Published for the staff of Lane Community College.
Deadline for contributions 2 p.m. on the day before publication.
Editor: Keli Osborn, ext. 2201.

Lane Community College is an Equal Opportunity/
Affirmative Action/Section 503/Title IX institution.

CHANGES ANNOUNCED - The three deans have new titles, a couple of associate deans are to be relocated, and two departments have new names and assignments in changes announced by President Eldon G. Schafer.

The deans now are vice presidents. Gerald Rasmussen is Vice President for Instruction, Jack Carter is Vice President for Student Services, and Bill Berry is Vice President for Administrative Services. For some years, the common title for second-line administrators at U.S. community colleges has been vice president, President Schafer said.

Special Training Programs now is known as Industrial Technology Programs, with Carl Horstrup as coordinator. A welding quality circle proposed the name change as one which more accurately describes what is taught. Instructors in ITP approved the change, as did the Instructional Senate and, subsequently, President Schafer. Programs in ITP include welding technology, construction technology, landscape development and woodworking. Another new unit, Classroom Training Programs, under Leslie Rasor, takes responsibility for industrial orientation and CETA. The mobile classroom (bus) now reports to Loretta Daniel, coordinator for the Central Outreach Area. Earlier, other parts of the old STP were reassigned to the new Business Assistance Center, which Sandy Cutler directs. In the BAC are small business management, farm business management and rural small business resource center.

The Development Fund, from which Lyle Swetland retired June 30 as director, now is part of Community Relations and Development, which is headed by Larry Romine. Development moves from the Downtown Center to the President's Complex on the second floor of the Administration Building. At a time yet to be determined, the Resource Development office, now located in the Library, also will become part of the new development organization. To make room for the people moving in, Associate Deans of Instruction Z. Joyce Hopps and Jim Piercey will move out of the Administration Building to offices yet undesignated elsewhere on campus. Consolidation of community relations and development activities also is a trend at community colleges across the country, President Schafer said.

IN OTHER NEWS - The Health & Physical Education Department has a new department head, Jim Dunne, who will continue to head Mass Communication. Judy Dresser leaves the HPE post to remain as department head in Home Economics.

It hardly seems necessary at an educational institution to remind you that all of life's experiences, even the painful ones, provide an environment for learning. During these recent weeks I have learned how truly wonderful you are and how fortunate I am to be surrounded by a "community" of caring, supportive people. Thank you. Many of you who know me did not know my husband, Bill. And yet, in a sense, you did. Bill and I shared a life for over 42 years; much of who I am is because of that sharing. I shall continue to strive to live up to his and your expectations of me. Thank you for supporting me in that effort.

--Mildred Holly, Curriculum Approval

GIVING BLOOD - Those wishing to donate blood for Dick Newell should contact the Lane Memorial Blood Bank, and mention the donation is in Newell's behalf. Questions? Call Virginia Roles, ext. 7532.

PLANNING SOMETHING SPECIAL? - Community Relations and Development is putting together a calendar of fall term highlights for LCC Report. Seminars, plays, concerts, major athletic events and such are sought. If you are planning something you would like the community to know about, call Diane Dann at ext. 2592 by Thursday of this week. The calendar will cover the period Sept. 1 to the end of fall term.

STAFF DEVELOPMENT REPORTS... - Upcoming workshops and meetings include the following: Intercultural Communication for Educators, Aug. 5-6, Portland, $75-100. Program is designed to help educators facilitate intercultural learning in a variety of settings: multicultural classroom, travel/study program, foreign student orientation, business workshop, ESL classroom. Managerial Techniques for Secretaries and Administrative Assistants, Aug. 9, Portland, $165. Individual and Institutional Renewal, Aug. 8, Vancouver, WA, $115. Alternative Approaches to Appraising Managers, Aug. 9-10, Vancouver, WA, $195.

THURSDAY'S DAILY - Classified ads won't fit in Thursday's Daily, but will be run next week. This Thursday, the back side of the Daily will feature a copy of the 1983-84 calendar.

Lane Community College is an Equal Opportunity/
Affirmative Action/Section 503/Title IX institution.

PLANNING SOMETHING SPECIAL? - Community Relations and Development is putting together a calendar of fall term highlights for LCC Report. Seminars, plays, concerts and major athletic events are among the features wanted. If you are planning something you would like the community to know about, call Diane Dann, ext. 2592, today. The calendar will cover the period Sept. 1 through the end of fall term.

