Aug. 3, 1982
Seventh Week of Summer Term

Published for the staff of Lane Community College.
Deadline for contributions 2 p.m. on the day before publication.
Editor: Kell Osborn, ext. 2201.

Lane Community College is an Equal Opportunity/
Affirmative Action/Section 503/Title IX institution.

SUMMER HOURS - Beginning next Monday, the check cashing window at Financial Services will be open from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. After 12:30, all business may be transacted at the regular Financial Services window, which will continue to be open between 9 and 4:30. The summer hours for the first window will be in effect until Sept. 7 - except for Aug. 13 and 31, when it will be open from 9 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. for payroll disbursement.

COUNTY FAIR - The Lane County Fair is just two weeks away. Entertainers scheduled include Aretha Franklin, Loretta Lynn and Roy Clark. The horses, cows and rabbits will be there, as will many hawkers and food vendors. Lane Community College will be there, too, with an eight-foot square, fabric map of the county - complete with tiny, lighted television sets. A simplified version of the map will appear on plastic bags to be given to fairgoers to tote fair "collectibles." To save money, the college has scaled down the size of its exhibit and the variety of activities that will take place within it. Throughout the fair, college staff will be available to answer questions about the college and distribute literature describing college programs. The LCC booth will be located in the Exhibit Hall of the Convention Center. The fair is scheduled Aug. 17-22. Jolene Bowers, Student Records, is the LCC fair booth coordinator.

INNOVATION - If students should obtain part of their training working for the kinds of companies they eventually hope to join, what happens if a particular kind of business doesn't exist near the college? Well, Electronics instructor Joe Rawlings started a student-run company to provide on-the-job training industry couldn't. The Elsie Corporation (derived from the college's initials - LCC) designs and builds computers. The company builds one computer a year. Last year, the Elsie Corporation was composed of 20 students, each with a different title and job assignment. Students fill posts ranging from chief engineer to director of public relations/marketing. Rawlings says the company's latest effort, Elsie III, represents state-of-the-art technology. The system is capable of running a mill or factory by monitoring and controlling analog voltages throughout the plant.

FILM RENTALS - Send your film rental orders for the first part of fall term by Aug. 17, to Barb Jones in the Library. She will be away from campus until Sept. 20. Call her at ext. 2373 or stop at the Library between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

THANKS to everyone who made donations in support of the S.W.O.K. softball team. The camera went to Grace Brainard of Pacific Northwest Bell. Thanks again.

--Jan Kleminsky, Data Processing

BOWLING - Would you like to bowl with others this fall? An LCC league is starting up, and you can call Sue Kangas, ABE, ext. 2518, to join.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY - Talent is what you possess; genius is what possesses you. - Malcolm Cowley

SURPLUS ELECTRONIC EQUIPMENT SALE - Aug. 2-6, 10 a.m.-3 p.m., LCC Warehouse...Items have been classified to be of no further use to LCC departments and are for sale to general public..."as is where is" basis. Listing available at Purchasing. Items include: power supply, oscilloscopes, generators, VTVM, meters, receivers, bridges, amps, etc. Priced for quicksale, 50 cents-$150. Thursday, Aug. 5, 1982
Seventh Week of Summer Term

Published for the staff of Lane Community College.
Deadline for contributions 2 p.m. on the day before publication.
Editor: Keli Osborn, ext. 2201.

Lane Community College is an Equal Opportunity/
Affirmative Action/Section 503/Title IX institution.

ON THE AIR - President Eldon G. Schafer will be on KOZY-TV Sunday talking about Lane County's changing economy. Schafer, Dick Hersh - dean of the University of Oregon graduate school, and Stephen Bissell - research and development manager for Spectra-Physics, will focus on the important roles that higher education does and will play in shaping the Lane County economy. The program will air at 3 and 6 p.m. Sunday on channel 11. It will be shown again on Aug. 12 and 23.

SHORT COURSE - The college will be the site for a four-day course for the training and state certification in cross-connection control for device testing, device installation and cross-connection control programming. The course, sponsored by the state Health Division and Clackamas Community College, takes place next week in the Science Building.

