Today

- Videoconference, "Team Building for Technical Managers," 10-11:30 a.m., CEN 10.
- Faculty level change applications due by 5 p.m. to Personnel Services.

Board meeting set for tonight

The Board of Education convened a special meeting at 6 p.m. on Monday and retired into closed executive session at 6:30 p.m. The board reconvened the public meeting at 12:15 a.m. and voted 5-2 to continue the president's administrative leave until tonight when the board will again hold a special meeting, beginning at 6:30 p.m., with the right to recess into executive session. Voting no were Cindy Weeldreyer and Peter Sorenson.

Diversity trainings offered today and Friday

"Synergy," a four-hour course on equal opportunity, discrimination and affirmative action laws, and the responsibilities and potential liabilities for Lane staff in carrying out the law, will be held today from 3-5 p.m. in APR 225.

"Respectful Environment," a three-hour course exploring the myths and stereotypes we have regarding others of different races, ethnic backgrounds, gender, sexual orientations, ages and abilities from our own, and the negative impact acting on these myths and stereotypes has on Lane staff and students, will be held Friday, Nov. 3, from 9 a.m.-noon in the Boardroom.

If you have questions or would like to attend, call Donna Albro at 2040.

Legislators to speak

An Oregon state legislative panel will address Steve Candee's State and Local Government class on Thursday, Nov. 2, from 10-11:30 a.m. in HEA 105. Included in the panel will be:

- Sen. Peter Sorenson, District 20
- Rep. Floyd Prozanski, District 40
- Rep. Lee Beyer, District 42
- Rep. Jim Welsh, District. 43
- Rep. Tony Corcoran, District 44

They will discuss the 1995 Oregon legislative session, its successes and failures (from each of their perspectives) and what lies ahead. This will be followed by a question-and-answer period. All interested students and staff are welcome to attend.

Guatemalan labor organizer to speak

Maria Isabel Grijalva, member and organizer of FESTRAS, the Guatemalan federation of food workers, will speak through a translator in Jerome Garger's Peace and Conflict Studies class on Thursday, Nov. 2, from 11:30 a.m.-12:50 p.m. in CEN 401. Grijalva teaches organizing skills to residents of poor communities and to workers who labor in sweatshop conditions. Guests are welcome. For more information, call Scott at CISCAP at 485-8633.

Teleconference to address school-to-work and higher ed

A teleconference, "School to Work Programs & Issues for Higher Education," will be shown on Thursday, Nov. 2, from 10 a.m.-noon in CEN 10 at no charge. The conference will examine the impact and issues of the 1994 School to Work to Work Opportunities Act as it applies to higher education. Participants in this event will find out how model school-to-work transition programs succeed, learn the three fundamental elements of all school-to-work programs, and discover ways to identify and deal with the day-today components of an effective school-to-work transition program. All interested staff are invited to attend. - Cynde Leathers, 2260

Workshop: non-traditional careers for women

"Access," a one-day workshop for women interested in exploring non-traditional careers, will be held Saturday, Nov. 4, from 9 a.m.- 4 p.m. in CEN 219. Topics will include matching interests to careers, opportunities at Lane, and apprenticeship training. Women now employed in non-traditional careers will speak and participants will develop a career plan. The workshop is available for one credit, registration No. 756. For more information, call the Women's Program at 2353.

Funds available for classified training and development

The Classified Training and Development Committee will meet Wednesday, Nov. 29 to consider requests for training and development funds. Fund information and request forms are available in Personnel Services.

'96 calendars available

The Purchasing Services warehouse has 1996 calendars (12 months on one sheet) donated by Boise Cascade. If you want one, please pick up at the warehouse or call Steve Evans at 2453.

Legislative Action Team meeting canceled

The Legislative Action Team will not meet on Thursday, Nov. 2.

Stress reduction workshops offered

Attached to today's Daily is a flyer on a stress reduction workshop, "Unplug the Holiday Machine," to be held on two Tuesdays, Nov. 7 and 14, from noon-1 p.m. in APR 215. No reservations are required. The workshop is sponsored by the Classified Professional Development Team. For information call Linda Pompel at 2522.

