KLCC RANKED FIFTH IN NATION - KLCC is ranked as the fifth most popular public radio station in the country in a just-released listing of the 30 stations qualified for funding from the Corporation for Public Broadcasting. The comparison by CPB is based on the percentage of each station's metropolitan listening area population which listens to the station each week. In the Eugene-Springfield area, 7.9 percent of the population listens to KLCC each week. "What this means," says KLCC Program Director, Jon Schwartz, "is that we don't have more listeners than some New York City or Los Angeles public stations, but that KLCC has a greater percentage of listeners in Eugene than do the public radio stations in either of those two cities."

Schafer interprets November tax base proposal

The TORCH asked LCC President Eldon Schafer to prepare this week's forum. Dr. Schafer responded to questions posed about the LCC Tax Base Proposal appearing on the Nov. 4 ballot.

Why does LCC have a tax base election on the November ballot, so soon after winning levies at the Sept. 16 election?

Schafer: We're most appreciative of the fine voter support on Sept. 16, but that money only takes care of this year's budget. The "A" and "B" levies are for one year only; now, we've got to plan for next year, and the year after. Since tax bases can be placed before voters only at primary and general elections, Nov. 4 is our last chance until 1982.

If the college receives a favorable vote on Nov. 4, what will the result be?

Schafer: The 1976 tax base will be updated to last until 1983. Inflation and growth in enrollment have left the existing base of $5.9 million far behind.

How much money is the college asking for in the new base?

Schafer: LCC seeks a new base of $9.4 million. That's up $1.5 million from the old base and the one-year levies which fund this year's operations.

What advantages would the new base offer?

Schafer: An important one is the reduction of uncertainty for both students and taxpayers. You'll recall that neither the college nor the students knew exactly how many courses we could afford to offer until just before classes for fall term. Those who registered on Sept. 16 could not be permitted to sign up for some 200 classes until the election results were known.

Isn't there a lot of staff time wasted in connection with elections?

Schafer: Yes. We had to place budgets before voters three times this year before our levies were approved. The new tax base will permit us to avoid the use of staff time on budget revisions rather than instruction. We must have lost more than a thousand hours this summer to redoing the budget.

Will the new base eliminate some of those elections?

Schafer: We would plan to live within the base for two years. That would make budget elections unnecessary in that time and could save up to $75,000 in election costs.

What would the new base cost taxpayers?

Schafer: This year's tax rate of 93 cents per thousand dollars of the cash value of property is the lowest in 13 years. We estimate that the rate under the new base would be at or below this year. And the new base would hold the tax increases for the next two years well below the average of the past seven years.

Would the new base qualify for state tax relief?

Schafer: The entire tax base is eligible for the up to 30 percent homeowner and renter tax relief. "B" levies are not eligible for that saving.

How do LCC costs compare with other community colleges?

Schafer: Very well. Our cost per student is second lowest among all Oregon institutions of higher education. We're about 13 percent below the average statewide community college cost per student. I believe LCC represents a pretty good buy for the taxpayers and for students. We may well serve up to 35,000 or so local people this year in spite of cuts in our state funding.

Will approval of the new tax base change programs in any way?

Schafer: The base will assure continued job training. That always has been and will continue to be a primary part of the college mission. That makes LCC very important to the life and economy of the area. The new base allows LCC to continue with the same level of service. That, of course, assumes the defeat of Ballot Measure 6 and continuance of an adequate level of funding from the state.

"LEARNED HELPLESSNESS" - That's the title of the latest innovation abstract. John Roueche and Oscar Mink of the University of Texas say that students should be helped to recognize that they can control their experience and thus feel competent and develop self-esteem. They need to learn that they can achieve; then they will. Read the abstract at offices of instructional department heads of the Staff Development office.

OPPORTUNITIES - Want to know the latest on funding opportunities and staff development opportunities? Drop by the Division of Instructional Services Office and peruse the bulletin boards.

THIS NOON - Recharge your spiritual batteries on your lunch hour by seeing color slides of some fantastic Chinese art. Associate Dean Joyce Hopps will show the slides and share background information about each. The presentation is in the Boardroom, ADM 216. Bring your lunch; the coffee is free.

STAFF DIRECTORIES - Departments, if you haven't picked up your staff phone directories for 1980-81, please do so now at the Information Window, Administration Building.

BOOKSALE - Beginning today, the Bookstore is holding a 25% OFF PAPERBACK SALE in the general books department. Bestselling paperbacks of this past year have been selected for the sale from all subject categories ranging from cookbooks and fiction to psychology and children's literature. Come take a look at the 300+ books on display and leave with an armful!

REMINDER - "Incident at Brown's Ferry," a Nova film about the pros and cons of nuclear power, will be shown today, 11 a.m. and again at noon, at the west end of the cafeteria. No charge.

CHARGE IT - Payment for repairs by instructional departments on staff vehicles/appliances may now be accomplished with Visa or Master Charge. This payment method replaces the staff charges and payroll deduction payment option that previously existed. Of course, payments by check, money order or even cash will still be accepted.

THEATER - On tour after a sell-out season, the Oregon Shakespearean Festival play, "Sizwe Bansi Is Dead," will be performed Nov. 7 and 8, 8 p.m., at the Lane County Conference Center (13th & Madison). Tickets are $5, $6, and $7, and may be purchased by LCC staff from Pat Creal, Rm 409 Center, or David Zupan in Language Arts.

***FROM STAFF DEVELOPMENT...

The Staff Development Office has a series of modules from Media Systems Corporation. These modules are designed for instructors and educators. Three recent arrivals are:

Communication Styles in the Classroom, by Nancy Armes. Describes six communication types and has the learner identify his/her type. Nancy then shows how your communication type affects your teaching.

Building Success in the Classroom, by Nancy Armes. This module defines terms like locus of control and non-traditional student. It offers 15 ways to build a supportive environment in the classroom.

Confronting Student Attitudes, by John Rouché. Defines beliefs, values, prejudices, attitudes and preferences. Next, he has you working through five strategies for changing attitudes.

All of these modules may be checked out from the SD office for your use.

THANKS!

About 81 (one or two may have missed the sign-in table) fine LCC faculty, classified staff, administrators, and students canvassed door-to-door on Saturday. They helped make up a total of almost 700 teachers, other school staff, and friends who handed out some 60,000 flyers supporting our tax base and giving information on "6". The campaign was organized by the Eugene and Lane County affiliates of the Oregon Education Association.

