

Statement of Concern About Materials in the LCC Library

LCC Library is committed to the principles of intellectual freedom. There may be materials in the Library's collection which concern some individuals or groups. The acquisition of such materials does not imply approval or endorsement of their contents or opinions, but enables the Library to fulfill its role in providing information and resources reflecting diverse perspectives. For additional information on how the Library selects materials, please read our collection development policy.

The Library is also committed to respond to concerns expressed about materials in the collection, and has a formal process for reconsidering materials. To make a formal request for reconsideration of materials, please download and complete this form, and return it to the Library:
