

Inklings

The LCC Library's Newsletter for Faculty
Fall 2019

STUDY
JAM!

Study Jam in the Library

Wednesday, December 4th
5 p.m. - 8 p.m.

Prep for finals and get help with your assignments. Tutors and study support will be available, along with free pizza from Track Town Pizza!

LCC Library Makerspace Now Open!

A library makerspace is an area that offers people an opportunity to create materials using specialized tools and traditional arts and crafts supplies. Here is some of the equipment we provide in our Makerspace:

- Button makers
- 3D printers
- Glowforge laser cutter
- Cricut maker
- Sewing machine
- Materials for textile and paper crafts

The LCC Library Makerspace is open Tuesdays: 2:30-5:30pm, Thursdays: 2:30-5:30pm, and Fridays: 1-4pm or by appointment with the Student Help Desk (SHed@Lanecc.edu).

Free for all
Oregon residents!

LearningExpress Library is an online study database that is provided by the Oregon State Library and is freely available to all Oregon residents. LearningExpress Library helps students and adult learners improve the skills required for academic and career success.

LearningExpress Library Features:

- Skill-building tools for reading, writing, math & science
- Test prep for the TOEFL iBT and the TOEIC
- Test prep for the GED and the GED en español
- Tools for job searching and exploring new careers
- Tools to help job seekers craft resumes & cover letters
- Basic computing, Microsoft & Adobe software tutorials
- Spanish language tutorials in writing, reading and math
- Postal Worker and other federal exams
- Timed and untimed practice test modes

Access for LCC Students and Staff

1. Visit the LCC Library website at library.lanecc.edu
2. On the right, under “Specialty Resources,” click on “LearningExpress”

Access for Oregon Residents Not Affiliated with LCC

1. Visit the librariesoforegon.org website
2. Then click on the large “LearningExpress Library” button.