Week 5 of Winter Term

HAVE LUNCH WITH THE PRESIDENT - To enhance personal communication with staff and students, President Turner will hold monthly brown bag lunches in the Board Room (ADM 216) for the rest of the college year. The first will be held on Monday, Feb. 9, 12-noon to 1 p.m. Those who would like to join the President should make reservations through Executive Assistant Marie Reid at Ext. 2200. Participants are asked to bring their own bag lunch. Coffee and tea will be provided. No formal program is planned; it simply will be informal conversation. Other dates for the rest of the year include: Wednesday, Mar. 18; Monday, Apr. 13; Friday, May 1; and Wednesday, June 3.

FOREIGN STUDENT ENROLLMENT UP - Figures taken from reports made to an outside data collection at the end of Fall Term 1986-87 reported enrollment of LCC foreign students at an all time high. Data indicated the 156 students enrolled, up 45 from Fall term 1985-86. This is in keeping with the national trend of colleges and universities. Reports show that foreign student enrollment increased ten percent nationwide over the last five years. The profile, compiled the American Council on Education's Division of Policy Analysis and Research, said that 46 percent of the foreign students were from South and East Asia, especially Taiwan, Malaysia, Korea, India, and Japan. The next most represented area was the Middle East with 15 percent. The majority of foreign students majored in four fields of study: engineering (22 percent); business and management (19 percent); mathematics and computer sciences (10 percent); and physical and life sciences (8 percent).

LIGHT READING - The Learning Resource Center has begun receiving copies of the bills submitted for the 1987 Oregon Legislative Assembly. They may be read or copied but must remain in the LRC. An index to the bills and hearings' schedule is also available. Kathy Wiederholt, ext. 2355

ING CHOSEN - Sandra Ing, director of specialized student services, has been selected to fill a vacancy on the Junction City School Board created by the resignation last month of Earl Kelley. Ing says that she will run for the position in the next election. A resident of the Cheshire area for the past nine years, Ing has been employed at LCC for seven years, the past two as director of specialized student services.

ELECTION Q & A - What will the proposed serial levy generate in dollars and how will it be spent? Paul Colvin, interim vice president for Administrative Services, has prepared data which indicates that a 10-year levy would produce a total of $6,021,269. Since the anticipated need totals $14.7 million, not all suggested projects can be funded. Those chosen would be in four areas: 1) rehabilitation of run-down facilities (roofs, beam repair, paving, painting, etc.); 2) replacement of equipment which is worn out or outdated in both instruction and support areas; 3) campus-wide network of microcomputers, terminals and peripheral devices with mainframe access; and 4) new construction and remodeling to modernize existing facilities and to meet needs of changing programs.

OH BOY - A HOLIDAY! - The College will be closed on Monday, Feb. 16, in celebration of President's Day. This applies to classified, faculty, and management staff. Plan a great three-day weekend.

STONE AGE MESSAGE - There will be a film and lecture by John Nance, the author of "The Gentle Tasaday," on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The event will take place from 2-3 p.m. in Forum 308 and is sponsored by the Oregon Committee for the Humanities and Friends of LCC Library. The Tasaday are a peaceful Stone Age people discovered in a Phillipine rain forest in the 1970's. All staff and students are invited. For more information, call Kathy Wiederholt, LRC, ext. 2355

FRIENDS MEET - The Friends of the LCC Library will meet on Wednesday, Feb. 4, at 3 p.m. in the Library Mezzanine Lounge. There will be an introduction of new officers, discussion of annual activities and financial support, a short talk on the book, "Popular Fiction by Oregon Authors," and refreshments. Come and make new friends! Kathy Wiederholt, ext. 2355

