TORCH WINS AWARDS

The Torch won several awards at the April 3 Oregon Newspaper Publishers Association conference for college journalists in Tualatin.

- First place for Best Feature Story went to Contributing Editor Kelley Egge for her reporting on the Meals on Wheels program. Lead writer Kim Challis-Roth also won a first for a story on bulimia.

- First place for Best News Story went to Editor Joe Harwood for his reporting on the resignation of Substance Abuse Program Coordinator Harvey Bond.

- First place for Best Editorial also went to Harwood for columns on the MLK celebration and institutional racism. Harwood also received an Award of Merit for his editorial on the Substance Abuse Counselor Training Program's "clean time" rule for entering students.

- Harwood also won an Award of Merit for Best Series for his reporting on sick building syndrome and LCC's Apprenticeship Building.

- An Award of Merit went to Drew Johnson for Best Cartooning for his strip, "Perry Keet P.I."

The Story of el Cinco de Mayo

No country in the world has had a more dramatic history filled with bitter conflicts and forceful personalities than Mexico. One chapter of this history we celebrate tomorrow -- the battle of Puebla.

Constant warfare, graft, and mismanagement by President Benito Juarez's predecessors had emptied the treasury. When Juarez took over the army, the civil servants and the police had not been paid for months. Juarez therefore declared a two-year moratorium on the payment of all foreign debt, including compensation for French and British property destroyed in the fighting. Using his anger over the moratorium as a pretext, France's Emperor Napoleon III made another attempt to gain a foothold in the New World. He ordered French troops to Vera Cruz, where they drove Juarez's government back into northern exile.

The French, observing the discipline and the equipment of the Mexican troops, came to the conclusion that 6,000 European troops could master the country. They advanced upon Puebla, where they were assured that the priests would welcome them with clouds of incense and girls would fling wreaths of flowers about their necks.

Instead they found an army of peasants commanded by Ignacio Zaragoza, a Texas-Mexican. The army consisted of ex-guerilleros and amateur generals still armed with guns the British had captured from the first Napoleon of Waterloo. The Mexicans, concealed behind tall cactus plants in the slopes of the Cerro de Guadeloupe, threw the French into a state of disarray. The French used up half of their ammunition in two hours of confused fighting and finally withdrew.

On May 5, 1862, the French Army, with the loss of more than 1,000 men, was flung back to Orizaba and the coast.

The victory in itself was not as important as its moral significance. Cinco de Mayo celebrates the struggle of a people determined to create their own future -- a struggle common to many peoples of the world.

Tuesday, Cinco de Mayo, is the 130th anniversary of the battle of Puebla.

Workshops will cover admissions, counseling, housing, and other student services. For more information, contact Jill Bradley, Women's Center, Center Building 213, ext. 2352.

BUSBY NAMED OUTSTANDING EMPLOYEE

Rosemary Busby

It was hard to tell which was bigger: Rosemary Busby's surprise at being named Outstanding Classified Employee of the Month for May, or the festive balloon presented to her by Vice President Jim Ellison last Friday morning at the Business Development Center. Busby also received a certificate, an invitation to lunch with the president, roses from her boss, and applause from fans. She gets parking privileges and will have her portrait posted on the LCCEF bulletin board all month.

This is what the awards committee heard from Busby's co-workers: "She has been the glue holding the place together through many transitions ... she is a shining example of courtesy and respect ... she can diffuse and dispatch 99 percent of the problems that face the center on a daily basis ... Rosemary is a great help. She gets it done."

Busby has been administrative assistant at the Business Development Center since 1982. She worked in Continuing Education for nine years before that. Her diverse duties have included hosting and teaching international groups that contracted with the department for training. For example, she once taught first aid to Costa Rican firefighters in their home country in both English and Spanish.

She is a founding and present member of Classified Council, a member of College Council and AAWCJC, and has served on other college committees.

Busby is a graduate of Springfield High and pursues continuing education at Lane and at professional seminars sponsored by the University of Oregon, American Management Association and others. She has a Medic First Aid Basic Trainer Certificate.

HARD WORK MADE UNITY CONFERENCE A SUCCESS

A large majority of the more than 100 participants in LCC's May 2 "Facing the Challenge Together: Creating Economic Transition in the Pacific Northwest" conference agreed that it was an overall success.

Some quotes from the evaluations about what people liked best: "The diversification of participants ... the mix of panels, speakers, and small group workshops ... my increased understanding about the frustration and anger of the timber workers and about the LCC programs available ... that people from all parts of our community can work together through these tough times ... the emphasis on forest restoration and on creating a cooperative, community-centered society ... the multi-perspective outlook. This was my first conference, and I totally loved participating in it."

Much praise is due to the many LCC people who made this forum possible:

Jerry Moskus for his welcome address that set a positive tone;

Marie Matsen for practical advice, efficient help, and good humor;

Laura Tamura, Shirley Pearson, and Sally Sparkman, President's Office, for assistance above and beyond the call of duty;

Terry Caron of Administrative Services and Student Service Associates Tonya Jordan, Bill Meilink, and Herb Fredericksen for registration assistance;

Gary Anderson, Trish Hamer, Shirley Nagy, Loreta Pritchard, Ram Rattan, and Laurie Wheatley of Printing/Graphics for wonderfully calm efficiency under time pressure;

Dick Reid and Skip Hubbard, Performing Arts, for cooperation, setting-up and practical advice;

Larry Warford for serving as League for Innovation liaison;

JoAnne McGillivray and Cheryl Alonso, English Department, for taking many messages;

Della Mathews and Bob Tegge from Foodservices for delicious food and potables;

Peter Jensen, English Dept.; Patti Lake, Tzvi Lachman, Lynne Swift, Judith Watt, Penny Englert, Randa Law, and Ellen Palmer, Training & Development; and Henry Bevins, Arnie Prissing, and Jerry Kivela, dislocated workers, and Kathy Bevins, Henry's wife, for their informative and articulate presentations;

Diane Dann, Larry Romine, Susan Sutton and Joan Aschim, Institutional Advancement, for their posters and publicity;

The 22 timber-community, environmental, union, and concerned citizens' organizations that endorsed the conference;

Dennis Gilbert, U. of O. Physics Dept., for his knowledge and skill as a coordinator and moderator.

