Budget process update

To: All Staff

From: Jerry Moskus, Mary Spilde, Larry Warford, Tracy Simms, Marie Matsen

Re: Budget process time lines

As you might remember, our budget process time lines called for budget hearings this week. We are behind schedule, primarily because we have been waiting for more revenue information from the state. We will be notifying all staff as soon as we have finalized budget recommendations and we will be scheduling hearings at that time. Thank you for your patience.

This American Life will move to Sundays at 1 p.m. Living On Earth will expand to one hour on Saturday evenings at 6 p.m. Le Show and Riders Radio Theatre will no longer air on KLCC. All changes are effective Thursday, March 5.

Car Talk returns to KLCC

You asked for it. You got it. Car Talk returns to KLCC 89.7 FM on Saturday, March 7. Click and Clack, the Car Talk brothers, will once again travel the airwaves from Boston to Eugene, bringing their one-of-a-kind humor and advice to car owners in western and central Oregon. Car Talk will air on KLCC at 10 a.m. Saturday mornings, following NPR's Weekend Edition. Tom and Ray Magliozzi have been hosting this hilarious call-in program about cars and life for almost 20 years. KLCC aired the program in the early 1990s, but dropped it from the schedule in 1993. Since then, listeners have been requesting its return with a fervor and intensity unmatched in KLCC history. To accommodate the change, several shows have shifted time slots. New Dimensions will move to Thursday nights at 6:30 p.m.

Teleconference to examine student centered instruction

A teleconference series, "Inquiry Based Learning: Introduction to Student Centered Instruction," will begin Thursday, March 5, from 10 am.-noon in CEN 10. This faculty professional development series will span three months including two live interactive teleconferences and four content-filled pre-produced video lessons, a web site, and print materials. At the first teleconference session, participants will receive a set of print materials and will gain a thorough understanding of what Inquiry Based Learning is and what it is not, and what its chief strengths and weaknesses are. A panel of experts in this topic will be available for live interaction with downlink participants. On March 11, two prerecorded resource video tapes will be recorded off satellite. The second live interactive teleconference, "Application Methodologies", will be on Thursday, May 7, from 10-11:30 a.m. in CEN 10. The live teleconferences will also be video taped and made available for check-out from the library along with the video resource tapes. For more information, call Cynde Leathers at 2260.

Campus Services plans management transition

With the retirements of Paul Colvin (Director of Campus Services) and Paul Chase (Manager of Campus Public Safety), Mike Ruiz (Assistant Director of Campus Services) will handle the management duties for both units until a new manager of public safety is hired and a planned reorganization of Campus Services is completed. These decisions should be made in the next four to eight weeks. Mike can be reached as usual in Campus Services at 2216. - Marie Matsen, Vice President, College Operations

Wayne Shields scholarship applications available

Applications for the Wayne Shields Endowed Vocational Education Scholarship are available in the Financial Aid Office, Career Information Center, vocational departments and all outreach centers. Applications must be returned to Financial Aid on main campus by May 29. Recipients will be notified at the end of June. If you have any questions, please call Teresa Mauser at 2346.

Workshop on problem solving offered

Join us Friday, March 6 from 10 a.m.-noon in APR Annex 156 for a workshop on problem solving. This is one of a series of workshops on problem solving, particularly for staff in involved in Students First! Topics will include: What is a problem? When is a problem my problem? How do I usually approach solving problems? What works/doesn't work for me in this problem? What are our boundaries or limitations in solving this problem? Preregistration may be done on voice mail box 7775. For other sessions in the series, consult Lane's web page for Staff Training, Services & Activities Calendar.

ADAA celebrates Dental Assistants Recognition Week

Dental assisting continues to diversify and expand. Whether working at chairside with the dentist, taking x-rays or managing the business office, teaching or working in insurance or sales, dental assistants are vital to the success of the dental practice.

Dental Assistants Recognition Week, scheduled for March 8-14, is a week-long tribute to the commitment and dedication dental assistants exhibit throughout the year. "Together, Making a World of Difference" is the theme for the 21st annual Dental Assistants Recognition Week - time for dental assistants to receive greater recognition for their own unique and diverse contributions to the dental profession and the dental health care of the public.

The American Dental Assistants Association has been the recognized voice of dental assisting for over 70 years. It remains committed to enhancing the public image and stature of the dental assisting profession and promoting quality dental health care to the public. Dental Assistants Recognition Week is sponsored by the ADAA and the American Dental Association.