Jill Bradley, Women's Center, ext. 2352

ELECTION Q & A - If the College need for maintenance and equipment money over the next 10 years totals $14.7 million, why are we asking for a levy of only $7,250,000? One goal is to find a sum which takes into account both the College's needs and the apparent public desire to hold property taxes at or below the current level. The total being recommended to the Board of Education amounts to continuing the LCC share of property taxes at about the same level as this year. Bonds sold years ago to finance the construction of the main campus will be paid off next year. That could reduce the LCC property tax by about 10 cents per $1,000 of assessed value, or $6 for the owner of a home assessed at $60,000. The College would ask voters to authorize continuance of this same level of funding to apply for the proposed serial levy of $7,250,000 per year. It is thought that this approach of not asking for additional taxes is realistic. Paul Colvin, Interim Vice President for Administrative Services

MEMORANDUM - In a memo to the College Cabinet Members regarding the Jan. 28, 1987, article in the Register-Guard, President Turner said the following:

As you are aware, no doubt, the Register-Guard carried a story in its Wednesday, Jan. 28, 1987, edition about the shortfall we face and the steps we are taking to deal with it.

Although we feel the article was intended to be positive, there were some inaccuracies. One of them was the statement, "Colvin said the new shortfall is also being caused in part by a higher-than-expected settlement in salaries for teachers, a 3.8 percent for the 311 faculty members who teach half time or more."

This is not the position of Mr. Paul Colvin nor the rest of the administration. There are several reasons for the shortfall; among them, raises for all employees contributed to it. We would expect this, since we are a labor intensive organization and a high percentage of our resources are budgeted for employees' salaries.

We have confirmed with Register-Guard reporter James Thalman that Mr. Colvin's statement was not accurately presented. While this is unfortunate, we do not feel the article intended to mislead its readers.

I hope that this will help you to understand the facts about our shortfall and the steps we are taking to control our financial affairs.

OEA TO MATCH DONATIONS - George Alvergue, president of LCCEA, reports that the Oregon Education Association has agreed to match the total donations from LCC faculty toward expenses of the March 31 election. Alvergue asks that checks be made out to LCC Advocates and sent to him.

Otherwise, notice of intent not to rehire could be sent to an employee in error.

SPEAKING OPPORTUNITIES SOUGHT - The College would like to send guest speakers to community organizations during February and March to talk about the proposed serial levy for maintenance and equipment. If you can arrange for a presentation to an organization to which you belong, please call Larry Warford at ext. 2302 or Larry Romine at ext. 2303. Thanks.

ELECTION Q & A - What's the difference between the $6 million and the $7.2 million numbers that have been mentioned in connection with the levy? You're right; it's confusing. The proposed $725,000-per-year levy for 10 years would generate revenues of $7,250,000. The lower figure of $6,021,269 represents our estimate of the actual buying power of that $7.2 million after allowing for inflation over the 10 years. The $6 million is an expression of buying power in terms of today's dollars. Using it gives us a truer estimate of what we would gain from levy approval. - Paul Colvin, Interim Vice President for Administrative Services

TELEPHONE BOOK EXCHANGE - The 1987 US West Direct (PNB) telephone books have arrived and are available for exchange. Departments are encouraged to gather their old books and trade for new. Due to the lack of manpower and storage space, there will be no deliveries made to departments. Again, we encourage departments to expedite the trade ASAP. Thank you for your quick and courteous response. For more information call Bob Cudmore at ext. 2571.

ELECTRONIC ARTISTRY '87 - Buy your tickets now and get the best seats in the house for what promises to be a feast for both the ears and the eyes. The Performing Arts Department will present a unique concert on Friday, Feb. 27th, at 8 p.m., featuring William Goldstein one of country's foremost film and television composers. Several outstanding local artists will also participate including Mary Seereiter and Company (dance troupe). "Electronic Artistry '87" will encompass four workshops during the day (specially designed for music folk) and an evening concert. The music will be composed and performed on electronic instruments but will be very listenable. Goldstein says that music should be "alive, passionate, and moving." Tickets are $8 and all seats are reserved. For more information call the Box Office at ext. 2202.

FUNDS AVAILABLE - The Development Fund Committee member Beth Webb has informed LCCEA that there is money available for short-term faculty development leave. The committee will review the requests in groups as quickly as they come in. For further information contact the Office of Instruction, ext. 2306.