Open enrollment for classified and management

The open enrollment period for classified and management is Nov. 1-Dec. 15. This is the window of opportunity to add dependents to your insurance or to change from Blue Cross of Oregon medical insurance to HMO Oregon medical. Any changes made during the open enrollment period will be effective January 1, 1996. Enrollment change forms and rate charts may be picked up in Personnel Services. - Lorraine Allyn, 2111; Germaine Mock, 2110; Judy Ward, 2112

Faculty professional development leave available for 1996/97

Nine terms of faculty professional development leave are available for fall, winter and spring 1996/97. Contracted faculty members may apply for one to three terms of paid leave to do research, retrain for new assignments at Lane, or return to school. Applications are due May 1, 1996. For more information, contact Roxanne Flowerday or Pat John in Study Skills at 2440.

Moving on

Sue Ferguson, director of the ASLCC Child Care Co-op, has accepted a position as director of the child care center at Idaho State College in Pocatello. She says it's a great opportunity "with lots more families and children." She adds that she will miss the ASLCC co-op which she has nurtured since its concept. Her last day on campus is Friday, Nov. 3. She reports to her new post Jan. 1.

Instructor of the year shares tips

Ron Little, Lane's Instructor of the Year, presented at a recent Teachers Talking about Teaching meeting. A small but appreciative audience heard him share teaching tips and demonstrate how easy it is to speed lecture preparation with computer-generated outlines and coordinated transparencies. "You can do this in 10 minutes once lecture content is decided," says Little. See this videotaped presentation on reserve in the LCC library under "Teachers Talking about Teaching."

Classified Council report

Classified Council's Oct. 11 meeting covered several topics. Members expressed concerns about problems they and others have had with finding adequate meeting facilities on campus. Council briefly discussed hiring and promotional practices at Lane. The group gave kudos to Phyllis Geyer in Counseling for her work on a version of the mentoring program that she will implement using Phi Theta Kappa students. Council also considered suggestions made by members at the last meeting for improving campus building signs.

During its Oct. 25 meeting, Classified Council and other staff participated in a diversity training called "A Winning Balance" facilitated by Donna Albro, director of Affirmative Action. Those attending were encouraged to think about how people perceive, rate and react to others who are different from themselves; participants were asked to rate their own reactions to "guests" introduced on a video. Albro said that according to the training model, people react to one another based on a "tolerance scale" which consists of five ratings: appreciation, acceptance, tolerance, avoidance and repulsion. She said the model shows that in a respectful environment, appreciation and acceptance are the only acceptable ratings.

Grant resources available

The grants library has received the Guide to Oregon Foundations 1995. This updated publication provides comprehensive profiles of over 100 foundations that support programs and organizations in Oregon, including several foundations with a national focus. The guide is an excellent place to start if you are looking for private foundation funding. The grants library also has added Winning Grants Step by Step, by Mim Carlson, a workbook for planning, developing, and writing successful proposals. Contact Sarah LaMaster, grants coordinator, at 2312 for help in finding funding sources and developing grant proposals.

Mainframe down times scheduled

The mainframe computer will be down for software and hardware upgrades on the following dates: Friday-Sunday, Nov. 10-12; Thursday-Sunday, Nov. 23-26; and Friday-Tuesday, Dec. 22-26. ClassLine and the kiosks will be down at these times. Netscape and Beyond Mail should not be down.

Athletics Hall of Fame nominations sought

Athletics seeks nominations to its Hall of Fame. The third annual induction ceremony is set for Jan. 13. Nominations are due Nov. 20. Candidates should meet the following criteria: (1) must have competed for Lane for at least one full academic year; (2) eligible after a 10-year lapse from their last year of completion; (3) in good standings with Lane and the community; (4) athletic accomplishments or team contributions must have created recognition in honor to Lane; (5) have made special contributions (financial, supportive, etc.) to Lane's athletic program; and (6) must have completed their Lane experience with a minimum 2.00 GPA. Official nomination forms are available in Athletics 2215.

Workforce 2000

Program and registration brochures for the League for Innovation's annual Workforce 2000 conference are available from Addie Lou Willis in the Office of Instructional Services. The conference will be held Jan. 31-Feb. 3, 1996, in Orlando, Florida.