- Jerome Garger, Writing, Literature, and Peace & Conflict Studies Instructor, Conference Coordinator

- Board of Education work session, 6 p.m., Board Room.

BOARD AND BUDGET COMMITTEE SCHEDULE ADDITIONAL MEETINGS

The Board of Education will meet for a work session tonight at 6 p.m. in the Board Room to discuss tuition. The work session was called at a May 6 Budget Committee meeting. Also at that meeting, the Budget Committee decided to meet again on Wednesday, May 13, at 6 p.m. in the Board Room, prior to the regularly scheduled Board of Education meeting at 8 p.m.

TUITION HEARING TO BE HELD FOR STAFF, STUDENTS

A hearing concerning tuition will be held Tuesday, May 12, from 12-1 p.m. in Forum 308. Vice President for Administrative Services Richard Hillier, Vice President for Student Services and Chair of the Tuition Committee Bob Marshall, and members of the Tuition Committee will be present to answer any questions and explain the proposed tuition recommendation for 1992-93. The Tuition Committee is recommending a $1 per credit hour tuition increase.

BUDGET CHANGE RECOMMENDATIONS AVAILABLE FOR REVIEW

President Moskus has recommended some changes to the April 22 draft of "mandatory adjustments/college commitments" (project budget requests) portion of the 1992-93 budget. Copies of a packet outlining his recommendations have been distributed to department administrators by Administrative Services for review by anyone interested. In addition, a summary will be printed in a special issue of The Daily tomorrow, May 12.

ANNUAL RECEPTION LESS THAN TWO WEEKS AWAY

Those who have completed ten and twenty years of *employment during the calendar year of 1992 at LCC and those who have elected to retire during the 1991-92 fiscal year will be honored at a reception to be held in the Cafeteria beginning at 3:00 p.m. on May 21. JIM BOUTIN OFFERING BASKETBALL CAMP

Coach Jim Boutin is offering a basketball camp for young men and women ages eight to 18 to be held August 3-7 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the main gym. Cost of $100 includes instruction, lunch, and more. For a brochure and registration form, contact Athletics at ext. 2215.

SIGN UP FOR TALENT BANK

The Student Success Committee asks you to respond to the talent bank request you'll be receiving in your mailbox. You can submit your own name or nominate a colleague. Those responding are encouraged to participate as roundtable discussion leaders during faculty professional development next fall on Thursday, Sept. 24. Watch for the flier and return it to Pat McLaughlin, English, Foreign Language & Speech, exts. 2118 or 2419, by May 20.

INSURANCE REMINDER

For faster, more efficient and accurate processing of insurance claims, carry your identification card with you at all times. You will need the group number and ID number (your social security number) from that card in the doctor's office and hospital when filling out insurance papers. If you've lost or misplaced your card, call Marie Nelson in Personnel Services at ext. 2590. She can arrange for a replacement.

HOST FAMILIES SOUGHT

The American English Institute invites Lane staff to become involved with the host family program. The institute offers three-to-four-week term language study programs to student groups. This summer, the Institute also will host a group of Japanese high school and college English instructors. Hosts do not need to speak Japanese. Students need a private room and access to bus or other transportation to the UO campus. Hosts also need to provide daily meals for the student. A $330 monthly stipend is available to defray expenses.

The Institute also will sponsor a group of high school students who will stay in university dorms but would like to visit an American home and take part in family activities for a day. A stipend for this also is available.

If interested in this opportunity to learn about Japanese culture while introducing a Japanese student or teacher to American language and culture, contact Pat Williams at ext. 2165; or Sarah Manchester or Pat Bryan at 346-3945, U.O. American English Institute.

MEMORANDUM

TO: LCC Community
FROM : Jerry Moskus
RE: Budget Requests

We are approaching the end of a very long and difficult process of preparing the 1992-93 LCC operating budget. Part of that process involved departments developing project requests for additional budget money. As anticipated, the total dollar amount of the requests far exceeded the amount of new funds available.

The Vice Presidents worked with their managers to prioritize the requests within each branch. After much input and discussion, the Vice Presidents gave their integrated list of recommendations to me on April 27. The recommendations also went to the Budget Review Group, a representative committee designed to evaluate the Vice Presidents' recommendations and report to me their own recommendations.

Through no fault of their own, the Budget Review Group was not able to send their recommendations to me until Monday, May 4. I had to make my own recommendations to the LCC Budget Committee on the evening of Wednesday, May 6. You will understand that this time frame did not allow for any communication with persons or departments affected by my decision (the decisions were not completed until Wednesday afternoon).

Along with this issue of The Daily, each department has received copies of the updated list of my recommendations. I encourage you to examine that list. On the reverse side of this Daily are printed the explanations for some of my recommendations that differ from those of the Vice Presidents.

I concur with the recommendations of the Vice Presidents and the Budget Review Group for $250,000 for Capital Equipment and an overall 4% increase in Materials & Supplies. The Vice Presidents will decide as a group how the Capital Equipment money will be distributed. The 4% increase in M&S will be given proportionally to each Vice President to distribute as needed within branches.