Students First! Center training update

The Students First! Launching Team has reviewed the original group of requests for training which were received by February 27 and has identified the first group of participants in the initial Students First! Center voluntary training opportunity. This group is scheduled to begin the two weeks of intensive training on March 9, and will begin a four week "hands-on" experience working in the Students First! Center on March 23.

Students First! wants to remind Lane staff that you may still submit requests to participate in the Students First! training, which will include general information and technical training in enrollment, student records, financial aid, student financial transactions and appropriate referrals. We expect to begin the training again on April 6, May 4 and June 1. Each two week intensive training session will be followed by four weeks of on-the-job experience working in the Students First! Center.

All permanent current and recall employees of Lane who currently provide services to students and who use computer technology to access and provide information and services can participate. Consideration will also be given to all other Lane employees, based on ranked qualifications and the needs of the project.

To volunteer for the training, prepare a word-processed statement no longer than one page. Explain how your experience at Lane has prepared you for this opportunity. Submit the statement to Kay Malmberg, Students First! by inter-campus mail, BeyondMail (as an attachment), U. S. Postal Service mail, or deliver to the Students First! coordinators' workplace in modular building H4-B (southeast corner of main campus.) For more information, contact Rita Grimes at 3004.

Classified employee insurance enrollment forms due

Classified employee insurance is changing effective April 1, 1998 to the new Point of Service plan with Regence Blue Cross. Employees who are currently on the traditional indemnity (not HMO) coverage will need to complete a new enrollment form for the April 1 coverage date by Friday, March 13. Employees who are on the HMO (Blue Choice) coverage do not need to do anything for this change to be effective. Provider Directories and other printed informational material on the new plan are available in Personnel Services. This is the same material that was handed out at the presentations on Monday, March 2.

The open enrollment period for adding dependents to classified insurance will be extended beyond the originally published date of March 13. Watch the Daily for a new date!

Technology Think Tank meets Friday

The Technology Think Tank has served for several years as a clearinghouse for ideas and issues having to do with the use of computer technology at Lane. The Think Tank meets periodically to update participants on the wide variety of technology-related initiatives and to make recommendations to the leading entities of the college on policies and programs. The next meeting is scheduled for Friday, March 6, 3-5 p.m. in CEN 420, and is open to all staff. For questions or specific agenda items, contact Bob Barber at 2734 or e-mail.

LCCEA all-faculty meeting

A LCCEA all-faculty meeting to discuss faculty issues and concerns will meet on Thursday, March 12, from 3:30-5 p.m. following the Faculty Council meeting from 3-3:30 p.m., both in FOR 307.

Student Literary Competition winners

This year's League for Innovation Student Literary Competition winners for this college district are: Gabe Schroeder, Essay; Shawn MacCoy, Short Story; and Jake Vermaas, Poetry. The three winners will compete at the national level, where their work will be judged by recognized writers. The winners of the national competition will be announced on May 1, and all winning and honorable mention work will be published in a League for Innovation student literary magazine. Last year, Lane student Michele Rutheiser won at the national level in the essay category.

Changes to online college catalog due

If your department's college catalog information has changed since the printed catalog was published last summer, please forward your changes to Therese Picado, Institutional Advancement. Curriculum and Scheduling will verify the changes, and Therese will then update the online college catalog, indicating the change from the printed catalog.

THANK YOU

To the Staff in the Social Science Department: The loss of a parent is always hard, the loss of both within a year can be devastating and truly would be for me if it were not for all the love and support you have shown me. I cannot think of nicer group of people to have been around during my time of loss than you in the Social Science department. Thank you for the continued support, and thank you for the lovely flowers. They are truly beautiful.

Vision care benefit

The need for glasses is very common, by age 65 almost 100% of the population wears glasses. If you need to see a vision care specialist for an eye examination, be aware of the following: Classified are covered by Regence/Blue Cross and are eligible for an exam and lenses every 12 months and frames every 24 months. Faculty (employee coverage only) are covered by Regence/Blue Cross and are eligible for an exam, lenses and frames every 24 months. Management are covered by Regence/Blue Cross and are eligible for an exam, lenses and frames every 12 months. When you receive services from a participating provider, you normally will receive full coverage under these plans (certain services are not covered). When you receive services from a non-participating provider, coverage will be based on a percentage of cost or a defined amount.

