Joyce Godels named interim chair

Joyce Godels was named interim chair of Family & Health Careers effective July 1 for one year. She has been with Lane since 1990 as associate chair. Joyce has 30 years experience as a nurse, administrator and educator including positions at the Medical University of South Carolina, Purdue University and various hospitals. She has also operated a private practice in individual and family therapy. Joyce earned a bachelor of science in nursing at Loyola University in 1964, studied at Indiana University, and earned a master of science in psychiatric nursing from St. Xavier College in 1974. Photo by John Bauguess

Today

- * Instructional Services Council, 1:30-3 p.m., Boardroom.
- * Curriculum Approval Committee, 3:15 p.m., Boardroom.

Free tutoring available to students

Please refer students to the free, drop-in tutoring available all over campus, including the Writing Center, Business Technology and Business Administration (in the NE corner of the cafeteria), Math, Social Science (outside CEN 481), Multicultural Center, Native American Student Association gatherings, and more. Schedules are still being set up as tutors are still being hired from one of the three sources available. There are work-study tutors, Learn to Earn tutors and those hired directly from the tutoring budget, all providing the same valuable one-on-one service to students. There are yellow and salmon bookmarks all over campus that list all the locations of the free, drop-in tutoring as well as who is responsible for coordinating for each subject area. The bookmarks have study skills or writing tips on the back. If you'd like a stack to give to your students, call me. Also, if you can identify a student who would make an excellent tutor in your subject area, pass on the recommendation to the person coordinating that area, or call me directly. Be on the look out for "T-shirt Tuesdays", when many of the tutors and coordinators will wear our blue tutor T-shirts funded in part by a marketing grant. Feel free to contact me with questions or comments. - Liz Coleman, director of tutoring services, 2783

Book buyer warning

Seller Beware: Recently a "book buyer" approached one of Lane's instructional departments, offering to purchase books from faculty. Anyone offering to purchase your "complimentary" books may be referred to Bookstore manager Shelley Dutton at 2675 or to Bookstore book buyer Tracy Rea at 2677. Many faculty members and departments receive "complimentary" and "free copy" books they have not requested and do not need. Items you receive as an agent of the college may not be sold for personal gain, under Board Policy 5B.010. The Bookstore does not buy "free" or "complimentary" books from students, faculty or used book wholesalers. To do so is considered unethical by many members of the academic, publishing and bookselling communities.

MS Access workshop

Sylvia Sandoz will lead a two-hour workshop on Microsoft Access basics (PC based only). this Friday, October 3, from 2-4 p.m. in BUS 209. The session will cover the basics of creating tables, forms, queries and mailing labels with survey research as the overriding theme. Whether you are interested in processing survey data or interested in knowing more about MS Access, this workshop is for you. Windows (or Mac) experience helpful. Database experience not required. For more information, call 2779.

Write yourself up

The Daily is accepting reader contributions announcing new employees. A resume is preferred but a fill-in-the-blank form is available upon request. Departments may want to contribute group photos of their entire staff. A camera is available or a photo can be arranged. For more information, contact Joan Aschim by e-mail or call 2591.

ATTACHMENT

Today's attachment is the first draft of Lane's technology vision from the Technology Advisory and Coordinating Team. TACT invites feedback. To respond, attend one of these meetings: Tuesday, Oct. 7, 3-4 p.m., in M&A 235, or Wednesday, Oct. 8, 3-4 p.m., in M&A 248; or e-mail TACT@CMPS_MA, or check the TACT website under College Business on Lane's home page.

THANKS

The Cottage Grove staff is beginning to settle into the new LCC facility after our grand opening on September 16. Construction of the building began on July 1, 1996. Since that time we received help from a number of departments. We are grateful to many people who helped with preparing our wonderful new building and assisting with our grand opening celebration. The following departments and offices contributed to ensure our successful beginning in our new location: Audio Visual Services; Bookstore; Campus Services; College Finance; College Operations Office; Computer Services; Distance Learning; Electronic Services; Food Services; Institutional Advancement; Instructional Computing; Instructional Services Office; President's Office; Printing/Graphics; and Purchasing. On behalf of the Cottage Grove staff and the residents of South Lane County, thank you. - Don Strahan

Donna Koechig returns as Counseling director

Donna Koechig (KAY-kee) returned as director of Counseling late this summer. She was first hired in November 1995 but had to leave Lane after six months due to family illnesses. While gone from Lane she worked in Kansas City, MO as a change management consultant on a project to reform the state and local human service delivery system. She has provided management consulting, organizational development, professional development, and counseling services to many private and public institutions in the US, Cuba and the Philippines. She is a licensed clinical social worker. Donna earned a doctorate in educational and counseling psychology in 1993 and a master of social work in 1980, both from the University of Missouri at Columbia. She also did undergraduate and graduate work at Southeast Missouri State University where she earned her bachelor of science degree in social work and psychology. Photo by John Bauguess.

Introducing Lane's web calendar

Tomorrow, the college's web site will have a new feature: an on-line events and meetings calendar accessed by visiting Calendars on the college's home page. The calendar will list events, meetings and other timely things of interest. Anyone anywhere in the world who has access to Lane's web site can view the calendar.

Here's how it works. Each department that wants to enter items will be given a password and instructed how to use the calendar. The password used to enter an item also must be used to change it. Events will automatically disappear as they occur. Events specifically intended for the public also will be forwarded to a community-wide calendar sponsored by HometownOnline. There is one password per department listed in the college directory.

The calendar is being developed by Institutional Advancement with encouragement from College Council and the Web Site Steering Committee and funding from a $1,500 grant from the Schafer Innovation Fund and $1,500 in matching funds from the president and each of the vice presidents.

Several departments have participated in a pilot project and already have their passwords. Their calendar items will be on-line on Friday. When your department is ready for a password and instructions, e-mail Therese Picado in Institutional Advancement. Also, visit the calendar and let her know via e-mail how it works for you. It's anticipated that there may be bugs to work out at first, but the calendar should prove to be a real service to staff, students and community members.

