FOURTH ANNUAL OREGON JAZZ FESTIVAL

Lane Community College and the UO School of Music Jazz Studies program join forces once again for the fourth annual Oregon Jazz Festival, January 18 and 19 at Lane. On Saturday, January 19, high school and middle school jazz groups will perform, receive feedback and attend clinics on jazz performance lead by OJF artist/clinicians throughout the day. The festival has drawn 32 middle school, high school groups from around the Northwest to perform and participate in clinics.

Evening Jazz Concerts take place both Friday and Saturday evenings.

Friday, January 18, 7:30 p.m., Performance Hall, building 6: The Lane Jazz Ensemble and the Oregon Jazz Ensemble perform with festival clinicians David Glenn, trombone (Whitman College); Dan Gailey, saxophone (Kansas University); Dana Landry, piano (University Northern Colorado) and Luis Bonilla, New York trombonist (Temple University and The Manhattan School of Music). Tickets are $10 general admission, $7 for students and seniors, available at the door one hour before the concert.

Saturday January 19, 7:30 p.m., Performance Hall, building 6: Headliner guest artist Luis Bonilla, trombone, performs with Randy Porter, piano; Dave Captein, bass; and Gary Hobbs, drums. Also featured will be two outstanding school groups selected from the Jazz Festival's participants. Tickets are $18 general admission, $12 for students and seniors, available at the door one hour before the concert. Approximately 100 tickets for the Saturday evening concert will go on sale to the general public on Thursday, January 10. Unlimited tickets are available for Friday's evening concert.

Directors Steve Owen (UO) and Ron Bertucci (Lane) are excited about the development and growth of this collaborative event. The two schools merged their existing festivals in 2005 (the Lane Jazz Festival and the Oregon Jazz Celebration), as both programs share a common philosophy and educational goals.

"Nothing is more important to both programs than to continue offering students of all ages and skill levels a hands-on experience working with some of the world's finest jazz artists and educators." says Owen.

"By teaming up on this event Lane's Music Department and the Jazz Studies Program at the UO School of Music are making a substantial contribution to jazz education in our region", says Ron Bertucci. "We've always shared the philosophy that our jazz festival should be educational and noncompetitive. We are very proud of the Oregon Jazz Festival and the opportunities and atmosphere we've been able to create together." Call 463-5202 for information.

"BUYING TIME" BRINGS PLAYWRIGHT MICHAEL WELLER TO LANE

"Buying Time," a play by Michael Weller of New York, is the story of the turmoil that erupts when a law firm that champions environmental causes comes under pressure from corporate developers. It is based on a true event witnessed firsthand by the playwright at an Arizona law firm. Weller is a world-renowned playwright who wrote the play, "Moonchildren," and the screenplays for "Ragtime" and "Hair." "Buying Time" is filled with passionate and colorful characters. Weller has spiced the story with a looming scandal, and with his trademark, witty dialogue. Weller will be on hand opening night for a discussion after the performance at the Blue Door Theatre on Friday, February 1.

Curtain is at 8 p.m. for evening performances on Friday, February 1 and Saturday, February 2; Thursdays through Saturdays, February 7-10, and February 14-16. The one Sunday matinee, February 10, is at 2 p.m.

Tickets are $10 general admission; $8 seniors, students, and LCC staff; Thursdays, all tickets are $8. Tickets may be purchased at the door or reserved by phone: 463-5761. The play is recommended for mature audiences. Submitted by Sparky Roberts.

DISABILITY SERVICES FURNITURE TIP

Chairs and tables provided by Disability Services are accommodations placed in specific rooms for specific students. These chairs and tables are not to be removed by students, faculty, or any other LCC employee, except the responsible Facilities Management staff. Students who have furniture accommodations must request the furniture each term, so that DS knows where the furniture is needed. There is a great deal of effort by Facilities Management and Disability Services to get the appropriate furniture to the requesting students in a timely manner. So, if an adjustable table, ergonomic or padded chair appears in your classroom, do not remove it. Students who have furniture accommodations have a Letter of Accommodation (LOA) which identifies them as the student who is to use the chair/table. If there are more students with LOAs identifying them as needing furniture accommodations than there are chairs in the room, have the students come to DS and speak with Cathie. If you have questions, contact Cathie Reschke at 5079, Terri Sullivan at 5280, or Disability Services at 5150.

NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

SHARON FOSTER NAMED CLASSIFIED EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

Representatives of the Classified Professional Development Team recently joined staff of Health & PE and other colleagues to present Sharon Foster with the Employee of the Month award for January. Sharon was hired as an hourly employee in March 1992 and was hired in Athletics in March 1993. Her colleagues give numerous examples to justify her receiving this award. To name just a few, she always greets people with a smile when they come into the office. She goes beyond the call of duty to help all those who come to her such as assistance with housing, food, scholarship ideas, schedules and more. Sharon has saved money for the college and department by helping with fundraising, and thinking of new, creative ways to bring in money for the athletic programs. Sharon works with athletes from a variety of backgrounds and treats all with her kind and caring attitude, and treats all with respect and without judgment. Her volunteer work has included helping the state cross-country meet to raise money for the LCC track and cross-country teams, helping at basketball and baseball games, and organizing a team for the Relay for Life to raise money for the American Cancer Society each year. She demonstrates the highest gifts of humanity through her service and she brings friendship, growth, pleasure, courage, joy, peace, and wisdom to the community at Lane. Sharon's dedication to this college and the Lane family is amazing. She truly gives from her heart, putting others before herself. When you see Sharon, congratulate her for doing a terrific job and celebrate her nomination as January's Classified Employee of the Month.

You too, can help us to recognize exemplary Classified employees by nominating them for this award. Nomination forms are available on the CPDT website at <http://www.lanecc.edu/cpdt/eom.html> or from Elaine Marsh, IRAP, marshe@lanecc.edu

LANE FACULTY RECOGNIZED FOR ADVISING CHAMPIONSHIP ROBOTICS TEAM

The Underwater Walking Lime Trees, a Corvallis-based First Lego League Robotics team consisting of 7th grade students, wishes to thank Lane Energy

Management Coordinator Roger Ebbage for advising the team en route to winning the recent regional championship. The Lime Trees competed as part of the international First Lego League, and the win advances the team to the statewide tournament in Portland later this month. Their team's presentation, The Role of Energy Audits in Improving Energy Conservation in Commercial Buildings, was based on facts and concepts covered in Lane's Energy Management Program. The presentation portion of the competition earned a perfect score and generated enough points to earn the overall championship. Thanks Roger, we couldn't have done it without you! Submitted by Jeff Davis.

KLCC RELOCATES

On January 4, KLCC moved all its contents, equipment and staff from its 40-year home on main campus to new digs at 136 W. 8th in Downtown Eugene. That day, Rachael McDonald hosted the final Morning Edition from the old studio. At 9 a.m., Tom Krumm began hosting Fresh Tracks from the new downtown studio.

The new KLCC location includes the SELCO Performance Hall, a space designed for live on-air concerts and a small audience. The inaugural concert will be performed by Misty River on February 2 at noon, during Saturday Cafe.

An Open House will be held the evening of March 7, during the First Friday Artwalk. Don Latarski (<http://www.donlatarski.com/>) will perform.

The move downtown gives KLCC three times the space and the capacity to deliver an even higher level of public service to all its listening communities. Funding for the purchase and remodeling of the station's new home came primarily from private donations to KLCC's Building Community Campaign, which is close to reaching its $2.45 million goal.

A giant thanks to everyone who contributed money, time, ideas, support, and effort to make this move happen. Visit klcc.org to learn more about the campaign. Contact: Gayle Chisholm.

DISABILITY SERVICES TIP: LETTERS OF ACCOMMODATION

Disability Services strongly advises students to meet with their instructors during an office hour to discuss their LOA (Letter of Accommodations) privately. The goal for this meeting is for the student and instructor to have a clear understanding of which accommodations the student may be using in class. After the instructor and student review the LOA together and discuss the accommodations, the faculty member is to sign the Faculty Acknowledgment Form. A signed Faculty Acknowledgment Form indicates that the instructor and student have had a meeting to discuss the accommodations and the instructor understands s/he may contact Disability Services to clarify any questions. Questions or concerns? Please call Disability Services at ext. 5150, or check our website for tips and strategies for working with students with disabilities.

AAUW SEEKS PROGRESS IN EQUITY AWARD NOMINATIONS

Do you provide a program or service at Lane that (a) addresses progress toward equity for women faculty, staff or students; (b) offers an innovative and exemplary mission; (c) addresses the needs of diverse groups of women in terms of race, creed, age, sexual orientation, national origin, disability or class; (d) is replicable or adaptable to other institutions? If so, consider nominating it for the Progress in Equity Award through American Association of University Women. The winning program at the national level receives a $10,000 award and national recognition. Past programs have won for family leave policies, campus climate studies, women's athletics and mentoring for women students and faculty. For more information, see <http://www.aauw.org/advocacy/laf/awards/pie.cfm> Deadline is March 14. Contact: Cathy Lindsley, AAUW/Lane liaison, 5441. If you decide to apply, please let me know.

JANUARY BOARD REPORT

KLCC reporter Frank Nearing won accolades, applause and a 7-0 vote of approval on a resolution honoring his service in public news reporting at KLCC, from the Lane Board of Education at its January 9 meeting. Nearing volunteered at KLCC for 23 years after obtaining an associate degree in broadcasting from Lane in 1986. This followed a first career in social service. He has retired. He thanked the board, introduced his wife and daughter, and noted, among other things, that it was his 89th birthday.

The board also passed a resolution honoring Lyle Swetland, a founding member of the Board of Education and former director of development at Lane. Several members of the Swetland family accepted the award. Swetland passed away in November at age 88.

The board approved an inflationary tuition increase by 5-2 vote after a long discussion that centered on board policy regarding tuition increases. Members Tony McCown and Robert Ackerman voted no.

The board discussed using a CM/GC (construction manager/general contractor) alternative contracting process for the health and wellness building. CM/GC brings architects, contractors, and engineers together at the beginning of a project, which helps avoid change orders. Final approval requires a public hearing, which the board plans for its February meeting.

In other action, the board approved the 2007/08 academic calendar; and board policies on budget preparation and adoption, and board officers.

The board heard about the work of the Career and Technical Education Coordinating Committee which oversees the college's 48 program advisory committees. The committees include more than 600 members from business, industry, labor, and the college who provide expertise and guidance to the college.

In other reports, the board continued its review of the community perception survey conducted in November.

The board reviewed a benchmark on the gender and ethnicity of graduates which showed that females earned 66 percent of degrees and certificates in 2006/07; that 11.7 percent of degrees and certificates were earned by students of color (including international students, or 11.2 percent excluding international students); and that in fall 2006, 13.6 percent of students were students of color (excluding international students).

The next regular meeting is set for February 13 in the Boardroom. Submitted by Joan Aschim, Marketing and Public Relations.

INNOVATION OF THE YEAR

March 12 is this year's deadline for Innovation of the Year nominations. The award will be given to an individual or group of individuals who has designed and implemented a significant innovation at Lane. The innovation should not be more than five years old in the institution, but it must have been around long enough to have been tested. The selection criteria are as follows: effectiveness, efficiency, affordability, replicability, and creativity. One or more of the criteria should be met but it is not necessary that any nominee meet all criteria. For more information, go online at <http://www.lanecc.edu/league/innovation.htm> or contact Tamara Pinkas, League rep, 5011.

CALL FOR 2008-09 READING TOGETHER BOOK SUGGESTIONS

Read any good books lately that you've felt like passing on to everyone you come in contact with? One of those "Everyone should read this!" sort of books? Lane's Reading Together Project is once again starting its book selection process for the coming year, 2008-09. You can help by suggesting your good ideas for either fiction or nonfiction books (including poetry, plays, etc.) that meet the Reading Together criteria (see below). Send your suggestions to Jennifer Cook , cookj@lanecc.edu or Ellen Cantor, cantore@lanecc.edu

We'd really like to get the word out to students this year, so it would be particularly helpful if instructors announced this call for suggestions to students, and if possible, forward the suggestions to Jennifer or Ellen.

Book selection criteria: interdisciplinary character, quality of writing, general appeal, accessibility, relevance to one or more of Lane's core values (learning, diversity, innovation, collaboration and partnership, integrity, accessibility, sustainability), reasonable length, author availability, relevance to Lane students, and service-community activity potential. Please note that it is particularly important that the book be of a length that reasonably allows it to be incorporated into existing classes. A book that lends itself to being used in parts will also meet these criteria.

LONG-TERM CARE OPEN ENROLLMENT INFORMATION SESSIONS

* January 23: 10-11 a.m. and 11 a.m.-12 p.m.

Enrollment Services will be closed on Thursday, January 24, from 3-4 p.m. Contact: Helen Barker Garrett, Director of Enrollment Services/Registrar.

BROWN BAG SERIES ON PLAGIARISM

In response to issues raised by our all-campus writing survey, the English department will host a series of brown bags on the topic of plagiarism on campus at noon on the following dates: Monday, 2/11; Wednesday, 2/20; and Friday, 2/29. Rooms TBA. The brown bags are an opportunity to listen to the concerns of faculty from other disciplines and see if we can determine what kinds of action we might take as faculty in response to our concerns. In addition, English faculty will be available to share their strategies for addressing plagiarism. RSVP to Kate Sullivan at sullivank@lanecc.edu or 3256.

NEWS FROM STUDENT PRODUCTIONS

Two events will be held at the Blue Door Theatre in conjunction with the visit of playwright Michael Weller and the production of his play, Buying Time. Both are free and open to interested adults:

1. Playwright's workshop with Michael Weller, Thursday, January 31, 9:30 a.m.-12 p.m. Writing for the stage and screen will be discussed, as well as other topics of interest to the participants. Many of Weller's plays are performed internationally, such as Moonchildren, Loose Ends, Ghost on Fire, and Spoils of War; screenplays Hair, Ragtime, Lost Angels; and a new musical, Zhivago. He is the supervisor for the Mentor Project for young playwrights in New York City, and he teaches playwriting at The New School.

2. The Beast, a first reading with the playwright, Saturday, February 2, at 1 p.m. sharp. This play is scheduled for production in the U.S. and London. The Beast is a wild, comic fantasy involving two soldiers on a surreal buddy trip.

NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

HEALTH CLINIC APPOINTMENTS

Lane Community College students and employees have enjoyed a quick turnaround time between scheduling appointments and their visits with our providers at the Health Clinic. We have recently experienced temporarily reduced staffing and increased demand for appointments, resulting in a slightly longer wait time for appointments. We will continue to try to work in urgent matters in as soon as possible, hopefully the same day, but more routine visits may need to be scheduled a little later. Please be patient with us and rest assured that you will continue to receive the high quality care you are accustomed to at the Health Clinic; it may just take a little bit longer to get you in for an appointment. Contact: Mona Arbuckle, 5666.

ENROLLMENT SERVICES' LANE PREVIEW NIGHT THANK YOU

As a complement to the thank you's that may be forthcoming from others, on behalf of Enrollment Services, I would like to extend bouquets and chocolates to everyone from Lane (including Enrollment Services) who contributed so beautifully to producing our third annual Lane Preview Night. There are so many heroes who made things happen before the evening and then during the event and I extend enormous gratitude to you all.

We would like to collect feedback from anyone who has ideas on how to improve the event for next year. Clearly we need a new solution and have something in mind for where to host the Exploration Sessions so that our guests aren't wandering out in the cold night trying to find rooms. Likewise, we have a plan under way for helping you all who wonderfully participated in the Academic and Student Services Fair to find your table more easily and to provide an easy mechanism for students to find their way to you, as well. If you have thoughts for next year's event, please e-mail Helen Garrett, but label the e-mail Lane Preview Night, to make it easy to find your comments. Helen B. Garrett, Enrollment Services, 5686.

PRACTICE YOUR FRENCH

Even if you speak only "un peu," practice your French Tuesdays at 7:30 a.m. in the northeast area of the cafeteria. Everyone's welcome. A bientôt! Contact: Fay D'Ambrosia.

