Today

- Opening of exhibit celebrating LCC's 25th anniversary. The exhibit is a photo-documentary of students and staff. It runs through April 27 in the Library. Michael Ridderbush, the college's archives specialist, mounted the exhibit.
- The Professional Development Leave Committee will hold an orientation and information session for all applicants for long term leave for 1990-91 at 4 p.m. in CEN 310. For more details, contact Pat John, ext. 2439.

Printmaking topic of talk

Dennis Cunningham, whose linocut prints are currently hanging in the Art Department Gallery, will give a talk on linocut and printmaking techniques Wednesday, April 4, at 1 p.m. in the gallery. His talk is sponsored by the Associated Students of Lane Community College and is open to all staff. The Art Department Gallery is on the first floor of the Math & Art Building.

Let's party

Mark your calendars. The 25th anniversary all-staff party is Friday, April 27, from 3:30 to 5 p.m. in the cafeteria. There will be refreshments, entertainment, displays, speakers, and surprises. Watch The Daily for details. Be there or be square.

Echoes of the past

As part of our 25th anniversary celebration, a reprint of a Daily story from the past 25 years:
March 29, 1976 -- An evening child care service for LCC night students and staff will be offered for the first time spring term at the Women's Awareness Center. Registration will be in the Women's Center (221 Center) from 6 to 7:30 p.m. during the first week of classes. A maximum of 30 youngsters a night, ages 3 to 6 years, will be accepted in the program which will be offered from 7 to 10 p.m. Monday through Thursday throughout spring term. A cost of 80 cents an hour will be charged.

New display booth to be unveiled

LCC's new display booth will be used for the first time Sunday, April 8, at the KPNW Career Fair, 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Exhibit Hall at the Lane County Fairgrounds. If you would like to work in the booth, or if you have information to display or distribute, contact Joyce Kofford, Student Services, ext. 2315. Stop by the fairgrounds on Sunday to see how we look.

TV spot a winner

Lane's TV commercial has won a first place award from the National Council for Marketing and Public Relations, a council of the American Association of Community and Junior Colleges. The spot won first place in the category "TV commercial, large school, series." The commercial makes creative use of graphics and music to show the diversity of Lane's offerings, and promotes the arrival of the class schedule. Diane Dann and the advertising subcommittee of the Marketing Council worked with Baden and Company, a Eugene advertising agency, to produce the spot. The music in the spot, by the way, is "Bolero" by Maurice Ravel.

They're promising you a rose garden

The Grounds Department is seeking cash donations to help restock the LCC Rose Garden. You can help beautify the campus by donating $8 for the cost of a grade A rose. You can even choose your favorite rose variety. If you make your donation through the LCC Foundation, you can claim it as a charitable contribution. For more information, contact Jo Stejskal, Campus Services, ext. 2567, or Joe Farmer, LCC Foundation, ext. 2810.

Thank you

Thanks to all our LCC friends for your acts of compassion and sympathy to our family during the loss of our toddler grandson, Eric Eno. This is a difficult time for us, but we have been blessed by your love, care, concern, and prayers. It's a special source of comfort to work with such special people. -- Esther and Dick Eno, Business.

Participative thought for the day

The boss drives people; the leader coaches them.

The boss depends on authority; the leader on goodwill.

The boss inspires fear; the leader inspires enthusiasm.

The boss says "I"; the leader says "We."

The boss fixes blame; the leader fixes the problem.

The boss says "Go"; the leader says "Let's go!"
-- H. Gordon Selfridge, London department store owner.

Election revisited

In case you missed them, here are some highlights of last week's election:

Lloyd Rain, Purchasing, lost in his bid for a seat on the Springfield School District Board of Education. He was defeated by incumbent Laurie Adams.

Teresa Deatherage, a LCC student, won the at-large seat to the South Lane School District in Cottage Grove.

Voters rejected a measure to create a community college district in Jackson County.

Questions about WordPerfect?

Audrey Stribling, Electronic Services, is the new resource person for anyone needing help with WordPerfect software. She is available every day after 3 p.m. to provide troubleshooting and individual tutoring. If you need help, call her at ext. 2368. Stribling's new role is sponsored by Electronic Services and the Office of Instruction.