Conference to be held for women in higher education

Oregon Women in Higher Education is planning its 15th annual conference for Jan. 26 at the Governor Hotel in Portland. The conference provides a forum for women staff, administrators and faculty to gather and share ideas. Program highlights include a panel discussion by women college presidents and sessions on active learning, attitudes toward higher education, classroom climate for women students, and more. Cost is $65 per person which includes lunch. For a brochure call Millie May at the University of Portland at 283-7425 or e-mail may@uofport.edu.

President Moskus to return Monday

The following message from Acting Board Chair Cindy Cable and the college's Vice Presidents was sent to all staff Thursday afternoon via voice mail.

Last night the board voted to reinstate Jerry Moskus as president of Lane Community College, effective Monday morning, and to continue its discussions of the issues at an Executive Session Wednesday night, November 8. Also at last night's meeting, Cindy Weeldreyer resigned from the board. Vice Chair Cindy Cable is acting chair.

We know staff and the community are interested in more information and hope you understand that we are constrained by law from talking about personnel matters.

The past few weeks have been difficult for staff and the community. We appreciate that staff have carried out the work of the college in their usual high quality manner. Thanks to the dedication and commitment of staff, Lane Community College has earned a reputation as a first-rate institution and we are eager to move forward in providing the highest level of education and service to the public.

Transition assistance available to staff

Today

- College Council, 1:30-3 p.m., Boardroom.
- Instructional Support Staff Association, 3:30 p.m., ELC 206.

Brown bag talk is today

A panel presentation on "the stories women tell" will be given today from 12-1 p.m. in PE 205. Three local women will discuss the various ways women tell their stories, how myths affect women, and the importance of women having a nurturing place to express ideas and issues. This is a Women's Program Brown Bag Talk, so bring your lunch and join us.

Faculty Council postponed

Faculty Council has postponed its Nov. 9 meeting to Thursday, Nov. 16 at 3 p.m. in BUS 206.

Faculty union calls meeting

The Lane Community College Education Association has scheduled an all-faculty meeting for Thursday, Nov. 9, from 3-4 p.m. in FOR 308.

Faculty association survey deadline extended

The deadline for the return of Lane Community College Education Association bargaining surveys has been extended to Monday, Nov. 13. Send your responses to SCI 101. (Monday's Daily incorrectly listed LCCEF instead of LCCEA, as many observant readers pointed out. - Editor)

More network training classes offered

Attached to today's Daily is the schedule of network training classes for the remainder of fall term. The schedule includes refresher courses. Our goal is to ensure that all staff members have the opportunity to complete their Net I class and have an active e-mail account before the winter holidays. Network access for those without computers in their office or department will be available in the Instructional Technology Center (CEN 421) after Thanksgiving. See the attached schedule for more details. In order to track our progress toward completing this first round of training, we need to know who has yet to take their Net 1 class and set up their e-mail account. If that describes you, please leave a voice mail message for Bob Barber at 2305 and go ahead and register for a class or classes. Thanks!

Teleconference: "Anger in the Classroom"

A teleconference, "Anger in the Classroom," will be shown Thursday, Nov. 9, from 12-1:30 p.m. in CEN 12. This issue is of growing importance to faculty who see more and more frustrated students. The teleconference will examine the reasons for students' changing expectations and for their anger at teachers. Nationally respected authorities on anger Dr. Carol Tavris and Dr. Carole Wade will explain the nature and origins of student anger as well as the emotional responses of teachers. They will offer solutions for coping with student anger, strategies for managing personal anger, and group approaches that teachers working together might accomplish. All interested staff are invited to attend. For more information contact Cynde Leathers at 2260.

Displaced worker finds a new job

"The DWProgram made a difference in my life," wrote Ellie Hanson to Dislocated Worker Program staff at Lane in a Nov. 1 letter. Hanson lost her job when Trend College closed and came to Lane where she added computer skills to her resume'. She's now working for Timber Products Company as administrative assistant to three sales managers. "There's plenty to learn in any new job and not having to learn the computer basics to keep afloat definitely has been a blessing," she wrote.

