OUTSTANDING STUDENTS SOUGHT

The Oregon Community College Association student scholar event will be held again in the spring of 2005. The event will honor two student scholars from each campus. Faculty or staff who would like to nominate students to be Lane's representatives to this event should send a letter of nomination or e-mail to Jackie Bryson. Nominations should include the student's name, and a brief description of how the student meets the established criteria: excellence in the classroom; intellectual curiosity outside the classroom; evidence of substantial development of their talents; and ability to share this development with others. The deadline for nominations is December 9. Scholarships from a variety of four-year institutions are available for the scholars. The scholars will be invited to attend a recognition luncheon in Salem in the spring. For further information contact Jackie Bryson at ext. 5164

DISABILITY AWARENESS TIP #10

Students with brain injuries often have a variety of long-term physical, cognitive, and psychosocial difficulties. Students can have difficulty with sustaining attention, memory, controlling impulses, organizational skills, integrating skills, generalization, abstract reasoning and social judgment. The onset of a brain injury is usually sudden, often the result of a car crash, fall or blow to the head. There may be marked "before and after" changes in the student's physical, academic and social skills. Some consequences may not appear for months or years after the injury, as the brain matures and schoolwork becomes more complex. Students with brain injuries often show marked discrepancies in their abilities--doing well in some areas and poorly in other areas. The ability to learn new information often is compromised, and test scores may indicate higher abilities than indicated by classroom performance for this student. For more information, explore Disability Services' website at <http://www.lanecc.edu/disability/resourceonline.htm>. To learn teaching strategies useful for students with brain injury, see <http://www.biausa.org/Pages/related%20articles/article.teaching.strategies.htmls> Check out our other awareness tips at <http://www.lanecc.edu/disability/index.htm> Check National Public Radio's Morning Edition website for archives of this week's broadcast a two-part story on returning soldiers with traumatic brain injuries. Joe Shapiro tells the story of one soldier's struggle of learning how to cope with his new limitations. He also highlights an innovative rehabilitation program that focuses on getting troops back into the work force. The story is titled, "The Span of War: Helping Troops Recover from Brain Injuries." READ ALL ABOUT IT

Lane students and staff now have access to over 27 million library items from over 30 different colleges and universities. You can browse the Summit catalog online and make direct requests for items, which are usually delivered within two to five days. To learn more about Summit borrowing, as well as the library's new ESL collection and enhanced features in "your library record," visit the latest issue of Inklings, the library's newsletter: <http://www.lanecc.edu/library/inklings/news.htm> Contact: Cynthia Chabre.

THANKSGIVING THANKS

The Whiteaker Free Community Thanksgiving Dinner extends a heartfelt thanks to Chef Clive Wanstall, the many culinary arts program students, and the LCC food service and catering departments for cooking the 2,000 pounds of turkey and almost all the other food that was served to the more than 2,500 men, women and children who attended the free dinner. Thanks to the OSPIRG and ASLCC members who helped with the dinner preparations and who collected money to buy winter socks to give to people in need during the dinner. Special thanks to Sue Thompson, Michael Zimmerman from Health, PE, and Athletics, and Co-op Education departments who organized the collection of 120 new sleeping bags and 100 blankets. These spread warmth and smiles to many of the guests. Big thanks to all who contributed to their effort. Thanks to Sue's and Michael's group who organized and distributed the new give-away items during the dinner. Thanks to Gee McKeegan from Counseling for coordinating the distribution of good used clothing and toiletries. A special thanks to Cynde Leathers from Distance Learning for her continuous leadership and organization of more than 250 volunteer servers working during the meal. Thanks to all other LCC staff and students who shared in this experience of community coming together. Submitted by Beverly Farfan.

AUCTION DONATION REQUEST

AAWCC is seeking donations of special items or services for this year's holiday silent auction on December 7. Proceeds raised from the auction help pay for the AAWCC leadership scholarship awarded each year to a Lane student, as well as other club activities. Hand-crafted items are big sellers but other items or services are welcome. You are welcome to request donations of items or services from family, friends and professional contacts (who generally enjoy the free advertising) for the auction. Last year we generated $1,146 in proceeds. Let's try to beat our record this year! Some ideas from past auctions include:

- * Crocheted and knitted hats, scarves, and baby blankets
- * Jewelry, art, note cards
- * Baby products and pet treats
- * Gift baskets of music, wine, candles, spa products, chocolate
- * Lessons for music, dance, art, or woodworking
- * Homemade holiday goodies
- * Gift certificates for spa services, restaurants, book stores, music stores, movies, grocery stores
- * Weekend cabin get-away, event tickets & mini-memberships
- * Services such as house cleaning, catering for an evening, babysitting, yard work, pet or house sitting, car washes, deliver a cord of wood, holiday decorating

Drop off your donations to Phoebe Anderson in Cooperative Education, Building 19, Room 231, Mondays through Fridays, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., until December 7. For more information call 463-5203 or e-mail andersonp@lanecc.edu.