Graduation notice

Faculty, please share with your students.

Graduates wishing to have their names in the printed program for graduation ceremonies, please turn in your degree application to the Student Records Office by 5 p.m. Monday, April 30. Students applying after the April 30 date may still participate in the commencement exercise, but their names will not appear in the program.

-- Jolene Bowers, Student Records.

"LCC Today" this week

Lane's information program, "LCC Today," this week features Jim Piercey, director of the Small Business Development Center, and Harvey Bond, substance abuse prevention coordinator. Host Mary Klacsan interviews both about their programs. See the results Thursday at 7 p.m. and Friday at 11:30 a.m. on TCI Cable channel 35.

Access to latest academic info offered

There will be a demonstration of the Information System for Advanced Computing, ISAAC, Tuesday, April 17, 3:30 to 5 p.m. in PE 205. ISAAC provides information about IBM-compatible software and hardware for higher education instruction and research. ISAAC also contains research abstracts, software catalogs, a software information database, and notes from colleagues around the country via a bulletin board connected to Bitnet and Internet. Developed and maintained at the University of Washington and funded by IBM, ISAAC is free (including software and a toll-free number) to faculty, staff, and students at any institution of higher education.

Learn more about ISAAC, see a demonstration, and explore the use of computer technology in the classroom. Contact Computer Services, ext. 2245, to reserve a spot, or call David Marotta, ext. 2247, for more information. -- Diane Prokop, Computer Services.

Budget Subcommittee to meet

The Budget Subcommittee will meet Monday, April 9; Wednesday, April 11; and Monday, April 16. All three meetings will be from 3:30 to 6 p.m. in CEN 420. Budget Subcommittee meetings are open to the public.

Greenwood and Myrick to perform

Music instructors James Greenwood and Barbara Myrick will play piano at the staff 25th anniversary party Friday, April 27. Their performances are only a small part of the festivities planned for the day. Come to the cafeteria beginning at 3:30 p.m. to see what else is on tap. This is our party, our chance to celebrate 25 years of building successes.

Echoes of the past

As part of our 25th anniversary celebration, a reprint of a Daily story from the past 25 years:

June 5, 1970 -- Today is the final day for voting on section officers. Results will be announced

Monday. Vote your candidate in department offices or at the information desk, first floor Administration Building. No candidates have been nominated for the Administrative section. Faculty representatives nominated are: for chairman Robert Boettcher and Richard Fraga; for vice-chairman Robert Gault and Paul Patrick; no nomination for secretary-treasurer. Classified representatives nominated are: for chairman Virginia Roles and Walt Van Orden; for vice-chairman Edna Clement and Jerry Sirois; for secretary-treasurer Susan Watkins and Wendy Westfall.

Belcher to address business group

Vice President for Instruction Jacquée Belcher will be the guest speaker at tonight's annual Business Associate Event of the Cascade Chapter of the American Business Women's Association. The event honors business associates and employers of ABWA members.

Innovators sought

The LCC Foundation is looking for existing and developing innovative approaches to the way LCC people do their jobs. The Foundation will recognize innovation with the Eldon G. Schafer Endowment for Innovation. The award, which includes cash, is open to all LCC staff and programs. Up to $12,000 could be awarded for innovations implemented during 1989-90 or for innovations proposed for 1990-91. Call Joe Farmer at the Foundation, ext. 2810, for nomination forms. The deadline is April 16.

Way part of co-op conference

Bob Way, CWE, will participate in a conference, "From Sea to Shining Sea: Broadening the Base of Cooperation Education," on May 10 in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. Way will be a member of a panel discussing cooperative education problems, solutions, and new ideas that work in community colleges. The conference is sponsored by the Northwest Cooperative Education Association.

Attention faculty

Friday, April 27, is the last day to reserve caps and gowns for graduation ceremonies. This year's ceremonies will be at the Hult Center. Call Sally Meadows, Student Activities, ext. 2336, for more information.