SUMMER HOURS - Beginning next Monday, the check cashing window at Financial Services will be open from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. After 12:30, all business may be transacted at the regular Financial Services window, which will continue to be open between 9 and 4:30. The summer hours for the first window will be in effect until Sept. 7 - except for Aug. 13 and 31, when it will be open from 9 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. for payroll disbursement.

FILM RENTALS - Send your film rental orders for the first part of fall term by Aug. 17, to Barb Jones in the Library. She will be away from campus until Sept. 20. Call her at ext. 2373 or stop at the Library between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

SURPLUS ELECTRONIC EQUIPMENT SALE - Items that have been classified as being of no further use to LCC departments are on sale to the general public on an "as is where is" basis. A listing is available from Purchasing. Among the items on sale are oscilloscopes, generators, meters, bridges, amps and VTVM. They're priced for quick sale - 50 cents to $150. More than 100 items are on sale, with more added daily. For information, call Bob Cudmore, ext. 2571.

TAX MEASURE MAKES BALLOT - Ballot Measure 3, a property tax limitation proposal, will appear on November's ballot. Its main points follow:

- Property taxes would be limited to 1½ percent of 1979 true cash value.
- True cash value is allowed to increase 2 percent each year beginning Jan. 1, 1983.
- The Legislature would decide how the new $15/$1,000 true cash value limit would be divided among community college districts and other local taxing districts.
- District debt actually incurred before passage of the measure is excluded from the 1½ percent limitation.
- The 1½ percent limitation may be exceeded if total revenues will be less than 85 percent of 1979-80 total revenues.
- Requires a 2/3 vote of the Legislature and/or a majority vote of the people to authorize any increases in state taxes.
- Requires all new (i.e., not yet sold) general obligation bond measures to come within 1½ percent limit and to have majority voter approval.
- Prohibits new serial levies which would designate a portion of the property tax for a special purpose.

THOUGHT FOR DAY - Where all think alike, no one thinks very much. - Walter Lippman

P.S. Darrell Allyn, Facilities, is home from the hospital; so, don't make an unnecessary trip to McKenzie-Willamette.

Aug. 10, 1982
Eighth Week of Summer Term

Published for the staff of Lane Community College.
Deadline for contributions 2 p.m. on the day before publication.
Editor: Keli Osborn, ext. 2201.

Lane Community College is an Equal Opportunity/
Affirmative Action/Section 503/Title IX institution.

INSURANCE - Insurance representative Liz Kelso will be in Personnel Services from noon to one today.

JOAQUIN MILLER! NOT TONIGHT!!! - Alan Boye's play about Joaquin Miller - Oregon pioneer, California gold miner, judge, school teacher, horse thief and writer - will be performed on Friday night at the Lane County Museum, 740 W. 13th Ave., Eugene. "Joaquin Miller! Tonight!!!" features Portland actor Robert Nightingale. It is sponsored by the Oregon Committee for the Humanities and the Lane County Historical Society. Friday's performance begins at 7:30. It is free.

STAPLES - The Library has three boxes of Bostitch B8 staples staff will donate to anyone who can use them. If interested, call Joyce Kofford at ext. 2354.

CONGRATULATIONS - Richard (Security) and Jodie Dittmar had a baby girl Saturday. She weighed 8 pounds, one ounce, and she is their second child.

A CANCELLATION - President Eldon G. Schafer, whose visit to the People's Republic of China has been postponed, has company. Japanese Education Minister Heiji Ogawa also had his September visit postponed, because China believes Japan is minimizing its aggressions against China during the 1930s in its high school history books. President Schafer's visit as representative of U.S. community colleges was postponed because China apparently disagrees with the trip-sponsoring World Bank about the amount of money it must borrow to start its community college system. According to the Portland Oregonian, analysts attribute the current government stance on these and other issues to a nationalistic line that is part of the factional maneuvering in the Communist Party.

LBCC FACULTY TAKE CUT - Faculty at Linn-Benton Community College agreed to a 6 percent salary cut to avoid layoffs and encourage voter approval of a $1.1 million operating levy at the Sept. 21 election. The Portland Oregonian reported Friday that a mail ballot showed a 91-30 favorable vote. The salary cut is contingent on passage of the levy and would save the college about $251,000. Faculty will earn about 2.7 percent above last year, if the cut is imposed.

