Week 5 of winter term

Meet Penny Deggelman

Penelope Deggelman was appointed as a full-time instructor in the Mathematics Department this fall. She was on temporary status in 1991-92 and has taught here part-time since 1985. She taught at the UO and in the Springfield School District before coming to Lane.

She has bachelor's and master's degrees in science from the UO, and an associate degree in English from Palomar College in California.

Deggelman's basic teaching goals are to motivate students to discover and appreciate mathematics; to provide understanding in a clear manner using illustrations, models and practical examples; to demonstrate the usefulness of mathematics through practical applications; and to stimulate learning and a sense of confidence in diverse student groups.

She belongs to several professional education associations. At Lane she has served on the Curriculum Approval Committee, Writing Across the Curriculum, and Short Leave Committee for Professional Activities and LCCEA. She developed the curriculum for Math 10 and has participated in the Math Skills Fair.

Community and Economic Development cabinet meeting rescheduled

The Community and Economic Development cabinet meeting for today, Feb. 1, 1:30-3:30 p.m. has been rescheduled for Feb. 8.

Joint Classification Study hearings set

Job class specification open hearings on the following groups are scheduled for:

- Feb. 3, 9-10 a.m. in PE 205 for the Medical Tech, Performing Arts, Electronic Maintenance and Interpreter for the Hearing Impaired.
- Feb. 18, 3-4 p.m. in Health 106 for Training and Development/Special Employment Services.
- Feb. 19, 3-4 p.m. in Health 106 for Media, Marketing, Printing/Graphics and KLCC.
- Feb. 22, 9-10 a.m. in the Board Room for Data Processing and Computer User Support.

BDC client chosen Business of the Year

Pacific Yurts, a Cottage Grove company and currently a client in LCC's Advanced Business Management Program, has been chosen as Cottage Grove's Business of the Year! Alan Bair, the owner/manager, requested that his entire crew be photographed with him for the honor. Business Development Center faculty member Bill Klupenger says, "Alan is an example of the Total Quality Manager with a TQM - oriented shop."

His company was also on the front of the premier national magazine, REAL GOODS. He recently donated a yurt to Kauai because of their devastation from hurricanes. Soon after, he received an order for many more. The municipalities on Kauai have found that these structures are ideally suited to their needs.

Alan and Pacific Yurts are graduates of the Small Business Management Program, and Alan says he's "...delighted to be working with the Business Development Center and Lane Community College again..." in the Advanced Business Management Program.

Professional Development leave recipients for spring term

The Professional Development Leave committee is pleased to announce that Lou Bombardier, Mary Lou Lynch, and Ted Berg will be taking leave spring term.

Ted, from the English Department, will be translating various literary manuscripts of 19th century American immigrants. Lou, from Counseling, will be conducting a research project. Mary Lou, from Family and Health Careers, will do clinical studies and update her computer skills.

If you are interested in applying for leave during 1993/94 year, Professional Development Leave applications are now available. Contracted faculty members may apply for one to three terms of paid professional leave to do research, retrain for new assignments at Lane, or return to school.

Guidelines/applications are available from Roxanne Flowerday or Pat John, Study Skills, ext. 2439. The due date is April 15.

President to hold open office

President Moskus will hold open office hours for drop-in visitors on Monday, Feb. 8, 2-5 p.m. The Daily, Monday, February 1, 1993 - page 2

Ted Berg to speak

Ted Berg, LCC English Department, will speak in Jerome Garger's Peace and Conflict Studies class on Tuesday evening in Center 449 from 7:40 to 8:45 p.m. His topic: "Henry Thoreau: A Man Who Looked." Guests welcome.

Schedule change for Diversity series

Because of the recent school closures due to weather conditions, there have been some revisions in the Cultural Diversity seminar series schedule. They are as follows:

Feb. 2            Disability Issues

Feb. 9            Myth, History & Multi-cultural America

These sessions will be held from 3-4:30 p.m. and 5:30-7 p.m. in Apprenticeship 216. For more information contact Vicki LeVine, ext. 2074.

Intramurals Fitness Center announces drop-in hours

Step, row, ride or simply jump rope or do sit-ups. PE 101 is now available for staff and students to use under the careful eye of supervisor Brent Ellison. Drop-in workout hours are: Monday, Wednesday, Friday, 7-8 a.m. and Tuesday, Thursday, 7-8:30 a.m. For further information and/or to sign up please contact Maryanne Graham or Gary Knapp in the Intramurals Office, PE 204, ext. 2293.

Valentine balloon bouquets

Remember to order your Valentine balloon bouquet from the Bookstore. If you would like to pre-order, for best selection, fill out an order form at the cash register in the Bookstore. Free office delivery will be available again this year on Feb. 12. Check with us for the best prices in town!

The Bookstore has many other Valentine gifts to choose from including Valentine Euphoria Chocolate.

Nagasaki student exchange information available

Applications for the student exchange to Nagasaki Wesleyan Junior College are now available. This successful program will be sending a student to Nagasaki Wesleyan for the eighth time and hosting a student from there for the academic year. The exchange lasts from September 1993 until the end of July 1994. While there, our student studies Japanese language and culture in a beautiful setting on the southern island of Kyushu. Some prior knowledge of Japanese is desirable but is not required. Interested students should contact Mason Davis, international student counselor, Center 221, ext. 2204.

NEH seminar applications due soon

Information is now available on the NEH summer seminars. A list of opportunities is filed in the Grants Library outside Admin. 209. Applicants must apply directly to the seminar director of the seminar the applicant wishes to attend. Application deadline is March 1 and awards will be announced on March 29.

Spring term "International Week" will focus on Korea

The International/Intercultural Committee is planning to inaugurate an International Week at Lane to celebrate a selected country each year. They hope to hold the first International Week from May 10-14 with the spotlight on Korea. Events planned so far include various cultural exchanges, a brown bag luncheon on May 12 devoted to educational issues, and a Friday night celebration. Interested faculty are encouraged to include topics on Korea in their spring term curricula, and/or participate in the luncheon. The committee selected Korea for many reasons, including the fact that more Korean students are enrolling in community colleges, Eugene enjoys a strong sister city relationship with Chinju, Korea, and Eugene has an active local Korean-American community. For more information, contact Mason Davis at ext. 2239.

JOINT CLASSIFICATION STUDY

Joint Classification Study hearings set

Job class specification open hearings on the following groups have been scheduled:

- Feb. 3, 9-10 a.m., PE 205, Medical Tech, Performing Arts, Electronic Maintenance and Interpreter for the Hearing Impaired.
- Feb. 18, 3-4 p.m., Health 106, Training and Development/Special Employment Services.

Transition Team to meet

The Transition Planning Team will meet Thursday, Feb. 4, from 2-3 p.m. in PE 205. Agenda items include a discussion of the San Francisco workshop on change and long-range planning to meet LCC's transition needs.

Prescription drug benefit available with Managed Care Network

The Managed Care Network HMO plan contains a prescription drug benefit. This benefit is subject to a $100 deductible after which 80 percent of the next $2,500 of prescription drug expense is covered. Prescription drug expenses in excess of that amount will be reimbursed 100 percent. You may receive the benefit in one of two ways:

1. If you have your prescription filled at one of the Managed Care Network participating pharmacies (see pages 85-87 of the provider directory), the pharmacy will track your experience, monitor the satisfaction of your deductible and collect from you, at the time of service, only the 20 percent of the cost of the prescription which is your responsibility after your deductible is met.
2. If you have your prescription filled at a pharmacy which is not a participant in the Managed Care Network, it will be your responsibility to pay the full price of the prescription at the time of service and seek any reimbursement for any benefit due you. In order to receive this reimbursement it will be necessary that the PCS Prescription Drug Claim Form be completed in conjunction with the pharmacist at the same time the prescription is filled. This is the only method by which reimbursement will be made. You will need one of these forms for each member of your family.

A supply of prescription drug forms is available in the forms rack in Personnel Services. If you have questions, call Marie Nelson at ext. 2590.