EVENTS

LANE TO SIGN INTERNATIONAL DECLARATION FOR SUSTAINABILITY

Lane Community College will become part of a worldwide effort for a sustainable future when President Mary Spilde signs the Talloires (pronounced "tal-whar") Declaration on Wednesday, December 7, in a signing ceremony from 2:30-3 p.m. in the lobby of the Center for Meeting and Learning, Building 19. The declaration is a 10-point action plan for teaching and operating in ways that help achieve environmental literacy and sustainability. More than 300 colleges and universities have signed the declaration. Lane will be the second institution of higher education and the first community college in Oregon to sign the document. In signing the declaration, Lane agrees to: 1) increase awareness of environmentally sustainable development; 2) create an institutional culture of sustainability; 3) teach environmentally responsible citizenship; 4) foster environmental literacy; 5) practice institutional ecology; 6) involve all stakeholders; 7) collaborate for interdisciplinary approaches; 8) enhance the capacity of primary and secondary schools; 9) broaden service and outreach nationally and internationally; and 10) maintain the movement. Contact: Jennifer Hayward.

PERS TIER ONE/TIER TWO 2004 ANNUAL STATEMENTS

PERS will calculate and distribute Tier One/Tier Two 2004 Member Annual Statements in early 2006. Tier One member statements will show the 2003 regular account recalculated ending balance based on the reallocation of 1999 earnings. The 2003 recalculated ending balance will also include the 8 percent earnings credited for 2003. The statement also will show the earnings for 2004 and a total account balance as of December 31, 2004. Tier Two statements will show the earnings credited for 2004 added to the 2003 ending account balance for a total account balance as of December 31, 2004. 2004 Member Annual Statements were delayed due to the Oregon Supreme Court decisions in the Strunk and Eugene cases. The PERS Board completed 2004 final earnings crediting at its October 21, 2005 meeting, allowing PERS to create 2004 annual statements. If you have individual questions directly relating to your account balance, contact PERS at (888) 320-7377. Submitted by Heidi Chase, Human Resources.

READING TOGETHER DISCUSSION GROUP LENDING LIBRARY

The Reading Together Project has agreed to buy a Discussion Group Lending Library of the two Reading Together books, "Refuge," by Terry Tempest Williams and "Blessing the Boats," by Lucille Clifton, that could serve a maximum group of 10 people. We would lend one or both books to a group for a specified time, so that all members of the group could read the book(s) and then engage in discussions. If a group would like some direction as to possible discussion questions, the Reading Together website has listed some under General Resources. As Reading Together coordinator, I would be happy to meet with any Book Discussion Group if I can be of any assistance. Let me know if you are interested in forming such a group and borrowing the books. Of course, your group can be smaller, or larger, but we'll have 10 books of each title we can lend. Poet Lucille Clifton will be visiting our campus May 4 and 5. Contact Ellen Cantor, 463-3660, cantore@lanecc.edu

STUFF YOUR STOCKINGS FROM THE ART-O-MAT

Visit the only Art-o-mat in Oregon at the Lane Art Gallery for a unique selection of original art works in perfect stocking-stuffer size. Art-o-mats are retired cigarette vending machines that have been converted to vend art. Selections vary from sculpture to jewelry to photographs to paintings and much more, each packaged in a cigarette-sized box, $5 each. More than 400 artists from the U.S. and abroad contribute to the 80 Art-o-mats located throughout the county. Visit the Art-o-mat in the Art Gallery, Building 11, first floor. Gallery hours are Mondays through Thursdays from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Fridays from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. - Susan Lowdermilk

FINANCIAL AID FOR COLLEGE LIVE CALL-IN PROGRAM

Tuesday, December 13, on Oregon Public Broadcasting

For parents, teachers and the college-bound, Oregon Public Broadcasting presents "Financial Aid for College," a live hour-long special airing Tuesday, December 13 at 8 p.m. to help parents and students learn more about ways to pay for college education. Every year, college tuitions increase. "Financial Aid for College" gives helpful tips on paying for college education, and names up-to-date resources that are available to new students. The program is designed to help families of all economic backgrounds and students of all ages. Hosted by OPB's Steve Amen, the program features a panel of financial aid experts who provide crucial loan and grant information and offer advice on the college application process. And, throughout the program, short video segments play that give real-life scenarios of typical financial aid success stories. Viewers are encouraged to have a pen and paper handy to jot down useful information.

