Eleventh Week of Summer Term

GOLF TOURNEY DEADLINE -- Sept. 8 is the deadline for entering Uncle Bud's Lane Community College Open on Friday, Sept. 12, at Emerald Valley Golf Course in Creswell. Proceeds from entry fees, which are $100 for individuals and $175 for couples, will benefit LCC through scholarships and projects chosen by the LCC Foundation. Participants have a chance to win $5,000 for a hole-in-one on the 11th hole and a 1987 Mazda RX 7 for a hole-in-one on the 14th. Details from Pat Williams, PR/F 2810.

EARTH DAY -- Showplace:LCC has announced a pruning and clean-up day for the campus Saturday, Sept. 6, at 10 a.m. Volunteers wishing to spruce up their areas should bring leaf bags, rakes, gloves, and other tools. Edna Kennel, Showplace: LCC coordinator, notes that volunteers who want to work beyond noon can bring a sack lunch for a picnic by the plum grove south of Performing Arts. Volunteers who prefer not to get their hands dirty can fill a pressing need by donating hoes, trowels, and other tools. Jo Stejskal and David Wienecke will give a pruning/trimming demonstration to open the day.

ASBESTOS UPDATE -- Paul Colvin, director of Campus Services, reports that the re-roofing of the Health and Science Buildings is expected to start within a couple of weeks. He stressed that the reconstruction company is experienced at removing the asbestos layer from roofs, that most of the work will be done at night, and that representatives of his office and the architects will be observers.

CAMPUS DIRECTORY -- Departments which haven't yet forwarded their data for the 1986-87 directory should do so soon, to Pete Roberts, PR/F, 2591.

AMPLIFICATION -- Managers only are invited to the session on Classified Contract Update scheduled at FOR 310 on Thursday, Sept. 4, from 10:30-11:30 a.m. It is part of the Staff Development inservice line-up for fall.

ALL-STAFF AGENDA -- Larry Warford, executive dean, is gathering items for the agenda of the all-staff meeting Sept. 15 from 9-11 a.m. in the Performing Arts Theatre. The Idea Exchange, Showplace:LCC, and employee wellness are examples of programs that will be explained at the meeting.

SECRETARY EXAM -- Velma Jesser, Business, will share information about the certified professional secretary exam at a brown bag lunch Friday, Sept. 5, noon to 1 p.m. in BU 203. Information will be available about review courses to be offered during fall term. Call Diana Reiber, Business secretary, at 2221 with questions.

CUSTOMIZED TRAINING -- Training and Development's Customized Training Program is offering classes, seminars, and workshops to business, industry, government, and service organizations. It now seeks quality instructors to cover offerings varying from one-hour to three months, with and without academic credit. Half-hour presentations on this program are available Sept. 16 at 1:30 p.m. and Sept. 24 at 2 p.m. Ted Lay has details at 2223 and 2821.

OPEN ENROLLMENT -- If you're a classified, management, or faculty employee and are interested in changing from one medical insurance plan to another--or adding a dependent to your medical/vision or dental insurance coverage--you may do so during open enrollment, Sept. 1-Oct. 15. All changes received by Marie Nelson, Personnel Services, by 5 p.m. Oct. 15 will be effective Nov. 1. Information on health insurance plans is available at a forum Sept. 24 from 1-3 p.m. or Sept. 25 from 9-11 a.m. in the northeast corner of the cafeteria. Representatives from Blue Cross/Blue Shield, OEA Choice Trust, and SelectCare will be present.

BID DEADLINE -- The last day to get bids out in time for the October meeting of the LCC Board is Friday, Sept. 12. Bids are required for any purchases or projects with a total cost exceeding $10,000 for equipment, supplies, or services. Bid specifications should be provided to the Purchasing Department at least a week before the Sept. 12 deadline.

INSURANCE CERTIFICATES -- The standard insurance group certificates for long term disability and life coverage for classified and management personnel have been distributed. If you didn't get a copy please call Marie Nelson, Personnel Services, at 2590.

FIVE SCHOLARSHIPS -- The LCC Foundation has announced that five students have won scholarships for the 1986-87 year. Receiving $1,000 awards from Weyerhaeuser are Jerry Fox, Prineville sophomore; Michael A. Perry, Springfield sophomore; and Peggy J. Rossignol, Eugene freshman. The two winners of Herb Person Scholarships are Rebecca Fallow of Junction City and Heidi von Ravensburg of Eugene, both sophomores.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED -- The LCC booth at the Eugene Celebration, scheduled Sept. 27-28, needs volunteers. Interested persons should notify Charlene Blinn, Counseling, 2204.

