Students First! Team open house

Mark your calendar for Wednesday, April 3 and plan to stop by the open house, anytime between 3-5:30 p.m. in CEN 321 to learn about the Students First! Redesign Project. A team has been formed to review and recommend improved ways to provide administrative services to students. They will work together through July 26 in CEN 320/21. Come meet with the team and find out more about this project! Refreshments will be served.

Legislative Action Team hosts Secretary of State

Secretary of State, Phil Keisling, will be a guest of the Legislative Action Team on Thursday, April 4, from 8-9 a.m. in the Boardroom. Referendums, campaign finance, and other points of political interest will be discussed. Everyone is welcome.

More legislative visits

The following legislative visits will be held in Steve Candee's government classes. While seating is limited, guests are welcome: Congressman Peter DeFazio, Tuesday, April 2, 10:30-11:20 a.m.; Secretary of State Phil Keisling, Thursday, April 4, 10-11:30 a.m.; and State Senator Bill Dwyer, Wednesday, April 10, 9-10 a.m. All visits will be held in CEN 409. - Steve Candee

Graduation

Adult High School /GED graduation will be held on Thursday, May 30 and college graduation will be held on Friday, May 31; both begin at 7:30 p.m. at the Hult Center. Students frequently comment on how much they enjoy having faculty and staff attend graduation. It's a very special night and a great way to finish up the year. Please encourage people in your department to attend. - Barb Delansky, Student Activities

Feedback wanted on proposed tuition increase

Due to Ballot Measure 5 and changes in funding, Lane is facing a budget deficit of approximately $2 million next year. To partially offset this deficit, the college is considering a $2 per credit increase (from $32/credit to $34/credit). This increase will generate approximately $680,000. This leaves an approximate deficit of $1.3 million to be made up by budget adjustments and/or program reductions. The proposed $2 tuition increase would still leave Lane at about the average tuition rate of other Oregon community colleges. Student and staff feedback is encouraged by completing one of the survey forms at the student activities office or by calling 741-1212, ext. 2337 and leaving a voice mail message. - Barb Delansky, Student Activities

Attachment

Attached to today's Daily is information regarding an experiential series in stress reduction with Shan Titus and sponsored by the Faculty Professional Development Team.

Writing tutors needed

The Writing Center desperately needs tutors for spring term. If you know any students with excellent writing skills or who have earned an A in Writing 121, direct them to Kathleen Shull at 2118 or Sharon Thomas at 2145. Some training is required and tutors must commit to at least three hours per week. Tutors may earn one free class per 30 hours of tutoring.

Work-study help needed in Writing Center

The Writing Center seeks work-study support for spring term. If you know students who qualify for work-study funds, and want to help an energetic staff promote its services, call Kathleen Shull at 2118 or Sharon Thomas at 2145, or visit CEN 451. Successful candidates will earn $6.53 an hour and will gain experience in displays, filing, research, and other job skills.

Disability Services orientation

Disability Services will offer an orientation on Friday, April 5, from 1-3 p.m. in CEN 219/220. Students will learn what assistance Disability Services can provide, how the Disability Services office works, and what other resources are available on Lane's campus and how to make the most of them. Call 2150 to reserve a space.

TIP provides professional growth opportunities

Spring is a time for new beginnings and growth. Lane's Teaching Improvement Process provides contracted and continuing part-time teachers an opportunity to reassess their classes and become aware of new possibilities for growth and change. Call Sharon Thomas at 2145 or Jim Cobb at 2831 to sign up for this non-threatening professional development program.

Kudos

On March 13, the Mechanical Technologies Department was awarded the Aviation Maintenance Technician Diamond Certificate of Excellence by the Federal Aviation Administration. The Diamond award was presented because three Aviation Maintenance Technician faculty had previously earned Technician awards for FAA and industry training. Russ Bowen received the Diamond award, which is the highest level for this award, Gary Mckenzie received the Ruby award, and Nels Noble received the Silver award. The three instructors received a combined total of over 175 hours of FAA and industry training for the year.

This event is sponsored by the LCC Multicultural Center, LCC Latino Student Union, and ASLCC.

Want to check e-mail and the Net from home?

