's election, award of bids for welding gasses and typewriters and word processing equipment, approval of construction funds for campus signing, and advisory committee appointments. The session is open to the public.

DOWNTOWN CENTER DIRECT DIAL NUMBERS - Changes have been made to the telephone system at the Downtown Center that allow direct dialing of certain DTC numbers. This list is a re-run (with a few exceptions) of the list published about a month ago in The Daily; if you didn't keep the earlier list, please clip and save this one until the new Staff Directory comes out next month. If you kept the earlier list, please check it against this one as some changes have been made:

BUDGET PASSED - Both A and B ballots were approved by district voters--the A ballot got 20,400 yes votes to 15,700 no votes; the B ballot 18,700 yes votes to 16,900 no votes. LCC Advocates report that 131 people rang doorbells Monday night, and dozens more placed phone calls to voters in supportive precincts to help bring about the tax levy approval. Several hundred dollars were collected Monday night to help finance the campaign. A special thanks to everyone who helped.

TO THE STAFF OF LCC FROM VERNA & HAROLD JENSEN:

September 2, 1980

Sandra Ing
Lane Community College
Student Health Service
400 East 30th
Eugene, OR 97401

Dear Ms. Ing;

Verna and Harold Jensen wish to express their appreciation and thanks to the L.C.C. Blood Bank and to the L.C.C. Staff for their donations of blood to meet her deficit in her recent surgery. Due to the great amount of blood required it would have been very difficult to replace. As you know, the Blood Bank prefers to have the blood replaced and not just paid for.

"That is what friends are for," we always say when we are helping others, but when we are on the receiving end, we hardly know what to say.

Please excuse the delay in sending this note, as we hope from day to day that things will be better tomorrow. So far progress is slow and varies from day to day.

QUICK!! - Someone next to you at work grabs his chest, falls over and stops breathing. WHAT WOULD YOU DO? Your co-worker has a 61 percent chance of surviving if you start proper care in the first minute--only 9 percent if that care begins after 5 to 10 minutes. Learn what to do at the CPR (Cardio-Pulmonary Resuscitation) class for staff which starts September 23 from 9 to 11 a.m. The complete course takes from six to nine hours and sign-up sheets for skill labs will be available at the September 23 meeting. Call Staff Development, ext. 2260, to register.

CORRECTION - Checks for Microteach and Conflict Management workshops should be made out to LCC, not to Staff Development as previously reported.

MANAGEMENT RETREAT - Our Salute to the Management Steering Committee and all who made the retreat a success. The 82 participants attended workshops on Decision Making, Confrontive Communication, Relaxation, and Assessment of Needs. They also heard a tongue-in-cheek presentation by President Schafer on management styles. To follow up, the Staff Development Office is mailing a participant reaction sheet to all management staff.

FROM PRESIDENT SCHAFER - "I want to express my deep appreciation to all staff members who helped in so many ways in Tuesday's winning levy effort. Never have so many done as much or with such energy and enthusiasm. There are too many to name, but I have to cite Ted Romoser for the many, many hours he volunteered and the high quality of his efforts. Kudos and thanks, too, to the Association, the Federation, and the Management Group; it couldn't have been done without you. Once again, the local community has responded to the need and treated us generously, probably more generously than most other area taxing districts. I'm grateful for a great college, outstanding staff, and a highly supportive community."

BARBECUE - Plan on relaxing with colleagues at the All-Staff Barbecue next Friday. Tickets are $3.75 at the Information Window and Staff Development Office. Beer and wine tickets will be available for 50¢ a serving. Family and friends are welcome.

LET US KNOW - Everyone is specially invited to the Tribute to President Schafer this Saturday night beginning at 7:30. Bring your spouse or friend--but please RSVP today at ext. 2201 so we know you're coming.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER - Wendy Mortenson of the U.S. Office of Personnel Management will launch our week of inservice at 9 a.m. Monday. Her outline includes a definition of corporate training, differences in public education and corporate education; and how community colleges can form a partnership with corporations. The talk will be in the Performing Arts Theater.

SPECIAL HEARING - Staff interested in the use of Personnel Action Forms should attend the hearing tomorrow from 2:30 to 3:30 in the Boardroom. Sue Colvin will explain how the current form is used and listen to staff concerns and suggestions. A second hearing is planned for October 9, 2:30 to 3:30, in HEA 205.

FITNESS WORKSHOP - Bob Radcliff, Susan Cooley and Tom Young are leading a workshop on relaxation exercises as a way to reduce stress, warm-ups/stretching exercises, cardiovascular fitness, corrective exercises for weak backs and other muscle groups, and diet and nutrition as related to fitness. Participants are limited to 40, not 6 as listed in the Staff Development Inservice Schedule. Please wear comfortable clothing to the workshop--Sept. 24, 1 to 4 p.m., in HPE 125.