LET'S STRAIGHTEN THIS OUT -

1. Lynn Richmond is being inundated with calls meant for Adult Education and other areas of the DTC. His extension - 2900 - is not the central switchboard. In fact, there is no switchboard. You must call directly to the department you wish to reach.

2. Mail for Larry Murray, Dean of Community Education and Economic Development should be directed to him in care of CEED at the DTC; not to Debra Carroll at the Adult Education Department. For further elucidation on this matter please call Lauri Patterson at ext. 2949.

CONTEST - Wonder what all the excitement is about? All 75 people engaged in the "Weight-Loss Contest" are busy weighing in, having their body fat tested, exercising at least three hours a week, and cheering others on to weight loss. We have a few individual contestants, plus 14 teams, and the PUFFINS who are busy sabotaging the HOGS. If you decide upon a name for your team, call Trish at ext. 2283.

THE DAILY

Wednesday, February 11, 1987
Week 6 of Winter Term

Diane Prokop, ext. 2591

- TODAY - TSA/IRA workshop, noon and 2 p.m., Board Room (ADM 216)
(See story below)
- Tasaday lecture and film, 2-3 p.m., Forum 308
  - Electronic Bulletin Board, 3-4 p.m., PE 122B
  - Vocational Education Awards Ceremony, 6 p.m., NE corner of cafeteria
  - Board Meeting, 7:30 p.m., Board Room (ADM 216)

ELECTION DECISION - Tonight's meeting of the LCC Board of Education will focus on a decision concerning a proposed maintenance and equipment serial levy at the Mar. 31 election. There has been discussion regarding a possible 5-year rather than 10-year levy request. In other business, the Board may consider deletion of Appendix A relating to workloads from the faculty contract, will award a bid for purchase of 13 microcomputers and seven printers for instructional and support services areas, and will consider adoption of an academic calendar for 1987-88.

RESULTS IN - Results of the Marketing Council survey of summer credit students and summer applicants (people who applied, but did not enroll) have been compiled and are available to departments planning summer offerings. Highlights include the fact that last summer 60 percent of students and 69 percent of applicants were women. There also appears to be opportunities for developing the 18-to-21 age market. Students liked LCC's friendly environment, helpful staff, quality of programs, and low cost. The major area for improvement was scheduling classes to avoid conflicts. A number of students also complained of cancelled classes. Copies of the complete survey including many very interesting student comments are available in the Marketing Library in Institutional Research, Planning, and Evaluation. Diane Dann, Marketing Council

TSA/IRA WORKSHOP - If you need information about how the new tax laws will affect your TSA's and IRA's, then plan to attend one of two workshops held today in the Board Room. The first session will be at noon and the second will begin at 2 p.m. The following is an outline of what Donna Carter, of Carter & Carter, will discuss:

- New maximum contributions, make-up provisions and last year of service exceptions.
- Withdrawal restrictions and new penalties prior to age 58 1/2 on all plans, as well as, age 70 1/2 uniform minimum withdrawal requirements.
- Borrowing rules and strategies using TSA flexibility under the new law.
- New tax deductibility of TSA's and IRA's done 1987 onward by same owner.
- Roll-over of 403b plans to IRA options and other consolidation strategies to keep profits protected.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR - The Business Department will host a Collegewide coffee on Thursday, Feb. 19, 2:30 to 4 p.m. The festivities will take place in Room 108 of the Business Building. Plan to take a break.

VIDEODISC GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT - When Project Leader was established two committees were formed: one, to implement instructional use of the programs we received from Deltak Corporation and another, to implement instructional interactive video into other instructional areas. Now that the Deltak programs are in place and the research is in progress, it is time for the Growth and Development Group to meet. This group is open to faculty and others interested in expanding the use of interactive videodiscs in their areas. We will meet Tuesday, Feb. 24, at 9:30 a.m. in the Board Room. For more information, call Media Productions at ext. 2365.