DIVERSITY TRAINING

If you would like to work to improve diversity in Eugene and on the LCC campus, there is an upcoming training that is for you. OSU is offering a one-day workshop sponsored by NCBI, the National Coalition Building Institute. This award-winning organization has been working for decades to prevent prejudice and racism through their series of prejudice-reduction workshops. Many who take these workshops have said that, of the many diversity trainings attended over many years, this is the only one that offered practical strategies that make a difference in dealing with difficult issues of racism and prejudice. A group of three Lane employees is currently going to the NCBI training at OSU on February 8, and we would love to have more Lane employees join us, as we'd like to begin an NCBI chapter here at Lane. Judy McKenzie would be happy to e-mail you a flyer about the training: contact her at mckenziej@lanecc.edu

To find out more about NCBI, go to www.ncbi.org

To preregister for the February 8 training, e-mail jodi.nelson@oregonstate.edu

If you would like to go up with us in a group, we're attempting to get an LCC van for the trip, so contact either Judy McKenzie or Terri Sullivan if you want to ride with us.

C-CERT MOCK DISASTER "VICTIMS" NEEDED

The C-CERT (College-Community Emergency Response Team) trainings are underway. There are 30 LCC staff members participating including representatives from all three employee groups. Now we need volunteer "victims" to participate in our mock disaster drill on Saturday, February 2, from 8 a.m. to noon. The drill will be at the Regional Fire Training Center at Chambers and 2nd Avenue in Eugene. Volunteer victims will be made up to look like real victims, and the C-CERT teams will conduct search and rescue, triage and medical treatment, and do other emergency response skills. Adults and children are invited to participate as "victims." Children need to be old enough to be independent and to be able to stick to their assigned role and make it convincing. This will be a valuable and educational experience for all of us. If you or anyone you know can participate, e-mail Dawn Barth at barthd@lanecc.edu I need firm commitments from volunteers so I can make sure we have enough people.

MISTY RIVER WILL BE FIRST CONCERT AT KLCC'S NEW HALL

KLCC has moved into its new home in downtown Eugene and can now host bands and broadcast live music from the new SELCO Performance Hall. The inaugural concert from this new hall will take place on February 2, with a performance by Misty River. The live concert will air at noon during Saturday Cafe, hosted by Frank Gosar. KLCC listeners from the Coast to Bend can enjoy this 45-minute set from one of the area's most popular bands. This will be the first of many live performances KLCC plans to air from the new hall. The SELCO Performance Hall has space for musicians and a small audience. Ten winners have been selected to attend the first concert, chosen from members who contributed to KLCC during December 2007. Contact: Gayle Chisholm.

KLCC MICROBREW FESTIVAL

The KLCC Microbrew Festival will take place Friday and Saturday, February 8 and 9, from 5 to 11 p.m. at Lane Events Center, 796 W 13th Ave in Eugene. All proceeds will benefit public radio station KLCC 89.7 FM. Admission is $10 and includes a souvenir glass. Brews are $1 a taste. Guests must be 21 and over. Forty-nine breweries from all over the country, and as far away as Vlezenbeek, Belgium, will offer samples of their most popular brews and many specialty brews. Over 100 brews will be on tap for tasting. All five of Eugene's local breweries -- Eugene City, High Street, Ninkasi, Steelhead, and Willamette -- have created brews especially for the Festival. A music sale is also part of the event. Two bands will perform: the Essentials, with rhythm, brass and vocals, on Friday, and Poor Man's Whiskey, bluegrass from northern California, on Saturday. Both bands begin at 7:30 p.m. A home brew competition will be held prior to the event. To enter, take three bottles of your home brew to Valley Vintner & Brew in Eugene and turn in an entry form and fee. Deadline is February 4. Judging will be held February 8 and winners will be announced at the Festival on Saturday. Contact: Gayle Chisholm.

BROWN BAG SERIES ON PLAGIARISM

In response to issues raised by our all-campus writing survey, the English department will host a series of brown bags on the topic of plagiarism on campus at noon on the following dates: Monday, February 11; Wednesday, February 20; and Friday, February 29. Rooms TBA. The brown bags are an opportunity to listen to the concerns of faculty from other disciplines and see if we can determine what kinds of action we might take as faculty in response to our concerns. English faculty also will be available to share their strategies for addressing plagiarism. RSVP to Kate Sullivan at sullivank@lanecc.edu or 3256.

OREGON TRANSFER DAYS COMING TO CAMPUS

Representatives from 19 four-year colleges and universities, and the Oregon Scholarship Commission, will visit Lane on Tuesday, February 12, from 10 a.m.- 2 p.m., in the cafeteria. Lane students and staff, and local high school students and staff, are invited to stop by their tables for admissions and program information. For further information, contact Deb Hupcey, Academic Advisor, at 463-5635.

LIFE TRANSITION WORKSHOPS FOR WOMEN

Free two-hour workshops previewing Lane's Transitions To Success program for women will be held Tuesday, February 19, from 5:30-7:30 p.m., and Monday, March 10, from 12-2 p.m., in the Women's Center. Cara DiMarco, Transitions instructor, will lead the workshops. For more information, or to pre-register for one of the workshops, call the LCC Women's Center at 463-5353.

INNOVATION OF THE YEAR REMINDER

March 12 is this year's deadline for Innovation of the Year nominations. The award will be given to an individual or group of individuals who has designed and implemented a significant innovation at Lane. The innovation should not be more than five years old in the institution, but it must have been around long enough to have been tested. The selection criteria are as follows: effectiveness, efficiency, affordability, replicability, and creativity. One or more of the criteria should be met but it is not necessary that any nominee meet all criteria. For more information, go online at <http://www.lanecc.edu/league/innovation.htm> or contact Tamara Pinkas, League rep, 5011.

CALL FOR 2008-09 READING TOGETHER BOOK SUGGESTIONS

Read any good books lately that you've felt like passing on to everyone you come in contact with? One of those "Everyone should read this!" sort of books? Lane's Reading Together Project is once again starting its book selection process for the coming year, 2008-09. You can help by suggesting your good ideas for either fiction or nonfiction books (including poetry, plays, etc.) that meet the Reading Together criteria (see below). Send your suggestions to Jennifer Cook , cookj@lanecc.edu or Ellen Cantor, cantore@lanecc.edu We'd really like to get the word out to students this year, so it would be particularly helpful if instructors announced this call for suggestions to students, and if possible, forward the suggestions to Jennifer or Ellen. Book selection criteria: interdisciplinary character, quality of writing, general appeal, accessibility, relevance to one or more of Lane's core values (learning, diversity, innovation, collaboration and partnership, integrity, accessibility, sustainability), reasonable length, author availability, relevance to Lane students, and service-community activity potential. Please note that it is particularly important that the book be of a length that reasonably allows it to be incorporated into existing classes. A book that lends itself to being used in parts will also meet these criteria.

NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

LAURA MARTIN NAMED EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

Representatives of the Classified Professional Development Team joined staff from College Operations and others to present Laura Martin with the Employee of the Month award for February. Laura was hired as an LCC employee in April 2004 in College Finance - Internal Controls. Laura's colleagues gave numerous examples to justify her receiving this award. To name just a few, Laura has created a great deal of training material intended to make others jobs relating to their budget accounts easier to understand. She provides training specifically to departments and assists them in revising their procedures. She has assisted several departments on various projects to improve efficiency, reduce costs, and streamline processes. She volunteered to lead an effort to expand the effectiveness of student delinquent accounts collection which has generated thousands in improved collections and kept students from being referred to credit collectors. She works toward improving things for all departments together -not just the one she may be working with at the time. Laura models inclusive behavior in all she does but particularly in her out reach to assist college staff with their financial management issues. Laura is the epitome of the unselfish public servant who is always seeking to achieve the greater good for the college, students, and colleagues. When not at Lane, she keeps busy with family, tending fruit and nut trees, reading, and lap swimming. She has been involved in the Lane Memorial Blood Bank Blood Drive Committee at Lane for three years. When you see Laura, congratulate her for doing a terrific job and celebrate her nomination as February's Classified Employee of the Month.

And remember that, you too, can help us to recognize exemplary Classified employees by nominating them for this award by the 15 of each month. Nomination forms are available on the CPDT website at <http://www.lanecc.edu/cpdt/eom.html> or from Elaine Marsh, IRAP, marshe@lanecc.edu

SCULPTURE INSTRUCTOR LEE IMONEN FEATURED IN MAGAZINE

Sculpture instructor Lee Imonen is featured in the January/February 2008 issue of Sculpture magazine. A six-page article titled, "Lee C. Imonen: Nature, Technology, and Myth," focuses on his recent public sculptures including Sampo, 2003, at the North Capitol Mall Office Building in Salem, located a few blocks from the state capitol; and La Grande Weir, 2006, on the campus of Eastern Oregon University. The article is available online at http://www.sculpture.org/documents/scmag08/jan_08/imonen/imonen.shtml

Imonen has taught at Lane since 2000. His Site Specific Sculpture class designed and built "Transformation Through Education," a six-piece metal sculpture at the west entrance of Lane main campus (see photo at <http://www.lanecc.edu/artatlane/westentrance001.htm>). Imonen taught the class and helped organize the project. He also facilitated a visit by master Japanese woodcarvers who worked with a class of 23 students to carve "Long Life," a large, two-sided mahogany relief panel located west of the Center Building on Lane main campus. The students carved one side of the panel (see photo at <http://www.lanecc.edu/artatlane/center005.htm>).

Sculpture magazine is published in Washington, D.C., by the International Sculpture Center, a member-supported, nonprofit organization serving sculptors, collectors, patrons, architects, developers, journalists, curators, historians, critics, educators, and others interested in sculpture. TUITION RATES FOR 2008/09

The Board of Education approved an adjustment for 2008/09 tuition rates using a 3.4 percent Higher Education Price Index, the standard yearly process for making tuition adjustments. These rates are what will be used in budget discussions and final rates for 2008/09 will be voted on in June and Enrollment Services will announce these to the campus at that time. The new rates would begin with summer term 2008. Each new rate was rounded off after applying the 3.4 percent HEPI increase; therefore the non-credit contact hour remains at the 2007/08 rate of $4. Upon final approval, 2008/09 rates will be:

In-state resident tuition/states bordering Oregon: $75.50 per credit hour

International students: $210 per credit hour

Non-residents of Oregon: $260 per credit hour

Non-credit: $4 per contact hour

COMMUNITY COLLEGE SURVEY OF STUDENT ENGAGEMENT AT LANE

Lane is one of 14 Oregon community colleges and hundreds of other community colleges across the country that will be participating this term in the Community College Survey of Student Engagement (CCSSE). This national survey of students focuses on teaching, learning, and retention in community colleges. The survey is designed and coordinated through the Community College Leadership Program at the University of Texas at Austin.

Lane first conducted the CCSSE in 2005 and findings from that survey were instrumental in helping us create classes like First Year Experience that are intended to improve student success and retention. The findings also helped us design new strategies to improve student engagement even before students get to campus. One of the most recent initiatives linked to our CCSSE findings is the Back On Course intervention that serves some of our highest-risk students, those who had financial aid suspended and who, before this program, usually left Lane.

The survey will be administered in classes randomly selected by staff from CCSSE to ensure a representative sample of Lane students participates in the project and to preserve the integrity of the survey results.

You can learn more about CCSSE from the project website at www.ccsse.org. If you have any questions about the CCSSE at Lane, contact Craig Taylor at 5364 or taylorc@lanecc.edu

FM&P PROJECT UPDATES

FOUNDATIONS: A big thank you goes to the grounds crew, trades crews, general services staff, and housekeeping staff, who all assisted in ice and snow removal last week.

LONGHOUSE: Long Tom Custom Saw Mill will be on site for the next few weeks to mill logs into dimensional lumber for the new building.

BLDG. 7 STORAGE YARD ROOF: The contractor will be installing the roof trusses and roofing. The concrete block wall with windows has been installed.

IT DATA CENTER UPGRADE: The new UPS will be installed and the current UPS will be relocated during a regular IT maintenance shutdown scheduled for February 22 between 6 p.m. and midnight.

FACILITIES WORK ORDERS: Facilities staff has been working on the nearly 950 work orders received since the beginning of fall term. More than 450 have been completed and the trades are working hard to complete even more, in addition to responding to emergencies.

CENTER BUILDING RELIEF FANS: A bid package is being developed to replace relief fans in the Center Building. This work is being done to improve air balancing and performance of the HVAC system in the building.

SUSTAINABILITY: On January 31, Lane participated in a nation-wide "teach-in" about solutions to climate change, along with 1,750 other organizations. Twenty-five Lane faculty spent at least 15 minutes in their classes discussing climate change and solutions from their specific disciplines. Forty-five people also attended an afternoon panel discussion during which Lane faculty, staff, and students discussed climate change from the perspectives of science, health, religion, economics, and action.

CULINARY AND HOSPITALITY STUDENTS TO SERVE HOMELESS

About 30 students from Lane's Culinary Arts and Hospitality Management program will volunteer at this year's Project Homeless Connect for Lane County event on Thursday, February 7, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., at the Lane Events Center at the Fairgrounds.

In partnership with Food for Lane County and area restaurants, students will prepare and serve meals from omelets to hamburgers. "This is not only a way for students to apply their skills at a large-scale event, but it's a way to give back to the community," said Clive Wanstall, chef and instructor. Area restaurants are giving back as well, including a major food donation from Adam's Place restaurant again this year.

People living on the street, in temporary shelters, or at risk of becoming homeless, are invited to attend to get a few basic needs met, from free medical and eye exams, to hot meals and haircuts.

Volunteers of all skill levels are still needed to assist with the event. Volunteers can register at www.homelessconnect.org (<http://www.homelessconnect.org/>). For more information, contact Sophia McDonald, PHC coordinator, at 682-3770. Lane contact: Robin Johnson.

FACULTY PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT PRESENTS TWO PROGRAMS WITH A FOCUS ON TEACHING

The Teaching Squares Pilot Program begins spring term 2008. The purpose of the Teaching Squares program is to improve teaching skills and build community through a non-threatening process of classroom observation and shared reflection. The process involves the best aspects of peer evaluation--observation and discussion--while excluding judgment and evaluation. "Squares" are usually comprised of four faculty members from diverse disciplines who observe each others' classes and discuss best practices in order to improve their own teaching. To participate, register by March 7.

Class observations and feedback: FPD provides confidential feedback on teaching based on classroom observations. Upon your request, a Lane faculty member with expertise in instructional design and pedagogy as well as experience providing formal feedback to teachers will observe one of your classes and provide suggestions on ways to enhance your teaching. This program is not part of any evaluation system, and all feedback will be completely confidential and constructive. At the present time, we are fortunate to have two well qualified faculty members who are available to observe classes and provide feedback. (Please see Susan Reddoor's and Merrill Watrous' bios online.)

These opportunities are open to all faculty members. Additional information is available at <http://www.lanecc.edu/fpd> Contact: Adrienne Mews, 5871 or mewsa@lanecc.edu

LEAGUE INVITES STUDENT LITERARY SUBMISSIONS

RECYCLEMANIA: LANE COMPETES IN NATIONAL COMPETITION

Lane is competing in a 10-week national recycling competition known as Recyclemania (see <http://www.recyclemaniacs.org>) sponsored by the National Recycling Coalition and the EPA. We are competing with more than 400 two-year and four-year colleges and universities to see who can recycle the most and produce the least amount of trash. There are several competition categories, and Lane is competing in the "Waste Minimization" category, which measures the amount of trash a school creates versus the amount it recycles in the core areas (paper, beverage containers, and cardboard). In our first week we recycled 7,279 pounds of material and created 10,500 pounds of trash, placing ninth in our division of 85 schools. To see the results and how we stack up against our competition, go to:

<http://www.recyclemaniacs.org/viewresult.aspx?CompId=3&isSubsection=False>

The Recycling Office will provide the Weekly with an update each week to show our statistics and place within the competition. Submitted by Mike Sims, Recycling Coordinator, 463-5569.

NWAACC HALL OF FAME TO INCLUDE HARLAND YRIARTE

Former Lane Community College employee Harland Yriarte will be inducted into the Northwest Athletic Association of Community Colleges Hall of Fame on May 29 in Vancouver, Washington. Harland was an instructor, coach, and administrator for the Health, Physical Education and Athletics Division from 1982-2003. For more information, contact the Athletic office, 5599.

LANE'S AUTOMOTIVE TECHNICIAN PROGRAM IS GOING GREEN

Last fall, students in Lane's auto lab installed an ethanol conversion kit on a Honda Civic. The emissions were dramatically reduced, the vehicle gained a little power, and the overall mileage went down. Thanks to automotive faculty member, Egan Riordon, for providing students with the opportunity to learn about more sustainable options. Submitted by Jennifer Hayward, 5594.

