Week 11 of Summer Term

THE DAILY

Published for the staff of Lane Community College
Editor: Diane Prokop, Ext. 2591

HOLIDAY - Monday, September 7, is a holiday for all LCC staff. We are celebrating Labor Day. Have a relaxing and safe three-day weekend.

MORE DONORS - LCC Advocates, the group working on behalf of LCC's September 15 election proposal, wishes to thank the following people and groups for their recent financial contributions: Barton Electronics, Barbara Doster, Helen Hunter, Sandra Ing, Jay Jones, Cynthia Leathers, Fay McClain, Shirley Pearson, Dick Reid, Leona Sowers, and Verne Whittaker.

MOVED - The Daily editor can now be found in ADM 210. If you have items for The Daily, please leave them in the box with my name on it located just outside ADM 210. The phone number remains the same. Diane Prokop

CLOSED - Archives will be closed Thursday, September 10, and Friday, September 11.

VOC-ED STUDENTS EARN MORE - Graduates of Ohio vocational education programs earn 21 percent more money four years after graduation than high school graduates without vocational training. Professor Ismail Ghazalah of Ohio University at Athens used Internal Revenue Services data to learn that unemployment is as much as 66 percent less for the vocational graduates than for those in the general work force who are the same age and have had the same number of years schooling. The Daily thanks Jim Piercey, SBDC director, for bringing the study to the attention of the editor.

FREE BOOKS - If you would like a free copy of Fourth and Madison: A History of the Eugene Vocational School 1938-1965, by David Butler, call Vicki Miller at ext. 2593 and she will send one (or more) through campus mail. Copies are free to anyone interested. EVS preceeded Eugene Technical-Vocational School, from which LCC evolved.

NEW HOURS - The Career Information Center is open Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. through fall term.

APPLICATION DEADLINES APPROACH -

Dental Assisting - September 4
Respiratory Care - September 4

WORKBOOK AVAILABLE - Your Marketing Plan, an easy to use self-help workbook for the small business owner, is now available from LCC's Small Business Development Center Network. The publication takes the reader, step-by-step, through the preparation of a marketing plan. It discusses customer base, company image, public relations, and marketing objectives for a small business. Call 726-2250 for your copy.

REMINDER - Employee/volunteer must have a tuition waiver form completed and approved prior to the time he/she registers for a class in order to have tuition waived. The approved waiver must be presented to Financial Services along with payment of applicable fees either in person or by mail to LCC ClassLine, P.O. Box 5000, Eugene, OR 97405. Applicable fees include any class fees and the $1 ClassLine registration fee. The $5 student body fee is waived. Failure to submit an approved waiver to Financial Services could result in assessment of finance charges.

-JOB OPPORTUNITIES-

Music Host/Producer, 25 hours per week, KLCC-FM, Technician V, classified, closes September 8.

Department Secretary, 24 hours per week, temporary, 9/28/87 to 4/1/88, KLCC-FM, Secretary III, classified, closes September 8.

Data Entry Specialist/Information Clerk, 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Adult Education, Clerk IV, classified, closes September 11.

Labor Day

Labor Day was first celebrated more than 100 years ago. Labor unions were just being formed. Politicians were passing legislation to protect workers.

Today, however, most of us probably never even think of the meaning behind this holiday. It is just the last long weekend at the end of the summer...the last hurrah before the children head back to school and the leaves need to be raked...another excuse for stores to stage elaborate sales to woo customers.

What was Labor Day intended to be? The first celebration, in 1882, started as a quiet way to honor the folks in America who work hard—carpenters, printers, construction and factory workers, and all others.

When the holiday first began in America, many factories were unsafe. Children worked long hours with dangerous machinery. It seemed that some workers spent their entire lives inside the factory. Legislation and labor unions teamed up to change that: hours were shortened, children left factories for school, and a minimum wage was established.

America became industrialized and earned a reputation for watching over its workers. While there are still exceptions today, vigilance and safety standards work to rub out those exceptions. And the great wheels of industry churn on.

So this year, maybe we should reflect upon the industrial roots of our nation and celebrate appropriately—a community parade, a neighborhood picnic, a family reunion. Then, it's back to business.