WHERE WE STAND - As of yesterday morning, United Way contributions and pledges from all LCC employee groups totaled $1454. This is far short of our goal of $10,000, to be met by November 14. If you'd like to help, contact your UW captain: Mitch Stepanovitch, LCCEF; Cherry Taylor, LCCEA; Diane Dann, Management; Loretta Daniel, DTC; and Al Owens, Florence.

BUSINESS CAREERS DAY - More than 25 Lane County employers are on campus today for Business Careers Day. Five back-to-back panel/workshop sessions will be held in Forum 308/9, beginning at 9 a.m. They are open to all students, and require no registration. Call the ASLCC offices at ext. 2330 for more information.

AUTO PAINTING - Applications are being taken for auto paint student assignments. No complete paint jobs; no sheet metal damage. See John R. Haurigan, Machine Tech Building, Room 126, between 9 a.m. and 1 p.m. Please, no phone calls.

MUSIC MANAGERS MEET - The Oregon College Music Administrators (OCMA), chaired by Ed Ragozzino, will hold a day-long meeting at LCC Friday. These people are all administrators of music programs and departments in the state's public and private colleges. They will meet in the Boardroom.

CHRISTMAS WORKSHOP - Unplug the Christmas Machine is a free workshop that will help you: (1) take a hard look at your recent Christmases; (2) decide what is most important to you about Christmas; (3) fantasize a perfect Christmas holiday; (4) find ideas for easy holiday food and gifts; (5) put it all together in a sample plan. Come join us Saturday, November 15, 8:30 a.m. to noon, in HEA 114. Child care available on request for children ages 3-6. Pre-registration is required; call Cynde or Beth at ext. 2533.

BOOKSALE - Don't miss the Bookstore's 25% off PAPERBACK SALE going on all this week. Best-selling paperbacks of this past year have been selected from all subject categories. Come take a look at the 300+ books on display and leave with an armful!

KLCC - Tonight at 7:30 p.m., KLCC presents "Native Americans: Two Stories," a program on the recent U.S. Supreme Court decision to award Sioux Indian tribes in South Dakota $122 million as restitution for the government's acquisition of some of their sacred land.

FROM THE RENAISSANCE ROOM - Today's special includes: Golden Surf mocktail, a whipped blend of orange juice, banana and cream; Potato Leek Soup; Chicken Allain, a sandwich of rye bread filled with chicken salad, tomatoes, cucumber and lettuce; Key Lime Pie; and your choice of imported coffee or herb tea, all for $3.40. The Renaissance Room is open 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday. Call ext. 2697 for reservations.

VOTE TOTAL - The final count in Lane County on LCC's tax base was 61,510 yes (54%), 53,446 no, with 12,727 undervotes (people who didn't vote on this issue). Among community colleges statewide, only LCC and Portland CC won new bases. Ballot Measure 6, in Lane County, received 36,723 yes votes and 84,505 no votes (70%). If undervotes and overvotes are added in, the percentage of no votes is still 66%.

ENERGY DAYS - The Willamette Science & Technology Center will inaugurate a new energy exhibit area during Energy Days, Nov. 8-24. Among exhibits on display will be a "Home Energy Cost Savings Calculator," which gives the consumer a dollar value for savings available from applying various energy conservation measures; and the "Energy Environment Simulator," a computer which simulates the U.S. energy situation. During Energy Days, demonstrations of the computer will be given on Saturdays at noon and 4 p.m. and Sundays at noon. Demonstrations can be scheduled for school groups during the week. For more information, call Gail Winterman at WISTEC, 484-9027. WISTEC is located at 2300 Centennial Blvd., in Alton Baker Park.

AUTO PAINTING - Applications are being taken for auto paint student assignments. No complete paint jobs and no sheet metal damage accepted. See John R. Haurigan, Machine Tech Bldg., Room 126, between 9 a.m. and 1 p.m. No phone calls please.

THEATER - On tour after a sell-out season, the Oregon Shakespearean Festival play, "Sizwe Bansi Is Dead," will be performed November 7 and 8 at 8 p.m., Lane County Conference Center (13th & Madison). Tickets are $5, $6, and $7, and may be purchased by LCC staff and students from Pat Creal, Center 409, or David Zupan in Language Arts.

COMMUNITY ACCESS - Today's guest on KLCC-FM at 12:40 p.m. is John Vogel of the Mother Earth news research staff.

BOOKSALE - The 25% off paperback sale at the LCC Bookstore continues, with bestselling paperbacks of the past year from all subject categories, ranging from cookbooks and fiction to psychology and children's literature.

RENAISSANCE ROOM - Today's special begins with a Sea Breeze mocktail, a grapefruit juice and club soda blend served in a salt-rimmed glass with a mint garnish, followed by an antipasto appetizer--an assortment of salami, deviled egg, stuffed celery, marinated mushrooms and tomato wedges. The entree is a meatball sandwich: tender meatballs in a rich Italian tomato sauce on a crusty French roll. For dessert--Spumoni ice cream. The special includes your choice of imported coffee or herbal tea, all for $3.40. The Renaissance Room also serves a Vegetarian Sandwich on homemade wheat bread with soup or salad, coffee or tea, and dessert for $2.75; the Renaissance Royal Burger Feast for $2.95, and Quiche du Jour for $2.50. Both the burger feast and quiche meals include soup, garnish, coffee or tea and dessert. Call ext. 2697 for reservations.

CHRISTMAS WORKSHOP - Unplug the Christmas Machine is a free workshop that will help you: (1) take a hard look at your recent Christmases; (2) decide what is most important to you about Christmas; (3) fantasize a perfect Christmas holiday; (4) find ideas for easy holiday food and gifts; (5) put it all together in a sample plan. APPOINTED - Leslie Rasor has been appointed to head an LCC team that subcontracts with the City of Eugene to train CETA employees. Her new title is Associate Department Head, Special Training Programs--City of Eugene CETA Project. Her new role moves her from faculty to management status. Other members of the training team are Marsha Willard, Training Specialist, who moves from faculty to classified status, and Mary Jane Eastman, who will now serve as City of Eugene CETA liaison in addition to her duties as Lane County CETA liaison.

SORRY FOR THE INCONVENIENCE - The phone system for the main campus was "down" for a few hours on Tuesday, Nov. 4. The problem was created when one of PNB's circuit packs shorted out. Restoration of service was further delayed when the back-up circuit pack malfunctioned. During those hours, sporadic phone service was experienced by many as PNB repairers worked to get the system up and functioning normally. Facilities apologizes for any inconvenience this may have caused (though some staff expressed delight over being able to get more work done without phone interruptions).