CERT TEAM PARTICIPATES IN DISASTER DRILL

Congratulations to the new college C-CERT Team (Campus-Community Emergency Response Team). Twenty-six Lane employees participated in a mock disaster drill on February 2 and completed the C-CERT training. See photos and a small video clip at: <http://www.lanec.edu/safety/employeesafetyinfo.htm> Thank you to Torch photographer Curtis McCain for the wonderful photography. Thanks to the new C-CERT team for its participation and dedication to making Lane a safer place. Finally, thanks to all of our amazing "victims" who participated in the drill. For more information on joining C-CERT team, contact Dawn Barth, Health and Safety Coordinator.

UPDATE ON E-MAIL SPAM FILTERING

E-mail coming into the college is filtered to prevent spam from reaching your GroupWise Mailbox. The college receives a detailed weekly report of filtering activity. A notable statistic from the week of January 24: 88.5 percent of incoming e-mail was filtered out as spam. That's not a mistype: 88.5 percent of incoming mail was filtered out as spam. While that number is high, it is neither the highest percentage recorded nor unusually high. Our spam percentage consistently runs over 80 percent.

Two other numbers we watch are the number of false positives (e-mail filtered that we want delivered) and the number of false negatives (e-mail received that we want filtered). For the week of January 24 we reported 55 false positives and 229 false negatives. Total incoming messages for the week were 759,937. Submitted by Stephen F. Pruch, AVP for Information Technology.

FLU SHOTS STILL AVAILABLE

The flu is here. Outbreaks have been reported in 11 states. We are seeing cases of influenza on campus. It is not too late to get your flu shot. Still only $20. Make an appointment today at your LCC Health Clinic. Building 18, Room 101. 463-5665. Submitted by Nadine Wilkes.

NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

BASKETBALL KUDOS

Congratulations! The Lane Titan women's basketball team clinched their fourth Southern Region title in a row and moved the home win streak to 63 in a row. They have two remaining league games left, and then it is on to the championship tournament, where they will look to win their third NWAACC title in a row. The Titan men are playing well down the stretch, but could not overcome the flu bug this past weekend, losing several starters for a critical home loss against SWOCC. They hope to finish strong and still have a mathematical chance to earn a playoff berth. Contact: Athletics, 5599.

RECYCLEMANIA RESULTS, WEEK 2

Lane Community College moved up two places to seventh out of 82 schools in our division, outpacing schools such as University of Texas, University of Michigan and University of Colorado. Last week, the college recycled 5,776 pounds of "core recyclables" (paper, cardboard, and beverage containers) and created 10,320 pounds of trash. See the full results at

ASSUME THAT E-MAIL IS PUBLIC INFORMATION

This is not something new, nor is it a change in college practice. It is a reminder of the very public nature of our e-mail communications. E-mail feels like a very private way of communicating; it's not. The college may be required to disclose it upon request or court order. E-mail created, received or stored with any college owned e-mail system (GroupWise being the primary one) or that relates to the conduct of the public's business is considered both college property and public information. This means, given a demonstrated need and/or a public request, that the college may examine the contents of your e-mail account. It also means that, given a valid public information request, the college is required to make e-mail public. This happened last year during the "gates" debate when the Register-Guard requested and received copies of e-mail relating to the installation of security gates. With very few exceptions, e-mail that either relates to the conduct of the public's business or that is contained on a system owned by a public entity is non-exempt and subject to public disclosure. Any college examination of e-mail accounts follows the protocols of college policy and union contracts. You've heard it before: "Don't type it unless you are comfortable seeing it on the front page of the Register-Guard". With very few exceptions, e-mail is public information. Submitted by Stephen F. Pruch, Associate Vice President for Information Technology.

This will be the first of three campus-wide conversations about our veteran students. UPDATE ON EMAIL SPAM FILTERING

Email coming into the college is filtered to prevent spam from reaching your GroupWise mailbox. The college receives a detailed weekly report of filtering activity. A notable statistic from the week of February 14: 87.3 percent of incoming email was filtered out as spam. That's not a mistype: 87.3 percent of incoming mail was filtered out as spam. While that number is high, it is neither the highest percentage recorded nor unusually high. Our spam percentage consistently runs over 80 percent.

Two other numbers we watch are the number of false positives (email filtered that we want delivered) and the number of false negatives (email received that we want filtered). For the week of February 14 we reported 20 false positives and 227 false negatives. Total incoming messages for the week were 776,045. Contact: Stephen F. Pruch, AVP for Information Technology.

ELECTIONS OFFICE ANTICIPATES HIGH PRIMARY ELECTION PARTICIPATION

Oregon's Primary Election is scheduled for Tuesday, May 20. It is anticipated that participation will be high at this year's primary. With frequent nationwide coverage on other states' primaries and many questions as to how Oregon Primary elections work, there is some important information that Lane County citizens may need to know:

Oregon has what is called a closed primary. If registered as a Democrat, a voter receives and qualifies to vote for nominating Democratic candidates, and all nonpartisan offices and measures. If registered as a Republican, a voter receives and qualifies to vote for nominating Republican candidates, and all nonpartisan offices and measures. There is a registered Independent Minor Party in Oregon. Such voters are referred to as Not Affiliated with a Party or Unaffiliated. If registered as any minor party, such as Independent, Libertarian, Pacific Green, etc., a voter receives and qualifies to vote only for all nonpartisan offices and measures. If registered as Not Affiliated to a Party, a voter receives and qualifies to vote only for all nonpartisan offices and measures.

The last day to change party affiliation on voter registration is April 29. A completed registration card must be filled out, signed, and received by Lane County Elections by 5 p.m. on that date. Postmarks do not count.

The last day to register to vote is April 29. A completed registration card must be filled out, signed, and received by 5 p.m. at Lane County Elections by that date or can be postmarked by that date if a new registration to Oregon. To ensure there isn't a conflict with change of party deadlines on an update, it is always better to contact the elections office to inquire if already registered or to be sure received by the 5 p.m. April 29 deadline.

As soon as anyone turns 17 years old they can register to vote. They must register by April 29 to qualify to vote in the May Primary, and turn 18 years old by Election Day.

Those registered to vote by April 29 and who are at least 17 years old at that time, and will be 18 years old on Election Day, will receive a ballot in the mail.

For more information visit www.co.lane.or.us/elections or call Lane County Elections at 682-4234. Submitted by the editor from a Lane County news release.

WON'T YOU GIVE AMELIA A FOREVER HOME? Our rescue kitty is now ready for adoption. Amelia is quite the character and big on personality. She is very well behaved, has all her shots, has no interest in boys (if you know what I mean) and is very litter box trained. We will include her toys, litter box, food, etc. As well, if she does not work out at your home, you can bring her back to us. It is that important that we find the right home for her! Couple of things to know; Amelia will need to be an inside cat. She is so sure we are her forever home, that she will just come back (as she has in the past). In addition, Amelia does not like dogs, she is sure they will eat her and we are not sure how she feels about other cats. Other than these couple of things, she is a loving, cuddle-bug of a girl and would make a great addition to any home. You can view her picture at http://community.kmtr.com/photos/pet_pics/category1334/picture1431639.aspx (as you can see, the girl is full of charm!). Please give us a call if you have any questions - Peggy ext. 4303 or Susan, ext. 4301.

The Spring Conference Planning Team welcomes proposals for breakout sessions to be held during the afternoon of Spring Conference, Friday, May 2 under the theme, "Striking a Balance."

Individuals, divisions, and the college face competing demands in our day-to-day lives. How can we work with these competing priorities? How do we manage to continue the incredible work that we do while achieving balance which provides the foundation to our work? The 2008 Spring Conference is an opportunity to learn from each other and share our own experiences in how to function in a balanced way.

Share your insight and expertise with your fellow colleagues by presenting a 30- or 70-minute session. Sessions can focus on issues of professional or holistic balance. Proposal forms can be downloaded at lanecc.edu/pod or by emailing cookj@lanecc.edu

WON'T YOU GIVE AMELIA A FOREVER HOME? Our rescue kitty is now ready for adoption. Amelia is quite the character and big on personality. She is very well behaved, has all her shots, has no interest in boys (if you know what I mean) and is very litter box trained. We will include her toys, litter box, food, etc. As well, if she does not work out at your home, you can bring her back to us. It is that important that we find the right home for her! Couple of things to know; Amelia will need to be an inside cat. She is so sure we are her forever home, that she will just come back (as she has in the past). In addition, Amelia does not like dogs, she is sure they will eat her and we are not sure how she feels about other cats. Other than these couple of things, she is a loving, cuddle-bug of a girl and would make a great addition to any home. You can view her picture at http://community.kmtr.com/photos/pet_pics/category1334/picture1431639.aspx (as you can see, the girl is full of charm!). NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTSCLASSIFIED EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

Congratulations to March's Classified Employee of the Month, Pam McClelland. Pam joined Lane in November 1986 as a bookkeeper in Financial Services where she worked for two years. She then worked as an administrative specialist in Electronics-Advanced Technologies until August 2006 when she became a project specialist in Cooperative Education on the High School Connection Team. Colleagues say Pam promotes Lane in the community and provides excellent customer service. She is calm, steady, helpful, approachable, positive, hardworking, very capable and efficient. Pam recognizes there are multiple stakeholders and customers for the services provided by the High School Connections Office and provides the support for many meetings including the High School Connections Steering Committee, the High School Connections Design Team and Career Pathways. She treats all with equal respect and responsiveness regardless of perceived status, whether they are a school superintendent, high school student, teacher, or community member. Pam serves on the Enrollment Services CORE team which benefits the entire college. Outside of Lane, she provides administrative support to the Pioneer Charter Middle and High School Board of Directors. She has been a long term volunteer with the Girl Scouts. Pam is the mother of two grown children and the proud grandmother of three grandsons. When you see Pam, congratulate her for doing a terrific job and celebrate her nomination as March's Classified Employee of the Month.

And remember that, you too, can help us to recognize exemplary classified employees by nominating them for this award by the 15 of each month. Nomination forms are available: 1) on the CPDT website: <http://www.lanecc.edu/cpdt/eom.html> ; or 2) from Elaine Marsh, IRAP.

BENCHMARKS NOW ONLINE

<http://www.lanecc.edu/research/ir/benchmarks.html>

The stellar benchmark reports created by Institutional Research, Assessment and Planning are now available online. Benchmarks are shared with the Board of Education monthly. Some of the things you can learn right now:

- * Transfer Students' Satisfaction: 84 percent of transfer students feel that Lane classes prepare them "very well" or "well" for university.
- * Employment of Career Technical Students: 84 percent of career and technical graduates are employed in jobs related to their Lane training.

Use benchmark information in reports you write, speeches you give, to set your work priorities, or to enjoy the outcomes of your hard work. For more information about benchmark reports, e-mail Craig Taylor or call 5364. Submitted by the editor.

Contact Susan Tatar, 5727.

SELLER BEWARE

Recently a "book buyer" approached one of Lane's instructional departments, offering to purchase books from faculty. Many faculty members and departments receive "complimentary" and "free copy" books they have not requested and do not need. Items you receive in your capacity as a college employee may not be sold for personal gain. To do so violates the Oregon Government Ethics statute (ORS Chapter 244) and Board Policy D.080 (COPPS, Board of Education Policies, Miscellaneous, Conflict of Interest.) Such a sale exposes the seller to both civil penalties and disciplinary action.

The Bookstore does not buy "free" or "complimentary" books from students, faculty or used book wholesalers as such a practice is considered unethical by the academic, publishing, and retail communities. In a twist on this practice a "book buyer" has been offering to accept books for resale with the proceeds being donated to the Foundation. While this avoids legal penalties the college still cannot approve a practice considered inherently unethical. Inducing a public official to violate state law is also a violation of state law and if you are approached by a "book buyer" please notify a manager or Public Safety.

This does not mean you must hang on to valuable texts you don't want or need. You may send any excess "complimentary" books to Bookstore Manager Shelley Dutton, 5675. The Bookstore will work with the Library, resource centers, and student groups to make the books available for student use as appropriate. Submitted by Greg Morgan, 5516.

USING COLLEGE OWNED COMPUTERS

This is a reminder that the college has an Appropriate Use Policy for computers and network resources. The policy says that "Computing and networking resources are provided for the educational, academic, and administrative purposes of the college." It goes on to describe both appropriate and inappropriate uses. Please be familiar with the policy which you can find at <http://www.lanecc.edu/cops/compusef.htm>

The policy applies to both staff and students, and covers all college owned computing equipment. That includes office workstations, computer labs and classrooms, network services, library systems, Banner, ExpressLane and e-mail. These systems are provided to do the business of the college.

Examples of inappropriate behaviors include: running a personal business with college equipment; overloading the network with inappropriate traffic; storing personal digital pictures on college servers; downloading inappropriate materials to an office workstation; committing financial fraud; or accessing someone else's account. It's not possible to give an exhaustive list. Just remember that computing resources are provided to do the business of the college and use must be consistent with our mission and respect the rights of other users. Submitted by Stephen F. Pruch, Associate Vice President for Information Technology.

PERSONAL USE OF COLLEGE EQUIPMENT

The Personal Use policy at <http://www.lanecc.edu/cops/equipuse.htm> complements and reinforces the Appropriate Use Policy by reiterating that "College equipment shall be used only for college business." If you are using a college cell phone, be sure to read this policy. Our policy is more restrictive than most staff expect due to the limitations of Oregon laws and the "Advisory Opinion" cited in the policy. This policy has a helpful Q&A section at the end which uses examples to demonstrate how the policy works. Submitted by Stephen F. Pruch, Associate Vice President for Information Technology.

HELP SAVE US! We are two semi-feral one-year-old kittens currently in foster care. We must have a place by March 20th or we face euthanasia. We are bonded to each other; male and female siblings. We are spayed and neutered and have all of our shots. We need a place where we can live outside, and a human to provide food and water. We come with a shelter-so all we need is a place to put it. In foster care we've been inside so our hunting skills are rusty. We're almost a year old. We're very nervous around people. We can be touched but do not like to be picked up. We'd like a place where we can keep to ourselves. Please help. Call Anne 510-5045. Submitted by Fiora Starchild-Wolf.

HOMES FOR HOUNDS is sponsoring a Greyhound Adoption Event on Sunday, March 29th at the Old Mill Farm Store (327 South River Road) in Cottage Grove. If you've ever thought about adopting a retired greyhound, now is your opportunity to meet a few of these wonderful, loving, couch-potatoes and fall in love. Homes for Hounds will do a house visit to make sure your place is greyhound approved, but they really don't need that much space. If you need motivation to get you out and exercising (Pedometer program?), Greyhounds make great running or walking buddies! For more information, contact Cathie Reschke at ext. 5079, or Marjorie at mbeckorg@aol.com

WOMEN'S BUSINESS CLOTHING NEEDED: A female Lane Community College student, Dee Lauzon, was asked by Phi Theta Kappa International headquarters to run for International Vice President of Phi Theta Kappa, Division 4 (please see www.ptk.org for further information about the election). This election will take place in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on April 2 - 5, but Dee is leaving Eugene on March 28th. Dee is currently the President of Lane's Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa, and is also the Regional Vice President of Phi Theta Kappa of Southern Oregon. If Dee is elected, this will be the first time since the mid 1970's that Lane will have had a student in this prestigious position. This is an international leadership opportunity and Dee is required to wear business clothing during her campaign. Because of the short notice of this opportunity, Dee is in need of assistance in donation of clothing or other donations for the purchase of campaign materials (printing costs, airfare and hotel, etc.). If you are able to help, Dee is in need of clothing (suits, shirts, slacks, a formal gown, shoes, or monetary assistance with the purchase of these) in clothing sizes 18-20; shoe sizes 10-11. Any monetary assistance toward clothing and/or supplies/hotel/airfare would also be greatly appreciated. If you are able to contribute, please contact Dee at 606-3366 before March 25. Thank you. Submitted by Marge Barnhart, x5137.

200 CHILDREN'S BOOKS WANTED: The Child and Family Center (Lane's child care center) is collecting children's books during the month of April. We are need of some new or gently used books for children ages 2 to 6 years old. You can drop off your books or cash donations (we will buy some new books with your help) in these locations on campus: Building 24, Lane Family Child Center, Building 1, Disability Services, Center Building by the staircase going to the Bookstore, and Building 1 Enrollment Services second floor. Just look for the boxes marked April Book Drive for Teachers. We can pick books up too. If you have any questions feel free to give us a call 463-3076 Marsha or Michel at 463-3522.