I want you to know that the Vice Presidents and I have already started planning for the 1993-94 budgeting process. Later this month, the Board and College Council will decide on the process and set time lines. I assure you that we will have extensive discussion and deliberation over the next year's budget and that the schedule for budget decisions will be widely published and adhered to.

Affirmative Action Office Budget

The $50,000 for outside services should be non-recurring. The visiting instructor program is necessary only because we cannot offer permanent positions at this time; when we are able to fund new positions, the $50,000 will not be needed in this line.

The Budget Review Group recommended that a $10,000 line item for staff and student training (e.g. sexual harassment, cultural diversity) and other campus-wide diversity activities be funded on a non-recurring basis. Training in diversity and other Affirmative Action activities will be necessary every year in the foreseeable future and therefore I am recommending this line item be recurring.

SSS/TALN

The $4,000 for operating supplies should be non-recurring, pending a renegotiation of this contract with the granting agency during 1992-93.

Student Services/Instructional Support International Student Scholarships

This amount should be non-recurring, pending review of this contract during 1992-93 by the International Intercultural Education Committee.

RSVP Senior Companion Directors' Salaries

As a result of the budget review, changes will be made in the program to generate new revenues. These contracts must also be renegotiated during 1992-93. Change to non-recurring (as with TALN, above).

Customized Training Director's Salary

The salary should be non-recurring. Over the next year, a plan will be developed (and at least partially implemented) to make this operation pay for itself. We cannot justify continuing to support training to individual private businesses out of general fund monies.

Financial Aid Forensic Talent Grants

Make non-recurring. All talent grants should be reviewed during 1992-93.

Employee Benefits/Tuition Waiver

I support the Budget Review Committee's recommendation that we review this program during 1992-93. Change amount to non-recurring .

Child Care Resource Connection

This grant program must be carefully reviewed and then renegotiated during 1992-93.

Institutional Advancement/Daily for Shared Governance

Omit ($2,400). I will fund this out of my office budget.

Continuing Education - Rent

Omit ($11,643). The paying of the rental cost for off-campus classes out of general fund (rather than by student fees) would result in curtailed offerings off-campus as college revenue problems worsen.

Addition: Student Assistants

Add the $13,815 resulting from my recommendations (above) to "04" (part-time salaries) to employ currently-enrolled students part-time. This will help compensate for an increasingly tight local job market.

Seventh Week of Spring Term

Today

A reclassification update by Sue Colvin of Personnel will be presented to Classified Council today at its 3-5 p.m. meeting in PE 205, among other business. The meeting is open to anyone interested.

The LCC Budget Committee will meet from 6-8 p.m. tonight in the Board Room. Members will review budget strategies for tuition, budget request funding level, size of unappropriated ending fund balance, and establishment of a reserve for revenue shortfall account. Subcommittees also will report.

The LCC Board of Education will be asked to vote on a tuition hike of $1 at its 8 p.m. meeting tonight in the Board Room. The board met Monday to thoroughly discuss the proposal which would raise tuition effective summer term to $24 per credit hour for in-state tuition, $89 for international/out-of-state tuition, and $40 per credit for high school completion. The senior discount would remain at 50 percent.

The board also will vote on whether to approve a contract to Systems West Engineers of Eugene for energy conservation design not to exceed $75,000; purchase a point-of-sale system for the bookstore in the amount of $116,324 to MBS Systems of Columbia, Missouri, plus $27,000 for training and related expenses; purchase heating system boilers from PSI/Farnes Company of Portland for $59,619; purchase an electromechanical filing system for student records from Oblique Northwest of Salem for $19,262; and purchase microscopes for the science department from Scientific Instrument Company of Bellevue at a price of $1,487 each, not to exceed a total of $41,686.

Other action items on the board agenda include approval of additional expenditure authority to manage increased bookstore business; authorization to increase the special revenue fund appropriation for grants and contracts budgeting purposes; appointment of a board member to the federal action task force of the Oregon Community College Association; and approval of the chemical dependency counselor training two-year associate of applied science degree program and the office assistant fast track six-month certificate of completion program.

In other business before the board, Board Member Cindy Weeldreyer will report on the March seminar of the Association of Community College Trustees in Washington, DC, and two videos will be shown, one on Oregon tax structure and another on the Oregon Community College Association 1993 legislative agenda.

Faculty council meets tomorrow

Faculty Council will meet on Thursday, May 14, from 3-5 p.m., in the Board Room. Action/discussion items include the ratio of full-time and part-time faculty and next year's Faculty Council.

Business department names students of the year

Every year the Business Department faculty nominate and choose two students of the year. This year's winners are Katharine "Kathy" Heiser and Andre Gianuzzi.

Heiser received the Outstanding LCC Office Administration Student of the Year Award. She is an Office Administration Associate of Accounting major. Gianuzzi received the Wall Street Journal Award (and a one-year free subscription). He is a Business Management major. Each was chosen for academic excellence, supervised field experience, second-year standing, sense of commitment, positive attitudes and general behaviors that impressed their instructor nominators. Nominations were made winter term. Many students were qualified and nominated in this unannounced process, and the decision was difficult.

An informal awards ceremony will be conducted in President Moskus' office on Thursday, May 14, at 2 p.m. If you are friends of these two winners, please join us for the short presentation and following reception.

Congratulations to Katharine Heiser and Andre Gianuzzi.

Business grads return to critique programs

The Business Department will host two luncheon meetings for 12 returning graduates on Wednesday and Thursday, May 13 and 14. The former students will describe how the program helped or hindered them in their search for work and in their success at work over the last couple of years. The department hopes to discover where it can strengthen, discontinue or augment class materials to improve the business program. An advisory committee came up with the idea of querying the graduates.