Building and bonding

Ever since district voters approved Lane's request for a $42.8 million bond measure in 1995, college planners and architectural consultants have been gathering information and studying the best options for improved facilities and future growth. Learn the current status of the master plan during an informal conversation on Wednesday, March 11 from 3-4:30 p.m. in the Performance Hall. This event sponsored by Instruction and Student Services. Vice Presidents Mary Spilde, Marie Matsen and Larry Warford and Paul Colvin from Campus Services will provide an overview of current plans, answer questions and listen to ideas. You may submit questions in advance through Pete Peterson at petepeterson@torch_ma.

Human Investment Partnership sponsors conference

The Human Investment Partnership at Lane is sponsoring a Best Practices conference on Thursday, March 12, from 8:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m. The featured companies are Centennial Bank and KPD Insurance. The conference will convene at Centennial Bank and participants will spend part of the day at either Centennial Bank or KPD Insurance. You can learn the intricacies of two organizations while dialoging with organizational leaders and employees. Lane affiliates are welcome to attend, but pre-registration is necessary. Call 2879 or e-mail hip@lanecc.edu.

Retirement reception for Bob McCorkle

A retirement reception for Bob McCorkle will be held on Wednesday, March 11, from 1-3 p.m., in CEN 219-220. If you have stories and fond memories or wish to contribute to a gift, contact Vicki Doughty at 2055.

Danny Avalos named employee of the month

Congratulations to Danny Avalos who has been selected Outstanding Employee of the Month for March. Danny was surprised by members of the Classified Professional Development Team as well as many of his co-workers. It was one of the few times that Danny has been at a loss for words! Danny is a diligent, dedicated worker. He is committed to good customer service and is always willing to try new things to improve customer service. He has a cheerful attitude and is always lifting people's spirits.

Concerts this week

Lane's Chamber Choir and Concert Choir will perform Thursday, March 12, at 8 p.m. in the Performance Hall, featuring Schubert's "Mass in G" and John Rutter's "Five Childhood Lyrics". Employees Sue and Paul Colvin and Elaine Matchett sing in the choir. The Lane Jazz Band performs Friday, March 13, at 8 p.m., Performance Hall, with guest Jeff Homan. Instructors are Kimberly De Moss McConnell (voice) and Ron Bertucci (instrumental). Tickets are $4 adults, $2 students, seniors and staff. Call the ticket office at 2202 weekday afternoons.

Condolences

Shirley and Roy Pearson have suffered the loss of their daughter Andrea Reynolds of Salem, 40, who died in an auto accident on March 2. Shirley retired from Lane in 1993 as secretary to the president and board of education. Andrea earned degrees in police science and dental hygiene from Lane. A memorial service will be held on Saturday, March 14, at 11 a.m. at Day Spring Fellowship in Keizer. Shirley and Roy ask that any donations be made to the Andrea Reynolds Memorial Fund in care of the LCC Foundation. The fund will be used to provide scholarships to dental hygiene students.

Celebrate with the Titans

Staff and other members of the Lane community are invited to a celebration and awards banquet for the Titans basketball team, on Wednesday, March 18, at 6:30 p.m. in the cafeteria. The team finished third in the Northwest Athletic Association of Community Colleges championships in Moses Lake, WA, last week. Their season record of 27-7 marks the most wins in Titan history, says coach Jim Boutin. Dinner will cost $10, payable at the door.

More immigrants being served in Lane's ESL program

In an effort to learn English and adapt to American culture, 463 students are enrolled in Lane's English as a Second Language program. This is a 48 percent increase over winter 1997. In addition to immigrant students, the program also is serving 53 full-time international students.

March is Women's History Month

In conjunction with Women's History Month, the Women's Center and the Library's Film Services have compiled a list of videotapes and films in their collections which look at the accomplishments of individual women and examine women's issues. The annotated list, which includes more than 150 titles from the Library and Women's Center permanent collections, is available by calling Daniel Moret, Library, 2318, or Patsy Raney, Women's Center, 2352.

Call for proposals

The League for Innovation in the Community College has issued a call for proposals for the Conference on Information Technology to be held Nov. 1-4 in Miami. Deadline for submissions is April 17. For a brochure, call Addie Lou Willis at 2120 and check the web at www.league.org.

Annual Campus Career Fair scheduled

The 1998 Campus Career Fair will be held on Wednesday, April 8, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Center Building cafeteria. From 60 to 70 employers will be on site to provide information about various careers in their companies and to recruit potential employees. The fair is open to the public. Please encourage all students to attend the fair.