FREE TRAILER CHASSIS. This would make an excellent landscaping trailer or other trailer that needs to be fairly low to the ground. It was a small hunting camper that has been sitting for a while. I'm pretty sure that all the electrical still works, and the frame is good, but it needs the trailer top to be removed and hauled away. If you'd like a great chassis free for a little elbow grease, this may be just right for you. Contact Laura Martin at martinl@lanecc.edu or x5795.

WANTED: A female to live with my elderly mother. Free room and board in her Southeast Eugene home. Would help Mom function in her own home. Some health care experience would be a plus. Some compensation is negotiable. Must be honest and caring. If you are interested and want more details, please call Carole at 463-5605 during the day or 726-3758 - evenings and weekends.``

I'M LOOKING FOR BROKEN VCRs to scavenger parts for an electrical project for two young boys. If you bring it to campus, I'll pick-up from your office and properly dispose of the unwanted materials. thanks, John Steele. Math Division, ext. 5399, steelej@lanecc.edu ``

A GREAT VACATION GET AWAY, with very reasonable rates, is found at the BLK Beach House in Florence. Not only that, you can bring your dog for free. This is a newer manufactured home in great condition with a spacious open living room, 2 bedrooms, 1 bath, and the kitchen is supplied with everything you need: pots, pans, microwave, coffee pot, toaster and more. There is a queen size bed in one bedroom and twin and full size beds in the other room. It's a five-minute walk to the beach. This is our home away from home and rented only to select clientele (like Lane employees) and guests are on the honor system to respect our home. The rates are very reasonable, in part because you are expected to clean up after yourself upon departure. There's a two-night minimum and rates are $58/weekend night in the winter for two. The cost increases by $3 for each additional person. Weekday rates and weekly rates are cheaper. Call Wendy Simmons at 431-1277 or e-mail her atmailto:simmons@efn.org wsimmons@efn.org for more information.``

Lane Community College maintained its fourth place standing out of 78 schools in our division, "waste minimization." Last week, the college recycled 8,800 pounds of "core recycleables" (paper, cardboard and beverage containers) and created 8,700 pounds of trash. Since the competition began seven weeks ago the college recycled 52,920 pounds of core recycleables and created 65,736 pounds of trash. See the full results at <http://www.recyclemaniacs.org/viewresult.aspx?Compld=3&isSubsection=False> Contact: Mike Sims.

SMOKING AREA MAINTENANCE

The Facilities grounds maintenance crew will be removing cigarette ash urns from buildings around main campus that are not in compliance and not part of Lane's smoking policy. They will also remove two designated areas which trap smoke and/or cause smoke to go into air intake systems and consequently inside buildings. You may notice a collection of debris on the ground in those areas and the grounds crew will continue to clean on its regular schedule. Notices will be put up at the designated areas being removed. For questions about the changes or the smoking policy, contact our Smoke Task Force at health&safetypolicyteam@lanecc.edu

NINETY PERCENT OF INCOMING E-MAIL IS SPAM

E-mail coming into the college is filtered to prevent spam from reaching your GroupWise Mailbox. The college receives a detailed weekly report of filtering activity. A notable statistic from the week of March 13: 90.2 percent of incoming e-mail was filtered out as spam. That's not a mistype: 90.2 percent of incoming mail was filtered out as spam. While that number is high, it is not the highest recorded. Our spam percentage consistently runs over 80 percent.

Two other numbers we watch are the number of false positives (e-mail filtered that we want delivered) and the number of false negatives (e-mail received that we want filtered). For the week of March 13 we reported 24 false positives and 217 false negatives. Total incoming messages for the week were 1,041,391.

AAUW ESTABLISHES KAPPY EATON SCHOLARSHIP AT LANE

The Eugene-Lane Branch of the American Association of University Women has established the AAUW Kappy Eaton Scholarship Fund with the Lane Foundation. The fund will create an ongoing endowment for a woman LCC graduate who is transferring to a four-year university or college.

Women earn 66 percent of degrees and certificates at Lane, according to recent research. Women comprise 56 percent of Lane credit students.

The scholarship honors the many contributions Kappy Eaton has made to AAUW, nationally and locally, in advancing equity in education for women and girls. Eaton is a life member of AAUW and past branch president.

If your department needs posters, brochures, forms, anything at all, let us help you. No job too small and the only costs are for actual expenses like printing costs. We extend this offer to businesses as well, so please pass this along to anyone you know who could benefit from some free graphic design. As there are more than 20 students, we can handle a lot of assignments. We can assist you in getting quotes on printing and finding the best deal. We can also coordinate the printing, pick up and delivery of the product. The actual printing is not free. Thanks for your support of our program! For more information, contact Tom Madison, 463-5774 or madisont@lanecc.edu

Chairs and tables provided by Disability Services accommodations that are placed in specific rooms for specific students. These chairs and tables are not to be removed by students, faculty, or any other LCC employee, except the responsible Facilities Management staff. Students who have furniture accommodations must request the furniture each term, so that DS knows where the furniture is needed. There is a great deal of effort by Facilities Management and Disability Services to get the appropriate furniture to the requesting students in a timely manner. So, if an adjustable table, ergonomic or padded chair appears in your classroom, do not remove it. Students who have furniture accommodations have a Letter of Accommodation (LOA) which identifies them as the student who is to use the chair/table. If there are more students with LOAs identifying them as needing furniture accommodations than there are chairs in the room, have the students come to DS and speak with Cathie. If you have questions, contact Cathie Reschke at 5079, Terri Sullivan at 5280, or Disability Services at 5150.

STUDENT E-MAILS AND DIGITAR SPAM FILTER

Strategy #2 in the document linked at the end of this paragraph will enable you to stop searching through your quarantine for student e-mails. Strategy #4 describes how to whitelist all quarantined student e-mails at one time, so you won't have to look at your quarantine for the rest of the term. See <http://lanecc.edu/it/hdrefs/digitar-external-emails.pdf>

Whether a student is in your frequent contacts or is responding to an e-mail from you will have no effect on whether or not their e-mail will be quarantined. The quarantine is based on the characteristics of the incoming mail only. Whitelisting the student e-mails at the DigiTar quarantine, as described in the link above, will ensure that those addresses are never quarantined again.

For more information about setting up and using the DigiTar spam filter go to this link: <http://lanecc.edu/it/training/DigitarHelp.html>

If you would like to be walked through the process of setting up your filter and whitelisting your students, contact Michael Levick.

NEWS & ANNOUNCEMENTS

HONOR STUDENTS AND LEADERS BRING HOME TOP AWARDS

President Mary Spilde was awarded a Shirley B. Gordon Award of Distinction and Vice President for Instruction and Student Services Sonya Christian was awarded a Distinguished Administrator Award, at the Phi Theta Kappa annual conference in Philadelphia last week. Chapter Advisor Velda Arnaud was awarded the Paragon Award for New Advisors for the third year in a row. PTK is the international honor society for two-year colleges.

"Our chapter received the Scholarship Hallmark Award, and we were listed for the second year in a row as one of the top 100 chapters," says Velda. "Even better, we were listed as a Distinguished Chapter. The Distinguished Chapters are the top 25, so we are very proud of that accomplishment." In addition, Dee Lauzon, student president of Lane's PTK chapter, was elected as international vice president of Division IV. Chapter Vice President Megan Worman was her campaign manager and also joined Velda to present two forums on designing chapter websites.

For more information contact Velda at 5682 or arnaudv@lanecc.edu or go online to www.lanecc.edu/ptk or www.ptk.org/hallmarks/awards.htm.

PTK CELEBRATES 40 YEARS

Are you or someone you know a member of Phi Theta Kappa? This year marks the chapter's 40th Anniversary, and we are celebrating the milestone in conjunction with the Rocky Mountain/Cascade Regional Awards Conference in May. A social will held Saturday afternoon, May 10, and all alumni are welcome. If you have pictures or amusing stories of chapter events, please e-mail those to me.

We are also looking for charter members for an alumni chapter. There is no further obligation other than to help get the alumni chapter started. We need ten members who have been alumni for at least five years. Having an alumni chapter will help provide continuity between years and allow for mentoring of new officers.

If you would like to attend the 40th Anniversary social or help us start an alumni chapter, please contact Velda Arnaud, Chapter Advisor, at 463-5682.

COLLEGE COUNCIL REPORT

The chairs of the Learning, Facilities, Diversity and Student Affairs Councils gave reports at the April 10 College Council meeting in response to a request for an update on their work and activities to assess how the governance structure is working. It was made clear that in some instances, College Council has not met the expectations of the other groups. It was also learned that some councils have enthusiastic student involvement, others are working diligently on their work plan, and Technology and Finance councils are currently inactive. College Council will have future discussion on the particular circumstances of each of these councils. Completed notes from the April 10 meeting will be posted at <http://www.lanecc.edu/governance/councils/college/ccmeetings.htm>

This is our home away from home and rented only to select clientele (like Lane employees) and guests are on the honor system to respect our home. NEXTSTEP RECYCLING NAMED CO-OP EMPLOYER OF THE YEAR

NextStep Recycling of Eugene has been named the 2008 Cooperative Education Employer of the Year. Students from accounting, information technology, multimedia and other programs have interned at NextStep since company founder Lorraine Kerwood was just starting out, "refurbishing Mac computers in her garage," says Andrea Newton, co-op division chair. MARCH CLASSIFIED EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

Kudos and congratulations go to March's Classified Employee of the Month Linda Schantol, Language, Literature and Communication. Representatives of the Classified Professional Development Team joined department staff to present Linda with the Employee of the Month award for April. Linda was hired as an Administrative Support Specialist November 16, 1998 and hired as Administrative Coordinator on February 23, 2006 for LLC.

Linda's colleagues gave numerous examples to justify her receiving this award. To name just a few, she works for the higher good of Lane Community College, with the understanding that its mission and values apply widely and ultimately to serve students, and that the college is not an abstraction, but a composite of individuals and groups with real faces and sometimes competing agendas. She's funny and on top of things and a lifesaver. She has a contagious happy disposition which makes one sense immediately that she is quite approachable. She acknowledges work well done by others, and she is always available to pitch in to help anybody. Linda excels in interactions with students, faculty, administration, and all who come to the office or the front desk. Linda is married and has three adopted cats. She is an avid Duck fan who loves college sports, especially football and basketball; and loves photography, traveling, golfing and walking. When you see Linda, congratulate her for doing a terrific job and celebrate her nomination as April's Classified Employee of the Month.

Help us to recognize exemplary classified employees by nominating them for this award by the 15th of each month. Nomination forms are available: 1) on the CPDT webpage: <http://www.lanecc.edu/cpdt/eom.html> ; or 2) from Elaine Marsh, IRAP: marshe@lanecc.edu .

MOMENT CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS: WHERE DO WE GO FROM HERE?

When you pick up your 2008 Community College Moment at the Spring In-service this Friday, don't forget to check the inside back cover for our 2009 Call for Submissions. There, you'll find the natural successor to the Democracy theme. Next year, we want to consider New Directions, our 2009 theme. We all know our world is changing. But how do we respond to change? What directions do we take in political, social, economic, environmental, and technological areas? What has changed in our disciplines? What has changed in our students and in the ways they learn? What new paths are open for them? What new ways might we view our educational and institutional practices? How do we maintain relevance, practicality, and the integrity of the mission of higher education? Where do we go from here?

As always, we consider submissions year-round on any topic related to the community college mission and environment. Deadline for the 2009 issue: October 27, 2008. Check our website for full submission guidelines and further information:

FM&P PROJECT UPDATE

LONGHOUSE: Bids were opened for the log erection and wood framing on April 23. The apparent low bidder was McBeth Builders. The bid award has to be approved by the board at its May meeting. Work will also begin soon to pour the concrete slab for the building.

MAINTENANCE: FMP staff priorities this week are risk management and safety items required by an insurance audit.

BLDG. 1 LIGHTING: The lighting system is currently on override which means all lights are on 24/7 pending repairs to the system. The repairs are a high priority energy conservation issue so Facilities staff and an electrical contractor have been working to identify what parts and adjustments are needed.

BLDG. 16 CANOPY: The canopy has been installed and workers will be sealing joints to prevent leaks.

PRESSURE WASHING: With the arrival of spring, workers will be scheduled to pressure wash some buildings on campus over the next couple of months.

HEALTH & WELLNESS: The board approved the contract award for architectural services to SRG Partnership, Inc. The Project User Group (PUG) met with the architects on April 16 to review the budget breakdown, time schedule and begin programming and on April 23 to provide information to the architects about specific space needs for each program.

BOND: The criteria application group met twice and plans to conclude its work at a meeting on April 30. The group will forward recommendations to VP Sonya Christian and President Mary Spilde. The final recommendations are expected to be presented to the board at the May meeting and decisions made in June on what buildings, programs or units will be included.

NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

INNOVATION OF THE YEAR 2008 IS "BACK ON COURSE"

Back On Course (BOC) is a one-credit class designed as an intervention for students who are not meeting college academic progress standards. BOC was collaboratively developed by faculty and staff in Financial Aid, Counseling/Human Development and Enrollment Services. The curriculum for BOC uses Skip Downing's On Course text and was developed collaboratively by four Human Development instructors. Outcomes indicate Back On Course is effective in assisting students to meet academic progress standards with 73 percent of the students who completed BOC achieving good standing. A committee of prior Innovation of the Year winners made this selection which will be featured on the League for Innovation website for national recognition. KEVIN WILLIAMS NAMED CLASSIFIED EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

Kudos and congratulations go to May's Classified Employee of the Month, Kevin Williams of Facilities Management and Planning. Representatives of the Classified Professional Development Team joined staff of FMP to present Kevin with the Employee of the Month award for May. Kevin was hired June 8, 1999 as the HVAC technician in FMP. Kevin has demonstrated excellence in his work performance through exceptional ability and willingness to address hundreds of HVAC related issues associated with environmental temperatures and equipment failures that have occurred in LCC's aging systems throughout the main campus, the Downtown Center, and at the Florence center. Kevin responds with consideration for each request, listening to the needs of the requestors, and providing the best possible solutions for each person. Kevin does not just "fix" equipment. He responds to calls by meeting with the person that requested the support to discuss what can be done to help make areas more comfortable or to support science lab temperature requirements, or to schedule occupancies for scheduled events.

Kevin is a hard working highly knowledgeable energetic HVAC technician with an exceptional desire to provide the highest quality instructional environments possible for all faculty, staff and students. Kevin goes the extra mile every day. When you see Kevin, congratulate him for doing a terrific job and celebrate his nomination as May's Classified Employee of the Month.

And remember that, you too, can help us to recognize exemplary classified employees by nominating them for this award by the 15 of each month. Nomination forms are available: 1) on the CPDT website: <http://www.lanecc.edu/cpdt/eom.html> ; or 2) from Elaine Marsh, IRAP: marshe@lanecc.edu

OREGON'S SMALL BUSINESSES ADD JOBS

Small businesses assisted by Oregon Small Business Development Centers created 872 full time jobs between July and December 2007.

Given the slowdown in the economy that is prompting industries across Oregon to reduce workforce, the addition of 872 full time jobs over six months is a welcome ray of sunshine. The Oregon Employment Department verified the figures recently released by the Oregon Small Business Development Center Network (OSBDCN). The Oregon SBDC business clients, who attribute SBDC assistance with helping them achieve these milestones, also accessed capital of $22,985,885 and increased revenues by $22,749,092.

"Small Businesses are the drivers of Oregon's economy. This year marks the Oregon SBDC Network's 25th year of service to small business owners, helping them achieve success. Thousands of businesses in every corner of the state have used our services. We look forward to working with these remarkable entrepreneurs for the next 25 years," Christine Krygier, Acting State Director said.

The Oregon Small Business Development Center Network of 19 centers located statewide provides business management assistance to businesses from start up to growing, to selling or exiting. Last year the SBDCs provided assistance to over 14,000 businesses. The Network offers Oregon's small businesses free business development consulting, as well as training and access to vital resources.

OSBDCN is a partnership of the Small Business Administration, the Oregon Economic Development Department and Oregon community colleges and universities. OSBDCN is headquartered at Lane. Contact: Lisa Wald.

FMP PROJECT UPDATE

SOLAR ELECTRIC PROJECT: Work began last week on the east side of building 24 to prepare for the installation of photovoltaic panels by the Renewable Energy Technician class. Contractors drilled a large hole to hold one pole for the project this spring and one for the future. Once students install the panels, an electrical contractor will connect the panels to bring electricity from the sun to the building. Finally we will install an educational sign that will help explain the project for our students, staff and the public. The project construction is planned to be complete in at the end of June 2008. For more information go to <http://www.lanecc.edu/sustainability/projects.html>

LONGHOUSE: McBeth Builders, Inc. will have a large crane delivered and plans to begin log erection this week.