Jazz tomorrow

Lane's vocal jazz ensemble and area high school jazz groups will perform be-bop and swing on Thursday, May 14 at 7:30 p.m. in Performing Arts main theater. Cost is $6. Call ext. 2202 for tickets.

Limited service

Counseling & Advising will have part-time staff on duty on Friday, May 15, due to inservice for full-time staff. The Career Information Center will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Testing will be closed.

Classified opportunity

The Classified Professional Development Team will offer a variety of workshops for classified staff from 8-10 a.m. and 3-5 p.m. on Thursday, May 28. Mark your calendars and watch the Daily for details.

Note corrections to title list

Publication of college official department titles in yesterday's Daily brought to light a couple of word processing errors. A corrected list will be reprinted on Tuesday, May 19. Please discard the May 13 list and replace it with the May 19 list. In the meantime, note the following corrections. If you're aware of any additional corrections that need to be made, contact the Daily at ext. 2591. Thank you!

- Add Affirmative Action under the Office of the President.
- Line up Student Records to the far left margin under Office of Student Services; indent Veteran's Office once under Student Records.

Secretary of state to speak

Oregon Secretary of State Phil Keisling will speak on Friday, May 15, at 10 a.m. in Center 401 to Steve Candee's American Government class. Guests welcome.

Cost-cutting plans to be developed

Facing long-term reduced revenues for LCC, President Jerry Moskus told CED managers on Monday that he wants staff to begin developing criteria and a process for possible cutbacks. He said he'd like to have a plan in place by January, 1993. A possible cut in state support ranging from $3 million to $7 million for fiscal year 1993-94 has been forecast. Moskus said he wants to develop various plans for different level cuts in order to be ready for whatever happens. He wants to avoid staff cuts, but acknowledges that may not be possible. Rather than having departments share the reduction and all be weakened, he expects to eliminate whole programs as necessary. The budget for 1992-93 still looks favorable, with the state suggesting that a two percent increase is likely.

Clinton speaks to South Eugene High School students at Lane

Democratic presidential candidate Gov. Bill Clinton of Arkansas spoke live via Ed-Net with a group of about 30 South Eugene High School students at Lane on Wednesday. Thirty high schools around the state participated in the event. Lane was one of the sites able to offer both visual and audio service so that Clinton and the students could see each other as well as hear each other. Clinton was the first to appear on the Ed-Net show "Our World Today," which has invited all presidential candidates to appear.

LCC's ability to host the session was made possible by the expertise and spirit of the Electronic Services staff, who had less than a day to respond to the late-breaking request from Ed-Net in Portland. Special thanks to Dennis Mills, Audrey Stribling, Cynde Leathers, student Carrie Ivey-Cone, and all who pitched in to help.

Retirement reception announced

The Science Department is hosting a retirement party for Allan Gubrud on Tuesday, May 19, at 3 p.m. in Science 122. Please join us in honoring him.

Flower contributions needed

Staff who can donate flowers for the annual reception for 10-year, 20-year and retiring employees are asked to bring them to the Board Room the morning of May 21. Thanks!

Nominations due

Nominations for Outstanding Classified Employee of the Month for June are due May 15 to the Office of Community and Economic Development.

Library alerts faculty to system change

The Library anticipates installation of a computerized on-line public access catalog soon. It should be operational sometime during fall term. Faculty are encouraged to use this early warning to adjust library-related assignments, handouts, instructions, etc., to fit the new system. For more information, contact Cheryl Coleman, lead librarian, ext. 2357.

Lighthouse residence open for festival

Heceta House, once the lighthouse keeper's residence at Heceta Head just north of Florence on Highway 101, will be open to the public from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday, May 16 and 17, during the Rhododendron Festival.

LCC staff will be available to answer questions and provide shuttle service from Devil's Elbow State Park parking lot for the frail or elderly. Photos and artifacts will be on display.

Heceta House is included in the National Register of Historic Places. It has been managed by LCC since 1970 under a special use permit from the US. Forest Service.

Live on KLCC/KLCO

KLCC/KLCO will broadcast live from the main stage at the Willamette Valley Folk Festival, May 15-17, at the UO campus. The program will air from 2-9 p.m. on Friday, 12-8 p.m. on Saturday, and 12-9 p.m. on Sunday.

Bowling tournament announced

The intramural program will hold a bowling tournament on Wednesday, May 20. Shoes will be provided to those with a current intramural card, free to staff. T-shirts will be given to the winners in both the staff and student sections. If interested, call Maryanne Graham or Gary Knapp at ext. 2293, PE 204, for more information and to sign up.

Limited service

Counseling & Advising will have part-time staff on duty on Friday, May 15, due to inservice for full-time staff. The Career Information Center will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Testing will be closed.

Budget committee report

The LCC Budget Committee met prior to the board meeting on May 13 and tentatively approved the 1992-93 budget. A public hearing on the budget will be held June 10, prior to adoption by the Board of Education.

The committee voted to recommend to the board the $1 per credit hour tuition increase, which was indeed passed by the board later that evening. The committee decided that if the tuition increase passed, the expected revenue of $300,000 that would be generated by the increase should go into a comprehensive "hold for allocation" package. The package includes spending plans for 1992-93 in instruction, classified part-time support, and program adjustments. In addition, some monies will be held to cushion anticipated cuts in 1993-94 resulting from implementation of Measure 5.