THANKS

A big round of applause for the Classified Professional Development Team who brought Shawna Schuh to campus to present new tips on communication skill building. Special thanks to CPDT members Cynthia Dietz, Dale Duvall, Jane Johnson, Laura Roberts, Susan Tatar, and Sue Baker, and to Darlene Schweiger of T&D who did last minute registration, for going the extra mile to make this event a major success! - Julie Baker, T&D

FAREWELL

I want to say good-bye and thanks to all of the friends I have made here at Lane. I'll miss you. Come by the Eugene Public Library and say hi. I'll be "playing" in the Youth section as young adult librarian. Check out the events for kids of all ages during spring break! Keep enjoying yourselves. - Maura Scanlon, Library

"Metal Inspirations" art show showcases fabrication/welding talent

Randy Poole made this intriguing lamp with a 30-year-old glass shade salvaged from Lane's main gym when the gym was fitted with a new lighting system. Poole, part-time instructor and former student and Dislocated Worker Program participant, removed an aluminum casing from the glass shade and fabricated the base from iron. It's one of many items made by students and faculty to be featured in the Fabrication/Welding Technology Program art show, "Metal Inspirations," this Friday and Saturday, March 13 and 14, from 9 a.m.-8 p.m. in APR 107. The show celebrates metal as an enduring, rich and artistic medium. Other functional art on display will include garden trellises and tables.

The art show is an outcome of instructor response to long-time student interest in designing and fabricating art pieces. Instructors also developed a new course, Welding Arts and Crafts, to be offered spring term through Continuing Education. The course will provide beginning and advanced artists, hobbyists and craftspeople with training in the operation of fabrication equipment, shop safety, and shop skills including heat coloring and wrought iron bending.

For more information about the "Metal Inspirations" art show, Fabrication/Welding credit classes, or the Welding Arts and Crafts Continuing Education class, contact instructor Ed Bromley at 2498.

Leadership Discussion Series to begin

The Leadership Discussion Series kicks off this month! The first discussion will be facilitated by Stephen Davis and will focus on motivation and how to make rewards and recognition match the personality of workers. Future session topics will be decided by the participants. Take time out from your busy schedule for this important discussion with your colleagues on March 17 from 11 a.m.-noon in APR 219, and on March 24, from 9-10 a.m. in PE 205. You may preregister at 7775.

Willamette Community Learning Center offers Microsoft Office classes

Lane's new Willamette Community Learning Center is offering Microsoft Office: The Suite spring term (reg #5411). The class will be held Saturdays from 9 a.m.- noon so working people can take advantage of this opportunity. This is a great chance to update your computer skills using the Suite package, and check out our beautiful new facility. See the spring class schedule for more details (page 9), or call Brenda Crume at 607-5516 or the Business Education Center at 726-2251. Ask about our flexible scheduling for computer "TBA" classes offered at the center six days a week.

Teleconference: Using the Web to Enhance the Classroom

A teleconference, Using the Web to Enhance the Classroom, will be held Thursday, April 16, 11 a.m.-12:30 p.m. in CEN 10. Explore the use of web technology to enhance classroom teaching in this live, interactive event. This teleconference will answer many of the questions faculty commonly confront:

How can I use the web to support my classes? Where can I find good web-based resources in my field? Can the web be used with students with different learning styles? How can I use the web with large lecture classes? What kind of technical support is required? Experienced faculty will present their best practices. Participants interact with the experts, as well as see taped examples of effective web-based learning strategies. This teleconference will be video taped and will be available for two-day check-out from the library. For more information, call Cynde Leathers at 2260.

Notice to classified bargaining unit members

The open enrollment period in which you may add dependents to your insurance will end at noon on Tuesday, March 24. The classified insurance chart with the cost of dependent coverage has been updated and is available in Personnel Services.

A reminder to classified employees who have been covered on the traditional Blue Cross medical insurance (not HMO): We must have you complete a new enrollment form including a Primary Care Physician in order for your new insurance cards to be correct. Incorrect information on these cards may result in your claims not being processed correctly. Information about your new coverage as well as enrollment forms are available in Personnel Services.

KLCC's spring radiothon to begin April 2

KLCC's on-air campaign for new and renewing members begins Thursday, April 2, at 3:30 p.m. during "Northwest Passage" and will continue until Friday, April 10 at 11 p.m., or until the goal of $135,000 is met. The pre-Radiothon "Thon Buster" campaign is now underway. Donations received before April 2 reduce the Radiothon goal.

Thon Busters may choose from hundreds of community premiums donated by area businesses. Premiums will not be offered during Radiothon. Call the KLCC at 726-2224 for a Thon Buster form and list of premiums or check the web at www.klcc.org.