Support your local basketball teams

Athletics Director Harland Yriarte promises "a heart stopping, adrenaline-filled experience" for spectators at Titans basketball games. The Titans women's team have a 16-3 win-loss record for a ranking of sixth out of 30 members of the Northwest Athletic Association of Community Colleges. Their combined team GAP is 2.7. The Titans men's team have a 17-4 win-loss record for a ranking of 8th in the NWAACC. Their combined team GPA is 2.89.

The next home games are Wednesday, Feb. 10 vs. Umpqua and Wednesday, Feb. 17 vs. Linn-Benton. Tickets are only $2 for both women's and men's games. The women play at 6 p.m.; the men at 8 p.m. Games are held in the main gym.

Classified Council report

Classified Council heard a union update from representative Alen Bahret at its Jan. 27 meeting. Business discussed at the last two LCCEF meetings included nominations for election of delegates, information about medical premium co-payment and job classifications. Regarding progress of the joint classification study, he stated 366 positions and 93 classes have been reviewed, and another 40 positions and ten classes remain. The union plans to open the contract for wage negotiations in March, but bargaining is contingent upon completion and final approval of the class system by President Moskus and LCCEF. Alen urged employees who wish to voice opinions regarding classifications to do so as soon as possible.

In other business, Council discussed a proposal from Julie Baker to create a special insurance premium fund to help employees who may be in the position of needing to pay their insurance premiums out of disability leave. After lengthy discussion, council, although in full support, decided the proposal was not within its power to undertake and planned to forward the matter to College Council. Classified Council will continue to be a forum and will revisit the issue at future meetings.

Other topics contemplated for future discussion include the impact of additional part-time instructors and of students on classified staff. In departments such as Financial Aid and the Bookstore, staff are especially affected by the increase of students as it often necessitates extra hours.

Classified Council will meet again on Wednesday, Feb. 10, from 3-5 p.m. in PE 205.

- submitted by Kimberly Buchanan, recorder, Classified Council

Managers' Forum meetings

The remaining Managers' Forum meetings for 1992-93 will be held the following Fridays at 8:30 a.m. in Forum 309: Feb. 12, March 12, April 16, May 14, and June 11.

State-of-the-art oven donated to culinary arts program

Culinary, Food Service and Hospitality Program Instructor Don Savoie says the culinary program has received a donation of a Combi Oven Steamer. The state-of-the-art unit is worth about $20,000. Savoie says it is one of the most modern pieces of equipment made for the food services industry in the last couple of years. It is made by Blodgett Company of Burlington, Vermont, the nation's oldest oven maker. Savoie has been networking with Blodgett for many years. He and the students are thrilled. "It lends outstanding productivity and versatility to the culinary students' learning experience," says Savoie.

Reservations going fast for Classical Cuisine dinner

Culinary arts students at Lane are cooking up a special treat. They will serve a Classical Cuisine dinner at 6 p.m. on Thursday, February 18, but reservations are required by next Monday, February 8. The dinner will be held in a specially arranged corner of the cafeteria. Students are still writing the menu while checking the market for what's fresh, but they have decided on the soup and the entree. The soup will be Oregon clam chowder. The entree will be pork orloff, which features baking pork tenderloin in a sauce of minced black peppercorn, green peppers and red peppers. Classical Cuisine dinners feature live music and a selection of wines. The cost is only $14.50. Reservations can be made through the Renaissance Room at ext. 2697. Culinary arts instructor Willie Kealoha says tickets usually go pretty fast.

Call for presentations

The League for Innovation in the Community College invites proposals for "Reinventing the Community College: Using Information Technology to do Things Differently and to do Different Things," to be held in Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 14-17. For a copy of proposal submission guidelines and more information, call the Office of Community and Economic Development at ext. 2120.

Intramurals Fitness Center announces drop-in hours

The Intramurals Fitness Center invites you to step, row, ride or simply jump rope or do your sit-ups. PE 101 is now available for staff and students to use under the careful eye of supervisor Brent Ellison. For a limited time only you can purchase your Fitness Center pass for a mere $5. Drop-in workout hours are: Monday, Wednesday, Friday 7-8 a.m. and Tuesday, Thursday from 7-8:30 a.m. Afternoon hours are Monday through Friday from 4-5:30 p.m. For more information and/or to sign up please contact Maryanne Graham or Gary Knapp in the Intramurals Office, PE 204, ext. 2293.

Future reading group to meet

The Future Reading Group will meet Wednesday, Feb. 24, from 7-8:30 a.m. in the Board Room. This reading group meets once a month for breakfast and informal discussion of readings on topics related to the future of the college. This month's readings are on change and cultural leadership. If you're interested in attending, please call the President's Office at ext. 2200 to reserve a place for breakfast and to receive reading materials.

Country Night a success

Around 800 people including basketball fans, country dancers, city slickers, a few Bubbas and three Dollys attended the Titan's basketball teams Country Night held last Saturday, Jan. 30th in the main gym. Spectators were treated to some great basketball action. Titan men and women defeated Chemeketa and later joined in country line dance lessons and the after-game dance.

A big thanks goes to all the LCC staff and event sponsors, KUGN FM 97.9, Spotted Mule Western Wear, ASLCC, and the Athletic Dept. staff. We just may hold another one soon!

Barbara McCall named classified employee for February

Barbara McCall is congratulated by Jim Ellison

Barbara McCall was named Outstanding Classified Employee of the Month for February on Feb. 1. She is circulation supervisor in the Library. She has been with Lane over seven years.

Said her colleagues: "Her organization and good humor motivated this nomination." "Even though Barbara is super-busy...it is most frequently she who is ready, willing and able to do a little something extra for students." "She's always thinking of library patrons." "She does at least four things at once, all the time, and seldom misses a beat." They say she refers to crises as opportunities. She treats everyone with respect and courtesy, even those who do not do the same.

No stranger to awards, McCall was listed in the 14th Annual Edition of the National Dean's List 1991, the year she received her bachelor of science degree in managerial leadership from Northwest Christian College. She has an associate degree from Lane where she was an honor student.

Classified union to hold meeting

The Lane Community College Employees Federation will hold an update meeting at the Downtown Center on Wednesday, Feb. 10, from 7:30-9 a.m., in DTC 309. It will be informal so attend as your schedule allows. All classified employees are encouraged to attend to hear updates on the classification system, upcoming wage bargaining and other business.

Video to win award

The college has received word that it will win a Paragon Award for a new 10-minute promotional video titled "Cool School." The video was created to inform high school students about Lane and features interviews with Lane students Alicia Barry, Bret Dalrymple, Nathan Funnell, Alex Hensley, Shane Barnard, Carrie Hafner, and Scott Westfall and narration by professional actors Kim Clow and Jeff Christensen, also Lane students. The project was coordinated by Shan Titus, High School Relations Coordinator, Admissions Office, with assistance from Student Ambassador and broadcast major Scott Westfall. It was funded by the college's marketing budget and produced by Westcom Creative Group, Eugene. The Paragon Awards are given by the National Council for Marketing and Public Relations. The college will learn in March whether it will win first, second, or third place for the video. Shan thanks all staff and students who helped with the production.

"Cool School" buttons available

Speaker

Nancy LaVelle, Media Arts and Technology, will speak in Jerome Garger's Peace and Conflict Studies class on Tuesday, Feb. 9, from 7:15-8:30 a.m., on "How TV Produces 'Truth.'" Guests welcome.

College stationery for official use only

Occasionally we run across cases of misuse of college letterhead stationery. Although this is not a common problem, it might be time to remind all employees to take care not to use letterhead for personal purposes. When you communicate on letterhead you are speaking for the college. Examples of inappropriate use include such things as letters to the editor, endorsements of individuals or organizations for their financial or political gain, and letters to elected officials expressing personal opinions. Call the President's Office (ext. 2200) if you have questions about a specific use of letterhead.

Management development committee to meet

The Management Personal and Professional Development Committee will meet on Thursday, Feb. 18, to review applications for both personal and professional development. Please submit applications by Friday, Feb. 12. The committee will be unable to review late and incomplete applications. Please call Lloyd Rain for forms and guidelines at ext. 2208.

Surplus chairs available

The following chairs are now available for distribution to needy departments (not for personal purchase).

- Approximately 100 used Virco, tablet-arm chairs in varying condition, roughly 10 years old.
  - Approximately 20 used, straight-back, upholstered, Vista chairs, (used in library) roughly 20 years old.
  - Miscellaneous other used chairs from various locations (widely varying age and condition).
- Contact Bob Cudmore at ext. 2208 for additional information and viewing appointments.

Faculty writing contest

Attached to today's Daily is an announcement for a faculty writing contest as part of the college's upcoming annual observance of Community College Month in April. The essay theme: "My best moments of teaching at Lane Community College." The entry deadline is March 5. For more information and to submit essays, call Sharon Thomas at ext. 2145.

Dance club to hold bake sale

The Lane Ballroom Dance Club will hold a bake sale on Tuesday, Feb. 9, from 9 a.m.-2 p.m., second floor Center Building, between the Library and the Bookstore stairs. The club is raising money for live music for aspring term dance. Don't miss this early opportunity to give something sweet to your Valentine! - Nancy Anderson, Health & PE, ext. 2816/2546

Holiday

The college will be closed on Presidents' Day, Monday, Feb. 15.

Board agenda

The Lane Community College Board of Education will meet Wednesday, Feb. 10, in the Board Room. A work session will be held from 5:30-7:30 p.m. to discuss board policy revisions. The regular meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. Agenda highlights:

- The consent agenda includes the next bid award in the college's energy conservation program, this one to Honeywell of Beaverton for purchase of a building management and control system in the amount of $199,248; a request by KLCC to apply for a $6,952 grant from the Meyer Memorial Trust to fund a new radio program called "Improve Your Work Life" (the trust requires board approval); and the resignation of Vice President Richard Hillier effective April 2.

- Staff reports will be given on the Energy Management Program and the Americans with Disabilities Act.

- Business affairs will include action on the president's annual authorizations of various contracts and purchases, and a review of the administration's response to the annual audit report.

- New business will include action on the elimination of the old board policy on student health services, action on the 1993-94 academic calendar, discussion on the role of the Budget Committee, discussion of an interagency proposal to develop a high school football site at Lane, and discussion on establishing contract provisions for the president.

The next regularly scheduled board meeting will be March 10.

College Council reports

(Editor's note: The following report combines highlights from the Jan. 26 and Feb. 2 College Council meetings.)

College Council began work on an institutional vision statement at its Jan. 26 meeting. Julie Aspinwall-Lamberts, Diane Dann and Marie Matsen presented some food for thought on the issue. They said two steps need to be taken: develop a statement and identify issues and trends. They pointed out that components of the college vision already exist, including the unifying principles, budget principles and criteria, President Moskus' in-service speech, and others. They advised bringing in a futurist speaker to help inform the college about trends, and perhaps forming trend groups to track the issues and how they impact Lane. After discussion, council members agreed to sketch out their own definition of a vision for the college and bring it to the Feb. 16 meeting.

Also at the Jan. 26 meeting, council reviewed a revision of the surplus property procedures in the Business Operations Manual. Some difference of opinion remained as to whether revenue from the sale of surplus property should go the general fund or to departments. President Moskus directed the committee previously assigned by council to study the issue to meet again and reach consensus.

At the Feb. 2 meeting, College Council reviewed the board agenda for Feb. 10. They also discussed three ASLCC referendum proposals that would reallocate fees currently collected for the child care co-op, ASLCC, and OSPIRG to Student Health Services. Other items on the council agendas were not discussed due to lack of time. The next College Council meeting is set for Tuesday, Feb. 16, from 3-5 p.m. in the Board Room.

Managers to meet

This month's Managers' Forum will be Friday, Feb. 12, 8:30-10 a.m. in Forum 309. The main topic of discussion will be restructuring of the college. Managers will receive some materials from President Moskus to review for Friday's meeting. Other short topics for the meeting include items from the January and February Board meetings and an update on the Workforce Quality Commission.

New healthy choices in snack bar and cafeteria

Jim Wychules, new Foodservices director, wants everyone to know about the healthy, tasty options in the snack bar and cafeteria.

- All recipes have had the salt removed or reduced by half.
- Fat free and low-cal dressings are now available at the salad bar, (Ranch dressing, too!)
- Organic vegetarian sandwiches (pre-made) are in our "grab to go section."
- Our vegetarian soups and entrees use no meat bases or by products.

Successful student strategies is focus of awards competition

The National Council of Instructional Administrators is seeking entries for its 1992-93 Student Success Strategies Awards competition. Categories are best classroom strategy for student success, best curriculum strategy for student success, and best faculty strategy for student success. Winners will be announced at the American Association of Community College's annual convention in Portland in late April. The entry deadline is Friday, Feb. 19. For more information and entry submission forms, contact your department manager. - Office of Instruction

Clarification on use of LCC letterhead

Writing letters of reference or recommendation for students or colleagues with whom you work is a legitimate use of official college letterhead stationery. A good general test to use is whether the letter is college business. If the letter is directly related to your normal work activities, it is probably appropriate to use letterhead. An example of an inappropriate use of letterhead would be a letter endorsing an individual or company soliciting business (such as selling insurance or offering financial or retirement planning services). - Marie Matsen, President's Office

Democracy in action

Members of the college's Legislative Action Team have moved into high gear at both the state and federal level. Now that the Oregon Legislature is in session, staff are tracking state bills and working to keep legislators informed about legislation that will impact the college. Later this month, President Jerry Moskus and Vice President for Community and Economic Development Larry Warford will travel with a regional delegation to Washington D.C. to discuss college needs with legislators and agency officials at the federal level.

Meanwhile, librarian Don Ownbey is tracking state legislation for the college and can help staff obtain copies of bills or other legislative information. He can be reached at ext. 2277 or 2220.

Other sources of information about state legislation are the OEA Hotline, 1-800-822-9935 (recorded message); and state legislative information at 1-800-332-2313 (call to request information about legislation and meeting times).

Interested staff are invited to attend Legislative Action Team meetings or to share their concerns with team members. The group meets the first Thursday of each month. The next meeting will be March 4 at 7:30 a.m. in the Board Room.

Serving on the Legislative Action Team are:

George Alvergue, Social Science, ext. 2433/2427; Steve Candee, Social Science, ext. 2188; Bob Cudmore, Purchasing, ext. 2571; Diane Dann, Institutional Advancement, ext. 2592; Jim Ellison, Office of Instruction, ext. 2306; Linda Fossen, Student Services, ext. 2315; Dick Hillier, Administrative Services, ext. 2311; Sandy Ing, Student Support Services--Student Health, ext. 2666; Patti Lake, Training and Development, ext. 2848; Sarah LaMaster, Institutional Advancement, ext. 2312; Debra Lamb, Continuing Education, ext. 2915; Dixie Maurer-Clemons, Science/Cooperative Education, ext. 2506/2203/2458; Jerry Moskus, President's Office, ext. 2200; Richard Null, Science, ext. 2446 (leave of absence, winter term, 1993); Dave Oatman, Customized Training, ext. 2924; Don Ownbey, Library, ext. 2277; Mike Rose, Eng., For. ## Meet Jana Nelson

Meet Jana Nelson, new administrative assistant in the Mathematics Department and coordinator of the Eugene-Irkutsk Sister City Committee's Link-A-Family Program.

Nelson joined Lane in December after 15 months with Lane County courts. Before that she worked three years at Linn-Benton Community College. She has operated an in-home computer business and is a published writer. Her home state is Alaska.

Nelson invites staff to become involved with the Eugene-Irkutsk Link-a-Family Program. The program offers letter and E-Mail exchanges between families.

Letters come from Irkutsk families ranging from young couples to big families with children and grandparents. Approximately one-third of the letters are written in English and the remaining have been or are being translated.

Nelson says the program is dedicated to developing strong and lasting relationships between linked families. The committee will help with translation and other details. To find out more about the program, please call Nelson evenings at home at 689-6846. Her department extension is 2393.

Nominations for Outstanding Classified Employee of the Month for March are due Feb. 15 to Community and Economic Development. For a nomination form, contact Debbie Powers at ext. 2120.