SOVIET CULTURE - Alice Tallmadge will show and discuss her slide tape, "Exploring the Other Side: A Look at Women in Soviet Culture" at noon on Wednesday, Feb. 18, in the Board Room (ADM 216). The tape is a result of an all-woman diplomacy trip to the Soviet Union and focuses on Russian women's work lives. Jill Bradley, Women's Program, ext. 2353

ART IN THE LIBRARY - Artist Fred Masarie will show his work at the LCC Library Mezzanine Gallery through Friday, Feb. 27. Masarie describes his watercolors as realistic rather than abstraction. He says, "Watercolor is a medium that, because of its transparent quality, is particularly challenging. The white of the paper is relied upon for the color 'white', and structuring the layers of color in a variety of values working from light to dark results in the depth that is reflected in the painting."

DIRECTORY UPDATE -

- The LEAP listing should list only ext. 2939.
- Bob Foster, Health & PE, should list ext. 2293 as his preferred phone extension. Currently he is serving as Interim Athletic Director.

Thanks to Ken Rhodes, Woodshop, for the beautiful computer monitor stand. We really appreciate the fine work that you did. Staff of Training & Development

I wish to thank my friends at LCC, including the LCCEF, especially my wonderful co-workers in the Health Occupations Department for their sharing, caring, and support at the time of the unexpected death of my brother. You all are terrific! Kay Mueller

They are totally vegetarian, contain no nitrates or cholesterol and have only half the fat and less than half the sodium of beef franks. Says their creator, Michael Cohen, "a lot of people say now they can eat hot dogs without feeling guilty about it." (The old commercial, "I'd rather fight than switch" comes to mind.) Al Shibley, ext. 2545

REMINDER - Monday, Feb. 16, is a holiday for LCC staff. Have a nice three-day weekend. The next Daily will be printed on Wednesday, Feb. 18.

Valentine's Day — February 14

"Roses are red, Violets are blue Sugar is sweet, And so are you."

Each February 14th, the ancient Romans celebrated a holiday called Lupercalia. On that feast, it was customary for young Roman men to enjoy the fun of blindly drawing a name from a box filled with names of all the local maidens. This celebration laid the foundation for Valentine's Day several centuries later, when the Church began replacing pagan celebrations with Christian holidays and assigned that day to commemorate two St. Valentines, both martyrs, who coincidentally had died on that date in 270 A.D.

The connection to romance grew not from any myths surrounding the two churchmen. Rather, it blossomed from conventional beliefs held in the Middle Ages that the second week of the second month was when birds began to mate. Thus a whole early literature was built upon St. Valentine's Day. Chaucer mentions it in the Parliament of Foules:

"For this was on seynt Valentynes day, whan every foul cometh ther to chese his make."

Two centuries later, Shakespeare had Ophelia singing in Hamlet:
"Good morrow! 'tis Saint Valentine's Day,
All in the morning betime, And I a maid at your window,
To be your Valentine!"

By the Romantic Era of the early 1800's, Valentine's Day had developed such an aura that it was second only to Christmas in celebration. Those were the days of some of the most memorable love lines in literature, when Elizabeth Barrett Browning wrote: "How do I love thee? Let me count the ways." And Gustave Flaubert penned:

"This is the hour when, alone amidst everything that sleeps, I open the drawer that holds my treasures. I look at your slippers, your handkerchief...your portrait. I reread your letters...my heart expands in the night, suffused with a dew of love."

In those days, "Valentines" to greet loved ones were elaborately ornate creations of paper and lace—and personal, very personal.

In the past 100 years, things have taken a different turn. Children still decorate boxes to hold the class's supply of Valentines, but their Valentine greetings are more likely to come from the local drug store's collection than from the children's hearts. Adults still have Valentine parties and greet each other with red heart boxes of sinfully rich chocolates, but our messages are more apt to appear in a newspaper classified than in a four-line poem from the heart.