Clarification

The announcement in yesterday's Daily for meetings of the Budget Subcommittee referred to the Budget Subcommittee of the Instructional Branch. The meetings are: Monday, April 9; Wednesday, April 11; and Monday, April 16. All three meetings will be from 3:30 to 6 p.m. in CEN 420. Budget Subcommittee meetings are open to the public.

Echoes of the past

As part of our 25th anniversary celebration, a reprint of a Daily story from the past 25 years:
January 7, 1966 -- 13 LCC staff members will participate in a visitation trip to California this week, accompanying Board members and campus planner representatives. Purpose of the trip is to observe community colleges in various stages of development. Colleges to be visited have been selected for excellence in different fields.

Making the trip from LCC will be Dr. Dale Parnell, President; Bert Dotson, Administrative Assistant; I.S. Hakanson, Dean of Students; C.S. Obitz, Dean of Adult Education; Dena Malliris, Office Manager; LRC Director James Simmons; MDTA Director Robert Marshall; and Division Chairmen Carl Blood, Melvin Gaskill, Roger Houghlum, John Howard, John Jacobs, Gerald Rasmussen and Ruth Thygesen.

Curriculum topic of meeting

The Curriculum Idea Forum will meet Monday, April 9, at 1:30 p.m. in the Board Room, to discuss an intercultural communication class and international trade curriculum. Contact Judy Dresser, Office of Instruction, ext. 2313, for more information.

LCC to host math students

More than 100 high school math scholars from throughout Lane County will be on campus Wednesday, April 11, to compete in a Math Skills Fair. This year marks the 11th consecutive year that LCC has sponsored the fair. Competition begins at 8 a.m. in the Forum Building with "Solve that Problem," a fast-paced contest similar to "Name that Tune." Later in the morning, teams will compete in a relay on the lawn east of the Center Building. Individual and team winners will receive scholarships to LCC and calculators donated by Hewlett-Packard. Steven Myers is coordinating the event.

International students plan big evening

The LCC International Student Club will host an evening of international cuisine and entertainment Thursday, May 3. The evening begins with an international dinner at 6 p.m. in the cafeteria. Dinner entertainment includes a guitar recital and a Chinese lion dance. After dinner, at 8 p.m., will be a dress rehearsal of "Amadeus," directed by Patrick Torelle, in the main theatre. Tickets are $9 for the dinner, $6 for "Amadeus." For tickets and information, contact Albert Kee, ext. 2330, or 342-3125. Funds raised will go to an emergency loan fund for international, non-resident students.

The Budget Subcommittee for Administrative Services will meet Tuesday, April 10, 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the Board Room. Budget Subcommittee meetings are open to the public.

Thank you

The members of the Business Department would like to thank those responsible for the remodeling project completed over spring break. What a tremendous undertaking, and only one week in which to complete it. Kudos to you all: Duane Mick, Ray Carter, Mike Ruiz, Rob Atkins, Paul Jameson, Donna Morgan, Mike Skeers, Larry Carnine, Darrell Allyn, Marv Luzier, Ken Sprague, Chuck Reid, Norm Kirtley, Jerry Landgon, Randy Lindstrom, and Paul Colvin.

Going, going, gone

The Purchasing Department will hold a public auction to sell surplus college equipment Saturday, April 21. This is an opportunity for you to do some spring cleaning and get rid of unused or outdated stuff. Revenue from items sold at auction will be credited to the originating department, after a deduction to cover administrative costs of the auction. All property will be sold "as is, where is." Each department selling surplus equipment is responsible for appropriate paperwork, delivering the equipment to the auction site, and notifying Property Control. For more information, contact Bob Cudmore in Purchasing, ext. 2571.

Were you at VRC?

Students from Mike Maze's Mass Comm class taped interviews with LCC staff during the open house at Valley River Center in February. The interviews have been condensed into two half-hour tapes that will be shown on TCI Cable channel 35 beginning this week. You can see the interviews, and maybe yourself, on Friday at 9:30 and 10:30 a.m. The interviews will be repeated on April 20, May 4, and May 18, same time, same channel.

Attention All Classified, Faculty, and Administrative Personnel!