During spring term, Computer Services hopes to begin making remote access to the LCC network available to all staff who have a home computer with the minimally required hardware and software configuration. Remote access will also allow staff whose offices are located in locations not directly wired to the network to connect as well.

Staff is advised that the college can make available free remote access to e-mail using a text-based mail system, not the full-blown BeyondMail interface. It will be the same mail in the same mailbox, but through a text interface. Remote access with the usual BeyondMail graphic interface will be available for departmental purchase at $42 per installation. Netscape-based Internet access will be available to all remote users, at no cost.

Staff is advised that to access the system from off-campus will require approximately 20 MB of hard disk space on your remote system. Classes on the installation and use of remote access will be offered later in the spring through the network training program. Participation in these classes will be required before the installation disks will be made available. The only training and support for installation will take place through these classes; computer support staff does not have the capability of making home visits. Anyone wishing remote access who has not yet taken their Basic Net I class and established their network account will be required to do so before attending the remote access class.

Attached to today's Daily is a survey which everyone wishing to gain remote access is asked to complete and return by campus mail to Computer Services by Wednesday, April 10. Departments are asked to make a special effort to ensure that this survey is made available to part-time employees.

Questions should be directed to Thad Cowdin in Computer Services at 2191 or Bob Barber, in CIT at 2305. Additional copies of the survey can be obtained from either person.

April is Community College Month

In honor of Community College Month The Daily salutes these community college grads who rocketed to achievement in the space program:

Want to check e-mail and the Net from home?

Yesterday's Daily had a survey attached for people who want remote (home) access to the LCC network and e-mail. You need to fill out the survey if you want this service, so if you didn't get a copy, contact Thad Cowdin in Computer Services at 2191 or Bob Barber in CIT at 2305. Remote access will also allow staff whose offices are located in locations not directly wired to the network to connect. Remote access will be a text-based, not the full-blown BeyondMail interface. The usual BeyondMail graphic interface will be available for departmental purchase at $42 per installation. Netscape-based Internet access will be available to all remote users, at no cost. Hardware and training requirements are explained on the survey. The survey is due to Computer Services by Wednesday, April 10.

Kudos

Vice President for Instructional Services Mary Spilde has been accepted as a participant in the League for Innovation 1996 Executive Leadership Institute. Thirty-five administrators nationwide will attend the institute from August 4-9 in Washington DC.

Retirement ends recycling service

The recycling of laser printer toner cartridges will no longer be offered by Applied Engineering. The toner recycling service was founded and coordinated by electronics aide Myron Cooley, who won an Eldon G. Schaefer Pat on the Back Innovation Award for the service last year. Cooley has been with Lane since 1986. He retires effective April 30.

Resume workshops offered

Free resume workshops will be offered spring term sponsored by the Job Placement Office. Workshops are scheduled from 4-6 p.m. on April 10 and 24, and May 8, 15, 22, and 29. To register, contact the Job Placement Office, FOR 302, at 2217.

Student scholars honored

Today, two Lane students join other community college students from around the state to meet with Gov. John Kitzhaber and attend an honorary luncheon. Each year the Oregon Community College Association recognizes one or two students from each college for achievement. Honoring Lane this year are Rose Bellinger of Aurora, currently residing in Eugene, and Deborah Hupcey of Eugene. Bellinger is a second-year student interested in elementary education with her sights set on a master's degree. She is vice president of communications for Lane's Phi Theta Kappa chapter and is a PTK regional senator. Hupcey began her college education the same year she observed her 20th high school reunion. She has worked at Lane as a psychology tutor and Student Services Associate. She plans to complete the associate of arts Oregon transfer degree and go on the University of Oregon for a bachelor's in psychology, on her way to a doctorate, with a career focus on helping HIV positive individuals and their families.

Thanks to Velma Jesser to providing information, and for coordinating Lane's participation in this statewide event.

International Intercultural Committee to meet

The next meeting of the International Intercultural Committee is Tuesday, April 16, at 1 p.m. in M&A 240. Agenda items include a report from Linda Myers about the NIEA activities and conference; and a request from Habte Woldu to propose classroom international education topics. - Tom Reimer

Fitness Center opens at 6:30 a.m.