FILM RENTALS - Send your film rental orders for the first part of fall term by Aug. 17, to Barb Jones in the Library. She will be away from campus until Sept. 20. Call her at ext. 2273, or stop at the Library between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

ELECTION TODAY - Lane County residents have an opportunity today to vote on a $3-million county property tax levy. The one-year special levy would provide the county sheriff's office with slightly more than $2 million to supplement its present $7.6-million budget for the fiscal year that began July 1. The district attorney's office would receive about $500,000, the Juvenile Department would get $100,000 and slight more than $300,000 is earmarked for taxes that cannot be collected. The levy would increase next year's property tax bill for Lane County residents by about 45 cents per $1,000 assessed value, or $22.80 for the owner of a $50,000 home. Polling places are open until 8 p.m. today.

THOUGHT FOR DAY - Just because everything is different doesn't mean anything has changed.
- Irene Peter

The Buzz Sheet

For Scheduling And Publicizing Special Events At Lane Community College

Use this form (A) to help the college schedule a room for the special event you're planning. (B) to inform the college Information Desk of the activity. (C) to request publicity for the event -- or to accomplish all three tasks at the same time.

(A) LCC staff members planning an event should phone Instruction Services (2362) to reserve a classroom; Security and Communications (2558) for other rooms and facilities; or the Downtown Center (7518) for Adult Education activities. Sponsors of student-run events should phone Student Activities (2336).

(B) The scheduling personnel in these offices will complete the Buzz Sheet and then forward it to the Information Desk. But if you don't need to reserve a room, you may complete a Buzz Sheet on your own and simply route it to the Information Desk through campus mail.

(C) To request publicity, simply check the appropriate boxes on the Buzz Sheet: On-campus media will receive a copy of the sheet; the College and Community Relations Office will contact you for off-campus needs.

THE DAILY

Thursday, Aug. 12, 1982
Eighth Week of Summer Term

Published for the staff of Lane Community College.
Deadline for contributions 2 p.m. on the day before publication.
Editor: Keli Osborn, ext. 2201.

Lane Community College is an Equal Opportunity/
Affirmative Action/Section 503/Title IX institution.

SUMMER CLOSURE - The Bookstore will close at 4:30 p.m. on Friday, Aug. 13, and will remain closed until Sept. 7. Be sure to stock up on candy, gum, snacks, birthday cards, bus tokens and postage stamps.

WORK-STUDY NOTE - Attention, work-study supervisors: All work-study students must stop working the last day of summer term, Aug. 13. If you have questions, call Joan Campillo in Financial Aid, ext. 2350.

WESTERN PLAY - Alan Boye, an instructor in High School Completion, has written a play about Joaquin Miller. "Joaquin Miller! Tonight!!!" will be performed at the Lane County Museum on Friday night. The free presentation begins at 7:30. The Oregon Committee for the Humanities and the Lane County Historical Society sponsor.

ON TELEVISION - President Eldon G. Schafer will appear on KOZY, channel 11, at 2 p.m. today and at 7:30 p.m. on Aug. 23. He, Dick Hersh of the University of Oregon's graduate school, and Stephen Bissell, a research and development manager with Spectra-Physics, will talk about the important roles higher education does and will play in shaping the Lane County economy.

MORE COST SAVINGS - A Purchase Order verteam (a verteam is a quality circle with members from more than one department) is working toward identification of ways to cut the number of annual college purchase orders by at least 60 percent. Members found that 62 percent of the 8,147 purchase orders written in 1981-82 were for amounts under $100. Put another way, 62 percent of the purchase orders involved only 3.5 percent of the total money spent. Since each purchase order costs around $70 in total staff time to process, the group proposes that purchase orders under $100 be eliminated in favor of petty cash use or - if it can be worked out - bank cards. Members of the group include Roger Cardinal, Purchasing; Verne Whittaker, Financial Services; Marianne Lindbloom, Math; Virginia Roles, Adult Education; Iris Pattle, Performing Arts; Thelma Kitterman, Financial Services; Judy Dresser, Home Economics and Health & P.E., and Julie Aspinwall-Lamberts and Casey Fast, Productivity Center.