The LCC Foundation's
ELDON G. SCHAFER ENDOWMENT FOR INNOVATION

Now, there's more reasons than ever to look for new and/or better ways to keep Lane Community College a leader! The Eldon G. Schafer Endowment for Innovation will be used to recognize (including financial rewards and "seed money") already-implemented, as well as newly-proposed, innovative approaches to the way LCC does its job. You can apply yourself, or nominate the good ideas of others (individuals, or groups). Up to $12,000 could be awarded for concepts implemented during 1989-90 or proposed for 1990-91 experimentation or development.

HOW TO APPLY OR NOMINATE:

ALREADY-IMPLEMENTED INNOVATIVE IDEAS: Complete the application form provided on the opposite side of this sheet with a brief (no more than half-page, typed) summary of the "who, what, when and where" of the implemented concept, procedure, program, or whatever. If staffers' have donated personal time to the development or implementation of the idea, let us know; the relative value of the innovation to the College, in relation to any costs, would be useful. State why recognition is deserved. If the Committee needs more information, we'll contact you.

DEADLINE FOR INITIAL SUMMARY: APRIL 16, 1990

NEWLY-PROPOSED INNOVATIVE IDEAS: Complete the application form provided on the opposite side of this sheet with a brief (no more than half-page, typed) summary of the proposal; in addition to enough information to give the Committee a basis for appreciating the potential of the idea, should it be implemented, provide an estimate of the completion-date and cost of the project. If the Committee needs additional information, we'll contact you.

DEADLINE FOR INITIAL PROPOSAL: APRIL 16, 1990

Return your application to the Foundation. For further information, call or see Joe Farmer, extension 2810, or call Lucy Schafer, 345-1444.

What's a LEAP?

If you don't know what LEAP is, you can find out by watching "LCC Today" this week. LEAP's Coordinator Evelyn Nagy is one of Host Mary Klacsan's guests on the program. You'll also learn about the new flight attendant program that begins next fall. Liesl King and Diana Dickey, instructors from the program, will be Klacsan's other guests. "LCC Today" airs on TCI Cable channel 35 Monday at 1 p.m., Tuesday at 4 p.m., Wednesday at 8:30 a.m., Thursday at 7 p.m., and Friday at 11:30 a.m.

The Executive Board of the Lane Community College Employees Federation will meet tomorrow at noon in CEN 311.

Meet the artists

The Teaching and Learning Center is proud to display art works by Craig Spilman and Bruce Dean, LCC art instructors. Join us for coffee and cookies, and an opportunity to view these incredible displays, in the TLC on Wednesday, April 11, from 2 to 4 p.m. Spilman and Dean will share their techniques for creating these interesting pieces. See you there.

-- Julie Baker, TLC.

Hill a barrier to some

The 30th Avenue hill is a barrier to access to LCC for some students, according to members of the Student Consumer Panel. Three of the eight students on the panel felt that LCC's location was a barrier and recommended free bus passes for LCC students and more direct bus transportation between Springfield and the college. (The U of O issues free bus passes to its students.) The panel also discussed tuition, fees, and tax levies at its most recent meeting.

The students unanimously agreed that LCC is a good value for the money. Most said they would pay higher tuition and fees if they knew how the money would benefit them. Similarly, the majority thought that students would support tax increases if they knew how the money would help them.

The Student Consumer Panel is a pilot project that will continue if it proves to be a useful way to gather information from students. If there is sufficient interest, the next panel will convene in mid-May. If you have questions you would like addressed, or if you would like to learn more about the panel, contact Diane Dann, ext. 2592, by April 18.

Purchasing wants your stuff

If your department has surplus equipment to sell at the public auction on April 21, take it to Purchasing immediately. The folks in Purchasing need time to gather and sort the equipment. Call Bob Cudmore, ext. 2571, if you have questions.

Local poets to read

Lee Crawley-Kirk, well-known and prolific Eugene writer, and Keri Baker will read their poetry Wednesday, April 11, at 3 p.m. in the Board Room. The reading is sponsored by Denali, LCC's award-winning student literary magazine.

Parnell to return to LCC

Dale Parnell, LCC's first president and current president of the American Association of Community and Junior Colleges, will be the guest speaker at the April 27th all-staff 25th anniversary party. Festivities begin at 3:30 p.m. in the cafeteria. You are invited.