Employee Wellness Survey results revealed that over 80 people needed to or preferred to exercise before 7 a.m. To accommodate the needs of this employee population on the main campus, the FEC will open at 6:30 a.m. Mondays through Fridays. The Employee Wellness Committee is currently investigating off-campus exercise options for outreach center employees. If you have any suggestions regarding employee wellness programs, please give Patrick M. Lanning, Interim Wellness Coordinator, a call at 2552.

Go walk a LEWP

The Lane Employee Walking Program (LEWP) will begin at 12:05 p.m. in PE 101 on Wednesday, April 10. All interested employees should contact Patrick M. Lanning at 2552 to sign up for the 10-week program. LEWP participants will have the opportunity to meet in an organized fashion from 12-1 p.m. Mondays through Thursdays. Participants will receive a comprehensive walking manual, an opportunity to meet fellow employees from different departments, and a chance to improve overall health and wellness. The walking program allows participants an opportunity to keep record of all exercise sessions regardless of where and when they are performed. If you want to be involved in a fun, exciting and motivating health and fitness program, the LEWP is for you. Call Patrick M. Lanning at extension 2552 with questions and for LEWP registration.

Annual career fair set

The LCC Annual Career Fair will be held on Wednesday, May 1, in the northeast corner of the cafeteria from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. Approximately 50-60 employers will be available to talk with students about possible career opportunities and to recruit potential employees. A panel of employers will give a presentation on required drug testing as a part of the hiring process. The career fair is open to the public. For more information contact Joan Adams at 2326.

"Community college" defined

Daily reader Stephen Hamilton writes that not all of the schools listed in the April 3 issue on community college grads who went on to baseball stardom were really community colleges. Quote: "There is a difference between junior college (the original name dating back to 1902), community college (the name embraced in the 1970's) and comprehensive community college (the name embraced in the 1980's to reflect the adult education programs). It would seem that Spartanburg Methodist College, Mississippi Gulf Coast Junior College, and Rogers State College would be something other than community college.... But the list was very impressive!" Other readers contributed still more baseball names, to be published in a future Daily.

A SPECIAL WELLNESS THANK-YOU

Thanks to all of the 231 LCC employees who participated in the LCC Employee Wellness Activity "A Base to Stand On" March 19. We set a participated Willamette one-day cholesterol screening record with 161 participants. The former cholesterol screening record was set last year by Springfield School District with 143 participants. In addition, the following LCC employee wellness volunteers helped the event receive an "excellent" rating during a day of event sample survey. Thanks to Lorraine Bingham (Health & PE), Carol Golsberry (Personnel), Chris Hanley (Financial Aid), Gloria Jarvis (Instructional Services), Craig Taylor (Research & Planning), Lyndell Wilken (Health & PE), Jan Yriarte (Health & PE), Michael Zimmerman (Family & Health Careers), for working with such determination and effort to improve the health and wellness culture for all employees at LCC. A special thanks to Amy Riggins for her help in coordinating the event. The final thanks goes to all of the employees and administrators who sent congratulatory and thank-you cards. - Patrick M. Lanning, Interim Wellness Coordinator

SYMPATHY THANK-YOU

I want to thank all of you who have sent cards, flowers, and shown such wonderful support during the loss of my beloved father. Your kindness is so greatly appreciated. - Ann Clark, Counseling

Terry Grove named outstanding employee

Accountant Terry Grove was on the phone with a customer the other day when a crowd of smiling people swarmed around him. Undeterred from his customer service mission, he ignored the crowd until he completed the call. Vice President for College Operations Marie Matsen then stepped forward and announced, "Terry, it is my deepest pleasure to present you with the Outstanding Classified Employee of the Month for April."

Matsen recounted an impressive list of merits which won Terry the distinction. To quote a few examples: "Terry cares for the people he works for and with ... open to new ideas ... solution oriented ... a lot of integrity ... could and does find a needle in a haystack ... can laugh at the absurdities of this crazy business ... the ultimate professional ... examines all problems from the point of view, 'what is best for LCC?' ... so polite and sincere that you don't mind being corrected for a mistake ... the most courteous gentleman I have had the pleasure of working with since leaving the South."

Terry has worked at Lane since 1985 as funded projects accountant. A community college success story, he earned an associate's degree at Antelope Valley Community College in Lancaster, Calif., went on for his bachelor's at California Polytechnic State University in San Luis Obispo, and did graduate work at the University of Oregon. Before Lane, he was accountant at Gonyea & Associates; Walder, Emge & Company CPAs; Borden Chemical; and Fred Meyer.