- TODAY - "Exploring the Other Side: A Look at Women in Soviet Culture",
noon, Board Room (ADM 216)
- Telephone Registration Meeting, 3 p.m., Board Room (ADM 216),
(See story below)
  - Board of Education public work session at Cottage Grove, 7 p.m.,

BOARD NEWS -

LCC Board of Education members voted last week to put a four-year $725,000 serial levy before voters on Mar. 31 to finance maintenance equipment projects. The levy will raise $2.9 million. It will cost an estimated 10-cents per thousand dollars of assessed value. The owner of a $60,000 home will pay an estimated $6 a year. Offsetting that will be a corresponding decrease in property taxes for LCC of about the same amount, due to a payoff next year of bonds used to construct the main campus.

In other business, the Board approved the purchase of $26,325 worth of microcomputers and printers for instructional and support areas of the College. Appendix A of the 1985-87 LCCEA/LCC Agreement, relating to workloads, was ordered deleted. The Board heard a presentation from faculty members who argued that workloads are inequitable in areas such as CWE, HSC, ABE, and ESL. The retirement of Wilner Moon, business instructor since 1971, was approved. David Marotta was hired as programming manager in Computer Services; he has been teaching data processing at LCC for five years. Nola McClellan was promoted from LCC Library cataloging assistant to assistant reference librarian. Stephen Candee moves from part-time social science faculty to temporary contracted position to teach political science.

TONIGHT - LCC's Board of Education will hold a public work session tonight at Cottage Grove. Members will tour the Cottage Grove Center, 103 South Fifth St., at 7 p.m. A 7:30 p.m. session will be held at the First Presbyterian Church, 216 South Third St., to meet with Cottage Grove Center Advisory Committee members and other representatives of the community. The Board wants to get out to off-campus centers of the College District and to listen to comments, concerns and questions which constituents may have.

TELEPHONE REGISTRATION - All staff and students are invited to attend a presentation on the proposed Touch-tone Telephone Registration. A short eight-minute video will be followed by statements from members of the Touch-tone Telephone Registration Task Force and open discussion. Meetings are scheduled in the Board Room (ADM 216) on Feb. 18 and 19, 3 to 4 p.m. Bob Marshall, Admissions, ext. 2685

CAMELOT - Computer Services will demonstrate Camelot (student tracking system) in the Admissions Office at 8:20 a.m., Feb. 19. Interested instructional managers and their secretarial staff are invited. Because of limited space, we can accommodate only 12 people at this session. If more than 12 are interested, a second demonstration will be scheduled. Call Admissions, ext. 2685, for a reservation.

WEIGHT-LOSS CONTEST - If you are interested in better nutrition, as well as learning some successful, motivational techniques for losing weight and keeping it off, plan on attending a workshop presented by Loretta Plaa of the Home Economics Department. The workshop will take place in Room 321 of the DTC on Friday, Feb. 20, at noon. Another will be held in the Board Room on Monday, Feb. 23 at 10 a.m.

The competition is keen - there is over $525 in prize money. Tied for first place with 24 points each are the LOW-CAL GALS and the LOSERS. Tied for third place with 23 points each are teams 9 and 5. Tied for fifth place with 22 points each are the REVISED EDITIONS and the PUFFINS. Gladys Suire leads the individuals with 5 points, and in a two-way tie for second place with 4 points each are Chris Kapsa and Bonny Ross.

REMINDER - The Business Department is hosting a college-wide coffee tomorrow, 2:30 to 4 p.m., in Room 108 of the Business Building. All staff are invited to drop in and enjoy some refreshments and good company.

RESEARCH NEWS - The next issue of DATAPOINTS will be published on or about March 9. DATAPOINTS is the newsletter published each term by the office of Institutional Research, Planning, & Evaluation. It contains current information about what is happening in research, planning, and evaluation at LCC. If you would like to be added to the mailing list, contact Sally Gover (ext. 2576).

APPLAUSE! - The Health Occupations Department will be participating in the annual EWEB Health Fair today. The Respiratory Care program will provide lung capacity measurements and the Dental Hygiene program will screen for signs of early gum disease using the Interdental Bleeding Index. Over 400 EWEB employees are expected to participate. Chalk up another mark for the Health Occupations Department's efforts in community health promotion. Call Health Occupations (ext. 2618) if you have any questions.