BUILDINGS 1 & 16 LIGHTING PROJECT: Building 1 first floor is nearly done but parts need to be replaced for the second floor. Christensen Electric is working in building 16 replacing parts and commissioning.

CENTER BUILDING RELIEF FANS: Bid opening is next week for a contractor to replace old relief fans in the Center building. The new equipment will save energy and maintain air pressure so doors don't fly open or become difficult to pull open.

RETURN TO SERVICE BUILDING: A bid is out to build a metal stairway to the second level storage area at the RTS building near the airport. This work is in preparation of the Aviation Maintenance move from building 10 to the RTS building. Design work is in progress to prepare for all the equipment connections needed at RTS.

BIO-SOLIDS DRYING: Drying of the bio-solids in the lagoon ponds will continue this spring when FMP has bid results next week. The selected contractor will use equipment with an auger to turn over the material to speed up the drying process. Weather permitting, the process should be complete in lagoon #1 in about two weeks and in lagoon #2 in about two-to-six weeks.

KLCC PAINTING PROJECT: The painters completed painting the exterior of the KLCC building downtown but dry rot was discovered around a window frame. Work to replace that second floor window will be done this summer.

PAVING PROJECTS: Main campus parking lots will undergo maintenance and repairs this summer. Facilities staff will be coordinating with events that are scheduled. In addition, we will be working with the users at the Wildish building to schedule an overlay, re-striping, and installation of signs and bumpers next to adjacent buildings.

HAMMER CAGE: The painters are repainting the P.E. hammer cage to have it ready in time for the summer Olympic trials.

HEALTH & WELLNESS BUILDING: Programming is continuing with meetings between LCC staff and the architects. Commissioning agent proposals are being received and evaluated.

BIRD NEST UPDATE: FMP is cleaning up after the bird droppings on a regular basis near building 3 and a few other high traffic areas. FMP personnel will not disturb established nests. We are considering getting pricing from several local professional firms that specialize in preserving and relocating established nests in accordance with all laws, regulations, and policies. Submitted by Susan Tatar for Facilities Management & Planning.

ART STUDENTS WIN LEAGUE AWARDS

Two Lane students won Best of Show and Honorable Mention in the League of Innovation National Student Art Competition sponsored by the San Diego Community College District this year. The First Place Best of Show was awarded to Deborah Taube for an untitled wood sculpture that was featured in the Lane Arts Division Student Arts Show in April. Honorable Mentions were given to eight student artists including Linda D'Agosto Yaeger for an oil piece titled "It's Not Simple" also shown in the Lane Arts Division Student Exhibition. Under the leadership of San Diego City College, the competition included more than 90 works of art from League colleges. "We are so very proud of our student's work and our thanks go to arts Instructor Adam Grosowsky for organizing the Lane the student submissions to the League of Innovation and to Jennifer Salzman and our gallery committee for mounting such an exciting student exhibition this spring," says division chair Rick Williams. PHOEBE ANDERSON NAMED EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

Kudos and congratulations to June's Classified Employee of the Month, Phoebe Anderson in Cooperative Education. Representatives of the Classified Professional Development Team joined staff of Cooperative Ed and the We Care Committee to present Phoebe with the Employee of the Month award for June. Phoebe worked in several hourly positions before being hired full-time in May 2005 in her current position. Her colleagues gave numerous examples to justify her receiving this award. To name just a few, Phoebe did a fabulous job as a co-chair of this year's We Care employee campaign. Phoebe is a role model for outstanding customer service. She will drop anything she is doing to help a student or visitor. She is friendly, respectful, and helpful to any person calling or stopping in the Co-op office. Phoebe makes people feel good about themselves and they leave with a smile. Her good humor, happy spirit, and cheerful demeanor while working are infectious. One way of defining leadership is how a person finds ways to bring out the best in others. In her work in Co-Op, the Employee Campaigns, and everything else she does, Phoebe brings out the best in all of us. Lane is a better place to work because of Phoebe Anderson. When you see Phoebe, congratulate her for doing a terrific job and celebrate her nomination as June's Classified Employee of the Month. And remember that, you too, can help us to recognize exemplary classified employees by nominating them for this award by the 15 of each month. Nomination forms are available: 1) on the CPDT website: <http://www.lanecc.edu/cpdt/eom.html> ; or 2) from Elaine Marsh, IRAP: marshe@lanecc.edu

HEALTH INSURANCE AND OEGB INFORMATION SESSIONS

The College Joint Insurance Committee (JIC) has been meeting during spring term to discuss the new Oregon Education Benefits Board (OEGB) health insurance plans. Moving onto the new OEGB health insurance plans now or in the future is a very important decision that will impact individual employees and the whole college. College administration and Human Resources representatives believe that it is vital for Lane employees to have accurate information concerning the OEGB health insurance plans to inform this important decision. Therefore, the Human Resources benefits team will host two information sessions for all Lane employees to provide information concerning the new OEGB health insurance plans. These meetings are informational and are not intended nor will be used by Human Resources representatives or college administrators to assess or respond to final proposals from the two unions. These OEGB information meetings also will not be used to influence decisions by the Lane Board of Education concerning whether to support a final decision to change health insurance coverage to the OEGB plans. The two OEGB information meetings are scheduled:

Wednesday, June 11, 3 - 4 PM, Forum room 308

Thursday, June 12, 4 - 5 PM, Forum room 308

For more information, contact your designated representatives (LCCEF, LCCEA or MSC) or a member of the Human Resources benefits team (Mary Glenn at 5583, Sharon Daniel at 5190, or Heidi Chase at 5592). Additional information is also available at <http://www.oregon.gov/DAS/OEGB/index.shtml>

NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

BOARD APPROVES BOND MEASURE

The Lane Community College Board of Education voted unanimously Wednesday to place an $83 million bond measure on the November 4 ballot to fund facilities renovations, upgrades and remodels for workforce training and education.

The 15-year bond would continue the investment of approximately 25 cents per $1,000 of assessed value that property owners are paying on the current bond, which retires in 2009.

"Lane's mission is to help people achieve their dreams," said board chair Pat Riggs-Henson. "As a responsible steward of the public's resources, we need to update our classrooms and infrastructure."

"This would make a huge difference for Lane," said President Mary Spilde. "Over the past few years we've focused our scarce resources on instruction and services. This is an exciting opportunity to reinvest in and renew Lane Community College."

Many buildings on main campus are more than 40 years old and need new heating and cooling systems, plumbing, roofing, and other upgrades. Classrooms and labs need renovations to increase access and allow multiple uses, alleviate crowding during peak demand times, and provide appropriate instructional technology and equipment.

The board approved 16 projects that vary in scope and approximate costs. More information is available at <http://www.lanecc.edu/bond> Also see the Register-Guard story at

NEW AFTER-HOURS DISPATCH SERVICE FOR PUBLIC SAFETY

Effective July 11, Campus Public Safety will have a new after-hours dispatch service. Junction City Police Department will answer the emergency line (5555) in the evenings after 5 p.m. and on weekends. Public Safety will continue to answer the emergency line between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. Mondays through Fridays. Junction City Police will be responsible to dispatch emergency calls to Campus Public Safety officers and assist officers with contacting outside emergency services such as fire, police and ambulance response.

"This is a collaborative partnership that will enhance service response and the professionalism of our dedicated Public Safety team," says Katherine Vos, Operations Manager of Public Safety. The emergency phones (including the new blue phones) will invisibly transfer to Junction City where the trained dispatcher will answer "Junction City Police." The dispatcher will have maps of the campus and many are familiar with LCC as most attended classes here campus.

Vos reminds everyone that the emergency line should only be used for those situations that warrant an immediate public safety, fire or medical aid response. All other non-emergency calls for service should be directed to Campus Public Safety non-emergency line, 5558. Non-emergency service calls are those that don't require an immediate response such as unlocking a door, lost and found items, and informational questions. The non-emergency line is answered during normal business hours. Public Safety officers check the non-emergency line periodically for messages and will return calls during non-business hours. For more information contact Katherine Vos at 5561 or vosk@lanecc.edu

RESCUED KITTIES NEED HOMES. 2 weeks ago "Mimi" moved into my sleeping porch with her two kittens. I can keep one kitten, but the mother and other kitten need homes. The mother is a beautiful tuxedo cat, and very affectionate. Though she lived rough for her first year, she is very responsive to care and attention, and will make a great pet! She has been spayed and had a first series of shots. "Minnow" is one of her kittens... a tuxedo boy. He is 12 weeks old, and has had his first shots. He is a little shy at first, but when he feels safe he is a real goofball! He is an impressive athlete, and loves to play. I can e-mail pictures... contact Jan Halvorsen (Media Arts) at: halvorsenj@lanecc.edu or call 689-7824.

SEVEN TIMES IN SEVEN YEARS--TOP MARKS FOR THE PRESIDENT

President Mary Spilde received her seventh straight outstanding performance evaluation from the Board of Education at its July 9 meeting. "Mary Spilde is Lane Community College's greatest asset," said past chair Pat Riggs-Henson. The president was evaluated on several points within each of seven performance categories on a scale of 1 to 5. The categories were: leadership and strategic direction, educational outcomes, board relations, financial management, staff management and supervision, communication, and decision-making and governance. Ratings of five dominated every category. Nothing came in less than four, and perfect scores were given for achieving educational outcomes, and making effective decisions.

Accomplishments noted by the board were launching innovative new programs with little or no added burden to the general fund. The board also credited the president for "significant advances towards long-term fiscal stability" in difficult economic times by working with legislative and government officials and increasing fundraising efforts.

The board commended the president for her new leadership roles as co-chair of the Post-Secondary Quality Education Commission, and chair-elect of the American Association of Community Colleges.

"Mary's belief that the future will get better is an inspiration to all," said Riggs-Henson. The evaluation was approved by unanimous 7-0 vote. Submitted by Joan Aschim.

BOARD ELECTS JOHNSTON, ALBRIGHT

The Lane Community College Board of Education named Susie Johnston of Pleasant Hill as 2008/09 chair, and Pat Albright of Eugene as vice chair, by unanimous vote at its July 9 meeting. Also serving on the board are Robert Ackerman, Roger Hall, and Tony McCown, all of Eugene, Paul Holman of Florence, and Pat Riggs-Henson of Springfield. Submitted by Joan Aschim.

NEW STUDENT RECRUITMENT AND OUTREACH COORDINATOR

Enrollment and Student Financial Services is very pleased to be able to announce the start date for David Van Der Haeghen (rhymes with "wagon"), who will become Lane's first Student Recruitment and Outreach Coordinator on August 7. As you all know, Karen Edmonds' former position as our High School and Community Relations Coordinator has been vacant since last September and it will be wonderful for all of you who generously pitched in to help over the past year to have David here!

This job is also 100% focused now on efforts toward recruiting high school students. Enrollment Services will no longer be coordinating a Lane County Fair presence or be attending community events that aren't directed toward high school students so we can put our full efforts into attracting more high school students to Lane. This position will work very closely with the High School Connections Team and will also have a focus on building relationships with high school students from the point of interest all the way through to their first day of class. David is also conversational in Spanish, which is an important skill for this position and the community we all serve. Submitted by Helen B. Garrett

PARKING LOT PAINTING

Facilities painters will be cleaning and striping parking lots on main campus over the next few weeks. They have already completed some areas but may be coming back to paint curbs. Please be aware of barriers in the lots as they move from area to area. Some work areas may cover a large area, but with the good weather the painters are able to finish each area quickly. If you have any questions, contact Facilities at 5216.

SUMMER PROGRAMMING ON LANE-TV

A major component of the Lane Peace Center is an annual peace conference. This year's Peace Conference had most of the sessions videotaped. These videos can be seen on LANE-TV, Comcast channel 23 and Charter Communications channel 9. The programs will air Mondays starting at 8 p.m. and end somewhere between 9:45 and 11 p.m. depending on length and number of programs aired. Repeat showings are Thursdays at 5 p.m. and Sundays at 9 a.m. They will run all summer. If you would like to know who the presenters are, you can visit lanecc.edu/peacecenter/conference/index.html.

LANE-TV will also present Pura Fe and Danny Godinez in concert. This concert was a fundraiser for the Lane Community College Longhouse fund. It will air on Wednesdays at 8:30 p.m., Saturdays at 2 and 10 p.m. It runs an hour and 45 minutes. This will run all summer. The Longhouse at Lane Community College will be a home for Native American students to share their values and cultures. It will also provide an educational resource for the curriculum as well as the physical campus.

For more information about how you can support the Longhouse, visit the webpages at lanecc.edu/nasa/longhouse/fund.html. To see the construction progress, visit the Longhouse web cam at lanecc.edu/nasa/longhouse/webcam.htm. Submitted by Dean Middleton

KLCC WILL BROADCAST OFAM OPENING NIGHT GALA

On Wednesday, July 30, KLCC will broadcast the Opening Night Gala--Cotton Club Stomp--of this year's Oregon Festival of American Music (OFAM) from the Hult Center. Cotton Club Stomp begins at 7:30 p.m.

KLCC has been providing live broadcasts of OFAM's opening night performances for several years. KLCC listeners from the Coast to Bend and Salem to Roseburg can enjoy this event on their radio or via KLCC's live stream at www.klcc.org. The theme of the festival is "Over the Rainbow" featuring the music of America in hard times. The musical journey begins July 30 with an evening of music from the golden years of the famed Cotton Club in the late 1920s and early 1930s. OFAM Jazz Director Ken Peplowski and his big band welcome Clairdee, Maria Jette, Byron Stipling, Red Holloway and a host of guests.

BEST OF FIRST GIS GRADUATES EARNS AWARD AND A TRIP TO SAN DIEGO

Lane has awarded Springfield High School alumnus Steve Farset its first Outstanding Geographic Information Science Student Award. The award includes a trip to the Environmental Systems Research Institute International Users Conference in San Diego, California, from August 4-8.

Farset, 27, is one of the GIS program's first graduates. Lane won a $782,144 three-year grant in 2006 from the National Science Foundation Advanced Technological Education Fund (grant number 0603492) to develop the Mapping, Analyzing and Problem Solving (MAPS) GIS program. "I can't even begin to describe how happy I am," said Farset. "Throughout every step in the learning process in the GIS program at Lane, I felt like the education and experience was top notch and could not be any better."

GIS graduates have the demonstrated skill sets necessary for entry-level jobs in the fast-growing GIS workforce. Local professionals and the State of Oregon acknowledge Lane's GIS certificate and courses transfer to most Oregon universities. For more information on Lane's MAPS GIS program, visit <http://qis.lanec.edu/Plone>.

LEAVING DOGS IN HOT VEHICLES IS NOT COOL

Public Safety reminder: As the summer heats up, it's important to be aware of the dangers of leaving companion animals inside hot cars. Every year, dogs die after being locked inside cars while their guardians work, visit, attend class, or enroll. These tragic deaths are entirely preventable.

Every time we drive with a dog, we need to ask ourselves, "Is it too hot to take my dog along today?" Warm weather can literally be a killer for a dog left inside a car. When it's 85 degrees out, the temperature inside a car - even with the windows left slightly open - can soar to 102 degrees in 10 minutes and can reach 120 in just half an hour. On hotter days, the temperature will climb even higher. A dog's normal body temperature ranges from 101 to 102.5 degrees. Dogs can withstand a body temperature of 107 to 108 degrees for only a very short period of time before suffering brain damage or death.

If your dog is overcome by the heat, immediately soak them with water and seek veterinary care as soon as possible. And if you see a dog in a potentially dangerous situation in a hot car, call either LCC Public Safety (if on campus), your local police department or the Humane Society. Katherine Vos, Public Safety Operations Manager, reminds those who travel with their dog, "it's just not cool to leave a dog in a hot car." For more information, visit www.MyDogsCool.com.

PLANNING AHEAD - NOVEMBER 1: HIGH SCHOOL STATE CROSS-COUNTRY MEET

Since 1971, Lane has hosted the state cross-country championships. Please consider the magnitude of the event when scheduling campus events for Saturday, November 1. Eldon Schafer drive will be closed from 8 a.m. - 4 p.m. and the parking lots will be packed. Attendance figures have averaged over 4,500. Please contact Grady O'Connor (ext. 5550) with any questions.