Terry serves on the College Finance Mediation Process Group, is a member of Oregon Track Club Masters, and is a board member of the Krumdieck Park Homeowner's Association. He is past treasurer of the Eugene YMCA Aquatics Club, and is a past member of the Eugene Active 20-30 Club. He has presented at professional conferences.

Of Lane, he says: "LCC is an incredible place to work. It is certainly an honor to be chosen for this award from among such a talented and dedicated staff."

Faculty Council agenda and report

Faculty Council meets Thursday, April 11, from 3-4:30 p.m. in the Boardroom. Agenda highlights: level changes and Friday grade deadlines. For details call Margaret Bayless at 2143.

At its March 14 meeting, council established a task force on student evaluations of faculty with a goal of implementing changes by this fall. Council identified possible uses for the evaluation information and discussed how it can be analyzed and observed. Members made suggestions on the length of the evaluations, the kinds of questions to be asked and methods/timelines for administering the evaluations. Council will work with Instructional Services to update faculty on evaluation requirements currently in effect. Level changes were briefly discussed.

Education Reform Bridge Committee to meet

The Education Reform Bridge Committee will meet Monday, April 15, from 3-4:30 p.m. in HEA 209. Agenda items include review of the task force status, a report Bridge presentations, process redesign input, and tasks/goals for spring and summer. All interested individuals are welcome. For more details, call Dennis Clark at 2517, or Lori Lilliefors at 2521.

Writer's Club announces speakers' schedule

The Lane Writers Club is sponsoring a series of talks by published authors. The writers will read from their works and share strategies for successful publishing. Everyone's welcome. All presentations will be in APR 211. Refreshments will be served. - Kathleen Shull, 2118

- Thursday, May 30, 2:30 p.m., Myrna Pena-Reyes, poet, and Bill Sweet, LCC instructor and Oregon Arts Award winner.

Upcoming grants workshops

Three grants workshops are planned for spring term. Sarah LaMaster, Grants Coordinator, will facilitate the workshops which are sponsored by the Resource Development Group. "Getting Grants: Planning for Success" on April 23 will provide an overview of grantsmanship and Lane's grants review process, with an emphasis on project and budget development. The "Grants Chat" on May 3 will feature successful grant getters at Lane in a panel discussion about their experiences. This event is a brown bag lunch, with beverages provided. Finally, "Finding Funding Sources for Grants" on May 10 will focus on how to research funding sources using print materials and web resources. During half the two-hour session, participants will "surf the web" with guidance from LaMaster on where to find resources and how to use what they find. The schedule follows. Call Sarah LaMaster, 2312, to register for the April 23 workshop (register by April 19) and the May 10 workshop (register by May 7).

- Getting Grants: Planning for Success, April 23, 2-4 p.m., PE 205
- Grants Chat: Developing Successful Projects for Grant Funding, May 3, 12-1 p.m., PE 205, (brown bag lunch)

Attention all public employees

The Secretary of State issues this notice periodically to public employees: The restrictions imposed by law of the State of Oregon on your political activities are that "no public employee shall solicit any money, influence, service, or other thing of value or otherwise promote or oppose any political committee or promote or oppose the nomination or election of a candidate, the gathering of signatures on an initiative, referendum or recall petition, the adoption of a measure or the recall of a public office holder while on the job during working hours. However, this section does not restrict the right of a public employee to express political views." The wearing of political buttons is an acceptable expression of views, even while on the job, Secretary of State Phil Keisling told the Legislative Action Team last week.

Early advising helps students

Continuing students can qualify for early registration times next fall and will have a better selection of classes if they participate in Lane's Early Advising program from April 15-June 14. In addition to a better selection of classes, students will learn more about available programs, choose the right courses, and make appropriate plans for meeting their educational goals. "When students plan in advance," counselor Rich Freund says, "they know more about requirements and feel far more in control of their academic careers. They also can plan ahead for child care, finances and the like."

Counselor and co-developer of the program, Jan Brandstrom, adds "We've arranged early advising sessions so that students can connect with their advisors and programs. We also have sessions for undeclared majors so they can explore their options at Lane." She adds, "We want students to feel at home at Lane and use their dollars for education wisely."