Thon Busters are also eligible to enter a drawing for a $250 gift certificate from Greater Goods, a Marantz Multi-play CD Player from England Audio, seven Nights in a Bachelor Village Executive Room donated by Carter & Carter Financial, or a Mountain Hardwear "Tioga" Down-Filled Sleeping Bag from McKenzie Outfitters. The drawing will be held on the air April 8 during "Fresh Tracks." Participants must be at least 18 years old and do not have to make a donation to enter the contest. Entries must be received by KLCC no later than 4 p.m. on April 1.

KLCC is the only National Public Radio member station in the Eugene/ Springfield area, reaching communities from the Coast to Bend and Roseburg to Salem. KLCC depends on listener contributions for 27 percent of its total operating budget. This fiscal year KLCC must raise a total of $260,000 from the listening audience to sustain current levels of service.

Board to hold work session on bond projects

Stock first aid kit properly

Every department or isolated work station is required to have a current first aid kit. The kit should be stored in a readily accessible location (a locked cabinet does not count) and all employees should know its location. The kit needs to be checked periodically to ensure that it is properly stocked. Required contents are:

- gauze pads 3"x3" or larger
- gauze pads 8"x10" or larger
- adhesive bandages
- gauze roller bandage 2" wide
- triangular bandage
- wound cleansing agent (soap and water nearby is sufficient)
- emergency blanket
- latex gloves
- CPR shield

Supplies may be ordered from the warehouse. It is not recommended that your kit contain any additional items. If you have any questions or concerns contact Student Health at 2665.

Published for the staff of Lane Community College

Monday, March 16, 1998

It's the sun...it's a book...it's superlogo!

After nearly a year of work and input from more than 70 members of the campus community, the college has adopted this new logo:

The first use will be new college stationery and business cards, which should be available by the middle of spring term.

Lane tackled creation of a new logo because the college was using two logos and neither one worked well on the Internet. The new logo will replace both the script logo used on the college stationery and the blocky logo used on promotional materials.

To arrive at this new logo, a college team polled staff for their ideas (spring 1997), selected the design firm of Oslund Design (summer), used The Daily and e-mail to show college staff three designs (December), and refined the design that was favored both by the college and the committee. Over the past two weeks, the refined design was reviewed by the Executive Leadership Team and College Council and shared with the Board of Education on March 11.

The next steps are to:

- Refine basic design for its many uses - stationery, forms, brochures, ads, etc.;
- Design a new home page and secondary pages for the college web site using the new logo;
- And to create and distribute a printed and electronic style manual to make it easy to use.

Meanwhile, departments are encouraged to continue using existing materials.

Members of the Graphic Identify Team are Thomas Rubick, graphic design instructor; Bee McRae, Students First!; Gary Anderson, Printing/ Graphics; Diane Dann, Angela Miller and Susan Sutton, Institutional Advancement; and Carl Oslund, Oslund Design.

Secondary Education/Florence; a budget transfer resolution; and reappointment of Kenneth Kuhns & Company as college auditors. The board directed the college attorney to research whether TCI Cable violated its franchise agreement by changing the educational access channel from 12 to 97, and supported Roger Hall's intention to state concern at a city meeting to be held the next day. The board voted 4-2 for staff to prepare a budget item to improve board communications by providing remote computer access; voting no were Larry Romine and Jim Pitney.

The board conducted a first reading of a personal services procedures change, heard a legislative update from Tamara Dykeman of the Oregon Community College Association, a report on curriculum approval and articulation changes, and a Strategic Learning Initiative presentation.

Future meetings include a work session on Monday, March 23, regarding bond projects; a work session on Monday, April 6, to review the college mission, values and vision; and the next regular meeting on April 8.

Curriculum Approval Committee to meet

The Curriculum Approval Committee will meet Wednesday, April 1, from 3:15-4:45 p.m. in the Boardroom. Any curriculum to be submitted at that meeting must be in to the Curriculum/Scheduling office no later than March 18. Questions? Call Melanie Brown at 2362.

This week

- Leadership Discussion Series, Tuesday, March 17, 11 a.m.-noon, APR 219.

Board report

The Board of Education approved a tuition increase with a 5-2 vote at its March 11 meeting. Voting no were Larry Romine and Adam Young. Effective summer term, credit tuition will rise from $34 to $36 per credit hour, out-of-state/international tuition will go from $116 to $123 per credit hour, and noncredit will go from $56 per 30 hours to $59 per 30 hours. The increase, combined with efficiency cuts, will prevent program and service cuts and lay-offs. In the meantime, staff will research a suggestion to charge an equivalent per-hour tuition rate for credit and noncredit; currently, noncredit tuition is less expensive and generates less revenue.