Discount offered to faculty attending community college convention

The American Association of Community Colleges will hold its annual convention in Portland from April 28 to May 1. Faculty from AACC member colleges in Oregon and Washington get a special registration rate of $175 each for one or two faculty members, or $150 for three or more. The Office of Instruction will submit one combined registration for all interested faculty. For details, call ext. 2306.

Mathematics Department tallies up a $4,300 equipment donation

The Mathematics Department thanks Texas Instruments for a donation of new graphing calculator equipment on Feb. 4 worth over $4,300. Received were several TI-85 calculators, overhead viewers, and software to link them to IBM personal computers. By documenting that Lane has over 1,000 students each year purchasing graphing calculators, Robert Thompson of Mathematics was able to obtain the donation through the TI Volume Purchase Program. Other departments that are interested in integrating this technology into existing curriculum should contact Thompson at ext. 2392.

Plan now for 1994 NEH Study Grants

The National Endowment for the Humanities offers study grants of $3,000 to college and university teachers for "intellectual renewal of the heavily engaged teacher." The grants fund self-designed projects for intensive study rather than research intended for publication. In 1992, about one out of three applicants received awards. The next deadline is August 16, 1993, for projects for the summer of 1994. For application guidelines and samples of successful proposals write: Study Grants, NEH, Room 316, 1100 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C. 20506, or call 202-606-8463. An information poster about the study grants program is posted outside the grants office, Admin. 209. If you have questions, contact Sarah LaMaster, ext. 2312.

Investment opportunities fund established

The college has launched an Investment Opportunities Fund to encourage departments and individuals to find ways to save the college money, or to make money in its day-to-day operations. President Jerry Moskus recommended the plan and the Board of Education approved it in October. The fund provides seed money for ideas that will result in future savings or new revenues for the college. Moskus appointed a committee to invite and review proposals. The committee has distributed a descriptive flyer. The deadline for the first round of applications is March 1.

If you didn't get the flyer or you need more information, contact a member of the committee. Serving are Sandy Cutler, ext. 2105; Bert Ewing, ext. 2829; Shirlee Ford, ext. 2322; Sandy Ing, ext. 2666; Virginia Brady, ext. 2565; Ed Case, ext. 2574; Susan Breeden, ext. 2214; John Nelson, ext. 2403; Doug White, ext. 2617; Vicki Ellison, ext. 2589; and Sandra Jones, 683-8043.

Faculty Council report

Faculty Council meets today from 3-4:30 p.m. in the Board Room. At their last meeting on Jan. 28, Vice President for Instruction Jim Ellison attended and addressed several items. He explained the ramifications of a U of O proposal to change some three-credit classes to four-credit classes. He also said a consultant will be brought in to study the room scheduling system and that Faculty Council will have a chance to react to subsequent recommendations. Ellison requested council's help in the selection process for outstanding instructor of the year and council members suggested some possible committee members. Council also discussed a pilot project to standardize student instructor evaluations. In other business, council continued discussion of the full-time to part-time faculty ratio. They agreed to continue hearing from departments which are adversely affected and to draft a memo to administration regarding these issues. - Submitted by Kimberly Buchanan for The Daily

Mark Harris to speak on drug laws and racism

Mark Harris, LCC Substance Abuse Prevention Coordinator, will speak in Jerome Garger's Peace and Conflict Studies class in Center 449 on Tuesday evening, Feb. 16, from 8-9:30 p.m. His topic: "The Walls of Perception: Drug Laws and Racism." Guests welcome.

Alcohol and drug abuse prevention training offered for managers

"Thy Policy and Thy Staff They Comfort Thee," a management staff training on alcohol and other drug abuse prevention at Lane, will be held Thursday, Feb. 18 in PE 205. Focus will be on learning your responsibility in implementing the policy and what it means to you personally and professionally in the workplace. Coffee will be served at 8:30 a.m. with training by Substance Abuse Prevention Coordinator Mark Harris from 8:45-11:45 a.m. For reservations, call Julie Baker, ext. 2199.

Diversity class next examines Arab-American issues

The "Issues in Cultural Diversity" series next seminar is on "Arab-American Cultural Issues and Contributions." It will be held Tuesday, Feb. 16, from 3-4:30 p.m. and again from 5:30-7 p.m. in Apprenticeship 216. For more information, call Vicki Levine at ext. 2074.

Ed Humes wins award

Ed Humes, welding instructor in the Industrial Technology Department, has received a Citizen Award from the Lane County Sheriff's department for volunteer work. Hume's designed, built and installed a catwalk for the pistol range at the regional law enforcement training center in Goshen. The catwalk is 44 inches wide, eight feet high and consists of about 10,000 pounds of fabricated metal. It serves as an observation platform for instructors. The sheriff's department presented the award to Humes at its annual awards banquet a few weeks ago.

Last September, Humes won the major Eldon G. Schafer "seed money" award for innovation to develop a welding manufacturing class that will produce items for resale, and an Eldon G. Schafer "pat on the back" innovation award for work he and his students did on the capitol building in Salem.

National metalsmithing exhibit opens Tuesday in the Art Department Gallery

The Art Department Gallery puts on its biggest show of the year with "Vessels," a national invitational metalsmithing exhibition from Tuesday, Feb. 16 through Friday, March 12.

Thirty-two artists from across the country will display their works. A reception for the artists will be held Friday, Feb. 19, from 7:30-9:30 p.m. in the gallery. Among the more notable exhibitors is David M. LaPlantz of Bayside, California.

Gallery hours are Monday through Thursday from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. and Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. There is no admission charge. For more information, call the Art Department at ext. 2409.

Performing Arts ready for annual "Electronic Artistry" event

"Sound Steps," the Electronic Artistry '93 multi-media concert produced by the Performing Arts Department, will be held Friday and Saturday, Feb. 19 and 20, at 8 p.m. in the main theater. Music instructor Ed McManus and dance instructor Mary Seereiter have brought together electronic musicians and dance choreographers for this unique performance. Tickets are $9 for non-student adults, $7 for senior citizens, and $6 for students, and may be obtained from the Box Office, ext. 2202.

Korean Week planned

Korean Week is coming up May 10-14 and the International/Intercultural Committee is planning many activities for your enjoyment. If you have any items from Korea which you would be willing to share in a display in the Library, please contact Julie Baker at ext. 2199.

Women's Day another success

Women's Day at Lane on Jan. 30 was another success. This was the fourth year of the event. Over 300 women came to main campus for a day of workshops and tours of career programs. Their feedback and evaluations were very positive. Thanks to all participating programs and staff whose efforts made Women's Day possible. - Kate Barry and Patsy Raney, Women's Program

PERS survey planned

The Public Employees Retirement System will be conducting a random sample survey of LCC PERS employees sometime in the next few months to gather information on PERS publications in terms of their understandability, usefulness, and timeliness. This will be a telephone survey of no longer than five minutes. If you have questions, contact Judy Ward, Personnel Services at ext. 2583.

Ellen Palmer appreciated

Ellen Palmer of Training & Development's Dislocated Worker Program recently presented to a counseling class at the U of O. Said instructor Janet Moursund: "When I began planning this class, I said jokingly to my colleagues that I intended to learn from it as much as my students did. To my delight (and chagrin) that turned out to be largely true!" She said Palmer has the credibility of someone who's "been out there doing it" and will be asked back for more presentations.

Keep those surveys comin'

If you haven't already done so, please complete and return your Martin Luther King Day survey to Julie Baker, Community & Economic Development. The survey will help the planning committee meet your preferences in planning future staff development activities.

Titans advanced baseball camp

Bob Foster and the Titan Club Baseball team are hosting a camp for young men ages 14 to 18 on Feb. 14 and 15. The camp is designed to teach advance drills in hitting, infielding, outfielding, catching, pitching and baserunning. The cost of the camp is $45. All proceeds go to help off set expenses for the baseball team's up coming season. For more information please call Bob Foster, ext. 2550/2215.

Faculty internship opportunity

Curious about what your colleagues are doing to measure student outcomes? Interested in release time from teaching two classes spring term? For further information on the faculty internship, contact Julie Aspinwall-Lamberts (Research, Planning, and Evaluation; extension 2576).