EYE PROBLEMS? -- Lighting tips for improved eye comfort for office workers will be the subject of Dr. Rod Gillilan Monday, Sept. 8, 9-11 a.m. in HEA 105. His discussion of the "See Sick Syndrome" will cover sensitivity to light, frequent headaches, and motion sickness. Pre-register at 2577 by Friday, Sept. 5, as part of the fall inservice line-up from Staff Development. -- Pre-registration deadlines in the same series are Sept. 9 for "Writing Skills for Secretaries," taught by Joan Ryan, Business, and for "Basic Microcomputer Concepts," using the Appleworks program; and Sept. 10 for procedures to get you what you want through Purchasing, and for the CPR instruction that might make a difference between life and death some day.

KLCC PROGRAMMING -- Jail overcrowding in Lane County will be the subject of Sheriff Dave Burks and ACLU Director Dave Fidanque on Two-Way Radio, KLCC's weekly call-in talk show at noon Thursday, Sept. 4. Alan Siporin is host, and the call-in number is 726-2212.

SHOWPLACE VOLUNTEERS -- The list of volunteers pledging their efforts to decorate and maintain the campus has expanded further during the summer under Showplace:LCC. Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Bentz are sweeping the stairs from the south parking lot to the Science Building and edging the nearby lawns. Larry Warford is donating bedding plants and bulbs, and Jim Ellison will weed the flower bed on the west side of the Forum Building and care for the planter on the northwest corner of the Forum. Thelma Kitterman has volunteered a financial contribution, and weeding around the Performing Arts Building and plum tree "tea garden" will be handled by Corinne Meehan, Sandra Wilson, and Marcella Crowson. Weeding, planting, and maintaining three tree boxes south of Health and PE are the duties of Kay Mueller, Jane Wojcik, Doug White, Ginger Yates, and Marie Wiles. Sweeping the Gonyea Terrace walkways and caring for its planter box belong to Jerry Nehring, Nick Cheshire, Pat Dickover, Marie Matsen, Mike Keizur, Hilary Saville, Wilma Luckey, Jan Klemensky, Bert Ewing, and Nathan Blankenship. Maintaining the island area in front of the PE Building and beds next to Administration between the entry and Personnel windows falls to a brigade comprising Arlene Kinley, Darlene Turpin, Trish Hawkins, Marie Nelson, Mary Glenn, Lee Sowers, Mary Gay, Lucille Johnson, Rose Holeman, and Sue Colvin.

A LOCAL EXPO -- Jim Piercey, dean of off-campus centers, reports that Sept. 12 is the registration deadline for industrial developers invited to the Eugene/Springfield Development Expo Sept. 25-26. The event is sponsored by the Eugene/Springfield Metro Partnership Inc., of which Piercey is vice president. The visitors will get tours of industrial sites in the two cities, meet with Gov. Vic Atiyeh, and hear representatives of the Fantus Co. discuss the investment opportunities in the metropolitan area.

THE DAILY

HAZARD COMMUNICATIONS -- Last training session of the year will be held in the Board Room on Tuesday, Sept. 16, from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m. Departments/offices which did not send representatives to either of the two prior sessions (June 11 & 12) should send one or more people in order to meet legal requirements for advising staff on hazardous chemicals and substances that exist in the workplace. Questions? Call Bill Mansell, Administrative Services, ext. 2312.

HORSTRUP WINS GRANT -- LCC's Board of Education is expected to formally accept a FIPSE grant for $293,104 at its meeting tonight at 7:30 in ADM 216. Carl Horstrup, Apprenticeship Coordinator, will be project director for the grant, which will be used over three years to assemble, assess, and make recommendations concerning apprenticeship teaching materials in use around the country.

ALSO ON AGENDA -- The Board will consider a Mass Communication Department request for a $1,100 remodeling of the electronic editing lab; a request from Media Productions for $10,620 worth of videotapes; a request for gym clothing from Health and Physical Education costing $18,930; a request to approve assessing a student body fee of $5 per term on high school completion students; and a request to approve a Management Employees Working Agreement. The meeting is open to the public.