Echoes of the past

As part of our 25th anniversary celebration, a reprint of a Daily story from the past 25 years:
April 13, 1970 -- KLCC, LCC's FM radio station, begins broadcasting full-time May 4 with programs from the National Educational Radio Network and with federal support from the Corporation for Public Broadcasting. The station will broadcast at 90.3 megacycles from 8 a.m. to midnight Monday through Friday, and noon through midnight Saturday and Sunday. New programs offered will qualify KLCC for federal support, thereby shifting the bulk from the local taxpayer to the federal government. KLCC personnel are moving rapidly to convert the facilities to stereo. Stereophonic transmission is anticipated by this summer.

Celebrate Earth Day

As part of this year's celebration of Earth Day, Eugene Mayor Jeff Miller has designated Thursday, April 19, as Clean Air Commuter Day in Eugene. He is asking citizens of Eugene to get out of their cars that day and find other ways to travel to and from work.

Alternative modes of travel, such as the bus or a carpool, reduce commuting costs, according to figures provided by the Eugene Public Works Department. A three-person carpool, for example, that travels 20 miles round-trip can save each person $85 per month in expenses for gas, maintenance, and in some cases, insurance.

If you have any ideas on how we LCC employees can get to work without using our cars, let us know at The Daily. We'll print carpool information, bus schedules, and your ideas and comments.

Summer jobs for youth

Information and position request forms are available from Personnel for the Summer Youth Employment Program. The jobs are for youth ages 14 to 21. They can work 15 to 20 hours per week. Departments must send their position request forms directly to the Summer Youth Employment Program by Friday, April 13, for priority consideration. Contact Rose Holeman, Personnel, ext. 2584, for more information.

Learn how to work with youth

The Small Business Development Center will present a workshop, "Managing the Teenage Employee," on Tuesday, April 24, from 1 to 5 p.m. in Room 202 of the Downtown Center. George Austin, a management consultant who develops training videos for teenage workers, will offer tips for hiring, training, motivating, and coaching teenage employees. The cost of the workshops is $47, plus a $2 registration fee. To register, call the SBDC, ext. 2255.

Board meets twice this week

The Lane Community College Board of Education holds its regular monthly meeting tonight at 7:30 in the Board Room. The Board will also meet for a special work session Friday and Saturday in Florence.

The most interesting topic of tonight's meeting is a possible serial levy re-election. In other business, the Board will hear a report on OCCA's legislative proposal for the 1991-93 biennium, and a summary of a marketing study conducted in Florence on the LCC Florence Center. The Board will also discuss the sale of surplus property and the appointment of a college auditor and budget and advisory committee members. Board meetings are open to the public.

On Friday and Saturday the Board will tour the LCC Florence Center and conduct several work sessions on Board communications and Board agenda formats.

The Faculty Council will meet tomorrow, April 12, at 3 p.m. in PE 205.

Access to latest academic info offered

There will be a demonstration of the Information System for Advanced Computing, ISAAC, Tuesday, April 17, 3:30 to 5 p.m. in PE 205. ISAAC provides information about IBM-compatible software and hardware for higher education instruction and research. ISAAC also contains research abstracts, software catalogs, a software information database, and notes from colleagues around the country via a bulletin board connected to Bitnet and Internet. Developed and maintained at the University of Washington and funded by IBM, ISAAC is free (including software and a toll-free number) to staff and students at institutions of higher education. Learn more about ISAAC at a demonstration. Call Computer Services, ext. 2245, to reserve a spot, or David Marotta, ext. 2247, for more information.