FACULTY - The Financial Aid Panel on Tuesday is the perfect opportunity for you to better understand the different aid programs for our students. Representatives from CETA, Voc Rehab, Veterans, and the Financial Aid Office will brief you on their programs and respond to your questions. Call ext. 2260 to reserve a space.

THANK YOU - Gene Stinnett, Plant Services, and his wife Evelyn, extend their thanks and gratitude to the employees of LCC for their thoughtfulness and sympathy in the recent loss of Mrs. Stinnett's son, Dick Hofman.

MEDIA INSERVICE - The Media Services Department will conduct an inservice for all interested staff and faculty on Wednesday, Sept. 24, 10:30 to noon in CEN 401. The inservice will cover new departmental policies and procedures, proper operation of audiovisual equipment, and film ordering.

HERESY - A return to a strong academic focus is advocated for community colleges by Professor William Moore, Ohio State University, in the latest Innovation Abstract. It's available at instructional department offices and the Staff Development Office. Moore says those institutions doing the most effective job with students are those that are the most traditional, structured, no-nonsense colleges. He says helping low achievers succeed demands a departure from the notion that students must feel good about themselves before they can learn. Rather, they will feel good because they have learned. (The Daily presumes this is the same Bill Moore who used to be president of the Seattle Community Colleges and who has written such books as Blind Man on a Freeway.)

MORE ON DOWNTOWN CENTER PHONES - The DTC number for Counseling listed in Tuesday's Daily rings in an empty room--you'll have better luck if you call ext. 7594, which will get you Gail Currin, Student Service Specialist at the Downtown Center. Also, transferring a call from the main campus to the DTC can lose the call; callers should be given the DTC phone number (484-2126) to dial direct.

INSURANCE - A new list of participating physicians, hospitals and agencies in the SelectCare insurance plan has been posted on the job announcement board, first floor of the ADM Bldg.

BOARD ACTION - At its Wednesday night meeting, the LCC Board of Education:

- Voted unanimously to request a $3.5 million increase in the LCC tax base in the November general election.
- Approved the appointment of Mary Seereiter as dance instructor for the 1980-81 school year.
- Authorized the allocation of $1,125 in uncommitted construction funds to construct a campus directory at the west pedestrian entrance to the campus. The prototype directory, to be in place in about a month, will be the first step in the implementation of the campus-wide signing project, with directories to be installed at 6 main entrances.
- Accepted bids from Clary Business Machines Co. and IBM for typewriters; from D & H Welding Supply for welding gases; and from Office Systems & Service Co. for CRT Word Processing Equipment.

LAST CALL - All staff members are invited to attend the Tribute to President Schafer tomorrow evening, Sept. 20, beginning at 7:30 p.m. Formalities begin at 8. If you plan to attend but haven't RSVP'd yet, please do so today at ext. 2201. Party clothes are in order--dressy but you don't have to rent a tux.

WHO'S WHO - Karen Lansdowne and Sheila Juba, both of the Language Arts Department, have been awarded Certificates of Merit from the World Who's Who of Women, and will appear in Volume VI of that publication.

APPRECIATION - Don Fineran, Mathematics Education Specialist with the State Department of Education, has written President Schafer to praise the "creative thinking" of Math Dept. Head Casey Fast in assisting with a math survey conducted statewide last fall. Casey and students from the Math Dept. helped tabulate and interpret data from the survey. "Once again," says Fineran, "the contributions of LCC's Math Department have assisted the mathematics education community of Oregon."

DOWNTOWN CENTER HEARING - A second "hearing" on the Operational Plan for the Downtown Center will be held on Wednesday, Sept. 24, at 11 a.m. in the Boardroom. Those who were not able to attend the first hearing held on August 21 are encouraged to attend.

STAFF DEVELOPMENT REPORT - The Staff Development Office Report for 1979-80, prepared by Anne Stewart and Vern Ho, shows first-year attendance for Staff Development activities at 2,300. This includes 199 faculty, 211 classified, 107 management staff, and another 1,780 at events like the barbecue and staff meetings where people were not identified by employee group. SD focus in the coming year will be on such things as improved recognition, campus communication, and career mobility, the report says.

BOOKS WANTED - Study Skills is always in need of used paperback books and used magazines for student use. Any staff donations of reading matter would be appreciated.