Brown bag talk to focus on ending domestic violence

The Women's Program will be hosting the first Brown Bag Talk of Fall term on Tuesday, Oct. 7 from 1-2:30 in PE 205. The speaker will be Candice Slaughter, president and CEO of the Women's PeacePower Foundation based in Dade County, Florida. She will discuss her current work focusing on domestic violence prevention at the grassroots level. She will also talk about her work as a founder of the clemency movement for battered women who have been incarcerated for acting in self-defense. Please bring your lunch and join us for this unique opportunity to meet with a nationally known leader in the movement to end domestic violence.

Meet coaches and athletes at open house

An open house for Recreational Sports, Club Sports, Varsity Athletics, and Special Events will be held Wednesday, Oct. 8, from 3-5 p.m. in the main gym lobby. Come meet lane coaches and athletes, and enjoy the refreshments.

Raft trip offered

A few spots are still available for a lower McKenzie River raft trip on Sunday, Oct. 12. Transportation will be provided from main campus. The cost is $25 (plus $10 refundable deposit) for faculty, staff and the public. Stop by PE 204 for more information.

Deadline near for open enrollment for faculty

Faculty open enrollment is Sept. 15 through Oct. 15. Changes in coverage are effective Nov. 1. Faculty may change from one medical insurance to the other (the options are OEA Choice and HMO Oregon) or add dependents to medical and/or dental insurance. For more information, contact Personnel Services at 2211, 0.

Synergy training offered

The next Synergy training will be held on October 10 from 1-5 p.m. In order to reserve a room that meets our needs, we will need to know the number of trainees. Please RSVP by e-mail before the close of business on Oct. 6. Location will be announced on Oct. 8.

MS Access workshop

Sylvia Sandoz will lead a two-hour workshop on Microsoft Access basics (PC based only) on Friday, Oct. 3, from 2-4 p.m. in BUS 209. The session will cover the basics of creating tables, forms, queries, and mailing labels with survey research as the overriding theme. Whether you are interested in processing survey data or interested in knowing more about MS Access, this workshop is for you. Windows (or Mac) experience helpful. Database experience not required. ### ROSH HASHANAH THANKS

Friday is the first day of Rosh Hashanah 5758, and the new year begins at sunset today. I would like to thank Don Patton in Training & Development for his cultural awareness and sensitivity in offering to teach my class today so that I can have Rosh Hashanah off, and also for his willingness to teach my class later this month when my family will be visiting from Israel so that I can have some time with them.
- Tzvi Lachman, Training & Development

Shirley Nagy named outstanding employee

Shirley Nagy of Printing/Graphics is Outstanding Employee of the Month for October. She was visited Thursday morning by members of the Classified Professional Development Team, a camera crew from LCC Today, and other well-wishers. Shirley is an integral part of the P/G team and is, as one person noted, "a whirlwind of activity." She's creative and gives every job her utmost attention. She has a great sense of humor and an incredible rapport with her colleagues. She is very deserving of this award.

On-line catalog is on the web

The 1997-98 on-line college catalog for credit instructional departments is up! To view it, go to the college home page, choose "Classes and Programs," then "On-line College Catalog." Both the printed and on-line catalogs are published by Institutional Advancement. While the printed catalog is published once a year, the on-line catalog will be updated quarterly. IA asks credit departments to do three things to help ensure the accuracy of the on-line catalog:

1. Carefully proof the new on-line catalog to see if anything was changed in the translation.
2. Notify Susan Sutton and copy Therese Picado, both in IA, in writing or e-mail of changes in information as they occur. Changes will be made quarterly after they have been approved by Curriculum and Scheduling.
3. Do not duplicate or alter catalog information, but rather link to the official on-line catalog.

New information available on Personnel Services website

Personnel Services' web site has a new feature called "Staff Resources" that provide information for "Accommodations for Staff with Disabilities" and "Classified Training & Development Fund". More topics will be available in the future. To access Personnel Services' web site, go to Lane's home page, choose "College Business", then choose "Personnel Services".

Writer will share tips

Have you ever wished you knew the answer to a puzzling grammar question? Linn-Benton Community College teacher and writer Douglas Cazort will answer that question for you – with humor! Join Cazort as he presents "Write Smarter, Not Harder! Seven Habits of Highly Effective Writers" on Tuesday, Oct. 7, from 3-4:30 p.m. in CEN 420. In his books, "Under the Grammar Hammer" and "Chairman Cazort's Little Red Book of Writing", Cazort brings liveliness and a sense of humor to grammar and punctuation. Listeners can expect to be entertained as well as enlightened at his presentation. Bring colleagues and students! Refreshments will be served. Sponsored by the Lane Writers' Club. Questions? Call Kathleen Shull at 2118 or Sharon Thomas at 2760.

Carl Perkins grant orientation scheduled

An orientation for administrators receiving Carl Perkins Title II Grant funds for programs will be held Thursday, Oct. 16, from 9-11 a.m. in the Boardroom. Topics will include federal reporting requirements, budget procedures, grant monitoring, time and effort sheets, quarterly reports, and end-of-the-year reports. It is recommended that all personnel working with the administration of the Carl Perkins grant attend this meeting. If you have any questions regarding the Carl Perkins grant or the orientation, please contact Bob Way or Carol Woodman at 2509.

Annual Advisory Committee recognition night

The Professional Technical Education Coordinating Committee invites all advisory committee members to attend an evening in recognition of their valuable contributions to the college. The event is set for Thursday, Nov. 20, from 5:30-7:30 p.m. in the cafeteria. Advisory committee executive secretaries will be asked to invite their committee members to attend. Dinner will be prepared and served by Lane's culinary arts students. Contact Bob Way or Teri Coddington at 2203 if you have questions and/or to RSVP.

TIP helps teachers and students succeed

Student success often depends on the teacher in the classroom. The Teaching Improvement Process (TIP) is one way for teachers to work toward teaching excellence. Contracted and continuing part-time instructors are invited to participate in TIP, Lane's term-long, confidential and enriching program. TIP has been at Lane since 1982, and over 100 teachers have participated since then. Teachers will be observed by and will consult with a non-threatening, trained consultant, be videotaped, receive a computerized analysis of student responses to a specific class, and get many new ideas. It's not too late to begin this fall! Apply for any term for the 1997-98 academic year by calling Sharon Thomas at 2760.