TODAY - LCC Board of Education Meeting, 7:30 p.m., Board Room

The LCC Board of Education meets tonight. Several reports will be presented regarding the levy, academic calendar, work-load study, and last year's investments. Linda Riepe, Early Childhood Education, will be presented with a plaque for being named 1986-87 Innovator of the Year.

DAILY NEWS - The Daily will be a thrice-weekly publication beginning next Monday, September 14. Publication days will be Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday. Please submit all items for inclusion in writing by 5 p.m. two days before the desired day of publication. Send through Campus Mail or Electronic Mail to Diane Prokop, The Daily, or put in drop box outside of ADM 210.

STAFF DIRECTORY - It's planning time for the 1987-88 Staff Directory. Would all departments please send me your updated lists of employees, phone extensions, addresses, etc. If you are making only a few changes to last year's listing, consider making a copy of your page in the directory and making changes directly to this sheet. I would like to receive all updates by Wednesday, September 23. During the first week of October one person from each department will be asked to stop by my office and proof the final copy before going to print. Diane Prokop, Institutional Advancement, ext. 2591

MORE DONORS YET! - LCC Advocates, the group working on behalf of LCC's September 15 election proposal, wishes to thank the following people and groups for their recent financial contributions: Larry Brown, Barbara Hasbrouck, Joyce Kofford, Vicki Miller, Richard Null, Wayne and Rita Workman.

GOING SHOPPING? - The College will have an information booth and touch-tone telephone registration center at Valley River Center, Saturday, September 19, and Sunday, September 20. Visitors to the booth can pick up the College's new brochure, apply for admission, and, in most cases, register for classes using ClassLine. Hours are 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Saturday, and 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Sunday. Look for our booth in the Montgomery Ward wing. This activity is part of LCC's marketing effort and is being coordinated by Dee Tipping in the Office of Student Services.

CLOSED - Archives and Records Management will be closed Thursday, September 10, and Friday, September 11.

CELEBRATE EUGENE LCC STYLE - If you would like to help promote careers and services available for women at LCC, and would like to march in the Eugene Celebration parade, call Charleen Mclean at ext. 2840. The parade entry will consist of a group of women marching in costumes that represent possible careers. Signs will be carried that identify the appropriate department for training. Please help make this a successful venture, and have some fun at the same time!

PHONE CAMPAIGN A SUCCESS! - The LCC Advocates would like to thank those who volunteered their time to call voters during the phone campaign for the LCC operating levy. Volunteers called over 2,805 voters last Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. Many thanks to:

WELCOME BACK - To those who are among the several hundred who had a summer respite, as well as those who continued on through the summer, welcome to LCC's 23rd year of classes. May all of our efforts result in another banner year of service to those we exist to help. Richard M. Turner, III, President

BOARD NEWS - The LCC Board passed a resolution last week to borrow money for a short-term period in order to finance College operations while waiting for receipt of certain operating revenues due in mid-October. This amount will be somewhere in the vicinity of $2 million. Bids were accepted from Darigold, Inc. (dairy products), Office Equipment Company (typewriter repair), Anderson's of Salem (athletic supplies), Team Athletic of Eugene (athletic supplies), Portland Athletic (athletic supplies), JM Systems, Inc. (computer components), and MS Computer Systems (computer printers).

PROMOTION OPPORTUNITY - Promote your program and have a great time doing it. Join us in the Eugene Celebration parade entry "Career Training and Services for Women at LCC." We have marchers and costumes from the following departments: Performing Arts, Cooperative Work Experience, Training and Development, Multicultural Center, Adult Education, Science Department, Student Employment, and Work Study. Don't miss this opportunity for free and easy promotion for your department. Call Charleen Maclean, Transitions to Success, ext. 2840, today.

TODAY - All-Faculty LCCEA Meeting, 10-11:30 a.m., APR 223-224

WINNER NAMED - A wave of applause gave way to a standing ovation when Kitty Seymour was awarded the 1986-87 Classified/Support Staff Award at Monday's All-Staff meeting. Kitty, who said she was "stunned, shocked, and thrilled" when her name was read by President Turner, has worked at LCC for 20 years. Not only has she been outstanding in her position as secretary to the Art and Applied Design Department but she has been vice president of LCCEF three times, served on the union negotiation committee, edited the union newsletter, and served on many campus committees. According to the stack of supportive letters, Kitty is unstinting in her efforts to assist students, faculty, and administrators. Kitty asked The Daily to relay the following message to its readers: "Thank you one and all for your support; without you, it couldn't have happened. I feel honored with my award knowing that there are many, many people who are equally outstanding. LCC - and the Art Department in particular - is an exciting place to work and I get back every bit as much as I contribute, in spite of the questionable coffee I offer."