UNITED WAY LEADERS - Sue Kangas, Adult Basic Education, and Bill Mansell, Administrative Services, again will lead their respective employee groups in the fall United Way campaign. Kangas will lead the LCC Employees Federation (classified) and Mansell will direct the Management Group effort. Kangas was appointed by LCCEF President Gail Currin, and Mansell was named to his post by Management Group Chair Ed Ragozzino. A United Way chair for the LCC Education Association (faculty) hasn't yet been named because LCCEA President Charles Bentz has been in Australia. United Way is conducting Chairperson's Institutes on Aug. 11, noon to 5 p.m., and Aug. 25, 8 a.m. to 1 p.m., with campaign chairs asked to attend one or the other. If there's a faculty person who will attend, unappointed, to pick up materials and insights to share with Bentz's future campaign appointee, United Way would welcome that person's attendance at the Chairperson's Institute. For information, contact Larry Romine, ext. 2593.

NOVEMBER ONE - A lot of departments have been asking when they can start using the college's new blue stationery. The answer is Nov. 1. The Stationery Committee is working hard to see that the college uses up its old (black ink) stationery first and is forming a strategy to avoid waste. Watch here for details. In the meantime, there are three things departments can do to help. One, continue to use up old supplies. Two, if you think you will have a large supply of envelopes left over - one full box or more - contact Steve Evans at the Warehouse. He may be able to work something out. Three, if you didn't respond to Steve's July 12 survey of remaining supplies, please contact him at ext. 2453.

MATERIALS DEVELOPMENT FOR PRE-COLLEGE SCIENCE AND MATHEMATICS - Twelve million dollars will be available during fiscal year 1983 for projects to support Models and Demonstrations for the continuing education of teachers; Development of Materials, teaching aids, computer programs and television-based materials; Analysis of the pre-college science and mathematics educational system; Dissemination of ideas and materials; Applied Research focused on questions related to teaching, learning and cognitive processes. Eligible disciplines are mathematics, engineering, natural sciences (including biology, chemistry, atmospheric, earth and ocean sciences, physics and astronomy) and computer science. For information, call Resource Development at ext. 2364. Applications are accepted at any time.

BACK IN COLLEGE - A meeting is planned next Thursday, Aug. 11, for persons interested in UO DEPM graduate classes. That meeting will begin at 10:30 a.m. in the Board Room.

EMPTY BOXES? - Student Records seeks empty letter-sized boxes (letterhead envelopes), and can pick up from your department. Call ext. 2213.

Lane Community College is an Equal Opportunity/
Affirmative Action/Section 503/Title IX institution.

UPCOMING CLOSURES - The Library will close Friday, Aug. 12, and reopen on Monday, Sept. 12. The Study Skills Learning Center closes Aug. 12 and reopens Sept. 6.

COMMITTEE OPENING - The Staff Development Advisory Committee has an opening for a representative from the Management group. For information about the position's responsibilities, contact Carol Clarke or Barbara Mathewson at ext. 2360. If you would like to be nominated for the position, call Ed Ragozzino, Management Steering Committee chair, ext. 2209.

OVER THERE - Want to teach or study in Canada, Denmark, France, Germany, Italy, Switzerland or the United Kingdom? The Staff Development office has an application package for qualified U.S. educators, administrators and curriculum specialists to participate in selected academic-year exchanges and seminars abroad. A variety of exchange programs and short-term seminars will be offered in the spring and summer of 1984 and in the academic year 1984-85. The closing date for applications is Oct. 15, 1983. For information on this Fulbright-Hays Exchange Program, contact Carol Clarke or Barbara Mathewson at ext. 2360.

HELP - A needy student in the Life Experience Assessment Program has just had a premature baby boy and could use donations of baby clothing and related items. If you can help, call Rick Burkhardt, LEAP, at ext. 2293.

BLOOD DONATIONS - The LCC Blood Donor Club has an account with Lane Memorial Blood Bank, and can cover blood replacement credits needed by staff and students, and their immediate families. The club often has credits outdate, so also can release credits to others who need them. If you know of someone who needs blood replacement credits, please contact Student Health Services. During August, contact Student Health through Dean Jack Carter's office, ext. 2315.

GRANTS NEWS - Honors workshops for pre-college teachers of science and mathematics: $2 million will be available in fiscal year 1983 for projects which motivate and increase the capabilities of teachers in kindergarten through 12th grade. Eligible disciplines are limited to mathematics, engineering, the natural sciences and computer science. Proposals are accepted at any time. Health Resources and Services Administration: Applications for grants for Graduate Training in Family Medicine will be accepted up to Aug. 29. About $2.5 million will be available in fiscal year 1984.

TOUR VATICAN EXHIBIT - An LCC-sponsored excursion leaves Jan. 29, 1984, for a tour of a Vatican exhibit and San Francisco - returning to Eugene Jan. 31. Space is limited, and staff have the first option. The cost is $180, which includes round-trip transportation by motor coach, two nights in a hotel and tours. For information, call Naomi Soules, ext. 7533.