Reception to honor award winner and 38 new employees

Mark your calendars for Oct. 29, 3-4:30 p.m. to meet 38 new employees, honor Shirley Nagy as Classified Employee of the Month for October, and share at the open mike! Watch for a Daily attachment for further information.

Meet Patrick Lanning

Patrick Lanning was appointed chair of Health & Physical Education this summer, after six months as interim chair. He was coordinator of the Fitness Education Center from 1993-96 and a part-time physical education instructor from 1992-93. He was a track coach at the University of Oregon from 1989-93 and was an International Track and Field Athlete sponsored by Nike for six years. Patrick served as an Olympic developmental hurdle coach for two years while coaching at the U of O. He was president of the Oregon International Nike Track Team from 1993-95. Patrick has a bachelor of science degree in psychology (1989) and master of science degree in social-psychology of sports (1992), both from the U of O. Patrick and his wife Erika recently celebrated their son Bridger's first birthday. Patrick enjoys golfing, hiking, running, snorkeling, and reading with his son. He can be reached at Ext. 2547. Photo by John Bauguess.

- * action on endorsement of Ballot Measure 52

Carl Perkins grant internships available

The college has Carl Perkins II Grant funds available for staff internships during the 1997-98 funding period. Applications for the use of these funds are now being taken and are due in the Cooperative Education office by Nov. 14. Applicants will be notified by Dec. 1 of their award status. The following criteria will be used for determining award eligibility:

- * Internships are to address the Oregon education reform agenda.
- * Internships are to be with local employers within commuting distance of the college.
- * Internships are open to all state approved credit disciplines and must be related to one of the following CAM areas: Arts and Communication, Business Management, Health Services, Industrial and Engineering Systems.
- * Applicants are to show how their internship will enhance/articulate curriculum with work force needs.
- * Applicants are responsible for making internship arrangements.
- * Application must be approved by division chair.
- * Internships must be completed by June 30, 1998.

Call Carol Woodman or Bob Way at 2509 for an application.

Managers' Forum to meet

Managers' Forum will meet Friday, Oct. 10, from 8:30-10 a.m., in the Boardroom. The agenda: 1) review of the ratified faculty collective bargaining agreement, and 2) review of the ramifications of the Employment Relations Board order in the matter of the federation's petition to join less than .5 FTE classified to the existing unit. Contact: Tracy Simms, 2889.

Oil paintings by Jerry Ross on exhibit in the Library

Artist Jerry Ross will exhibit 10 oil paintings in the Library's Mezzanine Art Gallery during October. Many of the works were completed in Italy during the summer of 1996. The show includes landscapes and portraits, including a large oil of Flavio Avignonesi, an exchange student from Rome who lived with Angela and Jerry Ross during the summer of 1997 while attending Lane.

A series of landscapes are of the famous battleground surrounding the town of Livergnano, which was contested by German and US infantry during World War II and which is famous in military history as one of the most difficult battles of the war. The Rosses lived in Livergnano during the summer of 1996 as guests of the Renaissance scholar Pier-Cesare Bori. A portrait inspired by 19th century Venetian painter Lancerotto was influenced by Ross's study of modern Italian museum art. In Italy, "modern art" is regarded as anything done after the 18th century.

Music faculty concert to be held

The faculty music concert, "Kaleidoscope '97", will be held Friday, Oct. 10 at 8 p.m. in Performing Arts main theater. Performing will be Alice Burke, Dennis Caffey, Kristina Carlson, Larry Clabby, Craig Einhorn, Jim Greenwood, Richard Meyn, Christine Mirabella, Barbara Myrick, and Betsy Parker. A reception will follow. Proceeds will help fund individual lesson scholarships for music students. Staff may purchase tickets for $4 at the door. The ticket office number is 2202.

AAWCC scholarship fund-raising underway

The LCC Chapter of AAWCC will honor Paula A. McGuerty on Tuesday, Oct. 14, at noon in the Boardroom, as the first recipient of the chapter's Leadership Award scholarship. The $1,500 award was made possible by a fund-raising campaign chaired by member Sarah Ulerick. The chapter's next campaign seeks to raise $30,000 to maintain this scholarship program for women students at Lane. Details are available from Miriam Castellón at 2315. Contributions can be made through the LCC Foundation.

Writing Center serves students, staff

The Writing Center's qualified peer tutors are happy to assist all Lane students (and staff) with writing assignments for any class they are taking at Lane. The writer can bring in writing at any stage – from a vague idea to a finished draft – and the tutor will help develop, organize, edit, and proofread, but the pen stays in the hands of the writer. Though tutors do not do the writer's research or writing, they will work with the writer to discover effective techniques and possible sources of evidence for a thesis. The center operates on a drop-in basis and is located in the lobby near CEN 460. Tutors are available from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. Mondays through Fridays. Services are free.

C-SPAN enters the classroom

Student Robin Roberts and instructor Steve Candee.

This fall, students in Steve Candee's American Government classes may see history being made right before their eyes. Their classroom soon will feature C-SPAN, the national television network which provides live coverage of Congress.

Candee, a political science instructor and cooperative education coordinator for the past 11 years at Lane, has participated in the "C-SPAN in the Classroom" program and has looked for ways to incorporate the program more fully into the curriculum. Last summer he participated in C-SPAN's Seminar for Professors held August 14-15 in Washington, DC. Of nearly 5,000 program members, he was one of only 27 participants selected to attend the seminar, the only community college instructor, and the only attendee from Oregon. He was joined by professors of political science, journalism, speech, and media arts.

C-SPAN is valued as an educational resource because it has no commercial sponsors and avoids political bias. "C-SPAN is like a fly on the wall," says Candee. "They simply record what happens, free from the editorializing that takes place on other networks. Even the camera angles they use are selected to avoid any appearance of political bias." He notes that while the Congressional Record is an edited document, C-SPAN provides the only actual account of what transpires on Capital Hill.

While at the seminar, Candee received $350 in coupons redeemable for C-SPAN videos and other education materials, and he enjoyed one serendipitous moment: he met US Secretary of Labor Alexis M. Herman one day in the elevator during the UPS strike.