Week 7 of winter term

College Council meets today

College Council meets today, Feb. 16, 3-5 p.m., Board Room. On the agenda: vision development for the college.

Tuition refunds to be processed by Admissions

Beginning spring term 1993 all requests for refunds of tuition will be processed through the Admissions Office. No refund of tuition or fees will be awarded for withdrawals occurring after the first two weeks except in the case of illness (which requires medical documentation from the student's doctor and must be submitted to the Admissions Office prior to the end of the eighth week of the term.)

Counseling to close for in-service

Counseling Department full-time staff will be off campus for in-service on Friday, Feb. 19. Part-time staff will provide services. The Career Information Center will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. The Testing Office will be closed.

Faculty evaluations due

Faculty comprehensive evaluations for 1992-93 for all probationary faculty employees are due in Personnel Services by 5 p.m. on Monday, March 1. If you have misplaced your list of probationary faculty employees, or if you cannot meet the March 1 deadline, please notify Germaine Mock, ext. 2283. Otherwise, a notice of intent not to rehire could be sent to an employee in error.

Faculty development team invites input

Attention all faculty! Get in on the action, and come brainstorm with the Faculty Professional Development Team to give input on establishing guidelines for seed money allocation. The team's goal is to support projects that directly improve quality and innovation in teaching at LCC without duplicating the emphasis of the Short Term and Long Term Professional Development Committees. Join us Wednesday, Feb. 17, from 3-5 p.m. in Center 420 - Carmel Decroos, FPDT chair

JOINT CLASSIFICATION STUDY

Joint Classification Study hearings continue

The following job class specification open hearings will be held this week and next as follows:

- Feb. 18, 3-4 p.m. in Health 106 for Training and Development/Special Employment Services.
- Feb. 19, 3-4 p.m. in Health 106 for Media, Marketing, Printing/Graphics and KLCC.
- Feb. 22, 9-10 a.m. in the Board Room for Data Processing and Computer User Support.

Speech team speaks up

So what is going on with this year's speech team? We began the year at OSU and Willamette University with firsts in informative speaking and dramatic interpretation thanks to the accomplishments of senior members Shane Schaeffer and Andrea Pasutti. Since that time Pasutti has qualified for April's national competition at the National Individual Events Tournament, Rice University, Houston. This is the sixth student from our program to qualify for nationals in our six years of existence--a credit to the program and to the quality of Lane itself.

March 12-13 we will attend the District Qualifier at Linfield College, where additional students may qualify for nationals. We have no funds allocated for national competition so we have set up a fund through the LCC Foundation for our nationally competitive students. Persons interested in donating funds can give to LCC Forensics (tax-deductible), c/o the LCC Foundation. - Barbara Breden, ext. 2424

Participate in National Library Week

Librarian Cheryl Coleman and English instructor Peter Jensen are organizing a display of recent publications by LCC faculty and staff for National Library Week. Please send books, articles and other publications to Jensen in English, Foreign Language & Speech by March 15. For special requests, call ext. 2117. The display will run March 29 to April 23 in locked glass cases by the reference desk

Speaker will review drug laws and racism

Mark Harris, LCC Substance Abuse Prevention Coordinator, will discuss "The Walls of Perception: Drug Laws and Racism" in Jerome Garger's Peace and Conflict Studies class in Center 449 tonight, Feb. 16, from 8-9:30 p.m. Guests welcome.

Metalsmithing exhibit opens today

"Vessels," a national invitational metalsmithing exhibition, is open today through March 12 at the Art Department Gallery. An artists' reception will be held Friday, Feb. 19, from 7:30-9:30 p.m. in the gallery.

Humanities program accepting applications

The Oregon Council on the Humanities invites scholars to become a part of one of our state's finest cultural programs. Celebrating its 12th year, the Oregon Chautauqua program is accepting applications for its 1993-94 season. The program gives scholars and members of the general public the opportunity to discuss and explore the disciplines of the humanities and their relevance to everyday life. If you have a unique lecture or presentation which you feel might appeal to the residents of Oregon please call Susan Glassow-Dunne in English at ext. 2140 for a copy of the application due April 1, 1993.

Campus Ministry faces fiscal crisis

LCC's Campus Ministry which, of course, receives no financial support from the college, is facing a serious threat. External financial support has been significantly reduced while necessary expenditures have increased unavoidably. The bottom line is that, without additional help, Campus Ministry will be without funds around April 1. Planning is underway for a long-term solution to the increasing imbalance, but immediate assistance is needed to keep the ministry operating through spring and - it is hoped - summer terms. For those unfamiliar with it, Campus Ministry is much more than a peripheral entity providing only spiritual support to those wishing it. It also provides a broad spectrum of counseling opportunities, maintains a much used clothing distribution operation, makes loans to students in need, coordinates the adoption by staff of low income student families at Christmas, provides diverse opportunities for dialogue on pressing social issues, and makes available many other services to students. Donations for Campus Ministry may be made through the LCC Foundation, designating Campus Ministry-General Fund as the recipient. Thanks for reading this far! - Larry Brown, ext. 2580, and John Klobas, ext. 2820

Someone to talk to

Stop by and chat at the purple flag with the rainbow on it in the cafeteria. Campus Ministry will have someone for students to talk with on Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday, 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. The focus is on issues concerning students, not on religion. Come by and say "Hi" and let your students know we are here. - Adele Hustis, Campus Ministry, ext. 2850

Thanks for contribution

Health & Physical Education would like to thank the individuals named below for their contribution of $300 to the department. This money will be put to good use in the area of intramural activities so we can better serve the health and fitness needs of our faculty, staff and students.

Dale Bates	Dale Crawford	Jack Kreitz	Edward Ragozzino
John Bernham	James Evans	Eric Lugert	Irv Roth
Jack Carter	Cecil Hodges	Keith Possman	Tom Young

Teleconference thanks

I want to thank LCC staff members who helped make the Feb. 8 AAWCC teleconference on male/female communication a success. Panelists Marianne Kimball, Jim Ellison, Cheryl Alonso and Jack Powell were great. Thanks also to Cynde Leathers and Phil Powers for faultless technical coordinating, to Julie Baker and Lynne Swift for help in registration, and to Foodservices and Jim Wychules for the fragrant, warm, and tasty cookies. Working here with people like you is really a blessing! Thanks again. - Judith Gabriel, ext. 2699

Week 7 of winter term

Facilities committee to meet

The Facilities Management Committee will meet on Thursday, Feb. 18, at 3 p.m. in the Board Room. Topics on the agenda include: Renaissance Room expansion, Health 201 remodel, Bookstore remodel, LCCEF office space, Disabled Student Services space needs, and special parking requests. All interested staff and students are invited to attend.

Printing/Graphics announces due dates for spring term

Printing/Graphics encourages staff to note these deadlines for spring term:

- Feb. 26 for spring term packets
- March 15 for materials requested for the first day of spring term

Career fair theme chosen

Congratulations to Luci Edminster of Cooperative Education, winner of the Renaissance Room lunch tickets for submitting the Career Fair theme of, "Career Fair '93: Exploring the Possibilities." The fair will be held on main campus on Wednesday, April 14, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Career Fair offers an opportunity for students and the general public to meet with local and statewide employees. - Career Fair Committee, Diane Morrow, ext. 2164

President appointed to hospital board

President Jerry Moskus joined the 13-member board of directors for McKenzie Willamette Medical Services in January. The non-profit corporation operates McKenzie-Willamette Hospitals.

KLCC volunteer wins award

Greg Black, volunteer host of KLCC's "Black Is," was honored by the Lane Arts Council on Monday at its eighth annual volunteer recognition event. Black received a Mary Anne Arnold Award for outstanding contributions to the arts.

Display items available

If you're representing the college at a marketing event or want to set up an information table or display, the following items are available for check-out through the High School Relations office in Admissions: LCC table cloths and banners, table top display with photos, Plexiglas brochure holders, high school marketing slide show and video, and college literature (brochures, catalogs, class schedules, admission forms). To request these items, contact Shan Titus, ext. 2688.