Lane to host cross country championships

Lane will host the NWAACC cross country championships on Saturday, Nov. 11. The women's 5K race will begin at 11 a.m. and the men's 8K race will begin at 11:45 a.m. Our teams have been running well all year and we would appreciate your presence at this event. If you're interested in working on the finish line or helping in some capacity, please let us know as soon as possible. - Brad Joens, 2696

Management development funds notice

Applications for management personal development funds may be submitted but will be held for processing until after the first of the year. Additional funds are not available until after January 1, 1996. For more information contact Bob Vogel at 2460.

Workshop offered on "Director" multimedia authoring software

A workshop, "Introduction to Director: Multimedia Authoring," will be held Saturday, Nov. 18, from 9 a.m.-5 p.m. in the Instructional Technology Center, CEN 421. The workshop is offered to Lane employees and is free. The prerequisite is basic knowledge of the Macintosh or Windows environment. Registration is required by Nov. 8. Call Tim Blood at 2243 or e-mail as soon as possible for an information packet and additional registration.

Today

- Board of Education, 7 p.m., Boardroom; preceded by executive session, 5 p.m., Renaissance Room.

Artist Lincoln Lao to discuss his 3-D paintings

Artist Lincoln Lao will lecture on his unusual 2-D and 3-D paintings in the LCC Art Gallery on Tuesday, Nov. 14, at 10 a.m., sponsored by the Associated Students of Lane Community College. The Lao show runs from Nov. 13 through Dec. 8. He is a professor of art and applied design at Schoolcraft College in Livonia, Michigan, and exhibits nationally and internationally. Gallery hours are Mondays-Thursdays from 8 a.m.-10 p.m., and Fridays from 8 a.m.-5 p.m.

Student cultural committee invites staff and faculty input

The Associated Students of Lane Community College Cultural Committee invites students, staff and faculty to attend a meeting on Thursday, Nov. 9, from 3-4 p.m. in M&A 241. The committee will plan events for the year. Plans in progress include a recycling and food drive, Martin Luther King Jr. events, an essay contest, a Kwanzaa celebration, Black History Month, Women's History Month, Earth Week, and Cinco de Mayo. For more information, contact Angela Kellner at 2335.

Printing/Graphics deadline

Instructional packets and books needed for winter term classes should be submitted to Printing/Graphics by Wednesday, Nov. 29. Materials needed for the first day of winter term should be submitted by Dec. 11. Thanks for your cooperation.

Better cafeteria lighting requested

The Student Services Bond Planning Committee has requested that the lights be left on in the north end of the cafeteria during afternoon and evening hours to provide students with additional places to study. This request was made as a result of student concerns. This additional lighting will be provided through the end of fall term on an experimental basis. The custodial staff request that students and others using these spaces clean up after themselves. The custodians are unable to provide a second cleaning of this area prior to the college opening the next morning.

Financial aid exit interviews scheduled

Federal regulations require that students receiving a Federal Stafford Loan or a Federal SLS Loan while attending Lane must attend an exit interview during their last term of attendance. The exit interview outlines financial planning, disclosure statements, repayment procedures, how to correspond with the lender, secondary markets, loan consolidation, options for making payments, and the consequences of default. The schedule of interviews for fall 1995 is Monday, Nov. 27 at 10 a.m. in HEA 269, 2 p.m. in FOR 307; and 6 p.m. in FOR 308; and on Tuesday, Nov. 28 at 9 a.m. in FOR 307; 1 p.m. in FOR 308, and 4 p.m. in FOR 307. The sessions will begin on time and latecomers cannot be admitted. Each session will last approximately 50 minutes.

Network refresher classes open to walk-in attendance

In the new network training schedule announced in the Nov. 7 Daily, "refresher" classes on BeyondMail were announced for Macintosh and PC users. These classes (and these classes only) can be attended on a walk-in basis, as long as you have already taken your required Net I class and have activated your e-mail account. We prefer that you register for the refresher classes through ClassLine so we can anticipate the attendance, but you may also walk in at the last minute if you wish. Bring your questions with you! Thanks. Questions? Call Bob Barber in CIT at 2305.

Oregon fiddlers found in New York transit station

Club sports offers activities

The club sports program invites participation in the following activities:

- Bowling tournament, Wednesday, Nov. 15, 3-4 p.m., Emerald Lanes. Awards for high series, no handicap, and estimate for three-game series.
- Women's fast-pitch softball information meeting, Thursday, Nov. 16, 7:30-9 p.m., PE 205.

