Vice president interviews continue

Four finalists for vice president of College Operations (formerly Administrative Services) are interviewing at Lane this week. All staff are welcome to attend the open forums. Comments following the forums may be sent to Linda Fossen in Student Services, chair of the search committee. Ronald Geason, currently vice president for business affairs at Colorado School of Mines in Golden, interviewed Tuesday. The remaining open forum schedule:

- Today, June 1, Donald Porter, currently vice president of management services at Iowa Western Community College in Council Bluffs, 2-3 p.m., FOR 308.
- Thursday, June 2, Bill Berry, currently business manager at St. Charles County Community College in St. Peters, Missouri, and former vice president for administrative services at Lane, 3-4 p.m., FOR 309.
- Friday, June 3, Sidney Walesh, currently director of business and finance at New World School of the Arts in Miami, Florida, 1:30-2:30 p.m., FOR 309.

Lady Titans win championship

The Lady Titans won the NWAACC track and field championship on Friday at Lewis & Clark College. The title was determined in the final race, the 4x400 relay. The Titans beat Clackamas by 12 points. The men took third overall for the highest combined finish in the history of Lane track and field.

Here to help

Meet the Organizational Development Action Team (ODAT). These folks will help lead Lane through the implementation of restructuring. From center front, clockwise: Lou Bombardier, Jan Lyon, Julie Baker, Linda Pompel, Patti Lake.

The action team is part of the larger Organizational Development Steering Team including Colleen Cairney, Carmel Decroos, Jim Ellison, Maxine Frauman, Cheryl Kempner, Rick Lyons, Marie Matsen, Dave Oatman, and Larry Warford. Their focus will be to ensure that all Lane staff have the training they need to facilitate the college's goal of becoming a high-performance work organization. The team is in the process of identifying "movers and shakers" throughout campus to assist in these efforts.

Speaker

District Court Judge Lauren Holland will speak to Steve Candee's State and Local Government classes from 10 a.m.-noon on Friday, June 3, in CEN 402. Guests welcome. Seating is limited.

Farm business program accepting applications

Although classes don't begin until fall, applications are now being accepted for the Farm Business Management Program at Lane's Business Development Center. For the first time, four $100 scholarships are available to apply towards tuition and fees. Early applications are advised to receive consideration for the scholarships and because space in the popular program is limited.

The program covers a wide variety of topics such as recordkeeping, tax management, obtaining farm credit, employee compliance issues, and marketing. Monthly evening class sessions with guest speakers are augmented by on-site visits. Participants get hands-on computer experience and generate an annual computer analysis of the farm. For more information, contact instructor-coordinator Gary Valde at Ext. 2255.

New phone books are here

New US West phone books have arrived at Purchasing. Please bring your old phone books to the warehouse, deposit in the large recycling bin at the front door, and pick up your new phone books. Questions? Call Steve Evans at Ext. 2453.

Don't miss the boat

The deadline to sign up for the June 11 bus trip sponsored by the Classified Professional Development Team is Friday, June 3. This is a great opportunity for fun and fellowship with other Lane constituents. See the Portland Rose Festival parade and fun center, and enjoy lunch aboard the Cascade Queen sternwheeler while it cruises the Willamette River. The cost is only $25 and can be paid at College Finance cashiers' windows using account number 101-541-8017-000000-4610. Return a copy of the receipt to Julie Baker, Ext. 2199, by the deadline. For details, contact Gloria Jarvis at Ext. 2308.

Faculty pay plan changes due

Faculty who wish to change their existing pay plan for 1994-95 fiscal year must fill out a Faculty Pay Plan Change Request form and return it to Personnel Services by July 1. Forms are available in Personnel Services. - Judy Ward, Ext. 2583

Dislocated worker barbecue is today

Training and Development is closed today from 11 a.m.-1 p.m. so staff may attend the by-invitation Dislocated Worker Program barbecue to recognize this year's graduates and the accomplishments of all dislocated workers.

Printing deadline

Materials needed for the first day of summer term should be submitted to Printing/Graphics by June 13. Thanks !

Annual flight tech open house to be held

The Flight Technology Department will hold an open house on Friday, June 3, from 11 a.m.-3 p.m. Awards will be presented from 1:30-2:30 p.m. Tours of the facility and aircraft line and a video of vocational aviation training will be featured, plus refreshments. For more information, call 689-2021.

Graphic design students to show portfolios

The graphic design class of 1994 will hold a portfolio review and graduation ceremony on Wednesday, June 8, from 4-6 p.m., in the Art Department Gallery. Copies of the annual student-produced poster will be available.