SUMMER PROGRAMMING ON LANE-TV

A major component of the Lane Peace Center is an annual peace conference. This year's Peace Conference had most of the sessions videotaped. These videos can be seen on LANE-TV, Comcast channel 23 and Charter Communications channel 9. The programs will air Mondays starting at 8 p.m. and end somewhere between 9:45 and 11 p.m. depending on length and number of programs aired. Repeat showings are Thursdays at 5 p.m. and Sundays at 9 a.m. They will run all summer. If you would like to know who the presenters are, visit lanecc.edu/peacecenter/conference/index.html.

LANE-TV will also present Pura Fe and Danny Godinez in concert. This concert was a fundraiser for the Lane Community College Longhouse fund. It will air on Wednesdays at 8:30 p.m. and Saturdays at 2 and 10 p.m. It runs an hour and 45 minutes. This will run all summer. The Longhouse at Lane Community College will be a home for Native American students to share their values and cultures. It will also provide an educational resource for the curriculum as well as the physical campus.

For more information about how you can support the Longhouse, visit the webpages at lanecc.edu/nasa/longhouse/fund.html. To see the construction progress, visit the Longhouse web cam at lanecc.edu/nasa/longhouse/webcam.htm.

MILLER FOUNDATION ISSUES SCHOLARSHIP CHALLENGE

Oregon's 17 community colleges have been challenged to outpace their fundraising for student scholarship money next year, thanks to a challenge grant from the James F. and Marion L. Miller Foundation.

The Miller Foundation, an independent, private organization established to enhance the quality of life of Oregonians through support of the arts and education, has offered to donate $1.5 million in total to the 17 community colleges. The challenges range from $50,000 up to $320,000 depending on the size of the college. Lane would receive $150,000 and possibly more if other colleges do not meet their target and funds are redistributed to colleges who meet or exceed their target.

To get the donation, each college's foundation has to raise an equal amount in new money.

If the colleges can meet the challenge, it would result in hundreds of additional scholarships for some of the most financially strapped students throughout Oregon.

For more information, contact Lane's Foundation at 463-5226. Submitted by the editor.

FACILITIES PROJECT UPDATE

LONGHOUSE: LCC carpenters are siding with cedar shingles and the framing contractor will complete their work this week. The weather-tight shell is on schedule to be completed by October 1.

EXCEPTIONAL QUALITY BIOSOLIDS: Drying is complete to 75 percent solids. Test results will be back on September 8 to determine if the material meets the requirements for Class A biosolids. Material will be removed from the ponds after tests are complete and approved.

RTS REMODEL AND MOVE: Stairway construction will start on August 25 and is expected to be complete September 5 at the AMTF building at the airport, also known as the Return to Service or RTS building. Bids are out for the Utility Upgrade Package for the RTS and hangar, but a construction start of August 20 is pending permit approvals.

CHILDCARE BUILDING 25 IMPROVEMENTS: Child Care building 25 will undergo a remodel to prepare a portion of the building for use by Head Start. Facilities staff and architects are fast-tracking the project for completion in the fall.

FLORENCE HVAC CONTROLS UPGRADE: The contractor is in the process of submitting a schedule and getting approvals for materials to be used for the work.

COTTAGE GROVE WALL REPAIR: Bids have been advertised for work to repair the wall on the southeast side damaged from leaks. Once we have a successful bidder, work will begin in late August and finish before fall term starts.

PARKING LOT RE-STRIPING: LCC painters have been working on parking lots to complete painting lines and curbs by fall term.

BUILDING 7 REMODEL: The remodel to relocate Public Safety to Building 7 is progressing with the electrical shop moving from the second floor to the first floor area once occupied by the grounds department. Frank and his crew now have an office in Building 32, which was once just equipment storage.

DENTAL LAB UPGRADE: The Building 4 dental lab upgrade largely paid for by grant funds will be complete by August 15. Cabinets were refinished, plumbing repaired and installed, and new countertops installed. An instructional podium and new flooring are scheduled to be installed this week. Most of the Facilities trades were involved in the project, as well as IT staff for the upgrade to smart classroom equipment.

POWER WASHING CONCETE: Facilities staff has been working around campus to clean off concrete walkways, stairs and terraces this summer to get ready for students returning fall term.

LANE STUDENTS TO ATTEND NATIONAL CONVENTIONS -- DEMOCRATIC AND REPUBLICAN

Two Lane Community College students with a passion for politics are headed for the national presidential nominating conventions. Matt Keating of Eugene will represent the 4th Congressional District as a delegate to the Democratic National Convention from August 25-28 in Denver. Keating, 32, is a theater arts major. He organized the Lane Community College chapter of Oregon Students for Obama. Chase Connor of Eugene will serve as a page at the Republican National Convention from September 1-4 in Minneapolis. He co-founded the Lane County Young Republicans. Connor, 20, is a hospitality major.

Each student will report on his convention experience through Lane's blog, Life@Lane, available from the college homepage. While they couldn't differ more in their political opinions, both students have completed internships through Lane's Cooperative Education program and each credits Lane faculty, including political science instructor co-op coordinator Steve Candee, for inspiring them to pursue their dreams. Through the co-op program, Candee connected the students with people and opportunities that matched their interests. Each has made close friends through their internships and each has done canvassing, signed up voters, and advocated for their respective causes and candidates. Connor says working on a campaign is the only way to go. "Democracy is not a spectator sport and you can't teach campaigning in a classroom. You have to experience it in real life." For each student, going to the convention is an unprecedented thrill.

Candee teaches political science and coordinates internships in political and legal offices. He is well known by local and state elected officials, and many of them give guest lectures or join panel discussions in his classes. This fall, for instance, he is lining up a discussion with Eugene mayoral candidates Kitty Piercy and Jim Torrey. Candee has bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Oregon and has taught at Lane for 22 years.

"I really want to get students to challenge their own beliefs and to gain more confidence in their beliefs and understand why they feel the way they do and be able to back it up," says Candee. "It's my job to find out what students' interests are and help them find opportunities to grow in those interests. My goal is to act in the interests of my students. That's my bottom line."

Cooperative education integrates on-the-job work or volunteer experience with academic studies. Students earn credit and a grade while working full-time or part-time in positions related to their career and academic goals. About 2,000 students and 800 employers participate in the co-op program each year, and Lane's program is one of the largest at any U.S. two-year college. For more information about the political science cooperative education program at Lane, contact Steve Candee at 463-5188.

MUNKVOLD NOMINATED FOR NATIONAL AWARD

In the August 2008 issue of NurseWeek, there is an article about Nursing Excellence Awards nominee finalists. Finalist nominations were ranked by regional nursing leaders on the judging panel. Regional winners in each category will be judged against other winners from across the country, with overall Nurse of the Year winners in each category to be announced at the end of the year. In the Northwest regional area, the teaching nominee is Julia Munkvold, RN, MSN. program coordinator, Lane Community College.

The article states, "Munkvold has worked tirelessly on strategies for increasing the number of nursing graduates in Oregon. Her statewide activities involve streamlining programs to allow ADN graduates to obtain their BSN degrees in only one additional year. Munkvold, who retired June 10, brought a simulation lab to Lane and did fundraising for a new health and wellness building."

CLAIRE MATESE NAMED CLASSIFIED EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

Kudos and congratulations go to August's Classified Employee of the Month, Claire Matese in Adult Basic and Secondary Education. Representatives of the Classified Professional Development Team joined staff of the ABSE to present Claire with the Employee of the Month award for August. Claire has been with LCC since June 2005 as an Instructional Coordinating Specialist in ABSE. Her colleagues gave numerous examples to justify her receiving this award. To name just a few, Claire thinks ahead and is able to anticipate many questions that the department chair has regarding department performance data. She is then able to provide charts/graphs and information even before it is asked for. In her three years here she has created quarterly reports and year-end reports that assist ABSE faculty to ensure data accuracy and timely reporting for federal grant reports. Claire exhibits outstanding customer service for internal and external partners of ABSE. In addition, she has developed phenomenal working relationships with staff in other departments, such as IRAP, IT, and ESL. Claire completes site visits to all locations that ABSE provides classes and uses her problem solving skills to ensure that department policies are followed. Outside of work Claire enjoys many hobbies such as running, soccer, yogilates, and taking care of her child. Claire's intelligence, humor, and enthusiasm are what all employees should strive for, and she's a great representative for Lane. When you see Claire, congratulate her for doing a terrific job and celebrate her nomination as August's Classified Employee of the Month.

And remember that, you too, can help us to recognize exemplary classified employees by nominating them for this award by the 15th of each month. Nomination forms are available: 1) on the CPDT website: <http://www.lanecc.edu/cpdt/eom.html> ; or 2) from Elaine Marsh, IRAP: marshe@lanecc.edu .

A SHAKESPEAREAN INTERLUDE AT SATURDAY MARKET

Saturday, September 6

Saturday Market will be a location for a short film to be included in William Shakespeare's The Winter's Tale, opening at Lane Community College this fall. The play previews Thursday, October 2, opens Friday, October 3, and plays three weekends. The scene is at the sheep-shearing festival in the fantasy land of Bohemia; singers entertain an audience, while their valuables are skillfully pilfered by the pickpocket Autolycus (played by Marc Siegel). Artistic director Judith (Sparky) Roberts and filmmaker Michael Maruska are inviting market-goers who want to be in the film to dress as celebrating gypsies and peasants, in earthy colors; wear a smile; and if possible, to bring a little bag or object to be "stolen." Each participant will receive a free ticket to a Thursday night of the production of The Winter's Tale. All ages are welcome at the filming, but for admission to the play, audience members must be over age 10.

NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTSPROBLEMS IN U.S. POLITICS FILM CLASS OFFERED

There are no easy answers, but students will try to come up with five of them in the Problems in U.S. Politics Through Film class at Lane this fall. Instructor Steve Candee first offered the class in 2002, skipped last year to work on other projects, but when students and colleagues asked him to present the class again in part due to the intensity of this year's election, he agreed.

Five issues will be explored: the economy; local, state and national elections; health care; immigration; and the death penalty.

Films are used to introduce the issues, followed by readings and speaker panels. For example, "Dead Man Walking" will be shown for the discussion on the death penalty. The section on elections will include a panel discussion of city and county policies on October 21 with Kitty Piercy and Jim Torrey, incumbent and challenger for Eugene mayor, and Bobby Green and Rob Handy, incumbent and challenger for county commissioner.

LANE RECEIVES NATIONAL RESEARCH GRANT TO IMPROVE QUALITY OF EDUCATION FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

The Disability Resources Department has been awarded an exciting grant opportunity: Project ShIFT (Shaping Inclusion through Foundational Transformation). This national demonstration research grant is funded through the Department of Education and will improve the quality of higher education for students with disabilities. Using national expertise, the project will provide social model education, technical training and support related to universal design of instruction (UDI) for staff and faculty in various colleges around the nation. The award is $1,068,000 dispersed over three years. Three positions will be hired: a project director, an administrative specialist, and a technology specialist. Nancy Hart in Disability Resources will oversee the project. She can be reached at ext. 3010.

DISABILITY DEPARTMENT CHANGES NAME AND WEBSITE

Disability Resources is the new name for Disability Services. We've embraced a growing national awareness about the importance of shifting from a medical model service-delivery approach to a social model of thinking. This transition involves a gradual process of increasing knowledge about disability culture and incorporating that into the department's tone, attitudes and beliefs. We welcome everyone's participation and feedback as we make progress on these fundamental changes in philosophy and practice. Our new website demonstrates our first major efforts in this transition. Please check it out and let us know what you think! Contact: Nancy Hart, 3010.

EARLY INDICATORS SHOW INCREASED DEMAND

Admissions and financial aid staff are accustomed to seeing an increase in students as fall term approaches, but demand is noticeably up this year.

- Early orientation and registration sessions attracted 2,000 students, or 67 percent more than last year's attendance of 1,200.

- Applications for admission have been completed by 7,897 new students, compared to 6,215 last year as of last week, an increase of 27 percent.

- Financial aid applications are up 23 percent. Financial aid staff say their colleagues at other Oregon community colleges report similar increases.

"It's common in a depressed economy and in times of higher unemployment for people to go back to college to seek training or retraining so they can qualify for new employment opportunities," says Helen Garrett, Associate Dean of Student Affairs for Enrollment and Student Financial Services.

A recent study shows that a one percentage-point increase in the unemployment rate leads to an increase in total FTE (full-time equivalent) enrollment of 1.093 percent. The study used an econometric regression model and enrollment data for all Oregon community colleges from 1986-87 through 2005-06.

Lane does not report official enrollment figures until the fourth week of each term. Submitted by the editor.

TUTORING SERVED 3,100 STUDENTS; GRADES IMPROVED

The coordinated effort to serve credit students with peer tutor support continues this academic year. Last year the combined departments served over 3,100 students and generated more than 56 FTE. Students surveyed expressed a significant increase in grades earned due to the tutoring support. Of those surveyed, 37 percent expected an A or B before tutoring. That grew to a whopping 81 percent after tutoring. Likewise, the 15 percent who expected non-passing grades before tutoring dropped to 1 percent.

Tutoring will continue in the following subjects: Academic Learning Skills, Accounting, Business, Computers, Math, Music, Psychology, Science, Speech and Writing. Hopefully you have received a sticky pad with 25 pre-printed notes listing the locations of tutor centers. Please stick one on the first assignment returned to students to help get the word out. Tutors will begin week two. Instructors are encouraged to bring classes to the appropriate tutor center for a tour. By talking about tutoring as the student success strategy that it is, we can help reduce the stigma that keeps many students away.

And remember, just because a student has visited a tutor, does not mean that the assignment will be done perfectly. Tutors work with students at their current skill level. Like weight loss, improvement happens gradually with persistence. The earlier in the term a student begins working with tutors the better. Thanks for spreading the word. Questions? Contact Liz Coleman 463-5783.

NEWSOPEN SECTIONS WEB TOOL HELPS BUSY FIRST DAY GO SMOOTHLY

Lane was busy Monday as increased enrollment swelled classrooms and service offices on the first day of classes, but the day seemed to go smoothly, and students seeking open sections seized on a new web tool.

"Ron Rourke developed with Don McNair an incredible open section look-up tool on the web that refreshes every 30 minutes to show open classes," says Director of Enrollment Services/Registrar Helen Garrett. "This was a huge success!" From the homepage, select Fall Classes, then Credit Class open section list.

Facilities Director Dave Willis said parking went well, with lots filling about 10:30 a.m. but drivers showed patience and a good attitude. As usual, lot N above the baseball field was the last to fill.

There was one glitch in the Student Services building, however, Garrett says. "We ran out of toilet paper in women's bathroom." Submitted by the editor.

LANE'S BOND IN THE NEWS

See KVAL TV Channel 13's report from yesterday, "Lane Community College bond on November 4 ballot," on the web at www.kval.com/news/29917409.html

Tom Adams reported, "Election time is 36 days away and lost in the din of candidate chatter is a bond measure a local college hopes you won't overlook." He reported that the bond would "fix or replace aging systems to power and heat the campus" and his tour of campus included a look at a 1960s-circa emergency generator for which parts are no longer available and which shuts down after about 20 minutes of use when it overheats. If you or someone you know might have overlooked some details about the bond and Lane's aging infrastructure, go online at www.lanecc.edu/bond2008 to learn more, or contact Tracy Simms at 463-5889 or simmst@lanecc.edu

LEE IMONEN PARTICIPATES IN REGIONAL ART EXHIBIT

Lane sculpture instructor Lee Imonen is one of five Northwest artists chosen for the forest art installation, Natural Cycles: A Celebration of Art in the Forest, on the Trillium Trail at Tryon Creek State Park in Portland. The exhibit opened last weekend. Its purpose is to stimulate an awareness of how nature and art are intertwined. The temporary artworks will be on display for a year during regular park hours.

Imonen's work is called the Source Series and has three pieces, Picket Fence, Pine Box, and Lumber Unit, each made from a single salvaged or windfall tree. Half of each log will remain in its natural form, while the other half will be reconfigured and emerge into an object that would typically be made from that wood. The series is intended to highlight the transformation of materials from one form into another, reaffirm our dependence on natural resources and foster an awareness of the origins of common materials surrounding each of us.

Other participating artists are Brennan Conaway of Portland; Julie Lindell of Seattle; Jen Pack of Warrenton, OR; and Vicki Lynn Wilson of Portland.