- Farewell party for Sue Ferguson, 6-8 p.m., Mazzi's. - Robin Ware or Georgia Soto, 2025

Board report

Cindy Cable was elected chair of the Board of Education at its Nov. 8 meeting, replacing former chair Cindy Weeldreyer who resigned on Nov. 1.

Board support for President Jerry Moskus resulted from a review of events over the last two weeks, said Cable. She read a statement explaining the board's action and continuing interest (for a copy, contact The Daily at 2591). Later in the meeting, Weeldreyer apologized to the board and received a vote of recognition for her contributions over the years.

Applicants for appointment to the Zone 4 vacancy created by Weeldreyer's resignation should be recruited at once, the board decided. Zone 4 includes southeast Lane County. Applicants should send a letter of interest and a resume to the chair in care of the President's Office. The board encouraged people of color to apply.

A discussion of hiring and promotional practices was postponed due to the president's recent leave. English instructor William Powell, who first asked for board discussion in September, shared comments since he had not been notified of the postponement. He offered himself as a resource to the board, citing 100 pages of documentation on hiring irregularities over the years.

In other business, the board:

- postponed discussion of a land exchange;
- appointed Dean Nusbaum of Creswell to the Budget Committee;
- asked for staff recommendations on increasing participation in budget meetings;
- approved purchase of a new security and fire system for the Downtown Center;
- specified Steinway and Boston pianos for replacement needs in music instruction;
- appointed Terri Herbert as instructor in the Fast Forward program;
- appointed Greg Roers as instructor in the Business Development Center;
- appointed Michael Ruiz as assistant director of Campus Services;
- appointed Tony Satej as Adult Basic and Secondary Education instructor;
- appointed Robert Sposato as Adult Basic and Secondary Education instructor.

The board heard an update on the Cottage Grove center bond-funded expansion. The $1.7 million project will quadruple services to local residents.

The next meeting will be Dec. 13 at 7 p.m., preceded by a 5:30 p.m. work session on the board's evaluation policy.

Board applicants sought

The Board of Education seeks applicants for appointment to the Zone 4 seat representing southeast Lane County. The term of service will last from appointment through June 30, 1997. The seat will be up for election in March 1997 for the four-year term beginning July 1, 1997. Cindy Weeldreyer of Cottage Grove resigned from the Zone 4 post on November 1. The board encourages people of color to apply.

Applicants must reside in Zone 4 which includes Blue River, Cottage Grove, Creswell, Culp Creek, Dexter, Dorena, Fall Creek, part of Jasper, Leaburg, Lowell, McKenzie Bridge, Oakridge, Pleasant Hill, part of Springfield, Thurston, Vida, Walterville, and Westfir. Applicants should send a letter of interest and a resume to LCC Board of Education Chair Cindy Cable in care of Board Secretary Tracy Simms, 4000 E 30th Avenue, Eugene OR 97405. For information call 2200.

Kudos

Doug White, chair of Family and Health Careers, has been named chair of the board of directors of the Southwest Oregon Regional Area Health Education Center. The 18-member board represents six counties in southwest Oregon. The group's mission is to improve healthcare in rural and underserved areas. "Doug possesses outstanding leadership and facilitator skills and is making a considerable impact on the future of healthcare in this region," says the association's executive director Barbara Grigsby.

Deadline set for board applicants

The Board of Education has set December 15 as the deadline to apply for appointment to the Zone 4 seat vacated by Cindy Weeldreyer's resignation. Zone 4 represents southeast Lane County and includes Blue River, Cottage Grove, Creswell, Culp Creek, Dexter, Dorena, Fall Creek, part of Jasper, Leaburg, Lowell, McKenzie Bridge, Oakridge, Pleasant Hill, part of Springfield, Thurston, Vida, Walterville, and Westfir. Applicants must reside in Zone 4. Term of service will last from appointment through June 30, 1997. The seat will be up for election in March 1997 for the four-year term beginning July 1, 1997. The board encourages people of color to apply. To apply, send a letter of interest and a resume to LCC Board of Education Chair Cindy Cable in care of Board Secretary Tracy Simms, President's Office. For information call 2200.