Continuing LCC students who want information about the Early Advising program, and a schedule of Early Advising sessions, can contact Counseling at 2204.

Today

- International Intercultural Committee, 1 p.m., M&A 240.
- College Council, 1:30-3 p.m., Boardroom.
- Web presentation with Bill Griffiths, 3 p.m., M&A 235.

College Council agenda

College Council meets today from 1:30-3 p.m. in the Boardroom. Council will discuss part-time/full-time issues, hear a bond update, and hear about program adjustments for 1996/97.

Fitness Education Center serves coffee substitute

The Fitness Education Center early opening hours (6:30 a.m., Monday through Friday) have gained a great deal in staff popularity. Currently 15-20 LCC staff members take advantage of a natural wake-up by increasing their circulatory system and mental functioning via a fun and exciting exercise program. A staff member wishing to remain anonymous responded while exercising in the FEC, "I got away from coffee so now it freaks my body out, however when I exercise I get a day long high." Now is the time to begin a pre-summer exercise program. Call 744-3987 during open FEC hours to set an appointment for your orientation and begin a healthier wake-up today.

Managers' Forum: 8:30 a.m.-noon

Managers' Forum meets Friday, April 19 from 8:30 a.m.-noon in the Boardroom. Agenda:

- 8:30 a.m. Management Steering Committee with Sandy Cutler.
- 8:45 a.m. Home Page, with Diane Dann and Nick Cheshire.
- 9:15 a.m. On-line Financial System, with Carol Beckley.
- 9:55 a.m. Break
- 10 a.m. Management Change, with Susan Phillips.

Dislocated Worker Program impresses participant

Sharon Rexford recently participated in the Dislocated Worker Program and gave this feedback in a letter:

"When I started a year ago I couldn't even type. Thanks to DWP I now have the skills I need to change the direction of my life. I have computer skills, floral design and accounting skills. I'm working part-time as a florist. My goal is to open my own shop. I feel that I'm well on my way to accomplishing that goal, and with hard work and some luck I'll do fine. I'd like to thank everyone involved with the DWP for sharing their knowledge, and helping all the people who are truly interested in changing their careers.

"Without you guys and the funding for classes and supplies, most of us wouldn't stand a chance. So for all dislocated workers, I say Thanks!"

Team change

Linda DeWitt of Financial Aid has replaced Sharon Williams of Admissions on the Students First! Redesign Team. Admissions still has Bee McRae on the team

Attachment

Attached to today's Daily is the call for nominations for the annual Eldon G. Schafer Innovation Awards. If you need a copy, call the Foundation at 2803.

African exhibit ends soon

The photography exhibit currently in the Library's Mezzanine Gallery will be on display through Thursday, April 18. The exhibit, which is on loan from the French Embassy and entitled "Kinshasa: Walls Which Speak," uses storefront advertising as a window into the cultural climate of Zaire, Africa. The color photographs are of small shops in the capital city of Kinshasa, a city of four million inhabitants.

The storefront signs and murals capture a culture where French colonialism, traditional beliefs, Western cultural imperialism, and modern African politics, sports and music intermingle and collide. The creators of the exhibit, Philippe Parisel and Lelo Nzuzi, describe it this way: "Colorful, droll, sometimes comical, the walls of these small shops and workshops synthesize urban culture, retracing a part of recent history and reflecting the immediate preoccupations of the population." The exhibit includes descriptions of each photograph in both English and French. - Daniel Moret

Interested in teaching in the workplace?

Portland State University is offering an Introduction to Workplace Education course at Lane on Thursday evening, May 23, and all day Friday, May 24. This course will explore the emerging field of workplace-based education and includes information on student population characteristics, terms, trends, and self-assessment of your own workplace instructor skills. If there is enough local interest, PSU will offer other workplace courses at Lane. For more information call Elaine Pray at 2089.

Week of the Young Child events will brighten campus

The Week of the Young Child is April 20-27. Lane's early childhood professionals will celebrate by showcasing the three child care centers on campus and providing information about Lane's Early Childhood Education Program. An open house will be held Monday, April 22, from 8:45-11 a.m. in each center. Follow the balloon path from the Administration Building west to the Child Development Center Preschool, the Child Development Infant/Toddler Center, and the ASLCC Co-op. Also look for the info booth in the cafeteria from 10 a.m.-3 p.m. with demonstrations of activities for you to try at home with your child.