Legislative Action Team to meet

The Legislative Action Team meets tomorrow, June 2, at 7:30 a.m. in the Board Room.

How do I get from here to there

Have you been stopped by harried students or visitors looking for a particular classroom or office? Are you tired of giving the same directions over and over again? Campus Services and Institutional Advancement are conducting a study of signage of Lane's main campus in an effort to make the campus more "user friendly." Students, staff and visitors are being surveyed to identify the specific problems that exist and to solicit suggestions to address the problems. If you are aware of problem areas, please contact Therese Picado at 465-1399 by Friday, June 3, with input and suggestions.

THANKS

To all the people who helped make Jim Melamed's May 27 conflict resolution workshop a success, I would like to say thank you--particularly Tracy Simms of the President's Office for her organizational skills, and Vicki Miller of Printing/Graphics for her sharp eyes. - Jerome Garger

shared decision-making news

Council debates bond project selection criteria

College Council members on Tuesday did not reach consensus on a draft list of criteria to select facilities projects that could be financed by a bond election. The draft was prepared by Executive Cabinet, the group which probably will make final project selection decisions, should the Board of Education decide to go ahead. Council members decided to individually prioritize the list and compare notes at the June 7 meeting.

In other business, Classified Council representative Angela Miller introduced successor Cindy Veldhuis and student senator Sheri Gianuzzi introduced herself as the new ASLCC representative to council.

Breaking through barriers

Sharon Moore, Debra Lamb Admissions Director Sharon Moore and Continuing Education Coordinator Debra Lamb teamed up to improve customer service and break down the barriers between credit and noncredit education at Lane. Thanks to their efforts, students can now register for credit or noncredit classes at either campus. In the past, students on main campus wanting to register for noncredit classes were sent downtown, and students downtown wanting to register for credit classes were sent to main campus.

next week in the Library. Titles include Communicating To Win, Setting Goals, Better Customer Relations, The Manager As Coach, Conducting Painless Meetings, and others. - Julie Baker, Ext. 2199

Network Task Force to meet

The Network Task Force will meet Wednesday, June 8, from 1:30-3 p.m. in PE 205. Interested staff are welcome.

The Daily to cut back for summer

The Daily will cut back the number of Dailies to departments by half for the summer unless otherwise notified. In addition, The Daily will publish on Tuesdays only from June 14-Sept. 13. Ahhh, summer! Direct questions or comments to Joan Aschim at Ext. 2591.

Kelly Catlin Walker success tapes available

A complete set of 12 audio tapes produced by Kelly Catlin Walker will be available for check-out

Corrected name list attached

The corrected list of official college names is attached to today's Daily. Toss the May 16 list. There are two corrections: Business Education Center should be indented under Business Department, and Child Development Center should be indented under Family and Health Careers Department.

New class offered in health care ethics

Health Care Ethics (reg. No. 122) is a new eight-week course that will be offered by the Family and Health Careers Department this summer. It will be held on Tuesdays from 8:30-11:30 a.m., from June 21-Aug. 9. The instructor is Barry Nobel, JD, PhD. Dr. Nobel previously has taught Health Care Ethics at the University of California at Santa Barbara, and at the University of Puget Sound.

This Nursing 222 course fulfills three credits in Social Science. The course explores ethical issues including: physician-assisted suicide, surrogate parenting, freezing human embryos, animal experimentation, genetic engineering, and more. Class size is limited to 25 students. For more information, contact Dr. Nobel at 344-3080.

Schafer awards nomination deadline extended

Nominations for the Eldon G. Schafer Innovation Awards have been extended to June 10. The awards committee will select recipients on July 12. For details, contact the Foundation at Ext. 2810.

shared decision-making news

Classified Council

At its May 25 meeting Classified Council finished reviewing the remainder of the staff suggestions. The responses to each suggestion will be available and on reserve in the Library soon! Watch The Daily for an exact date of availability.

"Brown bag" to address proposed PERS legislation

Proposed PERS legislation-are you interested, concerned or frustrated? You will have an opportunity to hear the latest information and ask your questions Thursday, June 9, 12-1 p.m., in FOR 309. Donna Glather of the OPEU will speak at the "brown bag" luncheon. As a reminder, you must use personal time to attend this function. The luncheon has been scheduled during the standard lunch hour and hopefully interested individuals will be able to attend. If you have questions, contact Randa Law, Ext. 2223.