SUPERVISION - Oregon State University's Endeavors for Excellence offers a seminar on supervision, "Supervision: The Constructive Use of Authority," on Sept. 23. The Friday seminar will be held at the Valley River Inn. The cost is $65 per participant. The seminar will discuss the best use of authority in supervisory and managerial activities, and will focus on using power in positive ways. Contact Staff Development, ext. 2260, for information.

IT'S YOUR PARADE - United Way plans a 2.5-mile parade on Saturday, Sept. 10, starting at the Amtrak station in Eugene. It will end one to two hours later at Skinner's Butte Park, and a festival will cap the event. The parade is intended as a kickoff to the United Way campaign. Community groups are encouraged to participate.

THE DAILY

Tuesday, Aug. 16, 1983

Published for the staff of Lane Community College.
Deadline for contributions 2 p.m. on the day before publication.
Editor: Keli Osborn, ext. 2201.

Lane Community College is an Equal Opportunity/
Affirmative Action/Section 503/Title IX institution.

BOARD MEETS BY PHONE - Because no regular LCC Board of Education meeting is scheduled during August, the board meets today by telephone in a special session to handle a couple of bid awards. Glass Spray Service of Eugene, the only bidder, is expected to be awarded a job to apply a moss-killing agent on shake roofs on the main campus at a cost of $6,996. Facilities seeks approval of a plant fund allocation of $4,500 to pay for code compliance projects for the recently purchased facility at Cottage Grove.

In other reports sent to the board, Administrative Services Vice President Bill Berry advises that about $1.9 million in cash carryover is being realized, as was expected and planned as part of the fiscal year 1983-84 budget....Berry also reports that the state-reimbursed FTE total for this year has been increased 57 to 7,618....Bill Mansell says investment earnings continue to generate income for LCC. Last year's earnings totaled $768,828 in spite of a sharp drop in interest rates. Total investment earnings for the last five fiscal years total $4.2 million....Negotiations for the possible drilling of a natural gas well on campus continue. Attorney Ed Harms suggests the state geologist be brought in to offer advice and that competitive bidding processes be used to determine who should get a drilling agreement.

TECH COMMITTEE APPOINTED - President Eldon G. Schafer has appointed a Technology Steering Committee to coordinate the increasing use of new technology in instruction and administration. Associate Dean Jim Ellison heads the group, which includes Jim Keizur of Data Processing, Verne Whittaker of Financial Services, Bob Marshall of Admissions, and Larry Warford of the President's Office. A planning process is to be developed between now and Dec. 31.

ELECTED - Linda Kluver, Student Employment coordinator, has been elected to the board of directors of the Northwest Placement Association. The group has members from colleges and private industry. Dixie Maurer-Clemons of the Science/CWE faculty is president-elect of the organization.

BACK AT WORK - After colon cancer surgery just a week ago last Friday, Howard Bird is on the job at the Work Activity Center. Wife Shirlee Bird reports her husband is doing well and, though the doctor's report is about a month away, the prognosis looks very good.

ANOTHER CLOSURE - The Electronics Department will be closed through Aug. 26.

PAYROLL - Payroll Verification Sheets are available Wednesday, and are due on Thursday at Personnel Services.

QUALITY CIRCLERS - CWIAQC (see below) has its annual conference in Portland Sept. 29-30. Registration fees are $95 with early registration and group discounts. An LCC bus is reserved as possible transportation. What's CWIAQC? Columbia Willamette Chapter of the International Association of Quality Circles. For information about the conference, call Casey Fast at ext. 2810.

APPRECIATIVE WORDS - For his participation and help in the "Building Bridges" workshop, Sandy Cutler of the Business Assistance Center received an appreciative note from James M. Burke, executive director of the Council of Economic Development in Oregon....For his informative talk on LCC's business assistance programs at the Eugene-Delta Rotary Club earlier this summer, Cutler was thanked again....Verne Whittaker, Financial Services, was part of a planning seminar with 12 others - designing a basic networking system for data, materials and information around the state. This system will increase access to information for thousands of users in education, employment training and industry/business, according to staff at the Oregon Department of Education and the Oregon Alliance for Program Improvement.... Praise for LCC's Adult Ed Spanish class, taught by Harland Wilhelm, comes from a retired university teacher. Wilhelm is "...a very inspiring and encouraging teacher," says Raymond Potter, UO Professor of Chemistry Emeritus.