During the broadcast toll-free phone lines are open for viewers to call financial aid counselors who can answer questions in English or Spanish.

"Financial Aid for College" is a cooperative project of the Oregon Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators and Oregon Public Broadcasting. The program will air again on Sunday, December 18 at 11 a.m. Contact: Chris Hainley, Sr., financial aid advisor, 463-5350.

NEWSWINE CLASS OFFERED BY CULINARY ARTS AND HOSPITALITY MANAGEMENT

Culinary Arts and Hospitality Management announces Oregon Wine Country, a wine tasting and food pairing class with guest winemakers from the Willamette Valley. The winemakers will offer a tasting of their wines with appropriate foods. Topics will include the elements of tasting wine, history of Oregon wines, a retailer's look at wines, wine writers and wines. It will be held Wednesdays from 7-9 p.m. from January 11 to March 22. This is a credit offering, pass/no pass. If you are not admitted to Lane, fill out an admissions form at <http://www.lanecc.edu/stuser/admis.htm>. Once your form is submitted to Enrollment Services, you will receive 'L' number, your official student number. Then to register, go to <http://lanecc.edu/> and click on the ExpressLane icon. More questions? Call instructor Joe McCully at 463-3516.

FORENSICS TEAM SUCCESSFUL

The forensics team recently returned from the University of Portland's Dugaw Iverson Forensic Invitational Tournament. The two-day competition ushered in some of the most promising performances from our forensics team this year. Our team has moved from novice competition to advanced competition in senior divisions and last weekend two first-year competitors made it to finals, a great achievement for seasoned students, not to mention first-year competitors. Sarah O'Neill made it to finals in persuasive speaking where she earned a sixth-place award. Kendra Taylor took first place in after dinner speaking. Both of these students earned one of three needed "legs" for receiving a special invitation to the national tournament in April! If you would like to invite any of the Forensic students to make a 10-minute presentation in your classes next term, e-mail Andrew Kemp for planning at kempa@lanecc.edu

WILLAMETTE WRITERS GUILD COLLECTION NOW IN THE ARCHIVES

The Willamette Writers Conference was formed in 1976 by writers and literature instructors from Lane Community College, the University of Oregon, Oregon State University, Linn-Benton Community College, Willamette University, and Chemeketa Community College. The goal was to offer high quality community events to foster interest in the literary arts and humanities.

The guild sponsored programs with poets W.S. Merwin, Gwendolyn Brooks, Richard Hugo, John Ashbery, and Oregon poet-laureate William Stafford; the science fiction team of Kate Wilhelm and Damon Knight; philosopher/novelist William Gass; screenwriter Paul Schrader; and fiction editor Gordon Lish. In addition to organizing smaller lectures, the WWG hosted Writing & Publishing: A Colloquium, a three-day event on writing and publishing held February 15-17, 1977. The bulk of the collection is from 1977 through 1979; however, in 1983 and 1984, there was a renewed interest with the Visiting Lectures Program and Black Women Writers on Racism & Sexism conference in 1983, which featured Audra Lorde, Gloria Watkins, Sylvia Wynter, and Pat Warner. These records were created by Lane English, Foreign Language and Speech Department instructor, Joyce Salisbury, between the years of 1975 and 1986.

For access to this collection, contact Tiah at the Archives (ext. 5466 or Edmunson-MortonT@lanecc.edu) and ask for the Guide to the Organizational Records: Willamette Writers Guild Records, 1976-1986, A-046. You can also find an online version of the finding aid at <http://www.lanecc.edu/archives/A046.html>

CAMPUS COMPACT MEMBERSHIP

This fall, Lane joined Campus Compact, a national coalition of more than 950 college and university presidents representing some five million students, dedicated to promoting community service, civic engagement, and service learning in higher education (see <http://www.compact.org/>). As a member institution, Lane faculty are subscribed to Campus Connections, an e-newsletter available at the Oregon Campus Compact website. Check out the December issue now available at <http://www.oregoncampuscompact.org/>. For more information about our Campus Compact membership, winter/spring service learning trainings/events at Lane and throughout Oregon, or Americorps Students in Service positions, contact Service Learning coordinator, Jennifer von Ammon, ext. 3658 or vonammonj@lanecc.edu

WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT OFFERS CALL CENTER TRAINING

Workforce Development is offering a new eight-week course, Call Center Customer Service Training, winter term, from January 23 through March 17. Registration begins December 7. This comprehensive course will give students the critical skills needed to qualify for jobs with local call center and customer service employers. The course is ideal for those interested in a career in the call center industry, and who want to learn it quickly. Classes will be held at the Workforce Development Department, Building 19, Room 260. Cost is $758. Registration number is 33020. For more information, call the Workforce Development Department at 463-5229.