We get letters

Excerpts from letters received recently by the college:

- On behalf of the Oregon School Activities Association we thank you for releasing Bob Foster to officiate at the recent AA Girls Basketball Tournament at the Salem Armory. It is indeed an honor to be selected for the basketball tournament especially the honor of calling the championship game. Bob's contribution helped make the week a success.
-- Virginia Yankoskie, Assistant Executive Director, OSAA.
- I want to thank you for your continued support and the contributions which your staff made to the Student Success Strategies Conference. Jacquee Belcher served on the Executive Committee and the Planning Committee. ... Maxine Frauman served on the Planning Committee and played a very crucial role on the Round Table Subcommittee. ... She and Sharon Sandgathe provided an Institutional Presentation on "Cooperative Learning: A Learner Based Institutional Approach. ... Dennis Clark and Patti Jackson provided a Round Table Discussion on a topic entitled "Beyond Today" a new curriculum for adult secondary students. ... Sandra Ing served on the panel which provided the Institutional Presentation on "HIV/AIDS: Campus Strategies for Promoting Student Success." ... My comments would be incomplete if I didn't point out the contributions of Joyce Kofford. She did a great job coordinating registrations for your college. -- Les Adkins, Executive Director, Student Success Strategies V.
- I have taken this opportunity to extend my warm appreciation to you and Lane Community College for your support of the U.S. Census Bureau, Eugene District Office open house. ... Please note my special thanks to Willie Kealoha, Guy Plaa and students of the Culinary Arts Department for providing an outstanding array of food items for our guests. -- John Rupp, District Manager, Bureau of the Census.
- I am 32 years old and just returning to school. ... I have had Mr. Steve Myers for the last two term of Algebra and I would like to say that I have never had a better instructor. Mr. Myers makes algebra fun, it that is ever truly possible. ... I hope that I can find other instructors at Lane with as much enthusiasm about teaching as Steve Myers has. -- Lori Kadlec.

Celebrate the Earth

As part of Earth Week 1990, Associated Students of Lane Community College will sponsor a panel discussion on old growth forests Friday, April 20, at noon in the Board Room. TLC to present program

Phyllis Geyer, student counselor, will speak on behavior patterns that inhibit learning on Wednesday, April 18, at 2 p.m. in the Teaching and Learning Center, CEN 310. Geyer will share her research on students who have mastered the art of failure. She will provide an overview of characteristics exhibited by these students, tips for intervention, and a model she has developed on how to help students succeed.

The Budget Subcommittee for Administrative Services will meet tomorrow, April 13, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. in PE 205. The meeting is open to the public.

Party to include historical display

LCC's history will be on display at the all-staff 25th Anniversary Party Friday, April 27, beginning at 3:30 to 5 p.m. in the cafeteria. Archives Specialist Michael Ridderbusch has mounted an exhibit that comprises large photographic poster prints and a continuous slide show depicting events and people from LCC's past; front pages from past issues of the Torch; a photo-documentary of the old Eugene Vocational/Technical School; photos and mementos of LCC's presidents; and the actual shovel that was used to break ground for construction of the main campus. These treats and more await you at the party.

Literature

"50 Simple Things You Can Do to Save the Earth" is a very popular book that has been getting a lot of attention. You can get it in the Bookstore or from the publisher: Earthworks Group, Box 25, 1440 Shattuck Ave., Berkeley, CA 94709; phone: (415) 841-5866. The cost is $4.95.

Echoes of the past

As part of our 25th anniversary celebration, a reprint of a Daily story from the past 25 years:

April 23, 1970 -- Earth Day activities go on: A half-dozen student and staff groups are busy reconstructing the Spencer Butte Trail this week. Today the 1938 classic film, "The River," showing the far-reaching consequences of man's thoughtless exploitation of the environment, plays in Forum 311 from noon to 1 p.m. The information retrieval system continues to feature audio-video tapes of talks by a number of known ecologists. Visit the wildflower display in the Center's foyer and see Oregon Flora.

Free Spanish lessons

Four men and a woman from the Dominican Republic will be attending classes in furniture making at LCC June 17 through July 30. They speak no English. If you can host one or more of them for a weekend, an evening, or a day, call me, ext. 2883. If you can't travel to an exotic Spanish-speaking country this summer, why not take advantage of this wonderful opportunity to learn about another culture and to practice that Spanish you haven't used in years. -- Linda Myers, ITP.

Media Commission to convene

The Media Commission will meet at 3 p.m. tomorrow, April 19, in CEN 480 to discuss procedures and time schedules for soliciting student applications for the 1990-91 Torch and Denali editor positions. The commission is composed of 17 student, faculty, classified, and management members. The commission needs two new faculty representatives and one classified representative. If interested, contact the LCCEA or LCCEF president before tomorrow's meeting. -- Pete Peterson, Mass Communications.