WANTED - The "Transitions to Success" program has an entry in the Eugene Celebration parade next week and needs your graduation caps and gowns. Please contact Charleen Maclean, ext. 2840, if you are willing to lend yours to this worthwhile event.

CLOSED - The Business Department will be closed Monday, September 21 for department inservice activities.

SELCO NEWS - Personal SELCO pocket planning calendars are available in Personnel at Lucille's desk. Also available are SELCO TSA brochures which you can find on the round table in front of ADM 210. SELCO and Interwest Financial Advisors are offering the following three 90-minute retirement presentations designed for people who are within five years of retiring or have already retired.

September 22 - The Retirement Decision - Maximizing Your Pension Incomes

October 20 - Investing After Retirement - Maximizing The Income Power of Your Assets

November 17 - Estate Planning - An Orderly Exit

All classes will be held in Forum 309, 7 to 8:30 p.m. Although more valuable as a series, you may choose to attend only one or two classes. Pre-registration is required and seating will be limited to 75. The registration fee is $3.50 per person, per class. To register, call Interwest at 484-3743.

ARE YOU A LEADER? - There will be an informational meeting regarding the Leader's Project on Tuesday, September 22, at 3:30 p.m. in the Board Room. All interested women are invited to come. The minimum requirement for application to this project is a master's degree. For information, contact Judy Dresser, ext. 2523, or Mabel Armstrong, ext. 2446.

KLCC SPECIAL - Miriam Linder, the sister of U.S. volunteer Benjamin Linder who was slain by contras in Nicaragua, will join host Alan Diporin on KLCC's Blue Plate Special Thursday, September 17. Ms. Linder will answer questions from the community on the call-in portion of the show, 12-12:30 p.m., 89.7 on your radio dial.

INSURANCE NEWS - Classified, management, and faculty employees interested in changing from one medical insurance plan to another, or adding a dependent to medical/vision or dental insurance coverage, may do so during open enrollment through October 15. All changes and additions must be received by Marie Nelson, Personnel Services, by 5 p.m. on October 15 in order to be effective November 1.

USING STATE PRICE AGREEMENTS

Lane Community College can use the purchasing power of the State of Oregon by making purchases from the STATE PRICE AGREEMENTS. The LCC Purchasing office keeps a current list of the price agreements on file. The items on state price agreement include batteries, light bulbs, automotive parts, bindery supplies, laboratory chemicals and supplies, computer terminals, printers, copiers, electrical fixtures, fire extinguishers, first aid kits, flairs, chain saws, detergents, microfilm supplies, offset printing supplies, copier paper, projectors, overhead projectors, tools, hardware, vehicles.....

The State charges a service charge based on the dollar amount of the order placed.

Service Charge:

0	to	$499.99	$10.00
$500.00	to,	$999.99	$20.00
$1,000.00	to	$4,999.99	$50.00
$5,000.00	to	$49,999.99	$100.00

Since the State has already went through the bidding process for these items, no additional quotes are required by purchasing before ordering. Sometimes better pricing can be obtained by getting quotes from other companies, so go ahead and check around if you have time.

If your department would like an index listing of the State Price Agreements or more information on using the State Price Agreements, contact Carol Smith in Purchasing at 2572.

TODAY - 200th Birthday of the U.S. Constitution
- Enhancing the Student Experience, 8:30-9:45 a.m., Theatre
- Inservice Workshops, 10:10-12:15 p.m.
(See back of page for schedule)

NARROW MISS - LCC's proposed $737,500 operating levy was defeated at Tuesday's election by 156 votes out of 59,430 cast. The margin was a skinny 26/100 of one percent, as voters cast 29,637 ballots for and 29,793 against. Undervoting seemed to hurt, as 2,530 people who voted on the other measures on the ballot chose not to vote on the LCC issue. The percent of LCC undervoters, 4.13, was more than twice the percent of undervoters on the ballot measures for the county sheriff and the Extension Service, both of which were approved strongly.