REMINDER: OUSTANDING STUDENTS SOUGHT

The Oregon Community College Association student scholar event will be held again in the spring of 2005. The event will honor two student scholars from each campus. Faculty or staff who would like to nominate students to be Lane's representatives to this event should send a letter of nomination or e-mail to Jackie Bryson. Nominations should include the student's name, and a brief description of how the student meets the established criteria: excellence in the classroom; intellectual curiosity outside the classroom; evidence of substantial development of their talents; and ability to share this development with others. The deadline for nominations is December 9. Scholarships from a variety of four-year institutions are available for the scholars. The scholars will be invited to attend a recognition luncheon in Salem in the spring. For further information contact Jackie Bryson at ext. 5164

REMINDER: PERS TIER ONE/TIER TWO 2004 ANNUAL STATEMENTS

PERS will calculate and distribute Tier One/Tier Two 2004 Member Annual Statements in early 2006. Tier One member statements will show the 2003 regular account recalculated ending balance based on the reallocation of 1999 earnings. The 2003 recalculated ending balance will also include the 8 percent earnings credited for 2003. The statement also will show the earnings for 2004 and a total account balance as of December 31, 2004. Tier Two statements will show the earnings credited for 2004 added to the 2003 ending account balance for a total account balance as of December 31, 2004. 2004 Member Annual Statements were delayed due to the Oregon Supreme Court decisions in the Strunk and Eugene cases. The PERS Board completed 2004 final earnings crediting at its October 21 meeting, allowing PERS to create 2004 annual statements. If you have questions directly relating to your account balance, contact PERS at (888) 320-7377. Submitted by Heidi Chase, Human Resources.

EVENTS

MAYOR TO ATTEND SUSTAINABILITY SIGNING CEREMONY

Eugene Mayor Kitty Piercy will be among those attending the signing ceremony for the Talloires ("tal-whar") Declaration with President Mary Spilde, on Wednesday, December 7 from 2:30-3 p.m. in the lobby of the Center for Meeting and Learning, Building 19. CRUCIAL CONVERSATIONS: BESTSELLING AUTHOR RON MCMILLAN TO SPEAK

National bestselling author Ron McMillan will speak at the Center for Meeting and Learning, Building 19, on Wednesday, January 11, from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. The seminar, focused on his recent bestselling book, "Crucial Conversations - Tools for Talking When the Stakes are High," will discuss the importance of honest communication in all organizations.

Common challenges to be addressed include: Your team has been getting bad results. No one will speak up and no one wants to find out why; Your boss's leadership style is smothering you. You hesitate to speak up. Top performers are leaving and poor performers are not challenged. Important issues are not brought up in a timely matter to those who can do something about them. Only those near the water cooler hear the issues. Your colleague has missed a critical deadline. What do you say?

All Lane employees qualify for the $50 ticket rate. Tickets to the seminar include one copy of "Crucial Conversations" and a special session booklet. To register or for more information, call 463-3500 or e-mail knoxh@lanecc.edu

NEWSKIRSA WHEDON IS DECEMBER'S CLASSIFIED EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

Representatives of the Classified Professional Development Team and others surprised Kirsa Whedon on her way to lunch with her boss on Wednesday, when they presented her with December's Employee of the Month award. Kirsa, who is an administrative coordinator in the Business Department, has been employed at Lane for more than 10 years. During this time, she has served on many important committees and task forces, earning the respect of many of her colleagues. She is considered a constant problem solver and is known for her ability to "multi-task" without becoming rattled. During the Business Department's recent, lengthy remodel, she demonstrated her planning skills while keeping a "cool" head. Away from Lane, Kirsa is a proud mother and grandmother who helps with the Springfield High School Teen Parent Program.

When you see Kirsa in her temporary office, or at a committee meeting or elsewhere around campus, be sure to congratulate her for doing a terrific job and celebrate her nomination as December's Employee of the Month. And remember that you too can help recognize exemplary classified employees by nominating them for this award. Nomination forms are available at the Human Resources office; on the CPDT website: <http://www.lanecc.edu/cpdt/eom.html>; or from Gloria Vanderhorst, OISS.

THREE FACULTY RECEIVE RECOGNITION AWARDS

Francis Gray from Language, Literature and Communication, Jean Cassidy from Mathematics, and Dorothy Wearne from The Torch, are the fall 2005 recipients of the college's Faculty Recognition Awards. These awards are conferred each term, based on nominations from students, staff, faculty and alumni. The nominees exemplify Lane's vision and core values through their work with students. All faculty members, including classroom instructors, cooperative education coordinators, librarians and counselors, are eligible. Let's join together and thank the award recipients for their hard work and commitment. David Leung, ext. 5836.