FOR SALE FROM PURCHASING - The Purchasing Dept. has two Capris--one a 1972 model and the other a 1973--that they are "parting out" (junking out) from the automotive program. The cars are complete except for radiators, engines and transmissions. They will take bids on any parts remaining on these vehicles. They also have a 1967 Plymouth body to be sold in the same way. They have one Hyer Dynavision, inoperative, complete or parts. Take bids on any parts to the Purchasing Office. First come, first served. No offer will be rejected, but all are subject to Mechanics Dept. approval.

THEATER - On tour after a sell-out season, the Oregon Shakespearean Festival play, "Sizwe Bansi Is Dead," will be performed November 7 and 8 at 8 p.m., Lane County Conference Center (13th & Madison). Tickets are $5, $6, and $7, and may be purchased by LCC staff and students from Pat Creal, Center 409, or David Zupan in Language Arts.

COMMUNITY ACCESS - Today's guests on KLCC, 89.7 FM, at 12:40 p.m. are the two actors from the Ashland performance of the play "Sizwe Bansi Is Dead," playing in Eugene this weekend.

BOOKSALE - The 25% off paperback sale at the LCC Bookstore continues, with bestselling paperbacks of the past year from all subject categories, ranging from cookbooks and fiction to psychology and children's literature.

DID YOU KNOW? - A donation of $1.00 per month to United Way of Lane County will provide 5 meals for shut-in senior citizens through the Red Cross' Meals on Wheels program.

Seventh Week of Fall Term

MONDAY

November 10, 1980

Published for the staff of Lane Community College.
Deadline for contributions is 2 p.m. on the day before publication.
Editor/Coordinator: Jeannine Ferguson, ext. 2201

RADIOTHON - Several special programs are planned this week as KLCC holds its fourth radiothon in two years in hopes of raising $20,000 from listeners. The fundraiser's theme, "Make a Difference," reflects how much KLCC daily operation depends on individual donations. KLCC receives a large portion of its budget from the LCC general fund, and partial federal funding through the Public Telecommunications Financing Act. But these two sources alone could not maintain KLCC's programming at its current levels, says KLCC Development Director Gina Ing. Ing says almost one-fourth of the station's budget is based on projected community contributions. Live performances from the KLCC studios of local classical and jazz musicians will be among the features. The public is invited to the performances and to a week-long open house.

ALL STAFF SURVEY - A Child Care Survey is being distributed to all full and part-time staff members. Even if you do not have any children 12 or under, please indicate so by checking "No" and return your questionnaire to Research Associate, Office of Instruction, as addressed on the questionnaire. If you do have children, please complete the six short questions, fold, staple, and return through intercampus mail. The LCC Home Economics Department and the Administration are uncertain if there is a need among staff for child care services. At this point, they are also uncertain if it would be possible to offer services if a need is found. Please help by returning your questionnaire. If you don't receive one, call Pat at ext. 2308.

OCH GRANTS - The grants administrator for the Oregon Committee for the Humanities, Dr. Wayne Mell, will be in Eugene on Wednesday, Nov. 12, to talk to interested faculty about OCH's grant program. If you are now (or may be in the future) interested in applying for humanities grant money, or if you have questions about what and how much is available, the kinds of projects that get funded, or how to go about submitting a successful application, please plan to attend the meeting. It will be held in the Dad's Room of the Erb Memorial Union, University of Oregon campus, at 7:30 p.m. Contact Britta Hansen, OCH liaison, at ext. 2419 if you have questions.

GET READY - Take the pledge, and promise not to smoke for the day on Thursday, November 20. If you smoke, but wish you didn't, ask at Student Health Services for a pledge card, and join quitters across the nation.

INSURANCE - Liz Kelso, our insurance agent of record, will NOT be on campus tomorrow morning for her usual Tuesday session. She will return to LCC next Tuesday, November 18, at 11 a.m. as usual.

GIVEAWAY - The Child Development Center in Home Ec will be glad to save food scraps for your pig or farm animals. All you have to do is pick them up daily. Stop by the Home Ec kitchen before 2 p.m. or call Clify at ext. 2524 if you want them.

THEATER - Good seats are still available for the Performing Arts production of "The Man Who Came to Dinner," which opens November 14. Tickets are $4 (or $3 for LCC students with current ID); reserve yours by calling the box office at ext. 2202 between 10 and 4.

COME LEARN ABOUT THE GREEN CHAIN - Ken Schultz, employee relations manager with Champion-International, will speak about employment opportunities in the wood products industry this noon in Forum 308. He will focus on entry level jobs, with emphasis on opportunities for women. A film on choker setting will be shown, and working the "green chain" will be described. Instructors, please recommend it to your interested students. Call the Women's Center, ext. 2353, for more information.

ENERGY DAYS - The Willamette Science & Technology Center will inaugurate a new energy exhibit area during Energy Days, Nov. 8-24. Among exhibits on display will be a "Home Energy Cost Savings Calculator," which gives the consumer a dollar value for savings available from applying various energy conservation measures; and the "Energy Environment Simulator," a computer which simulates the U.S. energy situation. During Energy Days, demonstrations of the computer will be given on Saturdays at noon and 4 p.m. and Sundays at noon. Demonstrations can be scheduled for school groups during the week. For more information, call Gail Winterman at WISTEC, 484-9027. WISTEC is located at 2300 Centennial Blvd., in Alton Baker Park.

FOR SALE FROM PURCHASING - The Purchasing Dept. has two Capris--one a 1972 model and the other a 1973--that they are "parting out" (junking out) from the automotive program. Seventh Week of Fall Term

WEDNESDAY

November 12, 1980

Published for the staff of Lane Community College.
Deadline for contributions is 2 p.m. on the day before publication.
Editor/Coordinator: Jeannine Ferguson, ext. 2201

FINAL ELECTION TOTALS - LCC won its new tax base at the November 4 election 61,980 to 54,419 (53% yes). Some 89 of 171 precincts were supportive (52%). Only 9 precincts (5%) had less than a 40% Yes vote. Eugene School District again carried the election for the College, giving us 79 of the 89 winning precincts, a 61% Yes vote, 58% of the District-wide Yes vote, 4 precincts that voted over 80% Yes, 18 precincts that voted in the 70% Yes category, and heavy turnouts of voters, some precincts over 80%. Possible reasons for the victory: a reasonable, defensible request; distribution of some 17,000 fliers door-to-door on the 2 Saturdays preceding the election by about 100 LCC people and some 350 OEA teachers and others, organized by Language Arts Prof Ted Romoser; a post card mailing to 118,000 homes; the 77% turnout of voters; positive editorial and news coverage; visible university support, etc.