The board gave unanimous approval to a new Fitness Specialist/Fitness Technician Program; the retirements of James Cobb, from Cooperative Education\ Social Science, and Patricia Shelp, Adult Basic and

Grand opening set for new LCC center in Oakridge

Everyone's invited to the grand opening of the Lane Community College Learning Center at Oakridge Jr./Sr. High School, Thursday, April 2, from 5:30-7:30 p.m., 47997 W. 1st Street. Learning Community news

New Learning Communities are off to a great start. This spring "Petal, Pen, Peck and Paw: Investigations of Place," a link between WR 122 Composition and one of four field biology classes, will be offered. In summer we will offer the "Total Performer: Voice, Movement and Acting", a team-taught course combining content from Acting 1, Group Voice and Dance Fundamentals. Next winter we will offer "Genetalk", a link between WR 121 Composition and BI 102 Genetics and Society; and "Body Topics: Understanding Anatomy and Physiology through Composition" (a team-taught combination of WR121 and BI 231). Fast Forward will add a year-long team-taught Philosophy and Writing sequence (WR 121-123 and PHL 201-203). In addition, a Call for Proposals will be announced early spring term.

To facilitate communication between faculty interested in participating in learning communities, we have set up a Listserv. To subscribe, in the body of an e-mail message put sub lc your first name your last name and send the message to [internet\[autosshare@slimac.lanecc.edu\]](mailto:internet[autosshare@slimac.lanecc.edu]). You should get a message back saying that you have subscribed, and from then on to send an e-mail to that list all you need to do is e-mail [internet\[lc@slimac.lanecc.edu\]](mailto:internet[lc@slimac.lanecc.edu]). We will also hold a forum on Wednesday, April 8, from 3-5 p.m. in CEN 420. to discuss the application process and hear from Ellen Cantor, one of the "Petal, Pen, Peck and Paw: Investigations of Place" faculty. - Katie Morrison-Graham

Classified insurance reminder

Last call for insurance enrollment forms for Classified employees. If you are currently on the traditional Regence Blue Cross insurance, you must complete a new enrollment for the Point of Service insurance that is in effect April 1. Failure to complete this form will result in your new insurance cards having incorrect or incomplete data and your claims may not be processed correctly.

Faculty wanted for instructor-student-technology study group

The Faculty-Student-Technology Structure Project Team (FST for short) is inviting faculty to participate in a Strategic Learning Initiative project which will study the instructor-student-technology structure of the learning environment. The project will (1) examine the learning environment in terms of instructor-student, technology-student, and student-student interactions; (2) explore ways to change this structure and its support to create more effective and efficient learning for students and a more professionally satisfying role for faculty; and (3) implement pilot projects to try new ideas. The first stage of the project is to form a collegewide study group which will develop a set of working assumptions for guiding improvements in learning environments. The study group will summarize their findings in an ongoing working paper, accessible to the college community. Study group members will be expected to attend a one-hour weekly discussion meeting and to complete outside readings. Members will receive a stipend of $150 for their participation. The study group will meet on Tuesdays, from 2-3 p.m. beginning April 7. Interested faculty should contact David Shellabarger, Mathematics, via e-mail or at 2123 by April 3. The study group will have its first meeting on April 7 from 2-3 p.m. Members will be notified of the location later.

Are you missing out? Visit the new online calendar to see what's taking place in the next 30 days. Go to Lane's home page, click on Calendars and then click on Events and Meetings Calendar. Here's a sampling: In the Registration and Advising category, see the Student Loan Exit Interviews being held on April 6 and April 7. Or check out the staff training opportunity on March 19, Synergy Training. And note the special event on April 2, the Oakridge learning center grand opening. For more information about how to get your department's events on Lane's online Events and Meetings Calendar, contact Therese Picado in Institutional Advancement by e-mail or at 2060. You will receive a password and URL for the staff working page and can begin utilizing this useful tool immediately.

Dying trees to be removed

The Facilities Management Committee approved and funded removal and replacement of trees that are damaged, dying or dead near the north lawn. The soil around the existing trees has grown sour and it is only a matter of time until all of the trees die. Now is the time to do this work. Young trees will go in the some of the old spots and shouldn't take long to come back. Questions about this work can go to Guy Harshbarger, grounds department, Campus Services.