LET ME KNOW - If you or someone in your department has done something you think might be of interest to the rest of the campus via The Daily, drop me a line or give me a call. If you can't decide if it is noteworthy or not, let me decide for you. I want to know what you are doing out there. Diane Prokop, Institutional Advancement, ext. 2591

TODAY - "All That Jazz" Staff Meeting, Nursing Lab, 12-noon
- Nutrition Workshop, Board Room, 10 a.m.
- Serial Levy Information Session, Performing Arts, 4 p.m.

WE MAKE A DIFFERENCE - LCC adds over fifty-six million dollars to the local economy. That indicates an economic impact of more than three times the amount invested in the college. This is according to a release issued Friday regarding a statewide economic impact study sponsored by the Oregon Community College Association. The study, which is based on information from the 1985-86 academic year, used financial data, college records, and questionnaires completed by students from all of Oregon's community colleges. Oregonians invest $21,038,317 a year in LCC through state and local taxes. The college also brings "new" money into the district. One example is the nearly $4 million in student financial aid. The investment is then returned to the community through the expenditures of students, staff, and the college, which total $36,408,724. LCC generates over 308 full-time equivalent jobs for employees, and another 3,935 jobs exist because of the money in circulation as a result of college's existence. Without LCC, the report indicates, approximately 369 full-time and 3,501 part-time students would not have attended college in Fall 1986, while 914 full-time and 5,430 part-time students would have attended an out-of-district college. For more information on this study, contact Julie Aspinwall-Lamberts, Institutional Research, Development, and Evaluation, ext. 2576.

DESKTOP PUBLISHING DEMO - There will be a demonstration of the VENTURA desktop publishing system on Tuesday, Feb. 24, from 2 to 4 p.m. in PE 205. REMINDER - Comprehensive faculty evaluations are due in Personnel Services by March 2. If you have questions, please call Lee Sowers, ext. 2583. If you've misplaced your list of probationary faculty employees, or if you cannot meet the March 2 deadline, please notify Lee so that notices of intent not to rehire will not be sent in error.

COPING WITH ILLNESS - Do you have a close friend or relative with a serious illness? Learn how to deal with the grief. Plan to attend a seminar on Thursday, February 26, at 11 a.m. in the Board Room. Barbara Thurmond of the hospice of Sacred Heart Hospital will talk about grief - yours and the patient's. There will be ample time for questions. Trish Kocher, Personnel, ext. 2283

ADULT EDUCATION NEWS - Beginning today, there will no longer be Adult Education staff on the main campus, except for evenings of the first week of each term. All calls and registrations should be directed to the DTC. Cherrill Hemminger, who previously staffed the campus Adult Education office, will continue to work from 3:30 to 8:30 p.m. at the DTC. For information, please call ext. 2252. Debora Carroll, Office Manager, Adult Education

TUESDAY - Interactive Videodisc Growth and Development Group Meeting, Board Room, 9:30 a.m.
- Curriculum Approval Committee Meeting, Board Room, 1:30 p.m.
- Computer Desktop Publishing Demo, PE 205, 2 to 4 p.m.

A Mac-User Group meeting has been scheduled for 12:30 p.m. on Thursday, March 5, in the Computer Lab of the DTC Business Assistance Center. For more information, contact Joanne Payne, LEAP, ext. 2947.

SYMPHONY TRAINING - To ensure hands-on experience, space is limited to 18 students per training session, so sign up early! There will be a $3 charge per student to cover the cost of diskettes and printed documentation provided. Call Shirley Baldwin in Computer Services (ext. 2245) to make reservations and to arrange fees with an inter-campus order form. These training sessions are all introductory. Intermediate and advanced training sessions will follow at a later time. All training sessions will be held in ELC 203 except for Introduction to Communications which will be held in BU 110.