WE GET LETTERS -- John Ball, vice chairman of the Lane County Board of Commissioners, thanks the College for use of Heceta House. Robbie Lee Needham for the League for Innovation thanks President Turner, Executive Dean Larry Warford, and Jim Keizur for being "terrific hosts" at the Summer Administrators Conference in Seattle. Student Trixy Mainville thanks President Turner for helping her adjust her class schedule. She writes: "It is nice to know our President at LCC is willing to take the time from his busy schedule to help the students." Former student Becky Patrick Newcombe thanks Sharon Moore, Business faculty, for encouragement that helped her graduate and gain employment. U.S. Senator Lowell Weicker, Jr., tells Sandy Cutler of the Oregon Small Business Development Center Network of his "pleasure to see how successful the program has been and the positive impact it has had on the small business community" in Oregon. Associate Dean Bill MacDonald of Portland Community College congratulates Sandy Cutler and others in the Network for "the fine job you and your staff are doing." Former student Howard Widoff of Eugene writes Bob Way of CWE "to express my utmost satisfaction and appreciation" for his experience in the program. He discovered through CWE that investment counseling was the right field for him; he is now employed at Smith Barney. Barbara Nichols, U of Oregon counselor, praises Charlene Blinn of Counseling for her help to students transferring to UofO. Vice President Jack Carter, Student Services, followed Nichols' letter with a written commendation to Blinn. Student Georgine M. Perino of Eugene says David Leung "has got to be one of the best" psychology teachers around. She says he is "caring, thorough, and interesting."

OUR WOMAN OF IMPACT -- Julie Aspinwall-Lamberts, Institutional Research, is LCC's representative to help conduct a state-wide study through Oregon Community College Association to determine the community colleges' economic impact on the state.

STILL TIME TO SIGN UP -- "Basic Microcomputer Concepts" is offered Wed.-Fri., Sept. 10-12, 1-4, HEA 201, and "Beyond the BOM: Hands On!" purchasing procedures is offered Thurs., Sept. 11, 10-11:30, Board Room. Call 2577 to register.

NEXT MONDAY -- Remember the free Welcome Breakfast in the cafeteria. Come anytime between 7 and 8:30 a.m. Then continue to the All-Staff Meeting from 9-11 in the Performing Arts Theatre.

FACULTY -- First meeting of the LCCEA this year will occur immediately following the All-Staff meeting on Monday, Sept. 15, in the Performing Arts Theatre.

BIG DAY FOR STAFF ACTIVITIES -- Next Tuesday, Sept. 16, you can "Meet the New Vice President" from 10-11 a.m. in the Performing Arts Theatre. From noon to 1:30 p.m., in FOR 308, you can attend "Presenting: The Best Possible You." Media Productions presents "What You Can Do for Yourself" from 1-1:30 p.m. in FOR 310. Ted Lay of Training & Development tells about Customized Training Program and your opportunities to teach in it from 1:30-2 p.m. in the Board Room. Phyllis Geyer, Counseling, will present "Effective Use of Emotional Choice in the Classroom" from 2-4 p.m. in CEN 420. Pre-registration is requested for some of these activities. Check your copy of the fall Inservice calendar.

ITALY TRIP -- Susan Dunne, English & Foreign Languages, shares details about a Fulbright seminar she attended in Italy during July. It's in the Board Room from noon to 1:30 on Wednesday, Sept. 17. Pre-register by calling 2577 before Sept. 16.

LCCEF MEETING -- Classified staff are invited to meetings on Wednesday, Sept. 17, in FOR 309 at either noon or 5:15 p.m. to meet Vice President Jacquie Belcher. Refreshments will be served.

BACK NEXT MONDAY -- The Learning Resource Center (library) reopens Monday after a month's hiatus.

GRANT UPDATE -- The Grants office has two publications describing projects National Endowment for the Humanities and Ford Foundation are willing to fund. Diane Dann, ADM 211, ext. 2592, says NEH "defines the humanities broadly to include history, philosophy, languages, linguistics, literature, ethics, critical thinking, etc. Two current emphases are Understanding America and Understanding Other Nations. In "Current Interests 1986 and 1987," Ford talks about supporting projects addressing urban poverty, rural poverty, human rights and social justice, governance and public policy, education and culture, and international affairs.