How to help hearing impaired students

Lane's population of hearing impaired students has increased on all campuses. These students may need to contact their instructors or departments directly. This contact will likely be through the Oregon Telecommunications Relay Service (OTRS), as they may be unable to use their phones as hearing people do. If you receive a call from an OTRS Communication Assistant, they will identify themselves and give you a brief explanation of how to use the service. All conversations are protected by strict confidentiality rules. Be aware, relay calls will take more time than direct calls as one party is typing their message, the Communication Assistant reads it to you, and then types in your response. Don't miss out on Medicare

Medicare becomes available at the beginning of the month in which you become age 65, whether you are retired or still working. You automatically apply for Medicare when you apply for Social Security benefits. You should apply for Medicare separately if you plan to retire after age 65. When you enroll in Part A (hospital insurance) on Medicare, you also are automatically enrolled in Part B (supplementary medical insurance), unless you tell the Social Security Administration that you don't want Part B. If you enroll in Part B at the earliest opportunity, you pay monthly premiums. These premiums are usually deducted from your Social Security benefits. Late enrollment in Part B may mean you will pay higher premiums. Questions about Medicare, should be directed to the Social Security Administration at 1-800-772-1213. To apply for Medicare, go to the Eugene office located at 377 Pearl Street.

Who is your life insurance beneficiary?

All eligible staff should be sure that the beneficiary on their life insurance is correct and current. If you would like to change your beneficiary, complete a request for beneficiary change form in Personnel Services. If you have questions, call 2211 and press 0.

Reminder: Grand opening set for new LCC center in Oakridge

The grand opening of the Lane Community College Learning Center at Oakridge Jr./Sr. High School will be Thursday, April 2, from 5:30-7:30 p.m. Free mini-classes and demonstrations will be offered including Internet demonstrations. Officials speaking from 6-6:30 p.m. will include President Jerry Moskus, Vice President for Instruction Larry Warford, Oakridge Jr./Sr. High School Principal Art Tassie, and Oakridge School District Superintendent Larry Horton. The facility is located at 47997 W. 1st Street.

Lane has held classes at Oakridge schools since 1966 but the learning center is the first facility the college has owned. The center has 2,720 square feet and includes a computer lab with 24 work stations, a large classroom, a small classroom/meeting room, a community outreach office, and independent study areas. It has an exterior entrance and another from inside the high school. Lane's cost was $335,000, about half the cost for a stand-alone building. Savings came from sharing infrastructure such as roadways, parking and utilities. Construction began October 13.

Classes and open lab time will be offered Mondays through Thursdays from 10 a.m.-9 p.m., Fridays from 10 a.m.-5 p.m., and Saturdays from 9 a.m.-3 p.m. The school will have access to the center for two hours each weekday morning.

The Oakridge center is one of eight. Lane opened a center at Thurston in December and at Willamette in January. Additional centers are planned for Churchill, McKenzie, Junction City, Harrisburg and Elmira high schools. Voters endorsed the idea of neighborhood college centers in Lane's successful May 1995 bond election.

Brochures available for League Innovation 1998 conference

The League for Innovation in the Community College will hold the Innovations 1998 conference from June 28-July 1 in Dallas, TX. The registration deadline for a discounted fee is May 15. For a program brochure, call Addie Lou Willis at 2120 or check www.league.org.

Human rights advocates needed

Lane County and the City of Eugene need human rights support system advocates. Racism, sexism, homophobia, discrimination, and harassment because of disabilities, age, income level, appearance ... these issues do exist in our communities.

Volunteers will be trained to assist those who experience discrimination and harassment. Learn skills in advocacy, mediation and communication. Get connected with organizations doing this work. Become a Human Rights Support System advocate. HRSS is a volunteer-based system for assisting community members who have experienced harassment or discrimination. Trained community volunteers assist individuals by offering both technical and emotional support, and by providing appropriate and coordinated referral service. Free training will be conducted Saturday April 18, 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Lunch and materials will be provided. Pre-registration is required. Space is limited. For more information, contact Neil Van Steenberg at 465-9401 or Guadalupe Quinn at 688-7376. To preregister, contact Training and Development at 2223.

Lane to receive national leadership award

Lane will receive the David Pierce Organizational Leadership Award from the National Institute for Leadership & Institutional Effectiveness at its national conference March 29-31 in Asheville, NC. Dr. Jerry Moskus, president of Lane since 1990, will accept the award.

The award is based on national research studies of community college effectiveness in the management and implementation of change at the overall organizational level. Emphasis is placed on the effect of change on the student success and the enhancement of economic development in the community.

This year's award criteria were selected in part from the 1997 book, "A Learning College for the 21st Century" by Dr. Terry O'Banion, executive director of the League for Innovation in the Community College. The book features Lane and five other colleges as leading examples of innovation in education.