THE DAILY

Wednesday, February 25, 1987
Week 8 of Winter Term

Diane Prokop, ext. 2591

TODAY - All-Faculty Conference III, noon, Forum 308
(See story below)
- Roger Cardinal Farewell, 3 - 4:30, Board Room
(See story below)

ON TO THE GOOD LIFE - Jack Kreitz, head of the Business Department, will retire on February 27. Kreitz came to LCC in 1967 after serving 21 years in the Air Force.

Recently, Kreitz was honored by the State Board of Education for making major contributions to the development and expansion of business education opportunities at LCC. He was instrumental in developing and establishing the LCC Downtown Center in 1978 and implementing the open entry/open exit program at LCC in 1970.

Since 1979, Kreitz has maintained financial support, through grants, for the program for special disadvantaged and handicapped students. He also has secured vocational education basic grant awards for department operation in excess of $230,000.

Kreitz is looking forward to retirement and plans to do some woodworking, flying, and traveling within Oregon.

FUNERAL SERVICES - Funeral services for Bob Upp (Campus Services Lead Electrician) will be held on Friday, Feb. 27, at 1:30 p.m. at the Nazarene Church on 8th and Madison Street in Eugene. Internment will follow at 2:45 p.m. at the West Lawn Cemetery. Bob passed away Monday morning after a long illness. Individuals who donated money to send Bob and Gail to Hawaii are asked to meet Thursday, Feb. 26, in Apprenticeship 223 from 3 to 3:30 p.m. Please contact the Foundation at ext. 2810 for matters concerning the Upp Fund. Campus Services, ext. 2216 or 2564.

NAME CHANGE - The Business Assistance Center will now be called the Small Business Development Center (SBDC). Confusion existed about the difference between the services offered by BAC and SBDC; actually, both rendered the same services and were one and the same. For information, call Nan Poppe, ext. 2929.

FAREWELL - Roger Cardinal is resigning his post as director of purchasing and assuming a new job as a purchasing agent in Washington County in the Portland area. The farewell party will be today from 3 to 4:30 p.m. in the Board Room. All staff are invited. Come wish Roger good luck.

EXCHANGE PROGRAM - The selection process is beginning for LCC's exchange student to Nagasaki Wesleyan Junior College for the 1987-88 academic year. Students may obtain application packets from the International Student Counselor in Center 221. April 10 is the application deadline. For information, call Mason Davis at ext. 2239.

NEW HOURS FOR DTC - Effective immediately, the DTC will close: (1) at noon each Saturday; (2) all day Saturday on 3-day holidays and between terms; and (3) at 5 p.m. Monday through Thursday between terms.

Special arrangements to hold classes during the "closed" periods can still be made with coordinators. Changes in demand, of course, would lead to a reassessment of this program.

Eighteen-month calendars reflecting these changes in DTC scheduling are now available from F. Lynn Richmond, Extended Day Administrator, ext. 2900.

PROMOTION KIT AVAILABLE - If you are planning an event on or off campus, you may want to borrow the "LCC Display Kit." The kit includes an LCC felt tablecloth, LCC felt banner, "Go For Success" banner, and balloons. Also, I have a large supply of the brochure, "Oregon Community Colleges: Ready When You Are." Call Shan Titus, High School Relations, ext. 2600.

BOWLERS UNITE - The "Feb's-End" Bowling Tournament will take place Friday, Feb. 27, at the Emerald Lanes. The action will start at 1 p.m. and continue through 6 p.m. This is a three-person team format with a blind handicap system used for three-game series. The cost is sixty cents per line. To sign up and for information, contact the Intramural and Recreational Sports Department at ext. 2599.

ALL-FACULTY CONFERENCE III - The agenda items for the meeting at noon today in Forum 308 include the following: (1) Commencement - Participation - Robe Rental; (2) Faculty Efforts in Student Retention; (3) Student Follow-Up Survey; (4) Data Processing Instruction/Computer Services Staff Status; (5) Semester Study; (6) Class and Service Expansion in Evenings and on Weekends; and (7) Pros and Cons of the Touch-tone Telephone Registration Plan.