Natural Cycles is a collaborative project between Friends of Tryon Creek State Park, the Regional Arts and Culture Council (RACC) and Oregon State Parks. The 775-acre Tryon Creek State Park is located at 11321 SW Terwilliger Blvd. in southwest Portland. Submitted by the editor.

It's fall, and we can all feel that change is coming. The Community College Moment is now accepting submissions for its 2009 issue, with the theme of New Directions. We all know our world is changing. But how do we respond to change? What directions do we take -- in political, social, economic, environmental, and technological areas? What has changed in our disciplines? What has changed in our students and in the ways they learn? What new paths are open for them? What new ways might we view our educational and institutional practices? How do we maintain relevance, practicality, and the integrity of the mission of higher education? Where do we go from here? Submission deadline for 2009 issue is October 27, 2008. Contact: Ken Zimmerman.

LINDA SCHANTOL NAMED CLASSIFIED EMPLOYEE OF THE YEAR

Linda Schantol was named Outstanding Classified Employee of the Year at the all-staff in-service meeting on September 23. Linda is the administrative coordinator in the Language, Literature and Communication division and has been at Lane since 1998. Linda was named Outstanding Classified Employee of the Month of April, and her nomination form included contributions from 16 faculty and staff members from the division and college community. One faculty member refers to her in her nomination as "Linda 'not-a-problem-is-my-middle-name' Schantol." She is effective at "herding" a very divergent group of people, providing boundaries and limits, and speaking her mind with integrity. She is a center of gravity that people turn to for problems large and small. She is beloved by her colleagues and an asset to the college.

When you see Linda, congratulate her for doing a terrific job and celebrate her award as the Outstanding Classified Employee of the Year.

And remember that, you too, can help us to recognize exemplary Classified employees by nominating them for the Employee of the Month award. Nomination forms are available: 1) at the Human Resources office; 2) on the CPDT webpage at www.lanecc.edu/cpdt/eom.html . Submitted by Donna Zmolek.

IT'S YOUR CAMPUS

Help shape a long-range vision for a campus that is accessible, sustainable, user-friendly, and a positive environment for learning as part of a year-long campus master planning initiative. Lane's Facilities Council and Bond Leadership Team, in cooperation with student government, would like to know what you think about the places you use on campus. What works? What doesn't work? What physical obstacles do you face? When we repair or remodel spaces, what kinds of things would make it easier for you to accomplish your goals?

Together, our many voices will help to identify strengths and weaknesses, to envision incremental steps for enhancing what is positive and improving what is negative, and to develop design guidelines that help move us, over time, in the direction we want to go.

Please take a short survey in ExpressLane starting on Friday, October 10. There are five questions, and you can say as much or as little as you want about places at Lane. If other ideas occur to you after you've finished the survey or if you have questions, you can send an email to yourcampus@lanecc.edu . Submitted by Margaret Robertson, Facilities Council chair.

INDOOR TEMPERATURE GUIDELINES

We at Facilities Management and Planning understand the importance of a comfortable work and study environment and want to work with everyone to save energy and maintain comfort.

With the change of season upon us this is an appropriate time to remind everyone of the indoor temperature guidelines, adopted in 2006 as part of the energy policy, and in an effort to balance a comfortable learning and working environment with energy conservation. We recognize that comfort varies for individuals and have developed indoor temperature guidelines based on scientific studies to create comfortable conditions for the greatest number of students and staff.

Warm Weather Month Guidelines: 74 to 77 degrees F

Cool Weather Month Guidelines: 68 to 73 degrees F
Ancillary Space (Hallways, Lobbies, Stairwells): 63 to 82 degrees F

Notes:

- During transition months, such as October and April, guideline ranges expand to 68 to 77. These expanded ranges also apply during extreme weather conditions and periods of high electric demand.
- Guidelines are applied during normal business hours.
- Staff and students are encouraged to wear clothing that can be adjusted to maintain personal comfort.

If you feel that temperatures are too high, (higher than 78 degrees F), or too cool, (lower than 68 degrees F), in your area please contact Facilities Management and Planning at ext. 5216 or e-mail at FacilitiesOffice@lanecc.edu .

WATER CONSERVATION TIP OF THE WEEK--WHY SAVE WATER?

Lane uses more than 30 million gallons and spends over $70,000 on water each year. Aside from saving money, reducing water use also saves energy, reduces chemicals used to treat water, and preserves natural habitat by keeping more water in the McKenzie River. Each week this term, Lane's Sustainability Office will provide an easy tip for saving water. By working together, we can make a significant difference. Contact: Jennifer Hayward.

SMOKING AREAS UPDATE

There are 10 official designated smoking areas on the main Lane campus. Smoking areas with cover or shelters include the following locations: southwestern corner of parking lot N to the north of Building 7, between Buildings 10, 11 and 12; between the performing arts Building 6 and Building 11, northwestern second floor corner near the Center Building, just north of the west entrance to the library; on the north side of Building 19 under the skybridge; between the Center and Building 17 on the ground level; on the north side of Building 16; on the east side of Building 8; in Lot E on the south side of Building 19. The designated area that isn't covered is the area at the southwest corner of Building 9.

Each year we have new students and employees who need to become aware that these are the only areas designated as smoking areas on the main campus. Since enrollment is up this year, the challenge to spread this information is even more important. Your support will help keep second hand cigarette smoke from entering our buildings fresh air intake systems, and cigarette butts from littering the campus grounds. Thank you for helping to keep our campus beautiful, healthy, and welcoming. If you have any questions regarding this request, contact Wendy Simmons at extension 5551.

I CAN, ONE CAN FOOD DRIVE

In September, 25 pounds of food was donated. The Downtown Center collected 18 food items. This makes a total of 370 pounds since May. If 20 people donate one can a food a month that will be food for two food boxes for a family of four. With more and more people in need, Food for Lane County is short of food. Help out by bringing your can or other non-perishable food each month. Contact Beverly Farfan. 5395, to locate a collection box near you.

COMMUNITY COLLEGE MOMENT SEEKS SUBMISSIONS

What's new? The Community College Moment wants to know. We are now accepting submissions for the 2009 issue, with the theme "New Directions." We invite articles, interviews, photographs, artwork, academic research, creative writing, and other original work relevant to the community college mission and environment.

In addition to submissions on any topic relevant to the Moment's audience, we are looking for works addressing our 2009 theme, New Directions. We all know our world is changing. But how do we respond to change? What directions do we take--in political, social, economic, environmental, and technological areas? What has changed in our disciplines? What has changed in our students and in the ways they learn? What new paths are open for them? In what new ways might we view our educational and institutional practices? How do we maintain relevance, practicality, and the integrity of the mission of higher education? Where do we go from here?

Submission deadline for 2009 issue: October 27, 2008. Contact: Ken Zimmerman, zimmermank@lanecc.edu. Website: <http://teach.lanecc.edu/ccm/submissions>

NEWS

INTERNATIONAL ESL ENROLLMENT INCREASES

International ESL enrollment is up from 22 students in fall 2007 to 37 students this fall, an increase of 68 percent. Students this term come from the United Arab Emirates, South Korea, Hong Kong, China, Brazil, Japan, Burkina Faso, Vietnam, Guatemala, and Tajikistan, and include 24 returning and 13 new students.

Remember, we have moved offices in an effort to increase efficiency and accessibility for students. The three international student program staff are now together in building 11. Contact: Cathy Lindsley, 5441.

WHO ENDORSES THE BOND?

An ad in the latest Torch, and in today's Register-Guard, lists some of the supporters of Lane's bond. Among these are organizations including the Democratic and Republican parties of Lane County, individuals such as U.S. Rep. Peter DeFazio and state Sen. Vicki Walker, and many others. For more information about Lane's bond, go online to <http://www.lanecc.edu/bond> or contact Tracy Simms in the President's Office at 463-5200.

EMPLOYEE GIVING CAMPAIGN LAUNCHED

Last week, the college launched the combined LCC Foundation and United Way Giving campaign. It is an opportunity for Lane staff to support our students through Foundation giving, and the entire community through United Way giving.

Department reps and managers set a challenge goal of 51 percent participation and $115,000, up from 48 percent and $112,000 in 2007. The group reasoned that when times are tough, the community needs our help more than ever. Donors who return their pledge cards to the Foundation office by Friday at noon will be entered into a drawing for fabulous prizes. Departments with 100 percent participation will receive home-baked chocolate chip cookies for everyone.

If you have questions, please contact Cathy Lindsley, Lane's Employee Giving Campaign chair at 5441 or Bonnie Phipps 5135.

TIP FOR GIVERS: If you want to make a single payment with a check, please write separate checks--one to: LCC Foundation/your department and one to: United Way/LCC campaign.

FACILITIES SUMMER PROJECTS UPDATE

LONGHOUSE: Cedar shakes and roof are on and the longhouse is almost weather-tight for winter. Doors, windows, insulation, fire protection, and heating will be installed to complete this phase. Additional site work is being done to provide utility installations.

EXCEPTIONAL QUALITY BIOSOLIDS: Material from the lagoon ponds was removed and distributed throughout the campus for landscaping projects. The wastewater treatment project is nearing completion after several years of hard work and extensive planning with regulatory agencies.

RTS REMODEL AND MOVE: At the Aviation Maintenance Training Facility (AMTF) also know as Return-to-Service at the airport, contractors have installed a new stairway to a storage area and are working on infrastructure to provide electrical, gas and power to the equipment that will be moved from building 10. The move from building 10 has started with LCC staff and will continue through winter term. This work is needed to improve synergies within the Aviation Technology programs and provide swing space for the upcoming bond work (hopefully).

BUILDING 3 ADMINISTRATION REMODEL: Planning and pre-construction has started on creating offices from the conference room on the second floor of building 3. LCC trades will do the work.

CHILDCARE BUILDING 25 IMPROVEMENTS: Head Start is ready to occupy part of building 27 so LCC trades and a contractor made improvements were made to building 25 to accommodate LCC functions. Signage at the childcare buildings was updated to reflect the department changes.

ART DEPARTMENT REMODELS: Building 11, room 131 and building 10, room 200, have been remodeled to accommodate changes in the art program. Carpenters, general services, the locksmith, and electricians have been involved.

FLORENCE HVAC CONTROLS UPGRADE: The controls contractor has completed two visits to test connections to the existing building management systems in preparation for the installation phase of the project.

SOLAR ELECTRIC INSTALLATION: The solar panel has been installed at building 24 and work is proceeding in preparation for the project's final electrical inspection. This work includes installing concrete at the base of the poles and installing signs on electrical equipment.

EXTERIOR LIGHTING CONTROLS UPGRADES: 12 electronic controls systems were installed this summer to upgrade daylight saving time and increase energy efficiency programming options. The project covers a substantial part of the parking lot and exterior building lighting on main campus. Commissioning by the electrical shop staff and energy analyst started on October 3. We appreciate your patience as we work on programming schedules and staff training for these new systems.

COTTAGE GROVE WALL REPAIR: A persistent leak in a wall has been repaired by outside contractors with help from LCC trades. The blue tarp has finally been decommissioned.

PARKING LOT IMPROVEMENTS: LCC painters with extra part-time help painted lines and curbs in parking lots this summer. Several more ADA parking stalls were added to the campus inventory. A contractor did patching and overlay in some of the lots. An improved drop off/pick up shelter area with ADA access is being installed north of building 7 Campus Services. Future plans are for improvement to the Ride Source van drop off/pickup area.

BUILDING 7 REMODEL: Facilities electrical shop and grounds shops were relocated this summer with the help of part-time staff.

DENTAL LAB UPGRADE: The building 4 lab has been completed and ready for use fall term.

CENTER RELIEF FAN REPLACEMENT: The project to help control air in the Center building has been completed except for some air balancing. Some staff has noticed the doors now close. Indoor air quality will improve with more fresh air and better control of cooking smells and fumes re-entering the building.

POWER WASHING CONCETE: General Services staff worked during the summer to power wash stairs and walkways around campus.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

BALLOT BOX ON CAMPUS

The "unofficial" ballot drop box has been set up in the hallway outside of room 206, Student Life and Leadership Development, in building 1. Last pickup and delivery will be November 4 at 5 p.m. Remember, if you mail your ballots, the cost will be $.59 cents. If there are enough requests, a ballot box can be added at the Book Consignment in the Center Building. Contact Bette Dorris, 5365.

USE OF LCC E-MAIL DISTRIBUTION LISTS

This is a reminder of the COPPS policy on the use of collegewide e-mail distribution list. This policy is not something new, nor is it a change in college practice. It was set up to ensure that we have an open method of communicating important and urgent messages to the entire college community. Send less urgent messages through other mediums like the Weekly staff newsletter (see <http://lanecc.edu/cops/newsletter.htm>) or more targeted departmental lists. Thank you for your understanding and adherence to this policy.

See the COPPS policy titled Information Technology: E-Mail Distribution Guideline, at <http://www.lanecc.edu/cops/email.htm> which says:

The electronic mail function which enables collegewide distribution of messages ("LCC Employees" distribution list) should be used only for messages of urgent, collegewide importance. Only messages directly related to college business should be distributed using the "LCC Employees" distribution list. General information of collegewide interest should be distributed through The Weekly.

The purpose of this guideline is:

1. To minimize network traffic;
2. To minimize staff reading time (each global message consumes roughly four hours of staff time which equates to well over $200);
3. To ensure college resources are used for college business (and not for peripheral or superficial issues); and
4. To maintain the solemnity of the "LCC Employees" distribution list; i.e., when a message appears addressed to "LCC Employees", it should be regarded as highly important and read immediately.

Respectfully submitted by Todd Lutz, Information Technology.

ACADEMIC CALENDAR APPROVED

The Academic Calendar for 2009-2010 was approved by the Board of Education on October 8. You can find one-year calendars and three-year calendars online at: <http://www.lanecc.edu/calendars/academic.html> or under the Quick Links tool on the homepage. Note that fall term 2009 will begin on a Tuesday, instead of the traditional Monday, in observance of Yom Kippur. The University of Oregon made the decision to delay its fall 2009 term by one day back in 2005 and we like to align our academic calendar with theirs since we have so many students taking classes at both schools. Contact: Helen Garrett, Associate Dean of Student Affairs, Enrollment and Student Financial Services.

TRANSPORTATION FEE INCREASE

Each year LTD reaffirms its contract with Lane, which allows us to give bus passes to students, taking credit classes on the main campus at a significantly discounted rate from the normal bus pass rate. The college is mindful of the costs passed on to students and is very deliberate when setting and increasing the transportation fee. The Board of Education approved an increase for the Transportation Fee from $19 to $22 effective winter term 2009, due to an increase from LTD to the college. Those students not taking credit classes on the main campus will continue to be assessed the $5 Transportation Fee. Contact: Helen Garrett, Associate Dean of Student Affairs, Enrollment and Student Financial Services.

LONG-TERM CARE OPEN ENROLLMENT

Open enrollment for voluntary "guaranteed issue" Long Term Care (LTC) Insurance for Lane employees is October 20-November 14. Human Resources has scheduled several information sessions to inform Lane employees about this product. No action is required for those already enrolled. Information sessions:

October 27: 9:00-10:00; 10:00-11:00 (building 5, room 206)

October 29: 1:30-2:30; 2:30-3:30 (building 5, room 206)

November 5: 10:00-11:00; 11:00-12:00 (building 5, room 206)

November 6: 3:30-4:30; 4:30-5:30 (building 5, room 206)

Submitted by Sharon Daniel.

COMMUNITY COLLEGE MOMENT SEEKS SUBMISSIONS

What's new? The Community College Moment wants to know. We are now accepting submissions for the 2009 issue, with the theme "New Directions." We invite articles, interviews, photographs, artwork, academic research, creative writing, and other original work relevant to the community college mission and environment.

In addition to submissions on any topic relevant to the Moment's audience, we are looking for works addressing our 2009 theme, New Directions. We all know our world is changing. But how do we respond to change? What directions do we take--in political, social, economic, environmental, and technological areas? What has changed in our disciplines? What has changed in our students and in the ways they learn? What new paths are open for them? In what new ways might we view our educational and institutional practices? How do we maintain relevance, practicality, and the integrity of the mission of higher education? Where do we go from here?