Holiday bus trip planned

The Lane Community College Employees Federation is hosting a charter bus trip to Portland on Saturday, Dec. 16, leaving main campus at 9 a.m. and returning at 9 p.m. The fee of $15 covers admission to Oregon Museum of Science and Industry and the Renaissance Festival. Sights also will include the Parade of Ships on the Willamette and Columbia Rivers and downtown shopping. All staff, family and friends invited. ## Today

- College Council, 1:30-3 p.m., Boardroom.
- Native American Student Association raffle ticket drawing, 12:30 p.m., cafeteria.

Author/historian speaks today at UO

Howard Zinn, left-wing author and historian, will speak today at 4 p.m. at the University of Oregon in 138 Gilbert on "Economic Justice in the United States." He will also speak at 7 p.m. in the EMU Ballroom on "A People's History of the United States." Both presentations are free. For more information, contact Jerome Garger at 2162.

Faculty Council report

At Faculty Council's Oct. 16 meeting, members focused on a document that describes council's mission and goals. Council made revisions to the document and reaffirmed that the group is "a collective voice of the faculty" which "makes decisions on behalf of the faculty within the governance structure." The document states that Faculty Council influences decision-making by providing a forum for faculty participation in "generating and discussing ideas, proposals and solutions." Council will continue discussion of the document at its next meeting on Dec. 7. - by Kimberly Buchanan for The Daily

Classified Council reports

Classified Council met Oct. 11; the scheduled guest, Marie Matsen, was unable to attend. Sarah LaMaster, Institutional Advancement, attended and briefly discussed the application process for Leadership Training. She said the application deadline was near but encouraged interested staff to plan for next year.

Members also talked about "A Winning Balance," the diversity training that was presented to council on Oct. 25 by Affirmative Action Director Donna Albro. Participants said the training was "enlightening" and that it "taught us how many prejudices we have and how to be aware of our prejudices." Council plans to do the second part of the training, "Synergy," after the first of the year.

Council reviewed the suggestions made by members for better signing on campus and decided to compile the suggestions in a letter to the appropriate department(s). Council plans to have a holiday celebration on Dec. 13, which is council's last meeting of the term; the Dec. 27 meeting was canceled. - by Kimberly Buchanan for The Daily

Mail procedure changes for the holiday

Due to the Thanksgiving holiday, main campus staff are asked to bring their outgoing and intercampus mail to the Mailroom on Monday, Nov. 27, from 12-3:30 p.m. in lieu of regular morning Mailroom pick up and delivery services. Downtown Center staff will receive usual service. Thank you! - Mailroom staff, 2575

Computer loan program

Purchasing Services has several surplus computers available to staff as "loaners." The loaners may be especially appealing to administrative staff and faculty who do not have readily available computers and are working on short grants, presentations and special projects or need a laptop for a conference. Like the computers themselves, the software will be a grab-bag with only one guarantee—it will not be modern. Our rules are quite minimal; mainly, if you borrow one, bring it back, preferably within a month, and not broken. We now have a 486 laptop, a 486 desktop, two 286s, two older Macs, and an Apple IIe. Contact Bob Cudmore at 2571 or Lloyd Rain at 2572 for additional information.

The Daily will not publish on Monday, Nov. 27, due to the Thanksgiving holiday.

Fitness Center offers holiday specials to staff

- The Fitness Education Center schedule for Dec. 11-14 will be 7-9 a.m., 12-2 p.m. and 4-6 p.m. This will be a good opportunity to test the new equipment that has just arrived. If you have any questions, call 2058.
- New Year's Resolutions: Due to popular demand, the Fitness Education Center will remain open Dec. 18-21 from 11 a.m.-2 p.m. for all staff. In addition, center instructors will offer a special staff orientation to get you started before the beginning of winter term. This special orientation will be conducted on Thursday, Dec. 14, from 11 a.m.-1 p.m. Please call 3987 to sign up.

Kevin Hornbuckle to speak

Eugene city councilor Kevin Hornbuckle will speak to Steve Candee's State and Local Government class on Thursday, Nov. 30, from 10-11:30 a.m. in CEN 420. His topics will include his role and experiences on the city council as well as an explanation of "preference voting" to be considered in a later election. Guests are welcome.