NO SMOKING - Everyone is asked to take note of the change in the Non-Smoking area in the Snack Bar. It is now adjacent to the serving area, and is designated by no-smoking signs. Please comply.

DONATIONS STILL WELCOME - LCC Advocates say that donations are still welcome, though the election is over. A deficit is projected at this point. See your union officials if you want to help.

TAX LIMIT OPPOSED - The one-percent tax limitation measure that will be voted on by Oregonians in November will be actively opposed by the Oregon School Boards Assn. this fall. The association's legislative committee voted last week to oppose the measure and urged its members to work with other citizen groups to defeat the initiative, which Medford school board member Doug Cushing says would "just about wipe out the citizen's chance to have a say in how the schools are run."

FOR SALE - The Purchasing Office has a variety of equipment, furniture, chairs, etc. Departments have first choice on any of the items that are for sale. Staff may bid on any item. Come to the Warehouse and inspect the offerings and submit a bid--or for further information call ext. 2208 or 2572. Examples of equipment for sale:

THANK YOU - From the LCC County Fair Planning Committee and President Schafer, to all those who worked on the LCC County Fair Booth and made it, once again, a successful and effective voice for the college.

TO CLARIFY...the role LCC is playing in being consulting institution to Honolulu Community College: LCC has been asked to send persons who have expertise in only three specific areas. These areas are student services (particularly women's programs), learning centers, and outreach. Consultants will be chosen by Honolulu C.C. from a list of candidates already submitted to them.

OPEN HOUSE - All staff are invited to the Library Open House today at 2:30 p.m. Come and see a demonstration of the new national data base (OCLC), and meet Clifford Dawdy, new Head Librarian.

GET FIT - Bob Radcliff has invited all interested staff to work with him to develop a fitness program for staff. Call the Staff Development Office, ext. 2260, or Bob at ext. 2545, if you'd like to help this project along by getting involved.

CHRISTMAS SEAL RUN - The LCC Respiratory Therapy Program and Nike of Eugene are co-sponsoring a Christmas Seal Run Sunday, October 12. The event will include a 10-kilometer road race and a 2-mile fun run. Both runs start and finish on the U of O campus, with the course winding through the streets of Eugene. All age groups; refreshments, awards, drawings and free t-shirts to participants. Entrance fee is $5 ($6 after October 5) and goes to the Oregon Lung Association. Applications can be picked up at the Health Occupations office, at Nike Eugene or at Sugar Pine Ridge. (The Respiratory Therapy folks are looking for people to assist--if you'd like to help with the run, volunteer at the Health Occupations office or call ext. 2617.)

NEW FOOD - Foodservice has added some new items to their repertoire: (1) the "Waz-zat"--a delicious cheeseburger with sliced ham and bacon, and (2) the "Come Again"--another delicious cheeseburger, this one with sliced turkey and bacon. Come give them a try.

FOR SALE - The Purchasing Office has a variety of equipment, furniture, chairs, etc. Departments have first choice on any of the items that are for sale. Staff may bid on any item. IMPORTANT MEETING FOR FACULTY - Come to the LCCEA meeting (at noon Friday, Sept. 26, in the Theatre) to take part in the discussion of preparation for contract negotiations, committee activities, and issues of concern to all educators on the November general election ballot. Take this opportunity to tell your officers what you want LCCEA to do for you this year.

MEETING FOR ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES MANAGEMENT EMPLOYEES - There will be a meeting tomorrow, Sept. 24, at 9:30 a.m. in the President's Dining Room, to elect new management steering committee representatives for the 1980-81 year. Please plan to attend.

TRIBUTE A SUCCESS - Over 200 guests showed up for Saturday night's tribute to President Schafer, including many out-of-town and out-of-state guests. A number of LCC retirees and former employees and board members attended. Also among the guests were Sen. Ed and Representative Nancie Fadeley; Roger Bassett, Executive Secretary of OCCA; Dean Robert Gilberts of the Univ. of Oregon; Dr. Robert MacVicar of OSU, and Dr. Suzanne Fletcher of AACJC. The party was by all accounts an enjoyable and entertaining evening, and a fine tribute to our president.

BARBECUE - Please pick up your tickets at the Information Window or the Staff Development Office. Anne Stewart is planning some surprises so come have dinner and join the fun! Friends and family are welcome. Cost is $3.75 per person.

TOURS - Buses for the Electronics tour and Wood Industry tour will leave from the flag pole at 8 a.m. Please wear comfortable clothing, and bring lunch money.