Tuition increase approved

The LCC Board of Education passed a $1 per credit hour tuition increase by unanimous vote at its May 13 meeting. The increase takes effect summer term. Tuition will be $24 per credit hour for in-state tuition, $89 for international/out-of-state tuition, and $40 per credit for high school completion, and the senior discount will remain at 50 percent. Board Member Peter Sorenson expressed the sentiment of the group when he said, "Just as Dr. Moskus said at our work session on Monday, we'd rather not have tuition at all, but that's not possible given the way community colleges are funded in Oregon."

In other business, the board:

- approved the chemical dependency counselor training two-year associate of applied science degree program and the office assistant fast track six-month certificate of completion program;
- awarded a contract to Systems West Engineers of Eugene for energy conservation design not to exceed $75,000
- approved purchase of heating system boilers from PSI/Farnes Company of Portland for $59,619
- approved purchase of an electromechanical filing system for student records from Oblique Northwest of Salem for $19,262

- authorized an increase to the special revenue fund appropriation for grants and contracts
- appointed by unanimous vote Board Member Peter Sorenson to represent Lane on an Oregon

Community College Association federal action task force

President Jerry Moskus reported that Bonneville Power Administration will help launch an environmental energy program at Lane, that benchmark studies show Lane is getting an increasing number of high school graduates due to both better marketing and changing conditions at four-year institutions, that we've experienced an increase in grant revenue, and that downtown parking has generated few complaints after the sale of 29,000 one-hour coupons to date at a cost of $4,500 to the college. The president also reviewed the proposed reorganization of Institutional Advancement and hearing no disagreement from the board, said he would go ahead with that.

Ron Meyers, part-time electrical drafting instructor at Lane and owner of a computer business which submitted an unsuccessful bid for the college microcomputer requirements contract earlier this year, said if he does not receive an award letter or corrected bid tabulation, he will sue. He expressed dissatisfaction with Lane and said he intends to run for the board next year.

Retirement reception today

A retirement reception for Allan Gubrud will be held at 3 p.m. in Science 122.

College Council to discuss process for budget reduction decisions

College Council meets today from 3-5 p.m. in the Board Room. President Moskus will brief the council on a joint work session with Executive Cabinet to be held May 30 or June 6. The purpose of the upcoming work session is to make recommendations on the criteria and process for making budget reduction decisions for 1993-94.

In other business, council will:

- discuss accommodations for smokers;
- review a proposed committee structure document and determine the next steps toward revision and adoption of the proposal;
- review two new proposed board policies, one on personal services contracts, and the other on procurement rules;

• continue discussion of board policy revisions, including some regarding faculty and students.

Council also will hear reports from other councils and receive a self-evaluation form to complete by May 29. The next meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, June 2, from 3-5 p.m., in the Board Room.

Reclassification update given

Between 55 and 60 percent of classified job description questionnaires have been completed and returned to Personnel Services, director Sue Colvin told Classified Council at its May 13 meeting. The questionnaires were issued late December, 1991, as part of a reclassification process. Original plans called for a mid-March deadline to Personnel. Colvin said she does not know what is causing the delay. Council members pointed out that delay could be occurring at any level of the questionnaire process -- employee, supervisor, or vice president. Colvin said she will try to find the sources of delay and do what she can to help. She said the Joint Review Committee is considering "how involved it wants to be" after hearing that a similar committee of the Springfield school district actually got involved in reclassification design from the beginning of the process. "The process we selected will tell us how long it's going to take," she said. The classified union has advised its employees who want to ask for a reclassification to go ahead and do so under the existing procedure.

Double retirement reception set

Come help give back some of the warm fuzzies. After years of helping LCC students, Geri Reigles, nurse practitioner at Student Health Services, and Izetta Hunter, coordinator of the Women's Center, will be retiring. Come to the Board Room on Thursday, June 4, from 9-10 a.m., to join us to say "thank you" and "so long" and to nibble on refreshments. These two ladies deserve our very best, because they've certainly given us theirs! - staff, Student Health Services and Women's Center

Evelyn Tennis scholarship fund gets another boost

LCCEF has pledged to contribute $3,000 to the Evelyn Tennis Memorial Scholarship Fund. The local will contribute half by this June 30, and the remainder by next June 30. Along with the donation comes a challenge form LCCEF to its membership to make individual contributions that will add up to another $1,000.

The Evelyn Tennis Memorial Scholarship Fund was established in October, 1991, by friends and family to provide scholarships for students of merit and need in the Dislocated Worker Program. The fund received $4,000 from ASLCC and $675 in individual donations at that time.

To make a donation, contact Joe Farmer, LCC Foundation, ext. 2810.

Math and science workshops well-attended by youngsters

About 120 students from grades three through eight and their parents attended "Math and Science for the Curious," a half-day series of workshops held at LCC on May 9. Workshops were taught by local teachers on a volunteer basis. As in previous years, the event was sponsored by the Oregon Council of Teachers of Mathematics and the Lane ESD.

Special thanks to the following LCC staff: Alice Kaseberg, Mathematics; Anne Bacon, Sylvia Sandoz and Howard Fredricks, Instructional Computing; Phil Powers, Electronic Services; Diane Dann, Institutional Advancement; and Campus Services personnel.

Business-education agreement fuels the future of diesel technology

Helping bring a $50,000 Caterpillar grant to the diesel technology program are (left to right): Alan Clark, Jim Carter, Ed Siebert, Lee Wood, David Phillips, Jim Ellison and Harvey Kelm.

A $50,000 grant to the Lane Community College Diesel Technology Program was discussed by officials from Caterpillar Foundation of Peoria, Ill., Pape' Bros., Inc., of Eugene, and Lane Community College last week. The grant, known as the Caterpillar Excellence Fund, will provide support for curriculum development, faculty training, student scholarships and instructional equipment upgrades. Caterpillar is expected to issue a $25,000 check to the college in June, to be matched by $25,000 in cash or gifts-in-kind from Pape' Bros. during the 1992-93 academic year.