Debate students place second

Forensics coach Nancy Nichols took the Lane debate team to its first competition of the year last weekend, the OSU Beaver Classic. Eight schools and 22 teams competed. Lane team members Alex Ralph and Jessika Jensen took second place in open competition. "This is fantastic!" reports Nancy. She can be reached at 2145 for more information.

New visa cards to be issued

On August 1, US Bank and First Bank Systems based in Minneapolis, MN, merged. As a result of the merger, new VISA cards have been issued with new card numbers. The current VISA cards which you now have will no longer be active after Oct. 15, 1997, regardless of the expiration date. Therefore, please have a designated user/signer bring the VISA cards you are now using to College Finance/Accounts Payable area in order to receive your new card. They will become available on Oct. 13.

Some of the newly issued cards have been encoded or printed wrong, so they will need to be replaced and ordered again. Department applications for new card issues will be delayed until all current VISA cards have been distributed. Thank you for your cooperation and patience. If you have any questions, please call Julie Copley at 2600.

More flu shots

Due to popular demand, Student Health is adding another flu shot clinic on Tuesday, Oct. 21, from 7-8:45 a.m. The other clinics are mostly full, but we do have a few times left. Call Donna or Sydney at 2665 to set up an appointment. The paperwork and the fee need to be paid in Student Health sometime before the appointment to ensure that the clinics run smoothly.

ASLCC defines its goals

ASLCC has chosen three major goals and selected commissions for 1997/98: (1) student visibility and communication, chaired by Heather Rodriguez; (2) student housing and stipend program, co-chaired by Angela Wright-Clark and Pamela Brooks; and (3) promotion of the arts on campus, chaired by Choul Rei Wou. In addition, says president Danny Armanino, ASLCC will always respond to student concerns which include, but are not limited to: full-time students being back on the Oregon Health Plan, LTD negotiations, and upcoming legislative issues such as fully funding the need grant.

Student Records notice

Phone numbers and addresses of currently enrolled students may no longer be released to the public on request. Directory information which can be released for current and past students is their major, period of enrollment, degree or certificate earned, date of graduation, honors, most recent previous institution attended, and height/weight of athletic team members. However, before any of this information can be released, you must first check the Student Inquiry Screen in COCO315 to make sure there is no "1" or "2" in the Restrict field, which indicated that absolutely no information is to be given out to anyone, not even the acknowledgment that a person is a student. An appropriate response would be, "There is no information on that person." Do not say "I can't release any information on that student," as that would acknowledge that the person is or was enrolled. For more information, contact Sharon Williams at 2686 or Elaine Matchett at 2895. Elaine is very willing to come to your department and discuss and educate all on the Federal Education Right to Privacy Act (FERPA).

Board report

The Board of Education approved the faculty contract with a 5-0 vote at its Oct. 8 meeting; Pat Riggs-Henson and Adam Young were absent from the room during the vote. In a 6-1 vote, the board authorized staff to explore loaning Ashlane funds to a nonprofit agency to build and operate housing for the exclusive use of low-income Lane students. Jim Pitney voted no, citing concerns that the college should not get into the housing business.

In a 4-3 vote, the board approved principles and criteria for the 1998/99 budget process. Roger Hall, Pat Riggs-Henson and Larry Romine voted no, objecting to a criteria favoring the community learning centers and lack of any criteria favoring faculty retention.

The board endorsed Ballot Measure 52, which would use lottery funds for K-12 bonds. Adam Young abstained saying he was unable to vote for anything related to gambling or against anything potentially helpful to schools.

In other action, the board approved naming the main campus west entrance driveway after Dale Parnell, with a ceremony to be held later; approved purchase of lighting fixtures for several campus buildings; approved budget transfers; and approved Robert Clark as interim media arts instructor. The board reviewed the draft affirmative action plan.

Speakers included faculty union president Margaret Bayless, who introduced other union officers; county commissioner Peter Sorenson, who advocated for an LTD bus pass and the administration's Ashlane proposal; classified union president Alen Bahret, who advocated for part-time employees, several of whom attended the meeting; computer information technology instructor Bob Barber, who called for action on part-time faculty recommendations in the Future Faculty Task Force report; and past faculty union president Dennis Gilbert who advocated for part-time classified employees.

In his report, President Jerry Moskus noted that he was misquoted by The Register-Guard for the first time in 7-1/2 years in this week's bond story. "What I said was, 'It won't matter as much 50 years from now that we stayed on schedule as that we did a good job in our planning and construction.'" He also said he delivered the keynote speech at Colorado Mountain College's 30th anniversary on Tuesday and that he judged clam chowder at a recent Florence community festival.

Wendell Anderson honored

Wendell Anderson, part-time instructor for Business Technologies, received an honorable mention in a writing contest sponsored by the Oregon Council of Teachers of English. Anderson received his award in the short essay category. His essay, along with 15 other winning entries, was read at OCTE's annual conference on Oct. 10 and will be included in an anthology, "Teachers as Writers: Models for the Classroom," to be published by OCTE.

Orientation planned for political science and pre-law co-op

The general orientation for Cooperative Education in political science and pre-law will be held Tuesday, Oct. 14, from 3-5 p.m. in CEN 446. Featured guest will be Katherine Jernberg, director of admissions at the University of Oregon Law School, who will speak about what students need to be thinking about and courses they should consider taking if they plan to go on to law school. Guests are welcome. Contact: Steve Candee, 2188.

Legislative team endorses BM 52

The Legislative Action Team endorsed Ballot Measure 52 at its Oct. 2 meeting and sent a recommendation of endorsement to the Board of Education, which followed suit at its Oct. 8 meeting. BM 52 will be on the Nov. 4 by-mail election. If passed, it will authorize $150 million in state lottery funds for elementary and secondary school capital construction, maintenance and equipment projects. BM 52 does not directly impact Lane but does impact feeder schools and students in Lane's district. Contact: Dixie Maurer-Clemons, LAT Co-Chair, 2423

Art gallery installs "Six Tulips"

An installation of paintings, sculpture, text, and 120 tulip bulbs called "Six Tulips" by artist Jean Gallagher, associate professor of art at California State University at Chico, will be exhibited in the Art Department Gallery from Oct. 20 through Nov. 7. A lecture by the artist will be held on Monday, Oct. 20 at noon in FOR 309, sponsored in part by the Associated Students of Lane Community College.