Attention support staff

The Third Annual Secretaries Briefing Conference will be broadcast live, via satellite, Wednesday, April 25, noon to 2 p.m. in FOR 308. Bring your lunch. A special dessert and beverage will be served at 2 p.m. The cost is $9. Please send your intercampus form for the fee to the Telecourse Department by tomorrow, April 19. For more information, call Cynde Leathers or Audrey Stribling at ext. 2260.

Let's party

Mark your calendars: The all-staff 25th anniversary party is Friday, April 27, from 3:30 to 5 p.m. in the cafeteria. There will be food, entertainment, speakers, guests, and memories. Be there or be square.

Going, going, gone

The Purchasing Department will conduct a public auction to sell surplus college equipment Saturday, April 21, outside, southwest corner of the Campus Services Building. Viewing will be from 8 to 10 a.m. The auction begins at 10 a.m. All property will be sold "as is, where is." Contact Bob Cudmore, ext. 2571, for details.

Nominations sought

Attached to today's Daily is a form to nominate the Outstanding Instructor of The Year. All instructors, including part-time, adult education, adult basic education, counselors, and high school completion, currently employed for at least one year are eligible. Any staff member may submit a nomination. The Outstanding Instructor of the Year will be introduced at the graduation ceremony, June 1. The deadline for nominations is May 4.

Curriculum topic of meeting

The Curriculum Approval Committee will meet tomorrow, April 19, from 3 to 5 p.m. in PE 205. The discussion will be on proposed courses in English & Foreign Language, Flight Technology, Human Development, Industrial Technology, Performing Arts, Science, Social Science, and Study Skills.

Sculptor to display, lecture

Large scale ceramic sculptures by Gary Greenberg will be exhibited in the Art Department Gallery, Math & Art Building, April 23 through May 11.

Greenberg employs a technique of firing clay while it is still wet to create a material called earthenware that is strong and supportive.

Greenberg will conduct two free workshops on techniques for firing wet clay, and a slide lecture on Monday, April 23, in the gallery. The workshops are from 9 a.m. to noon and from 2:30 to 5 p.m. The slide lecture, sponsored by ASLCC, begins at 1 p.m. Contact Harold Hoy, Art & Applied Design, ext. 2412, for more information.

Flight Tech featured

The Flight Technology Department is featured in the April 1990 issue of Flight Training Magazine, an aviation trade magazine with national circulation. An article titled, "Lane Community College: The Pacific Northwest's Largest College Program," profiles the department and its growth since 1967. The article describes the airplane and helicopter flight training programs, with emphasis on the contract training of Japanese students in helicopters, and the department's safety record. Since 1967, staff and students have logged over 160,000 accident-free flight training hours, the equivalent of 740 trips around the world.

Popcorn funds still available

Money remains in the Popcorn Fund. The fund is for faculty to pay for social events with their students in order to build bonding among students and, ultimately, to aid in retention. If you'd like to avail your class of Popcorn Fund money, contact Pat John, Study Skills, ext. 2439.

Make the most of your next doctor visit

Building an open and honest relationship with your doctor is a long term investment in your better health. Here are some ways to make the most of an office visit.

*Be honest and open. If you have trouble finding words to describe how you feel, bring along a relative or friend who can help explain.

*Be prepared with descriptions of how you feel and with questions. You may want to bring notes with you.

*Know your medicines. This can be very important, especially if you're on several prescriptions or use over-the-counter medicines.

*Follow your doctor's orders. Once you have seen the doctor, don't waste time, effort, or money by disregarding the doctor's orders.

-- Marie Nelson, Personnel.

Decision on Belcher candidacy due soon

Vice President for Instruction Jacquelyn Belcher is a candidate for the presidency of two community colleges in Minnesota. A spokesman from the Minnesota Community College Chancellor's Office told The Daily on Friday that Belcher is one of 12 candidates for the positions, and that the chancellor would make recommendations to the Minnesota State Board of Community Colleges, who in turn will make their decisions on May 10.