X-COUNTRY CHAMPS - The LCC Women's cross country team, coached by Mike Manley, won the National Junior College Athletic Association championship Saturday in Coeur D'Alene, Idaho. This is the second straight national championship for the team, which was formed only 4 years ago. The Titans finished with 50 points--more than 30 ahead of the second-place team, Golden Valley Lutheran of Minnesota. Sandy Dickerson and Martha Swatt of the LCC team were awarded All America honors.

TONIGHT - The LCC Board of Education meets at 8 in ADM 216 to handle a number of housekeeping matters. The agenda includes a request for approval of a new one-year program in Word Processing, a quarterly financial report which indicates the College is proceeding well within its budget and is in good financial condition, a request to proceed with energy-saving adaptations to the Auto Technology and Machine Technology Buildings at a cost of $43,317 in state construction allocations and $37,700 from federal energy grants, canvass of the November 4 election, appointment of a person to the LCC Budget Committee, a request for $12,600 to maintain LCC's membership in the Cooperative Museum Commission, and adoption of a January-July 1981 budget calendar.

CHINESE ART - An exhibit of contemporary painting and calligraphy from the Republic of China is displayed in the Library mezzanine, now through November 26. The collection, compiled by the National Museum of History in Taipei, includes some 50 art scrolls in color, and representative samples of traditional Chinese calligraphy. The exhibit is the first activity to grow out of LCC's membership in the Pacific Northwest International/Intercultural Education Consortium.

BROWN BAG TALK - Kate Barry, Women's Studies instructor, will discuss "Beyond the Myths and Stereotypes of Women" Tuesday, Nov. 18, at noon in the Boardroom. Kate will explore what she believes will be happening to women in the future, in contrast to what our myths and stereotypes might lead us to believe will be happening.

NOTICE TO ALL DEPARTMENTS - After a six-month waiting period in a position that requires 600 or more hours per year, an employee is eligible to become a PERS member and must begin making contributions. ALL LCC employees, with the exception of full-time students, are subject to PERS LAW. If you think ANY of your employees are approaching or have passed their 600-hour minimum, notify Nancy at 2589. With your cooperation we can avoid having to collect past-due PERS monies and thereby avoid irate employees.

POSITION POSTING - Because this is a "short" week, Personnel will accept requests to post positions for Monday, November 17, until Thursday, November 13, at 5 p.m.

SUMMER WORKSHOP - "Instructional Computing in the Community College" is a four-week National Science Foundation workshop to help faculty develop computer assisted instruction. The Bakersfield College workshop is for full-time faculty in physical science, life science, engineering, mathematics or social science. Participants will receive a $1,600 stipend. Applications are in the Staff Development. Deadline is December 4.

REMINDER - Tonight at 7:30 in the Dad's Room of the EMU, U of O campus, the grants administrator from the Oregon Committee for the Humanities will speak to interested humanities faculty about project grants. Call Britta Hansen, OCH liaison, at ext. 2419 for more information.

ALL STAFF SURVEY - A Child Care Survey is being distributed to all full and part-time staff members. Even if you do not have any children 12 or under, please indicate so by checking "No" and return your questionnaire to Research Associate, Office of Instruction, as addressed on the questionnaire. If you do have children, please complete the six short questions, fold, staple, and return through intercampus mail. APPRECIATION - A long-distance caller from Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., told Naomi Soules that she thought switchboard operator Carole Carlson was "one of the loveliest people she had ever talked to"...Peggy Lindahl, Weatherization Installation Coordinator for Eugene Municipal Utilities, praises Allan Gubrud, Science, for a week-long "Residential Energy Analysis" class he conducted this fall for EWEB employees. Lindahl says, "We learned much, enjoyed much, and came away encouraged and eager to try our wings"...Leeann Janush of the Oregon Fire Standards and Accreditation Board thanks Tito Balducci, Media Productions Coordinator, for a slide/tape he produced on "Smokers' Carelessness"...Pete Peterson, Mass Communications, received commendation from Galen Rarick, Dean of the U of O Journalism School, for his help with the High School Press Conference held at the U of O last month. Rarick calls Pete's help "beyond what we would expect a workshop leader to do."

MARKETING MATH - The successful marketing of the LCC Math Department is the subject of an article in the November, 1980, issue of The Mathematics Teacher, a publication of the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics. The article describes the components of the successful promotional program--including creation of comfortable and attractive class and study areas, staging of registration events, development of a positive image of mathematics, and development of new courses--and documents enrollment increases that resulted. The article is accompanied by a photo of LCC math faculty members in their very fetching promotional t-shirts.

ATTENTION LCC PART-TIME FACULTY - This week those teachers who are part of the LCCPTA unit should receive an important mailing from your association which includes information about current contract negotiations, a questionnaire, and a membership form. All those eligible for the unit (those who have taught less than half-time for 2 or more terms within an academic year, or 12 units in a single term) should fill out the questionnaire and new membership form and send them by the end of this week to Susan Swan, Language Arts, via campus mail or conventional mail. Anyone eligible who does not receive this mailing by Friday should leave his or her name with Susan also.

BLOODMOBILE - It's bloodmobile time again: Wednesday, November 19. Please call Student Health at ext. 2665 to make an appointment for this important donation.

JOINT FORCES - If you enjoy dance, gymnastics and theatre, come see them uniquely combined in a performance by Joint Forces, a Eugene-based group of "moving improvisers." The four dancers, who explore, teach and perform a movement form called Contact Improvisation, will present a lecture/demonstration Monday, November 17, 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., in the Auxiliary Gym. Monday evening from 5 to 7, a master class will be taught by Andrew Harwood, a founder of Joint Forces. Both events are free. The one-day residency is sponsored by the LCC athletics department. For more information, call Mary Seereiter at ext. 2215.

MULTICULTURAL SALE - The Multicultural Center is having a sale today, 10 to 3 in the cafeteria, to raise funds for continued operation. They will be selling ponchos and other clothing from Mexico.