Jean Marchese Gallagher received her BFA in 1975 and MFA in 1980 at the University of South Carolina. In 1993 she completed her doctor of arts in studio art at New York University with an emphasis on multimedia installations using technology. Inspiration for this exhibit began in 1992 when Gallagher bought a house with an abandoned yard and discovered under bits of disintegrating black plastic a complex, beautiful web of surfaced roots, fat writhing earthworms and tangled weeds. She at first turned away in disgust, but the image stuck in her mind and invited her to begin to repair the land. Since then she has planted nearly one thousand plants.

Art Department Gallery hours are Mondays through Thursdays from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. and Fridays from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. For more information, call 2409.

League offers "Innovations 1998" conference

The League for Innovation presents "Innovations 1998" from June 28-July 1, 1998 in Dallas. The conference is "dedicated to improving student and organizational learning through innovation, experimentation, and institutional transformation." For a brochure, contact Addi Lou Willis at 2120.

Meet Nanci LaVelle

Nanci LaVelle was appointed interim chair of the new Division of Arts this summer. She oversees Art and Applied Design, Media Arts and Technology and Performing Arts.

Nanci has taught media arts at Lane since 1987. She has served on Faculty Council, Academic Council, Degree Requirement Review Committee, and many other groups.

Before Lane, she taught in the telecommunications, film and speech department at the University of Oregon from 1986-90; at California State University-Chico from 1982-86; at Ventura Junior College District from 1980-82; and at Ventura Unified School District from 1978-80. She held leadership positions on organizations in each community.

She has won many awards, including the Eugene Human Rights Commission Human Rights Recognition Award in 1996 and several teaching and scholarship awards. She has published, produced and presented widely.

Nanci completed a doctorate at the University of Oregon in 1995. She earned a master of arts from the University of California at Los Angeles in 1984 and a bachelor of arts from CSU-Chico in 1978.

She can be reached at 2139.

Faculty open enrollment extended

Due to substantial HMO cost increases, the deadline for changing medical plans has been extended to Oct. 22 (from Oct. 15) at 5 p.m., with coverage changes effective Nov. 1. The HMO medical premium increases will nearly double the employee contribution beginning with the December payroll. For example, the $36.51 full family contribution will be over $70. - Darlene Sherman, Personnel Services, 2586

New VISA cards to be issued

US Bank and First Bank Systems have merged and as a result, new VISA cards have been issued with new card numbers. The current VISA cards which you now have will no longer be active after Oct. 15, 1997, regardless of the expiration date. Please have a designated user/signer bring the VISA cards you are now using to College Finance/Accounts Payable area to receive your new card. Some of the newly issued cards have been encoded or printed wrong, so they will need to be replaced and ordered again. Department applications for new card issues will be delayed until all current VISA cards have been distributed. Thank you for your cooperation and patience. If you have any questions, please call Julie Copley at 2600.

Status of dependent children notice

Dependent children should be deleted from medical, vision and dental insurance coverage when they no longer qualify as dependents. A dependent child is defined as one who is unmarried, under age 25 or 23 (for Oregon Dental Service), residing with you or a full-time student, and reported as a dependent on your income tax statement. When a dependent loses eligibility status, they may be eligible to continue group insurance coverage by applying within 60 days of the qualifying event and paying the premiums for continuous coverage.

Road to close for track meet

Eldon Schafer Drive (main campus east entrance) will be closed on Saturday, Nov. 1, from 9 a.m.-4 p.m., for the OSAA High School State Cross Country meet. Gonyea Road (west entrance) will be open; however, tickets sales will occur at that entrance. If you are working or attending classes that day, notify the ticket sellers. Thanks for your patience and cooperation.

Kay Lutz-Ritzheimer wins leadership award

Kay Lutz-Ritzheimer of Eugene, Division Chair of Business and Computer Technologies, was named Administrator of the Year for 1997 by the Oregon Business and Management Educators at the association's annual conference in Albany on Oct. 10. The award is given annually to an outstanding leader from the state's secondary and post-secondary institutions.

Kay joined Lane in October 1993 to chair the Business Department. This June, she was appointed Division Chair of the Business and Computer Technologies Division. Prior to Lane, she served as executive director of the Montana Entrepreneurship Center and was an assistant professor in the School of Business Administration at the University of Montana.

Active in educational reform, Kay has served on the Business and Management CAM Steering Committee and the state task force for program assessment. Regional work includes service to the Northwest Association of Schools and Colleges Commission on Colleges. Work with the local business community includes serving on the Eugene Chamber of Commerce Emerging Work Force Committee.

In addition to her duties at Lane, she is a doctoral student in the Oregon State University Community College Leadership doctoral program.

Kay lives in Eugene and has a son, Mark, and daughter, Kara, both recent graduates of Willamette University.

LCCEF officer position nomination forms due Friday

Nomination forms for LCCEF officer positions are due Friday, Oct. 17, by 5 p.m. A general membership meeting will be held today, at noon in PE 205.

Dixie Maurer-Clemons and Chuck Fike receive certificates

Dixie Maurer-Clemons, Cooperative Education faculty, and Chuck Fike, Proficiency Skills Program manager, were honored this fall by the US Forest Service. Each received a Certificate of Appreciation for donating their time to review the Taylor Dunes Trail and Trailhead for compliance with Americans With Disabilities Act and accessibility for disabled individuals. Their recommendations were implemented and resulted in a trail that "many people will find easier and more enjoyable" says Jessica Dole of the Forest Service.

Don't miss the bus!

Friday, Oct. 17 is the last day to register for the fall bus excursion to the Oregon Coast on Saturday, October 25. The excursion is sponsored by the Classified Professional Development Team and LCCEF. The trip includes visits to the Oregon Coast Aquarium, Depoe Bay and Lincoln City outlet mall. For more information, refer to the flyer that was attached to the Sept. 25 Daily. Sign up for the trip by paying $25/per person at College Finance. - Gloria Vanderhorst, 2308

Call for input for Students First!