Bond communications coordinator hired

Nancy Nichols has won a five-month appointment as communications coordinator for the bond construction Project Management Team. She is responsible for primary communications between the team and other stakeholders of the design phase of bond-funded main campus construction. She is developing a communications plan intended to increase understanding of the design process and progress through the use of a wide variety of media.

Hired in February, she has surveyed project user groups, conducted a Strategic Conversation, and facilitated a Board of Education work session.

Nancy has coached Lane's forensic team since fall 1997. She attended Lane for three years and transferred to Oregon State University where she earned a bachelor's in speech communications. In addition to her work at Lane, she instructs elementary students in the art of public speaking. Prior experience includes participation in the Deliberative Democracy Project at the University of Oregon and publishing a bilingual newsletter at the Whiteaker Public Safety Station.

She can be reached at 2012 or e-mail NANCY M NICHOLS@EFS_MA.

Board will be asked to approve bond schematics in May

The Board of Education work session on March 23 updated the board as to the current status of main campus bond construction projects. An overview was presented including the decisionmaking process, followed by results from a survey polling Project User Groups (PUGs) satisfaction rates. Architects from gLAs provided and explained schematic progress from all areas scheduled for remodel and new construction, and significantly, representatives from three PUGs reported on their personal experiences with the project. Concerned members from various PUGs were present in the gallery and offered their opinion and suggestions as well. Progress continues on refining the schematics to fit within budget constraints. It is tentatively planned to submit all schematics for final approval at the May Board of Education meeting. For more information, contact Nancy Nichols, bond project communications coordinator, 2012, NANCY M NICHOLS@EFS_MA.

Grant will help fund Oakridge and Florence communications

Lane has been awarded $34,320 by the Benton Lane Lincoln Linn Regional Strategies Program Rural Investment Fund to assist with the Oakridge Community Learning Center and T-1 line charges for the Florence center on the Coast to Cascades Community Learning Network. Funding will be used to provide 13 Pentium computers and workstations at the Oakridge center and will pay for about nine months of T-1 line charges from the main campus to the Florence center. The grant will help Lane offer on-line courses, job training and public access at these outreach locations. - Debra Lamb, Continuing Ed.

E-mail, Internet and software training available to staff

Staff training in e-mail, Internet, and desktop applications will continue spring term. The schedule will be published in The Daily soon. During spring term, all inquiries about training should be directed to Sue Woods, CIT instructor, 2734 or via e-mail. Sue is temporarily filling in for Bob Barber.

Budget process on Lane's events and meetings calendar

The college's budget calendar and process are now presented on the college's electronic calendar. To see it, go to Lane's home page, select Calendars, then Events and Meetings Calendar, click on the "by type of event" button, and select College Business. Each entry on the calendar provides a link to a web page that contains the full calendar for ease of reference. (You can also get to the budget calendar from "College Business" on the home page.) If you would like to know how to get a college process or any other event sponsored by your department on the calendar, contact Therese Picado, Institutional Advancement, 2060 or e-mail. A password will be assigned to you if it haven't received one yet and assistance will be provided as necessary.

Leadership conference designed for community college women

AAWCC's seventh annual Oregon Institute for Leadership Development will be held at the Silver Falls Conference Center, June 15-18. OILD is modeled after the National Institute for Leadership Development, a professional development program for women in higher education. The Oregon version is an inservice opportunity for community college women interested in leadership and personal and professional growth. OILD is supported by Oregon community college presidents and costs for the institute, including training, food, and lodging are paid by your college (scholarships are available for special circumstances).

Session topics are: Becoming A Leader at Any Level, Teambuilding, Understanding Your Work Communication Style, Personal Power, Mentoring and Strengthening Your Support Network, Problem Solving, Surviving Organizational Politics, Stress Reduction and Balancing Priorities, Moving Up, Feeling Stuck, Panel of Oregon Leaders.

If you are interested in participating at OILD, contact Miriam Castellón, Instruction and Student Services, 2315. The application deadline has been extended to Monday, April 6.

Logo contest open to community college employees, students

The Oregon Community College Association is conducting a logo design contest open to community college employees and students. For a copy of contest rules, contact Tracy Simms in the President's Office. The winner will receive $250 and recognition. Entry deadline is May 31.

NEW HOURS

Financial Aid will be open Mondays through Fridays, 10 a.m.-3 p.m., effective April 6. Students can receive general financial aid information and application help from the Students First! Center, second floor Center Building.