College promotional videos available in the library

Lane has two videos for marketing purposes that are available in the library. "Cool School" is targeted to high school students. "We Put Learning to Work" is geared to promoting business partnerships. Both can be found on the reserve list or by title. - Angela Miller, 2268

Mail procedure changes for the holiday

Due to the Thanksgiving holiday, main campus staff are asked to bring their outgoing and intercampus mail to the Mailroom on Monday, Nov. 27, from 12-3:30 p.m. in lieu of regular morning Mailroom pick up and delivery services. Downtown Center staff will receive usual service. Thank you! - Mailroom staff, 2575

Kudos

Christine Krygier, associate director of the Oregon Small Business Development Center Network, successfully completed the first section of the Toastmasters International Communication and Leadership Program. Participants must complete a series of rigorous assignments which provide instruction and practice in the basic techniques of public speaking. The program involves working and communicating with people from a wide variety of professions and vocations. Congratulations on this outstanding achievement!

Vaccines available

Hepatitis A vaccine is available at Student Health Services at a cost of $55. We also have pneumonia vaccine for $8, and will also be giving flu shots until the end of this term ($8). Just call us at 2665 for an appointment or to have any questions answered.

ASLCC sponsors Martin Luther King Jr. essay contest

The ASLCC Cultural Committee is proud to sponsor the annual Martin Luther King Jr. essay contest for credit students. The essay theme is open to any topic directly relating to the life of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Essays must be three-to-five pages typed and double-spaced and must include a cover page with name, address, phone number and social security number. Deadline is Tuesday, Jan. 9, at 4 p.m., at the ASLCC office, CEN 479. Prizes are $100 cash to first, $50 Bookstore gift certificate to second, $25 Bookstore gift certificate to third, and two $10 Bookstore gift certificates to honorable mentions. The winning essay will be printed in The Torch. Questions? Call Angela Kellner at 2335.

Computer loan program

Purchasing Services has several surplus computers available to staff as "loaners." The loaners may be especially appealing to administrative staff and faculty who do not have readily available computers and are working on short grants, presentations and special projects or need a laptop for a conference. Like the computers themselves, the software will be a grab-bag with only one guarantee—it will not be modern. Our rules are quite minimal; mainly, if you borrow one, bring it back, preferably within a month, and not broken. We now have a 486 laptop, a 486 desktop, two 286s, two older Macs, and an Apple IIe. Contact Bob Cudmore at 2571 or Lloyd Rain at 2572 for additional information.

No Daily next Monday

The Daily will not be published on Monday, Nov. 27, due to the Thanksgiving break.

The executive committee guides the operations of the ASBDC in providing quality management assistance to small businesses throughout the United States. Cutler will maintain liaisons with key presidential advisors, members of Congress, and the U.S. Small Business Administration. He will assist in formulating a national strategy for continued federal funding for the SBDC program.
- Barbara Cardwell, project specialist at the Oregon Small Business Development Center Network, recently had an article published about the SBDC program in the Daily Journal of Commerce.

Focus on wellness

The LCC Wellness Task Force is made up of 13 members from across campus representing classified, faculty and management. During the past year the task force has researched current wellness programs for the League for Innovation and similar institutions in Oregon. Findings reveal that 85 percent of the colleges surveyed have successful employee wellness programs. A task force representative will bring surveys to each department staff meeting before the holiday break to acquire specific responses from Lane employees. If you have questions or have not received a Wellness Survey, please contact Patrick Lanning at 2552.

Departments rally to save students from loan check delay

Six Stafford Student Loan checks took 12 days to reach Lane from Spokane lately, putting students in a temporary bind. U.S. Bank required the students to submit notarized Declaration of Loss forms before it would reissue checks. Jerry Sirois of Counseling made himself available to notarize the forms as each student inquired at Financial Aid on Thursday and Friday, Nov. 16 and 17. When the original checks did arrive that Friday, Zandra Cates of College Finance inputted each check immediately so they would be available to the students. Financial Aid notified each student that the checks had arrived. By Monday, Nov. 20, five of the students had picked up their checks. The cooperation between Financial Aid, College Finance and Counseling was outstanding, says Vice President for Student Services Linda Fossen.