Submission deadline for 2009 issue: October 27, 2008. Contact: Ken Zimmerman, zimmermank@lanecc.edu. Website: <http://teach.lanecc.edu/ccm/submissions>

CHILEAN MAPUCHE HISTORIAN PABLO MARIMAN LECTURE

Wednesday, October 29, 2:30-4:00 p.m., building 17, room 309

The Lane Diversity Office is supporting a group of local organizations promoting human rights to invite the Chilean Mapuche historian Pablo Mariman to Lane. See

<http://www.mapuche-nation.org/english/frontpage.htm>

Mariman will be giving a lecture at Lane in the context of a collaborative project to promote awareness of interethnic relationships based on reciprocity and mutual respect. His lecture will be about the current struggles of the Mapuche people in the context of globalization. The Mapuche Territory was recognized as a nation by the Spanish rule. The democratic governments of the last 18 years inherited a fascination for neo-liberal politics, and this loyalty has pushed them to commit serious human rights abuses. Chile is one of the Latin American countries with the lowest standards of rights for indigenous peoples. Take advantage of this unique free opportunity at Lane. TERRY STARR NAMED OCTOBER CLASSIFIED EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

Kudos and congratulations go to October's Classified Employee of the Month - Terry Starr in Facilities Management & Planning. Representatives of the Classified Professional Development Team joined staff of the FMP to present Terry with the Employee of the Month. Terry has been with LCC since October 2000 as a painter in FMP. His colleagues gave numerous examples to justify his receiving this award. To name just a few, Terry is one of the most conscientious trades' staff they have. He is the lead painter and actively researches the most recent products and does not stick with "we did that in the past". He is conscious of environmental hazards and conditions and is proactive in reducing emissions and fumes in the working environment. Terry always tries to seek solutions when there are projects or team meetings and has a calm personality, and a good sense of humor that prevents heated discussions. During the longhouse project, Terry's background and knowledge of native history and current tribes has been informative and educational, and he has made numerous contributions to the project, suggesting finishes and products, providing willing labor, and helping to protect the asset. Terry played in a band and has contributed his musical skills at Facilities holiday parties. He has been in the painting trade for over 35 years. When you see Terry, congratulate him for doing a terrific job and celebrate his nomination as October's Classified Employee of the Month.

And remember that, you too, can help us to recognize exemplary classified employees by nominating them for this award by the 15th of each month. Nomination forms are available: 1) on the CPDT website: <http://www.lanecc.edu/cpdt/eom.html> ; or 2) from Elaine Marsh, IRAP: marshe@lanecc.edu

You can see the entire report at <http://www.kiwimagonline.com/green-college-report/pdfs/GreenCollegeReport2008.pdf>. Submitted by Jennifer Hayward.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

EMPLOYEE GIVING CAMPAIGN - WEEK 2

For the next six weeks, you will be asked to consider a gift and payroll deduction options to make a difference in our community. Last year 48 percent of Lane employees gave $113,000 in our campaign. This year, the We Care Committee challenges each employee to consider giving to help those that need our help. A gift in any amount when combined with others goes a long way to impact the issues we care about most. Pledge cards can be returned to your department rep or forwarded to the Foundation, 5135.

RETURN YOUR PLEDGE CARDS WIN A PRIZE

Some of your colleagues have generously donated goods and services to the annual employee campaign. Winners will be drawn on Fridays at noon from donor's cards returned to the Foundation by 5:00 p.m. on Thursday, Oct 31. Drawings and donors:

* $20 Valley River Gift Certificate, Don McNair; * Kids Love Animals CD, Helen Garrett; * $5 coffee card, Michelle Erickson; * Ren Room Lunch for four, Kate Barry. * Blueberries, Christine Krygier; * Case of local organic apples, Sue Norton; * First Aid Kit, Mona Arbuckle; * T-Shirt from Wellness, Health, PE & Athletics; * Cashews, Almonds, Mixed Nuts, Nancy Hart.

ENERGY SAVINGS ALERT

WATER CONSERVATION TIP - TURN OFF WATER WHILE WASHING HANDS

You can help conserve water on campus and at home by turning off the tap. If we all turn off the water while washing our hands, we can save the college thousands of gallons of water per year and a put a good dent in our over $70,000 annual water expenditure. Make sure to turn off the water while washing hands and brushing teeth at home too.

WHAT'S NEW?

The Community College Moment wants to know. In addition to all regular submissions (articles, essays, sabbatical reports, literary works, art, photographs, and works-in-progress) the Moment is looking for very short commentaries (a paragraph to a page) in response to the following questions: What's new in your discipline or in your area of service to the college, and what's new in the processes of teaching, learning, and serving our students? Your responses may be rough or polished, impromptu or deeply researched. Our goal will be to select, excerpt from, edit, and compile these comments into a feature piece, opening up to our readers some of the new thinking and new directions in many areas of the community college environment. What's new in your area? Let us know.

The deadline for these special submissions, and all regular submissions, is Friday, November 14.

Contact: Ken Zimmerman (zimmermank@lanecc.edu), Russell Shitabata (shitabatar@lanecc.edu)

MOMENT DEADLINE EXTENDED

The deadline for submissions for the 2009 issue of the Community College Moment has been extended until Friday, November 14, 2008. We invite articles, interviews, photographs, artwork, academic research, creative writing, and other original work relevant to the community college mission and environment.

In addition to submissions on any topic relevant to the Moment's audience, we are looking for works addressing our 2009 theme, New Directions. We all know our world is changing. But how do we respond to change? What directions do we take - in political, social, economic, environmental, and technological areas? What has changed in our disciplines? What has changed in our students and in the ways they learn? What new paths are open for them? In what new ways might we view our educational and institutional practices? How do we maintain relevance, practicality, and the integrity of the mission of higher education? Where do we go from here?

Submission deadline for 2009 issue: November 14, 2008

CROSS COUNTRY THANK YOU

Lane Community College hosted the OSAA State High School Cross Country Meet on Saturday for the 37th year in a row! Student-athletes representing 150 different high schools were greeted by 4,000 spectators. Thank you to those staff members who assisted with the event. Special thanks to the Health/PE/Athletics Staff, Grounds Dept., Public Safety, General Services, and Housekeeping. Next year's date is Saturday, November 7, 2009. Thank you from Grady O'Connor, meet director.

EMPLOYEE CAMPAIGN REPORT - WEEK 3

If every employee who gave last year increased their pledge by $2 per pay period, we'd raise an additional $16,896. If every employee who did not give last year contributed $5 per pay period (that's 50 cents per working day, less than a cup of coffee), we could easily increase our campaign by 40 percent! More importantly, we would make a statement that Lane employees care about each other and making a difference in the lives of our students.

Each Friday at noon, the Foundation will hold a drawing from donors who have returned pledge cards. Everyone can win! This weeks winners are: $20 Valley River Gift Certificate, Maria Elena McCoy; Kids Love Animals CD, Lois Frichtl; $5 coffee card, Janet Anderson; Ren Room Lunch for 4, Colleen Cairney; Blueberries, Dawn Barth; case of local organic apples, Lorina Johnson; First Aid Kit, Kevin Williams; Tee Shirt, Susan Roders. Congratulations! Submitted by Janet Anderson.

WATER CONSERVATION TIP OF THE WEEK - BOTTLED WATER, JUST LOADS OF RUBBISH

Manufacturing the more than 30 billion disposable plastic water bottles Americans bought in 2006 required the equivalent of more than 17 million barrels of oil, produced more than 2.5 million tons of carbon dioxide, and used three times the amount of water in the bottle. Please use a refillable container instead of purchasing water in disposable bottles. Refillable liquid containers are available in a variety of sizes and styles from Lane's Bookstore at prices ranging from $9.99 to $15.99. Contact: Jennifer Hayward.

KUDOS

Kristen Murphy, graphic/fine artist and administrative specialist in the Health Clinic, was honored at a reception in Lake Oswego this summer. Her artwork "Here I Am" was among the 30 pieces selected from 1,100 entries that were exhibited in a juried show at the Lake Oswego Arts Festival. Kris has had several works selected for the Mayor's Art Show as well as earning the Juror's Choice award in Eugene. Submitted by Mona Arbuckle.

ERIC SCHULTZ "THOUGHTS ON DIRECTION" EXHIBIT

The Lane Community College Art Gallery presents "Thoughts on Direction," a collective body of work by local sculptor Eric Schultz. In reflecting on this new collection, Schultz says, "Sculpture, for me, is comparable to the advent of the railway for humanity: cataclysmic, revolutionary, important, and a courier of changes whose effects and ultimate destination would be uncertain at best. This body of work represents an exploration of this period of my personal journey, and the challenges and revelations that have come along with it." The show runs from Nov. 17 through Dec. 4. There will be an artist's talk on Nov. 20 at 2:30 p.m. and a reception from 5-7 p.m. the same day, both in the gallery. The gallery is located in building 11. For information call 463-5409.

COMMUNITY COLLEGE MOMENT SPECIAL FEATURE: NEW DIRECTIONS

What's new? The Community College Moment wants to know. In addition to all regular submissions (articles, essays, sabbatical reports, literary works, art, photographs, and works-in-progress) the Moment is looking for very short commentaries (a paragraph to a page) in response to the following questions: What's new in your discipline or in your area of service to the college, and what's new in the processes of teaching, learning, and serving our students? Your responses may be rough or polished, impromptu or deeply researched. Our goal will be to select, excerpt from, edit, and compile these comments into a feature piece, opening up to our readers some of the new thinking and new directions in many areas of the community college environment. What's new in your area? Let us know. The deadline for submissions to the Community College Moment for our 2009 issue is this Friday, Nov. 14. See the submissions announcements below. Contact the editors with any questions or comments. Submitted by Ken Zimmerman.

COMMUNITY COLLEGE MOMENT CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

The Community College Moment is now accepting submissions for the 2009 issue, with the theme "New Directions." We invite articles, interviews, photographs, artwork, academic research, creative writing, and other original work relevant to the community college mission and environment.

In addition to submissions on any topic relevant to the Moment's audience, we are looking for works addressing our 2009 theme, New Directions. We all know our world is changing. But how do we respond to change? What directions do we take - in political, social, economic, environmental, and technological areas? What has changed in our disciplines? What has changed in our students and in the ways they learn? What new paths are open for them? In what new ways might we view our educational and institutional practices? How do we maintain relevance, practicality, and the integrity of the mission of higher education? Where do we go from here? Submission deadline for 2009 issue: Nov. 14. Submitted by Ken Zimmerman.

A GOOD WAY TO HELP STUDENTS

A small regular deduction from your paycheck is a good way to support students and projects. It's not too late to make a big difference in the lives of students for years to come.

Complete and sign an LCC Foundation pledge card to designate your total gift amount and amount of monthly deductions. Deductions can be set up for a specific period of time. LCC Foundation pledge cards are available. You may also use your United Way forms to designate your gifts to any of the following:

1. Adopt a Titan: We currently have over 160 full time student athletes on campus. Each year, coaches and program supporters raise money to provide talent grants for student athletes. With payroll deductions of approximately $20 per pay period, you and your co-workers could Adopt a Titan and provide valuable assistance to outstanding athletic programs.

2. The Longhouse Construction Fund. We're nearly there! Please consider renewing your giving to the Longhouse. Many of the private gifts have been used as matching funds. Many of the pledges have been doubled. Direct your donations to the Longhouse Construction Fund, or your contribution will not be counted toward the completion of this valuable project. Donations of any amount are welcome. To be a "Friend of the Longhouse" individuals or groups will need to pledge a minimum of $1,000. Individuals or groups donating $1,000 or more will be recognized as Friend of the Lane Longhouse when the building is completed (either a plaque or engraved bricks, or some other suitable form of recognition).

3. The Women in Transitions Program. This program has long history of "transforming lives through learning." Your donations provide needed support for women and their families while at Lane. Women who complete the transitions program have an excellent retention and success rate in their subsequent terms at Lane. Submitted by Barb Delansky.

PNUEMOVAX VACCINE

Are you age 65 or older? Do you have long-term health problems, or are you taking medications which can lower your resistance to infection? You may be a candidate for pneumococcal disease, which is an extremely serious illness. The Health Clinic is now carrying the Pnuemovax vaccine ($40) which can eliminate this risk. And have you had your yearly flu shot? Flu is now officially in Oregon. Schedule an appointment by calling 463-5665.

WATER CONSERVATION TIP OF THE WEEK - REPORT LEAKS

One leaky faucet can waste five gallons of water a day and 2082 gallons per year. Please report leaky faucets and other water wasting equipment by submitting a work order through MPulse. Facilities Management and Planning will fix them as soon as possible. Calculate how much water you can save on campus and at home by following this link <http://ga.water.usgs.gov/edu/sc4.html> Contact: Jennifer Hayward, 5594.

NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

GREG WILTON NAMED EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

Kudos and congratulations go to December's Classified Employee of the Month, Greg Wilton in Advanced Technology. Representatives of the Classified Professional Development Team joined staff in the Welding Building Lab to present Greg with the Employee of the Month award. Greg started working part-time at LCC in 1992 as a tool room aide. He started full-time in March 2001 as an instructional specialist in the Welding Program for Advanced Technology. Colleagues gave numerous examples to justify his receiving this award. To name just a few, Greg has outstanding rapport with students, staff, and vendors. He is creative and innovative; a pre-eminent problem solver. Greg is noted as having a great sense of humor and serves as a role model for effective communication and in problem solving. His philosophy, with tight resources, is "live within your means." A question he often asks is: "What can we do with what we have, and where can we find more?" Overall, Greg manifests integrity, honesty, and engenders respect. When you see Greg, congratulate him for doing a terrific job and celebrate his nomination as December's Classified Employee of the Month. And remember that, you too, can help us to recognize exemplary classified employees by nominating them for this award by the 15th of each month. Nomination forms are available on the CPDT website at <http://www.lanecc.edu/cpdt/eom.html> or from Elaine Marsh, IRAP, marshe@lanecc.edu

AAWCC SILENT AUCTION RESULTS

The American Association for Women in Community Colleges expresses heartfelt gratitude to everyone who supported the chapter by donating items and participating in its annual silent auction held last week in the home of Siv Serene Barnum. The event was great fun as women from around campus gathered to get to know one another and purchase some holiday gifts. The auction brought in over $500, which will go towards student scholarships and professional development opportunities. Submitted by Donna Zmolek, 5301.

BOOKSTORE THANKS

Many thanks to everyone who participated in the Bookstore Holiday Raffle. Thanks to you, $625 was raised and will be used to assist Lane student families this holiday season. Thanks to Jill Bradley, and the Women's Center for assisting with ticket sales, and with the distribution of the proceeds to Lane students. Congratulations to the raffle winners: Kelly Irish won the iPod with docking station; James Florendo won the TV; and Liz Coleman won the stereo. Congratulations also go to Marcia Bell who won the cordless phone at the Bookstore's One Special Night drawing. Happy Holidays! Vicki Colley.

COMMUNITY GIVING THANKS

WHITEAKER COMMUNITY THANKSGIVING DINNER EXTENDS A HEARTFELT THANKS to Chef Clive Wanstall and Chef Chris Crosthwaite, the many Culinary Arts Program students, and the Lane Food Service and Catering departments for cooking the 2000 pounds of turkey and almost all the other food that was served to more than 2500 men, women, and children who attended the free dinner. Thank you, to all the Lane staff and students who helped with the event and many preparation activities, including the Hospitality Management program instructors and students.

LANE SPREADS THE WARMTH TO MANY. It is hard to describe the looks on peoples' faces as they receive a new sleeping bag, many of the guests spending the cold night waiting in line. Whiteaker Community Thanksgiving Dinner thanks the Lane staff, students, and friends who donated to this year's Sleeping Bag Drive. A special thanks to the ASLCC. We were able to pass our goal of 250 bags and bought 264 sleeping bags and 150 blankets. Special thanks to Sue Thompson from the Health, PE, and Athletics and Coop Education Departments who organized the collection and with her great Lane group distributed these items early that morning to the many waiting guests. Thanks you to Gee McKeegan for coordinating the distribution of clothing and other needed items. Thank you to the cafeteria workers and everyone who put in money in our Spread the Warmth sock jars. We collected $400 which purchases 400 pairs of warm winter socks. Again thank you to all the Lane staff, students, and friends who shared in this warm experience of community coming together.

DANCE PROGRAM ADDS 97 FOOD ITEMS TO THE, I CAN, ONE CAN FOOD DRIVE. In November Lane collected 207 pounds of food with special thanks to the Dance Program for their food collection during their fall term open show performance. Each month more people are requesting food boxes. As the need increases the amount each person and family receives decreases. You can help by giving one can of food a month. Look for the I Can, One Can food collection box in your office or contact Beverly Farfan 463-5395, farfanb@lanecc.edu. Thank you to all who have contributed to this community effort.

For more information about community giving, contact Beverly Farfan.