Process Redesign Project Managers, Marie Matsen, Mary Spilde, Linda Waddell, and Donna Koechig, have already received input from a number of individuals, plus the KPMG consultants, about what is needed to move forward with implementing the Students First! recommendations. Although the project managers have heard from many employees, they are providing one more opportunity for individuals to give input before a final decision is made on how to proceed. The input session is scheduled for Tuesday, Oct. 21, 1-2:30 p.m., in M&A 130. If you're unavailable at this time, submit your ideas for moving the Students First! Project forward to Marie Matsen by Oct. 21.

Marketing Grant deadline extended

The Marketing Grant deadline has been extended to Friday, Oct. 24. Applications are available through Angela Miller, 2268.

Faculty open enrollment extended

Due to substantial HMO cost increases, the deadline for changing medical plans has been extended to Oct. 22 (from Oct. 15) at 5 p.m., with coverage changes effective Nov. 1. The HMO medical premium increases will nearly double the employee contribution beginning with the December payroll. For example, the $36.51 full family contribution will be over $70. - Darlene Sherman, Personnel Services, 2586

Memorial service

A memorial service will be held for Ben Mastin, late husband of Sharon Mastin, administrative specialist for Business Education Center/Business Technologies, on Sunday, Oct. 19, at 1 p.m. at St. Mary's Episcopal Church, 13th and Pearl, Eugene. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to the American Heart Association.

Meet Bill Woolum

Bill Woolum was appointed interim chair of English, Foreign Language, and Speech this summer. He has taught English composition and literature at Lane since 1989. Outside the classroom he has performed Shakespeare and other stage roles, including stints at fall in-service the past couple of years. He taught while a graduate teaching fellow at the University of Oregon where he earned a master of arts in English in 1981, and at Whitworth College in Spokane, Washington, where he completed a bachelor of arts in English and history in 1976. He has been a freelance writer and an umpire for Kidsports. He can be reached at 2420. - Photo by John Bauguess.

thinking and is the primary campuswide organization for faculty to exercise its established authority over the academic program. Meetings are held the second and fourth Thursday of every month from 3 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. in the Boardroom. The next meeting is Oct. 23. Please be sure there is a representative from each department. All faculty are welcome!

Faculty Council Tackles Issues

Faculty Council met October 9 and identified the following important faculty issues to work on during the year:

- clarification and implementation of a revised incomplete policy
- continued participation in creation of new classrooms; co-sponsor with ASLCC student survey of classrooms
- development of criteria for serving students under limited budget constraints (e.g. offering developmental classes vs. college transfer, offering distance learning vs. on-campus classes)
- setting and maintaining academic standards for distance learning classes
- testing-mandatory placement tests in math, English, and reading and exit tests for competency
- assist with updating and revising OIAP (Office of Instructional Operations Administrative Procedures Manual)
- possible campuswide themes for Strategic Learning Initiative
- part-time issues related to delivering quality education
- relationship of the Faculty Council and the LCCEA

Faculty Council provides a campuswide faculty forum to clarify and synthesize faculty

Strategic Learning Initiative update

The three faculty World Wide Web servers officially go on-line today. The internet addresses are <http://slimac.lanecc.edu> for the Macintosh server, <http://slint.lanecc.edu> for the Windows NT server and <http://sliunix.lanecc.edu> for the UNIX server. The purpose of the servers is to support instruction by making it easy for instructors to publish course materials using software tools and environments with which they are familiar. Access to these servers will be available to each instructor from their desktop machines and from home. For further information, contact Ken Zimmerman about the UNIX server, Jim McCarty about the Windows NT server and Joe Escobar about the Macintosh server. Updated information will be available directly from the sites.

Writers Talk about Writing

Would you like to know more about film and filmmakers? The Lane Writers' Club will host a talk with Jack Powell, former Chair of the English, Foreign Language and Speech Department on Tuesday, Oct. 21, from 3-4:30 p.m. in CEN 9. Powell taught Film as Literature at Lane and is very active in Eugene's Very Little Theater, where he is currently directing Bedroom Farce. Powell's dynamic speaking style and exceptional knowledge of films should make this meeting very special. Bring colleagues and students! Questions? Call Kathleen Shull at 2118 or Sharon Thomas at 2760.

Ho, ho;
We gotta go.
Gotta get movin',
Gotta weave to and fro.

Ho, ho;
Don't be so slow,
Reach in your pocket
You'll reap what you sew.

Hi, hi;
We gotta let fly.
Gotta give money
So we come out high.

Hi, hi;
Don't let this pass by,
Now is your chance
You know how and why.

Hey, hey;
Y'all gotta play,
Now's not the time
for any delay.

Hey, hey;
Wait not a day,
Let's all climb on board,
Give to United Way!

Contact your United Way Campaign Manager, Tracy Simms, and give back to our community a small fraction of the benefits you derive from living in our magnificent Willamette Valley --- and at the same time, provide a helping hand to those who have come upon hard times. - Lloyd Rain, Purchasing

Today: How colleges deliver off-campus instruction

Mike Woodhead, director of Continuing/Distance Education at Treasure Valley Community College speaks today at 2:30 p.m. in APR 218 on what other colleges in the state and country are doing for delivering instruction and services to off-campus sites. Barbara Harrington and Jim Austin from Interactive Technology Group will demonstrate and talk about how they work with faculty to put classes on CD ROM for independent learning.

Strategic Learning Initiative update

From the SLI Leadership Team: Over 300 faculty and staff, including 90 part-time faculty, participated in the in-service activities in September. We have received very positive feedback from those who attended. We are seeing a spirit and energy among the faculty that is very exciting. It signals to us the importance of really making sure that projects move along and come to fruition.

Since the in-service, we have been compiling and synthesizing all of the information collected at the Tuesday overview session. We expect to use this to further the goals of the SLI. Several projects are currently underway. These are projects with college-wide impact that were started last spring by the SLI Leadership Team. All of the project teams have had at least one meeting since then and draft charters outlining the goals of each project have been developed. In addition, the servers to support MAC and NT technology are up and running; the UNIX server will be up very shortly. The SLI WEB site has been developed. Check it out on Lane's home page under College Business. We will be adding more information and opportunities to communicate on-line with each other very soon.

We expect many new innovations to come from division, department and discipline discussions as well as from individual faculty members. We encourage you to develop a proposal for any existing project area or to propose a new project area. We will publish the process for submitting these proposals within the next two weeks. In the meantime, gather your best ideas, discuss them with your colleagues and connect with the SLI.