ORDER YOUR WALK OREGON AWARDS

Congratulations to all Walk Oregon pedometer participants. Collectively, we've gone more than 63,000 miles! If you have reached Portland, The Dalles, Pendleton and/or Ontario and want to receive an award before the New Year, we'll be making one last order this year. Please send your order to Wendy Simmons by Thursday, December 8. The next order will be made in January. If you've lost your awards order form, you can get another one at <http://www.lanecc.edu/wellness/walkoregon.htm> Thank you. Wendy Simmons

RETIREMENT RECEPTION FOR CONNIE MESQUITA

Please join the staff and students in Student Life and Leadership Development as we honor the service of long-time friend and colleague Connie Mesquita, on Thursday, December 8, from 2-5 p.m. in Building 1, Room 206. Connie is retiring at the end of this term, after 26 years of service to the college and community. Please join us as we share stories from the past and dreams for the future.

WOMEN'S CENTER PRESENTS CELEBRATION OF KWANZAA VIDEO

The "Celebration of Kwanzaa: Echoes of Africa," will be shown at noon on Friday, December 9, in the Women's Center, Building 1, Room 202. This video describes the celebration of Kwanzaa, an African-American holiday. Contact: Jill Bradley, ext. 5298.

DIVERSITY WORKSHOP EXPLORES CLASS AND CLASSISM

A diversity workshop that takes a look at classism is scheduled for Friday, December 9, from 1-5 p.m., Building 19, Room 105. Interactive exercises, discussion and media presentation go beyond myths about the "classless" society in the U.S., and examine how we define class and our own class background; the complexities of class; and class and economics as it pertains to the distribution of wealth in the U.S. Video clips from the documentary, "People Like Us" also are included in this presentation. For information, please contact the diversity coordinator, ext. 5852.

FLORENCE CENTER ANNOUNCES HECETA HEAD HOLIDAY OPEN HOUSE

Lane Community College at the Florence Center will host the 10th Annual Heceta Head Lightstation's Victorian Christmas Open House on Saturday, December 10 from 3-7 p.m. Enjoy holiday treats and music at one of the most scenic and photographed locations in Oregon. Contact: Robert R. Purscelley, director, Lane Community College at Florence.

FACULTY CONNECTIONS HOSTS OPEN HOUSE

Faculty Connections, a faculty-led new faculty orientation program, will host a drop-in open house at the Center for Connection and Innovation in Learning, in Building 20 on the first Wednesday and Thursday of winter term, January 11 and 12, from 1-5 p.m. each day. We look forward to making connections with colleagues as well as providing information and answering questions about working and teaching at Lane. Stop by for coffee or tea and cookies. For more information, contact Beth Naylor, Faculty Connections coordinator, at naylore@lanecc.edu (that's "e" for Elizabeth), or ext. 5533.

YOUTH CAREER FAIR A GREAT OPPORTUNITY FOR MARKETING YOUR PROGRAM

Assist Lane County youth with exploration of future career interests at the 2006 Lane County Youth Career Fair, on Tuesday, February 14, 2006 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Lane County Fairgrounds. Because more than 2,000 high school youth attend this event, it is a wonderful chance to market Lane's programs. Karen Edmonds will serve as the contact person for Lane's registrations. The college will receive 12 free booth spaces because it is an event sponsor. The first 12 people to register will secure a free booth space. Any additional booths above the 12 will be charged at the regular rate of $90 per booth. Get your request into Karen soon. The registration deadline is January 18 (firm deadline.) Contact Karen at ext. 5688 or edmondsk@lanecc.edu

NEWSBIZCENTER SERVICES EXPAND

Lane's BizCenter, well-known for its free advising services to businesses, is now offering Latino business advising services in Spanish through Lisa Anderson, and two new fee-based consulting services provide clients opportunities for in-depth, on-site assistance.

The BizCenter's Business Development and Operations Consulting Services offer a new perspective for evaluating a business's operations and efficiency. With more than 30 years of business experience, consultant Dick Sloan is well qualified to provide professional expertise for business expansion, troubleshooting existing operations and developing alternative strategies for improving business growth and profitability.

The new Customer Experience Evaluation Services provide a unique customer's-eye-view perspective for retail and restaurant operations. Consultant Ann Hathaway performs a customized entrance-to-exit evaluation of all aspects of a space to determine how the business feels, works, uses space, invites customers and encourages return business.