COMMUNICATION WORKSHOP - The Voluntary Action Center of Eugene is sponsoring a workshop on "Communication at Work" next Wednesday, November 19, from 8:30 a.m. to noon at the Eugene Public Library. The workshop will examine the various systems of communication found in most work situations, with emphasis on barriers to effective communication and how to remove them. Cost is $15; registration deadline is November 17. Call the Center at 342-4451 for more information.

PAYROLL - November payroll verification sheets will be available in Personnel at 1:30 p.m. today. Completed and signed sheets are due back in Personnel by 5 p.m. tomorrow. Payday is November 26.

On November 20, cigarettes go out across the nation for the American Cancer Society's Great American Smokeout. If you are a smoker, pledge a day off from cigarettes. Who knows? You may never light up again.

CHRISTMAS WORKSHOP - Unplug the Christmas Machine is a free workshop that will help you: (1) take a hard look at your recent Christmases; (2) decide what is most important to you about Christmas; (3) fantasize a perfect Christmas holiday; (4) find ideas for easy holiday food and gifts; (5) put it all together in a sample plan. Come join us Saturday, November 15, 8:30 a.m. to noon, in HEA 114. Child care available on request for children ages 3-6. Pre-registration is required; call Cynde or Beth at ext. 2533.

COMMUNITY ACCESS - Today at 12:40 p.m. on KLCC, 89.7 FM, Larry Dean discusses Voice of the People, an antihomosexual organization that campaigned against Jim Weaver and Scott Lieuaillen in the recent election campaigns.

RENAISSANCE ROOM - Today's special features a Pineapple Pickup Frappe'; Cream of Mushroom Soup or Garden Salad; Monte Cristo Sandwich (turkey, ham and Swiss cheese slices on egg-dipped bread) served with a medley of fresh fruit; and for dessert, Carrot Cake with Cream Cheese Frosting. Your choice of coffee or herbal tea is included, all for the price of $3. The Renaissance Room is open 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday. Call ext. 2697 for reservations.

Seventh Week of Fall Term

FRIDAY

November 14, 1980

Published for the staff of Lane Community College.
Deadline for contributions is 2 p.m. on the day before publication.
Editor/Coordinator: Jeannine Ferguson, ext. 2201

TAX BASE RESULTS - Only two of the nine community colleges which submitted tax bases to the voters in the Nov. 4 election were successful. They were Portland, which won approval of a new base of $11.8 million, and LCC. Tax bases were rejected for Blue Mountain, Central Oregon, Linn-Benton, Clatsop, Clackamas, Chemeketa and Treasure Valley. All except Linn-Benton, which has a continuing tax base, will have to seek one-year levies for the 1981-82 school year.

CC BOARD MEMBERS IN THE LEGISLATURE - Three community college board members will be in the new Oregon state legislature when it convenes January 12. They are Howard Cherry of Portland, Bill Markham of Umpqua and Barbara Roberts of Mt. Hood. The lone woman in the Senate, Ruth McFarland, is an instructor at Mt. Hood.

APPOINTED - Associate Dean Jim Ellison has been appointed by Eugene Mayor Gus Keller to the Mayor's Blue and Gold Committee. The committee is "an ongoing education program to let Eugene residents know about the positive services by the City...(including) soliciting citizen ideas and gathering support for City programs."

HAIL TO THE CHIEF - Doug White, Health Occupations head, is this year's president of the University of Oregon Alumni Association. The board of directors chose him on September 6. He oversees policy-setting and committee activities and acts as official representative of the Association.

ATTENTION WOMEN - The American Association of Women in Community and Junior Colleges and The League for Innovation in the Community College have been awarded a grant from the Fund for the Improvement of Postsecondary Education. The grant will support a project to provide training for community college women to become administrators. Program components include 1) a structured mentor/trainee project to develop administrative skills; 2) a regional workshop for skill building and presentations by experts on management; and 3) an optional national conference. Sixty women will be selected nationally for the first year. Criteria for selection include 1) a minimum of three years community college experience; 2) bachelors or higher degree; 3) the secured commitment of the applicant's college; and 4) selection of a mentor and a project. Applications must be postmarked no later than Dec. 1. Additional information and application forms are available in the Staff Development office.

TOXIC SHOCK SYNDROME - Student Health has a resource folder with a selection of the latest medical and lay literature on toxic shock syndrome. Staff are welcome to drop by and review the information. Staff at Student Health also will try to answer any questions you may have.

RESPIRATORY THERAPY PROGRAM CHANGE - The admissions deadline for the Respiratory Therapy program has been changed from July 24 to June 1, 1981. Please note this important change and relay the information to all students desiring admission into this program. If you have questions, call Doug White at ext. 2617.

WORKSHOP CANCELLED - The "Getting It All Together" adult education workshop scheduled for today has been cancelled.

PERSONNEL MATTERS - The LCC Board Wednesday night approved one-year appointments for the current academic year for: Glenna Clemens, Health Occupations; Mark Johnson, Flight Technology; Charles Ruff, Language Arts; and Steve Chlebo, Electronics. The Board accepted the resignations of Gerald Davenport, Special Training; and Mandy Manderino, Health Occupations, who will go into graduate teaching and research. The Board also extended President Schafer's contract for an additional year, to June 30, 1983.

CAREERS DAY FOLLOW-UP - Tom Birkenhead, Business, and David Anderson, ASLCC President, representing the co-sponsoring organizations for the LCC Business Careers Day held last week, report that the event was "successful on all counts." An estimated 500-750 students participated in the panel/workshop sessions, and Birkenhead and Anderson say comments of employers on the panels indicate they were impressed with the student turnout and the quality of student questions. Student comments in about 100 written critiques also indicated an enthusiastic and positive response. Birkenhead and Anderson recommend that Careers Day become an annual event at LCC, with participation from other departments emphasizing employment opportunities in their particular areas.

STEINEM - Gloria Steinem, feminist editor and writer, will speak Tuesday, 8 p.m., at McArthur Court on the U of O campus. Tickets are $3 for the general public, and are available at the U of O Bookstore, the EMU Main Desk, and at B. Dalton's Bookseller.

HELP - If you attended the Managing Your Time Workshop on November 6 at the Thunderbird Inn, please call Carol at ext. 2360 and leave your name. The Staff Development office is interested in feedback on this workshop. Thanks.