Classroom assessment book available

Four copies of the book Classroom Assessment Techniques are now available in the Library for check-out. - Nikki Hale, Ext. 2577

Faculty pay plan changes due

Faculty who wish to change their existing pay plan for 1994-95 fiscal year must fill out a Faculty Pay Plan Change Request form and return it to Personnel Services by July 1. Forms are available in Personnel Services. - Judy Ward, Ext. 2583

Foodservices summer hours

Foodservices hours of operation for June 9 through Sept. 23 are as follows:

June 9	Cafeteria closed for the summer. Buffalo Grill, 7:30 a.m.-7:30 p.m. Taco Time, 10 a.m.-6:30 p.m. Espresso Corner, 7:30 a.m.-6:30 p.m.

Islamic Exhibit in Library

The Library's Mezzanine Gallery is currently exhibiting color photographs of Islamic architecture. The exhibit, which is composed of 19 color photographs with commentary, was created by U of O graduate student Parviz Azad. The exhibit, entitled "Preserving the Authenticity of Traditional Islamic Urban Form," will be on display through June 10.

For more information about the current exhibit, or to schedule an exhibit for the 1994-95 school year, contact Daniel Moret at the Library, Ext. 2318.

Managing Change

Handouts summarizing the charts generated by the group are in the mail to those employees who attended the Kelly Catlin Walker presentation, May 10. If you do not receive your copy by June 10, contact Julie Baker, Ext. 2199.

Year end purchase order process

Please review your purchasing requirements for 1994-95 now. If you have purchase requisitions which need to be processed early in July (blanket POs, service agreements, leases, rentals, etc.), begin formulating them now and pass them through the signature process. Be sure to clearly mark each such PO with a note showing FY 94/95, preferably in red, at the top.

As we close out this fiscal year, Purchasing Services will, do its best as always, to accommodate your needs; however, please be aware of these changes and constraints:

- 1) We will be unable to issue purchase orders between June 20-30, except in emergencies. Please have all remaining POs for FY 93/94 in our hands by the close of business on Monday, June 20;
- 2) All current open POs (also known as blanket POs) will be automatically closed at the close of business on June 30. New open POs for FY 94/95 will have to be issued to replace those which are closed;
- 3) There will be no deferred PO system this year. Purchase orders for FY 94/95 which absolutely must be issued before July 1 will be issued (reluctantly) with a separate set of PO numbers. All other matters on these POs, including account codes, will be normal.

We apologize for any inconvenience these restrictions may cause. Thanks for your understanding.
- Lloyd Rain, Ext. 2208

- Part-time/Full-time Committee meeting, 8-10 a.m., Boardroom.

College Council to meet one half-hour earlier

Tuesday's College Council meeting will begin at 1 p.m. (not 1:30 p.m. as previously announced) and end at 3 p.m., in the Boardroom. Agenda highlights:

- project selection criteria for possible bond election
- student-body athletics fee
- council training

The Daily to publish weekly

The Daily will publish Tuesdays only during summer term, effective June 14-Sept. 13. The number of copies distributed per department will be reduced to half, unless department secretaries otherwise notify The Daily at Ext. 2591.

Resource Development Group to hold last meeting of the year

The Resource Development Group will hold its final meeting of the year on Thursday, June 9, from 2-3:30 p.m. in PE 205. Agenda items include an update on Foundation activities, responses to the grant development fund announcements, upcoming fall grants, 1993-94 accomplishments, and 1994-95 plans. - Sarah LaMaster, ext. 2312

Managers' Forum canceled

Managers' Forum has been canceled for Friday, June 10.

Farewell reception set for Dolores May

A good-bye party for Dolores May will be held on Friday, June 10, from 11 a.m.-1 p.m. in PE 205. She has served in Disability Services for 13 years. To sign the good-bye banner or participate in her gift, call Ext. 2150 or Drop by Disability Services office in CEN 217.

Over 1,000 graduate

About 1,040 students received degrees or certificates at Lane's commencement on June 3.

Registration begins today

Summer registration begins today for returning students and June 9 for new students. Classes begin June 20.

The graying of Lane County

From 1980-92 the total population of Lane County grew nearly 7 percent. The real story, however, is that the number of those under age 30 decreased in that period by 13 percent, while the number of those over age 30 increased by nearly 29 percent.

Three factors account for much of this: (1) The aging of the large baby-boom generation; (2) wholesale departure of younger Lane citizens; and (3) an influx of many older folks.

The implications for all this for Lane seem clear. A continuing increase in the average student age; an increasing need to adjust programs, policies and services to address the needs of older students; and increasing competition among four-year institutions for a decreasing population of traditional 18-24-year-old college-entry students. Whitewater trip set for July 9-10

Due to organizer Linda Myer's and instructor Kurt Shultz's schedules, the third annual American Association of Women in Community Colleges Rafting Trip will be held July 9-10 this year, instead of in August. The cost for the trip is $60 and includes the raft, life vests, paddles, guide fees, and transportation of equipment. Not included are food, participant transportation, and camping supplies, which will be shared by the group.

A planning meeting will be held Thursday, June 23, at noon in PE 205, to discuss what river to raft, car pooling, menus, who needs to borrow equipment, etc. To help in planning, a non-refundable deposit of $30 is required. In the event you must cancel, the $30 will be deposited into the AAWCC scholarship fund for future raft trips. Bring your $30 check made out to Kurt Schultz or cash to the June 23 meeting. If you cannot attend the meeting, call Linda Myers at Ext. 2883 or 344-6483.

OSBDCN offers proposal preparation assistance to businesses

The Oregon Small Business Development Center Network offers a Proposal Preparation Assistance Program to clients. The program provides expert consultation on the feasibility of developing a Small Business Research Innovation proposal, advice and assistance in writing the proposal, and final editing for completeness and professional presentation.

Clients who have benefited from the program include Dr. James E. Drummond whose proposal on magneto-acoustic resonance imaging received $78,000 in funding from the National Institutes of Health this year, after a turn-down by NIH in 1992. Another is Robert Kendall of Grants Pass, who received a contract from the Department of Defense.

Program editing consultant Pat Emmerson says not all proposals will win funding, "But we can help businesses give it their best shot." Interested businesses must submit an application to OSBDCN to ensure that they meet SBIR eligibility guidelines and have research goals compatible with the SBIR mission.

The Proposal Preparation Assistance Program is funded by OSBDCN, the U.S. Small Business Administration, and U.S. West Communications. For more information, call Sandy Cutler at 726-2250.

Jane Russell first to win employee award twice

Kathy Bates, Doug White, Jane Russell, and Larry Warford

Jane Russell, Family and Health Careers administrative assistant, has been named Outstanding Classified Employee of the Month for June. She is the first person ever to win the monthly award twice.

"Ms. Russell goes more than the extra mile," wrote one of the award nominators. "She has gone overseas to aid the Cooperative Education program and help students find placements in the United Kingdom." At Lane since 1977, Russell added cooperative education duties to her administrative responsibilities this year. She left for England on Monday with four co-op students.

Winning recognition for a second time took her by surprise. "It's going pitter-patter in here," she said with her hand to her heart as Vice President Larry Warford announced the award amid a crowd of well-wishers.

Other comments by nominators: "balances needs of students, co-workers, staff and the public..." "works to further college goals in a meticulous way..." "uses problem solving truly based on shared decision making..." "keeps calm during periods of stress..." and "treats her immediate staff as family."

Russell has served on numerous college committees including current membership on College Council and the Joint Review Committee of the reclassification study.

shared decision-making news

Athletic fee determined

The Lane Community College Board of Education on June 8 voted unanimously to spend 75 percent of the new $5 student activities fee on restoring four sports programs immediately for a two-year period. The remaining 25 percent will fund recreation programs for other students and their families. To be reinstated are men's and women's cross country, men's baseball, and women's volleyball.

Before voting, the board heard from President Jerry Moskus. He presented the College Council recommendation from its meeting the day before. Six councilors favored phasing in the four sports over time, eight voted to not restore the sports, and of these 14, five also said their first choice would be to delay the until better budget and program information was available. The board also heard from Athletic Director Harland Yriarte and Student Activities Director Barb Delansky. In addition, several students and community members in the audience spoke in favor of restoring the four sports.

The board recalled cutting the four sports in 1992. Said board member Larry Mann, "Two years ago we said we'd add them back if funding was found, and it's been found." While other board members supported keeping that commitment, board member Roger Hall pointed out that the student ballot did not specify that the fee would be used only on sports, but also on recreational programs for students and their families. Thus the board specified a split in its motion.

Other questions raised included what would happen to a fee-funded program if enrollment dropped, if the fee were repealed by a later vote, or if general fund sports were cut due to governor's budget mandates, state equalization of funding, or other factors outside of Lane's control.

The decision-making process itself came into question. Board member Roger Hall said program decisions should not be made by "department lobbying." Board member Pat Riggs-Henson said that this was really a board decision. Moskus said it was not customary for the board to take action at the same meeting an issue was first discussed, in order for more study to be made. Mann called for an immediate vote so that this year's high school athlete-graduates could be recruited.