The SLI is truly a grass roots project. We do not have everything thought through and nicely packaged. We are all creating it and all our thoughts, ideas and action will make it successful. If you are not involved yet and wish to do so, please contact one of the leadership team.

Groundbreaking celebration planned for Oakridge

The beginning of construction of the Lane Community College Learning Center at Oakridge High School will be celebrated on Monday, October 27, at 11:45 a.m. Voters endorsed community learning centers in the May 1995 bond election.

Lane has offered classes in Oakridge since 1966, but offerings have been limited due to the city's geographical isolation and limited access to technology. Lane Outreach Coordinator and member of the Oakridge Community Response Team, Deborah Fay, believes that this effort will "address a critical need identified in Oakridge's community planning process—the need for easier access to college classes and programs."

Lane Vice President of Instruction Larry Warford is confident the Oakridge center will accomplish improved access. "By using the high school as the center for community learning and incorporating advanced technological innovations, Lane will be able to increase its offerings in Oakridge and provide access to other community resources, including Oakridge's federally-funded One Stop Center." Stressing the collaborative nature of the effort, Lane President Jerry Moskus sees the new Oakridge center as an opportunity to create vital connections with the community. "We've had a presence in Oakridge, but never a place of our own," he says. "We look forward to working with our neighbors in Oakridge."

The 2,500-square-foot center will include a computer lab with 24 work stations and spaces for distance-learning activities, meetings, classes, testing/counseling, community outreach, independent study, and other needs. There will be an exterior entrance visible to the public and an entrance from inside the high school. The center is slated for completion for spring term 1998. Construction began October 13.

Culinary students offer Italian menu for fall dinner

Students in Lane's culinary, food service and hospitality program present their annual fall Classical Cuisine Dinner on Thursday, November 13, at 6 p.m. in the cafeteria. Tickets are $16.50 per person and reservations are required by Thursday, Nov. 6. For a reservation, send a check made payable to LCC ITD-Classical Cuisine Dinner and mail to ITD-Classical Cuisine Dinner, or call Willie Kealoha at 2531.

The dinner offers a tribute to the cuisine of Italy with a menu of antipasto, fugasse bread, pistou soup, linguini in white clam sauce, chicken marsala, gratineed fennel gnocchi, herbed saute of tomato, and trimisu. Vegetarian selections are available by request upon making reservations. Wine will be available for purchase.

Clinic offers low cost dental hygiene care

Low cost dental hygiene care is available to the public at the Lane Community College Dental Clinic on main campus in Eugene. Services provided include teeth cleaning and gum disease therapy, including checkup x-rays and screening exams for $25 for adults, $20 for seniors 62 and over, and $10 for children. Sealants are available for adults and children for $2 per tooth. Full mouth x-rays are available for $15. Other services include nutritional counseling, polishing and recontouring of fillings, and bacterial microscopic evaluations, all at no cost.

Students perform the services under professional supervision. Graduates of the college's two-year degree program in dental hygiene consistently enjoy a 100 percent employment rate. Lane offers one of only five such programs in Oregon. To make an appointment, call 2206.

Students may apply now for Nagasaki exchange program

Applications for the student exchange to Nagasaki Wesleyan Junior College are now available. This successful program has exchanged students with Nagasaki Wesleyan since 1984. The exchange lasts from September 1998 until the end of July 1999. While there, our student studies Japanese language and culture in a beautiful setting on the Southern Island of Kyushu. Some prior knowledge of Japanese is desirable but is not required. Interested students should contact Mason Davis, International Student Counselor, 2239, CEN 221.

Student literary competition announced

The League for Innovation and Lane Community College announce the 1997-98 Student Literary Competition. Credit students may enter any or all of these categories: short story, poetry, and personal essay. First prize is $500, second prize is $20, and third prize is $100. The deadline to enter is February 12, 1998. Entry forms and rules are available in English, Foreign Language and Speech, CEN 448, or the Writing Center near CEN 460.

THANKS

A Resounding Applause, A Hearty Thank You! A fine example of LCC staff's application to "Student's First!" was graciously demonstrated at OSSHE's campus visit on October 8. Our campus could not have successfully hosted this special event without the exemplary help from the following people: Ginger Yamamoto, Heather Hafer, Randy Lindstrom, Skip Hubbard, Barb Delansky, Frank Merrill, Tina Jaquez, Sherry Suchanek, Angela Miller, Sharon Williams, Shelley Peterson, Phil Powers, Barb McMullen, Therese Picado, Bryan Gates, Sandy Penfield, Wendy Westfall, Della Mathews, Jill Jones, Norm Kirtley. And thanks, Bimb, for sharing your office with the leftover boxes of OSSHE literature! It's great working with all of you... Luci Amabisca, High School/Community Relations.

WordPerfect training available

The Staff Technology Training program is interested in reaching WordPerfect users on staff in order to (1) help us understand who and where you are, and what version of WordPerfect you're using; (2) make sure you know about WordPerfect offerings in the current training schedule and (3) find out whether these offerings suit your needs or whether different plans are needed. Here are the items on the schedule at the moment, which are intended for users of WordPerfect 6.1 or 7.0. These classes will be taught in a Windows 95 environment but are pertinent to Windows 3.1 as well. Please register through ClassLine for these classes; use term code 2 (fall term).

Reg#	Day/Date/Time	Topic	Place
6202	Fri Oct 31 2-4	WordPerfect Basics	BUS 201
6213	Fri Nov 7 2-4	Document Formatting	BUS 201
6227	Fri Nov 14 2-4	Columns, Sections, Graphics	BUS 201
6239	Fri Nov 21 2-4	Tables and Merges	BUS 201

If you have comments or suggestions, please contact Laura Maitland in Business Technologies, who is conducting the scheduled classes, either by e-mail or at 2193.

Annual registration suggestions

It takes a whole village to do annual registration. Instructors should have received annual registration announcements to read their classes and announcement cards to hand out. (If not, call 2204). Instructors can also help by making weekly announcements to remind students to check with the Counseling and Advising Center for a schedule of annual registration advising sessions through Nov. 14.