NURSING HOMES - A Nursing Home Seminar is scheduled for Tuesday, November 25, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Campbell Senior Center. The seminar is for residents of nursing homes and their families and friends; volunteers; those who have considered a nursing home for themselves or a family member; those looking for alternatives to a nursing home; and any other interested persons. The seminar is sponsored by Senior Law Service, a program of Lane County Legal Aid. The seminar is free, but pre-registration by November 19 is requested. To register, call Senior Law Service at 342-6056 or send your name, address and phone number to: Senior Law Service, 1309 Willamette, Eugene 97401.

ATTENTION LCC PART-TIME FACULTY - This week those teachers who are part of the LCCPTA unit should receive an important mailing from your association which includes information about current contract negotiations, a questionnaire, and a membership form. All those eligible for the unit (those who have taught less than half-time for 2 or more terms within an academic year, or 12 units in a single term) should fill out the questionnaire and new membership form and send them by the end of this week to Susan Swan, Language Arts, via campus mail or conventional mail. Anyone eligible who does not receive this mailing by Friday should leave his or her name with Susan also.

BLOODMOBILE - It's bloodmobile time again: Wednesday, November 19. Please call Student Health at ext. 2665 to make an appointment for this important donation.

MULTICULTURAL SALE - The Multicultural Center Sale is continuing today, 10 to 3 in the cafeteria, to raise funds for continued operation. They will be selling ponchos and other clothing from Mexico.

Eighth Week of Fall Term

MONDAY

November 17, 1980

Published for the staff of Lane Community College.
Deadline for contributions is 2 p.m. on the day before publication.
Editor/Coordinator: Jeannine Ferguson, ext. 2201

APPOINTED - Alexander Stalowitz of Eugene has been appointed to a 3-year term on the LCC Budget Committee. He presently serves also on the KLCC Advisory Commission and is employed by Lane County in its employment division. Stalowitz was chosen by Board member Les Hendrickson. The Budget Committee starts its preliminary work next January toward establishment of the 1981-82 College budget. Also serving are Ken Parks of Lowell, Lester Zook of Springfield, Edna Wooten of Eugene, Annette Crawford of Eugene, Dean VanLeuven of Veneta, and Jim Rear of Junction City.

MULTICULTURAL DAY - The Multicultural Center is sponsoring a Multicultural Day Wednesday, and they're asking that LCC staff and students dress in their "primary native garb" that day. The day will include a lunch of native foods, such as traditional African dishes prepared by Black Student Union members, and Mexican food served by Latinos. The lunch will be served in the Multicultural Center, Rm 409 CEN, from noon until all the food is gone. The meal is free--all that's asked is that you bring a toy to be donated to the Toys for Tots program in exchange for your lunch. Call Pat Creal at ext. 2276 for more information.

CHRISTMAS CANCELLED - Well, not really. But the Staff Development committee, which sponsored last year's yule staff party, has decided not to have a party this year. Committee members muttered something about downtown rooms being already booked up, and lack of lead time. The SD committee has some other party plans in the works for next term, however; watch the Daily for details.

YOU'RE INVITED - A retirement reception for Pat Grant, Director of Purchasing, is planned for Friday, 2 to 4 p.m., in the President's Dining Room (Renaissance Room). Come help give Pat a rousing send-off.

BROWN BAG TALK - Kate Barry, Women's Studies instructor, will discuss what she believes will be happening to women in the future, vs. what our myths and stereotypes might lead us to believe the future will hold, in "Beyond the Myths and Stereotypes of Women" tomorrow at noon in the Boardroom. Bring your lunch and lend her your ear. Call the Women's Center at ext. 2353 for more information.

CHINA ART EXPLAINED - Before stopping at the Library to enjoy the Chinese Art Exhibit, visit the Bookstore and buy a copy of the Exhibit Catalogue which explains each painting in detail. While you're there, take a look at the Bookstore's beautiful cards, mugs and Chinese stationery.

CHINA WEEK FILMS - "Buddhism, Man, and Nature," narrated by Alan Watts, and "Misunderstanding China" will be shown from noon to 1 in the Forum Bldg. all this week. Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday the films will be shown in Forum 309; Thursday they will be shown in Forum 307.

OPEN HOUSE PLANNED - The Health Occupations Department is having an open house Monday, Dec. 1, from 9 to 11 a.m. in the Health Bldg. Instructors and counselors will be available to answer questions about LCC's six health career programs. Classrooms and labs will be open. Application packets will be available for people who wish to enter one of the programs next fall. Anyone interested in health career information is encouraged to attend the open house.

HOW TO SUCCEED - Koyen and Associates is sponsoring a seminar for managerial and professional women on Dec. 10-12 and 17-19. Their representative will be here on Wednesday from 2-3:30 in the Boardroom to describe the seminar and answer questions. Some of the seminar topics include: playing creative win-win with co-workers and employees; having a clear intention to succeed; and how your personal beliefs create or destroy your success and happiness. The seminar is open to both men and women. For further information, call Vern Ho, 2260, or Mary Cudney, 2355.

BEOG GRANTS UP, BUT... - The Oregon State Scholarship Commission says 12,103 community college students received BEOG grants during the 1979-80 school year totaling nearly $7.7 million. This was 2,999 more students than were served the previous year when 9,109 students split nearly $5.6 million in grants. However, the average community college BEOG is still lower than for any other type of institution, including beauty colleges and other proprietary institutions. The average grant for an Oregon student attending a private college during 1979-80 was $1,090; for public four-year colleges it was $871; for proprietary schools it was $831; and for community colleges, it was $635. This is partly due to the fact that the amount of a grant is dependent on a student's total costs, and community college costs are lower than those of other schools.

REMAINING INDEPENDENT - Faculty at Linn-Benton voted down a proposal that it affiliate with the Oregon Education Association. Nine community college faculty collective bargaining groups currently are affiliated with OEA, one of the state's largest unions. LBCC has the only faculty collective bargaining association not affiliated with a larger union.

--from OCCA Digest (last 2 items)

ATTENTION LCC PART-TIME FACULTY - Send your questionnaire today! Last week those teachers who are part of the LCCPTA unit received a mailing from the association with information about contract negotiations, a questionnaire, and a membership form. All those eligible (those who have taught less than half-time for 2 or more terms within an academic year, or 12 units in a single term) should fill out the questionnaire and new membership form and send them immediately to Susan Swan, Language Arts--or let her know if you are eligible but didn't receive the mailing.