UP TO 22 -- Staff now scheduled to participate in Uncle Bud's LCC Open on Friday include: Dale Bates, Bill Berry, Howard Bird, Jack Carter, Sandy Cutler, Jim Ellison, Bob Foster, Jay Jones, Shannon Kracht, Chuck Lamb, Cynde Leathers, Fred Loveys, Roger McAlister, Larry Murray, Ron Rourke, Tom Tennent, Richard Turner, III, Larry Warford, Doug White, Harland Wilhelm, Donald J. Wilson, and Steve Wolf.

NEEDED BADLY -- Five more volunteers are sought to help out at Uncle Bud's LCC Open this Friday. Pat Williams, ext. 2810, needs people to witness holes-in-one (or attempts), to dispense beverages, and to be enthusiastic.

TICKETS AVAILABLE -- Dick Reid, Performing Arts says "now's the time to order your season tickets to LCC Theatre, before tickets go on sale to the general public on Sept. 22. You'll get top-priority seating along with our mailing list patrons, and you'll get a big 25 percent discount: $15 instead of $20 for a reserved-seat ticket to each play. Stop by the box office when you're attending the All-Staff meeting or any day this week (call first). Season brochures and order forms are available at the box office and the department office."

CITED AGAIN -- President Turner's Palo Alto speech of last March continues to get attention in the national speech press. The Executive Speaker, of Dayton, Ohio, praises the "interest-arousing comparison" of the speech's opening in its September 1986 issue. Turner makes an analogy between choosing and implementing strategies that ensure and enhance excellence and walking a tightrope.

NEW LOOK -- "We'd like to hear your reactions to the new format and look of the class schedule just distributed. We've cut LCC Report in half, dispersed news and feature stories throughout the schedule, added a directory of classes and a number of maps. The changes were inspired by a panel of students and community people Vicki Miller consulted, plus the need to cut the cost of the publication. We'll begin planning the winter schedule soon, so if you have wanted to share your reaction to the new look, please contact us now." --Diane Dann, Institutional Advancement, ext. 2592.

FREE SERVICE -- English and Foreign Languages Department offers a free writing tutor program for all students, not just those taking English. Tutors are trained in proofreading, spelling, grammar, and punctuation. They are available from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. Monday through Friday in CEN 445. Evening tutoring also is available. Call Judy Corkery at ext. 2419 for details.

FOR SALE: EXPO Tickets, 3 adult 3-day passes available. $20 each. Contact Judy Dresser, Home Economics, ext. 2523 or 937-2630.

HELP WANTED, Desperate. LCC Bookstore needs cashiers to work Sept. 15-Oct. 10, hours approximately 8-5. Ideal job for faculty spouses. Cheryl Bryson, ext. 2680.

KENNEL FARMS ESTATE AUCTION: Machinery, tools, antiques, primitives, collectables. For handbill describing details, send a note to Edna Kennel, Printing/Graphics.

Accounts Payable Bookkeeper I, classified, Financial Services, Closes Sept. 19.

Adult Skills Trainer, half-time, temporary 9/5/86-6/30/87, classified, Adult Education, closes Sept. 12.

Operations Bookkeeper I, classified, Financial Services, closes Sept. 19.

Department Head, Performing Arts, management, closes Nov. 28.

On-Call Part-Time Instructor, faculty, Study Skills, closes Sept. 18.

THE DAILY

Monday, September 15, 1986

Classes begin September 29

OUR DAILY NEWS -- As of today the Daily will become a tri-weekly for awhile. You will receive a Daily on Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. The interim Daily editor will be Diane Prokop. Please direct all news items to her in the Office of Institutional Advancement or ext. 2591.

FALL WELCOME -- Volunteers are needed to staff the information booth during fall registration. Two-hour blocks beginning at 8 a.m. are open on Sept. 22 and 23; call Jane Wojcik, ext. 2627 to sign up on these days. Time blocks are also open Sept. 24, 25, and 29; call Vicki Miller, ext. 2593 to volunteer.

MEET THE NEW VICE-PRESIDENT -- On Thursday, September 18, from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. in the NE corner of the cafeteria, the Instructional Senate will host an all-campus reception for the new Vice-President of Instruction, Dr. Jacquelyn Belcher.

THANK YOU, WORD PROCESSING STAFF! -- Admissions appreciates all the hundreds and hundreds of letters generated during the past few months for applicants and prospective applicants to LCC. You've been marvelously cooperative!