FINANCIAL AID INFORMATION - Since over 70 percent of our students are assisted by one of several financial aid programs, you might find the Panel on Financial Aid helpful. Meet with them in FOR 307 at 1 p.m. today. Representatives from CETA, Voc Rehab, Veterans, and our Financial Aid Office will answer your questions.

PA FORMS - Having trouble filling out Payroll Action forms for new employees in your department? Why not bring your new employees straight to the Personnel Office their first day of work and let them help you fill out the necessary paperwork. Not only will this speed up the process for you, but it will help new employees understand how their pay is calculated. Please call Darlene Turpin at ext. 2586 to schedule a convenient meeting time.

BM6 - Ballot Measure 6, the proposed property tax limitation on the November 4 ballot, would roll back assessed valuations to their January 1, 1977, levels. Maximum tax that could be levied would be one percent of the value and that would have to be divided among all taxing districts. LCC would lose 57 percent of its local tax support, some $3.7 million. Maximum yearly increase would be two percent. Donations are sought by the Fair Tax Relief Committee, 689 Cottage St., N.E., Salem, OR 97301, which is coordinating the campaign (led by Gov. Atiyeh) against BM6. Language Arts Prof Ted Romoser is helping coordinate the Lane County campaign.

SELCO CALENDARS ARE HERE - Selco day planning calendars for the 1980-81 year are available at the Information Window.

NEW BABY - Teresa Sieg, Foodservice, and Nolan Sieg, Flight Tech, are parents of a new son born Friday morning. The new Sieg, Ryan Nolan, weighed 7 lb. 11 oz. at birth, and is Teresa's and Nolan's second child. Congratulations!

FROM STUDENT HEALTH - In past years Student Health has coordinated the distribution and filing of Staff Confidential Emergency Information Cards. In an effort to simplify procedures and provide better service, we are discontinuing use of this card. Any staff person with medical problems or preferences which he/she would like to have on record at Student Health is encouraged to drop by Student Health (CEN 126) to complete a medical history form. The form will then be filed with patient records and be available for use in case of an emergency.

KLCC - Tonight on WOMEN'S NIGHT OUT, 7:30 to 10 on KLCC, a program entitled "Women and Publishing" features interviews with Oregon writer M.F. Beale, the editors of Women's Press, and editors of a women's art and poetry journal, Calyx....The topic on today's COMMUNITY ACCESS at 12:40 p.m. is People's Law School, with guest Karen Overstreet.

YOU MEET THE NICEST PEOPLE - The LCC Advocates did an excellent job in planning the Walk for LCC. During the get-together after the walk, Cecil Hodges and Mary Forestieri finally met each other after eleven years on campus.

SEEKING $$$ - Oregon community colleges will ask partial restoration of the 10 percent cut in state funding made by the Legislature in August. Four-year colleges and universities got back $1 million of their cut from the Legislative Emergency Board. Community colleges will go before the E-Board October 16 or 17 to ask for an equal amount to compensate for last year's overrealized FTE. LCC's share could range from $100,000 to $400,000.

ALL WON - The last three Oregon community colleges without budgets for this year won levies Sept. 16. Treasure Valley, which has no tax base, got a levy of $1.4 million. Central Oregon, also without a base, won $2.8 million. Lane got levies totaling $2 million.

TAX BASES - Nine Oregon community colleges will seek tax bases at the Nov. 4 election. Blue Mountain seeks $2.99 million; Central wants $4.2 million; Chemeketa $12.5 million (with a promise to levy no more than $9.25 million in the first year); Clackamas $8.5 million; Clatsop $2.5 million; Linn-Benton $5.5 million; Portland $11.8 million; and Lane $9.4 million. Treasure Valley has yet to decide how much it will ask. Mt. Hood, Umpqua and Rogue won new bases at the May election. SWOCC will live with what it has.

MEDIA INSERVICE - Media Services invites all staff to an inservice on new policies and procedures, proper operation of audiovisual equipment and film ordering. Meet with them at 10:30 to noon in CEN 401 today.

BOOKSTORE HOURS - The Bookstore will be open 11 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. this Friday, September 26 ONLY.

THEATRE - "Where's Charley?" opens this Friday, and good seats are available for each of the four weekend performances--Sept. 26 and 27, and Oct. 3 and 4. Call the Box Office, ext. 2202, between 10 and 4 to make reservations. Don't miss the sights and sounds of this lovely show.

INSURANCE - Interested in changing from one College health insurance plan to the other? Want to add a dependent to your dental insurance policy without having to submit a Statement of Insurability? These and other changes to your health and dental plans can be made during the open enrollment period scheduled for Sept. 1 through Oct. 15. Changes can be made by signing a new insurance card in the Personnel office. After Oct. 15, you can drop dependent coverage at any time but only new family members can be added to your coverage until the beginning of the next open enrollment period, Sept. 1, 1981. Please remember that new family members must be enrolled within 30 days of birth, adoption or marriage. For more information, plan to attend the group insurance meeting on Sept. 26 in the Performing Arts Theatre, right after the All-Staff In-Service meeting.