OPEN HOUSE - The LCC Siuslaw Center in Florence is having an open house this Sunday, 2 to 5 p.m. Visitors will have the opportunity to get acquainted with instructors, share ideas, and register for classes. Programs on display will include Health Care Training, and the new Parenting Education Program. There will be refreshments, door prizes, demonstrations and much more. The Siuslaw Center is located at 3149 Oak St. in Florence.

CLASSLINE GOES SHOPPING - The College will have an information and registration booth at Valley River Center this Saturday and Sunday. Visitors to the booth will be able to pick up the College's new brochure, apply for admission, and register for classes using ClassLine. Also available will be the Career Information Center's computers and two programs (Oregon Career Information System and Discover for Adult Learners). Hours are 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Saturday and 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Sunday. Look for LCC in the Montgomery Ward wing. This activity is part of LCC's marketing effort and is being coordinated by Dee Tipping in the Office of Student Services.

SHORTS - The Business Department will be closed Monday, September 21 for department inservice activities.
- TSA and deferred compensation representatives will be on campus Tuesday, September 22 from 1 to 3 p.m. in the northeast corner of the cafeteria to answer any questions you might have.
- Departments have until Wednesday, September 23 to get staff directory changes to Diane Prokop in Institutional Advancement.

■ 200th Birthday of the U.S. Constitution, September 17, 1787. At the Constitutional Convention in Philadelphia 200 years ago today, delegations from 12 states voted unanimously to approve our Constitution. Thirty-nine of the 42 delegates present signed it before drafting the letter that would transmit it to the Congress, which would meet two years later. Observances planned through 1989 will mark these significant events in our nation's bicentennial history.

OPEN ENROLLMENT - If you are a classified, management or faculty employee and are interested in changing from one medical insurance plan to another, or want to add a dependent to your medical/vision or dental insurance coverage, you may do so now through October 15. All changes and additions received by Marie Nelson, Personnel Services, by 5 p.m. October 15 will be effective November 1. Representatives from Blue Cross/Blue Shield, OEA Choice Trust, and Selectcare will be available to answer any coverage questions on Tuesday, September 22, 1 to 3 p.m., and Wednesday, September 23, 9 to 11 a.m. in the northeast corner of the cafeteria. Classified and management employees will have a second open enrollment later this year (November 1 to December 15); rate changes for these two groups will be effective January 1, 1988.

*Published for the staff of Lane Community College
Editor: Diane Prokop, Ext. 2591*

TODAY - Business Department closed

THANKS FOR TRYING - Though we lost Tuesday's election by a whisker, many of you worked so very hard to seek understanding and support. I am grateful for your dedication and assistance. Thank you for helping to get information to students, staff and other voters, for producing publications that told the story, and for making telephone calls to remind people to vote. A thank you, too, goes to the mass media and our own KLCC for news coverage and editorial support, to those who helped the LCC Advocates by donating money and time and by writing and placing advertising, to the Committee on Taxation for general coordination, and to others who helped in so many special ways. Once again, we have demonstrated that we can be most effective by pulling together for LCC. It is important that we continue to practice this kind of teamwork and cooperative spirit, in order to ensure success in the future. Thank you so very much. Next time is our time! Richard M. Turner, III, President

CHANGES - Pat Williams, Coordinator of Fundraising and Special Events for the LCC Foundation, has recently taken a new job in the Office of Financial Aid. We will miss Pat's never-ending enthusiasm and dedication and wish her the best in her new position. We would also like to welcome Kim Knowlen of Institutional Advancement to the Foundation staff. Foundation business and correspondence should be directed to Kim at the Foundation Office (ADM 205), ext. 2226 or 2803.