International students plan big evening

The LCC International Student Club will host an evening of international cuisine and entertainment Thursday, May 3. The evening begins at 6 p.m. in the cafeteria with an international dinner featuring foods from Cambodia, China, Japan, Korea, and the Philippines. Entertainment will include traditional dances from Mexico and Kenya, and a Chinese lion dance. The lion dancers will lead diners to the Performing Arts Theater where the cast of "Amadeus" will perform a preshow story dance. At 8 p.m. will be a dress rehearsal of "Amadeus." Tickets are $9 for the dinner, $6 for "Amadeus." Tickets are available from students around campus or from the International Student Office, ext. 2339. Moneys raised will go to an emergency loan fund for international students.

Meeting to focus on international education

A meeting on international education will be held Thursday, May 3, from 3 to 4:30 p.m. in the Board Room. Discussion items will be: satellite campuses, sister institutional relationships, staff exchanges, student exchanges, visiting educators, internationalization of curriculum, and ESL and ESP program. All interested staff are welcome.

Celebrate pay day. Center Lobby, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, May 1, 2, and 3, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m., is the place to find new-to-you reading material. Prices any laborer can handle: 50 cents, paper; $1, hardbound. Always some freebies and discounts.

-- Carrol Barton, Library, ext. 2640.

Road work begins today

Lane County road crews begin work today at the northeast entrance to the college. They will add a third lane, repave the whole area, and prepare the ground for a traffic signal to be installed and ready by fall. The work is expected to continue through mid-May. Paul Colvin, director of Campus Services, urges you to exercise caution and to be prepared for periodic closures and restrictions in and around the construction site.

Conklin and Gabriel on "LCC Today"

Mary Klacsan's guests on this week's "LCC Today" are Jean Conklin, director of the Career Information Center, and Judith Gabriel, coordinator of the College High Program. This week's and next week's "LCC Today" program will be advertised in the Register-Guard's "TV Week" section. Funds were provided by the Marketing Council. "LCC Today" is on TCI Cable channel 35 every weekday. Check "TV Week" for times.

- May 10 "In Search of Excellence," Tom Peter's classic talk on excellence.
- May 17 "One Word of Truth," Alexander Solzhenitsyn's acceptance speech for the Nobel Peace Prize.
- May 24 "Stand and Deliver," another hit.

Write to win

The Lane Writers' Club, the English Department, and the Marketing Council are sponsoring this year's annual student essay contest. Current and former LCC students are encouraged to submit entries around the theme, "My Personal Success Story at Lane Community College." The essays should be aimed at attracting new students to LCC from one of the following target audiences: high school seniors or recent graduates, women ages 25 and over, and workers seeking new skills or a change of career. A first prize of $60 and a second prize of $40 will be given to winners in each category. Deadline for entries is May 14, 4 p.m. Official entry forms are available at the Writing Center, CEN 476.

Workshop focuses on resume writing

Faculty, please share with your students.

Lou Bombardier, Counseling, will present a workshop titled "Me, Myself and I" Thursday, May 3, from 3 to 4 p.m. in Science 111. The workshop is intended to help part participants develop a resume, application, and cover letter, all important tools in today's job market. Contact Bombardier at ext. 2203 for more information.

Professional leave updates

Applications for professional long-term leave are due today. Members of the Professional Leave Committee will receive the applications this week and meet May 10 to select recipients. Recipients of long-term leave will be notified by May 15.

The next deadline for applications for short-term leave is May 25. Proposals must be approved and processed before leave is taken.

For applications or information on long-term or short-term leave, contact Roxanne Flowerday or Pat John in Study Skills, ext. 2439.

Planning-Budgeting group formed

At the request of College Council, President Moskus has appointed a task force to examine current planning and budgeting processes and to make recommendations for changes to the process. The task force will meet weekly. All meetings are open to interested staff. The first meeting will be Thursday, May 3, 10 to 11:30 a.m. in the Board Room.

Reception to honor long term employees

A reception to honor retiring employees and those who have served for 10, 20, or 25 years is planned for May 17 in the cafeteria.

Refreshments will be served at 3 p.m. The program will begin at 3:30 p.m. If you have flowers to help decorate the reception, please bring them to the President's Office that morning.