GRANT AWARDED - In the nation's community colleges, men hold 67 percent of the faculty positions and 75 percent of the administrative positions. Only 33 of 1200 two-year institutions have women as presidents. A grant from the Fund for the Improvement of Postsecondary Education (FIPSE) to the League for Innovation and the American Association of Women in Community and Junior Colleges (AAWCJC) (whew!) will respond to this imbalance by providing administrative training for cc women. The $64,779 grant will involve 50 women a year for three years, with the aim of increasing the number of women in leadership positions in community colleges.

WARM UP - Can exercising be fun? You're looking for a way to be bright-eyed, bushy-tailed and physically fit? Why not start your day with an exercise class at 6:30 a.m. on M-W-F. Don't let the early hours scare you, says instructor Pat Williams; it's a great way to wake up and the feeling of exhilaration you get from an early morning workout on the heart muscle is wonderful--better breathing habits, improved circulation, elimination of stress. Options are grade, pass/no pass or audit. All you need is your body and a good pair of tennis shoes. For more information, call Pat Williams at the Downtown Center, ext. 7523.

COMMUNITY ACCESS - Today at 12:40 p.m. on KLCC, Izetta Hunter and Bev Behrman talk about the LCC Women's Awareness Center and the Women's Program.

FOR SALE - The Purchasing Office has a variety of equipment, furniture, chairs, etc. Departments have first choice on any of the items that are for sale. Staff may bid on any item. Come to the Warehouse and inspect the offerings and submit a bid--or for further information call ext. 2208 or 2572. Examples of equipment for sale:

Two typewriters IBM model "C" - minimum acceptable bid $200

Shells from Foodservice chairs - 50¢ each; 3 for $1

Carpet chairs - $10 each; choice of colors, while they last

Carts, stands, from $35

Under-the-counter refrigerator - $125

Wooden table - $50

And many more items--come and see, and make an offer. Any reasonable offer will be accepted.

LACK OF INTEREST - Due to slow ticket sales, the All-Staff Barbecue is cancelled. We appreciate the help from several staff who tried to make it go, but had to call it off since current sales indicate it would not break even. Please contact the Staff Development Office for a refund. Do not be alarmed if no one is in the office or answers the phone--we are just very busy this week.

INSERVICE REACTIONS - Staff reactions to this year's Inservice Activities are welcomed by Anne Stewart and Vern Ho. They would like all participant reaction forms and other comments sent to the Staff Development Office by Tuesday, Sept. 30. No comment or reaction will be refused.

SHARING RESOURCES - The LCC Staff Development Office is sharing, on a space-available basis, selected in-service activities with personnel from the Willamalane Park and Recreation District. Don Lindly and Jewelee Houston of Willamalane attended sessions on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

EXPENDITURES - Preliminary figures regarding LCC Advocates' spending for the Sept. 16 election indicate that $3,400.44 was expended in the winning effort. The post office got $2,128; $20 went for mailing labels; $45 went for coffee, etc., before the precinct walk; the county elections department got $79.99 for voter lists; $146.90 went to the firm which handled the counting and bundling of the mailings; $25.26 was spent on precinct maps, etc.; $131.65 was spent on the precinct party; and $823.61 went for printing. An income figure hasn't yet come from the treasurer, but it is expected that there are sufficient monies to meet expenditures.

SHORTAGE - Because the state expects a shortfall in revenue for the 1981-83 biennium, Gov. Atiyeh directed budget planners to work on possible reductions ranging up to 15 percent. Oregon community colleges expected $128 million for the biennium, could get about $102 million. They got $93 million this biennium.

FUNDING UPS & DOWNS - The House Appropriations Committee has approved a budget of $14.2 billion for education programs in fiscal 1981, which begins Oct. 1, 1980. This is $.8 billion less than President Carter requested. Funding for many programs of interest to LCC (those with monies for which LCC would be competing) are unchanged from the current fiscal year. For others, including National Direct Student Loans and Veterans' Cost of Instruction, funding is down. Those with increased funding include Basic Educational Opportunity Grants; Cooperative Education; Internat'l & Foreign Language Studies; Bilingual Secondary and Elementary; and Handicapped: regional, vocational, adult and post-secondary. For details on programs of particular interest, call Lisl Fenner in Instructional Services, ext. 2364.