LOCKER ROOM NEWS - Ladies, are you planning to work out this fall? If you need clothing and a locker, avoid the student crush. Stop by my office before September 25. I am located in the Women's Locker Room. Jan Ryer, ext. 2557

JOIN THE PARADE - KLCC's Marching Radio Band will hit the streets on Saturday, September 26 for the Eugene Celebration Parade. The marching radio band is unique because each band member carries his or her own portable radio, all tuned to 89.7 FM - KLCC. Absolutely no musical talent is required. All you need is a good pair of walking shoes and a portable radio. Wear your KLCC t-shirt if you have one. The band will form at 8 a.m. in the South Eugene High School parking lot. Everyone is invited - call 726-2224 for more information.

WELCOME PLANNED - Fall Welcome is scheduled during the first week of classes -- September 28 through October 2. All departments are encouraged to welcome students with signs, staff ID tags, and "Ask Me" buttons (a few buttons are available from Dee Tipping, ext. 2315). Be creative in your welcoming activities. The information booth will be open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m., Monday through Thursday, and 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Friday. Dee Tipping, Student Services

REMEMBER - The Sexual Harassment Workshops originally scheduled for today and tomorrow have been rescheduled for Wednesday, 8:30 to 10 a.m., and 10 to 11:30 a.m., in the LCC Theatre.

VIEW THE HOPEFULS - Staff are invited to view NEA President Mary Futtrell's interviews with presidential candidates Babbitt, Biden, Dukakis, Gephardt, Gore, Jackson, and Simon. The two showings are scheduled for:

Tuesday, September 22, 12 to 2 p.m., Center 9
Wednesday, September 23, 1 to 3 p.m., Center 9

TAKE YOUR STUDENTS - Faculty, complimentary passes are available for your students to several activities featuring Frances Moore Lappe -- author of Diet for a Small Planet. You should find two flyers in your mailbox in the next few days regarding her visit to Eugene. "World Food Focus" and "Global Issues: Educating for Action" are the focus of these activities. For more information, call Beth Naylor, Home Economics, ext. 2533 or 342-2292.

FIX YOUR TOYS - It's time to get electronic equipment "on-line" for fall term. Please bring your equipment in need of repair or calibration to Electronic Services. We will repair it as quickly as possible. Also, please remember to fill out the Service Request form in its entirety, including account number and authorized signature. Audrey Stribling, Secretary, ext. 2368

THE DAILY

Published for the staff of Lane Community College
Editor: Diane Prokop, Ext. 2591

- TODAY - Sexual Harassment Workshops, Forum 308-309
8:30-10 a.m., 10-11:30 a.m., 3:30-5 p.m.
- Introduction to PC/MS-DOS with Hard Disk, 1:30-3 p.m., BU 203
(No advance registration required)
- Advanced PC/MS-DOS with Hard Disk, 3-4 p.m., BU 203
(No advance registration required)

WRAP-UP PLANNED - The College Inservice Wrap-Up Session scheduled for tomorrow, 8:45 to 11 a.m. in the LCC Theatre, will focus on what we have all learned these two weeks that could "enhance the student experience" at LCC. Leading the discussion will be Dr. Jane DeGidio who is head of student development and coordinator of retention at the University of Oregon. Jane will be assisted by our own counselor Dr. John Winquist and Alan Siporin of KLCC. All staff are strongly encouraged to attend. Come share your ideas and insights!

GRASS-ROOTS MARKETING! - You still have time to get some free and easy promotion for your program. Eugene Celebration Parade marchers will gather at 8:45 this Saturday morning in the South Eugene High School parking lot across from the YMCA on Patterson St. We are entry #146 - Career Training for Women. There will be women marchers dressed in costumes representing LCC programs. You can pick up a program sign in Center 213. The flashier the costume, the more attention your program gets. So get crazy and have some fun at the Eugene Celebration Parade! Charleen Maclean, Displaced Homemaker/Single Parent Program, ext. 2840

CLOSED - Health & PE/Athletics faculty and staff will be rafting the McKenzie River all today. The PE office will be staffed for messages by Irv Roth - please call him (ext. 2545).

BUY YOU TICKETS NOW! - Excitement is running high because we are once again able to offer you reserved season tickets for your year's entertainment. Productions for the 1987-88 LCC Theatre season are "Ladyhouse Blues," a drama; "A Company of Wayward Saints," a comedy; and "Little Shop of Horrors," a musical comedy. You may order your season tickets before we advertise to the general public at the low price of $15 - a full 25% savings over the single ticket cost. If you wish to defer payment until payday, that's fine - it can be easily arranged. Stop by the box office or call Lori Bell at ext. 2202 to make your reservations.