"The Latest from Lane" just published

If you'd like copies of the winter edition of the high school marketing newsletter, "The Latest From Lane," please contact Shan Titus, High School Relations, ext. 2688. Shan thanks all those who submitted items for the newsletter. Items not used for the winter issue will be included in the spring issue.

Fitness query

Attached to today's Daily is a short questionnaire from Health and Physical Education regarding proposed fitness opportunities for staff. Let them know what your interests are.

Meet Kathryn Reid

Extend a welcome to Kathryn Reid. She was appointed temporary part-time women's health care nurse practitioner in Student Health Services on Nov. 13. The department's primary health care services have been targeted for likely budget cuts facing the college, but Reid hopes for the best.

"I hope that we're still open next fall. We provide a much needed service," she says. "I really enjoy providing gynecological care to our students."

Reid is a licensed registered nurse, certified nurse midwife, and registered nurse practitioner. She's been nursing since 1978. She moved to Eugene from Orange County, Calif., where she worked in a variety of settings, including the University of California at Irvine Medical Center and USC/LAC Women's Hospital. She has a bachelor's degree in nursing from the University of Michigan and master's degree in science from the University of Illinois.

Reid is a member of the American College of Nurse-Midwives professional association. Her interests take her bicycling, traveling, doing photography and practicing yoga. She went on a six-month tandem bicycle tour of Europe in 1990-91. Her husband is a graduate student at the U of O.

Staff resource handbook accepting submissions

Do you know who among Lane staff is a certified graphoanalyst? Who speaks Serbo Croatian? Who's trained in jin shin jyutsu? Who knows how to throw a party, how to travel cheaply in Mexico, who organized Army talent shows, or who co-authored a medical text in Spanish? You could find out by reading the Lane Staff Resource Handbook, but we need 50 more submissions for this handbook to be published. To be part of the handbook, contact Linda Myers at ext. 2883 for an information form. Let's find out what we have to share.

Call ahead for tours

Campus tours are available through High School Relations by calling exts. 2688 or 2678. Tours last from half an hour to two hours and can be customized to meet the needs of students or staff. Sometimes drop-in tours are possible but it's best to call ahead to make sure a guide is available. During the 1991-92 academic year, 139 group and individual tours were conducted for 1,495 individuals. Touring were pre-school children, elementary, middle school and high school students, community group members, and college students and staff. - Shan Titus, ext. 2688

Discount tickets in search of buyers

Luigi Pirandello's highly regarded drama, "Six Characters in Search of an Author," will be presented by the Performing Arts Department for three weekends from Feb. 15 to March 13. This story about a family struggling to separate fantasy from reality is given contemporary relevance and depth by having the action placed in the Media Arts and Technology Department TV studio. The regular ticket price is $10 for non-student adults and $5 for students. This week only, through Feb. 18, all tickets to LCC staff are offered at $5. Order yours from the box office at ext. 2202 between 12-4 p.m.

"Sound Steps" promises unique performance

The Performing Arts Department presents its annual electronic music concert this Friday and Saturday, Feb. 19 and 20, at 8 p.m. in the main theater. This year's concert, "Sound Steps," is a collaborative performance exploring new visions of electronic music and contemporary dance. For tickets, call the box office at ext. 2202 between 12-4 p.m.

Multimedia teleconference announced

"Multimedia: How Does It Really Work in the Classroom?" will be shown Tuesday, February 23 from 10 - noon in Center 10. This presentation is sponsored by the Institute for Academic Technology, and will address questions such as what is multimedia, how and why people use multimedia, what research proves multimedia is effective, how does it improve teaching and learning in the classroom, what types of students benefit, and what kind of hardware/software does multimedia require. For further information contact Julie Baker, ext. 2199.

Teleconference captures a vision

Enhancing Campus Climate: Visions for the 21st Century, will be shown Wednesday, February 24 in Center 10 from 10 - 11:30 a.m. Presented by DeAnza College Television and the League for Innovation in the Community College, this interactive videoconference will focus on the concept of virtuality as a theoretical framework for shaping community college education in the future, the role of collaborative governance and the institutional climate as key features of successful colleges, innovations in instructional media technology and distance learning and the proactive role community colleges can play in responding to the needs and shaping the future of the local communities they serve. For further information contact Julie Baker, ext. 2199.

Board report

The LCC Board of Education met Feb. 10 and voted 5-2 to declare its intent to eliminate general fund support for Student Health Services primary care in 1993-94. Opposing the intention were Chuck Ivey and Larry Mann. The declaration of intent is not a final decision. Final decisions will be made in the annual budgeting process. The declaration enables the college to notify employees who might get laid off, in accordance with employee contracts.

Several board members said they hoped an alternative way to fund primary health care services is found, such as through a student fee. A $6.50 per student per term fee would work, said Student Health Services Director Sandy Ing. Board member Cindy Weeldreyer noted that primary health care services originally were student-funded. She also said that one student-supported program should not be pitted against another, as had been proposed by three recently withdrawn ASLCC referendums.

"This is a responsible move. Otherwise we would threaten more than we know through indecision."
- board member Roger Hall

The board accepted the resignation of Vice President for Administrative Services Richard Hillier who is leaving to become dean of finance and administration for Hudson County Community College in Jersey City, New Jersey, effective April 2. He has been with Lane since 1987. President Jerry Moskus said, "His leaving is a real loss. He has played tough roles here on our financial roller coaster, Measure 5, and breaking in a new president." Hillier said Lane is a truly great place to work and study, but we often forget that, and we forget to give praise. "Some of your best people are the ones you never see," he told the board.

In his report, President Jerry Moskus said administration is looking at restructuring as the next step in the budget reduction planning. He also said total quality management, or continuous quality improvement, will begin in the President's Office with some changes to office procedures. He noted that Lloyd Rain and Ed Case in Purchasing are producing a new statewide purchasing newsletter.

In other business, the board:

- Welcomed ASLCC Vice President John Mitchell who said ASLCC President Bill Hollingsworth had verbally resigned and was expected to follow up with a written resignation;
  - Awarded a contract in the amount of $199,248 to Honeywell, Inc., of Beaverton, for purchase of a building management and control system, as an energy conservation measure;
  - Approved a grant application by KLCC to the Meyer Memorial Trust for $6,952 to fund a radio program called "Improve Your Work Life," as required by the grant application;
  - Heard a staff report on the energy management technician program from Science Department Chair Tom Wayne and program instructor-coordinator Roger Ebbage;
  - Acknowledged information on the American with Disabilities Act;
  - Authorized the president to pay miscellaneous recurring budget expenses;
  - Acknowledged administration's response to the annual audit management letter;
  - Adopted the academic calendar for 1993-94;
  - Discussed the role of the Budget Committee and agreed to hold an orientation meeting on March 2 at 6:30 p.m. in the Board Room;
  - Asked for more information on a proposal from School District 4-J and the City of Eugene to build a high school football stadium at Lane;
  - Authorized members Pat Riggs and Peter Sorenson to negotiate the president's contract;
  - Endorsed the concept of a light rail transit proposal for Eugene-Springfield.
- The board next meets on March 10.

Classified Council report

At its Feb. 10 meeting, Classified Council met with Julie Baker to further discuss the lack of a support system for employees caught with a lack of insurance premium payment while on disability leave. All were in agreement that something needs to be done but could not identify a way for council to do anything in the immediate future.

In other business, council decided to improve information sharing among departments by inviting members of individual departments to attend future council meetings. It was hoped that this will promote better understanding of others' situations.

Re-nominated to the Budget Review Group to represent classified staff were Katie Lytle, Jane Russell and Kitty Seymour. Classified Council meets again on Feb. 24. - Gloria Jarvis, ext. 2604

Teachers talking about teaching

TTT is back: Teachers Talking about Teaching Students with Low Self-Esteem and Varying Learning Styles. Come to an LCC professional development activity on Tuesday, Feb. 23, from 3-4:30 p.m. in Center 420 to enjoy pastries and coffee, to meet people and renew friendships, and get some teaching tips about increasing student self-esteem and gearing lessons to take advantage of different student learning styles. Phyllis Geyer of Counseling and Pat McLaughlin of English will share ideas students can use in generating positive self-talk and positive classroom performance. John Klobas of Social Science will present principles of neuro-linguistic programming that can be used in a practical way in teaching students with different learning styles. - Sharon Thomas, ext. 2145

Vision screening tests offered

Free vision screening tests will be available for staff and students on Friday, Feb. 19, from 1-3 p.m., in the Study Skills Lab on the fourth floor of the Center Building. Vision therapists will be available to discuss the results of screening tests. No appointment is necessary. This opportunity is provided by the Learning Support Group, Disabled Student Services, and Student Health Services. Instructors, please pass this information along to students.