STUDY PANNED - A UCLA study which claimed some types of vocational education do not help students get jobs has been criticized by a government-appointed panel of education researchers for improper research techniques. The National Institute of Education granted UCLA $171,000 for the original study and then appointed the second research team to review the results. The team found the report to be full of mathematical errors and statistics altered to buttress key statements. The team said the study was based on "skimpy statistical evidence." They said the proposal that much of the entry-level training now done by public vocational schools be transferred to "proprietary" institutions (i.e., private business schools, beauty schools, etc.) because they do a better job of training was "largely innocuous. The recommendation regarding the role of the private sector remains arguable," the panel said. For more information on the original UCLA study, write: David Goodwin, National Institute of Education, 1200 19th St. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036, and ask for the study titled "Vocational Education and Social Mobility."

BOOKSTORE HOURS - The campus bookstore hours for Sept. 29 through Oct. 16 will be: Mondays through Thursdays, 8 to 4 and Fridays, 8 to 4:30. The Downtown Center bookstore will have extended hours the first three weeks this term also. Bookstore Annex hours for Sept. 29 through Oct. 17 will be: Mondays through Thursdays, 8:30 to 2 and 6 to 8; Fridays 8:30 to 2.

REALLY BIG GARAGE SALES - Two giant "garage sales" are planned this weekend to benefit worthy community groups. Tomorrow from noon to 7 p.m. and Saturday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., the League of Women Voters will hold their fifth annual sale at the Central Presbyterian Church at 1475 Ferry St. On Saturday at 1 p.m., all non-consigned items will be sold for half the original asking price at this sale. On Saturday only, from 8 a.m. to 6:30 p.m., the Rotary Club will sponsor a garage sale in the Payless Garden Shop at Willamette Plaza. They'll be selling furniture, appliances and a variety of other items for bargain hunters.

THE DEBATES COME TO LCC - During October KLCC is co-sponsoring--along with the League of Women Voters, the Neighborhood Associations and the Willamette Valley Observer--a series of four candidates' debates. The debates will be October 2, 9, 23 and 30--all at 7:30 p.m. in the Boardroom. The debates will be open to the public and three of the four debates will be broadcast live. Candidates will field questions from the audience and also respond to called-in questions from listeners and reporters of KLCC, KUGN, KVAL-TV and KEZI-TV. The first debate, Oct. 2, is between City Councilor Scott Lieuallen and real estate agent Jim Hale. Lieuallen and Hale are contenders for the North Eugene seat on the Lane County Board of Commissioners being vacated by Archie Weinstein.

ART - The LCC Art & Applied Design faculty will exhibit their work in various media beginning Monday in the LCC Art Gallery. A reception will be held next Friday, Oct. 3, from 8 to 10 p.m. in the Gallery. The exhibit continues through October 23. Gallery hours are Monday through Thursday, 8 a.m. to 10 p.m.; Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

CLASSROOM ARRANGEMENT - Five alternate seating arrangements for classrooms are suggested in the latest Innovation Abstract from the National Institute for Staff and Organizational Development. Choose the one which fits your goals, suggest the authors, instead of sticking with the traditional rows and columns with teacher at the front. It tends to limit teacher-student interaction to the front-center location, according to research cited in the Abstract. Copies of the publication are available at offices of instructional department heads and the Staff Development Office.

LACK OF INTEREST - Due to slow ticket sales, the All-Staff Barbecue is cancelled. We appreciate the help from several staff who tried to make it go, but had to call it off since current sales indicate it would not break even. Please contact the Staff Development Office for a refund. Do not be alarmed if no one is in the office or answers the phone--we are just very busy this week.

INSERVICE REACTIONS - Staff reactions to this year's Inservice Activities are welcomed by Anne Stewart and Vern Ho. They would like all participant reaction forms and other comments sent to the Staff Development Office by Tuesday, Sept. 30. No comment or reaction will be refused.

A FEW GOOD COOKS - Classical Cuisine and Service has room for a few experienced cooks who would like to increase their cooking skills. The course is taught by Guy Plaa, the Renaissance Room Chef. Contact Judy Dresser (ext. 2521) or Loretta Plaa (ext. 2531) for details about the foods to be prepared. The class meets Thursday evenings 6 to 10 p.m.

BOOKSTORE HOURS CORRECTED - Evening hours for the main campus bookstore were inadvertently left out of yesterday's Daily. From Sept. 29 to Oct. 16, the bookstore will be open Mondays through Thursdays from 8 to 4 AND from 5 to 7:30; Fridays, 8 to 4:30.