TUNE IN THIS WEEKEND - KLCC 89.7-FM radio will be broadcasting live music from the Michelob Jazz Stage during this year's Eugene Celebration. The stage is located at 5th and Oak in Eugene and all performances are free. Among the groups performing will be Willie D., Shakabuku, The Allniterz, Curtis Salgado and the Stilletoes, the Don Latarski Group and others. Don't miss it!

How to Drive Yourself Crazy

Articles and books on a variety of self-help topics are widely available. There are suggestions on how to cope, reduce stress, and in general make your life better and more satisfying.

However, some people prefer to make themselves miserable. If you are a person who hasn't quite got the hang of how to do this, here are some tips on how to make yourself REALLY crazy!

- Save your major worries until about midnight, then start heavy thinking. Suggested topics include your old age, losing your job, the mistake you made at work last week which they haven't discovered yet, that suspicious wart you've had for five years, or radon in your basement. You can work up a good panic by 1 a.m.
- Keep an inventory of your faults. Ignore strengths. Focus only on your bad points. Try to select friends who will remind you of how awful you are. If you don't have friends like this, you probably have some relative who can be counted on to point out your weaknesses.

- Set unreasonable goals. No matter how much money you're earning, remember there are others doing better. Try to name three of them, preferably younger (and better looking) than you are. Think how others could do a better job than you do.
- When your children make mistakes, don't accept it as part of growing up. View each situation as the first sign of impending moral decay, delinquency, and a wasted life. Imagine your offspring as shiftless bums at age 30, scrounging off you.
- Put off everything until the last minute. In this way you can create a sense of frenzy and chronic stress no matter how much time you had in the first place.
- Aid and abet the creation of stress. Sleep as little as possible. Eat junk food. Drink a lot of coffee. Never exercise if you can help it.

- Never let others know how you feel or what you want. You shouldn't have to tell them; they should be able to read your mind. If you assume this, you stand a good chance of feeling really deprived.
- Never trust anyone. Struggle with problems alone. If you feel the urge to confide in someone who seems to care, remind yourself that people are basically no good and are out only for themselves.
- Never take a vacation break. It's a luxury you can't afford, especially if you're working up to a really good state of exhaustion.
- Above all, never seek help. No matter how serious the problem, convince yourself that asking for help is a sign of weakness and that you can tough it out alone.

If you follow this program, you have a good chance of feeling really rotten in no time at all. Good luck!

A belated thank you to all staff and students who made the Lane County Fair booth such a success this year. Thanks to the Fair Planning Committee (Gary Anderson, Jean Conklin, Bob Marshall, Dick Reid, Edna Kennell, Kay Mueller, Larry Warford, Vicki Miller and Ginger Yamamoto), Campus Services (custodians and carpenters), Sandy Ing and blood-pressure takers, Printing & Graphics, and everyone who staffed the booth (sorry there's not space to mention each of you -- you did such a great job!) Without all of you, this important public relations effort would not have been possible! --

WOMEN IN CONSTRUCTION - Industrial Technology Programs is participating in the pilot program "Women in Construction." Three women from the Women's Construction Collective in Kingston, Jamaica are spending eight weeks at LCC getting hands-on training in masonry, cabinetmaking, blueprint reading, plumbing, electrical, woodwork, and building construction. The Collective was established in 1983 to assist Jamaican women in finding employment at trade level in the building industry as well as to alleviate the unemployment rate for young women in Western Kingston. The program, which began on August 24 and ends on October 31, is funded by the United States Agency for International Development. Carl Horstrup, coordinator of Industrial Technology Programs, and Linda Myers are responsible for this special project.

FALL WORKSHOP SERIES - The Small Business Development Center is presenting a series of four workshops on small business advertising.

Newspaper Advertising Workshop - Friday, October 2
Radio Advertising Workshop - Friday, October 9

Parents' Guide to College Planning

Don't wait until your son or daughter is a high school senior. Smart parents start planning for college experiences and expenses EARLY. Academic planning begins as early as the seventh and eighth grade when you and your child meet with school counselors to select courses. Financial planning can begin even earlier.