Industry officials attending the meeting were Edward W. Siebert, vice president and manager of the Caterpillar Foundation; David Phillips, director of marketing;

Jim Carter, new products engineer; and Lee Wood, personnel services manager; all of Pape' Bros.

Representing the college were Dr. Jerry Moskus, president; Jim Ellison, vice president for instruction; Ted Kotsakis, chair, Mechanical Technologies; Alan Clark, diesel technology instructor and key author of the grant proposal; Harvey Kelm, diesel technology instructor; and Ann Clark, student counselor.

Demand for skilled labor is driven by advances in technology, a retiring workforce, growth in the heavy equipment industry and other factors, said Siebert. Caterpillar expects 6,000 new earthmoving technicians will be needed in the next five years in the US and Canada by Caterpillar dealers. This puts the pressure on the industry to recruit, retrain, and retain workers. "The best education results from industry-education cooperation," he said.

Phillips said, "At Pape', we're very pleased to participate with Caterpillar and with LCC in this project." Moskus said the college has had success with other business-education partnerships and looks forward to a good relationship with Caterpillar. Coincidentally, he said his father worked as a tool and die maker for Caterpillar in Decatur, Ill., for 25 years, and Moskus himself worked there summers as a college student.

The grant is for 1992-93. Siebert indicated a possibility of continued funding from the foundation. The Pape' officials expressed a commitment to ongoing involvement. The agreement is expected to be formally endorsed by mid-June.

Short term training participants graduate

Congratulations to the participants in the Office Skills Training program who have completed eight months of intensive training including cooperative work experience with local businesses. The Training & Development staff is proud of all of them for their dedication and hard work. Interested LCC staff are invited to attend their graduation ceremony on Thursday, May 21, at 7 p.m. in Forum 308-309. A reception will follow in the cafeteria.

Exit interviews scheduled

Federal regulations require that students receiving a Stafford Student Loan or SLS Loan while attending Lane must attend an exit interview during their last term of attendance. The exit interview outlines financial planning, disclosure statements, repayment procedures, how to correspond with the lender, secondary markets, loan consolidation, options for making payments, and the consequences of default. The spring term schedule is: Thursday, May 28, 10 a.m., 2 p.m. and 6 p.m., Forum 309; Friday, May 29, 9 a.m., 1 p.m., and 4 p.m., Forum 309. Sessions begin on time and latecomers cannot be admitted. Sessions last about 50 minutes.

Evaluation deadline approaching

Classified and faculty performance evaluations are due in Personnel Services no later than June 1. Management annual written evaluations are due no later than July 1. For more information, please call Judy Ward at ext. 2583.

Counseling staff learning to run new equipment

We in Counseling are proud of our new computers and the technology that will provide expanded service to students once hooked up to the mainframe. LCC French instructor wins northwest title

Ginny Nelson of Eugene, French instructor at Lane Community College for 23 years, was named post-secondary Teacher of the Year for 1992 by the Pacific Northwest Council on Foreign Languages (PNCFL). She received a plaque and a $200 check at the PNCFL conference on May 2 in Boise.

Nelson's students describe her as energetic, cheerful and demanding but encouraging. Her colleagues praise her enthusiasm, organizational skills, quality of classroom materials, and her leadership role in her department and the college.

Outside of school, Nelson is serving on the Confederation of Oregon Foreign Language Teachers (COFLT) board and is president of the Oregon Chapter of the American Association of Teachers of French.

The award comes less than a year after two others. LCC named Nelson Instructor of the Year in spring of 1991 and COFLT gave Nelson the post-secondary award for outstanding teaching in fall of 1991.

Nelson holds master's and bachelor's degrees from the University of Oregon. She is a graduate of South Eugene High School.

Management evaluation group meets tomorrow

The Management Evaluation Subcommittee will meet Friday, May 22, from 8:30-10 a.m., in Apprenticeship 215. Materials will be distributed for review. The group will revisit the discussion about what they really want to accomplish with a performance evaluation. They will discuss the rating scale for skills and abilities, the personal qualities instrument, and they will decide on the critical institutional value items for each skill-ability area.

Welding to hold open house

Industrial Technology invites everyone to find out that "we're not just another welding program" in an open house on Friday, May 22, from 12-2 p.m. in Apprenticeship 106. You are invited to stop by and operate the new robot or try your hand at arc welding. LCC's Welding Technology Program provides up-to-date training with today's newest welding equipment and offers the technical knowledge necessary for advancement. Welding technicians are needed infields like aerospace, agriculture, communications, construction, manufacturing, robotics, and transportation.

Reception to be held for Bob Marshall

Join us in celebrating Bob Marshall's many years of service to students and Lane Community College at a retirement reception on Wednesday, June 3, from 2:30-4 p.m., in the Cafeteria.

Leadership development program

A Phi Theta Kappa/Kellogg Leadership Development Project is being developed in 100 community colleges across the nation for the next three years. LCC has been asked to submit an application. Promotional materials and travel and lodging expenses for two faculty members to attend a Train-the-Trainer session are included. These two faculty members would be expected to instruct a leadership course on campus beginning January, 1993. The program is designed to include leaders from the community as well as students. Requests are due Wednesday, May 27. Contact Bette Dorris in ASLCC Legal Services, ext. 2340, for further information.