Call the BizCenter at 463-5255 for more information about these or any other services or training. Deb Jolda.

PERS TIER ONE/TIER TWO 2004 ANNUAL STATEMENTS

PERS will calculate and distribute Tier One/Tier Two 2004 Member Annual Statements in early 2006. Tier One member statements will show the 2003 regular account recalculated ending balance based on the reallocation of 1999 earnings. The 2003 recalculated ending balance will also include the 8 percent earnings credited for 2003. The statement also will show the earnings for 2004 and a total account balance as of December 31, 2004. Tier Two statements will show the earnings credited for 2004 added to the 2003 ending account balance for a total account balance as of December 31, 2004. 2004 Member Annual Statements were delayed due to the Oregon Supreme Court decisions in the Strunk and Eugene cases. The PERS Board completed 2004 final earnings crediting at its October 21, 2005 meeting, allowing PERS to create 2004 annual statements. If you have individual questions directly relating to your account balance, contact PERS at (888) 320-7377. Submitted by Heidi Chase, Human Resources.

FINANCIAL AID FOR COLLEGE 2005: A LIVE CALL-IN PROGRAM

Presented by Oregon Public Broadcasting on December 13

For parents, teachers and the college-bound, Oregon Public Broadcasting proudly presents "Financial Aid for College," a live hour-long special airing Tuesday, December 13 at 8 p.m. to help parents and students learn more about ways to pay for college education. The program is driven by OPB's mission to provide life-long learning opportunities for the people in our communities.

Every year, college tuitions increase. "Financial Aid for College" gives helpful tips on paying for college education, and names up-to-date resources that are available to new students. The program is designed to help families of all economic backgrounds and students of all ages. Hosted by OPB's Steve Amen, the program features a panel of financial aid experts who provide crucial loan and grant information and offer advice on the college application process. And, throughout the program, short video segments play that give real-life scenarios of typical financial aid success stories. Viewers are encouraged to have a pen and paper handy to jot down useful information.

During the broadcast toll-free phone lines are open for viewers to call financial aid counselors who can answer questions in English or Spanish.

"Financial Aid for College" is a cooperative project of the Oregon Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators and Oregon Public Broadcasting. The program will air again on Sunday, December 18 at 11 a.m.

Contact: Chris Hainley, Sr., financial aid advisor, 463-5350.

BOARD OF EDUCATION MEETING

The Lane Community College Board of Education will hold its regular monthly meeting on Wednesday, December 14, at 6:30 p.m. in the Boardroom, Building 3, main campus in Eugene, 4000 E. 30th Avenue. See the agenda at <http://www.lanecc.edu/presoffc/board/agenda.htm> Contact: Editor.

YOUTH CAREER FAIR A GREAT OPPORTUNITY FOR MARKETING YOUR PROGRAM

Assist Lane County youth with exploration of future career interests at the 2006 Lane County Youth Career Fair, on Tuesday, February 14, 2006 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Lane County Fairgrounds. Because more than 2,000 high school youth attend this event, it is a wonderful chance to market Lane's programs. Karen Edmonds will serve as the contact person for Lane's registrations. The college will receive 12 free booth spaces because it is an event sponsor. The first 12 people to register will secure a free booth space. Any additional booths above the 12 will be charged at the regular rate of $50 per booth. Get your request into Karen soon. The registration deadline is January 18 (firm deadline.) Contact Karen at ext. 5688 or edmondsk@lanecc.edu

LOOKING FOR VOLUNTEER HOUSE SITTER/DOG SITTER for most of January. We will be at OHSU for several weeks. My wife is donating a kidney to her sister and I will be with both of them. Unfortunately we are not able to pay, but need someone to love and care for our two Schipperkes [<http://www.akc.org/breeds/schipperke/index.cfm>] and one Pomeranian. All three are very loving and playful. They do bark at times, not constantly. The location is southwest Eugene on 180 acres of wetlands teeming with wildlife, including deer; owls, geese; and hawk. Travel time to LCC is approximately 30 minutes. The house has DirecTV and dial-up access to campus. If you are interest, please respond to harrisjl@lanecc.edu or call 338-8008.`

WHAT TO GIVE TO LANE FRIENDS AND CO-WORKERS? If this is a puzzle for you, consider the option of making a donation to SOS - Support Our Students. SOS is a Foundation scholarship fund created to help students in financial need. The only eligibility requirement is that they are registered for classes and they can use the money for any purpose after meeting their obligations to Lane - books, food, rent, gas - whatever they need. And donors may contribute any dollar amount - there is no minimum. Help our students and lighten your holiday shopping in one easy step. Make your check payable the LCC Foundation and note SOS fund. Thanks. Joan Aschim, Mary Bolton, Bonnie Phipps.``

KLCC TO BUILD A RADIO STATION ON AIR THIS WEEK

Ever wondered what it takes to build a radio station? Want to help? Join KLCC's staff, management, and special guests for an eight-hour audio tour of the studios and control rooms that will become part of the 21st-century radio station KLCC is building in downtown Eugene next year. Plans for LCC's new facility will be detailed during a concentrated on-air fundraiser beginning Tuesday, December 13 and ending Friday, December 16.