MOA - According to program coordinator Norma Stevens, the summer issue of LCC Report's story on the Medical Office Assistant program demonstrated the "power of the press." In 1982, the program had 44 applicants. In 1983, after the story was published, the program had 112 applicants.

CONFERENCE NOTES - Many participants in the college's Focus on Productivity conference expressed how impressed they were with the quality and competence of LCC staff. Among the post-conference letters received was one from S.G. McCurdy, president of Alberta College. He called the conference one of the finest he'd attend in the last 10 years. Jeff Dimsdale of Orange Coast College in California also wrote.... "I was impressed by all the presentors and particularly enjoyed the extent to which the needs and desires of conference participants were anticipated," he says.

DAILY ON VACATION - The Daily takes a vacation for a couple of weeks, with publication suspended Aug. 23 through Sept. 7. That means The Daily will come out as scheduled this Thursday and will return on Thursday, Sept. 8.

THE DAILY

Thursday, Aug. 18, 1983

Published for the staff of Lane Community College.
Deadline for contributions 2 p.m. on the day before publication.
Editor: Keli Osborn, ext. 2201.

Lane Community College is an Equal Opportunity/
Affirmative Action/Section 503/Title IX institution.

COMPUTER SEMINAR - A seminar on the Columbia Computer will be held on campus today, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the cafeteria. Representatives from both hardware and software teams will be on hand.

AT THE FAIR - LCC is at the fair, in booth 411 in the Exhibit Hall of the Convention Center. Hero - a walking, talking robot - will be at the booth today through Sunday, providing college information from 1 to 9 p.m. Drop by to say hello.

OPEN ENROLLMENT FOR GROUP INSURANCE - If you are a classified or management employee and are interested in changing from one college medical insurance plan to the other, or in adding an existing dependent to your medical/vision or dental insurance policy without having to submit a Statement of Insurability, you may do so during open enrollment, Sept. 1-Oct. 15, 1983. Open enrollment for OEA Choice Trust participants will be Sept. 19-30. More detailed information will be provided in future issues of The Daily.

PLEASE MARK YOUR CALENDARS - LCC insurance representative Sharon Smelley will be on vacation Aug. 22-Sept. 5. If you have questions, call Gene Manley at 687-2211. Sharon Smelley will be back on campus Sept. 7.

GOLF TOURNAMENT - A golf tournament set for Saturday, Sept. 17, will raise money for LCC's Development Fund. Entry fee is $100 (tax-deductible), or $175 for wife and husband. Proceeds from the tournament will benefit the college through projects selected by trustees. LCC staff members can even play in the tournament and designate their $100 entry fee/donation to their department. Pat Williams suggests designating donations toward such things as scholarships and programs. The Sept. 17 tournament is sponsored by LCC and the Eugene Register-Guard. It will be played at Shadow Hills Country Club, 92512 River Road. For information, contact Pat Williams, 209 Administration, ext. 2201.

DAILY ON HOLD - The next issue of The Daily comes out Thursday, Sept. 8. Deadline for that issue is 2 p.m. on Wednesday, Sept. 7. The Daily goes daily the week of Sept. 19.

ABOUT THE LIBRARY - A survey of students - part-time and full-time, credit and noncredit - and staff indicate library users would improve service by increasing the book budget. Other findings: Users find the college open to new teaching methods, experiencing decreasing financial support, and planning for the future. Users find the library inviting, easy to use, student-oriented, and valuable. Forty percent of those surveyed use the library weekly; 26 percent use it daily. The subject areas most used are social science, business/economics/real estate, and language arts. The survey reached 340 persons, and was conducted last school year.

CONTRIBUTE - Do you have news about awards, achievements and happenings? Do you have enlightening or amusing quotes? If you have information to share with other staff, remember to forward it to The Daily editor in Community Relations & Development (ext. 2201).

LCC TOURS THE VATICAN EXHIBIT - LCC is sponsoring a trip to San Francisco, Jan. 29-31, for the Vatican exhibit. "The Papacy and Art is an unprecedented exhibition. For the first time in this country, Americans can enjoy the splendid treasures in the papal collections. Among the 237 objects in the exhibition are some of the most important works of art ever created. Only three U.S. museums will present the exhibition before it returns to the Vatican." The cost for round-trip transportation, two nights in a double-occupancy room, transportation in and tour of San Francisco, tour guide and bus host is $180. Sign up now. Call Naomi Soules, ext. 7533.

MORE KUDOS - Nancy Armes, special assistant to the chancellor at Dalla County Community College District, writes Larry Warford with thanks for the recent productivity conference. "I admired not only the fact that the Productivity Conference moves smoothly, but that it moved happily as well. You have good professionals there who really seem to enjoy their work."