Training on new safety regulations offered

A training session for staff on bloodborne pathogens in the workplace will be offered Tuesday, June 9, from 1:30-4:30 p.m., in the Board Room. The training will cover recently issued Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) regulations on worker training and safety practices to prevent transmission of bloodborne pathogens in the workplace. It is important that departments, where exposure to bloodborne pathogens and other potentially infectious material is possible, develop written exposure control plans and provide worker training.

The training is strongly urged for all departments in which employees have potential exposure either through their work assignments or because of a strong potential for bleeding injuries. If in doubt -- come! Presenter DeEtta Burrows of Wise Steps in Health & Safety has extensive experience in this field and with OSHA regulations. If you have any questions, contact Sandy Ing at ext. 2665 or Paul Colvin at ext. 2216.

Speaker

Dr. Stanley Kull will present a slide show to supplement Edward Abbey's "Desert Solitaire" in Jerome Garger's Peace & Conflict Studies class on Wednesday, May 27, from 1-1:50 p.m. in Center 449. (Please note room change from prior classes). Guests welcome.

Thanks

The Business Development Center thanks Printing/Graphic's Shirley Nagy for producing a new name sign for the BDC (formerly Small Business Development Center). The Center also thanks Financial Service's Kay Malmberg and Verne Whittaker for helping retrieve a display board from "UPS custody." Both signs were in place for the Hats Off to Small Business show last week which was attended by over 250 businesses.

Tuition increase takes effect summer term

Administrators have confirmed that the tuition increase of $1 per hour voted in by the Board of Education on May 13 takes effect summer term, not fall term. ClassLine will have an announcement regarding summer tuition rates, but the change is not reflected in the summer class schedule, which was printed before the decision was made.

Professional development workshops to be held for classified staff this week

A full day of professional development workshops for classified staff will be held Thursday, May 28. Final meeting of success group scheduled

The final meeting of Student Success group will be Thursday, May 28, at 2 p.m. in PE 205. Participation is encouraged. If you have questions, contact Evelyn Nagy, LEAP, ext. 2947.

Faculty Council continues discussion of full-time/part-time ratio

Faculty Council will meet Thursday, May 28, at 3 p.m. in the Board Room. Action/discussion items include the ratio of full-time and part-time faculty and next year's faculty-at-large representative to College Council.

The ratio of full-time and part-time faculty also was discussed at the May 14 meeting. Questions were raised concerning fairness, ethical concerns and the effect on students. Discussion touched on the mission of community college education, the various definitions of full-time employment and the impact of class-size limits on education. It was agreed that faculty should provide a statement that addresses what they think the ratio should be, plans and costs to arrive at this ideal, and how to convince the coming "superboard" of education how to maintain the ideal ratio. Bill Griffiths, Maxine Frauman and Allan Kluber will continue investigation into these issues.

Faculty Election for College Council Seat

The Faculty-at-large position on College Council is one of three held by faculty. Other faculty positions represent LCCEA and Faculty Council. Faculty are asked to vote for one of the following candidates for the at-large seat. Send this ballot to Jane Benjamin, Social Science, or call in your vote to her at ext. 2875, by June 1.

_____Dennis Clark, Adult Basic & Secondary Education

_____Jean Conklin, Counseling

_____Linda Loft, Computer Information Technology

_____Steven Myers, Mathematics

Mass to be held

Mass will be held Thursday, May 28, at 12-noon in PE 214, to celebrate the Feast of the Ascension. (Question: How long has Campus Ministry been at LCC? Answer: Father Jim Dieringer arrived on campus in 1971.)

Math curriculum revision help available

The Math Department has been revising mathematics courses for professional-technical programs. Because catalog changes lag behind curriculum changes, some questions might exist about which math classes are appropriate for the various programs. If you are in a professional-technical program and are developing curriculum involving mathematics, the Math Department can provide information to help you decide appropriate math requirements. Please contact John Steele or Jill McKenney at ext. 2392 for assistance.

Frank Marshall recovering

Frank Marshall of Financial Aid is resting at home after being hospitalized for a heart attack suffered on May 13. He is progressing well although it is unknown when he can return to work. He sends his appreciation for all the cards, flowers, balloons and warm thoughts and welcomes telephone calls or visits.

Jean Conklin honored by Soroptimists

Jean Conklin, Coordinator of Career Development and Instruction, received the "Women Helping Women" award for 1992 from Soroptimist International of Eugene at a luncheon on Tuesday. The award "honors women who have used their positions, influence and authority to open broader avenues of opportunity for women and to improve their quality of life." Conklin was honored for service in the field of human rights/status of women.

Thanks

Thanks to the many volunteers and staff who helped with the annual reception for 10-year, 20-year, 25-year and retiring employees on May 21. Special thanks to Julie Baker for preparing the celebration booklet. - Laura Tamura, President's Office

College Council report

Budget cuts in 1993-94 are not a foregone conclusion although we must plan for that possibility, President Moskus told College Council at its May 19 meeting. The council will join Executive Cabinet and the Board of Education in a work session to that end on Saturday, June 6, beginning at 8:30 a.m., at Wallace Creek camp east of Springfield off Jasper-Lowell Road.

In other business, council concluded that committee structure and a college calendar are intertwined. A meeting schedule that allows time for discussion and delivery of materials for the various college groups is desired. Council member Jay Marston and president's assistant Marie Matsen agreed to draft a college calendar and present it to council for review.

An Administrative Services proposal to change personal services contracts policy met with objection. Council member Ted Kotsakis and guests Donna Albro and Lloyd Rain agreed to further study the idea and report back to council.

Council reached no consensus on whether to raise the public bidding threshold from $15,000 to $25,000 and will continue discussion at its next meeting. Several other community colleges and public agencies use the higher threshold. The bid threshold is the dollar value at which formal public bidding is necessary. Its purpose is to facilitate smaller purchases and provide for greater public scrutiny of larger purchases.

