

8th ed. MLA Citations (2017)

Works Cited List at the end of the paper

The MLA 8th edition simplifies the rules and order of core elements needed to create bibliographic citations. The basic order of the elements and the correct punctuation that divides them is listed below. In most cases you will not use all these elements in a citation, only what is important or relevant to your source. Please note that MLA citations are doubled spaced.

1. Author Last name, First name.
2. Title of source.
3. Title of container, (example: journal title, newspaper, platform, etc.)
4. Other contributors, (example: illustrator, book editor, etc.)
5. Version, (example: volume, edition, revision, etc.)
6. Number,
7. Publisher,
8. Publication date,
9. Location. (example: database name, DOI, URL, etc.)
10. If the source is found online, add Accessed date in day month year format.