FOR SALE FROM PURCHASING - The Purchasing Office still has a variety of equipment and furniture to sell, with departments having first choice. Staff may bid on any item. Come to the Warehouse and inspect the offerings and submit a bid--or for further information call ext. 2208 or 2572. Just a few of the items for sale: two typewriters, IBM model "C," minimum acceptable bid $200; shells from Foodservice chairs, 50¢ each or 3 for $1; carpet chairs, $10 each--choice of colors while they last; carts and stands from $35; under-the-counter refrigerator for $125; wooden table for $50. Come submit a bid; any reasonable offer will be accepted.

KLCC - Tomorrow from 11 a.m. to noon, NEW DIMENSIONS features Dr. John Shinoda Bolen, psychiatrist and author of The Tau of Psychology, talking about the role of synchronicity in our lives and ways in which we can open more freely to new experiences.

CHRISTMAS SEAL RUN - The LCC Respiratory Therapy Program and Nike of Eugene are co-sponsoring a Christmas Seal Run Sunday, October 12. The event will include a 10-kilometer road race and a 2-mile fun run. Both runs start and finish on the U of O campus, with the course winding through the streets of Eugene. All age groups; refreshments, awards, drawings and free t-shirts to participants. Entrance fee is $5 ($6 after October 5) and goes to the Oregon Lung Association. Applications can be picked up at the Health Occupations office, at Nike Eugene or at Sugar Pine Ridge. (The Respiratory Therapy folks are looking for people to assist--if you'd like to help with the run, volunteer at the Health Occupations office or call ext. 2617.)

EMPLOYEE OF THE YEAR - A very surprised Selmer D. Looney, locksmith and special maintenance person in Plant Services, received the 1979-80 Classified/Support Staff Award for Outstanding Service at Friday's all-staff meeting. "I guess it's just for doing my work," said the 13-year LCC employee. He was chosen by a citizen-staff committee which included Bud Land of Science, Joann McClintic of Eugene, Board member Charlene Curry, and Bert Dotson of the President's Office.

Looney, 59, started at LCC's first temporary campus at 200 N. Monroe as a custodian. He has done "practically everything" along the Plant Services line, having prepared himself well for the jack-of-all-trades role by a lifetime of carpentry and millwright assignments. A native of Independence, OR, he studied telegraphy at Columbia School of Business in 1947 and electronics in Los Angeles in 1952. He and his wife, Muriel, have two children and six grandchildren.

Looney was chosen from among 19 nominees, including: Chester Wolf, Electronic Maintenance; Irene Crombie, Purchasing; Georgia Nissen, Business; Rosemary Busby, Adult Education; Jo Anderson, Flight Technology; Deloris Christian, Plant Services; Evelyn Tennis, Student Activities; Karen Ault, Social Science; Carol Tedder, Student Health; Frank Brendel, Facilities; Joyce Kofford, Library; Robert Upp, Plant Services; Marlene Makie, Health Occupations; Wendy Westfall, Security; Don Cronin, Plant Services; Barbara Hasbrouck, Language Arts; Michael Convey, Special Training Programs; and Ellen Jackson, Study Skills Learning Center.

COMMITTEE APPROVED - President Schafer has named an Ad Hoc Committee on Semester System to study the question of whether LCC should consider moving from the quarter to the semester system. The study grows out of the possibility that the University of Oregon may soon be using the semester approach. Bob Marshall, director of admissions, chairs the group, which includes Sue Bayliss of Financial Services; Counseling Director John Bernham; Associate Dean Jim Ellison of Instructional Services; Jim Keizur, Data Processing Head; Thelma Kitterman of Financial Services; Language Arts Chair Jack Powell; and Dick Reid of Performing Arts. The committee is to report by December 1 on the impact of a possible change on students, courses and programs, and staff in both economic and educational ways. Those who would like to offer input to the committee may contact Bob Marshall at ext. 2685.

WELCOME BARBECUE - Plan on having lunch with familiar and new faces Friday, Oct. 3, at the Welcome Back Barbecue. Bob Tegge will offer barbecue chicken, ribs, corn on the cob and other fixin's from 11:30 to 2 in the patio outside the Snack Bar.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT - Faculty anticipating a Professional Development Leave spring term must have their proposals in the Office of Instruction by Friday, October 10. Call Staff Development or the Office of Instruction for details.

REACTIONS - Remember to jot down your reactions or comments on last week's Inservice Activities and send them to the SD office by October 1. This information will help evaluate past programs and plan future ones.