Basic information to get you started is available in an excellent booklet called "Paving the Way," by the National Institute of Independent Colleges and Universities. It is available free from the Institute at 122 C Street, NW, Suite 750, Washington, DC, 20001.

TODAY - LCC Art Faculty Exhibition Begins, Art Department Gallery
(See story on back page)

EFFORTS REWARDED - Charlene Blinn, academic advisor in Counseling, was named the first recipient of a new college award, the Lane Community College "Go for Success" marketing award, at Thursday morning's all-staff meeting. The purpose of the award is to recognize "College staff who go beyond the call of duty in some specific way to help LCC marketing activities." In presenting the award, President Turner cited Charlene's work with students, her enthusiasm, and, most specifically, her efforts to insure that LCC is well represented at community events. He read from a memo written by faculty member George Alvergue to Vice President Jack Carter: "In all of the planning and execution of the efforts to set up and staff booths at Springfield Broiler Festival, Valley River Center, and the Eugene Celebration, one person has been the key 'hub' who tied all of the loose strings together...She has been a marvel." Charlene was presented with a specially designed mug tied with three colorful and conspicuous helium-filled balloons and admonished to display it on her desk to remind all staff of the role each of us plays in helping students "go for success" at Lane. If you know of a staff member who deserves to be recognized in this way, watch for details about the award in Wednesday's Daily. Diane Dann, Institutional Advancement, ext. 2592

LEAVE COMMITTEE MEETS - The Faculty Professional Development Leave Committee will meet the first Wednesday of each month for the rest of the academic year to consider proposals for short term leave. The next committee meeting will be Wednesday, October 7. Please get your applications in as soon as possible. For applications or information, call Vonnice Ross, Study Skills, ext. 2439.

GETTING TO KNOW RICHARD HILLIER - Our new vice president for Administrative Services is a golfer and birdwatcher and has been a Little League baseball umpire for 15 years. He is a past-president of both Rotary and Little League. He and his wife, Peggy, have two daughters, Renee, 11, and Erin, 8. He is expected to begin at LCC on October 1.

A REMINDER ABOUT ADVERTISING - If you are planning to buy advertising time or space on behalf of LCC, you can save yourself time by contacting Diane Dann in Institutional Advancement before you take your purchase order form to Purchasing. Diane will work with you to incorporate the College's theme and graphic image and initial the P.O. so that Purchasing can issue a number. She also reviews all ads having to do with the College paid for by someone other than LCC, e.g. an instructor, a business, or free promo time/space provided by the media. Please remember to take this important step. We want to be sure that all College advertising includes certain key information and we want all ads to work together to reinforce the "Go for Success" theme. Thanks.

FIX YOUR TOYS - It's time to get electronic equipment "on-line" for fall term. Please bring your equipment in need of repair or calibration to Electronic Services. We will repair it as quickly as possible. Also, please remember to fill out the Service Request form in its entirety, including account number and authorized signature. Audrey Stribling, ext. 2368

UNITED WAY CAMPAIGN - The United Way of Lane County fundraising campaign for 1987 is now underway at the College. Your donation to United Way helps meet local county need through a rational and balanced fund distribution to 97 human service programs of 55 non-profit agencies. LCC's campaign representatives are: Joyce Kofford, Home Economics, for classified staff; Kathleen Wiederholt, Learning Resource Center, for faculty; and Jim Ellison, Telecommunications & Instructional Support (TIS) for administrative staff. Helen Hunter, (TIS, ext. 2360) is coordinator of overall activity.

It brings out the best in all of us.

TAKE A BREAK - The LCC Art Faculty Exhibition begins today and runs through Friday, October 23. The exhibit features works of various media including textiles, sculpture, painting, graphic design, and ceramics. The reception, which is open to the public, is scheduled for this Friday, October 2, 7 to 9 p.m. in the Art Department Gallery. Gallery hours are Monday through Thursday, 8 a.m. to 10 p.m., and Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

WELCOME IN MOTION - Fall Welcome is this week. All departments are encouraged to welcome students with signs, staff I.D. tags, and "Ask Me" buttons (a few buttons are available from Dee Tipping, ext. 2315). Be creative in your welcoming activities. The information booth will be open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m., Monday through Thursday, and 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Friday. Dee Tipping, Student Services

A Woman's Guide to Social Security

America's Social Security program has a number of provisions that apply specifically to women.