DEGREE REQUIREMENTS CHANGE - Beginning this fall, LCC students working toward associate of arts degrees will have some new graduation requirements. Students still will need six credit hours in English composition, but they'll now have to do at least C-level work in each class, according to Admissions Director Bob Marshall. The physical education requirement has been lowered from five to three credits which, both Marshall and President Schafer agree, will enable more students to meet the degree requirements. This physical education change also will reduce the hours spent by the Academic Council hearing petitions, and will bring LCC policies in line with practices at other institutions. Another change will allow students to fulfill Health Department requirements by taking community health or specific seminars; in the past, only a personal health class fulfilled the requirement. Students still must take three math/science classes, although a new requirement states that two of them must carry four credits each. Marshall explains that this prevents students from using less-demanding three-credit courses to fulfill the science requirement. Starting this fall, students also will have to complete math at least at the 95 level or demonstrate equivalent competency. Marshall adds that a change in the associate of general studies degree is the deletion of a human relations class requirement.

SUMMER HOURS - The check cashing window at Financial Services now is open from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. After 12:30, all business may be transacted at the regular Financial Services window, which will continue to be open from 9 to 4:30. Summer hours for the first window will be in effect until Sept. 7 - except for Aug. 13 and 31, when it will be open from 9 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. for payroll disbursement.

FILM RENTALS - Send your film rental orders for the first part of fall term by Aug. 17, to Barb Jones in the Library. She will be away from campus until Sept. 20. Call her at ext. 2273 or stop at the Library between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

SUMMER LIBRARY HOURS - The LCC Library will be closed Aug. 16 through Sept. 10. Get in your reading during the next two days.

VIVA LAS VEGAS - Would you like to attend, participate in, or donate to the third annual benefit for the LCC Development Fund? A memorable evening is planned Sept. 18 - with dinner and dancing, a sparkling revue of hits from past LCC musicals, and a Vegas-style casino. Tickets for two come in two categories and prices - $100 and $25. If you haven't seen the colorful "Viva Las Vegas" brochure with more information, call Pat Williams at the Downtown Center, ext. 523.

CLASSIFIED - Members of the LCC Employees Federation have a 5 p.m. membership meeting on Wednesday, Aug. 18. The location will be announced next week. One certain agenda item is a report on Wednesday's contract mediation session. Members may be required to offer input Wednesday night.

AT THE FAIR - The Lane County Fair begins Tuesday, Aug. 17. LCC will be in the Exhibition Hall with a specially designed booth. Representatives from the Women's Awareness Center will be on hand Tuesday; free blood pressure readings will be given senior citizens on Wednesday. Throughout the rest of the week, general information about the college will be provided.

THOUGHT FOR DAY - The exact contrary of what is generally believed is often the truth.
- Jean de La Bruyere

OPEN TO PRESENT LCC EMPLOYEES ONLY

THE DAILY

Tuesday, Aug. 17, 1982

Published for the staff of Lane Community College.
Deadline for contributions 2 p.m. on the day before publication.
Editor: Keli Osborn, ext. 2201.

Lane Community College is an Equal Opportunity/
Affirmative Action/Section 503/Title IX institution.

INSURANCE - Insurance representative Liz Kelso is scheduled to be in Personnel Services today from noon to 1 p.m.

BUSINESS CENTER NEWS - Starting Sept. 1, LCC's efforts to assist Lane County businesses will be led by Edward W. "Sandy" Cutler, now a KUGN account executive. Cutler, 37, will manage the college's new Business Assistance Center (BAC), at the Downtown Center. He will direct such established programs as Small Business Management and Farm Business Management and add additional programs, courses, workshops and seminars as requested by area businesses. Second floor offices for the BAC are now being remodeled at the Downtown Center as a result of a $20,000 grant from Donna P. Woolley, president of Eagles View Management Co. in Eugene. President Eldon G. Schafer said Cutler was chosen from among 45 "outstanding" applicants because of his "balance between a knowledge of business techniques and familiarity with the local business and educational communities."