Faculty internship opportunity

Curious about what your colleagues are doing to measure student outcomes? Interested in release time from teaching two classes spring term? For further information on the faculty internship, contact Julie Aspinwall-Lamberts (Research, Planning, and Evaluation; extension 2576).

Diversity class next examines Jewish issues

The "Issues in Cultural Diversity" series next seminar is on "Jewish Cultural Roots and Issues." It will be held Tuesday, Feb. 23, from 3-4:30 p.m. and again from 5:30-7 p.m. in Apprenticeship 216. For more information, call Vicki Levine at ext. 2074.

Student strategies competition deadline is tomorrow

The National Council of Instructional Administrators is seeking entries for its 1992-93 Student Success Strategies Awards competition. Categories are best classroom strategy for student success, best curriculum strategy for student success, and best faculty strategy for student success. Winners will be announced at the American Association of Community College's annual convention in Portland in late April. The entry deadline is Friday, Feb. 19. For more information and entry submission forms, contact your department manager. - Office of Instruction

Career Fair '93: Explore the possibilities

Lane Community College will be celebrating its third annual Career Fair on Wednesday, April 14, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Eugene main campus. Local and statewide employers will join forces to share information about their businesses, and career opportunities for students and graduates.

Last year's career fair jumped to 52 employer booths, an increase of 26 booths from 1991. Lane's goal for this year is to have 60 employer booths set-up for display in the cafeteria. Students are encouraged to participate in this special campus event.

Admission is free, and door prizes donated by local businesses will be given away as well. If you'd like more information about "Career Fair '93", please contact Joan Adams or Diane Morrow at the Job Placement Office, Eugene main campus, Forum Building, Room 302. Phone number is 747-4501, extension 2326.

"Good career fair! Felt welcome and cared for. Student participation was excellent! Well organized, ran very smooth."

- survey comment from 1992 career fair participant, Bureau of Mines/Albany

Outstanding student-employees nominations needed

If you have a student employee working for your department that has contributed outstanding service, please help us in our search to recognize their accomplishments. It is the goal of the selection committee to select three students for winter term to compete for the Outstanding Student of the Year Award. Nomination forms can be picked up at Forum 304 or by contacting Becky Newcombe (ext.-2822). The forms must be returned by Feb. 26 in order to be considered for the winter term search.

Betty Anne Holden of Florence wins award

Betty Anne Holden, LCC at Florence's senior programs coordinator, won an Award for Cooperation by a Community Member by the Oregon Community Education Association at its annual convention on Feb. 4 at Salishan Lodge on the beautiful (naturally) Oregon coast.

Holden coordinates the Elderhostel program at Florence. Elderhostel provides educational opportunities at locations around the world for people 60 and over. The success of the Florence program "is greatly attributed to Betty Holden's enthusiasm, dedication, and joy of life," says LCC at Florence Director Bill Porter. "She is such a dynamo of energy, dedication and performance that she serves as a marvelous role model not only to her peers but also for younger persons."

Elderhostel is not supported by college funds. Holden has developed partnerships with local coastal communities, businesses and government agencies to acquire resources, expert lecturers and discounts on food, lodging and services which have allowed LCC to offer the program. This has boosted the local economy as well.

Holden also has developed the Coastal Elderclass program, a senior studies educational format that uses peers as volunteer instructors, and Outward Ventures, a program utilizing college buses and vans to transport local senior residents on field adventures. This is the only program of this nature in the area.

FTE explained

What is student FTE? It's a way of measuring student attendance for purposes of obtaining state funding. At Lane, it generally takes between 3.5 and 4 individual students to create one FTE (full-time equivalency) student.

How is student FTE computed? There are two ways to calculate FTE: (1) For transfer courses, multiply the number of students times the number of credit hours, per term, divided by 45; (2) for all other types of courses including professional-technical, developmental education and continuing education, multiply the number of students times the number of clock hours per week times the number of weeks in the term, divided by 680. Note that fall term has 12 weeks and winter and spring terms have 11 weeks each.

In 1991-92, Lane served 9,097 FTE. This year, we will provide courses to about 9,100 FTE. During the 1980s "FTE depression", Lane served a low of 7541 FTE in 1987-88. Any more student FTE questions? Check your department's Fact Book or call Craig Taylor or Julie Aspinwall-Lamberts in Research, Planning and Evaluation at ext. 2576.

Live, statewide question-answer session to address forestry issues

The "Northwest Forest Summit: From Stalemate to Solutions," conference coming to the U of O will include a live, statewide interactive question-and-answer session over ED-NET on Friday, March 5, from 2:30-5:30 p.m. Lane will receive the transmission in Center 10. Please pre-register to view by calling Telecourses at ext. 2260. You may also tune in to KLCC to hear the discussion. Panelists will represent both environmentalist and timber industry concerns. Congressman Peter DeFazio will moderate.

Teachers talking about teaching

Joelle Cacciatore of the Lane OSPIRG chapter says "this is an excellent opportunity for any LCC student to learn how our state legislature works. Please pass this on to students and friends." OSPIRG will be holding a public hearing on pesticide use in Oregon as well. For more information about the hearing, the rally, or carpooling, call Cacciatore at ext. 2166.

KEY BENCHMARKS
LANE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
Educational Intentions of Applicants

Applicants' Educational Goals

✓ Changes in the application form in 1992 resulted in a lack of comparability with previous years' data. However, the data continue to reflect a significant percentage (72%) of students seeking bachelor's or associate's degrees.

✓ Restrictions at four-year institutions and workplace educational demands are likely to create a continuing increase in transfer and associate degree applicants.

Week 8 of winter term

Faculty Council to meet

Faculty Council will meet Thursday, Feb. 25, from 3-4:30 in the Board Room. Action/discussion items on the agenda are HB 3565, or the Oregon education reform bill, and progress towards its implementation and its effects on LCC; student evaluations; and level change committee progress and issues.

Faculty sick leave notice

Faculty reporting sick leave should note that hours used are calculated on full-time equivalency. For example, if a full-time instructor misses one day of class, eight hours of sick leave will be reported on the leave record form even if the instructor is scheduled for only one class that day. If you have questions, please call Mary Glenn in Personnel Services at ext. 2801.

Korean Week planned

Korean Week is coming up May 10-14 and the International/Intercultural Committee is planning many activities for your enjoyment. If you have any items from Korea which you would be willing to share in a display in the Library, please contact Julie Baker at ext. 2199.

Meet Addie Lou Willis

The Social Science Department welcomes Addie Lou Willis, who joined the staff as department secretary/receptionist in December. She is a welcome addition to our department with her sparking personality and WordPerfect 5.1 expertise.

Addie Lou came to us from EWEB, although she worked for LCC in 1985-86 in the English & Foreign Language and Mass Communications Departments.

Addie Lou graduated from McClatchy High School in Sacramento but has made her home in Eugene for almost 21 years. She has two grown daughters, but the passion of her life now is body building. When not working at LCC, Addie Lou concentrates on working out with the help of her trainer. Her first competition, summer 1992, may just be her last. Though she says the experience was somewhat gratifying and thrilling, it was also terrifying and required total dedication. Other hobbies include camping, running, biking and being outdoors; on rainy days she enjoys reading.

Stop by the Social Science Department and welcome Addie Lou Willis to our campus.

Exit interview required

Federal regulations require that students receiving a Stafford Student Loan or SLS Loan while attending Lane must attend an exit interview during their last term of attendance. The exit interview outlines financial planning, disclosure statements, repayment procedures, how to correspond with the lender, secondary markets, loan consolidation, options for making payments, and the consequences of default. Student loan exit interviews for winter term will be held as follows. The sessions will begin on time and latecomers cannot be admitted. Each session will last approximately 50 minutes.