Finally, stop by the refreshment stand on Friday, April 26, from 10-11 a.m., in front of the Administration Building. Join the celebration!

President has an Earth Day request

From President Jerry Moskus: " Monday, April 22 is Earth Day, and I would like to remind staff and students that it is in the best interests of the environment and the college for all of us to recycle. Currently, there are over 50 recycling barrels on campus for paper recycling. Please use these when disposing of appropriate documents and computer paper. The recycling committee is planning a process to provide easier access for all recyclables by next fall. If you have questions, call the Recycling Center at 2714. Thanks for you efforts in this endeavor."

Earth Week: recycling news

Every day, each Lane County resident generates over six pounds of waste. About one-third of that waste is recycled and the rest finds its way to the landfill. Once in the landfill, vegetable matter takes three years to break down, paper takes five years, and a tree branch takes 10 years. The rest virtually never breaks down. You can help by reducing, reusing and recycling. Begin at your desk. Keep a box handy for all your recyclable paper. Use this paper for scratch before placing it in the recycle bin. Consider using double sided copies. Ask that your Daily be sent to you through BeyondMail. If you have questions about recycling on campus, contact the Recycling Center at 2714. Watch The Daily for more recycling news.

Cancellations

- Personal Power workshop Wednesday, April 24, 1-4 p.m., M&A 235.
- Process Redesign Leadership Team, Friday, April 26. Next meeting is May 10.

ASLCC elections are May 6, 7, 8

Staff can and should encourage students to vote in the ASLCC elections on May 6, 7 and 8. Staff should not attempt to influence the outcome of the election by advocating for or against a particular candidate or ballot measure. Whatever issues emerge in the election process are student issues that should be decided by the students. If you have any questions regarding ASLCC elections please contact Barbara Delansky at 2337.

Workshops and trainings

- PowerPoint workshop, today, 4-5:30 p.m., CEN 421. RSVP Mary Schreiber, 2263.

Change management handouts available

Any manager who did not receive the change management handout during Friday's Managers' Forum meeting may call the President's Office for a copy at 2200.

Americans consume more paper than anyone else

Do you recycle? Each American uses about 580 pounds of paper a year, the highest per capita consumption in the world. How much more could you recycle? Did you know it's okay to leave staples in? And okay to recycle envelopes with windows? Paper made from recycled waste uses 50 percent less water and 60 percent less energy. Recycled office paper is made into writing paper, printing and copy paper, tissue and paper towels. Unrecycled paper ends up in the landfill. For more information on recycling on campus, call the Recycling Center at 2714.

Don't put off procrastination workshop

PTK advisor and chapter earn top national awards—again!

Dr. Velma Jessor has won the Phi Theta Kappa Paragon Award for the second straight year. The award is bestowed on the top 25 chapter advisors of the two-year college international honor society. Lane's chapter, Sigma Zeta, also earned a five-star rating for the second straight year, the highest possible rank. These awards were presented at the PTK international meeting in Washington DC from April 19-21.

PERS statements available

The long-awaited PERS statements have arrived and should be in departments by Friday. Please verify them for accuracy and notify PERS for any corrections on birthdate, social security number or name. If the beneficiary is incorrect, or you have not designated a beneficiary, a beneficiary change form can be picked up in Personnel. This year's interest rates are 12.5 percent for regular accounts and 29.92 percent for variable. Remember, if you made a change in the distribution between regular and variable in 1995, it will reflect on the 1996 statement that will be sent to you next year.

Change of marital status on insurance

When you have a change in your marital status due to death, divorce or legal separation, you will need to delete your spouse from medical, vision and dental insurance coverage since they no longer qualify as a dependent under these plans. Change of status forms can be completed in Personnel Services. Remember, when you delete a spouse from insurance coverage because he/she is no longer a dependent, the college will offer them the option to self-pay for coverage for a period of 36 months or longer. If you have questions about your spouse's coverage and/or continuation, contact Personnel Services at 2211.