JOINT FORCES - A Eugene-based group of four dancers who explore, teach and perform a movement form called Contact Improvisation will perform today from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in the Auxiliary Gym. This evening from 5 to 7, a master class will be taught by Andrew Harwood, a founder of Joint Forces. Both events are free. The one-day residency is sponsored by the LCC athletics department. For more information, call Mary Seereiter at ext. 2215.

CRISIS RESOURCES - A panel discussion by representatives from crisis intervention programs in Lane County is scheduled tomorrow evening at 7 p.m. in the Eugene City Hall Council Chambers. They will discuss community resources that can help with crisis-level stress situations in the coming holiday season. The meeting is open to the public; sponsored by the Mental Health Assn.

TUESDAY

November 18, 1980

Published for the staff of Lane Community College.
Deadline for contributions is 2 p.m. on the day before publication.
Editor/Coordinator: Jeannine Ferguson, ext. 2201

BLOOD DRIVE - Did you know that since last August the LCC Blood Club has released 54 credits for LCC staff and students? They need donations so they can help when needed. The Bloodmobile will be on campus tomorrow afternoon--call Student Health, ext. 2665, to make an appointment.

CHILD CARE MEETING - A meeting of the Child Care Task Force is scheduled for Friday, November 21, from 9 to 10 a.m. in PE 214. All interested persons are invited to attend.

CLINIC A SUCCESS - Friday evening, the LCC Athletic Department conducted a cross-country clinic for high school coaches and athletes who were in Eugene for Saturday's State High School Cross-Country Championships, hosted by LCC. About 175 people attended the clinic, a very good turnout for the first-time event, says Athletic Director Dale Bates. He says they may try to make the clinic an annual event before the state championships, since the clinic not only provides a service to the state's high schools but also helps with LCC recruiting efforts. Speakers at Friday's clinic were local athletes Mary Decker and Bill McChesney, and LCC cross-country coaches Mike Manley and Harland Yriarte.

THEATRE - The LCC Performing Arts Department season opener, "The Man Who Came to Dinner," is playing Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday this week. Tickets are still available--don't miss this favorite American comedy. Call the box office between 10 and 4 daily, ext. 2202.

HOW TO SUCCEED - Koyen and Associates is sponsoring a seminar for managerial and professional women on Dec. 10-12 and 17-19. Their representative will be here on Wednesday from 2-3:30 in the Boardroom to describe the seminar and answer questions. Some of the seminar topics include: playing creative win-win with co-workers and employees; having a clear intention to succeed; and how your personal beliefs create or destroy your success and happiness. The seminar is open to both men and women. For further information, call Vern Ho, 2260, or Mary Cudney, 2355.

AUTO PAINTING - Applications are being taken once again for auto paint student assignments. No complete paint jobs and no sheet metal damage accepted. See John Haurigan, Machine Tech. Bldg., room 126, between 9 am and 1 pm. No phone calls, please.

BROWN BAG TALK - Kate Barry, Women's Studies instructor, will discuss what she believes will be happening to women in the future, vs. what our myths and stereotypes might lead us to believe the future will hold, in "Beyond the Myths and Stereotypes of Women" today at noon in the Boardroom. Bring your lunch and lend her your ear. Call the Women's Center at ext. 2353 for more information.

MULTICULTURAL DAY - Don't forget the Multicultural Center's lunch tomorrow, featuring native foods prepared by Black Student Union and Latino students. The lunch will be served in Rm. 409 CEN, from noon until the food is gone. Price is one toy to be donated to Toys for Tots.

CHINA WEEK FILMS - "Buddhism, Man, and Nature," narrated by Alan Watts, and "Misunderstanding China" will be shown from noon to 1 in the Forum Bldg. all this week. Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday the films will be shown in Forum 309; Thursday they will be shown in Forum 307.

Cigarette smoking is the major cause of lung cancer. According to the American Cancer Society, once you have this disease, your chance of being saved is only 1 in 10. If you STOP smoking, however, the risk diminishes. What are you waiting for? Join the Great American Smokeout, Nov. 20.

ATTENTION WOMEN - The American Association of Women in Community and Junior Colleges and The League for Innovation in the Community College have been awarded a grant from the Fund for the Improvement of Postsecondary Education. The grant will support a project to provide training for community college women to become administrators. GRILL THE DEANS - Take time to correct rumors and half-information. Meet with Bill Berry, Jack Carter and Gerry Rasmussen at noon today in the Boardroom.

CLASS SCHEDULES TO BE MAILED - The Winter Term Report & Class Schedule will be mailed to district residents during the first week of December, and will be available on campus and at the Downtown Center and outreach centers on December 5.

BLOODMOBILE - The Bloodmobile will be outside the cafeteria today, from 1 to 4 p.m. Stop by and give.

DIRECTORY CORRECTION - The new staff directory lists Carl Horstrup, Adult Education, at ext. 7501. His correct extension is 7510. Please make this correction in your copy of the directory.

THANKS FROM ATHLETICS - The Athletic Department would like to thank all staff and students who worked the OSAA Cross Country Championship Meet last Saturday. Your efforts as officials and aides made the Meet a successful and enjoyable experience for the high school athletes. Thank you for your support.

YOU'RE INVITED - A retirement reception for Pat Grant, Director of Purchasing Services, is planned for Friday, 2 to 4 p.m., in the President's Dining Room. Plan to come!

ARE YOU READY? - Tomorrow is Smokeout day. Cigarette smoking is responsible for more deaths every year than the American battlefield tolls in World War II: thirty-seven deaths per hour--more than one death every two minutes. If you'd like to join the Great American Smokeout tomorrow, stop by the Student Health offices and sign a pledge card. They'll give you one of these to wear on your lapel:

LIGHT LOADS NOT ALWAYS BEST - Those who advise college freshmen to take lighter-than-average course loads, or not to accept part-time jobs, may be doing the students no favor. A study of 1,608 students at Kansas State University, during spring 1979, suggested that too much free time reduced academic achievement. The study revealed that free time can contribute to procrastination and poor study habits, says Jerald W. Dallam, associate director of records, and Donald P. Hoyt, director of the KSU Office of Educational Resources. --from Exchange, Center for Faculty Evaluation and Development

KLCC - Today at 12:40 on 89.7 FM, COMMUNITY ACCESS talks with Liz Lipski, White Bird nutritionist....This evening at 7:30, a KLCC public affairs program looks at Blacks in the military.