Today's fundraising program focuses on building and equipping a new on-air studio and will run from 7-9 a.m. during Morning Edition. Tune in 8:30-9 a.m. to learn what Eugene's mayor Kitty Piercy expects KLCC's move to mean to the revitalization of downtown Eugene and the Arts and Outdoors Initiative.

On Wednesday from 4-6 p.m. during Northwest Passage and All Things Considered, we will "build" a news control room with the help of special guests Glenn Munro (Eugene CPA), Cynthia Pappas (interim Springfield city manager), and Al Stavitsky (UO journalism professor).

Thursday's program/fundraiser is scheduled for 11 a.m.-1 p.m. during Fresh Tracks. Special guests Marion Sweeney, a member of KLCC's capital campaign cabinet, and local musician Dana Abel will help us "build" our new performance studio and music library.

The final two fundraising hours return to Morning Edition from 7-9 a.m. on Friday. Project architect John Lawless will join us as we detail constructing and equipping the performance studio control room.

Phone 463-6001 or 800-922-3682 anytime during these fundraising hours to pledge support to KLCC's exciting Building Community project. Donations can be made anytime online at www.klcc.org or by contacting Diannah Anavir in KLCC's Capital Campaign Office (ext. 3286, Room 263, Building 16).

BOARD OF EDUCATION MEETING

The Lane Community College Board of Education will hold its regular monthly meeting on Wednesday, December 14, at 6:30 p.m. in the Boardroom, Building 3, main campus in Eugene, 4000 E. 30th Avenue. See the agenda at <http://www.lanecc.edu/presoffc/board/agenda.htm> Contact: Editor.

CRUCIAL CONVERSATIONS: BESTSELLING AUTHOR RON MCMILLAN TO SPEAK

National bestselling author Ron McMillan will speak at the Center for Meeting and Learning, Building 19, on Wednesday, January 11, from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. The seminar, focused on his recent bestselling book, "Crucial Conversations - Tools for Talking When the Stakes are High," will discuss the importance of honest communication in all organizations.

Common challenges to be addressed include: Your team has been getting bad results. No one will speak up and no one wants to find out why; Your boss's leadership style is smothering you. You hesitate to speak up. Top performers are leaving and poor performers are not challenged. Important issues are not brought up in a timely matter to those who can do something about them. Only those near the water cooler hear the issues. Your colleague has missed a critical deadline. What do you say?

All Lane employees qualify for the $50 ticket rate. Tickets to the seminar include one copy of "Crucial Conversations" and a special session booklet. To register or for more information, call 463-3500 or e-mail knoxh@lanecc.edu

NEW ADMINISTRATIVE DOCUMENT COLLECTION IN THE ARCHIVES

Linda Simmons' records document the $42.8 million-general obligation bond planning and construction project approved by voters in 1995 and the restructuring of the college's organizational structure with the Process Redesign Project. Simmons was executive assistant to the president at Lane from 1994-2002.

This collection contains information on meetings and committees, financial information, presentations, public relations documents, newspaper articles, results from public surveys, the Master Plan for Construction Bonds (1994), the Nelson Report (1995), and the Transcript of Proceedings for Bond Sales (1995).

The Process Redesign Project (1995-1996) redesigned college operations and made the organization more cost effective, efficient, and student-oriented. The project included the design and implementation of Students First!--a gateway to all student services at Lane (renamed Enrollment Services). The Process Redesign collection houses information on meetings and committees (Process Evaluation and Selection Team (PEST), Students First! Redesign Team, Leadership Team), financial information, presentations, public relations documents and newspaper articles, results from public surveys, reports, and information from other colleges.