THIRTEEN HIRES, ONE RETIREMENT -- LCC's Board of Education approved a host of new hirings at its Wednesday meeting as the College readies for the opening of fall classes. Judith J. Gabriel continues as coordinator of the College High Program and Lane County Vocational Education Consortium; Alice Kaseberg of Eugene will teach mathematics; Mac Allison comes from Eugene private business to teach electronics; Stan Addison of Cottage Grove moves from mechanics tutor to the faculty; Carolyn Blanchard moves from the temporary to the permanent dental faculty; Darlene Thomasec moves from temporary to permanent nursing faculty; Candace Mead moved from substitute to permanent nursing faculty; Julianne Nutting of Portland becomes a child development instructor; Donald Savoie moves from temporary to permanent teacher of culinary, food service and hospitality; Dr. Thomas J. Hickey from Vermont joins the criminal justice faculty; Stephen D. Johnston moves from temporary to permanent instructor of study skills; Marjorie Vignoul comes from District 4J to teach study skills; and Debra Carroll moves from the BAC to become Adult Education office manager. Stanley Elbertson retires from the Performing Arts faculty as of Dec. 31.

COMMENDATION -- Hearing that 90 percent of the objectives in last year's College Plan were attained, the Board of Education unanimously accepted a report of 1985-86 activities "with commendation" for the College staff. Board member Bill Manley of Eugene pointed out that most of the achievements were on top of staff members' regular workloads. It was a night for kudos as Manley also offered a commendation for Showplace:LCC and those who manage and work in it.

OTHER BUSINESS -- The Board accepted a $293,104 FIPSE grant for Apprenticeship; approved a $1,100 remodeling of the electronic editing lab; approved $10,632 for videotapes; approved buying $18,930 worth of gym clothing; okayed a $5 student body fee for high school completion students; and approved a Management Employees Working Agreement for 1986-87 which calls for a 2.6 percent increase in salary.

EDUCATION, NOT BOOZE -- It'll be "drink to me only with thine eyes" in a proposed new Alcohol Server program at LCC. There won't be any alcohol because the 8-hour course will focus on information about alcohol and its effects on the body, laws relating to sales and service, identification of problem drinkers, etc. Mandated by the Legislature for the state's 200,000 alcohol servers, the program is expected to be offered sometime this academic year. LCC will join a statewide community college consortium to offer the service.

ROOF REMOVAL STARTS TODAY -- Contractors today are scheduled to begin roof removal on the Health Building; they are expected to start the same job on the Science Building in about a week. Asbestos paper will be removed from each by a contractor who specializes in that activity. Safeguards are being taken to protect workers and LCC staff from asbestos dust, etc. Most of the removal will be done at night. The effort is being monitored by the Lane Regional Air Pollution Authority. Those with questions may contact Paul Colvin at Campus Services, ext. 2216.

PLEASE NOTE -- The Health & Physical Education/Athletic Department will be closed on Wednesday, Sept. 17 from noon to 5 p.m., for Inservice.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION -- Parking permits, elevator keys, and lockers for Disabled Students will be issued during registration. Delores May of Disabled Student Services will have a station set up in the gym during registration for the student's convenience. After registration, Student Health Services will be handling this function.

SPEND YOUR LUNCH HOUR IN ITALY -- Susan Dunne, English & Foreign Languages, shares details about a Fulbright seminar she attended in Italy during July. It's in the Board Room from noon to 1:30 on Wednesday, Sept. 17. Please pre-register by calling ext. 2577 before Sept. 16.

OPEN ENROLLMENT -- Classified, management and faculty employees interested in changing from one medical insurance plan to another -- or adding a dependent to your medical/vision or dental insurance plan to another -- you may do so during open enrollment, Sept. 1-Oct. 15. All changes and additions received by Marie Nelson, Personnel Services, by 5 p.m. on Oct. 15 will be effective Nov. 1.

If you need more information about the different medical plans available to you, plan to attend a health insurance forum on Tuesday, Sept. 24, 1 to 3 p.m., or Wednesday, Sept. 25, 9 to 11 a.m. Both will be held in the NE corner of the cafeteria. Representatives from Blue Cross/Blue Shield, OEA Choice Trust and SelectCare will be on hand to explain their plans.