BUS SCHEDULE - The Lane Transit District has revised its bus service to and from Lane for the period between summer and fall terms. Express service has been dropped until during fall term registration - Sept. 13-16, 21 and 22. Regular service will be offered now through Sept. 26. During fall term, both regular and express service will resume.

CLOSING - The Testing Office will close Aug. 25, 26 and 27 for Counseling inservice meetings, and no testing will be available during those three days.

MEMBERSHIP - The LCC Employees Federation is holding a membership meeting Wednesday night at 7, in rooms 223-224, Apprenticeship Building. Members are urged to attend to hear an update on negotiations for a classified employee working agreement.

BOWLERS SOUGHT - If you're interested in bowling with other LCC colleagues this fall, give Jay Weeden a call in the Mailroom at ext. 2575.

COUNTY FAIR - The Lane County Fair opens today in Eugene. The college will be in the Exhibition Hall with a specially designed booth. Jolene Bowers, Student Records, is the coordinator for this year's fair efforts.

CLOSURES - The LCC Library and Bookstore are closed until early September.

VIVA LAS VEGAS - The LCC Development Fund presents the third annual benefit for LCC students, programs and staff on Saturday, Sept. 18. You can order tickets for dinner, dancing, musical revue, cabaret and casino by contacting Pat Williams, ext. 523.

WORKSHOPS AND ACTIVITIES - For information about the following workshops, contact the Staff Development office at ext. 2260.

Leadership and Decision Making	Aug. 26	Eugene	$ 65
(This workshop will discuss rationale, styles and strategies for making effective decisions. Instructional methods include lecture, discussion, role playing and simulation.)

Managing Inter- personal Conflict	Sept. 10	Eugene	$ 65
(Focus on understanding and responding to conflicts among people.)

MORE WORKSHOPS - The following are other workshops for which Staff Development has information.

For Secretaries:

The Management of Stress                      Sept. 20                      Eugene                      $ 65
(The position of secretary, because it involves the delicate balancing of conflicting desires of other people, is subject to stress which may lead to frustration. Learning to recognize and deal with stress as it occurs in the office is an important part of the secretary's responsibility.)

Tax Planning for
Real Estate Transactions                      Sept. 20-22                      Portland                      $295
(Includes tax strategies and guidelines on exchanges, tax sheltering techniques and maximizing tax deductions.)

Time Management                      Sept. 27-28                      Seattle                      $610+
(Save two hours every working day, learn to delegate, organize your time more systematically, cut down on timewasters, learn how to say "no" and conquer procrastination.)

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: Ability is the art of getting credit for all the home runs somebody else hits. - Casey Stengel

THE DAILY

Thursday, Aug. 19, 1982

Published for the staff of Lane Community College.
Deadline for contributions 2 p.m. on the day before publication.
Editor: Kelli Osborn, ext. 2201.

Lane Community College is an Equal Opportunity/
Affirmative Action/Section 503/Title IX institution.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED - Volunteers are needed to help stuff fall inservice schedules into envelopes for mailing. Please call Carol Clarke, ext. 2360, if you can assist. Your help will be much appreciated.

PRESIDENT ON TV - President Eldon G. Schafer will be on KOZY, channel 11, on Monday evening at 7:30. He and two others - Dick Hersh from the University of Oregon and Stephen Bissell, research and development manager with Spectra-Physics - will talk about the important roles higher education does and will play in shaping the Lane County economy. The show is part of a series, "Futures: Options for Economic Development," which has been developed by the Eugene Action Forum.

NOTE FROM WAREHOUSE STAFF - Check the Warehouse catalog before ordering supplies through Purchasing. Products available cheaper through the Warehouse have been repeatedly ordered on purchase orders.

FREE ITEMS - The Women's Program office has legal-size file folders and files no longer in use. If anyone on campus can use them, drop by the Women's Awareness Center (Room 217, Center Building) to pick them up.

COUNSELING TO CLOSE - The Counseling staff has inservice sessions next Wednesday through Friday, Aug. 25-27, and no counselors will be available.