More board news

From the June 8 Board of Education meeting (also see "Athletic" item, first page):

President Jerry Moskus' contract was renewed, effective March 1, 1994 through February 28, 1997. Chair Peter Sorenson said, "We are very fortunate to have a leader of Jerry's qualifications and expertise. He has guided us in countless ways." Moskus joined Lane in 1990.

The college will buy all recycled paper thanks to a unanimous vote. The annual requirements contract will cost about $58,000. The lowest priced package was about $50,900, which included virgin bond paper. Consensus was that while recycled paper costs more, it is environmentally better and buying now will bring prices down in the long run.

Also approved unanimously were:

- resolution honoring SeniorNet sponsors (watch The Daily for a story)
- retirements of Judy Blue and Dave Roof
- KLCC audit
- college single-audit report covering grants compliance
- year-end budget transfers resolution
- president's annual authorizations resolution
- annual dental supplies totaling $40,000 from six companies

Upcoming meetings:

- June 22: budget hearing, 5:30 p.m., Boardroom
- July 13: 5:30 p.m., dinner with Roger Bassett
- 6:30 p.m., Bassett presents governor's budget, public encouraged, Boardroom
- 7:00 p.m., regular board meeting, Boardroom

Toner cartridge recharging service available on campus

The Electronics Department is now providing the service of toner cartridge recharging. Cartridges for the HP Laserjet II, III and some HP IVs can be recharged. For service bring an intercampus order for $25 and your old cartridge to Myron Cooley, ELC 102, Ext. 2890. He will exchange for a new cartridge. For more information contact Pam McClelland in Electronics at Ext. 2459.

WICHE meeting scheduled

The next meeting for Lane's team for the Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education's Institute on Ethnic Diversity is scheduled for Wednesday, June 29 from 1:30 p.m. until completion, in the Boardroom. Dinner will be served.

Year end budget deadline reminders

May and prior travel expense reimbursement requests as well as requests for June travel and expenses incurred if you do not anticipate additional June travel expenses are due to College Finance by Monday, June 20. The final deadline for receipt of personnel action forms by Personnel Services for corrections of transactions charged to incorrect account numbers is also Monday, June 20. Correction requests for 1993-94 transactions processed through the OPAY database will not be accepted after this date.

Less Dailies, less often, for the summer

Effective with today's issue, The Daily will publish on Tuesday's only through Sept. 15. In addition, instructional departments will receive only half as many copies as during the rest of the year, unless you have notified the editor otherwise, or unless you do so later. Direct questions or comments to Ext. 2591.

Advisory committee reports and membership lists due

Advisory committee annual reports and membership lists are due in the Cooperative Education Department on Wednesday, June 15. If you have questions regarding either of these forms, please contact Carol Woodman at Ext. 2509.

Congratulations in order for Lane instructors

Congratulations to Michael Simon, Life Experience Assessment Program instructor! Three of his poems have been published in the spring 1994 Eureka Literary Magazine, published by Eureka College in Illinois. Simon's poems have previously been published in Firewood, Poetic Space and Denali.

Invitation to groundbreaking ceremony

Lane Community College Board of Education and President Jerry Moskus invite all staff to join with the college and its partner, the City of Eugene, at a groundbreaking ceremony and reception on the site of the college's new aviation maintenance facility at the Eugene Airport, Wednesday, July 13 at 3 p.m. The new facility is located adjacent to the college's flight school at the west end of Airport Road. Please R.S.V.P. by July 3 to the President's Office, Ext. 2200.

Special board meeting being held

A special board meeting will be held Wednesday, June 22, at 5:30 p.m. in the Boardroom. The meeting is a public hearing to adopt the 1994-95 budget.

Beckley nominated for Linfield College award

Carol Beckley, Lane's budget analyst, was one of three final candidates from among 183 Linfield College Division of Continuing Education graduates chosen for Outstanding Linfield College DCE Graduate for 1993-94.

Candidates must have a 3.5 cumulative GPA, be nominated by more than one faculty member, have made significant contributions to the community, and be well respected by fellow students. Faculty supporters provided these statements about Beckley in nominating her for this special recognition: "Carol is a highly intelligent, committed professional who has performed all her coursework in an outstanding manner;" "Carol's commitment to personal growth and development and lifelong learning is second to none;" and "Many of her fellow students have shared with me their appreciation for the role model that Carol has provided them. She is admired and respected personally and professionally."

Beckley graduated this spring with a bachelor of science degree in Business Management.