MANAGEMENT RETREAT - Approximately 55% of the Participant Reaction Sheets have been returned to the SD Office. Overall, the responses rate the retreat in the excellent category. The 80 participants express an interest in further training in (1) Interpersonal Skills, (2) Leadership, (3) Conflict Resolution, (4) Decision Making, and (5) Change.

COPY KEY READINGS DUE - Please call in your copy key readings to ext. 2373.

ART WORK PUBLISHED - The work of two instructors in Art & Applied Design is reproduced in the latest issue of the Northwest Review. A series of drawings by Craig Spilman is in the periodical, and two Xerox images by David Joyce appear on the cover. The Northwest Review is published three times a year by the University of Oregon Press and features new work by northwest and national writers and artists.

SCHOLARS PROGRAM - The Fund for the Improvement of Postsecondary Education announces the Mina Shaughnessy Scholars Fund. This program provides "support to individuals to produce a document or engage in an activity which will significantly advance our knowledge of practical solutions to problems in postsecondary education." For program information, candidate requirements, etc., contact Lisl Fenner, Resource Development, 238 CEN (rear of the Library), ext. 2364. Application deadline is October 17.

COMMUNITY ACCESS - Today at 12:40 p.m. on KLCC, Ruth Edwards, Executive Director of the Community Coordinating Child Care Council, will discuss the effects of budget cuts on child care.

First Week of Fall Term

TUESDAY

September 30, 1980

Published for the staff of Lane Community College.
Deadline for contributions is 2 p.m. on the day before publication.
Editor/Coordinator: Jeannine Ferguson, ext. 2201

ENROLLMENT UP - As of Friday, September 19--following continuing student registration--total FTE was up 11.4 percent from the same time last year, according to Research Associate Juanita Foellinger. However, evening class enrollment showed a marked decrease at 46% over last year's. Departments with increases in FTE of over 20% are: Electronics, up 52.2%; Data Processing, up 51.6%; Study Skills, up 45.7%; Art & Applied Design, up 33.6%; Mathematics, up 32.7%; Home Economics, up 31.4%, and Human Development, up 29.6%.

INFORMATION BUSINESS IS THRIVING - The total number of people who came to the Information Window in the ADM Bldg. Monday was a staggering 455. The bulk of those--310--came before 11 a.m. We think it's a record. The most common questions yesterday were "Where is registration?", "Where is Financial Aid?" and "How do I drop a class?"

COPY READINGS REMINDER - Please call in your copy key readings to Loreta at ext. 2373.

BOM OUT - The latest Business Operations Manual was distributed to departments last month. Assistant Dean of Administrative Services Bill Mansell says the new BOM has some valuable information and pointers. Any department that didn't receive one should call Bill at ext. 2581.

TV CLASSES - Fall term, LCC is offering six television classes for credit. COSMOS, a nationally broadcast astronomy course, joins INTRODUCTION TO BUSINESS; MATHEMATICS FOR MODERN LIVING; CONSUMER EDUCATION; YOUR HEALTH, YOUR CHOICE, and THE DRAMA OF CHILD DEVELOPMENT. All of these telecourses will be broadcast on KOZY, cable channel 11, beginning the week of October 6, except COSMOS which will be aired Sundays beginning September 28 at 8 p.m. and repeated Thursdays at 10 p.m. on KOAC, channel 7. All video taped programs are also available for viewing in the LCC Library. Because variable credit is available for some of these courses, entry can be made as late as six weeks into the term; however, instructor consent is necessary for late enrollment. For broadcast times and orientation session information, check the back page of the fall term schedule of classes, consult department listings in the schedule, or call Cynde Leathers at ext. 2533.

KLCC - Today at 12:40 p.m., COMMUNITY ACCESS will take a look at the Northwest Energy Bill and its relationship to Public Power, with guest Keith Parks, general manager of the Eugene Water & Electric Board....This evening from 7:30 to 10 p.m., WOMEN'S NIGHT OUT features single mothers talking about how they cope with their unique problems.

CHRISTMAS SEAL RUN - The LCC Respiratory Therapy Program and Nike of Eugene are co-sponsoring a Christmas Seal Run Sunday, October 12. The event will include a 10-kilometer road race and a 2-mile fun run. Both runs start and finish on the U of O campus, with the course winding through the streets of Eugene. All age groups; refreshments, awards, drawings and free t-shirts to participants. Entrance fee is $5 ($6 after October 5) and goes to the Oregon Lung Association. Applications can be picked up at the Health Occupations office, at Nike Eugene or at Sugar Pine Ridge. (The Respiratory Therapy folks are looking for people to assist--if you'd like to help with the run, volunteer at the Health Occupations office or call ext. 2617.)