RENAISSANCE ROOM - Today's special begins with a Tradewind mocktail, followed by your choice of Chicken Rice Soup or Super Garden Salad. The entree is Canadian Mushroom Melt--a layer of Canadian bacon, sauteed mushrooms, onions and parsley, topped with Swiss cheese and green pepper, served on a freshly baked English muffin. Dessert is cheesecake cookies. Coffee or tea is included, all for just $3. Remember, the Renaissance Room also serves these things every day: Vegetarian Sandwiches, including soup or salad and coffee or tea, for $2.75; Royal Burger Feast with soup, garnish, coffee or tea, and dessert, for $2.95; Quiche du Jour with soup, garnish, coffee or tea, and dessert, for $2.50. Hours are 11:30 to 1:30; call ext. 2697 for reservations.

BENEFIT - The Jazz Minors, a mainstay at Disneyland for the past 2 years, will play a benefit on Friday, February 27, for the LCC Development Fund. The event will be held at the Lane County Fairgrounds Convention Center from 8 to 11 p.m. Tickets at $20, $10 or $5 per person are available through the Development Fund, ext. 7523. Seating will be at tables of 10. A no-host bar will be available. Gift certificates may be purchased for Christmas, Valentine's Day, or other occasions. The dixieland jazz group, which includes five local people--including Board member Charlene Curry's son, Mark--will premiere its latest album the night of the concert and sell it at $10, with $3 going to the Development Fund.

TURKEY TROT - A predicted-time cross-country run around the campus athletic fields is planned for Tuesday, November 25, at 4 p.m. and Wednesday, November 26, at noon. Meet on the track to sign up. Persons running the course closest to their predicted times will win a turkey! Competition is in four divisions: Men and women students, and men and women staff. There will be two turkey winners in each division. Maps of the course are available in the Intramural office. Come out on either day and win a turkey!

ART EXHIBIT - Paintings by Jim Denney, an art instructor at the University of Kansas who received his BFA degree from the University of Oregon, will be exhibited at the LCC Art Gallery tomorrow through December 12. A reception tomorrow night from 8 to 10 p.m. will open the exhibit. The gallery is open Monday through Thursday from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. and Friday from 8 to 5.

AUTHORS SOUGHT - The fall issue of Focus (on productivity) magazine is at Printing/Graphics and should be out soon. It will present some 15 articles on productivity at LCC. Authors and articles are now being sought for the winter issue. If you've got an idea, try it out on Larry Romine at ext. 2593.

REFUGEE STUDENTS - The briefing on refugee students has been moved up from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m. on Tuesday, December 2. ESL staff will conduct the briefing in APR 216. Instructors and staff who work with refugee students are invited. Please call ext. 2360 by November 24 to reserve your space.

LCCEF ELECTIONS - If you are a voting member and have not received your ballot yet, contact Evelyn Tennis at ext. 2336. If you want to vote but have not signed up, there is still time to sign up to vote--call Evelyn.

MANAGEMENT OF AGREEMENT - Anybody interested in how groups and organizations reach agreement should take a few minutes to read the Innovation Abstract, "The Abilene Paradox: The Management of Agreement." J.B. Harvey, professor of management science at George Washington University, describes how seeming agreement may not be that at all. Copies are available at offices of instructional department heads and the Staff Development office.

REFUGEE STUDENTS - The briefing on refugee students has been moved back from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m. on Tuesday, December 2. ESL staff will conduct the briefing in APR 216. Instructors and staff who work with refugee students are invited. Please call ext. 2360 by November 24 to reserve your space.

REMEMBER - Today from 2 to 4 p.m., a retirement reception for Pat Grant in the President's Dining Room. You're invited to come wish Pat a fond farewell.

TO ALL DEPARTMENTS - Job posting requests for December 1 need to be in Personnel Services by Monday, November 24, at 5 p.m. due to the Thanksgiving holiday.

Ninth Week of Fall Term

MONDAY

November 24, 1980

Published for the staff of Lane Community College.
Deadline for contributions is 2 p.m. on the day before publication.
Editor/Coordinator: Jeannine Ferguson, ext. 2201

RESEARCH GRANTS - Applications are available now for summer research fellowships from the Oregon Committee for the Humanities. Five $4,000 grants will be awarded to humanities scholars who propose and complete a research project (non-degree related) that "combines significant scholarly content and significant meaning for the community-at-large" during the summer of 1981. Call liaison representative Britta Hansen, ext. 2419, for application forms and/or further details. Deadline is January 30.

"GRILL THE DEANS" FOLLOW-UP - For those who were too busy or simply forgot, the fall Grill the Deans Session touched on these questions:

1. Why remodel the Center Basement? Why not spend the money on instruction?

Response: The college has set funds for construction. The remodeling of the Center Bldg. is on the college list of construction projects. Instructional funds come from the college's general operating budget. The two funds cannot be mixed.

2. Are there any plans to build a new building for Language Arts and Social Science?

Response: With declining funding levels, no plans are currently considered to house these two

3. The proposal that faculty do vocational counseling raises the question of workload and the function of the Counseling Department.

Response: Faculty already do informal vocational counseling. Counselors generally do 20% personal counseling and 80% academic counseling and teaching. This proposal is not intended to increase faculty workload, but to recognize what is already taking place and to increase service to students.

4. What happens to student retention efforts in a period of declining funding?

Response: LCC is not in the business of attracting "throw away" students. Efforts to improve student retention will continue in times of declining funding. The intent is to provide proper student placement rather than deal with high student attrition.

HOLIDAY NEWS - The college will be closed Thursday and Friday for the Thanksgiving holiday. The Snack Bar will close at 5 p.m. on Wednesday. The post-holiday mailroom procedure used last year will be in effect on December 1: all departments will pick up their mail in the mailroom after 1 p.m. on Monday, the 1st. Any mail you wish to send on that day may be brought to the Mailroom at that time. This is necessary because of the large volume of post-holiday mail anticipated on Monday, which makes it unfeasible for the mailroom to make deliveries.

LCCEF ELECTIONS - If you are a voting member and have not received your ballot yet, contact Evelyn Tennis at ext. 2336. If you want to vote but have not signed up, there is still time--call Evelyn.

OPEN HOUSE REMINDER - The Health Occupations Dept. is having an open house Monday, Dec. 1, from 9 to 11 a.m. in the Health Building. Instructors and counselors will be available to answer questions about LCC's six health career programs, and application packets will be available. Classrooms and labs will be open. Anyone interested in health career information is encouraged to attend.