BUS SCHEDULE - The Lane Transit District has revised its bus service to and from Lane for this period between summer and fall terms. Express service has been dropped until during fall term registration - Sept. 13-16, 21 and 22. Regular service will be offered now through Sept. 26. During fall term, both express and regular service will be offered.

COUNTY FAIR - Don't forget to visit the LCC booth at the Lane County Fair. It's located in the Exhibition Hall, and volunteers and LCC staff are providing information on the college through Sunday. The college booth has an eight-foot square, fabric map of the county - complete with tiny, lighted television sets. A simplified version of the map will appear on plastic bags to be given to fairgoers to tote fair "collectibles." To save money, the college has scaled down the size of its exhibit and the variety of activities that will take place within it. Free bus service is available on LTD.

BOWLERS SOUGHT - If you're interested in bowling with other LCC colleagues this fall, call Jay Weeden in the Mailroom at ext. 2575.

FALL SCHEDULE - The fall term LCC Report and Class Schedule is due in people's homes by Friday, Sept. 3; it also will be available on campus at that time. Fall term classes begin Sept. 27, with registration scheduled Sept. 13-15 for continuing students. New and returning students (those away since before spring term) will register between Sept. 16 and 21.

DIRECTORY INFORMATION NEEDED - If yours is one of the more than 20 departments or areas which has not submitted updated information for the 1982-83 staff directory, please call Kelli Osborn, College/Community Relations, ext. 2201. Timely cooperation will assure that this year's directory is delivered to you early in the term.

FOR SALE: Sept. 1-Aug. 31 engagement calendar booklets, published by Oregon Community Education Association (OCEA), $5. Larry Warford, President's office, x2302.

THOUGHT FOR DAY - "There's room for everything, and time for everybody, if you take your day the way it comes along and try not to be much later than you can help." - from Eudora Welty's "Losing Battles."

The following letter to the editor from President Eldon G. Schafer appeared in the Aug. 12 Register-Guard.

At a time when unemployment lists are long, when jobs requiring high skills go unfilled, and when accelerated technological change is a way of life, it seems reasonable that the U.S. retrain millions of people whose current jobs are vanishing. In Lane County, retraining and continuing education for changing jobs are part of the answer to economic revitalization.

Yet, I've learned that a report titled "Action to Advance Quality in Higher Education," to be released this fall by the National Commission on Higher Education Issues, as it stands now will ignore the need for adult continuing education. The majority of the 59-member blue ribbon group of educators, association executives and public figures apparently believes that adult education is an inappropriate activity for post-secondary education.

Dale Parnell, former LCC president, Lane Education Service District superintendent, and Springfield High School principal, is a commission member. He represents the American Association of Community and Junior Colleges, which he heads. He sadly (and probably with teeth gritted, too) reports that a university bloc wanted the report to concentrate on a more traditional role for post-secondary education - business as usual.

This view isn't surprising, but it runs counter to reality.

Management consultant/educator/author Peter Drucker described the situation well in a recent issue of the Wall Street Journal. He says: "Demand for education is actually going up, not down. What is going down, and fairly fast, is demand for traditional education in traditional schools."

Enrollment nationally bears that out.

One in every eight adults in the U.S. last year took adult education courses. Sixty-one percent of the courses were taken for job-related reasons, according to the National Center for Education Statistics. Some 21 million people (56 percent women) took adult courses during the 1980-81 academic year, mostly at community colleges, and paid $2.1 billion for the privilege.

Something is terribly wrong with our thinking if we believe that if a course isn't strictly "collegiate," it can't be useful. Or, stated another way, if it's not offered for college credit it must have less value.

Fortunately, the commission majority view isn't held by the nation's community colleges or by many leaders in four-year institutions (note the valuable efforts of such research-oriented institutions as the University of Oregon in economic development and in opening classes to adults in the community). The Council of Europe, headquartered in Strasbourg, also sees adult education as playing a pivotal role in economic development.

As for your Lane Community College, we will hold to our belief that taxpayers want us to help laid-off workers retrain for new jobs. Our neighbors must be aided in developing new skills appropriate for rapidly changing business and industry.