- What happens to Social Security benefits if a widow remarries?
- Is she covered if she divorces?
- How should she plan for Social Security benefits if she interrupts her career?
- Can household workers be covered?

For a brief look at some of the major provisions and how they can affect you, your spouse, or your parents, ask for a free copy of "A Woman's Guide to Social Security," #509P, by writing to S. James, Consumer Information Center-Y, P.O. Box 100, Pueblo, CO 81002.

GO FOR SUCCESS - Monday we reported on the first recipient of LCC's new "Go for Success" marketing award and promised details about how you can nominate other College staff for this recognition. The purpose of the award is "to recognize College staff who go beyond the call of duty in some specific way to help LCC marketing activities." Each recipient will be presented with a specially designed blue "Go for Success" mug decorated with colorful balloons and available only to award winners. They will be asked to display the mug on their desks. We chose a mug, rather than the traditional plaque, because we want the award to be used and conspicuous. If you would like to nominate a member of the staff for this award, simply write a memo describing your reasons and listing two other people that would support the nomination to Diane Dann in Institutional Advancement. Nominations may be submitted at any time and will be reviewed by a subcommittee of the Marketing Council. Future awards will be delivered by President Richard Turner to the recipient's work place. (P.S. If you missed Monday's Daily, the first recipient was Counseling Center staff member Charlene Blinn.)

LEADER'S FOR THE 80'S - Applications will soon be due for the "Leaders for the 80's" program and interested staff are encouraged to apply. The program, which involves one week of training away from campus, is designed to prepare women for leadership positions at community colleges. National eligibility rules require that applicants have a master's degree and work full time at the College. For information/applications, contact the President's Office or one of LCC's past participants: Mabel Armstrong, Julie Aspinwall-Lamberts, Julie Baker, Diane Dann, Judy Dresser, Helen Hunter, Sandy Ing, Linda Loft, or Laura Weaver. Applications are due back in the President's Office by October 16.

OUR DAILY NEWS - Change has been the name of the game regarding The Daily this past summer. I hope everyone is enjoying its new look! I would like to encourage those of you who are hooked up to the mainframe to send your items for inclusion into The Daily by E-Mail. Also, The Daily is now available by downloading it from the mainframe. Originally, this was intended to improve communication with the outreach centers (sometimes they don't get a Daily until three or four days after its publication). However, if you feel you can't wait to get the day's news by mail delivery, you may access The Daily by following the steps involved in downloading in the ALT-C macro or in the following manner:

1. Choose option 98 in E-Mail
2. When you get the exclamation point (!) type in:
C Dailyl.AQIA0003 (This is for page 1)

Be aware that you won't get special items like menus and graphics that are pasted up and not typed in. If you have any questions, please call me. Diane Prokop, Institutional Advancement, ext. 2591

CLOSED - Training and Development will be closed Thursday after 12-noon and all day Friday for Staff Development.

OPEN HOUSE - The LCC Writing Tutors are holding an open house on Friday, October 9, noon to 2 p.m. in Center 476. Everyone is welcome - come get a piece of the pie and meet the tutors!

It brings out the best in all of us.™

DOES YOUR DOG CARRY MORE IDENTIFICATION THAN YOUR CHILD?

Most medical facilities will not treat seriously injured children without the consent of a parent or legal guardian. The longer it takes to find that individual, the longer treatment is delayed—sometimes resulting in serious consequences.

George Wager of Buena Park, California, got the idea for lifesaver tags several years ago after he read a newspaper account of a child who was hit by a car. The child had no identification, so authorities had difficulty reaching the family. Wager realized that his children carried no identification either, although his dog wore tags with its name, address, owner, and phone number.

As a result Wager founded Lifesaver Charities, a nonprofit organization that distributes tags to be affixed inside, or laced in, children's shoes. The tags are durable, non-erasable, and waterproof and can also be sewn inside clothing. They are about the size of other clothing labels, yet have space for essential information, including a parent's signature authorizing doctors to "do whatever is deemed necessary to insure the safety of the child."