PLANNING ACTIVITIES -- The planning process for 1987-88 through 1991-92 is underway! The Planning Committee is currently developing the guidelines, priorities, and reporting formats to be used. This year's process will be a streamlined and simplified version of last year's procedures. Departments will begin their planning activities in mid-October. Information sessions will be held on procedures for completing the planning forms. Watch The Daily for further updates and announcements. Call Julie Aspinwall-Lamberts, ext. 2576, for further information.

FAREWELL -- Sue Jordan of Institutional Research, Planning & Evaluation will be leaving LCC the end of September to pursue a Master's Degree at the University of Oregon. Her focus will be on Industrial Relations. Sue has been with LCC for 7 years serving as Research Associate. Good Luck Sue! We'll miss you.

There will be a gathering at the Tree House on Franklin Blvd., Wednesday, September 24th from 5:30 to 7:30 in the newly redecorated "cellar" to honor Sue. Join us and/or contribute to a gift. Please call Sally Glover, ext. 2576, for further details.

CONGRATULATIONS! -- Patti Basconcillo has been voted "Employee of the Year" by the Training & Development Department. The selection was made during this year's inservice. The entire staff felt that Patti was well deserving of this "First Annual" award. Congratulations Patti!

INSERVICE ACTIVITY -- Customized Training is pleased to repeat their inservice presentation on Wednesday, September 24, at 2:00 p.m. in the Boardroom. If you missed the one held last Tuesday, please come to this informative offering on the Customized Training Program. Find out how you can earn extra money, and how the program works. Call ext. 2223 for more information.

MONEY -- Annuity and deferred comp representatives will be on campus Wednesday, September 24 from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. in the NE corner of the cafeteria to answer any questions you might have regarding annuities or deferred compensation.

NOTE CORRECT DAYS -- Classified, management and faculty employees interested in changing from one medical insurance plan to another -- or adding a dependent to your medical/vision or dental insurance plan to another -- you may do so during open enrollment, September 1-October 15. All changes and additions received by Marie Nelson, Personnel Services, by 5 p.m. on October 15, will be effective November 1.

If you need more information about the different medical plans available to you, plan to attend a health insurance forum on Wednesday, September 24, 1 to 3 p.m., or Thursday, September 25, 9 to 11 a.m. Both will be held in the NE corner of the cafeteria. Representatives from Blue Cross/Blue Shield, OEA Choice Trust and SelectCare will be on hand to explain their plans.

BOOKSTORE HOURS -- Please note a mistake in the hours for the Main Campus Bookstore hours as published on calendar for October 13-16. It should read 8:00 a.m. - 6:00 p.m.

POTLUCK IS OFF -- PICNIC IS ON! -- Looks like we goofed! We planned an All-Staff Potluck Picnic for Thursday, September 25. We were so carried away with enthusiasm for the idea that we forgot the potential risks of potlucks. Concerns were raised about the recent hepatitis problems in our area, so the plan is altered somewhat, but the social spirit remains. Plan to brown bag it or buy your lunch at the cafeteria on Thursday, and join us for the fun outside at Bristow Square. Same time, same fun activities, same music - just different food. If you have any questions, feel free to call Barbara Mathewson in Staff Development, ext. 2577.

Computer Trainings Galore! The choices have never been greater for LCC employees to get microcomputer training at times to fit their schedules. Take a look at the following options, make your plans, complete your tuition waivers, and go for success! Details may be found in the fall term schedule.

YOU CAN'T GET THERE FROM HERE -- Consider taking another route to work and home again if you travel via the section of Franklin Blvd. that passes under the railroad overpass in Glenwood. The overpass is being replaced. Consequently, that part of the road will be closed all of next week. Detours will be posted.

LET'S GET WELL -- The Wellness Task Force is looking for some more good members. If you would like to have a hand in planning wellness-related activities for LCC employees, contact Kurt Schultz, ext. 2327 or ext. 2545 (message) before Tuesday, September 30.

GOOD OL' FASHIONED XMAS CHEER -- That's what Tom Birkenhead promises at the LCC Christmas party (only three months left to shop). It's on Friday, December 19 at the Red Lion Motor Inn, 7:30 to 11 p.m. The Emmett Williams Quartet will play for dancing. Tickets at $7 per person will buy you "great" hors d'oeuvres, genuine Christmas punch, a chance in drawings for "great" gifts, special entertainment, and "good old fashioned Christmas cheer in a classy environment," says Tom. There will be a no-host bar. An announcement about ticket sales will be coming soon. Coordinator Tom Birkenhead can be reached to answer questions at ext. 2221.