There are answers to your recycling questions

Student and staff support have helped increase recycling efforts on campus. However, if recycling is an unfamiliar process to you, the Recycling Center can help. Do you know where your recycle bin is? These barrels, many donated by Weyerhaeuser, are located all over campus for recyclable paper. Boxes for cardboard are located near most of the barrels. If you're uncertain where to place your recyclables or have other questions, call 2714.

Faculty jazz concert

Performing Arts' annual faculty jazz concert will be held Tuesday, April 30, at 8 p.m. in the Blue Door Theater. Performing will be John Workman, piano; Carl Woideck, sax; Chris Sorenson, guitar; Tim Clarke, trumpet; Nathan Waddell, bass; and Jim Reinking, drums. They will present classics and surprises. Tickets are $4 staff, $4 students, and $6 public. Call 2202.

Workshop: Handling workplace pressure

"Handling Workplace Pressure" will be offered Tuesday, April 30, from 10 a.m.-noon, or 1-3 p.m., in PE 205. Learn about the sources and potential damage of on-the-job stress, assess your stress signals, your current job stress "hot spots", and the coping strategies you are using. Learn quick "take five" skills for managing stress on the job. Preregister by calling 7775.

Help students find jobs? This meeting's for you

What Do Employers Want?

Hear about traits employers look for in an employee. Learn about drug and alcohol testing and related matters in the workplace. This discussion will be presented on Wednesday, May 1, as part of the Career Fair '96. Attend either the session held from 11 a.m. to 12 noon in the Boardroom or the one from 1 to 2 p.m. in PE 205. Representatives from the Oregon Department of Employment, Pape and Columbia Helicopters will be on hand for the discussion. Students, staff members and community members are encouraged to attend. For more information call Jan Brandstrom at 2443 or Gary McKenzie, Mechanical Tech, 2379.

Fun Fitness

Calling all LCC walkers, joggers and runners; come enjoy the camaraderie and enthusiastic support of your fellow fitness seekers. The event, called the "Corporate Challenge", invites walkers and runners of all levels to come out and enjoy the beautiful 5K (3.1 mile) course on behalf of their organization. The course begins and ends at the EWEB River Edge Plaza, along the Willamette River. The race begins on May 11 at 9:30 a.m. and costs $8 for early registration (pre-May 6) and $10 on the day of event. The registration covers individual finishing medals and certificates, food and team awards. For an additional $8 you can receive a commemorative T-shirt. Pick up your entry form and get your name on the team list at either the Math Resource Center, Math 211 or Health & PE office. If you have questions, please contact Karen Louise White at 687-1304 or Patrick M. Lanning at 2552.

Skupsky will demonstrate so participants will leave with a working knowledge for using the techniques in the classroom. Meet other faculty and share good food and learning tips.

Updated computer support standards issued today

The Computer Support Committee has completed its review of the collegewide standards for supported hardware and software and is issuing an updated list attached to today's Daily. The committee has changed the process for submitting revisions in the future. Requests for revisions to the list may be made at any time and will be reviewed once each term by the committee. Changes to the supported hardware and software list will be issued as needed.

The Computer Support Committee received several requests to add Windows 95 to the list of supported software. The committee issued a memorandum to PC computer users on August 24, 1995 explaining that Windows 95 could not be supported at that time due to incompatibilities with Lane's wide area network. Since then, staff of Computer Services have been testing Windows 95 using the latest version of the Banyan network operating system. There are still significant problems using Windows 95 with the Banyan network drivers. Until all problems can be resolved, Windows 95 cannot be supported for computers linked to the college network. To maximize resources available for technical support, the committee has elected at this time to support only Windows 3.x and Mac 7.x. Migration to any new operating system will need to be a planned "phase-in" while the older operating system is phased-out. In the meantime, staff may use Windows 95 on stand-alone computers or for instructional purposes on computers not linked to the wide area network. To avoid adversely affecting the wide area network, please call the Help Desk at 4155 prior to installing Windows 95.

The list of supported hardware and software, the format for requesting revisions, and other pertinent information about the college's computer standards may be found on the Computer Support Committee's web page via the college business link on Lane's home page. E-mail questions to the committee at COMPUTER\_X\_SUPPORTCOMM@COLLOPS\_MA@lcc.