For access to this collection, contact Tiah in Archives, ext. 5466 or Edmunson-mortont@lanecc.edu and ask for the Executive Assistant to the President Records: Linda Simmons, 1991-2000, A-047. You can also find an online version of the finding aid at <http://www.lanecc.edu/archives/A047.html>

KLCC IS "BUILDING" ITS RADIO STATION ON AIR THIS WEEK

KLCC's 21st-century news control room is part of the $2.3-million facility the station is building next year in downtown Eugene. The station's on-air fundraiser, which began on December 11 and ends Friday, December 16, is providing details of this massive project

Al Stavitsky--a University of Oregon journalism professor who has done extensive work in media ethics, consolidation, and radio--will join our regular hosts from 4:15-4:45 p.m. on Northwest Passage. From 5-5:30 p.m., local CPA Glenn Munro will talk about taxpayer advantages of contributing to the campaign, emphasizing the benefits offered by the Oregon Cultural Trust. From 5:30-6 p.m., interim Springfield city manager Cynthia Pappas will discuss how KLCC's new facility and equipment will benefit its entire listening area.

Thursday's program will air from 11 a.m.-1 p.m. during Fresh Tracks. Special guests Marion Sweeney, a member of KLCC's capital campaign cabinet, and local musician Dana Abel, will help us "build" our new performance studio and music library. The final two fundraising hours take place on Friday's Morning Edition from 7-9 a.m. Project architect John Lawless will provide listeners with details on construction and equipping the new performance studio control room.

To pledge support to KLCC's exciting Building Community project, call 463-6001 or 800-922-3682 anytime during these fundraising hours. Donations also can be made online anytime at www.klcc.org or by contacting Diannah Anavir in KLCC's Capital Campaign Office, Ext. 3286, Room 263, Building 16.

SALZMAN AND JANSSEN-BELITZ DISPLAY AT LANE'S ART GALLERY

The Art Department Gallery presents "Hidden Fears and Hope" by Jennifer Salzman and Monique Janssen-Belitz, from January 9 through 31. The exhibit features photography, oil and watercolor paintings. Salzman's traditional black and white photographs convey a message of awareness; not simply of the uncomfortable, or the difficult, but also the awareness of the beauty and love of childhood. As a parent, Salzman faces fears and concerns involving forces from the outside world. Her work centers around opposing influences, the love and protection she feels as a parent and the fear and worry of seeing her children affected by things beyond her control. Working in traditional photographic processes is important to the construction of her images. This process gives a strong foundation to the emotions and the passing of time. Salzman wants the viewer to see beauty in the world of a child and the fears of that world being shattered.

Janssen-Belitz was born in the Netherlands and was educated primarily in Germany, including training as an art teacher at the Ludwig Maximilian University in Munich. Janssen-Belitz came to the U.S. in 1985 and moved to Oregon in 1987. She has worked as a painter and printmaker for more than 25 years. The majority of Janssen-Belitz's work is oil on canvas. Her oil paintings are mainly a series of landscapes depicting Oregon scenery, which also reflect the inner landscapes of personal emotions. Her watercolors are based on small pencil sketches, with and without color washes, done on site. Included in the collection are sketches from Germany, the Olympic Peninsula and the Oregon High Desert.

The Gallery, located in Building 11 on the main campus, is open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Mondays through Thursdays and Fridays 8 a.m.-4 p.m. For more information, call Ext. 5409.

EVENTS

CRUCIAL CONVERSATIONS: BESTSELLING AUTHOR RON MCMILLAN TO SPEAK

National best-selling author Ron McMillan will speak at the Center for Meeting and Learning, Building 19, on Wednesday, January 11, from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. The seminar, focused on his recent best-selling book, Crucial Conversations--Tools for Talking When the Stakes are High, will discuss the importance of honest communication in all organizations.

Common challenges to be addressed include:

- *Your team has been getting bad results.
- *No one will speak up, and no one wants to find out why.
- *Your boss's leadership style is smothering you. You hesitate to speak up.
- *Top performers are leaving, and poor performers are not challenged.
- *Important issues are not brought up in a timely matter to those who can do something about them.
- *Only those near the water cooler hear the issues.
- *Your colleague has missed a critical deadline. What do you say?

All Lane employees qualify for the $50 ticket rate. Tickets to the seminar include one copy of Crucial Conversations and a special session booklet. To register or for more information, call ext. 3500 or e-mail knoxh@lanecc.edu.

MLK EVENT SET FOR JANUARY 16

The Lane County Martin Luther King Jr. Celebration Committee presents the 20th anniversary celebration of the life and work of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., on Monday, January 16, in the Morse Events Center at Northwest Christian College. Doors open at 5:30 p.m., and the program begins at 6 p.m. The event is free and open to the public. Keynote speaker will be Stedman Graham, businessman and best-selling author (see <http://www.stedmangraham.com>). He will address the event's theme, Unfinished Business: America's Commitment to Social Justice.

Program sponsors from Lane Community College include ASLCC; Black Student Union; KLCC; Student Life and Leadership Development; and the President's Office. For more information contact Greg Evans, program chair, ext. 5340 or evansg@lanecc.edu
