How to Use NoodleTools to Create Bibliographies

Begin on the Library’s website at library.lanecc.edu

Click on the green “Citation Guides and NoodleTools” button:

Click on the NoodleTools Logo:

Then click on “Go to NoodleTools.”

Click on the "Register" button on the left side of the screen. Then fill out the form in order to register for a NoodleTools account.

After you have registered, click on the “New Project” button in the upper left corner of the website:

Give your project a name:

Choose your citation style:

Choose how complicated you want the form to be:

To begin citing sources, click “Sources” in the navigation bar at the top:

On the Sources screen, click “Create new citation.”

Select the best match for your source from the choices given:

To request this information in an alternate format, please contact the Center for Accessible Resources at (541) 463-5150 or accessibleresources@lanecc.edu
Choose the subcategory that best matches your source:

Fill out the form that appears with information about your source, such as the title, date, and author information:

When you are finished filling out the form, click on the “Save” button:

Click on the “Create New Citation” button to add another citation. Repeat until you have finished adding sources to your bibliography.

When you have finished, click on the “Print/Export” menu to export a correctly formated bibliography to the word processing software of your choice:

Be sure to add your name, page number, and/or running title to the header of your document, according to the rules of MLA, APA, or Chicago, whichever style you are using!

To request this information in an alternate format, please contact the Center for Accessible Resources at (541) 463-5150 or accessibleresources@lanecc.edu