STAFF DIRECTORY -- If you have people and phone numbers listed in other parts of the directory besides in their major department (for instance, administrators, special programs), please check them for accuracy and notify me of any changes to be made. Call Diane Prokop, ext. 2591

GOOD NEWS FOR BOWLERS -- All those interested in bowling on Monday evenings at the Southtowne Bowling Alley should call Sue Kangas, ext. 2507.

CANDIDATES DUE ON CAMPUS -- Republican Gubernatorial Candidate Norma Paulus will visit the main campus on Friday, October 10, 9 to 10:30 a.m., to speak and visit a few departments. Paulus' visit and that of Democratic Candidate Neil Goldschmidt (date to be announced) are in response to invitations from LCC Education Association. George Alvergue, Social Science, and Alice Kaseberg, Science, are making the arrangements. Watch the Daily for more details.

A MUSHROOMING INDUSTRY -- There will be a conference entitled, "Shiitake Growing in Japan" hosted by LCC on October 4. It will be held in the Forum Building from 10 to noon. Bob Harris, an internationally known expert in Shiitake mushroom cultivation, will be the speaker. Shiitake cultivation is a rapidly developing new industry. Environmental conditions in the Pacific Northwest are excellent for its successful cultivation here. Everyone is welcome to attend. If you have any questions, please contact Freeman Rowe, ext. 2445.

BOOKSTORE HOURS -- Please note a mistake in the hours for the Main Campus Bookstore hours as published on calendar for October 13-16. It should read 8:00 a.m. - 6:00 p.m.

JAZZ IT UP -- The 5th Avenue Jazz Festival will be broadcast live on KLCC Friday, September 26, 7p.m. - midnight, and Saturday, September 27, 2 p.m.-midnight. (Except 6-8 p.m. Saturday during A Prairie Home Companion.) The third annual jazz festival showcases top regional artists during this popular two-day event. Numerous forms of jazz will be represented, including traditional, big band, salsa, and contemporary.

HOW DO YOU MEASURE UP? -- Keep tabs on your level of fitness and percentage of body fat throughout the term by signing up for "Fitness Testing & Conditioning" (seq. #701). We will monitor several measures of fitness throughout the term, and discuss fitness-related topics such as diet, injury, weightloss, and cardiovascular changes as a result of exercise. Options for exercise time and location are available to fit your schedule. For more information, call me, Kurt Schultz, ext. 2545.

IT'S FOR THE BIRDS!

Welcome feathered visitors into your yard all year long simply by meeting their needs for food, water, and shelter. Start offering food early, in October or November, and you will have a parade of attractive species to watch through the otherwise dull winter months.

THE DAILY

Editor: Diane Prokop, ext. 2591

DID LCC HELP THEM SUCCEED? -- Institutional Advancement would like to hear about student success stories to develop testimonials for a new college brochure. If you can recommend a former student who exemplifies the College's 'Go For Success' theme, call Vicki Miller, ext. 2593.

THANK YOU -- A bright and cheery thank you to all who helped me in the decorations of the cafeteria and the campus:

Barbara Caldwell, Debbie Coelho, Shelley Gaudia, Carol Giorgi, Terry Hagberg, Ted Kotsakis, Lasca McAlexander, Monty McAlexander, Kay Mueller, Tom Nelson, Bill Porter, Phil Powers, Lynn Richmond, Lucile Riggs, Dave Rosen, Judi Strong, Bob Vogel, and Debbie Wiseman

If it's the thought that truly counts, consider yourselves to have roses under your noses! And a special thanks to Dee Tipping for the hours and hours of her own time spent in pulling the many activities of the Fall Welcome Committee together. None of us had "extra time" for these activities, but the students are certainly worth the effort. Sheila Christensen, Decorations Committee Chair

FACULTY OPPORTUNITY -- Faculty interested in instructional computing are encouraged to apply for a college-paid training seminar on Control Data's new "PCD3" Authoring System on October 29, 30, and 31 in Minneapolis. The seminar will form the core of a "PCD3 Courseware Exchange Consortium". The Authoring System runs on IBM-PC and 100 percent compatibles. Candidates should have: experience using computer applications; awareness of what CBE Authoring Systems can do; use of CBE materials or have worked closely with those who have; experience selecting and implementing use of CBE materials; interest in learning a CBE Authoring System and being a resource to others. Application and more information available from Jim Ellison, Forum 301, ext. 2360. Deadline for receipt of application is October 3.