A discussion on accommodations for smokers was postponed.

Council meets again Tuesday, June 2, from 3-5 p.m. in the Board Room.

Agenda deadline for College Council

People wanting an item on the June 2 College Council agenda should call Marie Matsen today at ext. 2313.

Library to close for recarpeting

The first floor of the Library is scheduled for carpeting this summer. Because the project involves moving all books and periodicals on the floor, it will require closure of the Library for approximately one month. We realize the inconvenience that this may cause, particularly for summer school classes. We are currently targeting the dates of Aug. 12-Sept. 14 for the closure. Please let us know how this will affect your use of the Library and how we can try to accommodate your needs. We would like to have your input as soon as possible.- Pat John, Study Skills/Library/Telecommunications, ext. 2439/2824

Counseling to temporarily relocate during remodeling

The Counseling/Advising Center and Career Information Center will be remodeled beginning about June 15 and lasting for two or two-and-a-half months. During this time, Counseling/Advising Center will relocate to the Study Skills area and Career Information Center will relocate to Center 401.

Advance apologies to everyone in the Center Building for the noise and disruption that will occur. Sincere thanks to Campus Services and all the departments who have been so cooperative and willing to help with the project. Special thanks go to Campus Services Director Paul Colvin, to campus architect Duane Mick, to Pat John and Study Skills for putting up with us all summer, to Ron Mitchell and Social science for loaning classrooms, and to Nancy Jaques and Scheduling for locating other 'homes' for our classes. There are countless others who have had a part in bringing the Counseling Department's long-held dream to reality. Thanks to you all. - Counseling staff

Farewell reception to be held for Karen Bond

Social Science is hosting a "good-bye" reception for Karen Bond on Thursday, June 4, from 3-5 p.m. in the Cafeteria. Please join us in wishing her well before she leaves in July.

Activities deadline arrives

The deadline for faculty professional activities proposals is Friday, May 29. Funds for 1991-92 are limited. The committee will not meet again until mid-September. Contact Roxanne Flowerday in Study Skills at ext. 2439 for applications.

Class features local peace activist, former department head, and video

"Peace Journal," a 35-minute video of the life of 94-year-old Stanley Belden, a local peace activist, will be shown Monday, June 1, from 1-1:50 p.m. in Center 401 in Jerome Garger's Peace & Conflict Studies class. Stanley and his wife, Gladys, past Oregon Teacher of the Year and original head of LCC's Home Economics Department, will be present to answer questions. Guests welcome.

Worksites still needed

The Summer Youth Employment Program still needs worksites. Information and position request forms are available from Personnel Services. Youth can work 15-32 hours a week. Departments that wish to offer worksites must call Looking Glass Job Center at 726-6040 by Friday, June 5.

Insurance reps available for questions next week

Classified staff interested in changing from one medical/vision plan to another, or adding a dependent to medical/vision coverage, may do so now through June 5. New enrollment forms are available at the reception desk in Personnel Services. All changes and additions received by Marie Nelson in Personnel Services by 5 p.m. on June 5 will be effective July 1, 1992. Representatives from Blue Cross/Blue Shield will be available to answer any coverage questions on Tuesday, June 2, from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. in the Board Room. For more information, contact Marie Nelson at ext. 2590.

Exit interviews are today and tomorrow

Federal regulations require that students receiving a Stafford Student Loan or SLS Loan while attending Lane must attend an exit interview during their last term of attendance. The exit interview outlines financial planning, disclosure statements, repayment procedures, how to correspond with the lender, secondary markets, loan consolidation, options for making payments, and the consequences of default. The interviews will be held Thursday, May 28, at 10 a.m., 2 p.m., and 6 p.m. in Forum 309; and Friday, May 29, 9 a.m., 1 p.m., and 4 p.m., Forum 309.

Thanks

I wish to thank Angie Tretnoff in the Mail Room for searching for a piece of mail among the thousands that I needed to retrieve. She went out of her way to help. Thank you, Angie! - Cherrill Hemminger, Admissions

Reception to be held for Bob Marshall

Join us in celebrating Bob Marshall's many years of service to students and Lane Community College at a retirement reception on Wednesday, June 3, from 2:30-4 p.m., in the Cafeteria.

Double retirement reception set

Come help give back some of the warm fuzzies. After years of helping LCC students, Geri Reigles, nurse practitioner at Student Health Services, and Izetta Hunter, coordinator of the Women's Center, will be retiring. Come to the Board Room on Thursday, June 4, from 9-10 a.m., to join us to say "thank you" and "so long" and to nibble on refreshments. These two ladies deserve our very best, because they've certainly given us theirs! - staff, Student Health Services and Women's Center

Basketball camp offered by Jim Boutin

Coach Jim Boutin is offering a basketball camp for young men and women ages eight to 18 to be held August 3-7 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the main gym. The same skills and work ethics that won Lane the 1991-92 NWAACC Championship and a 27-5 season will be taught at the camp. Special emphasis is on shooting, team play and defense. Total cost is $100 and includes T-shirt, lunch, top-notch instruction and seven competitive games. For a brochure and registration form, contact Athletics at ext. 2215.

Opportunities abroad

For more information about these and other opportunities, contact Julie Baker at ext. 2199.

- FULBRIGHT OPPORTUNITY DEADLINES: June 15, Australia and South Asia; August 1 for Africa, Asia, Europe, the Caribbean, Middle East, and Canada.
- OPPORTUNITIES TO STUDY ABROAD: Various brochures and information are available on Cooperative Center for 1992-93 through the Council on International Educational Exchange.