Career Fair '93: Explore the possibilities

"Career Fair '93: Explore the Possibilities" will be held on Wednesday, April 14, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at LCC main campus. Local and statewide employers will join forces to share information about their businesses, and career opportunities for students and graduates. Students are encouraged to participate in this special campus event. Admission is free, and door prizes donated by local businesses will be given away as well. For more information, contact the Job Placement Office in Forum 302 or call ext. 2326. Some comments from last year's Career Fair:

"I think this is an extremely important event for the community! Am looking forward to its growth next year." - Emerald Job Center

"Excellent fair! Do it every year!" - Federal Aviation Administration

"Very well organized. Good fair!" - First Interstate Bank

Budget administrators encouraged to attend information session

Budget administrators and their assistants are encouraged to attend any of the following meetings to learn more about detail expenditure reports (DERs). The meetings will explain report formats and how to interpret report data.

- Feb. 24, 10-11:30 a.m., Board Room
- Feb. 24, 2-3:30 p.m., Board Room
- Feb. 25, 10-11:30 a.m., Forum 309
- Feb. 26, 10-11:30 a.m., Forum 309
- Feb. 26, 2-3:30 p.m., Board Room

Tracking former students

Each year the office of Research, Planning and Evaluation surveys former Lane students. Some results from the 1990-91 survey:

- Over 70% of all self-declared transfer students were attending a university or college.
- About 80% of the transfer respondents attending a college or university reported Lane prepared them "well" or "very well" for classes at their transfer institution.

- Over 75% of professional-technical graduates overall reported their jobs were in a field related to their Lane studies and training.
- Conversely, a majority of professional-technical students who left early or without graduating indicated their job was not related to their studies.
- Graduates (especially professional-technical majors) earn higher incomes immediately after leaving Lane than do those who do not graduate. Employment data indicate graduating provides an advantage in terms of finding a job, finding a job related to interests, and immediate earning power.
- Students who left Lane early did so because they experienced financial problems, lost financial aid, or transferred. Professional-technical leavers were more likely to have suffered financial problems or to have lost financial aid than lower division transfer leavers.

Wooten on campus today

State Representative Cynthia Wooten will be in the main campus cafeteria today at 4 p.m. to meet with workers with developmental disabilities. She is concerned about proposed state budget cuts that would affect people with developmental disabilities. For more information, call Rick Venturi, Specialized Employment Services, ext. 2101.

Titans play tonight

The Titans women's basketball team plays tonight at 6 p.m. and the men play at 8 p.m. in the main gym. These are championship playoff games.

Manager's Forum report

Criteria for restructuring the college was the main agenda item at the Feb. 12 Manager's Forum. To introduce the subject, President Moskus said he was looking at restructuring as a way to contain costs and to address changes in the college's external and internal environments. Some of these changes include: statewide educational reform, the new Americans with Disabilities Act, new financial aid regulations, the continuing flow of dislocated workers and increasing numbers of older, part-time students interested in evening and weekend classes, distance learning, lifelong learning, and increasing reliance on state funding as Measure 5 is phased in. He would like the college to develop an organizational structure that has a customer or student focus, supports clear direction and goals, and makes sense in a participative, high performance work environment. He shared a draft of criteria and asked for comments. The next step will be to broaden the discussion to the larger college community.

Faculty Council report

Faculty Council meets today from 3-4:30 p.m. in the Board Room. At their last meeting on Feb. 11, council agreed to provide support for student instructor and course evaluations. A task force was created to help council establish guidelines. Maxine Frauman reported on the history of English as a Second Language and on the impact of changes in the department's full-time to part-time faculty ratio. Council also approved a draft memo to administration regarding its views on the faculty ratio. Joan Ryan and Linda Loft agreed to continue to serve on the Budget Review Committee, and Fred Meyer was appointed as the third member. - Submitted by Kimberly Buchanan for The Daily

Another Joint Classification Study hearing scheduled for Monday

A job class specification open hearing will be held on Monday, March 1, from 9-10 a.m. in the Board Room for instructional services.

Exit interview required

Federal regulations require that students receiving a Stafford Student Loan or SLS Loan while attending Lane must attend an exit interview during their last term of attendance. The exit interview outlines financial planning, disclosure statements, repayment procedures, how to correspond with the lender, secondary markets, loan consolidation, options for making payments, and the consequences of default. Student loan exit interviews for winter term will be held on Thursday, March 4, at 10 a.m. in Forum 309, 2 p.m. in Forum 310, and 6 p.m. in Forum 307; and on Friday, March 5, at 9 a.m. in Forum 309, 1 p.m. in Forum 308, and 4 p.m. in Forum 307.

KLCC/KLCO expands role of Alan Siporin

Award-winning journalist Alan Siporin of KLCC/KLCO is expanding his role. He will join "Northwest Passage" twice a week and he will launch a new weekly talk show, "Critical Mass," on Sunday, March 7, at 12-noon.

"Northwest Passage" airs weekdays at 4:30 p.m. with host Tripp Sommer, KLCC/CKCO news director. Siporin will add commentary, interviews and analysis to the local and regional news program. The station expects the collaboration of Sommer and Siporin to add depth and insight to the popular show.

"Critical Mass" will feature National Public Radio news, local news, updates of topics covered on previous shows, guest interviews and listener call-in.

Siporin hosted "Live Wire" for the past three years. He hosted the "Blue Plate Special" for seven years before that. He has been a Northwest correspondent for NPR for 10 years and is the winner of numerous professional awards, including the Tom McCall Award.

Lane to host Occupational Skills Contest for area high school students

The Eighth Annual Occupational Skills Contest is coming to main campus on Wednesday, March 3, from 8:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. Approximately 550 district high school students will compete in business education, drafting, construction, culinary arts, child development, job interview, machine technology, computer aided manufacturing, welding/cutting, and woodworking contests. Campus tours will be offered. An awards ceremony will be held in PE 202 from 1-2 p.m.

The goals of the contest are: 1) to develop positive public relations for professional-technical education in Lane County; 2) to prepare students for district and statewide competition; 3) to provide increased opportunities for interested students to compete; 4) to provide social interaction among students with common interests from neighboring districts; 5) to recruit students into professional-technical programs; 6) to validate professional-technical curriculum through greater input and cooperation from private business and industry; 7) to provide direct career guidance for students; 8) to give positive motivation for professional-technical students and instructors; 9) to make participants aware of the excellent post-secondary opportunities available through LCC.

The event is sponsored by the Lane County Professional Technical Education Consortium, the Southern Willamette Private Industry Council, LCC, Air Products, and Point Control Company. If you would like to be involved in next year's event, call Marv Clemons at Lane ESD at 689-6500.

Disappearance of silhouettes sparks response

Athletics Director Harland Yriarte has received a note from someone claiming that the department's missing silhouettes of Jerry Moskus and Dick Hillier have been seen in Junction City. The note is one of many tips offered as to who might have taken the silhouettes and why. Some others: Virginia Moskus wants Jerry home more; the other VPs are jealous because they don't have equal exposure; Donald Micken needs bargaining chips.

In the meantime, Yriarte has some items for sale to raise more money for the reward fund leading to the recovery of the silhouettes: a nice tan sport jacket size 44, navy blue sports tie, size 10-1/2 brown and tan saddle shoes, best offer. They formerly belonged to Dick Hillier. Contact Yriarte at ext. 2548.

Thank you

I wish to thank my LCC "family" in the Adult High School Program for your support and encouragement in the recent loss of my mother. I also deeply appreciate the cards from different departments on campus. Again, thank you all for thinking of me. - Fay McClain, Adult High School

Spring cleaning?

The Infant-Toddler Center and the Preschool in Family and Health Careers can use your out-grown books and toys; craft items such as buttons, spools or trims; or costume jewelry, purses and hats for dress-up. For our "office" we need clipboards, calculators (whether they work or not) and general office supplies. Bring to Health 107 and label with your name and address so we can thank you and provide a receipt. Call Linda Pompel, Child Care Center Director, ext. 2522, if you have questions.