Printing/Graphics surveys instructors

The Printing/Graphics survey was mailed to all instructors last week. Support staff was surveyed in July. Their response rate was very good and provided useful information. We hope instructors will take a few minutes and complete the survey. Printing/Graphics staff is always looking for ways to improve our service. We want to meet our customers' needs and this has proven to be an efficient way to gather information and useful comments from lots of people. If you receive a duplicate, we apologize. If we missed you, call and we will get one to you. Thank you.

William Boyer to speak

William Boyer, professor emeritus of the University of Hawaii, and author of "America's Future," will speak in Jerome Garger's Peace & Conflict Studies class on Tuesday, Nov. 4, from 11:30 a.m.-12:50 p.m. in CEN 401. His topic: Current War, Poverty and Ecocide Systems. Guests welcome.

Student literary competition announced

- * See what you're missing: check the Events Calendar under Calendars on Lane's home page.

Meet Jeff Harrison

Jeff Harrison was appointed full-time English instructor for one year this fall to teach Shakespeare, English literature and composition sequences. He joined Lane part-time in spring 1996. "I was vastly excited to become, even temporarily, a full-timer," says Jeff. "One of the major changes this allowed was teaching literature; as much as I love teaching comp, I prefer the balance that teaching both lit and comp provides."

Jeff was a graduate teaching fellow at the University of Oregon for nine years while working on his doctorate, which he completed in 1995. He taught high school English at St. Anne's-Belfield School in Charlottesville, VA, from 1981-86. From 1979-81 he coordinated education programs for the Quileute Indian Tribe in LaPush, WA, where he helped start the Quileute Tribal School. At Duke University in Durham, NC, Jeff earned a master of arts degree in 1978 and a bachelor of arts degree in 1974.

Jeff is active in the local Native American community, coordinates an Oregon Country Fair crew, likes to travel "in some unusual ways," and participates in a local tape-traders network. "I used to bicycle a lot, 'til I got this job," he says. "I also used to play tennis a lot – anybody want to help push me back into it?" He's from Jackson, TN, which he points out is also the home of Casey Jones and Carl Perkins. Jeff can be reached at 2117.

RSVP for next Synergy training

The next Synergy training is Wednesday, Nov. 11, from 8:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m. in M&A 244. If you haven't reserved a space but think you may attend, contact Gail Campbell in AA/EO at 2040 or by e-mail right away to make a reservation, since space is limited. The Synergy session following this will be in January, so if you're going to serve on a screening/interview committee during the interim but haven't yet had this training, you need to attend this session.

Cuban journalist and poet to speak

Raysa White Mas, Cuban poet and documentary journalist, will present at the Women's Program Brown Bag Talk on Thursday, Oct. 30, from 11:30 a.m.-1 p.m. in the Boardroom. Raysa is also a TV director, video artist and member of UNEAC, the Writers and Artists Union of Cuba. She will discuss the role and status of the arts and media in Cuba, including women's participation, and issues of censorship. Bring your lunch and join this rare opportunity to discuss the arts, media and cultural production in Cuba today.

Reception for artist Jerry Ross

An exhibit of oil paintings by Jerry Ross will continue through the end of the month at the Library's Mezzanine Gallery. A closing reception will be held on Thursday, Oct. 30, at 8 p.m. All are welcome to attend the reception and talk about the paintings (and Italy) with the artist. Many of the landscapes in the show were completed in Italy. Ross, who is also an instructor in the Computer Information Technology department at Lane, will participate in a two-person show at Lane's Art Department Gallery in March, and another two-person show in Italy in 1999. Friday is the final day to view his exhibit in the Library's gallery.

Faculty level change information sessions scheduled

Faculty level change information sessions will be held Monday, Nov. 3, from 3-4:30 p.m.; and Tuesday, Nov. 4, from 1-2 p.m.; both in CEN 481E (Study Skills). If you have questions, contact committee member Linda Riepe, Frank Rossini, Sharon Moore, or Pat John.

PERS retirement planning presentation

Marie Lairde from PERS will discuss retirement planning on Thursday, Nov. 6, from 2:30- 4:30 p.m. in the Boardroom. She will cover variable accounts, death and disability benefits, normal and early retirement, benefit calculations, unused sick leave, payment options, application for retirement, health insurance, work after retirement, and taxes. If you have any questions call Margaret Bayless at 2162.

Filing insurance claims

Most of the time, insurance forms needed to file a claim for payment of medical services can be completed in the admitting office of your doctor or hospital. Your identification card will have the group number and social security number on it. After services have been completed, the doctor's office or hospital office will send the claim directly to the insurance company. If you receive a statement that has not been billed to the insurance company, write your social security number and group number on the statement and send the statement to the insurance company.

THANKS

- ♥ I can't begin to thank each of you personally, but I want all of you to know how much I appreciate all the cards, phone calls, e-mail messages, flowers, prayers, and words of encouragement since the death of my husband, Ben. I treasure all of my friends at Lane – what a special group! Thank you so much. - Sharon Mastin/DTC Business Education, 2992
- ♥ We'd like to acknowledge the fine, patient and precise work done by Printing/Graphics in producing the 1997-98 Tech Prep Program Guides. Loreta, Trish, Shirley, Ram and the rest of the P/G staff did a great and gracious job over the summer to help us develop and print this publication that assists thousands of Lane County high school students to transition into Lane and further education. We really appreciate your professionalism. - Judith Gabriel and Tech Prep staff

Learning communities proposals wanted

The Learning Communities Project Team is seeking proposals for learning communities to be offered spring 1998. The learning communities project is one of the six current Strategic Learning Initiative (SLI) projects. The team is interested in receiving proposals for all forms of learning communities; from several classes reading the same book, to linked courses, to fully integrated team-taught courses. Each department will receive copies of the application form and a cover letter explaining the criteria that the team will use in evaluating proposals. The cover letter and application forms will be in departments soon. The due date is Nov. 17. If you have any questions, call Margaret Bayless at 2162.

Printing deadline reminder

Instructional packets and books needed for winter term classes should be submitted to Printing/Graphics by Thursday, Nov. 19. Materials needed for the first day of winter term should be submitted by December 8. Thanks for your cooperation.