SPEAKERS AVAILABLE - Some 16 representatives from classified, faculty, and management are available to speak to departments and offices about the LCC serial levy on the Mar. 31 ballot. Nineteen units have already scheduled speakers, and presentations have been made to many of them. Very few Advisory Committees have been briefed, however. Call Laura Tamura at ext. 2301 to schedule speakers for your Advisory Committees or your College office/department.

LET'S STRAIGHTEN THIS OUT - What follows is a list of the staff in Institutional Advancement and their job responsibilities. We hope that this will clarify who we are and what we do:

Diane Dann - ext. 2592 - Marketing, Advertising, Grants

Vicki Miller - ext. 2593 - Publications (brochures, catalog, class schedule)

Diane Prokop - ext. 2591 - Daily, Media Relations, Speaker Service

SURPRISE! - Everyone who showed up for the weigh-in yesterday (or today) will receive a free pair of socks for making it through four weeks of weight-loss and exercise. In last week's scoring, the FOUR F's were the only team earning 10 points (the maximum number possible), putting them in a tie for fifth place with the CELLULETTE'S, with 28 points per team. In a tie for second place are the LOSERS, the HO-HO's, and the LOW-CAL GALS, with 29 points each. The PUFFINS are now in first place with a total of 30 points. The individual contestants are led by Bonnie Ross and Gladys Suire, each with six points. Tied for second place with four points each are Chris Kapsa, and Karla Schultz.

DON'T LET IT SLIP AWAY - Fifteen percent of the budget for the Lane County office of the OSU Extension Service is paid by county and OSU funds. Soon this money will no longer be available. This means the office may disappear from Lane County unless the taxpayers can pick up this 15 percent. Petitions are being circulated to ask our county commissioners to form an Extension Service District. The District would cost the owner of a $50,000 house approximately five dollars per year if the budget were approved by an election. If you would like to sign the petition or ask questions, contact Beth Naylor, Home Economics Department, ext. 2533.

If you can help, contact George Alvergue, Faculty; Joyce Kofford, Classified; Jim Ellison, Management; or Rob Ward, ASLCC. President Turner got the effort moving with a $150 check, but there's still a long way to go in order to get $2,000 in the next week or two.

HELP APPRECIATED - Thanks to the 16 people representing Classified, Faculty, ASLCC, and Management, who are helping to inform voters about the LCC serial levy by speaking to departments and other groups. They include George Alvergue, Charles Bentz, Jack Carter, Barbara Hasbrouck, Pat John, Joyce Kofford, Jill McKenney, Ron Mitchell, Dave Oatman, Nan Poppe, Lynn Richmond, Mike Rose, Sharon Thomas, Larry Warford, Rob Ward, and Doug White. Measurements must be taken before the Mar. 20th deadline. The College will pay all costs for these items. More information about graduation will be published as it becomes available. Jay Jones is the Graduation Committee Chair. Please feel free to call him with questions or suggestions. Jacquelyn Belcher, Vice President for Instruction

MORE SYMPHONY TRAINING - Due to popular demand an additional Symphony training session has been added for "Introduction to Data Base." It will take place on Friday, April 3, from 2 to 5 p.m. in ELC 203. There will be a three dollar charge per student to cover the cost of diskettes and printed documentation provided. Call Shirley Baldwin in Computer Services (ext. 2245) to make reservations and to arrange payment of fees with an inter-campus order form. Space is limited to 18 students, so sign up early!

SPOTLIGHT - Doug White is one of three staff honored at the Vocational Educational Awards ceremony on Feb. 11. White, who is head of the Health Occupations Department, came to LCC in 1972 from the University of Houston where he was an assistant professor of health education. He was honored with this award because of his contributions to vocational education through involvement and leadership throughout the community and with LCC's students. White has been instrumental in developing up-to-date curriculum, and has provided leadership in computer-aided instruction programs. He is also involved with health agencies on a statewide basis and has been influential in shaping current legislation of health care services.