REMINDER -- Whenever Media Productions must call in an extra camera operator, the requesting department will be charged $6.47 per hour with a two-hour minimum. There is no charge to the department if Media Productions can supply the service with existing full-time staff during regular working hours. All after-hours camera operator's time will be charged back to the departments. A rate of $18.41 per hour will be charged for overtime hours if full-time staff is required. If the above on-call operator can be used, the fee will remain $6.47 per hour. Call Media Productions if you have further questions. Thank you, Peggy Bernham, ext. 2365

WELCOME -- Cooperative Work Experience welcomes two new CWE coordinators. Joann Ellingson, a LCC faculty member since 1969, will coordinate the CWE programs for Home Economics and Early Childhood Education. Tom Hickey has been newly hired to oversee CWE for Criminal Justice. Tom holds a doctorate in Criminal Justice and recently moved here from Castleton, Vermont via Houston, Texas. He is the former assistant professor and program coordinator for the Department of Criminal Justice, Castleton State College.

PICNIC UPDATE -- Thanks to all the folks who helped make the All-Staff Picnic last Thursday such a fun time. Picnic Planners United, which included the staff of Personnel Services, plus Bonny Ross of Study Skills and Charlene Blinn of Counseling, put lots of effort into designing a pleasant noon-time social. Thanks also to Tom Birkenhead and friends for providing great background music, and to Lynn Richmond who spearheaded the clean-up crew. Winners of the "What Little Kid Was This?" photo contest were Telecourse Coordinator Cynde Leathers, who guessed all nine pictures correctly and won tickets for two to the opening night of "Our Town"; Janet Anderson of Athletics (lunch for two at the Renaissance Room); Don Ownbey of the LRC, who received a $5 Bookstore gift certificate. If you'd like to see who was really who, the pictures are displayed on the west wall glass case by the exit doors of 2nd Floor Admin. for the rest of this week. Staff Development

GOOD NEWS FOR BOWLERS -- All those interested in bowling on Monday evenings at the Southtowne Bowling Alley should call Sue Kangas, ext. 2507

LEARN ABOUT "LEADERS FOR THE 80'S" -- The President's Office and past participants in the Leaders for the 80's will host a no-host, brown bag lunch and information session, Friday, October 3 from noon to 1:30 p.m. in the Renaissance Room. Come, learn about the program and pick up a copy of the application. The program, which involves one week of training away from campus, is designed to prepare women for leadership positions at community colleges. National eligibility rules require that applicants have a masters degree and work full time at the college. For information, contact Larry Warford or past participants Mabel Armstrong, Diane Dann, Julie Aspinwall-Lamberts, Helen Hunter, Julie Baker, or Laura Weaver.

HANDS-ON -- The Oregon Vocational Trade Technical Association will have their Fall conference here at LCC on October 10. Dan Forbess, drafting instructor for the Electronics Department will host a "hands-on" Introduction to AUTOCAD (Automatic Computer Aided Drafting). For information call Fred Hoynes, 378-5114 or Dan Forbess, ext. 2869.

TEACHERS TO VISIT -- The Mechanics Department will host state conferences of OIAA (Oregon Industrial Arts Association) and OVTTA (Oregon Voc. Trade Teachers Association) on Friday, October 10. Some 300 to 350 high school industrial arts and vocational education teachers are expected. Besides their own meetings, they will be invited to tour the campus and take part in other activities organized for them by Mechanics and other departments. Ted Kotsakis, Mechanics head, is in charge of arrangements.

CONNECTIONS -- Interested in LCC/high school connections? September 30, from 9:30 a.m. to 1:15 p.m. in the Board Room, LCC joins with the Lane County Vocational Consortium in sponsoring the first American Association of Community and Junior College Teleconference. The teleconference is titled, "Community College Partnerships". It is free of charge. Those who attend will receive a special edition of Dale Parnells, The Neglected Majority, and have the opportunity to meet with high school and community persons interested in establishing educational partnerships with LCC. For information call Judith Gabriel, ext. 2687 or Leslie Rasor, ext. 2903.

LET'S GET WELL -- The Wellness Task Force is looking for some more good members. If you would like to have a hand in planning wellness-related activities for LCC employees, contact Kurt Schultz, ext. 2327 or ext. 2545 (message) before Tuesday, September 30.