We won't back off because a commission dominated by traditionalist thinking says we shouldn't teach economic survival skills in that such courses allegedly aren't "collegiate."

LCC will continue to offer our three-year Small Business Management program to businesses with 25 or fewer employees, our Farm Management program to small agribusinesses, Rural Small Business Management to firms outside Eugene-Springfield with 15 or fewer employees, to teach American Management Association courses, to cooperate with Eugene and Lane County CETA programs to meet specific job training needs, to teach court reporting, microprocessing, apprenticeship training, and more.

By fall, our new Business Assistance Center in our Eugene Downtown Center will be actively coordinating and expanding our efforts to assist the Eugene Economic Foundation and others working toward the area's economic recovery.

These programs, which are nearly always fully enrolled, are all adult education activities. We will continue them until local people say they're no longer needed or worth funding. We'll leave that decision up to voters, however, not to any national commission. We think that makes better educational and economic sense.

Published for the staff of Lane Community College.
Deadline for contributions 2 p.m. on the day before publication.
Editor: Keli Osborn, ext. 2201.

Lane Community College is an Equal Opportunity/
Affirmative Action/Section 503/Title IX institution.

FINANCIAL AID CLOSED - The Financial Aid office is closed today for a staff meeting.

COUNSELING INSERVICE - Counseling staff are in inservice the rest of this week. The Testing office, Career Information Center and Downtown Center Student Services area are closed today and Friday. The Counseling counter in the Center Building does have trained staff on hand to answer questions.

FUNDRAISER - LCC's volleyball team will raise money this weekend at Coburg's Golden Days Festival. Volunteers and supporters are needed to make the dunking tank successful. Coach Cheryl Brown says the team will be running the booth from noon to 10 p.m. on Saturday, and from noon to 6 p.m. on Sunday. Call her, if you have questions, at ext. 2215 or 683-2381.

BOWLING - Would you enjoy bowling with other LCC staff members, their family and friends this fall? Call Jay Weeden in the Mailroom, ext. 2575.

STAFF INSERVICE SCHEDULES - Staff Development's September inservice schedule will be distributed through campus mail to classified and management staff on Monday, Aug. 30. It will be sent to contracted faculty through the U.S. Postal Service.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED - Volunteers are needed to help stuff fall inservice schedules into envelopes for mailing. If you can help, call Carol Clarke, ext. 2360. Stuffing is planned for Monday, Aug. 30, at 10 a.m. in the LCC Library.

WHAT'S AHEAD - This year's inservice schedule will include sessions open to all staff where, according to President Eldon G. Schafer, "we invite each of you to help us plan strategy by which LCC can enhance its ability to be 'part of the solution' for issues facing our local community." Guest presentors for fall inservice include Susan R. Glaser, Ph.D., a University of Oregon faculty member and 1980 recipient of the university's Ersted Award for distinguished teaching; Peter A. Glaser, Ph.D., president of Glaser & Associates Inc. and activist in staff development and training; and Temple Hagan, adult education coordinator for the Lane County unit of the American Cancer Society.

ENTERTAINING DANCE - The Lane Dance Theatre, LCC's modern dance company, performs in Springfield's Island Park today at noon. The troupe will perform at Celeste Campbell Center on Friday at 7 p.m. and Saturday at 2 p.m. The Eugene Ballet Company, like LCC's group, has free dances scheduled. The next is set for noon on Saturday, at the Eugene Downtown Mall.

SNACK BAR HOURS SHORTENED - The Snack Bar will be open from 9 a.m. until 1:30 p.m., until Sept. 15.

SMALL BUSINESS - Jean H. Names, a Eugene management consultant, has been hired by the college to teach in the Small Business Management program. Names will be the primary instructor for the 25 small businesses that will begin the three-year program this fall. Applications for the new class are now being accepted. For the past seven years, Names has been a principal with Cross and Names, a management consulting firm based in Eugene. Her hiring represents program expansion. Last year, the program had one full-time and one part-time instructor. She will replace part-time instructor Bill Tweedie, who will retire in December. Names will instruct full time.

INSURANCE - Agent-of-record representative Liz Kelso will be in Personnel Services from noon to one today.

SOCIAL BOWLERS - Those interested in fun bowling this winter are invited to South Town Lanes, 2486 Willamette St., next Tuesday at 6 p.m. For more information about this LCC league, call Jay Weeden in the Mailroom at ext. 2575.

DANCE PERFORMANCES - The Eugene Ballet Company will stage free performances on the Eugene Downtown Mall, this Wednesday and Saturday at noon.

LABOR DAY COMING UP - Next Monday, Sept. 6, is a paid holiday for management employees and regularly scheduled classified personnel who work half time or more. A labor day observance was first suggested in 1882 by Peter McGuire, president of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America.

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT FUNDS - Community colleges are recipients of $75,000 in an economic development plan to expand high technology education in Oregon. Recommended distribution for the $1 million in grants is as follows: $675,000 to State System of Higher Education ($400,000 to Portland State University; $275,000 to Oregon State); $100,000 to the Oregon Graduate Center; $150,000 to the University of Portland; and $75,000 to community colleges. Half of this $1-million fund was appropriated by the January/February special session of the Legislature. The other $500,000 will come from private business. Distribution of the $75,000 to community colleges is the responsibility of the Educational Coordinating Commission.

DEBATES WILL BE AIRED - The first of three scheduled debates between Oregon gubernatorial candidates Victor Atiyeh and Ted Kulongoski will air on Oregon Public Television Friday, Sept. 10, at 10 a.m. That debate will be taped earlier in the day at the Portland City Club. Debates are tentatively set for Sept. 20 in Eugene and Oct. 4 in Medford, and information about their airtimes will be available later. Oregon Public Broadcasting stations are KOAC, Channel 7, Corvallis; KVDO, Channel 3, Salem; KOAC, Channel 10, Portland; and KTVR, Channel 13, LaGrande.

SIGN UP FOR SCIENCE - Registration for fall science classes at the Willamette Science & Technology Center begins Friday, Sept. 10. Afternoon and Saturday workshops provide exciting opportunities for active participation in science for children. Popular classes such as Preschool Science Discovery, Fossils and Dinosaurs, and Electricity and Magnetism will be offered. For information about classes and schedules, call 484-9027.

LATER THIS MONTH - LCC's Rural Small Business Resource Center is sponsoring practical seminars for owners of small businesses in Cottage Grove, Oakridge, Veneta and Junction City. "Tax Planning for Small Businesses" will focus on how the new tax laws can be used to reduce the taxes of a small business and increase its profitability. Conducted by a local CPA, the seminars will emphasize importance of tax planning and making timely decisions regarding investments, expenditures, inventory valuation and tax shelters. The schedule: COTTAGE GROVE, Sept. 15, 7-9:30 p.m. - LCC Central Area Education Center; OAKRIDGE, Sept. 16, 7-9:30 p.m. - Willamette Activity Center; VENETA, Sept. 22, 7-9:30 p.m. - Midlane Multi-Service Center; and JUNCTION CITY, Sept. 28, 7-9:30 p.m. - JC High School. For information, call Carol Campbell at ext. 2821.

ZUCCHINI OF THE DAY: As a public service, here's a recipe (recommended by Helen Hunter, Office of Instruction) for using up some of your zucchini.

Eileen Firebaugh's Zucchini Bread (from Eugene Register-Guard)

3 eggs

1 c. oil

2 c. sugar

2 c. grated zucchini

2 t. vanilla

In a separate bowl, mix:

3 c. flour

1 t. soda

$\frac{1}{4}$  t. baking powder

1 t. salt

3 t. cinnamon

$\frac{1}{2}$  c. nuts

Beat eggs light and foamy. Add next four ingredients. Mix lightly but well. Add flour mixture and blend. Add nuts. Divide batter into greased loaf pans and bake at 325°F. for one hour or more, until done. Test by inserting toothpick in center of loaf. When loaf is done, toothpick will come out clean. Remove from pans at once and cool on rack. Makes two loaves. May be frozen for future use.
